BUILDINGS owned by Littlefield Welding Works were torn up by winds at 5:17 a.m. Sunday morning when wind, hail and rain up the area. The front of the larger building was located where the now stand as a memorial to where the door was. Teacher Contracts Extended, 1974-75 Calendar Adopted

In an almost routine meeting in which items on the agenda were discussed in less than three hours, the school trustees as the main business extended new contracts to personnel, adopted the 1974-75 calendar and again failed to take action setting the tax assessment.

The board extended conditional contracts to teachers in the Title I program contingent upon whether Title I money becomes available. In approving the calendar for the '74-75 school year, the trustees set the first day of classes for August 26 and the last day as May 30th. Holidays will be Sept. 2, Nov. 28-29, Dec. 23-Jan 2, and March 24-28. This is the new quarter system that will see quarters ending November 19, February 26 and May 30. In larger schools, the fourth quarter will be in the summer months. Superintendent-elect Jack York discussed the possibility of combining the superintendent's office and the tax-assessor-collector's office into one facility for the purpose of streamlining operations and to avoid the keeping of two separate sets of books. York and Carlton Parker (the new tax assessor to be in the office in mid-April) had expressed the desire to combine the offices but to try to keep them close to the downtown business area. However, the board instructed Jones to try to find a place to put the offices in one of the present school buildings. In other action, the board tabled a motion to hire a high school principal at this meeting and to begin taking applications with the principal to be hired at a later meeting, extended the contract of Athletic Director Jerry Blakely for two years and voted to abolish the morning meetings and to meet at 8:00 p.m. in the high school cafeteria on the second Monday of the month.

Farmers Hope Showers Signal End Of Drouth

Those unusual expressions on farmers' faces Sunday were smiles. Widely scattered thundershowers Saturday and early Sunday hopefully have broken a long dry spell that bordered on drouth. Although the rain totals varied, the showers were fairly general. High winds and some hail accompanied the front that put the eastern portion of Lamb County and good part of the South Plains under a tornado watch for a time Saturday afternoon. A small tornado was blamed for the unroofing of a small building and tree damage east of Spade Saturday afternoon. Several buildings in Littlefield received some wind damage early Sunday morning in the wake of rain and some hail. At approximately 5:17 a.m. Sunday, two buildings were torn down at Littlefield Welding Works. The awning on the north side was ripped off and two plate glass windows in the Hill Rogers

Building were blown out in the early morning winds. Two plate glass windows were broken out of Bitner Tire and Supply, and a large elm tree was broken near the old lumber yard south of the motel building on east U.S. 84. A splintered utility pole nearby indicated rapidly rotating winds cause the damage in the eastern section of Littlefield's business district. Norman Emfinger reported the largest rainfall totals over the weekend. Emfinger received 4.03 inches in two rains on his home place three and one-half miles east of Littlefield on U.S. 84. He reported two inches a mile north of his house and north of Bainer Switch. Northwest of Spade rains averaged 1.7 inches. In the immediate Littlefield area 1.5 was recorded. Six miles southwest of Olton rains averaged 2.2. Near the town of Olton, 1.80 was the average report. At Whitharral, rains totaled from .8 to more than an inch. Rains were lighter to the west of Littlefield, with showers from a trace to an inch in the Amherst, Sudan areas. Farmers hope that repeat performances of the precipitation return regularly until planting time.

