A Letter To IRS

Collector of Internal Revenue
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:
In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to Federal laws, State laws, County laws, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, and outlaws.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, light tax, water tax, gas tax, sales tax, liquor tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax, and excise tax. I am required to get a business license, a car license, operator's license, truck license, not to mention a marriage license and a dog license.

I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life: to women's relief, the unemployment relief, and the gold digger's relief. Also to every hospital and charitable institution in the city, including the Salvation Army, Community Chest, Red Cross, Purple Cross, Double Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., as well as Way Stations for Wayward Girls, Boys' Ranch and Boys' Town.

For my own safety I am required to carry health insurance, life insurance, fire insurance, property insurance, liability insurance, earthquake insurance, tornado insurance, airplane insurance, and old age insurance.

My business is so governed that it is no easy matter to find out who owns it. I am expected, inspected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded, and compelled, until I provoke an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire, or hope of the human race.

Simply because I refuse to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am almost ruined.

I can tell you honestly that except for a miracle that happened, I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors nowadays just had pups in my kitchen. I sold the pups and here is the money!

Yours very truly,

123 W. Jefferson Street
Los Angeles, California

P.S. Just received a notice in the mail that they want a pint of blood!

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Even though we are sometimes compelled to want to write such a letter, we can't truthfully believe one like this has ever been mailed.)

GIRL SCOUTS and Brownies begin their annual cookie sale at 4 p.m. Friday, and will continue selling through March 11. There are five different flavors to choose from, and they come in family-size packs this year, containing two 13 oz. boxes, selling for a $1. The Girl Scouts will be working toward different awards for selling a certain quota of cookies. Saundra Gay Beale, left, of Brownie Troop No. 440 and Penny Jones, right, of Girl Scout Troop 218 are busy packing their cookie boxes so they will be ready for the big event.

Happiness Is . . . Having Friends!!!

DID YA ever think how life would be without friends? Or can you imagine what a dull place this world would be? Pretty dull, huh? Most things these days can be bought, but not friendship! Friends should know you and like you for what you are. (Good or bad?)
With friends you can:
Laugh
Cry
Gossip
Play hooky
Gripe about teachers and homework
Drag main
Cat
Talk in the halls
Go to the ballgames
Have fun!

Cindy H. — What's blue, green, yellow, purple, black, brown, orange, and red?
Kathy G. — I don't know. What?
Cindy — A box of crayons.

(Is this a joke?)

Jerry S. — I'm sorry I took your car, your honor.
Judge — Why did you do it?
Jerry — It was parked in front of the cemetery, so naturally I thought the owner was dead.

R. R. — Stood up?
Those poor little shrubs!!! Ugh!!

"The key to happiness is discipline of the mind." Right seventh grade band???

C. S. — Did you get your hair rolled?
Daffynishion:
Ant — A small, hard-working insect that always finds time to go to picnics.
Sandals — Shoes with a blow-out.

Gary — Doc, I broke my arm in three places. What should I do?
Doc — Stay away from those people.

L. K. — Was the phone off the hook?
What's with this new interest in P.C., L.G., C.W., L.W., S.C., and D.C.?

Mrs. Reid — What are the Greats?
Debbie M. — The 747's.

Karen S. — What has four legs and sees equally well from either side?
Connie C. — I give up. What?
Karen S. — A blind horse.

J. J. and S. D. — Glitter!!!

Regina White — I crossed an ant and a lion.
Janice Lee — What did you get?
Regina — I don't know, but it's a picnic.

This week was the fourth anniversary week. Hope everyone passed!

Christy P. — Mom, you know that that has been passed on from generation to generation?
Mrs. Penn — Yes, what about it?
Christy — This generation drinks.

Ronald — On our first date there was something you liked about me.
Lori — Yes, but you spent it all.

An elderly couple was going to the doctor for the first time in 30 years. The doctor examined her swimsuit and said, "I've got to get a new swimsuit."
"How come?" asked her husband.
She said, "Mine's got a hole in the back."
Have a good week and . . . be frugal!

HONEY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

SA WAY IT GOES, about the time I decide to hang up my typewriter, some well-meaning soul gives forth with a word of encouragement.

Oh, no, it wasn't the editor, I think he's been sick of HIS deal ever since he made it. Just a little thing he can't gracefully back out of. (Or, hasn't.)

REALLY HAVEN'T figured out what it is that makes a guy want to see himself in print, anyway. — Might be that when I do, it'll cure me for good!

Started out on the pretext of thinkin' that if I could cause someone to give a little thought to some of our current trends, or give them a little chuckle, may be just cause them to smile, it'd be worthwhile.

THEN YOU GET THE idea that simply no one reads your stuff, and if they do, it's completely ignored. No one answers any crackpot argument, nor has anything to say in passing.

Guess it's like kissin' your sister-in-law. Maybe you enjoy it, but no one is supposed to know! — (Or, had I said that?)

THEN, OF COURSE, the thought of your efforts bein' at the mercy of that TAPE-SNIFFER down at the office is enough to make your blood run cold!

The thing I'm talkin' about is that computerized typesetter they've got. Simply no tellin', at all, what sort of mischief it may have on it's mind. 'S funny that it always seems to be the key words in a thought that it chooses to run amuck with!

FOR INSTANCE, in my last article, it chose to use $27.00 instead of $27,000. THEN, the thing that needed "Fixin'" needed "MIXIN'" — Chee-e! Makes you wanta' go down there and kick it right in the plug-in!

So, what? — So I miss an issue and this person wants to know why. Then the better half says, "Oh, yeah, I saw a lady from a neighboring town a few days back and she sends you word that she appreciates your writing." — Well-l-l!

I TELL YOU things can get worse! And, sure enough they do! — I gripe about hippie type hair and the school board drops the hair-code! — I bleed for law and order and the Supreme Court takes the other side!

I try to defend our stand in Vietnam, then learn that it's claimed the life of one of our kinsmen. I've griped about HEW and they've only grown stronger. (Especially in the welfare department.)

I've tried to defend the president and now he's over the East, hob-nobbin' around with the Reds! I try to defend the school board, and some are quittin', and seems, as of now, no one else wants the job!

SOME DAYS IT just don't pay to get outta' bed!
Don't sympathize with me! I'LL CRY!
However, I DO need someone to assure me that everything's alright!

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Without Money

By BOB WEAR

MONEY IS IMPORTANT, but not for its own sake. It is important, because it is the means by which we obtain food, clothing, shelter and other similar supplies.

It can also be used for all kinds of good and useful work.

THERE ARE TWO FAULTY attitudes about money. The one sees it as more important than it really is.

The other does not give it the proper importance, but looks upon it with contempt; or, at least, pretends to do so.

THE WISE USE OF MONEY can accomplish much good for all of us. Of course, unwise use of it can cause all kinds of trouble.

Money as a means of exchange, and an instrument for good is valuable. We readily acknowledge its place in our lives, but it is not everything.

"IT'S GOOD TO HAVE MONEY and the things that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure that you haven't lost the things that money can't buy." — Lorimer.

WE MUST REMEMBER that there are many good and useful things that can be accomplished without money.

In fact, there are some things that money cannot accomplish, and, if these things are done, they must be done without money.

MOST SELF-IMPROVEMENT can be made without money. There are some facets of personal betterment which cannot be obtained by money; they cannot be bought.

They are acquired by diligent and continuing effort; wise self-discipline; and careful adherence to well-established standards and principles of human behavior.

WE CANNOT BUY better attitudes, but we can develop better attitudes. We are not able to purchase a thousand dollars worth of better manners, but we can learn and put into practice the good manners we need.

