

Ruth Little Speaks To Club

The Littlefield Woman's Club met Wednesday afternoon in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

Mrs. Dewey Hulse introduced Mrs. Ruth Little, who presented a program on "Lamps, Old and New." Mrs. Little's enthusiasm was projected to the audience and soon the members were participating in her question and answer period. Mrs. Little brought many lamps and demonstrated how these lamps were assembled. Sides were shown of many lamps that she was unable to transport to Littlefield.

Members discussed the assembling of lamps that they planned to do after hearing Mrs. Little.

Mrs. Little's book, "Painting China for Pleasure and Profit" is being used as a textbook in many parts of the United States, as well as in Australia, New Zealand, and in many other countries. "Old Lamps and New—Restoring and Decorating" is a book written on the proper restoration of lamps, and her "Language of Flowers" is a little book for lovers of beauty.

Mancil Hall presented plans for a new housing project that is being considered for Littlefield. It is a government project that would provide a retirement home for senior citizens. Hall asked that any senior citizen interested in such a retirement home contact him.

Mrs. A. B. Brown, president, conducted the business meeting. She also presented a short resume of the Caprock District meeting in Silverton last Saturday.

Mrs. T. L. Dunlap, projects chairman, led the planning for the Texas Day Scholarship Dinner to be held Nov. 14th in the Community Center.

Tatum-Wells Wedding Solemnized In Chapel

Saturday, Oct. 14, the chapel of the First Baptist Church of Littlefield was the setting of the mid-afternoon wedding of Miss Suzann Tatum and Gaddy Wells. Reading the double ring marriage vows was Rev. Billy Tinsley of Mexia.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Tatum of Littlefield, and Mrs. R. L. Gest of Liberty and the late M. Gaddy Wells.

Centering the altar of the chapel was a topiary pillar of boxwood foliage decorated with hot pink and purple asters blended with fall colors and complemented by colorful exotically plumed and sequined birds designed and hand-sewn by the bride's mother. Similar topiary balls, garlands of fall flowers, and smilax completed the altar setting. Arrangements of asters, greenery, and sequined birds marked the pews of the chapel.

Musical selections, "Somewhere My Love," "The Sweetheart Tree," "A Time For Us," "One Hand, One Heart," "Twelfth of Never," "Trumpet Voutary," and "Wedding Prayer," were played during the wedding by Miss Pat Hinds of Dallas. Mrs. James Barber, an accomplished harpist of Lubbock, presented "Climb Every Mountain," "Love is a Many Splendored Thing," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory silk chiffon. The fashionable high ring neckline of the moulded empire bodice was enhanced by appliques of imported hand-run alencon lace.

The deep cuffs of the long bishop sleeves were accented by the lace and fastened with dainty silk and lace covered buttons. Scalloped laced traced the waistline from which flowed the softly gathered skirt that swept to a chapel length train bordered by a deep edging of scalloped lace.

Her veil of ivory illusion edged with lace softly gathered to a shaped coil framed her face and extended beyond the length of her train. She carried an Edwardian clustered bouquet of baby's breath, the bride's chosen colors of sweetheart roses, fall colored pom poms, and various harvest materials. Mrs. Randy Smith, her sister and matron of honor, added a white phalaenopsis to the bridal bouquet as a special memento from her.

For "something old", the bride carried a hand-tatted linen handkerchief which both her mother and sister had carried in their weddings. She wore her sister's locket and a diamond bird belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Straus Baker. She also wore the traditional blue garter.

Her attendants wore gowns of matte jersey. Mrs. Randy Smith, matron of honor, was attired in raspberry and the two bridesmaids in deep purple. Their gowns were fashioned with a high draped neckline and long fitted sleeves edged with a narrow flounce at the wrist. A soft fold of jersey marked the high rise waistline. The slim, softly gathered skirt edged with a hemline flounce was floor length. Their Flemish bouquets of fall and straw flowers were centered with votive cups and sequined birds.

Cullen Wells of Waco served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Buster Adami of Waco and Carl Pickett of Liberty.

Guests registered in the foyer and were escorted to their pews by Randall Smith of Dallas and Phil McAnelly of Tahoka.

Mrs. Tatum, mother of the bride, was attired in a floor-length hot pink skirt complemented by a muted floral blouse with wrist-length shirred fitted sleeves and matching accessories. She wore a white cattleya orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Gest, wore a floor-length purple skirt with ecru lace bodice accented with a hot pink sash and matching accessories. She wore a purple cattleya orchid corsage.

As the bride approached the altar, she paused briefly to present a red rose to her mother. After the marriage ceremony, she stepped forward to present a red rose to her husband's mother.

Following the marriage ceremony, guests attended a reception in the church parlor. The reception table was laid with an ivory cutwork velvet cloth with ivory pearl encrusted designs. The four-tiered wedding cake was topped with a memory candle bearing the wedding invitation and lighted by the bridal couple. Graceful garlands of hot pink and gold kalanchoe blossoms, intertwined with sweetheart roses of blending colors, flowed from the base of the candle onto the table.

Each cake tier was draped with garlands of smilax. A white sequined bird nestled among the flowers on the top tier. Serving the guests wedding cake, molded ice cream wedding bells, nuts, mints from crystal and silver appointments were Mmes. Straus Baker, Pat Conway, Charles Varnum, and Miss Margaret Ann Wells.

Assisting with the serving were Mmes. Billy Tinsley, John Gabel, Buster Adami, W. W. Hall, Dick Carl, Delton Jones, Wayne Barnett, Mack Tucker, Alvis Tubbs, Randy Smith, and Misses Pat Hinds, Mary Lynn Hays, Connie Emberton, and Susan Brazele. Harp music was played during the reception by Mrs. Barber.

For their wedding trip, Mrs. Wells wore a three-piece brown suede ensemble with matching accessories. Her corsage was a phalaenopsis orchid.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 4518 Amesbury, Dallas.

