6 Jailed In Forgeries, Checks Keep Coming

Six of seven suspects in the robbery of company checks from L.B. Eady's Hog & Cattle Company and the subsequent forging and passing of several thousand dollars worth of the instruments have been arrested. Of the six subjects taken into custody, three have served from one to four terms each in the penitentiary.

Lamb County Sheriff E.D. McNeese said forged checks totaling $3,590 had come in through mid-afternoon Tuesday and that

Eighteen Littlefield High School Wildcat Band members joined 121 other band students from B, A and AA schools, and eight Junior High School Band members joined their 113 junior high counterparts in an all-region concert Saturday night.

More than 1,500 persons filled the seats, aisles and corridors of the Coronado High School Auditorium in Lubbock to hear four all-region bands.

Approximately 500 students from AAA. AAAA, B, A, and AA schools formed the bands, and were chosen after competition earlier this year.

Littlefield placed the second highest number of members in the high school band, with Friona besting them by one-a total of 19 members. Area high schools who placed members, include Olton, with six, Springlake-Earth with five, Sudan with two, and Anton, one.

Othelda (Ted) Williams, 35, of Levelland was arrested Friday on charges of burglary and forgery

Bond of $2,000 was set for the forgery charge since Williams cooperated with officers in the apprehending of those who passed the checks, McNeese said. Bond on the burglary charge has not been set.

Arthur Lee "Pig" Jones, 34, of Lubbock, remains in the Lamb County jail with bond set at $2,000 on a charge of passing a forged instrument.

Jimmy Don Brown, a 24-year old Sundown man, was picked up in Levelland and charged with burglary in connection with the break-in. He made bond of $1,500 and was released.

Elvia Hastings, alias Vickey Mackey, a 23-year-old Lubbock resident, is in the county jail charged with passing a forged check and her bond is set at $3,000.

Joe Bunton, 27, of Lubbock, is charged with passing and he is in custody here with bond set at $3,000.

A Littlefield woman. 20-year-old Wilma Jean Ellis, was released on a $2,000 bond.

The two women posed as wives of the men when the forged checks were passed.

At least six of the forged checks were passed in Littlefield. Pay & Save cashed two, and one each was cashed at Buster's and Merlin's food store, at Anthony's and The Fair department store.

Five more checks came in Monday and three others, which had peen passed in Lubbock and Hockley counties, came in Tuesday huge hunk of Swiss cheese. Members of 'We, The Women'' served as the decorations committee.

Theme of the event, "The Trap Is Set. We Would Like To Catch You!", was carried out in both the decorations and the speaker's message, when he encouraged businesses to set the trap and keep trade and business in Littlefield.

O. William Hayes of Amarillo, management consultant and lecturer, gave his subject the title "How To Keep Your Business In Littlefield," and presented several helpful hints in making improvements in business in order to keep trade

He began with illustrations in findings revealed by surveys made by his company and emphasized that junk mail is one of the main things that takes money out of the trade area

Keeping money at home comes largely by "a trait of personality - attitude!" The attitude one has about his business whether in service or in supplying the products needed - has everything to do with whether the customer comes back.

"Attitude is the name of the game", he emphasized. "You have to have good management to have good help, and good help has the proper attitude.

'Know your products, know your business, and know what people want. It all comes under that heading of attitude," he stressed.

"As business leaders in the community, it is part of your responsibility to see that other people are brought along in positions of leadership," he said. He urged that employers praise their employes once in a while

He stressed having good communication with employes - "make sure you set a good example for him to follow and pay attention to what he has to say."

"Encourage them (the employes) to never settle for less than they can do, and give them a good word now and then. "Never take your fellow man for

Attorney Dies Here

A longtime Littlefield attorney, James Alfred "Hank" Gowdy, 66, was buried in Littlefield Memorial Park Monday, following his death in Medical Arts Hospital Saturday afternoon.

Gowdy was a partner with J. R. "Billy" Hall in his law firm, and had been a lawyer here since 1953.

Other details may be found inside in the obituaries column.

ticket through the first part of the week include James H. Whiteside, state board of education; Jack Young, district attorney; Bill Clayton, state representative; E. L. Yarbrough, Justice of peace precinct 6; Jack Peel, commissioner of precinct 3: E. D. McNeese, sheriff; A. J. Spain, commissioner of precinct 1: Max Sherman, state senator; and George Mahon, congressman 19th district.