We can never buy the skills we need to manage our lives well, but we can, with conscientious effort, learn these skills.

WE CAN BUY A HOUSE, but we can never buy a home. The love, the sharing, the kindness and understanding, the mutual concern and helpfulness, and the other blessings of a home cannot be bought.

These can be had without money.

LET US DO ALL of the good things with money that can be done with money, because the real value of it is determined by the way it is used.

We appreciate it and its potential, but it is not everything. Many, many things can be done without money.

MUCH COMMUNITY improvement can be made without money. If we are willing to work together, not caring who gets the credit, we can do many good things.

We can give our time, our energy, our skills and our wise concern. We can give ourselves to help do the work that needs to be done.

WE CAN ACCOMPLISH much that is important to us and others, and can do so without money.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

By BILL BOYKIN

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

INSURANCE AGAIN

made headline news on three fronts here. *President Nixon's Phase 2 inflation controls, the State Insurance Board said, will mean lower premium rates for hundreds of thousands of Texas homeowners.

*Lawmakers threatened to "put the state in the insurance business" unless rates are reduced for a new catastrophe pool designed to protect hurricane and other disaster-prone areas.

*An American Insurance Association executive offered to "guarantee" that no-fault auto insurance in Texas would bring a minimum cut of 25 per cent in bodily injury and property damage coverage rates.

New homeowners' insurance rates are expected to be issued May 1, effective June 1. A federal price commission order of a 37.5 per cent cut in the Board's "trend factor" (aimed at keeping rates up with normal inflation) may mean a reduction of 2.1 per cent in the Central Inland Territory. Usual rating formulas would have meant an increase of 5.9 per cent there.

While most fire and extended coverage rates will go up, the rise will be lower than expected due to new federal limits.

The State Insurance Board proposes to cut catastrophe pool rates for non-beach property about a third. Insurance companies strongly resisted. Legislators at a rate hearing retorted that the state may have to get into the insurance business.

Under the pool, authorized last year by the legislature, insurance companies are required to join in providing coverage for areas of the coast which cannot buy policies in the regular market.

The State Board of Insurance is studying effects of various no-fault insurance plans which provide compensation from a driver's own policy regardless of whether he was at fault in an accident.

MORE TIME SOUGHT

Texas is seeking more time to avoid loss of $24 million in highway funds.

Gov. Preston Smith has asked U. S. Secretary of Transportation John Volpe to extend the deadline for adopting prohibitions against additional erection of billboards adjacent to interstate and primary highways. A transportation department hearing officer proposed a May 31 deadline for the state act. Smith asked until Sept. 1, start of the new fiscal year.

BRINE DISCHARGES HIT

Parks and Wildlife Department Executive Director James Cross told a Senate study committee the Railroad Commission overruled 100 P.W.D. objections to brine discharges into public waters last year.

The Railroad Commission has authority to permit the discharges from oil field operations, although P.W.D. had assigned responsibilities to protect marine life.

A Commission staff member could remember no case where an oil operator's application for a discharge permit had been turned down. He said the Commission attempts to "educate" operators to avoid oil spills or threatens to revoke production allowances where conditions appear likely to cause spillage.

Cross suggested reviving of a bill to authorize the state to demand compensation for fish kills due to pollution.

AG OPINIONS

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held the state cannot pay the cost of primary elections without legislative authorization and appropriation, but he went back to a Dallas federal court for guidance.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: *The Legislative Property Tax Committee can employ attorneys and purchase or rent a law library for its codification research.

*The same committee, headed by Sen. James S. Bates of Edinburg, must purchase its supplies, materials and equipment through the State Board of Control as all other departments of state government do.

*Texas State Technical Institute has no authority to grant baccalaureate or bachelor degrees in technical education or technology at its James Connally campus in Waco.

*Texas Water Quality Board and Water Development Board must approve state loans to local governments for construction of waste water treatment facilities.

*A private non-profit water supply corporation cannot receive financial assistance from the state.

OIL ALLOWABLE SOARS

Texas Railroad Commission lifted the oil production allowable to 86 per cent of potential — highest in 13 months and third highest since "wide open" days right after World War II.

At the same time, Chairman Byron Tunnell warned that crude oil stocks — at 87.9 million barrels — are the lowest since 1966 and 20.2 million barrels less than a year ago.

Tunnell said pumping at the rate of a year ago would yield 100,000 barrels a day less oil.

REWRITE ORDERED

Texas Water Quality Board staff members have been ordered to rewrite a proposed regulation which would permit WQB Executive Director Hugh Yantis to issue or deny feed lot permits.

Both ecologists and cattle and poultry raisers opposed allowing Yantis such authority without requirement of notice or public hearing. Cattle and poultry industry spokesmen expressed doubt they could comply and opposed defining agricultural wastes as "ecological contaminants."

SHORT SNORTS

Parks and Wildlife Commission is expected to review the Mustang Island purchase controversy at a Friday, Feb. 25 meeting.

Sen. John G. Tower designated as his reelection campaign manager Mrs. Nola Smith of Austin, first Texas woman to run a statewide campaign.

Guidelines for implementing a new quarter system for Texas schools were reviewed here last week.

A record turnover in both the House and Senate is seen.
April 2-8 is Environmental Education Week.

Mocek And Mumme Are Student Teachers

By CATHY NELSON

Two new student teachers from Texas Tech are now working in cooperation with the teachers in the junior and senior high homemaking departments here.

As a student teacher one is required to work under an experienced mentor's guidance for seven weeks. This is a six hour required course which is done through the public schools.

Miss Clarice Mocek, at high school, and Miss Stella Mumme, at junior high, are both home economics education majors.

Miss Mocek is a native and 1968 honor graduate of Seymour High School. Her high school activities include being Outstanding Member and National Honor Society president; first vice-president, historian, and sergeant-at-arms in FHA; vice-president of FTA, and reporter and historian for the band. She was also president and reporter for the Catholic Organization.

Miss Mocek will receive her BS degree in May. While in college she has been a member of the American Homemaking Association, the Student Education Association, and has frequently been on the Dean's list.

Asked about her future, Clarice said, "I would like to start off my career in teaching and possibly later move into another field of homemaking."

From a family of five, Miss Mocek has one brother who is a civil engineer and a sister who is a junior in high school.

The young teacher's hobbies include sewing, tennis, and bowling. The area of the country which she enjoys most is the south and the coastline.

Miss Mumme is a graduate of Honda High School, Honda, where she was Area VII first vice-president in FHA and earned the FHA State Homemaking Degree. There she was also active in 4-H and Methodist youth organizations.

In college Miss Mumme has followed the pattern set in high school. In American Home Economics Association she has served as vice-president, vice-chairman of the education interest group, and as state convention hostess committee chairman, and in Ag. Eco she has served as reporter and been on the National Board of Directors. She was a delegate to the National AHFA Convention in Denver, to the Ag. Eco. convention in Illinois, to the State Home Economics

Association in Austin. Being baritone player in the Texas Tech Red Raider Band and a member of the Texas Tech rodeo Association ends the list of her college activities.

About her future she says: "I love country life; therefore, I plan to stay as close as possible to rural living. My interests are in home economics (particularly human relations) and agriculture. After I graduate I hope to find a job which relates to the two areas of my interest. Possibly I will go into County Home Demonstration work or teaching."

Stella's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mumme, have six children. Miss Mumme has two sisters and three brothers.

