

Wildcats Suffer Opening Game Loss, 15-7

WARREN
Littlefield Wildcats, defending champions, ran ragged over the Pirates Friday night in all quarters except one—the scoring quarter.

The hometown Pirates took advantage of two major turnovers by the Cats to garner the victory despite an exceptional performance by jr. tailback Bill Turner who carried the ball 36 of the Wildcat team's 48 running plays to amass 166 total yards rushing for a 4.6 yd. average per carry.

for 88 yards, added 35 more through the air for an offensive total of 123 yards.

The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and appeared to be on a sustained drive as they moved from their own 27 down to Cooper's 38 yard line before a fumble by halfback Stanley Patterson ended the drive.

Turner carried the ball the first four plays of the game and a total of 9 times out of the Cat's first 12 offensive attempts.

Cooper was unable to move on their first offensive try as on their first effort, Rick Hopping dropped quarterback Kelly Mahan for a five yard loss.

After Cooper's punt, the Cat's defense didn't get much rest as on the first play of this possession, quarterback Ronald Farmer fumbled and Cooper recovered

Staff member Nina Harris reports that parents and teachers of children who have participated in occupational therapy groups, "a first of its kind" in-service program is being conducted for children in the Kindergarten, Primary and Secondary grades of the Littlefield School system.

"One of the nicest parts of my job is when you said, 'You can't imagine how I have when a parent tells me that their child has been coming here. It's been so much improvement. I know the parents are happy and I think I'm almost as happy as when the results of our work with these children is successful.'"

Center handles other patients, too, who have been outstanding in the school children who have emotional problems that handicap their relationships with their friends.

Outreach center has handled at least one very emotionally disturbed child in emergency cases during the year. In addition to children's occupational therapy, and many receive individual counseling each week.

In discussing the departmental reports, councilmen noted that the city has 52 more water meters connected this year than last.

City Manager Jim C. Blagg presented the councilmen a report of administrative activities for the month of August. Context of the report is printed here.

"The greater part of August has been spent on preparation of the 1974-75 proposed budget and in preparation of the public hearing to be held September 5th. A great deal of work has gone into getting the budget ready this early.

"This will give the staff ample time to have the final budget in print well in advance of the beginning of the Fiscal Year. The department heads and other staff members are to be commended for their fine work on this year's budget.

"The Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife was contacted this month to learn the status of work on the master site plan they are preparing for Bull Lake. They have informed us that the site plan is near completion and should be in our hands sometime in September. We regret that the plan was not available for use in our budget preparations, although, we anticipate we may be able to implement parts of the plan through existing appropriations.

"The Administrative Staff has made all necessary preparation for application for the Federal Flood Insurance Program. The application with all pertinent information has been mailed to the Federal Insurance Administrator. This program provides a method by which property owners are able to buy flood insurance at reduced rates.

"During the month of August, I was appointed to serve on the Texas Municipal League Legislative Committee on Finance. This committee is responsible for putting together the legislative package on local government financing for the Texas Municipal League. These legislative proposals will be presented to the 64th Legislature for its consideration," he concluded.

Prospective donors will be checked and typed at that time, and the program is being sponsored by the Littlefield Lions Club.

"Unfortunately, we cannot extend this privilege to transfusions relating to the treatment of hemophilia.

To The EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The things I have written about weather modification are not based on old timer's beliefs, third hand hearsay, or pot smoking cowboys. It is all fact based on recorded records.

So far as I know, there has been no scientist to publish a paper on the 30's. These were the dust bowl days, and considered by all as very disastrous. We all agree with that. The recorded rain fall beginning with 1930 through 1937 is as follows: 13.40, 19.36, 24.16, 10.31, 9.72, 17.26, 27.03, and 22.25. This is a monsoon compared with 1973 and 1974.

The Spade farmers at the coffee shop should have gotten some facts straight. Rainfall for World War I years are as follows, 1914 through 1918: 31.43, 31.88, 15.03, 8.73, and 12.15. These years were also exceptionally wet compared to '73 and '74.