Congressman Mahon made his announcement in Washington Tuesday that he will be a candidate for re-election in the congressional district which includes Lamb County.

Girl Scout Drive Starts Friday

The Annual Girl Scout Fund Drive will begin Friday morning, when workers meet at the Girl Scout Hut for a kickoff coffee at 8 o'clock

"We need $1,500 immediately to take care of some past-due expenses," Larry Sanderson, co-chairman, stated.

"The building payment, utilities and some other expenses need to be taken care of right now," he stressed.

Workers will begin contacting businesses Friday, and about 10 other workers are needed to make the contacts. The door-to-door drive will be conducted in March

Lloyd Champion is serving as the other co-chairman on the business drive.

Financing for the Littlefield Girl Scout program comes primarily from donations of the citizens and businesses in Littlefield.

Wilkinson and Dunn said they had not previously filed because of the uncertainty of the filing fees. The filing fee system was outlawed last week

Collection of filing fees under the new ruling is considered contempt of court.

Area county Democrats have adopted plans for donating what they would have paid in filing fees to pay for the cost of printing the ballots and other expenses. The filing deadline for these offices are several months ahead of the official election date in November and almost a year ahead of assumption of the offices on Jan. 1. 1973.

Tax Collector Dunn said Tuesday he wouldn't mind donating a "reasonable" fee. Wilkinson said it is possible volunteers may have to hold the elections. There is some talk of cutting down the number of voting precincts and the number of personnel. Dunn pointed out that three persons spent 11 hours each holding the recent water district election in which only 21 persons voted.

In school board elections this year, the filing deadlines are 30 days prior to the election. Winning candidates generally take office at the next meeting of the governing body following the election.

School board members are elected for three-year terms, and three places are expiring on the Littlefield board. Terms of Wayne Streety, Werner Birkelbach and Bob Roden are ending. Streety moved out of the district and no appointment was named to complete his term. Birkelbach is completing his third three year term and said he did not plan to seek re-election. Roden is acting president of the board and is completing his first term. No one had filed at press time Wednesday.

Think Of Others

WE MUST THINK of others, but in order strength of those about us to do this profitably for others and for ourselves; we must think of ourselves. Self-interest is essential to continuing interest in others.

WE MUST THINK of ourselves, because we have our work to do; obligations to meet: self-betterment to be accomplished; and many personal needs to fill.

If these things are not done, we can accomplish very little in thinking of others. When we think of ourselves in a wholesome way, we will be able to think of others in the best possible way

THINKING OF SELF ONLY soon becomes the most unsatisfactory life style known to mankind. It is even more unsatisfactory to disclaim all interest in mankind. It is even more unsatisfactory to disclaim all interest in self.

This attitude will never produce invthing of value for anybody. The only profitable life view is in the maintenance the necessary interest in self without orgetting others and the opportunities for helping them.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS in which we actually need each other, and can help each other. It may not be as easy to see all of these ways as it was some years ago, but If we adjust our vision so we get a true view, we will see.

Let us learn to think of each other in terms of how we may help and encourage.

WE CAN THINK OF OTHERS while we do justice to ourselves and our legitimate needs. This wise interest in others will be by knowledge and good judgment. altruistic, but it will also be helpful to us. We will gain additional strength for living because we will draw from the better when we think of others.

THERE ARE MANY distractions, but we must not permit these to cause us to forget others.

Genuine thoughtfulness of other people, and how we can help them is good for them and for us.

"HE WHO DOES GOOD to another, does good also to himself, not only in the consequences, but in the very act; for the consciousness of well doing is, in itself, ample reward."-Seneca.

THE JUSTIFIED ESTEEM for our fellowmen is an open door to a broader, richer and fuller way of living. Someone has-said that the things we send into the lives of others come back into our own. This is not the only reason for being thoughtful to others, but it does encourage

WE CAN HARDLY SEPARATE wholesome self-interest and wholesome interest in other people.

For example: We can best protect and preserve our rights and privileges by carefully guarding and generously granting to others their rights and privileges.

IN THIS AREA of consideration. somebody must take the initiative. If everybody holds back, waiting for others to make the first move, nothing will be done.

We must not be afraid to make the first those. Of course, we will want to be guided the XYZ Club which stands for X-tra Years of Zest. She helped establish and headed the Littlefield Hospital Auxiliary, and spends one day a week doing volunteer work for the organization. She teaches an adult women's Sunday school class at the First Christian Church.