Voter Guidelines Given, Right To Vote Outlined

Voters continue to be confused over voter registration laws, according to Herbert Dunn, tax collector. Often, elderly persons who were used to getting poll tax receipts at the time they paid their taxes still think they need to register each year. All voters are reminded that present registrations are valid if they have voted in a Democratic Primary or a general election within the last three years. It is too late for persons to register for voting in area city and school board elections. But there is plenty of time for registering to vote in the Democratic primary. Persons who register by the cutoff deadline of April 3 may vote in the May 4 Primary elections. All registered voters, 18 years and older, are eligible to vote in elections. Notify the county tax assessor-collector of changes of address five days prior to election day so the voters names will be registered in the proper precinct when moving within the county. On moving from one county to another, voters must re-register 30 days prior to the election if a person wishes to vote in his new place of residence. Due to local option petitions, some people in this county are confused about eligibility to vote. Although there were some voters whose names were not counted on petitions, this does not mean that these persons are not considered qualified voters. Persons who are registered to vote may vote in school board, special, city, county, primary and general elections even though their names were not counted on various petitions. Being disqualified as a petitioner does not mean that a person is not a qualified petitioning and voting are under two different codes. Persons who have not registered to vote may appear in person in the tax collector's office on the first floor of the courthouse. Registration to vote may be done by mail, also. Applications for voter registration certificates can be obtained at any city hall. After completing these applications, they can be mailed to Herbert Dunn, tax collector, Lamb County Courthouse.

Dean Walden Wins Show Championship

Dean Walden, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Walden of Littlefield, won top honors with his 1,006-pound Angus steer in Lubbock Monday at the 41st Southwest Junior Livestock Show. Dean, with the help of his brother Brad Walden, exhibited the grand champion steer during the four-day show in Fair Park Coliseum. Dean is on crutches because of a broken toe and his younger brother exhibited the animal for him. Both are members of the Lamb County 4-H Club. Walden defeated two other divisional champions in a field of 125 beef calves to win the title. Other Lamb County youth placing in the show were Emilio Ramon of the Earth-Springle FFA, third place lightweight fine wool crossbred lamb; Cory Logsdon of the Lamb County 4-H, third place heavyweight medium wool lamb; and Emilio Ramon of Springlake-Earth FFA, first place lightweight crossbred steer.

Number Of Signatures Determined To Call Election

Additional petitions are ready to issue for circulation for signatures to call a local option election. Twenty petitions were issued Friday and 20 additional petitions will be issued this week. In commissioners court Monday, it was decided that a total of 825 signatures of qualified voters who live inside the city limits of Littlefield will be required to bring the issue to a vote. The last petition, which failed to certify by 85 names, required 743 qualified voters names. Since the last petitions were issued, a new law requires a total of 35 percent of the number of persons who voted in the last governor's race is required to call a local option election. At the last circulation of petitions a total of 25 percent of the voters in the last gubernatorial election were required. Petitions must be turned in no later than 30 days from the date they are issued. This means the petitions must be filed no later than closing time on April 5.

Following certification of the signatures, the commissioners court will set an election date at a regular second Monday meeting. New election laws prohibit calling a local option election on the date of the May 4 primary. In the Texas Election Laws 1973-74 edition, the law reads: No general or special election of any nature may be held on the same day as a primary election as provided for in Article 13.03 in this code. The petitions call for the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages including mixed beverages inside the city limits of Littlefield. This voting territory takes in all of the qualified voters who live inside the Littlefield city limits of voting precincts 10 and 14.

Man, Wife Running For Political Offices

By NILAH RODGERS Mr. and Mrs. Don Avery like the same things—even politics. Lois Avery ardently supported Don in his bid for state representative two years ago. He didn't win, but he carried 75 percent of the Hockley County votes. Now Avery is one of six candidates for commissioner of precinct 4, and Mrs. Avery is running for justice of peace for Hockley County precinct 4. The Averys are well known in the Littlefield area, and were Littlefield residents until they moved to their farm home north of the Hockley County line on U.S. 385. They still attend church in Littlefield. Avery belongs to the Littlefield Lions and Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Avery is active in the Littlefield Hospital Auxiliary. They both admit there are times when they'd sure like to vote in Lamb County elections. If they could jump the county line, Hockley County Democrats wouldn't let them. Lois is president of the Hockley County Democratic Women. At the last state Democratic convention, the Avery family was well represented. Mrs. Robert (Mildred) Avery, a sister-in-law to Don and Lois, attended as Democratic Committeewoman. The Robert Averys son-in-law Lanny Modawell attended the convention as the Levelland representative, and Don was alternate delegate. Don and Lois have attended several state executive meetings since Mildred has been district committee woman. "But all party politics are on the precinct level," Lois said. "If you don't get in on precinct politics you lose out." The Avery family lives in the Whitharral community. In fact it was in the Whitharral community in the early 1940's when Don got interested in politics and campaigning when his dad ran for commissioner and put Don and his brother Bill to work passing out his political cards. Don is seeking the commissioner's post in the precinct where Jim Hobgood is incumbent, Hobgood has been commissioner for 16 years and is not seeking re-election due to the critical illness of his son Walter. With the door wide open, six candidates got into the race before the filing deadline. Two are from the Whitharral community, two are from Anton, one from Levelland and one from Smyer. Dorothy Conkin of Anton was appointed to the JP post when it was created, and this is the first time a JP will be elected in this precinct.