1943 was pretty dry. Only 12.79 inches for this year. Maybe all the bomb testing in New Mexico did cause it. The scientists say the climate and atmosphere has changed dramatically since the jets are thick around the large airports, and the smog added to this. This goes right back to what Dr. Langmuir said of seeding clouds. Quote, "major changes in climate would result from any widespread application of an atmospheric chemical or physical process which would hinder the mechanism of precipitation." Bombs, rockets, jets, and smog fit this "atmospheric chemical". They all give off some form of gas that is foreign matter added to our atmosphere, including silver iodide.

If the dry spell was caused by the high pressure ridge as Mr. Neinst quotes, where did the 400,000 acres of hail come from? That's moisture the hard way. Did it come over the top of this ridge, or just happen to find a hole big enough to slip up on the south plains, and in the shuffle leave the rain behind? The hail came up with low pressure troughs and cold fronts just like the rain producing clouds of early August. High pressures do not create cloudy skies that have caused the better weather boys to at times fly days and into the nights. They have been a very busy group this summer. High pressures would have kept them on the ground. There would have been nothing to seed. No low pressures, no clouds.

The skies from Texas to the Dakotas are being seeded now. Atmospheric, Inc. in Texas. The same group is seeding eastern Colorado for Lewis Grant, and the same bunch is seeding South Dakota for Williams and Schuedner. How much drier does the government want this area? It's well taken care of now, and it's dry.

Mr. Neinst wants an explanation that laymen can understand. Everyone knows that when the calves run with the cows, you get no milk. The calves (seeding airplanes) have been running foot loose and fancy free with the cows (our cloud systems) all summer. The calves have milked, and milked, and milked the cows all summer, and they have come up dry.

For some unknown reason, in early August, the calves voluntarily penned themselves, and the cows begin to run our buckets (rain gauges) over. We got the milk and the butter fat. It's as simple as this. When the calves are penned, the cows deliver their milk by very natural means. The cloud seeders proved this themselves when the planes stayed on the ground.

The dust bowl days were wetter than the Cirrus years of the 50's, and most certainly wetter than '73 and '74.

The facts and records I have brought to the people are mostly recorded in Littlefield and Lamb County. The opposition to cloud seeding didn't make these facts and records. We just compiled them, and put them before the public. I have enough more of these facts and records to fill this paper, from all over the globe.

I haven't had any hail either, no rain until Aug. 5, and no crop. The scientists have told us what the cloud seeders are doing to us. I'll go along with that. It is recorded fact and records in many publications, and the first 3 weeks of August proved everything the scientists have said about cloud seeding.

When there is any milking of our cloud systems, I prefer nature to do it, and once again in August it's been proved that nature knows best. The artificial milking came up dry. Nature's milking came up wet.

Sincerely,
s/Tommy McKinnon

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

AS MOST of you who live here know, I have been in the hospital the last couple of weeks.

I can't think of any thing very pleasant to say when I don't feel well myself.

But everyone has been so kind to me. The people here at the hospital and my friends and loved ones and I am so grateful to all of you.

I MAY be at home by the time this is in print, so I'll make this a column of gratitude.

First I am grateful to be getting well again. Hospitals are wonderful places to come to when you are sick, but they are wonderful places to get away from when you begin to get well—and start pestering the doctor to let us go home. How silly we are to want to go home so badly, when it is best for us to stay a few more days.

I am happy that my illness is one that I can recover from.

SO MANY are passing on, and I know my time will be soon according to the days of life. I hope I can face it as other brave people are doing it.

I think the greatest fear any of us have, is coming to the place where we can't care for our own body needs and have to depend on other people.

I am grateful for all the wonderful friends who have come to see me. I know I missed a lot of you as I have been sleeping so much while I am here.

I, TOO, am grateful for my wonderful family for caring and helping to keep me comfortable during my visit in the hospital.

I am grateful also to the ministers of God (not just my own dear pastor) but members of other churches too who have come to say "hello" and offer a prayer for me.

MOST OF ALL I am grateful to God who made us all and guides us along the way whether it be dark or light.