The bride, a graduate of Littlefield High School and Baylor University, is an elementary teacher in the Dallas Public School System.

Wells, a graduate of A&M University, is presently employed in the international department of the Republic National Bank of Dallas.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Dear Editor:
In view of the coming election, I would like to share this story of a young man, who murdered his wife and was on trial for same. Before judge and jury and when asked if he had anything to say, he made this reply, "Yes, and I wish to ask that no one interrupt or stop me until I have finished please."

"I do not ask for leniency nor for mercy, since the evidence seems clear that I am guilty."

"You are aware that I was a 'drinker' that I grew worse and worse and was a problem to the law officials in this town, that I spent whatever money I got my hands on, on drink, and that I abused my family, beat my loving wife and children for no reason, other than influence of drink."

"God knows I loved my wife and children as dearly as any man can, but liquor had me in its grip."

"Then this city had an election and voted the city dry for a time, during which time I was able to break with the awful habit and you know that in that time I was a respected and happy man."

"Then there was another election on the liquor problem and you men know that I used my influence to keep this city dry. But with all the flowery stories and promises the 'wets' put out to promote drink, you, Judge and men of the jury, went to the polls and voted 'wet' tickets and made liquor legal in our city once more."

"Weak man that I am, I fell victim to the treacherous demon again, and in a drunken condition, killed my wife, leaving my dear little children orphans. Now I am condemned for same. But listen men, before God in Heaven you are just as guilty as I am. You (and some of you are church members) voted this vice legal, and by your vote will stand before God to answer for this murder, the same as me. I am now finished and ready to take my punishment—you may proceed."

Let us ask ourselves some questions. Does my vote have anything to do with what God's word teaches, or is it for "money reasons?"

Will my vote help or hinder mankind? Do I care more for people or possessions?"

Can I, with a clean conscience, vote to put drink in "Easy Reach" of the weak who are really trying to leave it alone, and the youth of our city who will become drunks on our streets?"

May we do some serious thinking on this matter before we cast our votes?"

Sincerely,
s/Myrtle Dickerson
Rt. 2, Littlefield, Texas

Dear Editor:
The people's vote for legal sales is needed Tuesday, November 7, to help this community economically, and to move forward.

This election WILL NOT change the drinking habits of anyone. It WILL change many other things.

Legal sales here will:
1. Give you a freedom of choice that prohibits sales to minors and provides dignity to local self-government.

2. Help keep local money at home and bring in new trade to be shared by other merchants in the city.

3. Permit citizens and visitors to this area to enjoy beverages legally and in moderation.

4. Eliminate the necessity for needless driving to areas that have legal sales.

A vote FOR Legal Sales means new local businesses to bring in new trade for all businesses in the area. It means more jobs and more paychecks, new property on the local tax rolls. People who live here and those who come to visit and vacation will buy their beverages and other needs here.

Beverages will be sold by local licensed tax-paying merchants under strict local and state law—a help to our area both economically and morally.

Legal sales afford the only means of effective control, eliminating hypocrisy and the necessity of people driving and trading elsewhere.

In addition to bringing new trade to the area, legal sales provide revenue for the support of both state and local government. Figures from official records show that taxes from legal sales since repeal of prohibition have provided more than one billion dollars to help Texas and Texans.

Check and see how these revenues from legal sales help you and your neighbors. The Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission's records show the state of Texas has collected $95 million dollars in taxes from the legal sale of alcoholic beverages for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1972.

These state revenues are in addition to the city sales tax to be collected from alcoholic beverages sales for the benefit of local needs. The one per cent sales tax on alcoholic beverages alone will bring thousands of dollars annually to Littlefield.

The truth is: Legal Sales do not force anyone to drink—and—Prohibition does not keep anyone from drinking.

Vote and take a friend with you to the polls, Tuesday, Nov. 7, and vote for Legal Sales.

Be sure, scratch the bottom lines on your ballot.

Thank you,
s/Joleta Jackson

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

A Good Name

SOME THINGS DO NOT CHANGE, not really. It may seem that everything is changing, but not so. Of course, it is not uncommon to hear someone say, "Everything is changing"; and they probably think that they have good reason for this conclusion.

Yes, many things are changing; but the solid, basic things are not changing.

A GOOD NAME has always been valued highly, and still is. Even in our time of what appears to be a realignment of values; nothing has happened to lessen the value of a good name.

It seems that there are some people who have no desire to make a good name for themselves, but this does not lessen the value and importance of a good name.

GENERALLY, we still respect the person who meets his obligations, who fulfills his promises, who does right by his fellowmen, who is identified with whatever is constructive and worthwhile, and who appreciates the decent and true things of life.

A good name is worth the cost in time and effort.

"A GOOD NAME is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor rather than silver and gold." —Bible.

IT IS POSSIBLE to have a good reputation, but not to be a person of good character. In a sense, this good reputation is a "good name"; however, the fully justified "good name" must be supported by a good character.

If the character be faulty, the good name will eventually vanish; because it

HOMMY GRITS

By CORNBALL B...

I'D LIKE TO SUGGEST that the liquor question IS a moral issue. The fact that the majority of the populace uses it is beside the point.

We know by a casual study of the Scriptures, that the majority is NOT necessarily always right. Drunkenness is named, in the Holy Writ, as one of the sins that will cause men to lose their souls.

LIKEWISE, IS the person condemned that places a stumbling block in the way of his brother.

I'm aware that I'm probably being 'trite' in bringing the Scriptures into the issue. This is strange ground, indeed, for many of our people. The idea of our being a "Christian Nation" has long been a thing of the past.

THE IDEA OF man having a soul that is destined to live forever, and the idea of the eternal destination of that soul depending upon "The deeds done in the flesh" is strange sounding teaching to too many of our people. The Bible has become sadly neglected.