She taught in public schools for 33 1/2 years and was a governess over a year, but retirement from her profession was not retirement from service. She has always liked to keep the homefires burning and still cooks, cans, and gardens

Before moving to the South Plains, the late Mr. Davis stock farmed at Eldorado. After selling out, he took up barbering again, and they moved to Lubbock for a time before settling in Littlefield in 1951. Mrs. Davis has always enjoyed working. Her first job was keeping books at her dad's grocery store. In the late 30's she sent community news in to the San Angelo paper. After coming to Littlefield she taught school 14 1/2 years.

FARMER OF THE YEAR, W. E. "Ed" Mitchell was on the Soil and Water Conservation District board when the Running Water Draw shed project started. He has been intersted in conservation measures for many years. He sees the transportation of water into West Texas as the only measure left to keep this part of the country from going back to dry land production.

Mitchell keeps his farming interests small to give him more time for working on conservation and community projects The Lamb County SWCD is entering Mitchell as Outstanding Lamb County Farmer in the annual Texas Conservation Awards Program. He is picked for this honor on his conservation work and missionary work on the program.

Mitchell owns 160 acres three miles north and four miles east of Spade. He put down his first irrigation well in 1949 and added a second in 1954. He waters from underground tile to conserve water that is dropping three feet each year.

Mitchell is on the county development board, the stock show board, director on the SWCD board and is on the Spade gin board and the oil mill board at Lubbock.

You say that the POW's in the Far East suffer more than that every day. Yeah, some of them die, too, don't they?

Okay-What does my hero have to do with you? Just this: He never did anything to deserve capital punishment.

Do I think that Hitler's Jews deserved the infamous torture they received? No, of course not

This man's seemingly senseless death had a purpose. unlike most other deaths. His words are stronger than mine, "I have come that you might have life and have it more abundantly ... You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free

Isn't that beautiful?

But this story does not end in a cemetery. Three days after the burial. His close friends came to pay their respects; they found an empty grave!

- Honest
- He's alive!
- Today'
- Now!

You say that is too fantastic to be true

Look around you. See that person who seems to have a sense of direction in his life? You reckon they might know something that you don't?

For the past Circulation Manager four months, she has delivered the Amarillo Globe News and Monte Angel, Pam Brandt, the Fort Worth Star Telegram. When asked how she became Porfirio Cristan, Mary Davidson, Vicky Davis, interested in delivering papers, Darla says money was her prime object. She had been selling subscriptions to a paper for Mrs. Gene Williams, when Mrs. Williams asked her if she would like to take over a paper route. Darla began her paper routes in September; in October she signed a contract making the routes hers.

Darla starts her day at six a m. The papers for her routes are delivered by the mail truck at 6:15 a.m. Her paper routes start from the post office and

she covers most of Littlefield in an hour

Delivering papers isn't always an easy job. It does entail some hard work. After the papers arrive. Darla notes that they must be rolled and in wet or rainy weather each paper is wrapped in plastic to keep it dry. Once a month, Darla collects from the subscribers on her routes.

The job does have its difficulties. Darla says she's been chased by a dog, been for passing and "F" for failing. stuck in the snow and has run out of gas while on the job. who gave their opinions: Darla enjoys meeting people and she says:

"I like being the only girl paper boy in town."

She is also participating in a contest sponsored by one of the papers she delivers. A $500 prize goes to the paper boy, or girl, who sells the most subscriptions between January and March. Darla is a member of band, choir, The Velvet Sounds, the Business Club and the Spanish

Club. Her hobbies include collecting coins and stamps. She also plays the piano, cooks, and loves to go shopping When asked what her future plans are for continuing her paper routes, Darla said that she will deliver papers until she is ready to start college.

She also said she wouldn't mind having a paper route when she's in college

6 Jailed In Forgeries, Checks Keep Coming

Six of seven suspects in the robbery of company checks from L.B. Eady's Hog & Cattle Company and the subsequent forging and passing of several thousand dollars worth of the instruments have been arrested. Of the six subjects taken into custody, three have served from one to four terms each in the penitentiary.

Lamb County Sheriff E.D. McNeese said forged checks totaling $3,590 had come in through mid-afternoon Tuesday and that

Eighteen Littlefield High School Wildcat Band members joined 121 other band students from B, A and AA schools, and eight Junior High School Band members joined their 113 junior high counterparts in an all-region concert Saturday night.