I'll close today with this quotation from Romans 8:

"For His Holy Spirit speaks to us deep in our hearts, and tells us that we are really God's children.

"And since we are His children we will share His treasures—for all God gives to His son Jesus is now ours too.

"But if we are to share His glory, we must also share His suffering."

I will again say "Thank You" to my doctor and the nurses who helped me through this illness.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE Lose Sometimes

WE LIKE TO WIN, in the sense that we can prove ourselves to be right; and there is some justification for this attitude. In some instances, it is very important, and even necessary for us to say and do every right thing we know to say and do; in order to win.

Sometimes this must be done, regardless of consequences.

It is very necessary, however, that we be just as wise as possible; in deciding when winning is justified.

IT IS NOT ALWAYS wise to press a point, to the extent of having our way. Even when this can be done successfully, it is not always best to do it.

Too many times, we just want to outdo somebody; or win a point. This may be pleasing to the ego, but the damage done can be much too great.

IT IS A VERY empty victory, when we win just for the sake of winning. What is the profit in being able to think and say, "I was right", if I have unnecessarily embarrassed someone or otherwise caused injury to somebody's self-concept?

There are many things about which we can state our views, but not push them to the extent of putting down others and their views. There will be times, when the right and the wise action is to say, "you may be right".

TO "LOSE SOMETIMES" is better than winning. This will not require us to give up any wisely formed opinion or make any concessions in the right and wrong. It does not mean hypocrisy, or any other kind of

There is no dishonesty involved means that we do not insist on arguing others; we are not upon every little thing being way. We do not put forth great have the last word. The difference is in the area of judgment, and be able to make an honest and concession.

THERE WILL BE TIMES, situation is not one of winning. In such situations, many people insist upon winning; and put forth to make everybody think they are that they are winners.

This kind of action produces lonely life. It is so much better to lose, and let others think they are winners; if this is what they want.

"A FOREMAN was a hard conscientious man, but had not a promotion in ten years. Asked an explanation for his failure, he replied, "many years had an argument with my superior."

THERE WILL BE TIMES when we must be firm and stand when we cannot afford to give in other times and places, it will be to "lose sometimes".

GUESS YOU NOTICED how I looked last time. Like I was standing with one foot propped up on a nail-keg. One leg was much shorter than the other. I'm quite sure this was due to the absence of my supporting writer.

TURN ROW, WHERE ARE YOU?

INFLATION!— THAT'S what you do to a football. Funny thing about a football being, that it really isn't a ball, at all. It's only round, one way.

The tighter you inflate a football, the farther you can kick the thing. When it hits the ground, it can do some very crazy things. There's no set pattern for its behaviour. When it hits it may well bounce right back in your face, tumble off to one side, or run from you like it was possessed. Overdo the inflation, and it busts!

WHEN THE INFLATION is taken out of the football, it becomes dead. You can't kick it very far, nor even throw it, to do any good. When it hits the ground there's only a dull thud, and the thing just lies right there. You can predict about everything it will do. Not much fun at all. The middle-of-the-road scheme is most satisfactory.

Somewhat, our economy is very like the football, but not nearly fun to watch. Careful, you go thinking the seams are beginning to give!

NEXT THING YOU know mechanic will have to have a degree to stay in business. It becoming more like humans' time.

It's not bad enough that he cope with symptoms of chills and poor digestion resulting in emissions and passing of gas circulation and clogging of nervous tensions, and high pressure.

IN '75 YOUR mechanic will be to watch for symptoms of trouble, catalyst secretion, respiratory problems, diaphragm response, contamination, and even bladder trouble.

When you take your patient your mechanic, please be patient him— He may be about as about what's causing that bad down condition in your car as Anyway, don't insist on an diagnosis.

Turn Row COMMENTS

By EMIL MACH

IN A RECENT SURVEY of a cross section of the members of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, members were asked to "rate your City, State and Federal Governments by checking the statement in each category which most described your feelings".