BUT THEN, of course, this nation is to be ruled by the wishes of the majority. (That is, unless the Supreme Court decides otherwise.) So, perhaps we'd do well to take a look at alcoholic beverages in the light of the good of the nation.

Sit down and make a list of all the "good" that drinking does. Didn't take too long, did it? Now, for comparison, make a list of the "bad" that comes from drinking. Might take a little longer, huh?

DOES DRINKING make you a more trustworthy and respected citizen? Could it be habit forming? Can you recommend it to your youngsters? Should has no substantial support.

THERE MAY BE TIMES when the "good name" seems to be appreciated, but it is isolated and are only small parts of total life structure. There are occasions when we have some idea about the value of a good name when we think that it is not enough to justify the diligence to maintain it.

Unfortunately, some people themselves that a "good name" is important to them, but they seem to see the day when, more than else, they would like to have the confidence of other people.

WE MUST EARN our "good name" and be continually working to it. It is not something that we can assume, or just accidentally acquire.

If we do try to deceive ourselves as one who is dependable, trustworthy, when our character life history will not meet the test soon be seen for the counterfeiter. We don't want this to happen.

"A MAN'S NAME is not like a flower which merely hangs about which one perchance may smell, but is a perfectly formed, which, like the skin, covers over him, at which one cannot scrape without injuring the self." —Goethe

A GOOD NAME is a great asset, but, in a sense, it is more than you possess; your good name

Does drinking make you a more trustworthy and respected citizen? Does it strengthen your morals? Are you more apt to see your lusts when drinking? Do you see a member of your family drunk?

WE'RE TRYING TO educate youngsters on the evils of drinking, but in a sense, it is more than you possess; your good name

We're being told that prohibition hasn't worked in the past, and will! We have to agree, as long as the liquor interests to the detriment of our enforcement officers courts.

HOWEVER, SUCH is not the case. By the same right of petition, the advocates of liquor are calling for elections, the citizens petition for stronger laws and penalties for violations.

It's common practice to get drunk as a comic, but to become un-funny when he becomes behind the wheel, or a stalker, to say nothing of his liability to your community.

LIQUOR WILL NEVER be a character, not strengthen your character, and respectability. It is NOT the manhood. It is a crutch and unstable in vain effort to escape. It belongs in the same category as narcotics we're so concerned about.

Don't be misled by nice phrases and logic. Mother Eve to the same thing in the Garden. "Thou shalt NOT, surely, die."

LEGAL, OR ILLEGAL, liquor merit the stamp of approval.

Pioneer Natural Gas Company Merges Into Houston Natural

The management of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, of Amarillo and Houston Natural Gas Corporation, of Houston, have agreed in principle on a merger of Pioneer Natural Gas Company into Houston Natural.

Burton P. Smith, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company and Robert R. Herring, president of Houston Natural Gas, said that the proposed terms of the merger called for the exchange of one share of Houston Natural common stock for each 2.25 shares of Pioneer common stock.

They said that the merger, which could be consummated as early as January 1973, would be subject to satisfactory mutual investigations, the approvals of the directors and stockholders of both companies, and other conditions.

Pioneer has 7,468,132 common shares outstanding and Houston Natural has outstanding 6,767,031 common shares and 748,472 convertible preference shares. The stocks of both companies are listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Pioneer is engaged principally in intrastate transmission and distribution of natural gas in the Texas Panhandle and West Texas. The company serves 235,000 customers in 69 communities including Amarillo and Lubbock, and operates 9,824 miles of transmission and gathering lines.

Pioneer subsidiaries carry on oil and gas exploration and production, extraction of natural gas liquids, sales and service of franchised lines, construction equipment, and exploration, milling and Consolidated operating revenues 12 months ended June 30, million. Net income was $9.4 million. Net income was $9.4 million.

Houston Natural's primary also is natural gas. It serves 345,000 customers in Houston and other Texas Gulf Coast counties and utilizes a 2,300 mile transmission and gathering line, generally paralleling its area.

A 50 per cent owned affiliate completed a 36-inch pipeline for the movement of new gas to West Texas some 500 miles to the coast. Related activities include gas drilling and production, and gas processing.

A wholly owned subsidiary Carbonic Corporation, is the largest supplier of carbon dioxide products and markets CO₂ in industrial gases and utilization in the United States, Canada and other countries. For the 12 months ended July 31, Houston Natural revenues and sales were $277 million. Net income of $2.6 million common equivalent share.

Herring said that no changes in the Pioneer organization contemplated and that Pioneer proposed merger, would create separate entity in its service.

Meet The Minister

Rev. And Mrs. Glenn Willson

Rev. Glenn Willson has served the Amherst Baptist Church as pastor 5 1/2 years, and will complete 29 years in the ministry at the end of November.

Rev. Willson was born in Murray County, Okla. and was reared near Lubbock. He attended his last year of high school at Lamesa, where he was graduated, and then attended Wayland Junior College. He received a certificate from there in 1943 and taught school and pastored a church at Watson, south of Muleshoe.

In 1945, he went to Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and earned his BS degree in religion in 1949.

While at Hardin-Simmons, he pastored churches at Carbon and at Elmdale near Abilene.

Following his graduation, he came to the Baptist Church at Fieldton, where he served until he moved to the Kress Baptist Church in 1951. From Kress he went to Wolfthorpe in November of 1956, and to Crowell in July of 1959.

He came with his family to Amherst in 1967 from Crowell. Besides his regular duties within the church, he was moderator of the Llanos Altos Baptist Association until Friday when the Annual Associational meeting was held at Springlake. He is chairman of the Associational Credentials Committee, and serves on the board of the Plains Baptist Assembly at Floydada.

In April, 1968, Rev. Willson served on the evangelistic team of the 10-day Evangelistic Crusade at the Cypress Baptist Church in Cypress, Calif.