More than 1,500 persons filled the seats, aisles and corridors of the Coronado High School Auditorium in Lubbock to hear four all-region bands.

Approximately 500 students from AAA, AAAA, B, A, and AA schools formed the bands, and were chosen after competition earlier this year.

Littlefield placed the second highest number of members in the high school band, with Friona besting them by one-a total of 19 members. Area high schools who placed members, include Olton, with six, Springlake-Earth with five, Sudan with two, and Anton, one.

officials had no idea how many more would turn up.

Othelda (Ted) Williams, 35, of Levelland was arrested Friday on charges of burglary and forgery.

Bond of $2,000 was set for the forgery charge since Williams cooperated with officers in the apprehending of those who passed the checks, McNeese said. Bond on the burglary charge has not been set.

Arthur Lee "Pig" Jones, 34, of Lubbock, remains in the Lamb County jail with bond set at $2,000 on a charge of passing a forged instrument.

Jimmy Don Brown, a 24-year old Sundown man, was picked up in Levelland and charged with burglary in connection with the break-in. He made bond of $1,500 and was released.

Elvia Hastings, alias Vickey Mackey, a 23-year-old Lubbock resident, is in the county jail charged with passing a forged check and her bond is set at $3,000.

Joe Bunton, 27, of Lubbock, is charged with passing and he is in custody here with bond set at $3,000

A Littlefield woman, 20-year-old Wilma Jean Ellis, was released on a $2,000 bond.

The two women posed as wives of the men when the forged checks were passed.

At least six of the forged checks were passed in Littlefield. Pay & Save cashed two, and one each was cashed at Buster's and Merlin's food store, at Anthony's and The Fair department store.

Five more checks came in Monday and three others, which had peen passed in Lubbock and Hockley counties, came in Tuesday

All seven of the suspects also face charges in Hockley and Lubbock counties.

Theme of the event, "The Trap Is Set. We Would Like To Catch You!", was carried out in both the decorations and the speaker's message, when he encouraged businesses to set the trap and keep trade and business in Littlefield.

O. William Hayes of Amarillo, management consultant and lecturer, gave his subject the title "How To Keep Your Business In Littlefield," and presented several helpful hints in making improvements in business in order to keep trade

He began with illustrations in findings revealed by surveys made by his company and emphasized that junk mail is one of the main things that takes money out of the trade area.

Keeping money at home comes largely by "a trait of personality - attitude!" The attitude one has about his business whether in service or in supplying the products needed - has everything to do with whether the customer comes back.

"Attitude is the name of the game", he emphasized. "You have to have good management to have good help, and good help has the proper attitude.

Know your products, know your business, and know what people want. It all comes under that heading of attitude," he stressed

'As business leaders in the community. it is part of your responsibility to see that other people are brought along in positions of leadership," he said. He urged that employers praise their employes once in a while.

He stressed having good communication with employes - "make sure you set a good example for him to follow and pay attention to what he has to say. "Encourage them (the employes) to never settle for less than they can do, and give them a good word now and then. "Never take your fellow man for give him identity," he granted

Attorney Dies Here

A longtime Littlefield attorney, James Alfred "Hank" Gowdy, 66, was buried in Littlefield Memorial Park Monday, following his death in Medical Arts Hospital Saturday afternoon.

Gowdy was a partner with J. R. "Billy" Hall in his law firm, and had been a lawyer here since 1963.

Other details may be found inside in the obituaries column.

ticket through the first part of the week include James H. Whiteside, state board of education; Jack Young, district attorney; Bill Clayton, state representative; E. L. Yarbrough, Justice of peace precinct 6; Jack Peel, commissioner of precinct 3; E. D. McNeese, sheriff; A. J. Spain, commissioner of precinct 1; Max Sherman, state senator; and George Mahon, congressman 19th district.

Congressman Mahon made his announcement in Washington Tuesday that he will be a candidate for re-election in the congressional district which includes Lamb County.