For Federal Government, 94 percent checked "too much activity"; for State Government, 50 percent checked "about right activity"; 40 percent checked "too much activity"; for City Government, 67 percent checked "about right activity", while 17 percent checked "too little activity" and 16 percent checked "no much activity".

It would appear that in spite of a recent deluge of national politicians' lawbouncing about lack of Federal Government activity, many West Texans (93 percent) feel they are getting a whole lot more national government activity than they want, or feel they need.

State Government activity is rated about a toss-up between "about right" and "too much", while City Government is rated "about right". Apparently, the government that is closest to the people responds more nearly to the people's desires.

This opinion survey was mailed to 882 WTCOC members throughout West Texas, and 322 responded to the written survey.

The survey also asked that they rate their greatest concern in six specific areas. A tabulation shows that 24 percent rated inflation their greatest concern; 20 percent, increase in federal regulations; 17 percent, federal taxes; 15 percent, increase in state regulations; 11 percent, state taxes; 10 percent, city taxes; and 3 percent had other concerns not listed in the survey form.

Probing further into specific areas of local concern, those surveys asked to rate local problems in most concern. A tabulation of returns shows that 22 percent rising costs of merchandise and as their most concern; 17 percent available labor supply; 16 percent scarcity of supplies or materials; 16 percent, prices of your merchandise or your services; 15 percent, availability; 12 percent, sales volume; and 2 percent, other concerns.

Based upon the results of this it would seem West Texas' biggest concern today are inflation, rising costs, increased federal regulations, taxes, available labor supply, scarcity of both supplies and merchandise having to be charged by merchandise or services, increased regulations, water availability, taxes, sales volume and city taxes. Other concerns listed minimal.

THE ANSWER to our last problem Albert can only go two miles woods because he is then at the and after that must be coming

Safety Proof Youngsters

IT'S THAT TIME of year again when parents should attempt to "safety proof" their youngsters— many of whom are entering school for the first time.

Whether walking, riding in a bus or car, or bicycling to school, plans should be made to ensure the safety of every child, reminds the Texas State Department of Health.

DARTING ACROSS the streets without looking, crossing at mid-block from between parked cars, and doing bicycle tricks in traffic are just a few of the pitfalls to be avoided, advises the Health Department.

Parents can caution their children about all careless practices, and they also can show them. If your child is starting to school— or going to a new school— it's a good idea to make the trip at least once with the child.

IF HE WILL be pedaling to and from school every day— often in inclement weather— you'll want to be doubly sure that your child is observing safety rules. If you're a motorist in the vicinity of schools, be especially wary, says the State Health Department.

What are the trouble spots for bicyclists and motorists? Collisions between motor vehicles and bicycles occurs about as follows:

- Well over half at intersections.
- Seven out of ten during daylight hours.
- Most bicycle riders killed or injured in traffic accidents, were violating a traffic law at the time of the incident.
- Half of the motor vehicle-bicycle accidents involved a violation on the part of the motor vehicle operator.
- One out of five bicycles involved in accidents had some mechanical defect.

violations of cyclists are (not in order of frequency):

- Failure to yield right-of-way. (In most cases, the cyclists did not "see" the car; in some cases he intentionally infringed on the motorist's right-of-way.)
- Riding in the center of the street.
- Speed too fast for conditions of traffic and road surface.
- Disregard of traffic control devices— signal lights and stop signs.
- Improper turning.

TO AVOID such situations as just described, here are some safety rules for bicyclists:

"A skillful bicycle rider always has his bike under control. He never drives too fast and he never rides too far. He always has both hands free to steer.

"The cyclist must develop skill in balancing and pedaling to avoid swerving into traffic, hitting a fixed object, running off the sidewalk or highway. Parents have the responsibility to be certain their child has the skill to cope with traffic before permitting him to ride on the street.

"Every bicycle driver should be familiar with the laws governing bicycling in his community, or the one in which he is riding. These rules are usually available through the school or local police.

"Cyclists must ride on the right side of the street with the flow of traffic; not on the left, facing traffic.