When Rev. Willson relaxes, he enjoys gardening, hunting and fishing when the opportunity comes, golfing and watching sports on television.

Mrs. Willson, Opal, is a native of Rotan and was reared north of Lubbock. She went to school with Rev. Willson while they were in elementary school, and after she graduated from Lubbock High School, they were married.

Opal also attended Wayland Junior College in 1940-42 and again in the 1950's while her husband was pastor of the Kress church.

Mrs. Willson teaches the unmarried young adult Sunday school class, and serves as the prayer support chairman for the WMU.

"She has held every position in the church, except pastor, deacon, song leader and pianist," remarked her husband. She has also served in associational offices in the past.

Now that their two daughters are gone from home, she gets to attend conventions and evangelistic conferences with her husband.

Their oldest daughter, Karen Wheeler, resides with her husband, Robert, and their two children, Robbie, 9, and Ronda, 7, in Plainview.

Their other daughter, Sheryl Willson, is a junior student at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

Mrs. Willson sews for her daughters and grandchildren, and enjoys crocheting, knitting, reading, visiting and traveling.

The Willsons are presently involved in getting their church building remodeled after a fire completely gutted the interior last year. Work is nearly complete in the sanctuary, and other work throughout the building is progressing.

Littlefield Outclaws Dimmitt Bobcats

DALLAS COWBOYS

The Littlefield Wildcats took a narrow 7-0 score into the locker room at Dimmitt Friday night and then came back in the second half to tack on 14 more points while allowing the hometown Bobcats a lone safety in winning their second in a row and the first in district play.

It was a cold, wet miserable night, not good for much except a football game and a football game it was. The field was muddy and slippery, the stands were far from full, the bands stayed home and Coach Jerry Blakely and his capable staff of coaches had the Wildcats primed for the "battle of the Cats."

way to put the defending district champs on the board with 2:05 left in the first quarter. Larry Hobratsch added the extra point to make it 7-0.

Dimmitt on their next series of plays, made their deepest penetration of the first half as they were able to move the ball down to the Littlefield 24-yard line before a fourth down pass attempt fell incomplete. On this drive, the Bobcats were aided by an interference call and a fifteen-yard personal foul penalty.

The remainder of the half was played in the middle of the field as neither team was able to execute as they would have liked because of the condition of the field and the intermittent rain that plagued both player and spectator.

The Dallas Cowboys (4-1) visit the Washington Redskins today for first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football Conference. The Cowboys stopped the Baltimore Colts last Sunday, 21-0, while the Redskins pounded the St. Louis Cardinals, 33-3.

Dallas leads the 13-year-old series, 13-8-2, after the fierce rivals divided a pair of games last year. The Redskins won in Dallas, 20-16, to snap a six-game Cowboys winning string in the series, and the Cowboys won in Washington, 13-0. The Redskins haven't won at home against Dallas since 1965 when Sonny Jurgensen engineered a last-minute drive for a 34-31 victory. The series has been marked by wild finishes and close scores—28-28 in 1961, 35-35 in 1962, Washington 21-17 in 1963, Washington 34-31 in 1965, Dallas 31-30 in 1966, Washington 34-31 in 1966, Dallas 17-14 in 1967, etc.

Kickoff is at 3 p.m. Littlefield time Sunday in RFK Memorial Stadium televised by CBS-TV (Channel 13, Lubbock) with Ray Scott, Pat Summerall and Frank Glierber.

The Cowboys and Redskins battled for the Eastern Division championship throughout the 1971 season, and it looks as if 1972 will bring more of the same. Each team brings a 4-1 record into Sunday's showdown and each team has won two in a row.

The Cowboys defense hasn't allowed a touchdown in 10 quarters. The Redskins have allowed no touchdowns in eight quarters. The teams are 1-2 in the NFL in points allowed, the Cowboys having given up 49 and the Redskins 58.

Each team also boasts powerful offensive weapons. Calvin Hill of Dallas is fifth in the NFL in rushing (390 yards) and fourth in receiving (18 catches). The Redskins' Larry Brown leads the Conference in rushing with 555 yards, including four 100-yard-plus games, and Charley Taylor has caught 23 passes to tie for second in receiving.

The rival quarterbacks are Craig Morton of Dallas and Sonny Jurgensen of Washington.

Morton completed a career-high 22 passes in last Sunday's 21-0 victory over Baltimore for 279 yards and two touchdowns. Jurgensen is 27-for-42 for 430 yards and a touchdown after regaining his starting job two games ago.

Jurgensen needs just 58 passing yards to reach the 20,000-yard career mark. Only Johnny Unitas (39,701) and John Brodie (30,257) are ahead of Sonny in the NFL record book.

"Jurgensen is one of the all-time great passers and Brown may be the best running back in the NFL," says Cowboys Coach Tom Landry. "Taylor and Roy Jefferson are both blue-chip wide receivers and Jerry Smith catches the ball as well as any tight end in the league.

"You can rest assured our defense will get a severe test."

The Redskins defense, says Landry, "is a veteran bunch that knows what it's doing at all times. The kicking game is solid. They just don't have any real weak spots."

The Cowboys are the healthiest they've been since the pre-season. Only defensive end Larry Cole, with a sprained knee, is definitely out of Sunday's game. Quarterback Roger Staubach returned to full-scale work this week and Landry says "it's always a possibility" that he'll be activated for the Redskins. Staubach has been on the future list since suffering a shoulder separation against the Los Angeles Rams on Aug. 12.

Against Baltimore, Landry started Ron Sellers and Billy Parks at the wide receiver positions after Bob Hayes and Lance Alworth had been the regulars through the first four games. Early in the week the coach had not indicated who the starters would be at Washington. Otherwise, the offensive and defensive lineups will be the same as those that faced the Colts.