The three Avery children are rather accustomed to political talk between their parents. Bobby and Jimmy casually pass out cards. But Donna, the eldest Avery child, thinks it would be super neat if her parents win the election. She has special plans if her mother becomes JP. Donna has a very special feeling about a certain Smyer football player. And if her mother is named justice of peace, Donna plans for her daddy to give her away in marriage with her mother performing the ceremony.

MR. AND MRS. Don Avery make politics a family affair. Both are running for offices in Hockley County in the May 4 Democratic primary. (Staff Photo)

Earth Citizens To Be Honored At C-C Banquet

Top citizens of the Earth, Springlake and Lazbuddie Communities will be honored Saturday night during the 19th annual Earth Chamber of Commerce Banquet, slated for 8 p.m. in the Springlake-Earth School Cafeteria. Speaker for the event will be Lee D. Herring of Grand Prairie, a banker and noted after-dinner speaker. According to the C-C at Earth, Herring's speaking career started by chance, and his popularity grew until about the only public caucus he missed was an old-fashioned Fourth of July country picnic—and he had his speech ready for that, just in case. Herring notes that he has delivered more than 100 speeches last year, and likes to use original anecdotes—many coming from his own family situations. He is married and has three daughters and a son. Herring is vice president of the Grand Prairie State Bank, and completed high school in Mineral Wells. He attended Allen Academy in Bryan and Texas Tech where he played football under Coach Pete Cawthorn. He played in the Cotton Bowl in 1939.

Adult Social Services Alternatives Outlined

Alternatives to nursing home or institutional care are being offered by the State Department of Public Welfare to Texas' needy aged, blind and disabled, according to Barbara Foster, Social Service worker for Littlefield. "The new 'adult social services' are designed to help those who don't require full-time nursing care to continue living at home," State Welfare Commissioner Raymond W. Vowell said. The new programs are intended for elderly people, and the blind and disabled, who receive a monthly assistance check from the federal government's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program.

Plaintiff Gets Jury Verdict

A jury verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Bill Roper, was returned in a civil suit this week styled Bill Roper versus Gertrude Teague for declaratory judgement in district court. Five of the cases set for trial were settled out of court, two were passed, and the suit of Travis Wayne Jones versus Olan Wharton was withdrawn from jury hearing. Jurors in the land dispute case found that Roper had five years possession of the farm land and furnished pipe and an underground sprinkler irrigation system and that Mrs. Teague agreed to five years possession of the land for making the improvements. Jurors were John Aguilar, Mrs. Herbert Hinkley, Reba Clark, Ella Mae Johnson, Rosalinda Morales, Mrs. D. W. Williamson, Helen Franks, Mrs. Franklin Lane, Loyie W. Hill, Christine Breshers, Landon Grissom and Rosa Mason. Grissom was foreman.

"With a little help, many elderly people who otherwise would have to enter nursing homes can live at home or in their own communities," Vowell said. "All they need is someone to help them do things they can no longer do for themselves, like cooking meals and taking care of the house."

