

Council changes insurance; turns down summer assistance

A specially-called meeting of the Littlefield City Council Tuesday night to change from Bankers Life to Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage for city employees, and to support the summer programs as sponsored by the Estacado Farm Workers de spent. Dr. James Shotwell made the motion to "change to Blue Cross-Blue Shield", and Pat Downs seconded the motion emphasizing that the city continue paying 40 percent of the employe's dependent coverage in addition to the employe's insurance. Councilmen made the decision to compare the two policies in the special meeting, due to the fact that Banker's Life, the current carrier, has notified the city that a rate increase was to be placed into effect on June 1, reflecting an increase of approximately 10 percent in all coverage categories.

After discussing the summer youth programs being sponsored by Llano Estacado Farm Workers de Tejas, Inc., councilmen felt that being as the City is already assisting with summer programs being sponsored by the Community Action Center, as well as its own summer recreation program, they would not participate at this time because "the programs are already budgeted for this year," and additional funds would need to be considered for next year's budget, if participation is desired at that time.

Representatives had approached the council in the Thursday, May 20, meeting seeking approximately $1,000 in aid for equipment.

CITIZENS of the United States will pause Monday for Memorial Day to remember those who have given their lives in defense of the country. Many will fly their flags at home, and special services are set at both cemeteries here Monday morning at 10:30, when all graves of deceased war veterans will be decorated with flags, and an avenue of flags will be displayed around the drive of Memorial Park. Ernest Sell of Littlefield has a unique flag pole. He needed to remove a tree, but instead of paying $50 to pull it up and repair his lawn, he cut it off about five feet from the ground, painted it red, white and blue, bore a hole in it, and came up with the most unusual flag pole in the block.

Commissioners handle end-of-month business

Several business matters received the attention of the Commissioners' Court Friday when they met for the end of the month session. The meeting was held Friday because Monday is Memorial Day and a legal holiday for courthouse employees.

Discussion centered on a planned use report for Revenue Sharing funds for the next six months. Among the projects funds may be allocated to include $15,000 for operation of ambulance service. This would be for a six-month period, with the Littlefield Police Department operating the service south of the sandhills, and Parsons Funeral Home of Olton handling emergency calls north of the sandhills.

Other needed areas include a landfill machine, and purchasing right of way if funds are available.

The board of equalization was organized, then recessed until 10 a.m. on June 25.

The only other vote taken granted General Telephone Company right of way for buried communication lines five miles west of FM 168 on FM 1842 and two and one-half miles north of a county dirt road. Right of way was also granted for a line one mile from the Amherst city limits on the south side 2,500 feet to the microwave tower.

Lamb County Civil Defense coordinator, Wayne Cole of Olton, was given a go ahead to purchase 100 litters. Cole said in the event of a disaster in Lamb County, the present hospital and emergency medical services probably would not be sufficient to take care of the injured.

There are four full time ambulances in the county with about six vehicles which could be used to transfer patients. The three hospitals report their total emergency capacity is 154 patients. This is only 51 above their normal capacity.

Memorial Day observances slated Monday

A special Memorial Day service will be conducted Monday morning at 10:30 at the gravesite of Virgil Cole in Littlefield Memorial Park.

On display will be the colorful Avenue of Flags of deceased war veterans and others, and flags will be decorating all graves of those killed in wars.

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Ladies Auxiliary of the VFW will be presenting the program.

Most downtown businesses will be closed all day Monday in observance of the holiday. Traditional Memorial Day is today, but the set-aside holiday is Monday.

Gas theft reported at ACG denim plant

Friday, the American Cotton Growers denim plant reported the theft of 260 gallons of gasoline from a construction tank at the site.

This is the second time 260 gallons of gas has been stolen.

The only other activity at the sheriff's office the latter part of the week was the arrest of a Shreveport, La. man who was charged with theft and held for San Antonio authorities after bond was set at $2,500.

Cole said the purchase of 100 litters would increase the emergency capacity of the hospitals by 100 patients, making it possible to set up a 100-patient hospital in a gym or other building in the county. The litters would also provide minimal equipment for converting 100 station wagons and/or pickups to transfer patients.

These litters will be distributed to fire departments and to hospitals if they desire them. Fire departments have been contacted and agreed to store, maintain and use the litters.

The next regular session of Commissioners' Court will be June 14.

Residents healthier than 2 years ago

How healthy are Lamb County residents? Judging by the amount of time they need to take out because of illness, are they in better shape than they were some years ago?

Just how healthy the people in one section of the country are, on this basis, compared with people in other areas, is brought out in annual surveys made by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and by the Health Insurance Institute.

The index that is used to determine general health is disability days, which takes into account the number of days that people are forced by illness or injury to stay home from work or from school, to stay in bed or otherwise to cut down temporarily on their normal activities.

Equalization Board to meet

The Board of Equalization of the Littlefield Independent School District and the City of Littlefield will be in session at its regular meeting place in the School Tax Office in Littlefield from 9 to 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 11, to determine, fix and equalize the value of oil and gas, and utilities properties in the Littlefield Independent School District and City of Littlefield, for taxable purposes for the year 1976.

Any and all persons interested or having business with the board are notified to be present.

According to figures recently released, there has been a noticeable increase in disability days in Lamb County's regional area in recent years, as there has been in most other parts of the county.

Based upon the latest report, the local population is averaging 18.8 days of restricted activity per person per year, including 7.5 days spent in bed. This compares with 16.9 restricted days, 6.7 of them in bed, 10 years ago.

Elsewhere throughout the nation, people were on the disability list for an average of 17.2 days, of which 6.7 were bed days. School children took 5.6 days off, on average, for health reasons.

Because of wages lost and medical expenses incurred, the economic loss is great.

In Lamb County, applying the average rate of disability in the regional area locally, it adds up to an overall loss of 193,000 activity days per year for the population as a whole.

A considerable amount of it represents time taken off by workers because of illness or injury. The average nationally is 4.9 days per employed person.

In general, it appears, a family's state of health is linked with its mode of life and its economic well-being.

The American Medical Association finds that the healthiest people in the country are those with better-than-average incomes living on farms in the Midwest.

Watershed work to begin; project to cost $3 million

The first spade of dirt was turned Monday morning on the Site 2 Dam for the Lower Running Water Draw Watershed project in the northwestern edge of Hale County, near Olton.

The site, located between Edmonson and Hart, is the first in the lower area. The first dam was begun in November 1973, near Bovina and he second went into its construction phase a year later near Clovis, N.M.

Cost of the federally-funded seven-site project is about $3 million. The projected dams will impede flood waters.

Site 1 is located near Sunnyside in Castro County and Site 3 and Site 4 are both between Edmonson and Plainview. The other sites are southeast of that area.

The project was conceived as a result of a devastating flood at Plainview. Another flood occurred in 1965.

F. F. "Flip" Calhoun of the Hale County Water and Conservation district, who has long acted as chairman of the RWDWP steering committee, said that Site 2 is expected to be completed in 220 days. "But it will be another two or three years before the entire project is completed."

The entire project will cover about 350,000 acres.