Girl Scout Drive Starts Friday

The Annual Girl Scout Fund Drive will begin Friday morning, when workers meet at the Girl Scout Hut for a kickoff coffee at 8 o'clock

"We need $1,500 immediately to take care of some past-due expenses." Larry Sanderson, co-chairman, stated

"The building payment, utilities and some other expenses need to be taken care of right now," he stressed. Workers will begin contacting businesses Friday, and about 10 other workers are needed to make the contacts. The door-to-door drive will be conducted in March

Lloyd Champion is serving as the other co-chairman on the business drive.

Financing for the Littlefield Girl Scout program comes primarily from donations of the citizens and businesses in Littlefield.

Collection of filing fees under the new ruling is considered contempt of court.

Area county Democrats have adopted plans for donating what they would have paid in filing fees to pay for the cost of printing the ballots and other expenses. The filing deadline for these offices are several months ahead of the official election date in November and almost a year ahead of assumption of the offices on Jan. 1, 1973.

Tax Collector Dunn said Tuesday he wouldn't mind donating a "reasonable" fee. Wilkinson said it is possible volunteers may have to hold the elections. There is some talk of cutting down the number of voting precincts and the number of personnel. Dunn pointed out that three persons spent 11 hours each holding the recent water district election in which only 21 persons voted.

In school board elections this year, the filing deadlines are 30 days prior to the election. Winning candidates generally take office at the next meeting of the governing body following the election.

School board members are elected for three-year terms, and three places are expiring on the Littlefield board. Terms of Wayne Streety, Werner Birkelbach and Bob Roden are ending. Streety moved out of the district and no appointment was named to complete his term. Birkelbach is completing his third three year term and said he did not plan to seek re-election. Roden is acting president of the board and is completing his first term. No one had filed at press time Wednesday.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Think Of Others

0000000000000000000000000000000000By BOB WEAR

WE MUST THINK of others, but in order strength of those about us. to do this profitably for others and for ourselves, we must think of ourselves. Self-interest is essential to continuing interest in others.

WE MUST THINK of ourselves, because we have our work to do; obligations to meet, self-betterment to be accomplished; and many personal needs to fill.

If these things are not done, we can accomplish very little in thinking of others. When we think of ourselves in a wholesome way, we will be able to think of others in the best possible way.

THINKING OF SELF ONLY SOON becomes the most unsatisfactory life style known to mankind. It is even more unsatisfactory to disclaim all interest in mankind. It is even more unsatisfactory to disclaim all interest in self.

This attitude will never produce anything of value for anybody. The only profitable life view is in the maintenance If the necessary interest in self without orgetting others and the opportunities for helping them.

actually need each other, and can help such other. It may not be as easy to see all of these ways as it was some years ago, but if we adjust our vision so we get a true view, we will see.

Let us learn to think of each other in terms of how we may help and encourage.

WE CAN THINK OF OTHERS while we do justice to ourselves and our legitimate needs. This wise interest in others will be altruistic, but it will also be helpful to us. We will gain additional strength for living because we will draw from the better when we think of others.

THERE ARE MANY distractions, but we must not permit these to cause us to forget others.

Genuine thoughtfulness of other people, and how we can help them is good for them and for us.

"HE WHO DOES GOOD to another, does good also to himself, not only in the consequences, but in the very act; for the consciousness of well doing is, in itself, ample reward."-Seneca.

THE JUSTIFIED ESTEEM for our fellowmen is an open door to a broader, richer and fuller way of living. Someone has said that the things we send into the lives of others come back into our own. This is not the only reason for being thoughtful to others, but it does encourage 115

WE CAN HARDLY SEPARATE wholesome self-interest and wholesome interest in other people.

For example: We can best protect and preserve our rights and privileges by THERE ARE MANY WAYS in which we carefully guarding and generously granting to others their rights and privileges

> IN THIS AREA of consideration, somebody must take the initiative. If everybody holds back, waiting for others to make the first move, nothing will be done

> We must not be afraid to make the first move. Of course, we will want to be guided by knowledge and good judgment.

the XYZ Club which stands for X-tra Years of Zest. She helped establish and headed the Littlefield Hospital Auxiliary, and spends one day a week doing volunteer work for the organization. She teaches an adult women's Sunday school class at the First Christian Church.

She taught in public schools for 33 1/2 years and was a governess over a year, but retirement from her profession was not retirement from service. She has always liked to keep the homefires burning and still cooks, cans, and gardens

Before moving to the South Plains, the late Mr. Davis stock farmed at Eldorado. After selling out, he took up barbering again, and they moved to Lubbock for a time before settling in Littlefield in 1951. Mrs. Davis has always enjoyed working.