"Hand signals should be used by the cyclists, and are now commonly accepted as a safe riding practice.

"Cyclists should avoid crowding between cars at stop signs, or between an automobile and the curb.

"Carrying more passengers than a bicycle is designed and equipped for is dangerous and illegal. Two on a bike also increases stopping distances. The polo or "banana" seat, standard equipment on the hi-rise bike, appears designed to carry two. Such is not the case!

"Never hold onto a moving vehicle nor in any way attach the bike to the vehicle.

"Always ride single file.

"Trick riding is always dangerous. Drivers of hi-riders are especially cautioned against making the bike rear up and riding on back wheels only, or jumping the bike over obstacles.

Lubbock Experiment Station Sets Annual Field Day

Preparations are underway for the Annual Field Day of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station north of Lubbock, set for Tuesday, Sept. 10, at the County Extension Agent's office. On the occasion will be a display of research plots and a machinery display. Members of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, ARS-USDA, National Weather Service and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will be on hand to explain and demonstrate the research efforts being conducted on the sprawling 275-acre site known as the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, Logsdon says. These agencies are based at the center, except for NWS whose agricultural meteorologist is officed there.

The site is located 7 1/2 miles north of Lubbock on Hwy 87, just north of the Lubbock Regional Airport.

Field tours will begin at 1 p.m. with special evening tours from 5:30-6:30, says Logsdon.

Stops along the 35-minute tractor-trailer ride around the Station's research plots will include discussions about new developments in soil water research, soil fertility, short season, narrow row cotton, weed control research, and sorghum insect pest management.

The tours will depart from the station headquarters every 15 minutes through the afternoon, allowing visitors to get on or off at any of the five field stops, Logsdon explains. A five-minute talk will be presented at each of the five stops.

Weather equipment and farm machinery will be added attractions for the public viewing. The ARS-USDA research gin just down the road also will be open to visitors.

Special evening tours from 5:30 to 6:30 will be staged for those unable to make the afternoon events, he adds. Businessmen, agricultural industry representatives, and consumers interested in agricultural research are invited to take advantage of the special tours.

The field day annually attracts over 1,000 visitors. Free refreshments and parking assistance are provided.

is getting the proper treatment. Some with physical problems are referred to medical doctors, others that are diagnosed as emotional disturbances are helped through counseling and group activities.

Ann Ford's group sessions in Littlefield have involved puppet shows, fantasy trips, completion pictures (where children are given the basics of a picture and the complete it themselves in a group) and other activities to stimulate their recovery.

One such activity began with a group of youngsters lying on an old parachute with their eyes closed. Ann prepared them by calling their attention to sounds, the wind and other things around them. After they were relaxed, she told them to think about how they were going to play like they were trees.

At the proper time, all the children rose and assumed the posture they thought resembled the kind of tree each wanted to be. One young boy, however, just stood up and began crying loudly, startling Ann, who quickly rushed over to see what was wrong.

"What are you crying about?" Ann asked.

"Can't you tell, dummy, I'm a weeping willow!"

Ann likes to work with children because they "tell it like it is. If they don't like you, they tell you. It's easier to find out what's disturbing children than it is adults. Adults have the tendency to play games with one another. But children come right out with it. You always know exactly where you are with children. I think that's one reason I like to work with them so much. They're creative and imaginative, and to work with them I have to get on their level and be one of them. I can't seem like a parent, or a teacher, or represent authority. I have to become one of them to learn about them and to help them."

Following the series of group meetings and programs in each town where outreach facilities are available, there are meetings with parents of children, and with teachers, to objectively determine the success of the program for each child.

"Results have been very good," Ann said. "The parents tell us how the child is doing at home, and like Nina said, it's great to hear that 'little Johnny' is making better grades and is happier than he's been in a long time. It makes me very happy to hear that."

Foundation Planning Field Day

economy in general.

Field tours are set to begin at 1:30 p.m.

A member of the scientific staff will conduct each tour and acquaint each group with most of the projects underway. One truck will depart each 20 minutes and the tour will last from 45 minutes to one hour. At the conclusion of each tour, a drawing will be held for a $25 savings bond, courtesy of area banks.