Robert L. Price, area conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service, said the length of the dam at Site 2 is 4,600 feet and that it will be 40 feet high.

Price said 5,429 acre feet of water would be stored behind the dam in the event of an overflow. The backwater would cover about 2.2 miles with much of the 19,000 acres of drainage area located in Castro County.

During groundbreaking ceremonies, Hale County State Bank president J. B. Wheeler was the keynote speaker. The master of ceremonies was State Rep. James E. "Pete" Laney. Hale County Judge Henry Heck made the introductions.

About 50 people were in attendance for the ceremonies which Calhoun described as "a milestone in our history."

TODAY'S THOUGHT

Presented by Hammons Funeral Home

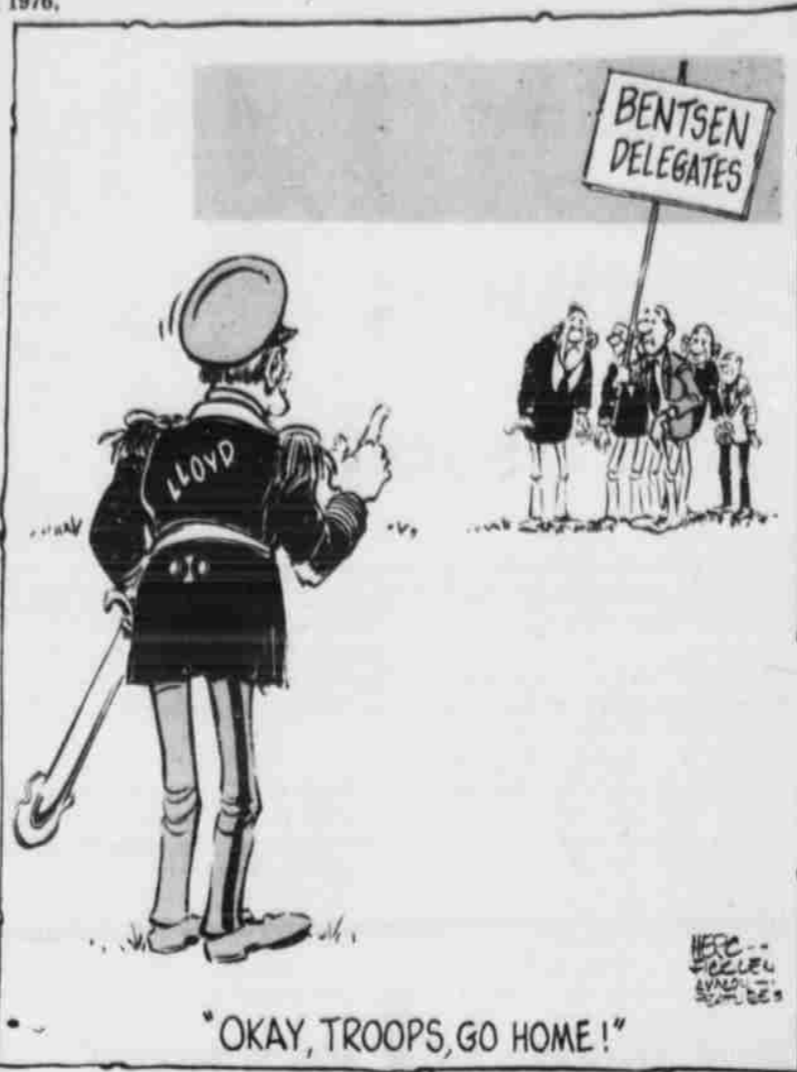

Sentimentalist or not, if you ever saw or see the traditional service at the shrine of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery on Memorial Day, you would have or see moist eyes, quivering lips, a tightening of the throat in reverent silence.

The story behind the story of the Unknown Soldier is drama without equal on any stage. It starts first with New York Congressman Hamilton Fish introducing a House Joint Resolution to have an unidentified, killed in action American Soldier returned from France for reinterment at Arlington. The drama continues with Admiral Dewey's famous flagship "Olympia" commissioned to return the body to America with Marine Corp escort. In story book manner, the drama relates the care with which anonymity was made certain...how the selection was made...how an ordinary American, a Chicago orphan, as a sergeant in France was chosen and ordered to walk into a room and place a bouquet and thus made a selection which he later described as God's choice.

The tomb of the Unknown Soldier is more than a symbol of sentiment. It is an American voice which gives thanks to the glory of God that we as Americans, can and do respect the honor and memory of our departed ones, soldiers and civilians alike.

PEARL BRANDON

THIS POEM was written by my sister-in-law, Hazel Jaquess, on a sermon delivered by Dr. J. Ralph Grant, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Littlefield, to the graduating seniors of 1971.

STEPS TO A THRONE

King Solomon built a throne of ivory, overlaid with pure gold.

Which had six steps leading to the top.

We know that steps to a throne are taken one at a time;

With no provision for short-cuts or stops.

The first step that leads upward is that of appreciation.

For those who have gone before.

Your seniors are now standing on the shoulders of the past.

Those before you have left an open door.

Now, take the second step— which is that of aspiration:

One must have a desire to achieve.

Aspire to be a builder, and not one who would tear down.

Believing that the best is yet to be!

"Tear down the establishment!" a few radicals are advocating

But they offer nothing to put in its place.

Dear young people, don't throw away everything for nothing.

As a new chapter in life you now face.

On to the step of education — the third step to a throne:

Failure to develop God-given talents is a sin.

God can use one's knowledge and get along without his ignorance!

But remember: To do your best is to call on Him.

There is no substitute for work, so the step of application

Is the fourth on your upward climb.

"Ninety-nine percent perspiration and one percent inspiration"

Was how Edison's success was defined.

Now, let us list the fifth step as that of determination:

Be unshakeable, aggressive, and steadfast!

Let no atheist shake your faith in God's Word and His church.

As they have done so many others in the past.

The sixth step, which is the highest and most exalted of all,

Is that all-important step of Christian faith.

If you would make of your life an unqualified success,

Nothing else can ever take its place.

For when one embraces Christ, he is always given the power

To conquer evil— as he is never alone!

By appreciation, aspiration, education, and application—

With determination and Christian faith, you'll mount a throne!

Two Dollar Bill sees purchase power drop

Here's something you didn't want to hear about, the new $2 bill that was introduced last week: it will buy exactly what $1.15 bought only 10 years ago.

Since 1966, when production of the last series of $2 bills ended, the Labor Department's consumer price index has jumped 74 per cent.

Although the new bill was being planned in 1970, before the swift inflation of the past few years, it has become more practical as the prices of many good have soared, a Treasury Department official said.

"Unquestionably, with what has happened in the market place, a new $2 bill will be very useful," James Conlon, director of the Treasury's Bureau of Engraving and Printing said. "For instance, many fast food chains were very enthusiastic about it."

Conlon and Richard Debs, chief administrative officer of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, displayed a stack of the new currency Wednesday in anticipation of the bill's formal debut on Thomas Jefferson's birthday.

A key advantage of the new bill, they said, will be the savings of printing and handling costs of $1 bills, about half of which are expected to be replaced by the new bills.