To be offered on a statewide basis as community resources become available, the new programs include Homemaker, Chore, Foster Care, Day Care and other services to adults. Homemakers services provide someone to perform such personal care as bathing, exercising and giving medication, as well as preparing meals and doing light housework. The service will be provided for a few hours a day or on a 24-hour basis for a temporary period until the person is able to do for himself. A similar program is Chore services, which is less personal, and provides a home service aide who can help with such things as cooking, cleaning, doing the laundry, shopping for groceries, minor repairs and yard work. Day Care, a familiar service for children, will become available for adults as well, either in a family day home or at a day center. Family day homes are to provide a place for relatives to leave an elderly or disabled person during working hours. These homes will be approved by the Welfare Department and are limited to caring for three or fewer persons. Day centers care for larger numbers, providing meals and recreational and other activities in a supervised group setting. Elderly persons will have another alternative. Foster Care Services for Adults offers 24-hour care in foster family homes which are approved and supervised by the Welfare Department. They are designed for people who are unable to maintain their own homes, but who do not require regular nursing home care. The Department of Public Welfare pays for these services and is interested in locating people who are willing to offer their homes for day care or foster care, as well as those who wish to contract with the department to provide Chore and Homemaker Services to adults.

Persons in need of such services or who wish to offer their services would contact Mrs. Barbara Foster in the Welfare Department at the County Courthouse in Littlefield or by calling 385-4407, Littlefield. When aged, blind or disabled SSI recipients are found to be living in hazardous conditions or in situations in which they cannot protect themselves, a DPW social services worker will act to correct those situations through the Protective Services program. In addition, the Welfare Department will assist SSI applicants and recipients in finding and using community resources related to education, employment, health, housing, transportation and other needs. "Our primary goal in offering alternate care is to help as many people as possible delay going into nursing homes until they really need to," Vowell said. "Nursing home or other institutional care continues to have the support of the Welfare Department when there are not other alternatives."

WHEN WRAPPING a gift for a baby, wrap the item with a pretty printed diaper and seal it with a rattle and diaper pins, instead of ribbon and a bow. All items included are useful.
TO MAKE iron-on patches and tapes adhere longer, pink the edges of the patches and tapes.
THERE IS LESS pain when plucking eyebrows if you first rub ice over the eyebrows to temporarily numb the area.

TO REJUVENATE paste polish that has become dried and cracked, allow the polish to melt in the box over very low heat.

Con Con Acts On Voting Rights

The Texas Constitutional Convention, picking up momentum after the conclusion of its work on the long stalemated Education Article, concluded floor debate on the article on suffrage in two days. Rep. Bill Clayton, (D-Springlake), reported that the delegates took action in two major areas of concern to the people of the state; one with which he agreed and one which he opposed.
The convention included in the article a section which will require the eligibility for voting in bond elections be limited to property owners. Delegate years.
Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Tom Sluder of Olton; four sons, Irvin Wozencraft of Olton, W. T. Wozencraft of Dimmitt, Melvin Wozencraft of Las Vegas, Nev. and Johnny "Buddy" Wozencraft of Sweetwater; two brothers, Roscoe Smith of Mansfield and Hubert Smith of Fort Worth; 16 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Clayton stated that he strongly favored this section, pointing out that this will allow those who have to pay taxes which fund bond issues to be the voters who decide if the debt should be incurred in the first place.
The second issue of concern with which the convention dealt was action which gave the right to vote to felons. Clayton, who strongly opposed the change from the present constitutional ban which prohibits anyone convicted of a felony from voting, stated that he felt that the present system, which makes provisions for the granting of pardons on an individual basis, provides sufficient latitude for exceptions.
Clayton noted that he felt a person who had committed a serious crime against society should have to take individual action to prove his rehabilitation and desire to become a voting citizen after serving his sentence.
The convention, which has used almost two-thirds of its allotted 90-day session, began consideration of the Executive article on Friday.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Try The Upbeat

"THE UPBEAT" in a musical measure is an unaccented beat, or to be more specific, it is "the last beat in the measure".
It is indicated by the musical director with an upward movement of the hand or the baton.
"UPBEAT", in its adjectival form and usage, has the much wider and more inclusive meaning of "optimistic or cheerful".
The downbeat in music is the "the downward stroke of a conductor in indicating the principally accented note of a measure; also any first beat".
Downbeat, is an adjective, in its more general application, means "pessimistic, gloomy".