Next week the Cowboys host the Detroit Lions (3-2) on Oct. 30 in a nationally televised Monday night game at Texas Stadium.

...throws a block into a Bobcat to allow Terry Bryson to pick up extra yards Dimmitt Friday. The Wildcats won the battle on a muddy field, 21-2.

...AFTER SHORT YARDAGE is a Wildcat back as he is engulfed by a host of mucky Bobcats. Coming in on the action is Mike Hopper (77).

Littlefield took the opening kick-off and moved for two quick first downs as they were directed by quarterback Terry Bryson. Much of the ground-gaining on Littlefield's first possession was by J. E. Johnson, who going into Friday night's tilt, had gained a total of 463 yards on the ground for a 7.7 per yard average. For the night against Dimmitt, Johnson rushed for 104 to make his season total 567. The Cats picked up two first downs but on third and four on the 50-yard line, Bryson's pass to Leon Hodge fell incomplete and the Cats were forced to punt and the chore was turned over to end Chris Pope who has handled the punting chores for the Wildcats the entire season.

Dimmitt fielded Pope's punt on their own 10-yard line and returned it back to their own 22. Here, the tough Cat defense played their typical hard-nosed brand of football and Dimmitt was forced to punt after three downs. However, the Cat's offense was also stymied on their next attempt to move the ball and again Pope punted to the Bobcats. With 4:27 left in the first quarter, Dimmitt started their second drive of the night and this drive too was over almost before it got started. The Bobcats were able to move the ball only a total of six yards and this was done on their first pass attempt of the night.

Once again, the Bobcats were forced to punt the ball off to the visiting Wildcats and the Cats got the ball with 3:01 left on the clock on their own 31 yard line.

A pitch out to Johnson went for naught and on second and ten, Bryson handed off to Leneral Lewis and Lewis added a quick 69 yards to his season total of 180 yards as he broke a tackle at the 35 and out ran the field the rest of the

BULA 50, FLOWER GROVE 0

Only three minutes deep in the third quarter the game was called because of the 45-point lead rule and Bula remains undefeated during the 1972 football season as they blanked Flower Grove, 50-0, in six man football at Bula Friday.

The Bulldogs scored three touchdowns in the opening stanza. The first was a 23-yard pass from Joel Sinclair to Jimmy Risinger. The second Bulldog was a four-yard plunge by Steve Newton and the last score in the first quarter was a 14-yard run by Risinger. Newton ran for extra points on the last two TDs.

Steve Cox got into the scoring act in the second quarter and crossed over after taking a 31-yard pass from Risinger. Jerry Sowder booted the extras. Newton got his second tally of the evening on a 16-yard run and Sowder kicked the PAT.

The game was called after Bula scored two quick touchdowns in the first three minutes of the third period. The first was a 12-yard pass play from Sinclair to Edward Clawson and the second was a 62-yard pass play from Sinclair to Risinger. Sowder booted the extra after Clawson's score and the game was called before the extra point could be made in the Bulldogs final touchdown.

The Bulldogs not only led in scores but led in the first down department, 12 to 1. In penetration, Bula had eight and the visiting squad did not penetrate. In rushing, Bula had 136 and in passing they collected 188 yards. Flower Grove had minus yards in total offense.

In the passing department, Sinclair hit 8 out of 10 for 157 yards and Risinger got one out of one for 31 yards.

The Bulldogs defensive unit was led by Newton by intercepting a pass and recovering one fumble.

BOVINA 14, SUDAN 14

An alert statistian must have called the play in the final seconds of the ball game as Bovina took a win over Sudan on first downs in district competition Friday night at Bovina.

The score was knotted 14-14, penetrations were tied and both teams had nine first downs. With 25 seconds left in the game, Bovina's quarterback, Kim Rundell blasted 12 yards for their tenth first down and their second win in District 3-A football.

The Mustangs opened the ball game by scoring 14 points before the Hornets were able to score.

The lead was narrowed in the second period as Kim Engram plunged two yards for a Hornet TD. In the third period Pat Hedges scored on a two-yard run. Halfback Mark Hanna succeeded in a two-point running try to tie the score.

With the edge in the first downs, Bovina raised its record to 4-2 for the season and 2-0 in District 3-A, Sudan fell to 2-5 for the year and 0-3 in district.

PLAINS 0, ANTON 0

Neither Anton nor Plains were able to score Friday night in a District 5-A contest at Plains, but Plains did get the win because of the ruling that there are no ties in district competition so the penetration rule went into effect, and Plains won the encounter 5-0 in the penetration department.

The Bulldog defense stopped two drives on their five-yard line by collecting Cowboy fumbles during the first half.

A drive inside the Bulldog 20 was stopped in the third quarter by the stubborn Bulldogs and twice in the last period the Bulldog defensive unit met the challenge.

Anton was kept out of the Cowboy 30 yard line during their first game in district competition.

Anton trailed in the first down department. Plains collected 23 and Anton only got five. Plains won the rushing battle 319 to 82, but lost in passing, 45-15.

Alvin Williams was the leading ground gainer for Anton with 31 yards.

Dewey Peacock collected 14 tackles from his safety position for Anton to pace the Bulldogs defensive unit.

FRIONA 7, OLTON 0

After a scoreless first half, Friona received the ball on the opening kick-off in the second half and crossed the goal line on their second play for a 7-0 win over Olton in District 3 AA opener at Friona, Friday.

A wet football, fumbles and rain stifled both offensive teams and neither were able to get it together during the first half.

In the opening moments of the second half Clay Bandy raced 58 yards for the only score on the game. Kevin Wiseman booted the extra point.

Friona came back in the same quarter with a drive to the Olton 10. Wiseman attempted a field goal that went wide and the Mustangs stopped the attack.

Olton got started late in the final stanza with a drive that started from their 20 and was stopped on the Chief's 24 when a pass was intercepted by Bartlett. The remainder of the game was ball control by Friona as they ran out the clock.