An equipment exhibit and farm show will be set up for those who want to see the latest in farm equipment, agricultural chemicals, seeds, fertilizers, and other farm-related products.

Among specific projects to be seen on the tour will be a study on double-cropping with wheat and triticale followed by four other crops, including sunflowers. A study to determine the effects of herbicide-insecticide interactions on grain sorghum stands and yield has shown some startling results and may be seen by Field Day visitors. These, along with tests on weed control, minimum-tillage, irrigation, new crops, variety testing, insect control, and many others, will highlight the tour.

Expenses for conducting the Field Day on Sept. 12 will be paid by the Plainview Co-op Compress, First National Bank, City National Bank, and Hale County State Bank, all of Plainview.

... WILDCATS

Littlefield's 33 yard line.

The action came with 4:04 left in the quarter.

Cooper and Littlefield exchanged punts on the first quarter ended with Cooper getting off a 50 yard punt for the Pirates.

Cooper was unable to move on their possession and then the Cats lost possession on a fourth down try on Cooper's run that missed by inches.

The Wildcats scoring drive began with a first half with the ball on their own territory. Parmer, on the first play, hit Gary Lichte with a 16 yard pass to move the ball down to the 39 yard line. A 15 yard late-hit pass aided the Wildcats' drive as he advanced the ball down to Cooper's 11 yard line. Turner then picked up 8 yards, then three yards and finally the scoring ice with 1:42 left in the quarter as he broke over the middle for a touchdown scamper.

Cooper also kicked the extra point and the half ended after an exchange of punts with Littlefield ahead 7-0.

Cooper received the second half kickoff but was unable to retain possession. Long, as Reginald Payton intercepted a Choban pass with 10:34 left in the third quarter and the Cats had the ball on Cooper's 48 yard line.

Cooper runs by Turner, capped off by a punt scamper, and one by Patterson on the Cats on the Pirate's 8 yard line.

with a first down and goal-to-go situation.

Cooper held Turner to no gain on the first play and only 2 yards on the second. Patterson picked up one and it was a fourth down and five situation. The Cats tried a field goal with 7:32 left in the quarter but it was wide.

Each team had trouble moving the ball and in the next five minutes, Cooper punted twice and Littlefield once. On Littlefield's second punt try with 1:10 left in the third quarter, the enrushing Cooper line blocked Turner's punt and the Pirates took over on the Cat's 16 yard line.

David Bermea picked up two yards to the Cat's 14 yard line then Scott Armstrong broke a couple of tackles and swept into the end zone for Cooper's first score with 16 seconds left on the scoreboard clock for the third quarter.

Cooper then called timeout to discuss strategy on whether to go for two or one extra point and the long timeout paid off dividends as quarterback Choban dove into the endzone for two points to put the Pirates ahead, 8-7.

Littlefield received the kickoff with 10 seconds remaining in the 3rd quarter but was unable to get past their own 39 yard line and was forced to punt.

The Cat's defense rallied to the occasion and held Cooper to their own 24 yard line and the Pirates had to punt for the sixth time.

Littlefield took the ball at mid-field and had a sustained march going down to Cooper's 36 yard line until the Cat's second major turnover of the game popped up in the form of a Pirate pass 'heft.

This began Cooper's longest drive of the game as they started on their own 42 yard line with 6:39 left in the game and finally scored on a busted play as Choban went around left end with 1:06 left. The TD and extra point made it Cooper 15, Littlefield 7.

In the final seconds of the game, Steve Cruz returned the kickoff to the Cooper 18 yard line and visions of a spectacular finish began popping up in the heads of Wildcat fans.

However, Parmer lost 9 yards on the first play but Turner picked this up and more as he ran for 13 yards with 15 seconds left. A timeout stopped the clock and then Parmer's pass was incomplete. Cooper was penalized 5 yards for off-sides and the Cats crept closer to the goal line.