The interests of Stella extend to almost all phases of living. She enjoys working or playing in almost any activity. As far as sports go, she likes to participate more than observe. Miss Mumme likes to ride horses, swim, sew, construct or design, and be out of doors rather than inside. She enjoys going to rodeos, stock shows, dances, conventions, and church.

English Teacher Does Painting

By WANDA COTTER

That Mrs. Daphene Smith carries a full work load during the school year while teaching sophomore and junior English is hardly news to anyone, but few people know how this hobby enthusiast remains busy throughout the summer months. She enjoys oil painting, decoupage, and many other interesting hobbies.

Mrs. Smith began to "dabble" in oil painting seven years ago because she says that she had always wondered whether or not she had a talent for the craft. Landscapes are her preferred subjects, but she also enjoys still life paintings, she notes.

Decoupage and ceramics are two other skills on which Mrs. Smith spends much of her time and effort. She has also recently begun to learn a type of weaving which was taught to her by Mrs. Ima Roycroft, LHS counselor.

Speaking of the teacher's various hobbies, Mrs. Roycroft says: "Can you imagine formal Mrs. Smith sitting cross-legged in the middle of my den, laughing like a teenager and working on some craft projects?"

Many of Mrs. Smith's students are quick to admit that this is not quite the image she presents in the classroom.

However, Mrs. Smith is now herself a student again. During the spring semester, she is taking a three-hour course in library science at South Plains Junior College.

Her husband is currently engaged in converting their son's hobby room into a study which Mrs. Smith plans to use for her school work and her hobbies.

Reading, sewing, and crossword puzzles take up any spare time in her schedule. Although she says that she does not enjoy cooking, her father declares that she is a wonderful cook.

Mrs. Smith is involved in several extra-curricular activities at LHS. Serving as junior class sponsor and FTA adviser are just a few of these activities.

She notes that she realizes that all work and no play is a bad philosophy.

"I have learned to take time out and relax through my hobbies," states Mrs. Smith.

FTA Members Go To State

By CATHY NELSON

Highlight of the year for all Future Teachers of America members is the state convention which will be held this week Feb. 25-29 in Dallas. Chapter members turn in points which have been obtained by typing, filing papers, teaching in lower grades, and helping teachers in anyway possible. Those turning in the most points have the honor of going to state.

Leaving here tomorrow to represent their chapter at the convention are Miss Cynthia Adair, Thriess Bingham, Charlotte Jennings, and Carol White.

FTA is a service organization for the teachers which enables active members to determine the desirability of making teaching their career. The Texas State Teacher's Association assists this organization in every way possible.

From the creative mind of Joy Elmer Morgan, editor of the NEA Journal in 1929, came the dreams of an organization to be known as the Future Teachers of America. Not until 1937 did the NEA Representative Assembly vote to sponsor the FTA movement. Dr. Morgan was the developer of the ideas and the moving spirit behind the Future Teachers of America program until his retirement in 1954. During this period FTA grew from one high school club with 72 members to 2,441 high school clubs with 62,134 members and 562 college chapters with 29,504 members.

FTA continues to grow both in numbers and in the development of an attractive program for students who are taking a good look at "teaching as a profession." FTA is pioneering in the area of awards and spotlighting effective projects. This emphasis has caused annual state convention attendance and participation to more than double in the last years.

In 1970-71 Margaret Fain served as the state recording secretary. She is the only state officer which Littlefield has ever furnished. Mrs. Daphene Smith was her state advisor.

District XVII of FTA includes all chapters in Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, and Kent counties.

Miss Martha Brown of Littlefield is the state representative from district XVII.

The local chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Smith, is 15 years old. Chartered in 1956 it has always been one of the largest organizations in Littlefield High School. Although open to both boys and girls, for the past few years the local FTA has been composed only of females.

"The boys in our school seem to feel it would be 'sissy' to belong to FTA. They need to realize how much it would help them if they are planning to be coaches, ag teachers, science teachers, or even administrators. I just don't know why the boys aren't interested," Mrs. Smith commented.

Four out of seven of the state FTA officers are boys.

Miss Carol White presides over the local chapter as president. At her right hand is the vice-president, Miss Brown. Miss Carol Chisholm holds the office of secretary-treasurer; historian is Miss Amy Owens; Miss Thriess Bingham is parliamentarian; reporter is Miss Cynthia Adair; and Miss Charlotte Jennings serves the group by using her skills in photography.

The Littlefield Chapter of FTA meets the first Monday of each month.

The teacher's salad supper, election of an outstanding teacher, the teacher's coffee, the installation of officers, and the district convention, which was held in Levelland, are annual activities of the chapter.

Award Program To Honor Top Plains 4-H'ers

Outstanding 4-H Club members in the plains area will again be recognized with the Texas Plains Key Award, according to Dr. Don Stormer, state 4-H and youth leader.

Four-H members in Districts 1, 2 and 3 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are eligible for the award which is being sponsored for the second year by Custom Farm Services, a division of Cities Service Co.

"The Key Award Program recognized 4-H members who have given significant leadership in their communities and counties," noted Stormer. "Its aim is to encourage the development of outstanding citizens through a broad program of 4-H activities."

"We are proud to be associated with Custom Farm Services in this joint effort to recognize young people," added the 4-H and youth leader.

The award is a gold key which is mounted on a bracelet for girls and on a tie tac for boys. Recipients will also receive an honor certificate.

Award recipients are selected on a county basis with the number limited to not more than one percent of the 4-H Club members in the county. The awards will be presented in the fall when counties generally hold achievement programs or banquets.

GOOD TRACTION

Tire chains are still the best means of preventing a skid. However, studded and regular snow tires also provide better traction than normal tires. No tire is skid-proof, though—so be careful.

The nine traffic deaths for the month of January, 1972 occurred in the following counties: Lubbock, 3; Palo Pinto, 2; Cochran, Garza, Gray and Wheeler, one each.

Precautions Against Hog Cholera Outlined

Hog cholera, once on the brink of elimination from the state, has again gained a foothold — this time in South Texas. Fifty-four counties, including Lamb County, are now under state and federal quarantine.

Since the costly disease can be transmitted easily, hog producers are urged to use all precautions so that the disease will be curbed, points out County Agricultural Agent Buddy Logsdon.

If producers notice any sign of sickness among hogs or the animals go off feed, suspect hog cholera first.

The animals should be checked immediately by a local veterinarian or state or federal animal health official. Farrowing problems, abortions, still-born pigs and weak or "shaker" pigs may be due to cholera.

To protect hogs from cholera, the agent lists these steps:

1. Buy pigs from places you trust — bargain pigs may not be bargains after all.
2. Keep newly bought pigs away from other pigs for 30 days.
3. Don't mix your pigs with those of your neighbor.
4. Keep visitors out of the hog

lot. Cholera can be tracked from one place to another on boots, shoes, clothing or vehicles.

5. After hauling hogs, clean and disinfect your truck or trailer.

6. Don't feed garbage or table scraps to hogs unless it has been properly cooked (30 minutes at 212 degrees F.). To be safer yet, avoid feeding garbage altogether.

7. Turn in any hog cholera vaccine that you may still have on your premises to a local state or federal animal health official.

Logsdon emphasizes the importance of having sick hogs inspected by a veterinarian or a state or federal animal health official. Producers cannot collect indemnities on animals that die from hog cholera unless the animals have previously been inspected.

A three-month cholera-free period must pass before the state can revert back to Phase IV. Then it's an entire year free of cholera outbreaks before Texas can be declared "cholera free."

The opossum is no larger than a honeybee at birth.