MATADOR 7, AMHERST 0

Matador scored their only TD of the evening with 32 seconds left in the first quarter and won over Amherst, 7-0, Friday night at Matador.

It was a hard fought ball game for both offense and defense and the muddy field led to 17 fumbles and a muddy squad of football players.

The only score of the game was a long 46-yard pass play from Steve Stevenson to Barry Bostick. David Martin kicked the PAT for the 7-0 win.

Matador is 3-3 for the season and Amherst 0-6.

THREWAY 38, WHITHARRAL 0

The Three Way Eagles blitzed the Whitharral homecoming 38-0 in a steady rainfall that drenched those brave enough to sit out in the elements.

The Eagles got their win, but the visitors missed the carefully rehearsed halftime activities, because the crowning of the homecoming queen and the band performance were all moved to the new gym at the end of the game.

Before a crowd that materialized out of cars lining the sidelines during the game, the combined Whitharral Panther Band put on a spectacular performance complete with stage lighting.

Bud Reding, who was named "Football Hero" earlier in the day at the pep rally, crowned Joli Grant "Football Queen." Her runners-up were Darlene Burns and Cynthia Wade.

Homecoming activities concluded with a reception for ex-students, fans and players in the Whitharral Lions Club Building.

Littlefield Native Elected To Board

At their 53rd annual meeting in Tulsa, Okla., stockholders of Skelly Oil Company elected Bill E. Williams, a Littlefield native, to the board of directors.
Williams, vice president and general manager, international supply and transportation division for Getty Oil Company in Los Angeles, succeeds Charles F. Krug, the senior director of Skelly's Board, having served since 1957, did not seek reelection. He is vice president and secretary of Mission Corporation.
Williams, 47, is a native of Littlefield, and holds a BS degree in accounting and economics from the University of California.
He joined Getty Oil as a landman for the Oceanic Oil Company, became the operating engineering department manager in 1964, and became the oil supply distribution division manager, and in October was promoted to his position.
A member of the American Petroleum Institute, director of the National Petroleum Refiners Association, Williams is director of Getty (Oil Operations) Inc., and subishi Oil Company.

I DON'T KNOW whether it is good or bad, but it did get cold and many farmers said that their crops were saved by the rain.

The temperature dropped to 32 degrees, Thursday, but reports are that the freeze did not affect the crops because of the rain that came with the cold front. Some have stated that their tomato plants and geranium plants still look healthy. Maybe we looked out on this predicted freeze by Mr. Hammons, Littlefield's friendly undertaker and weather prophet.

Some of the farmers in the area would like to have an Indian summer with above average warm days and nights to give the late crops a chance to mature. Who knows, the killing freeze may be delayed until sometime in November.

Of course this adverse weather had brought the harvesting to a stand still, but reports are good as far as yield and price of crops that has been harvested.

Milo is still going for over $2 per hundred.

A new cash crop for the area, pumpkins are selling good. These are the pie pumpkins, that average between two to four pounds each. From reports the pie pumpkins are yielding about 10,000 pounds per acre.

Carrots, watermelon seed and cantalope seed seem to be a rather profitable crop this year. These crops require an extra amount of labor, thus creating more expense to produce than the cotton and milo that we are accustomed to producing.

VARIOUS COMMENTS ARE heard about town, ranging from politics, religion, weather, welfare and just various types of brainstorming. Over the past week I overheard several comments about the county's welfare program and the various solutions to the problem.

In Lamb County, according to a comment, the people on welfare have grown to 633. One hundred seventy of the recipients are in the aged category. One hundred twenty are on the welfare roles for various reasons. The startling figure of 343 is in a category that includes unwed mothers and their dependents.

It is reported that in one case in the county there is a mother and three daughters who have illegitimate children. Many of these cases have a man living in the house.

As far as a solution to this problem, some stated that these children should be taken away from these individuals and put in an orphanage or a home where they could live in an environment that society believes to be better for the child. Many believe that it would be cheaper on the tax paying citizens this way than to pay the mother for keeping the child. Some mothers draw more for their illegitimate children through welfare than most people earn working.

In our school system here in Littlefield, I understand there are 378 students who pay the full price asked to eat at the lunchroom and 689 are getting their lunches free or at a discount. Nuff said.

PERSONS WHO GO to church regularly are less subject to a host of serious diseases than those who do not attend, according to a survey conducted by George W. Comstock, of Johns Hopkins University. The ailments include heart disease, cirrhosis of the liver, tuberculosis, cancer of the cervix and bronchitis.

Perhaps another word should be added to the old saying: The Family That Prays Together Stays Together.

SPEAKING OF SURVEYS, OVERHEARD this report on a poll that is being conducted on the local option election here in Littlefield. From the poll 60 per cent of those called said they would vote yes, 10 per cent stated that they would vote no and the remaining 30 per cent would not comment.

What Is Open Dating?

Open dating is a companion to unit pricing.

Open dating simply means that anyone going to the store can tell how long the product has been packaged. As with unit pricing, some Texas stores have voluntarily gone to the open dating system.

Many of you know perishable items such as milk, eggs and bread, as well as many other items, are dated as they are packaged. This date may be on the date on which the product is to be picked up by the route man or it may be the actual date that the product is packaged.

For example, assume that milk has a shelf life of seven days. If milk is bottled on April 10th, it would be picked up from the store by the route man on April 17th. Either the date of the 10th or the 17th may be shown on the carton so long as the route man is familiar with the system and knows that the milk is to be picked up on April 17th.

The markings are usually found at the top of the carton and are in code. Thus, in our example, if you purchase the milk on April 16th, you would get milk that had been in the grocery store for six days.

The same thing might be true of a loaf of bread. Bread of course has a shorter shelf life. Typically, dating of bread is done with different colored ties used to close the plastic bread containers.