IN MUSIC, the rhythmic structure or movement is accomplished by a group of musical beats.
It is a combination of "upbeats" and "downbeats"; neither all one or the other.

LIFE IS LIKE MUSIC, in this respect. Living is not going to be all "upbeats" or all "downbeats". It does seem, however, that considerable effort is being put forth to give the "downbeats", and ignore the "upbeats".
Much of the news presented from early morning until close of the day is on the downbeat. It is almost, if not completely, filled with information that is heavily loaded with "gloomy" ideas and conclusions.

TO MAKE THE SITUATION worse, many of the persons we meet during a day's journey are on the "downbeat" with their talk. If we are not extremely careful, we will go with the "pessimistic and gloomy" conclusions. Admitting that there are justifiable reasons for some of the gloom, we can surely understand that life is not all gloom.

If we make life all gloom there can be no harmony; monotony, in which the beat and the forward movement standstill.

THERE ARE TIMES and "the upbeat", and it is becoming increasingly important that we "upbeat".
If we ignore the indicated in music, we ruin the music. If the indicated "upbeats" in life ruin the living.

"BE CHEERFUL ALWAYS" no path but will be easier to load but will be lighter, on the heart and brain but will lift the person determined to be Anon.

So far as living is concerned, very real sense in which each his own director, and can reasonably skillful in that important role.
It is a mistake to let someone sees only the indicated downbeat; to let others impose gloomy and pessimistic gloom.

WE MUST NOT MISREAD or be unrealistic, to the pretending that all is just however, we must see and consideration to all that is "optimistic and cheerful".

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEW

GUESS I MUST be getting to be anemic. I find myself getting sick quite often anymore.
Sick of Watergate, sick of inflation, the fuel crunch, sick of taxes, politics, kidnapping, and the publicity given to the streakers—Sure need a shot of optimism from somewhere!

SPEAKING OF THE streakers, I wonder whatever gave anyone the idea that the sight of a nude body displayed in public, was supposed to give anyone of sane and healthy thinking, a thrill?
The president is recommending that the death penalty should be reinstated for kidnapers that kill their victims. This could point to a start toward the return of law and order, and perhaps might even affect the enforcement of indecent exposure.

AS IT STANDS, the law enforcement officers, and the public is treating this vulgar pastime as some kind of joke. Since their aim is to shock the decent citizens, we wonder what they'll dream up next, if they're allowed to continue their public personal display?—Send our kids to college for this??

Well it finally come to the point that if you don't care to be insulted, you'll have to pull your shades and stay in your own house?—Surely we can do better than this!

CALL ME BLOODTHIRSTY wish, but I'm hoping that they do a pinch on the kidnappers, and that they develop a healthy respect for the law.
The streakers?—Wonder how THEY'D be if they were the recipients of a load of rock salt, delivered, gun, to the southern exposure—THAT'D get speedy results.

SHUX, WE may even live to return of the vigilantes. SOME going to have to teach those nakedness went out of style what that fig back there in the Garden—We're LOST our innocence.

IF YOU LIKE horror stories might try watching the news.

ANYONE KNOW what's gone pain in the neck?—About the think I've lost it, he's back again.

SPOTTED, THO THEY rains came. Not enough by any but I've already seen some of the mers smiling.

MEANTIME, GET ready school to dip a little deeper—Get the teacher, as well as the fiddlers say.

Turn Row COMMENTS

By EMIL MACK

THE ATMOSPHERE and attitudes have changed to the better after the rains over the weekend. Actually it was predicted to come a week earlier, but it was a little slow getting here. Guess from now on, when I predict the weather, you need to give me about 72 hours on either side of the date predicted because of uncertain elements.
Was wondering if this would be one of the wettest Marches on record for the area and after looking back on the rainfall chart, we have had quite a few wet Marches.