BOBCATS who advanced to Wolves Monday night during the Blue and Gold were Mark Prentice, Jimmy Clark, David Jones, Kerry Hatley, Brett Goen and Rainbolt. Cubmaster David Jones, standing, monitored the advancement program.

H. DEAN PONTON, a magician from Lubbock, entertained three dens of Cub Scouts from Pack 641 during their annual Blue and Gold Banquet Monday night in the Community Center. He had just "worked magic" and made a tissue disappear. Pam Cox, while Dale Boleyn looks on.

class favorite her senior year. "She's always interested in people," said Mrs. Lucille Bryant, 1971 outstanding woman, in telling of the work Mrs. Cannon has done for others, "over and above" her duties as a newspaper publisher.

Mrs. Cannon began work as a typesetter and bookkeeper at the Olton paper eight years ago and became managing editor four years later. Early this year, she purchased the newspaper.

Quigley, presented the farmer of the year award by Raymond Lewis, farms 880 acres of cotton, milo, soybeans, corn and livestock. He came to Olton in 1957 after graduation from Oklahoma State University in 1956. He has coached Olton peewee baseball teams and is a local 4-H leader. He is a board member of the Lamb County Farm Bureau, the Springlake Lions, Olton Grain Co-op, Olton Pork Producers, and his church.

Speaker for the banquet was Don Newbury, director of community relations at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth.

His humorous talk led to a point that stability is needed in a shaky world, and he urged a declaration "of war against confusion." Retiring president of the Chamber Ken Burgess was presented a plaque for his service by Gene Trotter, the incoming president. Trotter introduced other officers and directors, including Melvin Rape, vice-president; Dr. Mike Smith, treasurer; and directors Leon Noack, Raymond Lewis, Larry Garvin, Major James, John Paul Jones, Fred Thompson, K. Y. Givens, Elmer Moore and James Cowart.

Also introduced were Eldon Franks, C-CA manager, and Billie Wilkinson, secretary.

Master of ceremonies was D. M. (Bud) Holt. Entertainment was by Jean Craft, Kathy Langford and Harold Dean Carson.

Homecoming Set At LCC

The first Homecoming Queen at Lubbock Christian College was crowned in 1962 and now ten years later, she is returning to participate in all the festivities on Feb. 25 and 26.

The college has undergone a complete physical change from WWII barracks and board sidewalks to permanent masonry buildings and a well landscaped mall crisscrossed with wide sidewalks since those early days of mud and dust starting in 1957.

The program consists of Master Follies, Alumni Chapel, Class Reunions, Social Club luncheons, Class of '62 Reception, Alumni Dinner, Outstanding Alumni Award, and coronation of the 1972 Homecoming Queen at the basketball game between LCC and Midwestern.

LCC has attained senior college status and offers the bachelor's degree in 15 major courses of study and now has 1,000 students.

Journey To The Past

BY EVALYN SCOTT

Deima E. McCarty, foreman of the Carpenter shop and maintenance department of the Lubbock State School, and former Sudan resident and Lamb County pioneer, becomes involved when it comes to helping solve the problems of furniture designing for the disabled children at the school.

"Mack" does this in his spare time in the carpenter workshop and received the first Merit of Award presented by the school personnel.

Among items he has built are the invalid reclining rocker, table chairs — chairs that when interlocked form tables.

He built the reclining chair after one chair ordered by the school did not prove serviceable. His carpentry and willingness to help is not only appreciated by those working with the children, but, saves money as well.

He has also devised a certain type mirror for Mongoloid children, and some have learned to recognize their image and those working with them. Mack stated, "one little girl learned to recognize me, in spite of her visual impairment and would call me, 'Mack,' when she would recognize me in the mirror."

Being a person of many interests, Mack reminisces about his early days in Sudan when he operated the first dray line in Sudan at the age of nine. His father bought him two burros, that provided the "horse" power for two wheel carts as well as small wagons. He remembers hauling water from the community windmills to the town residents and during the weekends would haul "pioneer stove wood" (cow chips) from the surrounding ranch land, before the man with the plow broke the virgin soil.

States Mack, "There were 13 children in the family, and we all attended Sudan schools, except the oldest boy. It was the talk of the town that with the enrollment of the McCarty children, a partition had to be built in the one room school house, as the Macks had a class of their own.

McCarty served in the U. S. Navy, during World War II, and this, plus the two wheel cart style dray wagon, has been the inspiration for designing and patenting an invention called the "Mack" and all terrain globe. As stated in the past described as a vehicle for recreation and sport, called a device consisting of conventional type wheels as either a bicycle, motor or "cart" with two wheels devised in such a manner cause the vehicle to be the globe inner surface rolling form on sand, lawn or snow.

Both Mack and wife are most enthusiastic explaining its many potentials and anticipate some day working model cars from the patented "Mack". Among other firsts in building the first PBA Sudan. He also operated lumber yard in Earth moving to Lubbock.

Francisco Mendoza, 19, son of Catalina Z. Mendoza, Littlefield, recently completed nine weeks of individual infantry training at Ft. Polk, La.

Other specialized training included small unit communications, land mine communications, and M-16 rifle. M-40 machine gun and the 3.5-inch rocket launcher.

Juvenile Girl Is Jailed For Harassing Phone Calls

A 15-year-old Littlefield girl is in jail on a charge of making obscene and harassing phone calls to a local woman.

where persons say nothing, is a state offense and carries a penalty of from $100 to $1,000 or from one to 12 months in the county jail, and/or both.

party's telephone that locked the incoming call in until the calling number was traced.

pretending she was a man, and made obscene remarks.

The woman she was talking to screamed.

Three more calls came before noon Monday. A tracer was put on the victim's line and when the next call came about 6:30 Monday evening, the receiver was left off the hook and the call was traced.

When it was learned that the girl was on probation, she was jailed. She is to go before Judge G. T. Sides this morning.

Jerry Kehoe, district manager of General Telephone, said that lately there is continuously some complaint on harassing phone calls in his 12-exchange area which takes in an area from Anton to Friona.

Kehoe said it is surprising, but that many of the harassing calls are women calling other women. He attributes this to "some quirk in personality."

Women who work in public and single and widowed women are most apt to receive obscene or proposition calls from men.

Instead of getting unlisted numbers, Kehoe said the phone company suggests that women list their numbers under initials rather than their first names to keep from attracting attention to their single status.

Kehoe said the use of a police whistle would stop mental torment calls. He said they know of women who keep a police whistle near their phone. "After the second call, if they blow the whistle just as loudly as they can," Kehoe said, "the caller will be defamed in one ear for two or three days. It won't permanently damage the ear, but it will certainly put a stop to some of those calls."

Persons who make "mental torment" calls are deterred by the party on the other end of the line hanging up, also. It is the person who over-reacts who gets more than one call, Kehoe said.

KARLA NICHOLSON of Littlefield is among youngsters from four area cities who will exhibit project animals in the Littlefield Area Junior Livestock Show and Sale this weekend. Members of 4-H Clubs, FFA and FHA Chapters from Amherst, Spade, Sudan and Littlefield will get their animals in place at the County Show Barn this afternoon. Sheep judging begins at 1 p.m. Friday, and judging of the swine and steers will follow. The sale begins at 1:30 Saturday.

A Letter To IRS

Collector of Infernal Revenue
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to Federal laws, State laws, County laws, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, and outlaws.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, light tax, water tax, gas tax, sales tax, liquor tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax, and excise tax. I am required to get a business license, a car license, operator's license, truck license, not to mention a marriage license and a dog license.