The federal government hopes to save $4 million to $7 million a year and the Federal Reserve System hopes to save a total of $27 million over the next five years.

In previous years, the government printed only about six million of the old $2 bills annually. Most of the $135 million worth still in circulation are thought to be held by collectors, who value them at about $3 each, Conlon said.

By contrast, the government will turn out some 400 million of the new bills each year. About 224 million bills should have been distributed to the Federal Reserve's member banks Tuesday, he said.

"The old $2 note was like a spit on a hot stove," Conlon said. "So few were printed that most citizens never had a chance to use one."

He said the scarcity of the bills probably led to the superstitions surrounding them, such as the idea that tearing off a corner "in some way wards off evil spirits."

The front of the new bill, bearing Jefferson's resemblance, is the same size and color of the old one, although some red markings have been removed.

In place of Jefferson's home, Monticello, on the back side is a reproduction of John Trumbull's painting, "The Signing of the Declaration of Independence." It shows the signers of the document gathered around a table.

The value of the pound has dropped from about $2.85 in 1966 to about $1.85 today.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE Continuing

LIVING IS CONTINUING, continuing to do the things generally considered essential and acceptable and appropriate. We must continue to be concerned about all that we consider to be important and essential to our personal well-being, and to the collective good.

We must not permit any let down, and there must be no lessening of our very best efforts. This is not to be done in a state of anxiety, but it is to be accepted in the spirit and with the understanding that "living is continuing."

CONTINUING OUR INTEREST in every aspect of that which we recognize as being worthwhile in the needs and activities of meaningful living is a must. We must not grow weary in well-doing.

We must never let ourselves assume the view that such doing is not worth the required efforts. This means that we must be constantly alert, that we must manage our time, our energy and all else in the personal life structure; in all the way it is related to the on-going spirit of life.

WE MUST CONTINUE to be mindful of our blessings, and we must continue to be thankful for them, and continue to express our thankfulness. We must never permit ourselves to drift off into the dreariness of taking the good things for granted.

We must never decide that expressing our gratitude is not worth the "continuing" effort. If we do this, we deny ourselves much of the good benefits that we could realize from our blessings.

SELF-IMPROVEMENT is to the best of living. Of course, we must not make this action a performing unreasonable expectations of ourselves, or by being impressed doing what we are capable of. Everything about which any information encourages intelligently concerned about "continuing" to improve ourselves, probably the most rewarding enriching of all that we are in our day-to-day living.

WE MUST LIVE with other people, and work with other people, and, or another, be involved with people. Getting along well with people is our privilege and should be considered an obligation. "Continuing" to learn the fine points of this is very profitable, in every way.

We must never say to ourselves "Oh well, what's the use?" "I did not succeed, in all instances," "continuing" our efforts is justified.

WISHING IS NOT ENOUGH. People never accomplish the things they would enhance and improve because they spend their time wishing.

We know, or can determine, the action should be, and, of course, we must get started doing what we can. The way to the degree of success is in "continuing" the right actions, moving toward right goals.

HONNY GRYS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

ONE INTERESTING TALE coming out of the old pioneer days went like this: The old peddler, who's habit was traveling the rural areas and asking for a night's lodging wherever darkness happened to catch him, stopped at a farmhouse and asked to be put-up for the night.

"SURE," WAS the settler's answer: "If you don't mind sleeping with my six year old son."

"That'll be fine," answered the peddler, "I get along real well with youngsters, and I'll make it worth your trouble."

CAME BEDTIME AND the gentleman had undressed for bed, when he noticed the youngster kneeling on his side of the bed, with head bowed, seemingly in an attitude of prayer.

Feeling ashamed of his own unthoughtfulness, the oldest knelt at his side of the bed, also. The lad looked at him with an expression of surprise on his face. "What're you doin', mister?"

THE OLDESTER GAVE him a gentle look and replied, "Same thing you are, Sonny."

"Mom's sure gonna be mad," said the youngster in a reproving tone. "The pottie's on THIS side!"

GUESS I'VE MADE another of my often mistakes. I've poured tons of water on my so-called lawn, and the weeds have been doin' quite a bit of thank you.

Thought I'd put a stop to this nonsense, so I bought some new kind of fertilizer, and asked the killer in it. Carefully, I followed directions in puttin' it down waterin' it in.

Sure enough, I think the weeds is goin' to work. Only trouble that there didn't seem to have any grass under them! My yard like it'd been beat with an ugly CROQUET Anyone??

YEAH, I DID get outta town a couple days. Went where the fish Shux, I even saw it rain, buckets full! (Down Abilene we real nice feelin'. Yes, I did a fishin'.

Wanta know the most notable caught? A coupl'a real hungry gers!

IT'S NICE to see new business coming into town and being welcomed the way they are. Most of the newcomers are reporting good success during their opening weeks. Continuation is what makes this ol' country.

Others are finding that customer loyalty isn't enduring, when it's a consumer in the ol' pocketbook.

RIGHT NOW, A GOOD soil-watering rain would really put the frosting on the cake!

Turn Row COMMENTS

I'M HOPING by the time the column comes out that all will have received an abundant amount of rain. It's rained all around us and I'm sure that we are next.

MANY FARMERS ARE being somewhat concerned about the late planting. I'm not quite sure as what to do, but for those intested in planting cotton, I'm sure the reward will be great. One reason for this speculation is that the contracts being offered for this year's cotton crop are rather outstanding, compared to last year's price.

A local cotton buyer, backed by some of the largest shippers in the cotton industry, is offering a contract that amounts to about 2,000 points over the 1976 government loan price.

For example, cotton which grades strict low middling light spot, with just a 15/16 staple and a base mike, is being contracted for about 52.80 per pound.

Now that ain't too bad! So all we need is a rain and little cooperation from Mother Nature for the remainder of the year.

SEEMS LIKE MR. HARRIS Washington has torn up the market with the salary he paid certain employees.

Some of the local housewives are to go on strike for higher wages, more fringe benefits. All I can say is the subject could be the quality of work may vary. Nuff said.

IT'S HARD TO BE fit as a fiddle when you're shaped like a cello.

Grant-Dockery wedding solemnized at church

Double-ring wedding vows were pledged between Miss Joli Grant and Gordon Dockery, Saturday, May 29, in the First Baptist Church of Levelland.

The candlelight ceremony was officiated by Rev. Clarence Tedder, pastor of Smyer Baptist Church.

The ceremony was read before an altar decorated with a brass heart encircled by candelabras and flanked by brass candelabras with spring flowers.

The unity candle was placed on a pedestal with smaller candles on each side and spring flowers.

The pews were decorated with hurricane lamps, long white ribbon streamers and fresh flowers. White satin ropes marked the mothers' and grandmothers' pews.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Grant and Mrs. Winnie Custer, all of Whitharral.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white organza and Venise lace.

The moulded bodice featured a key hole neckline, outlined in Venise lace, clusters of seed pearls and sequins.

The lace was repeated on the long tapered sleeves with wedding bell cuffs. The full circular skirt swept to a chapel-length train encircled with a deep flounce of Venise lace edging. Her mantilla style veil of illusion was also edged in lace and drifted beyond her train from a cam-elot capulet.