But the clock put an end to the Cat's hopes as it ticked off its final three seconds as Parmer completed a 10 yard pass to Turner and the game ended with Littlefield on Cooper's 39 yard line.

Littlefield travels to Levelland next week in the traditional battle for "The Trap." Levelland was winner Friday night over the Class AAA Brownfield Cubs, 9-8.

Enochs News

ABOUT 10 INCHES of good rain has fallen on this dry country, and how nice it is, even if it's too late for this year's crop. There will be some type of growth on the ground to keep the soil from blowing away. This area did not receive any violent weather, so it has been wonderful. Many farmers will prepare their ground for wheat so they will have grazing for their cattle.

MRS. LOUISE MCCALL of Enochs is back at home since Monday afternoon, after a week's stay in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock after a train-car wreck in Lubbock. She is still weak and staying in bed, but is doing fine.

G. R. NEWMAN of Enochs for the last 30 years, died Thursday of last week. He had been in bad health for some time. He died in the Methodist Hospital at Lubbock. Burial was in the Enochs Cemetery. Services were in Enochs Baptist Church, with Charlie Shaw in charge of the services. Ellis Funeral Home of Muleshoe was in charge of the burial. Newman was a World War I Veteran, having served in France for 18 months. He was 86 years old and is survived by his wife, four sons and one daughter. Pallbearers were: Bobby Henderson, Gary Nichols, Dale Nichols, James Pearson, Ralph Beasley, and Eldon Byars. Mrs. Newman resides here in Enochs.

MRS. E. C. GILLIAM of Enochs is in Cochran Memorial Hospital for tests and observation.

E. A. BASS is back at home after a week's stay in Cochran Memorial Hospital.

OUR HEARTS went out to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sniker of this community while their son, Stanley, was held as hostage in Amarillo jail. Everyone was relieved when he was released. Stanley grew up in this community and went to school at Bula.

MRS. BLANCHE CASH visited in the home of Mrs. Alma Altman. Her home is in Muleshoe.

KIM COATS left for school at San Marcos University as a Junior. He spent the summer in Westlaco, working in River Ministry inside Mexico. He will be occupied with B.S.U. work in this school.

MR. AND MRS. Johnnie Cox visited in Dallas with their children last week. They returned Monday.

MRS. CLEO HALL and daughter, Sherri, of Phoenix, Ariz. returned home after a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bayless and Mr. Carl Hall. She did some canning of vegetables while she was here.

THE LLANOS ALTOS association held workers' conference Monday at the Enochs Baptist Church. Had a good supper and good services afterward.

With the extra point kicked by Latham's touchdown, the score stood 7 to 0. The Wolverines bested the Bulldogs by one touchdown for the night and won the game 19 to 12. (Staff Photo)

OLTON 8-TULIA 0
The Mustangs from Olton opened their season here Friday night with an 8-0 win over the Tulia Hornets.

With only seconds remaining in the first half, Olton's Clarence Johnson blocked a Tulia punt and his brother Glenn picked it up and rambled 30 yards for the only score of the evening.

Jimmy Parker scored the extra points for the 3-AA Mustangs.

Olton rushed for 134 yards during the defensive contest while limiting Tulia to 60 yards rushing and 40 yards passing.

HART 70-ANTON 13
The Longhorns stamped the visiting Anton Bulldogs 70-13.

Donald Robinson led the Hart parade with 3 touchdowns with teammates Lester Aven and Terry Hill adding two apiece. Hart gained 401 yards over ground while Anton managed 24. Hart ended the encounter with 31 first downs with Anton totaling 22.

Hart scored 4 points in the first period, exploded for 37 in the second, 13 in the third and six in the fourth. Anton pushed across 13 in the first and third periods.

SUNDOWN 31-SUDAN 6

Halfback Mike Waygood was a one-man wrecking crew Friday night in Sundown as the Roughnecks downed the Sudan Hornets 34-6. Waygood carried the ball but 13 times yet he scored three touchdowns on runs of 64, 26, and 84 yards. Waygood also kicked extra points in the opening game for both teams.

Halfback Glenn Faught scored a touchdown for the losers.