I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, the unemployment relief, and the gold digger's relief. Also to every hospital and charitable institution in the city, including the Salvation Army, Community Chest, Red Cross, Purple Cross, Double Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., as well as Way Stations for Wayward Girls, Boys' Ranch and Boys' Town.

For my own safety I am required to carry health insurance, life insurance, fire insurance, property insurance, liability insurance, earthquake insurance, tornado insurance, airplane insurance, and old age insurance.

My business is so governed that it is no easy matter to find out who owns it. I am expected, inspected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded, and compelled, until I provoke an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire, or hope of the human race.

Simply because I refuse to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am almost ruined.

I can tell you honestly that except for a miracle that happened, I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors nowadays just had pups in my kitchen. I sold the pups and here is the money!

Yours very truly,

123 W. Jefferson Street
Los Angeles, California

P.S. Just received a notice in the mail that they want a pint of blood!

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Even though we are sometimes compelled to write such a letter, we can't truthfully believe one like this has ever been mailed.)

GIRL SCOUTS and Brownies begin their annual cookie sale at 4 p.m. Friday, and will continue selling through March 11. There are five different flavors to choose from, and they come in family-size packs this year, containing two 13 oz. boxes, selling for a $1. The Girl Scouts will be working toward different awards for selling a certain quota of cookies. Sandra Gay Beale, left, of Brownie Troop No. 440 and Penny Jones, right, of Girl Scout Troop 218 are busy packing their cookie boxes so they will be ready for the big event.

Happiness Is . . . Having Friends!!!

SUGGESTED FOR IMMATURE AUDIENCES

DID YA ever think how life would be without friends? Or can you imagine what a dull place this world would be? Pretty dull, huh? Most things these days can be bought, but not friendship! Friends should know you and like you for what you are. (Good or bad?)
With friends you can:
Laugh
Cry
Gossip
Play hooky
Gripe about teachers and homework
Drag main
Cat
Talk in the halls
Go to the ballgames
Have fun!

Cindy H. — What's blue, green, yellow, purple, black, brown, orange, and red?
Kathy G. — I don't know. What?
Cindy — A box of crayons.

(Is this a joke?)

Jerry S. — I'm sorry I took your car, your honor.
Judge — Why did you do it?
Jerry — It was parked in front of the cemetery, so naturally I thought the owner was dead.

R. R. — Stood up?
Those poor little shrubs?! Ugh!!

"The key to happiness is discipline of the mind." Right seventh grade band??!

C. S. — Did you get your hair rolled?
Daffynishion:
Ant — A small, hard-working insect that always finds time to go to picnics.
Sandals — Shoes with a blow-out.

Gary — Doc, I broke my arm in three places. What should I do?
Doc — Stay away from those people.

L. K. — Was the phone off the hook?
What's with this new interest in P.C., L.G., C.W., L.W., S.C., and G.C.?
Mrs. Reid — What are the Greats?
Debbie M. — The 747's.

Karen S. — What has four legs and sees equally well from either side?
Connie C. — I give up. What?
Karen S. — A blind horse.

J. J. and S. D. — Glitter??!

Regina White — I crossed an 800 line.
Janice Lee — What did you get?
Regina — I don't know, but it's a picnic.
Christy P. — Mom, you know that that has been passed on from generation?
Mrs. Penn — Yes, what about it?
Christy — This generation does it.

Ronald — On our first date you there was something you liked about Lori — Yes, but you spent it all.

An elderly couple was going to the store for the first time in 30 years. The wife examined her swimsuit and said, "I've got to get a new swimsuit."
"How come?" asked her husband.
She said, "Mine's got a hole in the back."
Have a good week and... be friends!

HONNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVIN

'SA WAY IT GOES, about the time I decide to hang up my typewriter, some well-meanin' soul gives forth with a word of encouragement.
Oh, no, it wasn't the editor. I think he's been sick of HIS deal ever since he made it. Just a little thing he can't gracefully back out of. (Or, hasn't.)

REALLY HAVEN'T figured out what it is that makes a guy want to see himself in print, anyway. — Might be that when I do, it'll cure me for good!

Started out on the pretext of thinkin' that if I could cause someone to give a little thought to some of our current trends, or give them a little chuckle, may be just cause them to smile, it'd be worthwhile.

THEN YOU GET THE idea that simply no one reads your stuff, and if they do, it's completely ignored. No one answers any crackpot argument, nor has anything to say in passing.

Guess it's like kissin' your sister-in-law. Maybe you enjoy it, but no one is supposed to know! — (Or, had I said that?)

THEN, OF COURSE, the thought of your efforts bein' at the mercy of that TAPE-SNIFFER down at the office is enough to make your blood run cold!

The thing I'm talkin' about is that computerized typesetter they've got. Simply no tellin' at all, what sort of mischief it may have on it's mind. 'S funny that it always seems to be the key words in a thought that it chooses to run amuck with!

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Without Money

By BOB WEAR

MONEY IS IMPORTANT, but not for its own sake. It is important, because it is the means by which we obtain food, clothing, shelter and other similar supplies.
It can also be used for all kinds of good and useful work.

THERE ARE TWO FAULTY attitudes about money. The one sees it as more important than it really is.
The other does not give it the proper importance, but looks upon it with contempt; or, at least, pretends to do so.

THE WISE USE OF MONEY can accomplish much good for all of us. Of course, unwise use of it can cause all kinds of trouble.

Money as a means of exchange, and an instrument for good is valuable. We readily acknowledge its place in our lives, but it is not everything.

IT'S GOOD TO HAVE MONEY and the things that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure that you haven't lost the things that money can't buy." — Lorimer.

WE MUST REMEMBER that there are many good and useful things that can be accomplished without money.

In fact, there are some things that money cannot accomplish, and, if these things are done; they must be done without money.

MOST SELF-IMPROVEMENT can be made without money. There are some facets of personal betterment which cannot be obtained by money; they cannot be bought.
They are acquired by diligent and continuing effort; wise self-discipline; and careful adherence to well-established standards and principles of human behavior.

WE CANNOT BUY better attitudes, but we can develop better attitudes. We are not able to purchase a thousand dollars worth of better manners, but we can learn and put into practice the good manners we need.

We can never buy the skills we need to manage our lives well, but we can, with conscientious effort, learn these skills.

WE CAN BUY A HOUSE, but we can never buy a home. The love, the sharing, the kindness and understanding, the mutual concern and helpfulness, and the other blessings of a home cannot be bought.
These can be had without money.

LET US DO ALL of the good things with money that can be done with money, because the real value of it is determined by the way it is used.

We appreciate it and its potential, but it is not everything. Many, many things can be done without money.

MUCH COMMUNITY improvement can be made without money. If we are willing to work together, not caring who gets the credit, we can do many good things.

We can give our time, our energy, our skills and our wise concern. We can give ourselves to help do the work that needs to be done.

WE CAN ACCOMPLISH much that is important to us and others, and can do so without money.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

By BILL BOYKIN

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

INSURANCE AGAIN made headline news on three fronts here.

*President Nixon's Phase 2 inflation controls, the State Insurance Board said, will mean lower premium rates for hundreds of thousands of Texas homeowners.

*Lawmakers threatened to "put the state in the insurance business" unless rates are reduced for a new catastrophe pool designed to protect hurricane and other disaster-prone areas.

*An American Insurance Association executive offered to "guarantee" that no-fault auto insurance in Texas would bring a minimum cut of 25 per cent in bodily injury and property damage coverage rates.

New homeowners' insurance rates are expected to be issued May 1, effective June 1. A federal price commission order of a 37.5 per cent cut in the Board's "trend factor" (aimed at keeping rates up with normal inflation) may mean a reduction of 2.1 per cent in the Central Inland Territory. Usual rating formulas would have meant an increase of 5.9 per cent there.