In 1913, the area received 1.28 inches of moisture. 2.52 inches fell in 1915 and 3.39 was the total amount received in 1919. There were only 13 other years in which we received more than an inch of moisture in March. The latest being 1970 when 1.69 inch was received. The largest amount of moisture received in March was 3.59 inches dating back to 1941.

Guess the driest Marches on record for the area were in 1971, 1966, and 1966 when no moisture was received. A 62-year average on moisture for March is .76 of an inch.
The rainfall varied over the area from as little as three tenths of an inch west of Friendship to as much as 4.3 inches northeast of Olton. Regardless of the amount, it sure was a blessing.

SEEMS LIKE STREAKING is beginning to grow in popularity on some college campuses. Was wondering when Cornball would take up the sport? I don't suppose the sport is limited to college students.

IN REFERENCE to the Tennis Memorial fund that has been noticed that Bob Templeton, an alumnus from Amarillo, has sent in $1,000 the money was deposited in the National Bank. Another account has been opened in the Security State Bank.
Let's get behind this project and support it. For tennis courts are here in Littlefield. This project is a wonderful thing—something that is needed.
We have many youngsters in the area who like to play tennis, but can't because the local tennis courts are crowded.

DON'T FORGET THE boy's dribblers' tournament will be held in place soon, try to come out and see the real basketball action.

TO BE SEVENTY YEARS sometimes far more cheerful and hopeful than to be forty years old.

Wildcat Tracksters Faced Tough Competition At Lorenzo

The Wildcat tracksters battled a strong field and adverse weather conditions Saturday en route to a seventh place finish at the Lorenzo track meet.

The Cats finished the day with 33 points, as Floydada outclassed the rest of the field with 140 points, 50 ahead of second-place Tulia.

"We were up against some very tough competition," said Coach Lewis Boomer. "Floydada, Tulia, Roosevelt, and Tahoka all have good teams, and this partly explains why we didn't do as well as last week (the Cats won the Wildcat Relays last week). Also, our boys have been working out real hard. We're working on conditioning ourselves, and the boys were pretty well tired and didn't have much spring in their legs. But I'm not too disappointed, because we're trying to work real hard at this stage and then taper off in preparation for the district meet March 30. We want to be at our peak for that one."

Randy Cook notched the only first place points for the Cats in the shot put. Cook heaved the shot 51-1/2 for a personal best. Ricky Richards added fourth place points with a 47-5, also a personal best.

Ricky Hopping grabbed sixth place in both the shot and the discus, and Mike Cotter's vault of 11-6 was good for third. Stanley Patterson finished fifth in the 440. Bill Turner was fifth in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles, and Buddy Jungman finished sixth in the 880. The mile relay team rounded out the scoring with a sixth place finish.

"The conditions were pretty bad," Boomer explained. "It was real windy and rainy, and the meet was delayed twice while we waited for the hail to stop. Still, we had some improvements in times and distances. Patterson ran real well in the 440, but he had some tough competition. Three people that beat him were regional qualifiers last year. Steve Cruz ran his best quarter ever, and Turner improved in the hurdles. Richards and Cook threw their best in the shot, and Hopping improved in the discus."

"We've got some tough meets coming up," Boomer continued. "We go to Hereford Saturday, and there'll probably be about 20 teams there. Then we go to Roosevelt the week after, and there'll be around 20 teams there, too. So we'll be facing some tough competition, and we may not get a bunch of firsts. But we'll be working mainly to improve our times, and by March 30 we'll be ready."

Last year the Cats won district, beating out second place Friona. "Friona will be very tough this year," Boomer warned. "They scored 151 points at Abernathy last week and won the meet easily, scoring in every event. We'll have to rely on our depth if we're going to win district again this season. We may not get a bunch of firsts, but we'll have a lot of people who'll score points, and hopefully this will carry us through."