You might have a red tie for Monday, a green tie for Tuesday, a blue tie for Wednesday and so forth for each baking day of the week.

The route man knows that he is to pick up all blue tie loaves of bread on a certain day of the week. You as the consuming public, however, are not able to tell which loaf of bread is the freshest.

If you intend to use the product immediately, it would probably make no difference to you whether it had been on the shelf a short time or not. It would still be fresh when you used it.

Identification Cards Available Through DPS

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, reported that almost 7,000 Texans have obtained special personal identification cards since the DPS began issuing them Sept. 1, 1971.

The cards, which were authorized by the 62nd Texas Legislature, are laminated and contain a color photograph of the holder. They are the same size as a Texas drivers license.

Information appearing on the cards includes the holder's date of birth, height, sex and eye color. Each card has a special identification number issued by DPS.

"These cards are especially valuable to those persons who do not hold a Texas drivers license, but who need some sort of official card to help establish their identity. Applicants have included the elderly, persons too young to obtain drivers licenses, and blind and handicapped persons. All Texans are eligible, however," Speir said.

In order to obtain a personal identification card, the applicant must appear at a DPS drivers license field office, execute a special application form, present a birth certificate or other documentary evidence of identity and date of birth, be fingerprinted and pay a statutory fee of $5.

The applicant photograph will be taken and he or she will be issued a temporary receipt. The regular, laminated card will be processed and mailed from DPS Headquarters in Austin.

Speir said identification cards are dated to expire four years from the applicant's next birthdate.

HOMEMAKING TIPS

Pamper Patients

Pamper the small patient with special get-well extras. Although a sick child needs the same general care as an adult who is ill, a mother can provide special "extras" to ease the anxiety and boredom of the small patient.

It's pleasant for a child to be near a window where he can look out. Place the bed so that no draft will cross if the window is open. A gaily-patterned bedspread can perk up spirits. Have two on hand, preferably the easy-to-laundry kind, so you can interchange them easily.

concern. Should you detect any changes in his condition, try to be casual about it and continue with your usual tasks while in front of him.

Pick a favorite toy animal or doll, of the unbreakable, washable variety, to share the patient's bed. A potato bag pinned to the bedspread can hold other favorite playthings within easy reach.

A GOOD MORALE builder for a little girl is to arrange her hair in a glamorous way, perhaps adding a fresh ribbon. You might have one cute pair of special pajamas laid back for these special times.

Don't get so involved with household duties that you don't allow time to play with a sick child. You can combine some of the work with visiting. Take the ironing in and tell stories as you work. Or straighten dresser drawers.

MRS. LYNN BOWERMAN
County Extension Agent

WHEN APETITE lags, try brightening up the meal tray. Put meat and vegetables on skewers, cut an orange like the petal of a flower, form circles, squares and triangles out of toast.

A special fun drink can brighten spirits. Try this vitamin C and protein special called Orange and Egg.

Beat an egg in blender or mixer until frothy, add 1/2 to 3/4 cup cold orange juice and 2 teaspoons of sugar. Beat until well mixed, and pour into tall glass. Serve immediately. Another quick and easy refresher is to add 1/2 package powdered fruit flavor drunk, and sugar to taste to 1 cup of cold milk. Easy for you, delightful to your child.

CHILDREN AND CLOWNS go together. Create a happy atmosphere for a child with a whole parade of clowns performing their antics on a coordinated set of sheets, bedspread, towels and shower rug.

The colors bounce back from machine washing as bright and gay as ever.

AND STILL MORE CLOWN On the inflatable furniture scene, there is a clown chair for youngsters. His happy face serves as a headrest and makes a squeaking sound when squeezed.

Sticky smudges and paint or crayon marks are easy to wipe off the vinyl surface. And the chair is so light, the tiniest tot can pull it around without damage to floor or other furnishings.

When you give medicine or any treatment, briefly explain what you are going to do so he will be prepared and may even be more cooperative. Never leave any medication at a bedside table; bring it into the room only when you are going to administer it.

Avoid asking how he feels too often as you can cause alarm by showing too much

Hunt Deadline Is Set Tuesday

Hunters who wish to participate in the public deer hunts on Texas Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife management areas have until 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 24, to get their completed applications to department offices in Austin.

The drawing to determine who will get to hunt will be Oct. 27.

Interested hunters may obtain application blanks from Parks and Wildlife Department district offices, or they may request the blanks by writing the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas 78701.

Department officials say that, so far, the number of applications received this year is ahead of those received for the same period last year.

Maintain Quality Of Field Stored Cotton

In an effort to reduce costs, many Plains cotton growers are storing cotton in turnrow ricks. With a good crop predicted, trailers will probably be in short supply, and this is one possible solution to an old problem.

However, there are a few things to watch out for in order to maintain the lint and seed quality. Research has shown that moisture causes the biggest problems in stacked cotton. While optimum seed cotton moisture for harvesting is 8 per cent, to preserve quality, you should also avoid storage conditions which would cause the moisture content of the cotton to rise above 12 per cent. This can be moisture in the form of dew, green trash material, rain or snow. When placing cotton into a rick, be sure that any moisture on the cotton has dried off.

A good way to check to see if the cotton is dry enough to store is to squeeze a handful. If the cotton sticks together in a ball it is too wet. If it springs back freely, it is usually dry enough.

One way to avoid this problem is to make the first 2-3 dumps into a trailer and then begin forming the rick. Green trash can cause an increase in the moisture content of the seed and lint and thus reduce the quality. Therefore, if cotton is to be ricked, wait until the leaves are dry and crisp. This could be either after defoliation or frost.

It is not advised to place the rick on a plastic sheet or to cover the rick with plastic. This procedure forms a vapor barrier and causes moisture condensation resulting in loss of quality.