While most fire and extended coverage rates will go up, the rise will be lower than expected due to new federal limits.

The State Insurance Board proposes to cut catastrophe pool rates for non-beach property about a third. Insurance companies strongly resisted. Legislators at a rate hearing retorted that the state may have to get into the insurance business.

Under the pool, authorized last year by the legislature, insurance companies are required to join in providing coverage for areas of the coast which cannot buy policies in the regular market.

The State Board of Insurance is studying effects of various no-fault insurance plans which provide compensation from a driver's own policy regardless of whether he was at fault in an accident.

MORE TIME SOUGHT

Texas is seeking more time to avoid loss of $24 million in highway funds.

Gov. Preston Smith has asked U. S. Secretary of Transportation John Volpe to extend the deadline for adopting prohibitions against additional erection of billboards adjacent to interstate and primary highways. A transportation department hearing officer proposed a May 31 deadline for the state act. Smith asked until Sept. 1, start of the new fiscal year.

BRINE DISCHARGES HIT

Parks and Wildlife Department Executive Director James Cross told a Senate study committee the Railroad Commission overruled 100 P.W.D. objections to brine discharges into public waters last year.

The Railroad Commission has authority to permit the discharges from oil field operations, although P.W.D. had assigned responsibilities to protect marine life.

A Commission staff member could remember no case where an oil operator's application for a discharge permit had been turned down. He said the Commission attempts to "educate" operators to avoid oil spills or threatens to revoke production allowances where conditions appear likely to cause spillage.

Cross suggested reviving of a bill to authorize the state to demand compensation for fish kills due to pollution.

AG OPINIONS

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held the state cannot pay the cost of primary elections without legislative authorization and appropriation, but he went back to a Dallas federal court for guidance.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded:
* The Legislative Property Tax Committee can employ attorneys and purchase or rent a law library for its codification research.

*The same committee, headed by Sen. James S. Bates of Edinburg, must purchase its supplies, materials and equipment through the State Board of Control as all other departments of state government do.

*Texas State Technical Institute has no authority to grant baccalaureate or bachelor degrees in technical education or technology at its James Connally campus in Waco.

*Texas Water Quality Board and Water Development Board must approve state loans to local governments for construction of waste water treatment facilities.

*A private non-profit water supply corporation cannot receive financial assistance from the state.

OIL ALLOWABLE SOARS

Texas Railroad Commission lifted the oil production allowable to 86 per cent of potential — highest in 13 months and third highest since "wide open" days right after World War II.

At the same time, Chairman Byron Tunnell warned that crude oil stocks — at 87.9 million barrels — are the lowest since 1966 and 20.2 million barrels less than a year ago.

Tunnell said pumping at the rate of a year ago would yield 100,000 barrels a day less oil.

REWRITE ORDERED

Texas Water Quality Board staff members have been ordered to rewrite a proposed regulation which would permit WQB Executive Director Hugh Yantis to issue or deny feed lot permits.

Both ecologists and cattle and poultry raisers opposed allowing Yantis such authority without requirement of notice or public hearing. Cattle and poultry industry spokesmen expressed doubt they could comply and opposed defining agricultural wastes as "ecological contaminants."

SHORT SNORTS

Parks and Wildlife Commission is expected to review the Mustang Island purchase controversy at a Friday, Feb. 25 meeting.

Sen. John G. Tower designated as his reelection campaign manager Mrs. Nola Smith of Austin, first Texas woman to run a statewide campaign.

Guidelines for implementing a new quarter system for Texas schools were reviewed here last week.

A record turnover in both the House and Senate is seen.

April 2-8 is Environmental Education Week.

Mocek And Mumme Are Student Teachers

By CATHY NELSON

Two new student teachers from Texas Tech are now working in cooperation with the teachers in the junior and senior high homemaking departments here.

As a student teacher one is required to work under an experienced mentor's guidance for seven weeks. This is a six hour required course which is done through the public schools.

Miss Clarice Mocek, at high school, and Miss Stella Mumme, at junior high, are both home economics education majors.

Miss Mocek is a native and 1968 honor graduate of Seymour High School. Her high school activities include being Outstanding Member and National Honor Society president; first vice-president, historian, and sergeant-at-arms in FHA; vice-president of FTA; and reporter and historian for the band. She was also president and reporter for the Catholic Organization.

Miss Mocek will receive her BS degree in May. While in college she has been a member of the American Homemaking Association, the Student Education Association, and has frequently been on the Dean's list.

Asked about her future, Clarice said, "I would like to start off my career in teaching and possibly later move into another field of homemaking."

From a family of five, Miss Mocek has one brother who is a civil engineer and a sister who is a junior in high school.

The young teacher's hobbies include sewing, tennis, and bowling. The area of the country which she enjoys most is the south and the coastline.

Miss Mumme is a graduate of Honda High School, Honda, where she was Area VII first vice-president in FHA and earned the FHA State Homemaking Degree. There she was also active in 4-H and Methodist youth organizations.

In college Miss Mumme has followed the pattern set in high school. In American Home Economics Association she has served as vice-president, vice-chairman of the education interest group, and as state convention hostess committee chairman; and in Ag. Eco she has served as reporter and been on the National Board of Directors. She was a delegate to the National AHFA Convention in Denver, to the Ag. Eco. convention in Illinois, to the State Home Economics

Association in Austin. Being baritone player in the Texas Tech Red Raider Band and a member of the Texas Tech rodeo Association ends the list of her college activities.

About her future she says: "I love country life; therefore, I plan to stay as close as possible to rural living. My interests are in home economics (particularly human relations) and agriculture. After I graduate I hope to find a job which relates to the two areas of my interest. Possibly I will go into County Home Demonstration work or teaching."

Stella's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mumme, have six children. Miss Mumme has two sisters and three brothers.

The interests of Stella extend to almost all phases of living. She enjoys working or playing in almost any activity. As far as sports go, she likes to participate more than observe. Miss Mumme likes to ride horses, swim, sew, construct or design, and be out of doors rather than inside. She enjoys going to rodeos, stock shows, dances, conventions, and church.

Dalhart Hosts State Finals

The Texas Tri-State High School Rodeo will be held at Dalhart this year.

Payne and Brad Nace of the TSHRA meeting at Dalhart, Feb. 13, at Dalhart, Texas part of the State Finals was discussed. Rodeo will be hosted by Dalhart High School. A list of contractors was given but a definite one was not made.

The performance is set Friday night followed on Saturday afternoon by an awards banquet and dance. Dates are not yet set.

The Shrine representative was sent to tell about the First Annual Shrine TSHRA Rodeo to be held March 3-4 in Amarillo. He said that this would be one of the most highly publicized rodeos that Amarillo has ever seen.

The money made off of this rodeo will be used to start a rodeo scholarship award at West Texas State, Canyon.

Cooper from Santa Rosa, N. M. will furnish the stock for the Shrine Rodeo.

Hereford High School Rodeo will be held in the middle of March. Stock contractor will be Red Whately.

English Teacher Does Painting

By WANDA COTTER

That Mrs. Daphne Smith carries a full work load during the school year while teaching sophomore and junior English is hardly news to anyone, but few people know how this hobby enthusiast remains busy throughout the summer months. She enjoys oil painting, decoupage, and many other interesting hobbies.

Mrs. Smith began to "dabble" in oil painting seven years ago because she says that she had always wondered whether or not she had a talent for the craft. Landscapes are her preferred subjects, but she also enjoys still life paintings, she notes.