For "something old" she wore a diamond necklace. The diamond was taken from her mother's wedding ring. She wore her wedding dress for "something new," and "something borrowed" she carried a point lace handkerchief belonging to a friend, Mrs. Huff Pope of Levelland. It was made by her mother in 1905. She wore a blue garter and pennies in her shoe minted the year of their birth. She carried a cascade of vanda orchids and nestled inside was a catalpa orchid, stephanotis and baby breath, tiny orchids tied with lovers knots on white ribbon streamers. She presented her mother and the groom's mother with a rose.

Terri Stanley of Levelland attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore an orchid formal. Bridesmaids, were Billie Dawn Dockery (sister of the groom) who wore yellow; Melinda Dewbre of Sommerfield who wore peach; Brenda Hayes of Whitharral, who wore pink; and Kaye Alexander of Ft. Worth, who wore mint. Their formal gowns were of crepe flocked with white daisies and made halter type with crisscross belt tied in the back. Each wore a picture hat and carried a nosegay complementing their dresses.

Little Miss Lisa Butner of Whitharral was flower girl. She wore a blue dress and hat identical to the bridesmaids and carried a blue and white may basket. Christopher David Butner served as ring bearer. He wore a white jacket and blue pants and a blue boutonniere. Mark Custer (brother of the groom) was junior usher. He wore a black suit with pastel shirt and a pink boutonniere.

Serving the groom as best man was his brother, Leslie Dockery. Groomsmen were Mitchell and Michael Grant, brothers of the bride, Randy Wade of Whitharral and Gary Grant of Levelland. They wore Windsor Tuxedos and pastel ruffled shirts.

The ushers were Greg Wade of Whitharral, Gary Hayes of Whitharral and Ray Grant of Levelland.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Creta Black of Levelland. C. V. Blake of South Plains, soloist sang "If". After the unity candle lighting, he sang "Color My World."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grant wore a pink skirt with overblouse of sheer crepe floral of pink and blue roses. She wore a pink cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother was attired in a blue formal and wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. The bride's table was covered in a white nylon cloth edged in Venise lace. The centerpiece was of spring flowers.

Serving at the table were Gina Young of Amberst and Cassandra Cargile of Lazbuddie. Assisting were Dena and Dina Grant of Levelland and Dana Grant of Whitharral.

The four-tier wedding cake was decorated with pastel flowers and sugar bells. White doves, a pearl heart and a wedding bell encircled with pearls formed the cake topper. Punch was served from a silver service belonging to Sherri Rodgers.

The registry table was covered with a white silk cloth trimmed in lace. A gold candelabra with finger candles formed the centerpiece. Miss Dana Grant registered the guests.

Serving in the house party were Glenda White, Polly Bryson, Jonny Polk and Esta Mae Hisaw all of Whitharral. Mrs. Charlene Williams was wedding co-ordinator.

Friday night following the rehearsal, Mrs. Custer hosted a dinner catered by the Chat and Chew Restaurant. The tables were decorated with miniature white wedding bells tied with bows of pastel ribbon.

Miss Grant was a 1974 graduate of Whitharral, attended South Plains College and is presently attending Texas Tech University majoring in home economics education.

Dockery was a 1973 graduate of Center Point High School and Commercial Art College of Lubbock. He is employed at the Whitharral Co-op Gin.

As the couple left for a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M., they wore matching blue denim pant suits made by Mrs. Grant, and the yoke was designed and painted by Gordon. The bride wore the catalpa orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Texas Tau Chi Chapter discusses pageant plans

Monday evening, May 24, began for the members and guests of the Texas Tau Chi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi with hostesses Bonnie Stephens and Kris Bean serving a hamburger supper and a "special" chocolate cake.

Those present were: Barbara Starnes, Sharon Brown, Pat Stubbs, Kyra Cox, Freddie Duke, Janice Graves, Gerry Thomas, and guests: Cynthia Roberts and Bobbie Wagley.

The regular meeting was called to order by Barbara Starnes, president.

Chairman for next year's committees were appointed, and a discussion of possible activities for the summer months was held.

The Library Hour project was reported to have been a success, but all agreed that it would not be possible to continue it this summer.

Final plans for the Miss Lamb County Beauty Pageant and the Coke party for the contestants and parents were made. The Coke party is to be held Tuesday evening, June 1, in the Flame Room.

A program based on "Hope In Our Heritage" and a historical film clip brought the meeting to a close.

A revealing party was held, where gifts were exchanged and the identity of Secret Sisters was learned.

Secret Sisters for next year were drawn by each member.

Maudie Wood attends

session at institute

SUDAN— Maudie Wood of Sudan is presently attending the 36th session of the Bible Training Institute in Cleveland, Tenn.

The institute, which has an enrollment of 585 students, is sponsored by the Church of God of Prophecy.

The three-week seminar is conducted by the organization to train individuals in various areas of religious work including missions, youth work,

Bible knowledge, music, public speaking, public relations, pastoral work, church business, and doctrinal practices of the church. Each weekend the school sponsors evangelistic services in which all the students take part.

Maudie Wood, who is a member of the Sudan Church of God of Prophecy, located at 201 Wilson St., returned home after commencement exercises Friday, May 21.

Harrell-Blackburn vows repeated here May 15

Bridesmaids were Miss Candy Jo Gibbs of Waco, Miss Kathy Wright of Lubbock, and Mrs. Gene Jones of Ozark, Ark. Their gowns were orchid silk organza with portrait necklines and accented at the waistline and neck with matching Venice lace. They also carried lilac glamelais. Their hair was accented with baby's breath. The bridegroom was attended by Jim Hart of Amarillo as best man. Groomsmen were Jim Webb of Lubbock, Gary DeLoach of Houston, and Rick Buls of Seguin.

The sanctuary was decorated with greenery and lilac ribbon and lighted with large orchid pillar candles. Behind the altar was a cascade arrangement of lilac chrysanthemums, English ivy, and lilac daisies on a candelabra of orchid candles. Graduated spiral candelabras encircled with baby's breath and greenery and orchid candles completed the decor.

Candles were lighted by Miss Sondra Bales and Shannon Bales, niece and nephew of the bride. Miss Bales wore a long gown of orchid organza with a slightly empire waistline with the skirt extending into a train. The sleeves and train were bordered with organza ruffles.

Ms. Sandy Bartow, sister of the groom, registered guests in the church foyer at a pedestal table with a cascade of lilac daisies and mums. Her gown was fashioned of floral organza.

Guests were seated by Mike Hardy of Lubbock and Jimmy Bales of White Oak, brother-in-law of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length dress fashioned of light pink Quiana with Venetian lace inserts on the bodice with long full sleeves accented with pearl buttons. She chose accessories of soft pink and accents of baby's breath in her hair. A cymbidium orchid completed her ensemble.

Mrs. McCandless, mother of the groom, chose a light blue chiffon floor-length gown with lace inserted waist fastened with rhinestones. Her accessories were of silver and she also had accents of baby's breath entwined in her hair. A cymbidium orchid completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Pat Boone Jr., organist, provided background music and accompanied Mrs. Weldon Findley, soloist.