WOLVERINES 19 AMHERST 12

The Wolverines from Springlake-Earth dumped the Amherst Bulldogs 19-12 here Friday night on the strength of a 75-yard kickoff return late in the fourth quarter.

Terry Hood, Wolverine halfback, gathered in a kick by the Bulldogs late in the final period to give the home team their opening season game victory.

After a scoreless first half, the Wolverines opened the scoring when John Cleavinger scored on a one-yard sneak.

On the first play of the final quarter, Jac Miller scored on a 13-yard run.

Amherst charged back with two quick touchdowns to pull within one point of the lead.

But that set the stage for Hood's kickoff return which iced the victory.

STANLEY MILLER, Amherst Bulldog, (20) scampered 9 yards to make the first touchdown for the Bulldogs in the middle of the fourth quarter Friday night in Wolverine Stadium, making the score Springlake-Earth, 13 to Amherst's 6. The Bulldogs earned six more points when Eddie Duval covered a Springlake-Earth fumble and rolled across the goal line for another touchdown. Coming to Miller's aid are Martin Tucker (40) and David Booth (50). (Staff Photo)

"We have become a nation of impulse shoppers, of gadget buyers... and many of us no longer practice comparative price shopping. Discontent bred by inflation can provoke profoundly disturbing social and political change, as the history of other nations teaches. I do not believe I exaggerate in saying that the ultimate consequence of inflation could well be a significant decline of economic and political freedom for the American people." — Arthur F. Burns, Chairman of the Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System of the 4-H foundation.

The foundation works on a cooperative basis with the Extension Service and is governed by a board of 26 trustees who are leading business executives from throughout the state.

"Many of the training and leadership programs for 4-H youth are made possible by individual and business contributions to the 4-H foundation," points out Davison.

Among the functions of the foundation are to mobilize human and financial resources, develop educational projects to improve the effectiveness of Extension Service programs, and beginning in 1975, to operate the new Texas 4-H Center at Lake Brownwood.

According to Davison, there are nine major projects in the state 4-H program that are supported by the 4-H Foundation:

1. State 4-H Roundup—an annual competitive event to test 4-H skills in various areas of agriculture, home economics and community and natural resources.

2. Awards programs—more than 30 such programs provide recognition for 4-Hers who have distinguished themselves in project work.

3. International 4-H Youth Exchange—a national program involving the exchange of youth among various countries.

4. College scholarships—numerous scholarships are provided to qualified and outstanding 4-Hers who need financial assistance.

5. Leadership—training programs are designed to develop leadership skills.

6. Volunteer adult leader training—special training is provided to better equip adult leaders for working with youth.

7. Texas 4-H Council—the governing body of the state 4-H program which is composed of 30 members.

8. Texas 4-H Congress—an annual event involving teenage 4-H members from all counties which is designed to provide learning experiences and strengthen commitments to the 4-H program.

9. Texas 4-H Center—a training facility for both youth and adults which is now under construction at Brownwood in Central Texas. The center is expected to be complete by March 1, 1975 and will house 200 people. It will provide opportunities for year-round training programs.

"The Texas 4-H program is fortunate to have the backing of the 4-H foundation, not only for the financial support that is made available but for the spirit and enthusiasm that flows from those who believe in our youth and in providing every possible opportunity for growth and development," contends Davidson.

CARRYING THE MAIL

The "Mountain Mail," a small daily newspaper published in Salida, Colo. (Pop. 4,355), leads the country in public service space devoted to advertising the theme, "We all profit from profits," a campaign promoted by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. It has published an ad each week since the campaign was introduced last September. Says publisher George Ledermann: "... the ads spell out our own business philosophy as well as that of the sponsoring organization." The ad has been published in 306 newspapers with circulation of more than 18 million.

BETTER HEARING
Studies indicate that from the early teen years through their late 60's, women generally have better hearing than men. This is especially true from the ages of 25 through 65. While reasons may vary, one consideration stems from the fact that women are generally less exposed than men to occupational noise during these working years.