Decoupage and ceramics are two other skills on which Mrs. Smith spends much of her time and effort. She has also recently begun to learn a type of weaving which was taught to her by Mrs. Ima Roycroft, LHS counselor. Speaking of the teacher's various hobbies, Mrs. Roycroft says:

"Can you imagine formal Mrs. Smith sitting cross-legged in the middle of my den, laughing like a teenager and working on some craft projects?"

Many of Mrs. Smith's students are quick to admit that this is not quite the image she presents in the classroom.

However, Mrs. Smith is now herself a student again. During the spring semester, she is taking a three-hour course in library science at South Plains Junior College.

Her husband is currently engaged in converting their son's hobby room into a study which Mrs. Smith plans to use for her school work and her hobbies.

Reading, sewing, and crossword puzzles take up any spare time in her schedule. Although she says that she does not enjoy cooking, her father declares that she is a wonderful cook.

Mrs. Smith is involved in several extra-curricular activities at LHS. Serving as junior class sponsor and FTA adviser are just a few of these activities.

She notes that she realizes that all work and no play is a bad philosophy.

"I have learned to take time out and relax through my hobbies," states Mrs. Smith.

FTA Members Go To State

By CATHY NELSON

Highlight of the year for all Future Teachers of America members is the state convention which will be held this week Feb. 25-29 in Dallas. Chapter members turn in points which have been obtained by typing, filing papers, teaching in lower grades, and helping teachers in anyway possible. Those turning in the most points have the honor of going to state.

Leaving here tomorrow to represent their chapter at the convention are Miss Cynthia Adair, Thriess Bingham, Charlotte Jennings, and Carol White.

FTA is a service organization for the teachers which enables active members to determine the desirability of making teaching their career. The Texas State Teacher's Association assists this organization in every way possible.

From the creative mind of Joy Elmer Morgan, editor of the NEA Journal in 1929, came the dream of an organization to be known as the Future Teachers of America. Not until 1937 did the NEA Representative Assembly vote to sponsor the FTA movement. Dr. Morgan was the developer of the ideas and the moving spirit behind the Future Teachers of America program until his retirement in 1954. During this period FTA grew from one high school club with 72 members to 2,411 high school clubs with 62,134 members and 562 college chapters with 29,504 members.

FTA continues to grow both in numbers and in the development of an attractive program for students who are taking a good look at "teaching as a profession." FTA is pioneering in the area of awards and spotlighting effective projects. This emphasis has caused annual state convention attendance and participation to more than double in the last years.

In 1970-71 Margaret Fain served as the state recording secretary. She is the only state officer which Littlefield has ever furnished. Mrs. Daphne Smith was her state advisor.

District XVII of FTA includes all chapters in Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, and Kent counties.

Miss Martha Brown of Littlefield is the state representative from district XVII.

The local chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Smith, is 15 years old. Chartered in 1956 it has always been one of the largest organizations in Littlefield High School. Although open to both boys and girls, for the past few years the local FTA has been composed only of females.

"The boys in our school seem to feel it would be 'sissy' to belong to FTA. They need to realize how much it would help them if they are planning to be coaches, ag teachers, science teachers, or even administrators. I just don't know why the boys aren't interested," Mrs. Smith commented.

Four out of seven of the state FTA officers are boys.

Miss Carol White presides over the local chapter as president. At her right hand is the vice-president, Miss Brown. Miss Carol Chisholm holds the office of secretary-treasurer; historian is Miss Amy Owens; Miss Thriess Bingham is parliamentarian; reporter is Miss Cynthia Adair; and Miss Charlotte Jennings serves the group by using her skills in photography.

The Littlefield Chapter of FTA meets the first Monday of each month.

The teacher's salad supper, election of an outstanding teacher, the teacher's coffee, the installation of officers, and the district convention, which was held in Levelland, are annual activities of the chapter.

CATHY COMMUNITY Ignorance

By CATHY GILES

In our time of colleges and degrees, it is still ignorance that exhibits itself in the prejudices, differences of beliefs and opinions, and conflict in an ever silent war.

One must have a mind to other's beliefs if these do not agree with one's opinions on the person cannot hold different beliefs, he will always be present.

Tackle life with a kind mind and it will treat you kindly. Accept the beliefs of others and they will accept one's opinions.

Award Program To Honor

Top Plains 4-H'ers

Outstanding 4-H Club members in the plains area will again be recognized with the Texas Plains Key Award, according to Dr. Don Stormer, state 4-H and youth leader.

Four-H members in Districts 1, 2 and 3 of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are eligible for the award which is being sponsored for the second year by Custom Farm Services, a division of Cities Service Co.

"The Key Award Program recognized 4-H members who have given significant leadership in their communities and counties," noted Stormer. "Its aim is to encourage the development of outstanding citizens through a broad program of 4-H activities."

"We are proud to be associated with Custom Farm Services in this joint effort to recognize young people," added the 4-H and youth leader.

The award is a gold key which is mounted on a bracelet for girls and on a tie tac for boys. Recipients will also receive an honor certificate.

Award recipients are selected on a county basis with the number limited to not more than one percent of the 4-H Club members in the county. The awards will be presented in the fall when counties generally hold achievement programs or banquets.

GOOD TRACTION Tire chains are still the best means of preventing a skid. However, studded and regular snow tires also provide better traction than normal tires. No tire is skid-proof, though-- so be careful.

ACT Is Set Here Saturday

This is the final reminder to all students who are taking the American College Test (ACT) which will be given this Saturday, Feb. 21, in the Littlefield High School cafeteria at 8 a.m.

Students who live here and in surrounding areas that are taking the test should bring two sharpened Number 2 pencils, and the test center admission form that was sent earlier by the ACT national office. This form is the student's admission ticket to the test center.

The test will last approximately four hours from the time the test booklets, and answer and information sheets are handed out, completed by the students, and checked by the supervisor and protractor. Mrs. Ima Roycroft, high school counselor, will give the test.

All students taking the ACT are advised to read the booklet that was received in the mail before taking the test.

There are five parts to the examination. They include student profile section, 25 minutes; English usage, 40 minutes; math usage, 50 minutes; social studies reading, 35 minutes; and natural sciences reading, 35 minutes.

A tentative number of 49 students have been assigned to this center. However, there may be more by the time of testing.

Students who already have taken ACT have received scores back within a month.

Precautions Against Hog Cholera Outlined

Hog cholera, once on the brink of elimination from the state, has again gained a foothold — this time in South Texas. Fifty-four counties, including Lamb County, are now under state and federal quarantine.

Since the costly disease can be transmitted easily, hog producers are urged to use all precautions so that the disease will be curbed, points out County Agricultural Agent Buddy Logsdon.

If producers notice any sign of sickness among hogs or the animals go off feed, suspect hog cholera first.

The animals should be checked immediately by a local veterinarian or state or federal animal health official. Farrowing problems, abortions, still-born pigs and weak or "shaker" pigs may be due to cholera.

To protect hogs from cholera, the agent lists these steps:

1. Buy pigs from places you trust — bargain pigs may not be bargains after all.
2. Keep newly bought pigs away from other pigs for 30 days.
3. Don't mix your pigs with those of your neighbor.
4. Keep visitors out of the hog

lot. Cholera can be tracked from one place to another on boots, shoes, clothing or vehicles.

5. After hauling hogs, clean and disinfect your truck or trailer.

6. Don't feed garbage or table scraps to hogs unless it has been properly cooked (30 minutes at 212 degrees F.). To be safer yet, avoid feeding garbage altogether.