Mrs. Boone played traditional songs as guests were seated and played "Somewhere, My Love" as the mothers were seated.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Gail Williams played "Liebestraum" by Liszt as Miss Sondra Bales and Shannon Bales lighted the candles. Mrs. Joan Kennemer played "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us" on the marimba followed by a recitation entitled "Why Do I Love You?" done by Judge Pat Boone Jr. as Mrs. Boone played "Oh Perfect Love" in the background. Immediately following the recitation, Mrs. Weldon Findley sang "One Hand, One Heart." After vows were exchanged, Mrs. Findley sang "The Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt before the altar.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell and Mr. and Mrs. McCandless were hosts for a wedding reception in the church parlor.

The bride's table was laid with a formal-length satin and lace tiered cloth with the bride's bouquet and white Bible opened to Proverbs 31 as the focal point of the table. On each corner of the table were the bridesmaids' bouquets. The three-tiered wedding cake raised on Gothic columns was encircled with a ring of lilac daisies and spider fern, and featured a pair of white doves on satin wedding bells.

Mrs. Jim Hart of Amarillo and Mrs. Jack Yesel of Littlefield served from silver appointments at the bride's table.

At the groom's table, Mrs. Kay Bailey of Levelland served the traditional chocolate cake accented with two white doves and coffee from silver appointments.

During the reception Misses Sondra Bales, niece of the bride and Marenda Dent of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, and Shannon Bales, nephew of the bride, distributed rice bags.

For her going-away attire, the bride wore a blue and white four-piece ensemble of double knit fashioned by her mother. The skirt and sleeveless blouse had a white background with small blue and yellow flowers. The blazer jacket and vest were of blue matching the flowers in the skirt and blouse. Her accessories were of yellow and she wore a glamelia corsage lifted from her bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio the couple will be at home at 1609 Ave. E. in Brownwood.

A 1972 graduate of Littlefield High School, Mrs. Blackburn also attended Cisco Junior College and was a May 9 graduate of Howard Payne University, obtaining a degree in English and Music.

Blackburn, a 1972 graduate of Monterrey High School in Lubbock, also attended Cisco Junior College and will graduate from H.P.U. in December with a major in physical education and a minor in business.

Ray-Newcomer wedding solemnized in Sudan

MRS. EDDIE NEWCOMER

SUDAN—Miss Georgia Ray exchanged double ring wedding vows with Eddie Newcomer Sunday, May 23, in the home of the bride's parents.

Officiating for the ceremony was the bridegroom's brother, Larry Newcomer of Houston.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ray of Sudan and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Newcomer of Ackerly.

The couple pledged vows before an archway entwined with greenery and daisies. Judy Lynch played love songs at the piano while the guests were arriving, and the traditional processional. Art Lynch and Vickie Short, sister of the bride, sang "Twelfth of Never."

Following the vows, they sang "We've Only Just Begun."

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white tissue weight organza gown, flocked with petite forget-me-nots. Georgia's gown has a deep "U" neckline and mirrored blouson sleeves accent the bodice as does a feminine sash bowed at the back. A double ruffle flounce borders the hem-line of the dress. A veiled bridal hat was covered in nylon illusion veiling to the waist.

She carried a bridal bouquet of daisies centered with a white orchid, atop a white Bible.

"Something old" and "blue" was the garter her mother wore at her wedding; "something new", her wedding dress; and "something borrowed", ear rings from her sister.

Pennies minted in the year of Georgia's and Eddie's births were worn by the bride in her shoes.

Maid of honor was Miss Phyllis Ray, sister of the bride. Her dress was yellow dotted swiss with a deep "U" neckline and full flounced sleeves trimmed in white lace. She carried a nosegay of white daisies.

Serving as best man was Reggie Hambrick of Amarillo. Tanya Ray, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

Connie Miller of Brownfield, Velma Reasoner of Levelland assisted in serving at the reception following the ceremony. The table was covered in a floor-length white lace cloth. A daisy floral arrangement centered the table. Yellow punch and the traditional wedding cake, topped with yellow bells, were served from crystal and silver appointments.

Georgia is a 1972 graduate of Sudan High School and a 1976 graduate of Texas Tech University. Eddie graduated from Sands High School, Texas Tech University, and is employed with an accounting firm in Odessa, where the couple will live.

Leaving for a honeymoon in Honolulu, Hawaii, the bride wore a white pants suit trimmed in green with green accessories.

Republican candidate speaks to Lions Club

Jim Reese, Republican opponent of Congressman George Mahon, told the Littlefield Lions Club Wednesday, "people have five basic duties to provide for a better society" in his non-political speech.

The duties Reese mentioned are to yourself, your family, community, country and God. Reese never mentioned in his low-key talk that he was running for Mahon's seat in the House. The talk brought a warm reception from the Lions.

Reese and campaign-manager Bob Madison met with a group of supporters following the speech to discuss strategy for the upcoming election.

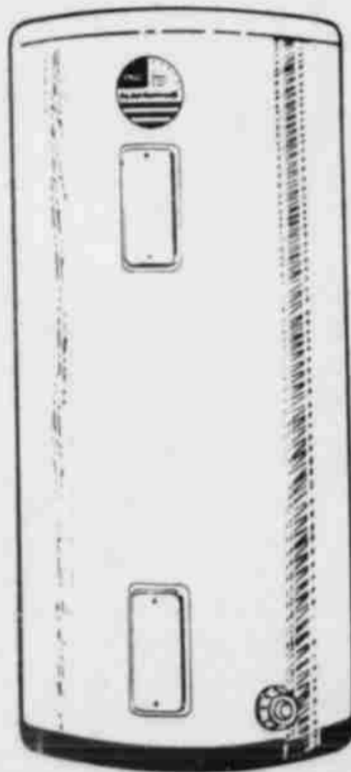

In the meeting with supporters, Reese said that he telegraphed George Mahon, ranking Democrat on the House Appropriations Committee, and President Gerald Ford and called for ending appropriations for the Federal Energy Commission.

Reese termed the FEA a "national disgrace". He charged that the FEA has "grown from nothing to 3,400 of the highest paid government employees in just three years. The mean salary of FEA employees is $19,000."

Reese noted that John Connally would like to abolish the FEA and William Simon has termed it "a monster".

Two students hailed by their coaches for their versatility were named Outstanding Boy and Girl Athletes last weekend at the Littlefield High School Honor Banquet.

Bill Turner, a senior, and Lori Westmoreland, a junior, finished off superlative seasons as Wildcat athletes by taking the honors.

"Bill is one of the finest athletes we have had since I've been here in Littlefield," said athletic director Jerry Blakely. "And he's not only a fine athlete, he's an outstanding individual as well. He's been a good student and a team leader: just a superior person in every way."

Turner was an honor graduate, and is bound for the University of New Mexico on a football scholarship. The 6-0, 185 pounder made all-state last season at defensive back and punter, and Blakely feels he has a good future at both positions in college ball. He will probably be given a shot at wide receiver or running back as well.