The turnrow rick is one way to handle cotton during periods of trailer shortages. But remember, to maintain quality, avoid situations which would cause the moisture content to be increased. If this is done, the cotton can be stored safely in the rick without any loss in lint or seed quality.

Flame Proof Cotton Fabric Is Perfected

Cotton Incorporated researchers have achieved a major breakthrough in their quest for flame retardant clothing.

Pure cotton garments made from woven or knit fabrics treated with a newly perfected process will surpass the recently imposed federal flame retardance standard for children's sleepwear.

The process—bearing the Cotton Incorporated registered trademark "Fire-Stop Cotton"—makes 100 per cent cotton garments virtually fireproof, with no significant loss in strength and no appreciable properties persist beyond the 50 home launderings required by government regulations.

"Fire-Stop Cotton" was unveiled at a new conference held here by officials of Cotton Incorporated, the research, sales and marketing company of America's cotton growers, and United Merchants and Manufacturers, Inc., the nation's third largest textile company.

J. Dukes Wooters Jr., Cotton Incorporated's president and chief executive officer, said "Fire-Stop Cotton" works better, costs less, and retains more of cotton's natural comfort than any other flame retardance treatment that can bring children's sleepwear up to the federal standard.

Lawrence Marx, executive vice president of the United Merchants Ameritex, division, said his company is already into production of treated cloth. He said equipment and know-how will be licensed to other manufacturers immediately.

The process will work on any pure cotton fabric, Marx said—woven or knit. Research so far has perfected commercial application to cotton flannelette, cotton terry, broadcloth, print cloth, and brushed knits, the fabrics used most extensively in making children's sleepwear through size 14.

In a demonstration filmed for newsmen, Dr. Leonard Smith, Cotton Incorporated's manager of flammability research, showed that fabrics treated with "Fire-Stop Cotton" resist determined efforts to ignite them. The scientist used ordinary stick matches—and a blowtorch.

Smith said evaluations of children's sleepwear garments after they had undergone the federally prescribed flame test show that they consistently exceed the required flame retardance performance. In fact, he added, tests indicate that the more a treated garment is washed, the better it performs.

"Fire-Stop Cotton" cannot be detected by touch. Missing from treated fabrics shown by Smith and Allen was the slick, paper-like feel common to fabrics treated with some other flame retardant finishes.

The natural softness of cotton is unaffected by the new process, and the absorbency of treated cotton actually is slightly better than that of untreated cotton.

NOTICE

Roads in precinct (3) in the Fieldton, Hart Camp and Spade Communities have become so bad in the past few years that it is nearly impossible to get down them if there is a small amount of rain or if a little irrigation water leaks out. Most of the roads are low in the middle with ditches on each side. This causes the water to puddle and holes to exist even after it is dry. Many farmers have asked with the present Commissioner to do something about this to no avail. These roads not only cause undue wear on the farmers vehicles but also on the school buses, mail carrier and delivery vehicles that travel these roads. Precinct (3) we have four to five hundred dollar land on two bit roads.

The Farmers of Fieldton, Hart Camp and Spade Communities plead with their neighbors and all the voters of City of Littlefield, that are in Precinct (3) to join with writing in the name of:

GEORGE STEWART

George Stewart is a farmer in the Hart Camp Community. He is about 35 years old and has lived in Lamb County most of his life. He is married and has two daughters. He served in the Armed Forces of this country. He belongs to the First Baptist Church of Fieldton. He is of good judgement and good reputation, also well thought of by all that know him. He knows how to work with and maintain machinery.

Values Of Playing

With older children off to school, the younger child or infant finds the home and neighborhood quieter or slightly deserted.

Rather than a lonely time for him this can be a special time, according to one authority.

"There are experiences parents can provide a child in the form of games and play that will greatly influence his intellectual ability later on," she said.

"There's no guarantee, but the latest research in child development strongly suggests that."

Dorothy Taylor, family life specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, termed these findings the "bright side" of what research has to tell us.

"The most helpful sorts of experience for your baby are easy for the parents to supply and great fun for both parents and child."

Stressing importance of games as a source of learning and growing experiences, Miss Taylor warned against using games or their completion, as a test for the child.

"Games should teach the child," she said, "and the child should be allowed to establish his own goals for them."

Turning to specifics, she outlined three fundamentals to help parents provide the child with experiences for learning and growing.

"First, help the baby develop basic skills, such as focusing his eyes, and a little later distinguishing differences among almost identical objects."

"These skills will have an immediate pay-off in fun and later pay off in his ability to perform more complicated jobs such as reading and thinking."

In helping the baby focus his eyes, the specialist suggested providing mobiles, bright colors and large pictures for him—also moving or lighted objects.

"He will begin distinguishing differences among them, such as among the boat and car on a mobile."

"Second, teach the child to explore the world about him. Help him acquire facts, develop attitudes about new situations and an approach to dealing with them."

Bells, rattles, a soft safe toy, or finding a toy under a blanket offer the infant his first adventures in exploring. Exploration continues as he grows and for the preschooler can take on new proportions with a pet, watching fish in an aquarium, playing in a sandbox or a safe treehouse.

"Let him tear down and build an old alarm clock or play with old cardboard boxes and building toys."

"Third, teach your child that learning is enjoyable."

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

I have been seeing a doctor about my... I guess you could say I have developed a crush... the kindest most understanding man I have... Just being near him gives me such a calm... state to leave his office. We are about the same... and he is married, too. He knows my marriage is... because that is part of my problem and I've... franky with him.

I told him I felt unappreciated and unattractive, my hand and assured me that I was a very woman that ANY man could appreciate. Could HE could appreciate ME?

I told him my sex life was dull and unfulfilling he would be more aggressive, and not wait to be as he is trying to encourage me subtly?

I tell him how I feel about him? I have a hunch special interest in me, but I don't want to make a idiot of myself. DREAMING OF DOC