7. Turn in any hog cholera vaccine that you may still have on your premises to a local state or federal animal health official.

Logsdon emphasizes the importance of having sick hogs inspected by a veterinarian or a state or federal animal health official. Producers cannot collect indemnities on animals that die from hog cholera unless the animals have previously been inspected.

A three-month cholera-free period must pass before the state can revert back to Phase IV. Then it's an entire year free of cholera outbreaks before Texas can be declared "cholera free."

The opossum is no larger than a honeybee at birth.

CUB SCOUTS from Pack 641 were honored with the annual Blue and Gold Banquet Monday night in the Community Center. Those receiving their Arrow of Honor were Eddie Gregory, David Jones, Allen Brown, Bret Atkins, Brek Goen, Richard Bowling, Ken Brantley, Roy Cox and Alvin Contreras, left to right respectively. Cubmaster David Jones stands at the mike to the right.

BOBCATS who advanced to Wolves Monday night during the blue and gold banquet were Mark Prentice, Jimmy Clark, David Jones, Kerry Hatley, Brett Goen and Rainbolt. Cubmaster David Jones, standing, monitored the advancement program.

COUNTY 4-H YOUTHS RECEIVE CASH PRIZES HERE MONDAY

County youths were awarded prizes from the county's winners during the Cotton Facts Day Monday. Winners were the top six out of 43 in the five-acre cotton program established by the county extension service and ginners. The program was broken down into irrigated and dryland categories with the youths who produced the best average per acre winning cash prizes.

Fields of Sudan took the $100 check for producing 1,002 pounds of lint per acre on the five-acre irrigated plot. The $50 went to Kenneth Spade, who averaged 573 pounds per acre in the irrigated division. Ramage took the $25 check and won on his production of an average 1,000 pounds of lint from his contest plot.

In the dryland category, Kenan Lichte of Olton won first and $100 for averaging 1,000 pounds of lint per acre from five acres. Tooley of Amherst placed second and won $50 on his 199 pounds per acre. Ogerly of Littlefield took third place and $25 by producing 161 pounds per acre.

Local School Trustee Election Held April 1

The school board trustee election for the independent school district is slated for April 1. Active candidates are requested to file their candidacy no later than March 24 and must file by signature at the school office in Bula. The election will be held at 7:30 p.m. between March 13 and March 15. Jennifer Birdwell serving as officer and J. E. Layton has filed for re-election. Incumbent Ivan Clayton has announced his intentions.

Cancer Society Plans Campaign

The Lamb County Chapter of the American Cancer Society met at Olton Monday night to discuss plans for the fund-raising campaign. The district coordinator from the Lubbock County Chapter was present to answer questions and a film demonstration on making a difference during the drive. The next meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, March 21 at 7:30 in the room of the Security State Bank.

ASSISTANT COUNTY AGENT Bobby Brunson presents first place irrigation contest winner, Jim Fields, with a $100 check. First place dry land cotton producer Kenan Lichte receives a $100 check from T. W. Bryson.

J. D. JONES hands Kenny Ramage a check for $50 on his second place in the county's cotton producing contest. Howard Tooley is being presented a $50 check from Jimmy Gage on his second place effort in producing dry-land cotton.

class favorite her senior year. "She's always interested in people," said Mrs. Lucille Bryant, 1971 outstanding woman, in telling of the work Mrs. Cannon has done for others, "over and above" her duties as a newspaper publisher. Mrs. Cannon began work as a typesetter and bookkeeper at the Olton paper eight years ago and became managing editor four years later. Early this year, she purchased the newspaper.

Quigley, presented the farmer of the year award by Raymond Lewis, farms 880 acres of cotton, milo, soybeans, corn and livestock. He came to Olton in 1957 after graduation from Oklahoma State University in 1956. He has coached Olton peewee baseball teams and is a local 4-H leader. He is a board member of the Lamb County Farm Bureau, the Springlake Lions, Olton Grain Co-op, Olton Pork Producers, and his church.

Speaker for the banquet was Don Newbury, director of community relations at Tarrant County Junior College in Fort Worth.

His humorous talk led to a point that stability is needed in a shaky world, and he urged a declaration "of war against confusion."

Retiring president of the Chamber Ken Burgess was presented a plaque for his service by Gene Trotter, the incoming president. Trotter introduced other officers and directors, including Melvin Rape, vice-president; Dr. Mike Smith, treasurer; and directors Leon Noack, Raymond Lewis, Larry Garvin, Major James, John Paul Jones, Fred Thompson, K. Y. Givens, Elmer Moore and James Cowart.

Also introduced were Eldon Franks, C-CA manager, and Billie Wilkinson, secretary.

Master of ceremonies was D. M. (Bud) Holt. Entertainment was by Jean Craft, Kathy Langford and Harold Dean Carson.

Homecoming Set At LCC

The first Homecoming Queen at Lubbock Christian College was crowned in 1962 and now ten years later, she is returning to participate in all the festivities on Feb. 25 and 26. The college has undergone a complete physical change from WWII barracks and board sidewalks to permanent masonry buildings and a well landscaped mall crisscrossed with wide sidewalks since those early days of mud and dust starting in 1957. The program consists of Master Follies, Alumni Chapel, Class Reunions, Social Club luncheons, Class of '62 Reception, Alumni Dinner, Outstanding Alumni Award, and coronation of the 1972 Homecoming Queen at the basketball game between LCC and Midwestern. LCC has attained senior college status and offers the bachelor's degree in 15 major courses of study and now has 1,000 students.

Journey To The Past

BY EVALYN SCOTT

Delma E. McCarty, foreman of the Carpenter shop and maintenance department of the Lubbock State School, and former Sudan resident and Lamb County pioneer, becomes involved when it comes to helping solve the problems of furniture designing for the disabled children at the school. "Mack" does this in his spare time in the carpenter workshop and received the first Merit of Award presented by the school personnel.

Among items he has built are the invalid reclining rocker, table chairs — chairs that when interlocked form tables. He built the reclining chair after one chair ordered by the school did not prove serviceable. His carpentry and willingness to help is not only appreciated by those working with the children, but, saves money as well.

He has also devised a certain type mirror for Mongoloid children, and some have learned to recognize their image and those working with them. Mack stated, "one little girl learned to recognize me, in spite of her visual impairment and would call me, 'Mack,' when she would recognize me in the mirror."

Being a person of many interests, Mack reminisces about his early days in Sudan when he operated the first dray line in Sudan at the age of nine. His father bought him two burros, that provided the "horse" power for two wheel carts as well as small wagons. He remembers hauling water from the community windmills to the town residents and during the weekends would haul "pioneer stove wood" (cow chips) from the surrounding ranch land, before the man with the plow broke the virgin soil.

States Mack, "There were 13 children in the family, and we all attended Sudan schools, except the oldest boy. It was the talk of the town that with the enrollment of the McCarty children, a partition had to be built in the one room school house, as the Macks had a class of their own. McCarty served in the U. S. Navy, during World War II, and this, plus the two wheel cart style dray wagon, has been the inspiration in designing and patenting an invention called the "Mack" and all terrain globe. As stated in a patent described as a pastime recreation and sport, called a device consisting of a conventional type vehicle as either a bicycle, motor or "cart" with two wheels devised in such a manner cause the vehicle to roll on the globe inner surface, rolling form on land, sand, lawn or snow.

Both Mack and wife are most enthusiastic explaining its many potentials and he anticipates some day working model copies from the patented blue. Among other firsts in building the first PMA Sudan. He also operates a lumber yard in Earth moving to Lubbock.