Turner was all-district in football four ways—running back, safety, punter and kicker—the first time that has ever happened. He led the Wildcats to a 9-1 record in 1975 as the leading scorer and ground gainer.

He made the regional track meet three straight years. As a senior, he won district in the 100- and 440-yard dashes with times of 10.3 and 51.4. He also made regionals as a member of the mile relay squad which clocked a record setting time of 3:32.4. Turner scored points in the broad jump (third) and the discus (sixth) at district.

He played basketball his freshman year, but was unable to play as a sophomore and junior because of late-season football injuries.

Miss Westmoreland, who is only 5-6, led the Wildcat basketball players in rebounds with an average of 11 a game, a mark of her determination.

"Lori was the most versatile athlete we had this year," said girls' varsity coach Sam Bean. "She's probably not the best basketball player we had and she's surely not the fastest in track, but you can count on her to do well day in and day out. She did a lot of things for us very well."

Lori was an all-district choice at guard last season and was one of the captains. She won the Fighting Heart Award in basketball her sophomore year, and led the team in fewest turnovers as a junior. She medaled in five different events throughout the track season. She had bests of 4-10 in the high jump, 16-7 in the broad jump and 31-8 in the triple jump. She also ran legs on the Littlefield 440 and mile relays.

"You can tell how dedicated she is by the way she feels about athletics and how hard she works at it," Bean added. "Her attitude has overcome what she lacks in speed and size."

C-O swamps Leader-News

Carlisle-Oldham jumped ahead 12-1 after two innings Thursday and coasted for a 15-6 minor league win over Leader-News.

Freddie Hernandez baffled the Newsmen with a three-hitter, and got enough batting support to pick up the win.

Ronald Hernandez led the C-O batters with a double and a single. Craig Bradler punched a double and Tim Boatwright added a single.

Brian Killough's home run was the highlight of the L-N offense. Orville Haynes chipped in a double and Fer-sante Lewis singled.

Carlisle-Oldham now has the minor league lead with a 2-0-2 record.

Since no minor league games are played Monday or Tuesday, only one game story will appear in Sunday editions.

High scoring game tops Jr. Babe Ruth

In the only Jr. Babe Ruth game played this past half-week, Starnes Construction-L&H Durocs outslugged Security State 20-19 Tuesday night in a wild scoring game.

No other games were scheduled because of final school exams.

The winners got off seven quick runs in the top of the first to seemingly start a rout. But the Bankers showed some power of their own, pushing across eight in the bottom of the inning for a one-run cushion.

S-L&H followed with five runs in the second, then exploded for eight more in the third. Security State managed three in the second, one in the third, then five in the fourth to get within one run. But neither team scored in the final fifth inning, and S-L&H hung on to their third win of the season against two losses. Security State is 1-4.

Ruben Torres was the winning pitcher and slapped a pair of singles. Lupe Martinez banged a double, and Tony Hall, Rex Freeman, Herbert Spencer and Dan John each singled.

Steve Vargas led the Bankers with a double and single. Will Williams sliced a triple, Dennis Abeyta hit a double, and Raul Villafranco, David Duenes, Bobby Garyune and Josh Rangel each chipped in a single.

Game, fish violations increase

There were 43 percent more hunting, fishing and state park violations in April 1976 than for a similar period in 1975, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, whose game wardens are charged with enforcing game and fish laws in the state.

Recently completed figures show 2,799 arrests in April, compared to 1,956 in April 1975. Convictions also registered a 17 percent increase, from 1,142 to 1,341.

Led by a whopping 66 percent increase in water safety related violations, categories covered range from illegal harvesting of game animals to fishing without a license.

Sport and commercial fishing violations, pollution, water safety and park and miscellaneous violation categories all registered increases between April 1975 and 1976. Only game law violations decreased slightly, from 171 reported arrests in April 1975 to 163 for April of this year.

As was the case in April 1975, most of the arrests and convictions resulted from fishing without a license. A total of 1,535 arrests was made for that violation. That was a 35 percent increase in arrests over the previous year, when 1,132 arrests were recorded.

In the commercial fishing category, violations increased 56 percent. Illegal use of nets or seines and the taking of game fish with commercial nets accounted for most of the increase.

Firemen extinguish Birkelbach 6-3 for lead

Fire Department, on a blazing four-game winning streak, doubled up previously unbeaten Birkelbach 6-3 Tuesday night to avenge an earlier loss and grab a share of the Littlefield major league lead. Birkelbach had edged the Firemen 10-7 in the first week of the season, so Fire Dept. was just paying back an old debt. In a unique scheduling quirk, the two squads meet again on the last day of the season July 3. That game could get bigger and bigger as the season wears on.

WOW 10 ROTARY 4
Randy Kemp fired a four-hitter by Rotary Monday as WOW pulled the rug out 10-4. The Rotarians got all four of their runs in the second inning but were shut off after that. WOW rallied for four in the third and two apiece in the fourth and fifth to build a good lead. Bryan Gregory's two home runs, one a two-run shot, gave the Woodmen batting strength. Scott Yarbrough cracked a pair of singles and Scott Lewis added a double. Randy Horne and Raymond Sierra both slapped singles for Rotary. Sierra was the losing pitcher.

FIRE DEPT. 6 BIRKELBACH 3
Leslie Yarbrough slugged a two-run homer and twirled a two-hitter for Fire Dept. to stun Birkelbach 6-3 Tuesday for their first loss of the season.

The two teams are left with identical 5-1 records, each one's loss coming at the hands of the other team.

Birkelbach got just two runs in the first and one in the sixth, and could never get by Yarbrough's pitching. Four runs in the third inning propelled the Firemen.

Clark Pylant notched a pair of singles for the winners. Adrian Soliz and Curtis Williams both singled.

Bobby Martinez slashed a triple for Birkelbach, and Jim Burks hit a single.

LAMB CO. ELECTRIC 12 LIONS 11

For two and a half innings Thursday night, it looked like the Lions were about to win their first game of the year. Then the lightning struck in the form of five Lamb Co. Electric scores in the bottom of the third, and the Electricians went on to nip the Lions 12-11.

The Lions got three runs in the first and second periods and two more in the third as they seemed to hit the LCE pitchers at will. Todd Simpson blasted a three-run homer in the first to get things going.

But the Electricians started hitting the ball too, got nine runs in the second and third innings, and scored the winning run in the bottom of the fifth.

It was the Lions sixth loss without a win.

Chris Merrifield and Jimmy Sexton led LCE with two singles each. Kerry Rainbolt came in to finish the game on the mound and was credited with the win.

Simpson added a single to his homer, and teammate Trey Martindale also singled.

THE LITTLEFIELD SENIOR All-stars will be heading to Dalhart Thursday for the start of the Little Dribbler West Texas playoffs. They will battle six other teams for a berth in the national playoff tourney in Levelland. Littlefield's first game is Thursday at 11:45 a.m. against Dalhart. The All-stars are Sally Wilkinson, Tollett, Cindy Klein, Pam Fisher, Sandra Healy, James Robin Messer, Bridgett Twitty, Gloria Brockington, Kim and Linda Glover. Their coach is Brenda Davis. Chiefs win first over Tigers by 20-14

In a night filled with battles between the four last place teams in the Pee Wee leagues, the Chiefs and Alley Cats came out shining. The Chiefs won their first game of the season after four straight losses 20-14 over the Tigers Tuesday. The Tigers have yet to win a game, and are 0-5.