Her first job was keeping books at her dad's grocery store. In the late 30's she sent community news in to the San Angelo paper. After coming to Littlefield she taught school 14 1/2 years.

FARMER OF THE YEAR, W. E. "Ed" Mitchell was on the Soil and Water Conservation District board when the Running Water Draw shed project started. He has been intersted in conservation measures for many years. He sees the transportation of water into West Texas as the only measure left to keep this part of the country from going back to dry land production.

Mitchell keeps his farming interests small to give him more time for working on conservation and community projects. The Lamb County SWCD is entering Mitchell as Outstanding Lamb County Farmer in the annual Texas Conservation Awards Program. He is picked for this honor on his conservation work and missionary work on the program.

Mitchell owns 160 acres three miles north and four miles east of Spade. He put down his first irrigation well in 1949 and added a second in 1954. He waters from underground tile to conserve water that is dropping three feet each year.

Mitchell is on the county development board, the stock show board, director on the SWCD board and is on the Spade gin board and the oil mill board at Lubbock.

Teacher Enjoys Sewing As Change From Routine

By CAROL CHISHOLM

Believe it or not, English teachers are human, too.

Mrs. Irene Lynn, senior English teacher, is proof of this. She has favorite hobbies such as reading, ceramics and sewing, just like everyone else.

Mrs. Lynn says that she started sewing later in her life. She did not receive training from a home economics teacher

"Everyone needs interest in something other than the routine of the usual workaday world." she said. "I find mine in sewing - an activity that is both relaxing and profitable."

Mrs. Lynn notes that she does not always follow a pattern. She has become creative by mixing two or more patterns to fit the effect she wants. She sews mostly casual styles, but she is at school or from her mother at very versatile and has made FLASHBACK Diane Hall was secretary of the

Letter To The Editor

What do you say about a 33year-old man who dies a cruel death, naked as a newborn baby, with sharp stickers in His forehead, dull iron spikes in His feet and hands? He even refuses a sedative that will dull his nerves.

You say that the POW's in the Far East suffer more than that every day. Yeah, some of them die, too, don't they?

Okay-What does my hero have to do with you? Just this: He never did anything to deserve capital punishment.

Do I think that Hitler's Jews deserved the infamous torture they received? No. of course not

This man's seemingly senseless death had a purpose, unlike most other deaths. His words are stronger than mine, "I have come that you might have life and have it more You shall know abundantly. the truth and the truth shall make you free.

Isn't that beautiful?

But this story does not end in a cemetery. Three days after the burial. His close friends came to pay their respects; they found an empty grave! Honest!

He's alive!

You say that is too fantastic to be true?

Paper 'Boy' In Town By VELVA LEE

LHS Student Is Only Girl

The paperboy is a girl.

Brown-haired, hazel-eyed, Darla Sanderson is Littlefield's only female paperboy. Darla, a junior at LHS has two paper routes. For the past four months, she has delivered the Amarillo Globe News and the Fort Worth Star Telegram. When asked how she became interested in delivering papers, Darla says money was her prime object. She had been selling subscriptions to a paper for Mrs. Gene Williams, when Mrs. Williams asked her if she would like to take over a paper route. Darla began her paper routes in September; in October she signed a contract making

Darla starts her day at six a.m. The papers for her routes are delivered by the mail truck at 6:15 a.m. Her paper routes start from the post office and

she covers most of Littlefield in an hour Delivering papers isn't always an easy job. It does entail some hard work. After the papers arrive. Darla notes that they must be rolled and in wet or rainy weather each paper is wrapped in plastic to keep it dry. Once a month, Darla collects from the subscribers on her routes.

The job does have its difficulties. Darla says she's been chased by a dog, been stuck in the snow and has run out of gas while on the job. Darla enjoys meeting people and she says: "I like being the only girl paper boy in town.

She is also participating in a contest sponsored by one of the papers she delivers. A $500 prize goes to the paper boy, or girl, who sells the most subscriptions between January and March. Darla is a member of band, choir, The Velvet Sounds, the Business Club and the Spanish Club. Her hobbies include collecting coins and stamps. She also plays the piano, cooks, and loves to go shopping

When asked what her future plans are for continuing her paper routes, Darla said that she will deliver papers until she is ready to start college.

She also said she wouldn't mind having a paper route when she's in college.