RANDY COOK, a 6-2 210 pound fullback and linebacker for the Littlefield Wildcats the past season, will sign a letter of intent this week to play football for West Texas State University in Canyon. Amherst Senior Inks With Howard Payne Butch Sutton, son of Mrs. Wilma Sutton of Amherst, signed a letter of intent this week to play football for Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas.

Sutton, a two-way all-district performer at halfback and linebacker for Amherst, completed his high school career with four letters in football, four in basketball, and three in track. The past season, Sutton was elected Tri-captain, the third year in succession he was voted the honor.

The Bulldogs finished out their year at 7-3. Sutton led the Bulldogs in kicking and punting, kicking 19 extra points, three field goals, and punting 26 times for a 43 yard average. He also carried the ball 135 times for a 6.5 yard average and defensively was in on 17 tackles per game.

Sutton explained that he owed a great deal of his football success to his teammates who "were dedicated and did a good job. This scholarship reflects on the entire Bulldog team of 1973," Sutton said.

He plans to major in biology with a minor in physical education at Howard Payne.

TSTA Representative To Speak For Teachers

A representative of the Texas State Teachers Association, Bob F. Newbill, is scheduled to speak to the Lamb County Teachers Association of the Texas State Teachers Association Monday, March 18, 7 p.m., at the Littlefield Jr. High School Cafeteria.

Mrs. Al Chambers with the sixth grade choir will provide the entertainment.

Newbill's subject will be "Texas State Teachers Association's Wonderful World of Travel."

Newbill, assistant director of Public Relations for the Texas State Teachers Association, maintains membership in various professional organizations at the state and national levels, including Texas State Teachers Association, Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association, Texas Council of Teachers of English, National Council of Teachers of English, Kappa Delta Pi, National Education Association, and National School Public Relations Association.

After receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in English from Midwestern University, he began his teaching career at Wichita Falls High School. Later moving to Richardson, Newbill served both as a secondary teacher and as a consultant. There he was active in local association work and held several offices, including the presidency. His Master of Arts degree was awarded by Sul Ross State University.

A native of Athens, he joined the TSTA staff in March, 1979. In addition to Newbill's public relations duties with TSTA, he also serves as a travel consultant in planning outstanding educational travel programs for the teachers of Texas.

County Teachers Attending TSTA

Three Lamb County educators are planning to attend the 95th annual state convention of the Texas State Teachers Association March 14-17 at the Fort Worth/Tarrant County Convention Center.

Mrs. Carol Seaborn, Mrs. Kenneth Woods and Mrs. Joe W. Bailey will be among the 10,000 TSTA local associate members and guests attending. The teachers will be official representatives to the 1974 TSTA house of delegates. That is the state association's governing body, which will meet three times during the convention to act on proposed amendments to the TSTA constitution and conduct other business.

The 1,540 official delegates are elected from the 484 TSTA local associations throughout the state. They are certified by districts on the basis of one delegate per 100 members of major fraction of 100, to represent the 151,000 members of TSTA. Every local association is entitled to at least one official delegate.

Dr. Joyce Brothers of New York City, noted psychologist and author, and Jesse Owens of Phoenix, Ariz., who won four gold medals in the 1936 Olympics, will speak.

WT Lands Littlefield Athlete

Randy Cook, a two-way all-district selection for the Littlefield Wildcats this season and an all-South Plains performer at defensive tackle as a junior will sign a letter of intent to play football for the West Texas State Buffaloes in Canyon this week.

Cook made his choice last week after a tour of the West Texas campus and a meeting with Buffalo Coach Gene Mayfield, formerly a head coach at Littlefield.

"I narrowed my choice of colleges down to either West Texas or Eastern New Mexico," Cook said. "I finally decided on West Texas because the facilities seemed better and I think it has a better overall athletic program. Also, it's close to home and my parents wanted me to go there."

Cook was offered full scholarships at both West Texas and Eastern, and made visits to Tarleton State University in Stephenville and