In the other game, the Alley Cats (2-3) edged the Road Runners (1-4) by a score of 15-12.

In the only other game reported, the undefeated Lions defeated the Rockets 17-8.

CHIEFS 20 TIGERS 14

The Chiefs scored five runs in each inning Tuesday night to pick up their first win of the year over the Tigers, 20-14.

Raymond Mooney, Kevin Pearson, Billy Cowen, Brad Heffington, Bryon Magruder and Ricky Bush all had hits for the Chiefs. Pearson was the winning pitcher. Ricky Villareal led the Tigers with three runs. Jerry Eddings, Dale Duke, Chris Martinez and Bradley Palmer each crossed the plate twice.

ALLEY CATS 15 ROAD RUNNERS 12

The Alley Cats held the Road Runners to just one run in the last two innings to hold on to a 15-12 victory.

Joe Servantez was the winning pitcher and had three hits. Larry Wilson, Chick McLelland, Kindel Kirkendall, Health Jones and Lawrence Ruiz backed him up with two hits apiece.

Todd Simmons and Paul Steadman led the Road Runners with two hits. Killough, Scott Starzema, Gilbert, Brad Kloiber, Steve Macha, Steve Starzema, Gage and Joe Galina all singled.

LIONS 17 ROCKETS 8

The Lions upped the beaten skein to five Monday with a 17-8 shell the Rockets.

Mike Pierce picked up the win, and joined Leo McPaul Mendez, Michael Montgomery and Dale Brad-the leading hitters. Joe Vargas, Johnny tinez and Cruz Hernandez spearheaded the Rockets' attack.

Wardens file for jacket violations

Failure to have the proper number of life preservers on board accounted for most water safety citations issued by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens in April.

As of April 30, P&WS wardens had issued 727 citations for water safety violations, a 66 percent increase over April 1975. A total of 494 citations were to boat operators who failed to have the proper number of personal flotation devices or PFDs in their vessels and 46 tickets were given because passengers under 12 years of age were not wearing their life preservers.

Parks and Wildlife Department water safety officials say there are four types of PFDs which are certified as Coast Guard-approved and acceptable under Texas law.

A Type I PFD is an approved vest or jacket-type device which is designed to turn an unconscious person in the water from a face-downward position to a vertical or slightly backward position, and to have more than 20 pounds of buoyancy.

A Type II PFD is also a vest or jacket designed to turn an unconscious person to a vertical or slightly backward position in the water, but it is designed to have at least 15 1/2 pounds of buoyancy.

A Type III PFD, also a vest or jacket-type device, is designed to keep a conscious person in a vertical position and to have at least 15 1/2 pounds of buoyancy. While having the same buoyancy as a Type II, a Type III PFD has a lesser turning ability to allow for a comfortable design for water activities such as skiing.

A Type IV PFD is a ring buoy or a bouyant cushion designed to be thrown to a person in the water and not worn. It must have at least 16 1/2 pounds of buoyancy. All PFDs must carry a tag certifying that the device is Coast Guard-approved.

The law requires that all motorboats regardless of size must have at least one Coast Guard-approved PFD for each person on board. However, the type of PFD required differs.

Motorboats of 16 feet or less may use any of the four types of PFDs available. A life jacket, bouyant vest, ring buoy, or bouyant cushion is acceptable.

Motorboats longer than 16 feet must have one Type I, II or III for each person aboard. In addition, federal law requires a Type IV PFD on board an immediately available for use. All PFDs must be in serviceable condition and readily accessible.

Passengers under 12 years of age in motorboats 26 feet long or less must wear an approved vest or jacket type PFD whenever the boat is underway.

A Banker's Viewpoint...

Everybody has heard the old story about the rancher who got limburger cheese in his mustache. After suffering the situation for the better part of a day, he announced "The whole world stinks."

If you've felt that way about events of the past few years you have plenty of company. But the whole world really doesn't stink, and we can be thankful that, at least in our United States, there's something we could do about it if it did.

In fact, it appears from here that the people of our country are doing something about it now. Dissatisfied with the way things have been going on in their government - the burgeoning bureaucracy, unbalanced budgets and inflation, and so on - the American people have given a firm message to Washington.

In politics, voting in both parties, they have expressed their worry about big government. And members of Congress obviously are getting the message.

There is strong pressure in Congress to cut down on bureaucracy. This is expressed in a proposed law that would eliminate any federal program unless Congress reenacts it every four years.

The idea would help halt the amoeba-like growth of the government. It would give critics of big government specific targets to shoot at, and it might be palatable to congressmen who, instead of having to trade out votes on each others' pork barrel schemes, could merely happen to be absent when a vote came up on an unneeded federal agency.

The idea, of course, hasn't been approved. It may never be approved. But the fact that Congressmen are willing even to discuss it is an encouraging sign that liberals and conservatives alike recognize the danger of continued unbridled spending and debt by the government.

There are, a great many federal undertakings that could as well be done without. There are 1,000 aid programs for state and local governments, 228 health programs, 156 income security programs, 83 housing programs and 1200 advisory boards. Their duties overlap and conflict with each other, and their cost is multiplied by their numbers.

If Congress is seriously thinking of getting their expansion under control, maybe the whole world doesn't stink after all.

Make a check list before launching

It's a fairly good indication that summer is near when the trees start blooming, the water begins getting warm, and the birds return home.

Summer is the time of year when many people begin thinking of vacations, baseball, boating, and other forms of recreation synonymous with warm temperatures and sunny skies.

It is also the season when man's fancy turns from the land to the luring seas. Landlubbers break out the old skipper's cap, the worn sneakers, and haul the family boat out of the garage and head for the wide open seas (more in line with the local lake) for another summer of boating relaxation and recreation.

Like any piece of machinery that is stored for long periods of time: corrosion and weather play an integral part in the deterioration of the vessel and other related equipment.

You as an avid boater should begin checking all vital components of your boat in order to insure that it is in peak condition for the long hot summer ahead.

The Coast Guard suggests that you begin checking all safety equipment, such as: fire extinguishers, flame arresters, personal flotation devices (PFD's), cables, and other movable objects which under certain conditions, might malfunction. Check all ventilation compartments for clogs and any other forms of debris which may have accumulated during the winter layover.

If left exposed, last years serviceable life preservers may have become dry-rotted or punctured. A punctured PFD will absorb oil and gas; as a result, the flotation capabilities of the PFD will diminish.

Where there is a life involved, don't economize. Maintain your equipment as if it were a matter of life and drowning. It is!

A properly cleaned and fitted flame arrester will provide peak efficiency and safer boating.

All navigation lights should be given a thorough inspection to insure that they are functioning properly.

Finally, check the overall condition of your boat and make sure that everything is in good working order and that it is ready to go.

Senior Corner

By DON PITTS

The other day I read that anyone 65 or older was entitled to a $3,000 tax exemption on the property where they were living, if the taxing body granted the exemption. I told the Seniors' club in Amherst about this, and a couple of people were interested. I did some investigating and found out that some taxing bodies around here grant the exemption and some don't.

The city and school district of Amherst do not grant the exemption. Mrs. Crawford, the tax assessor, explained that such a large portion of the population is over 65 and that an exemption for them would put an unfair burden on the rest of the tax payers. She also explained that the property was accessed at a very low rate so that the taxes were kept low.

Mrs. Melton, at the school tax office, reinforced this view. In Littlefield, both the school and the city grant the exemption. To be eligible, a person must apply at the school tax office on the Lubbock Highway. The official date for application has already passed, but applications will be accepted until sometime in the summer.

Herbert Dunn at the county tax office, said that the county does not grant the exemption, but that the valuations were so low that no one was being overly taxed.

In cooperation with the two Littlefield nursing homes, I am organizing a visitation program.

The idea is to get Senior Citizens in the community, to visit those in the homes, who don't receive many visitors. No matter how good a nursing home is, for some, it can be a lonely place.

Bicentennial flag presented at Sudan

SUDAN—The City of Sudan was honored Friday in a Bicentennial ceremony when Mrs. Tom Simmons, commissioner of the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas visited here.

She presented Pete Phillips, local Bicentennial chairman, with a certificate of official endorsement of Sudan as a Bicentennial Community, and the National Bicentennial Revolution Flag to Mayor Nolan Parrish. The program opened with Rev. M. V. Summers, pastor of the first Baptist Church, leading the group of 450 persons in prayer.

The group included students from the local school who had marched from the school down Main Street to the front of the City Hall for the ceremony.

Among these were band students who aided in the program playing "Yankee Doodle Boy," "The Star Spangled Banner" when the national flag and the Bicentennial Revolution Flag were raised, and closed with "Battle Hymn of Republic" narrated by bandsman Bert Byerley.

Phillips gave a report of Bicentennial plans by the City of Sudan for festivities scheduled for July 3-4. He also recognized all the platform guests which included members of the city commission, mayor, and ex-mayor and commissioners.

Cattle feeding continues to decline

The number of cattle being fed in area feedlots is still on the decline, according to the 1976 Fed Cattle Report compiled by the Agricultural Development Department of Southwestern Public Service Company.

The report covers the 45,000 square mile area served by SPS, including 30 counties on the North and South Plains of Texas, four counties in Eastern New Mexico, three in the Oklahoma Panhandle and one county in Southwestern Kansas.

Fed cattle production for 1975 was down 19.6 percent with 3,280,443 cattle fed compared to 4,082,142 in 1974. The peak year for number of cattle fed was 1973 when area feedlots fed 4,962,763 head.

The 1975 figure represents a decline of 33.9 percent since 1973.

Feedlot capacity since 1974-the peak year-has also declined 5.1 percent while the number of feedlots with 1,000 head capacity and above has gone down from 191 in 1971 to 148 at the beginning of this year.

Sam Thomas, SPS Agricultural Development Manager thinks that the long term future for the cattle feeding industry is bright. "The experiences of the past two years has had a strong similarity to the 1963-64 periods when the profit picture was so bad it appeared the cattle feeding development was dead. The more recent experience has been complicated by higher grain costs and feeder cattle, but the enthusiasm, dejection, despondency and elation that comes from the feed yards follows a very familiar pattern."

"I am in hopes that fed cattle numbers will increase at a 15 to 25 percent annual rate unless there is a compensatory reduction in fed cattle numbers in other areas," Thomas concluded.

SPRINKLER IRRIGATION systems must be operated properly to achieve maximum returns. Many Lamb County farmers are using sprinklers now. Circular sprinklers are more popular due to less labor required. Correct operating pressures and an adequate application rate must be maintained for optimum yields at reasonable costs. Contact your local Soil Conservation Service office for sprinkler assistance. Caution is urged in watering fields

Recent dry winds across the South Plains may have dried up the tops of seed beds in some areas.

Producers who have encountered this problem and are planning to water up their crops are urged to consider both the costs and possible hazards of irrigating at this time.

Texas Agricultural Extension Service specialists say that late watering not only will add to production costs, but could result in the concentration of nitrogen (saltizer) in the seed zone is applied by the method.

Dr. James Supak, Service agronomist, salt problem is likely only where the nitrogenizer was applied directly into the broadcast applicator at an angle across prior to listing, the salt problem is more

Ten-foot tall cotton may be here in future

Ten-foot tall, wild cotton plants from Old Mexico may become the parents of a new line of cotton varieties for the High and Rolling Plains.

The wild seedlings, which grow into large trees eventually, have characteristics of special importance to High and Rolling Plains cotton producers. That is, they are tolerant to drought or long periods of moisture stress.

A team of USDA-Agricultural Research Service scientists based at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension enter at Lubbock believe the germplasm found in the wild cotton plants can be bred into lines suitable for cotton production on the Texas plains. But they won't be 10 or 20 feet tall. They will look like the other short, storm-proof varieties currently grown in the area.

Dr. J. E. Quisenberry, cotton breeder, and Dr. Bruce Roark, plant physiologist, say the material will take several years to develop. But if their goals are reached, area cotton producers may not have to start irrigating as soon when they enter a prolonged dry period during the growing season.

"Of course, all plants must have water," Quisenberry says. "What we hope to come up with are new lines that can hold up longer under moisture stress than those currently being grown."

Quisenberry says most of the varieties produced on the Texas High Plains were derived from varieties primarily bred for humid areas of the Southeast. Characteristics that were useful for drought tolerance were probably lost, he says, during this development period because of the high rainfall associated with that region.

The reason these wild cottons can withstand moisture stress, Roark adds, is the ability of their enzyme systems to efficiently adapt to conditions so that all phases of the plants' growth are carried on without interruption.

Most of the data he and Quisenberry have collected reveal several morphological, anatomical and physiological characteristics useful in the development of drought tolerant cottons. These characteristics will be selectively bred into plants that can be grown in this area.

The research is of special significance to dryland cotton growing areas where producers are totally dependent on rainfall and winter moisture. Prolonged dry periods during the growing season in these areas essentially wipe out cotton production if there is not enough deep moisture available to get the plants through critical stages. Losses running into the millions of dollars are suffered during these periods.

"As irrigation water continues to decline in irrigated cotton producing areas," Quisenberry adds, "drought tolerant crops could take on much more importance for those producers, as well. We're looking at drought tolerant varieties for all the High and Rolling Plains areas, whether or not those areas are presently irrigated or dry-land."

Quisenberry and Roark have found unexpected characteristics in these wild cottons that could have equal importance to High and Rolling Plains cotton growers, they believe. These include resistance to Verticillium wilt, nematodes and perhaps even the boll weevil. Although it will take several years to develop new lines with these characteristics, they believe the potential for new sources of resistance is there.

The USDA-ARS scientist say the wild cottons are descendants of ancient progenitors that were discovered by European explorers in Central and South America.
