Christmas Decorating Must Not Ace's Thing

A. C. (Ace) Bridwell may not turn out to be a "humbly" at Christmas time, but he may be a "humbly" to decorations from now on.

Almost a year to the day that the well home was razed by a $56,000 fire caused by an electrically lighted Christmas tree, Ace fell from the house where he was installing yule lights and broke his right ankle in two places.

Bridwell was helping Rev. R. B. Hall install lights on his roof when the ladder slipped and he fell to the concrete porch below.

Bridwell was taken to the Littlefield

Hospital, then transferred to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock for surgery on the compound fractures Saturday morning.

Mrs. Hall said this was the first year they had decorated the exterior of the parsonage since moving to Littlefield.

"They were just getting started," Mrs. Hall said. "R. B. was on the roof and Ace was at the top of the ladder about to get on the house top for the first time when the ladder slipped."

Mrs. Hall added that she doubts if they will put up the newly purchased lights at all now.

MRS. RATLIFF'S TRINKETS

Yule Cheer All Year

WILAH RODGERS
News Staff Writer

Bangles, bangles and beads abound at Mickey Ratliff Sr. and Mickey Ratliff Sr. homes around Christmas time.

Revolving trees made of hundreds of pieces of bright jeweled earrings, necklaces, and necklaces on velvet adorn mantles and table tops.

Satin and styrofoam balls covered with strands of sequins and pearls are used in centerpieces.

A flocked Christmas tree that touches the ceiling is covered with jeweled tinsel, tear drops, bubbles with sequins and birds.

Pearls and bright stones for these decorations come from family heirlooms and purchases made at garage sales, and the decorations are all handmade by Mrs. Mickey (Dixie) Ratliff Sr. "You buy pins and pearls by the pound and glue by the ounce," she said. "For every pearl and pin there is a pin and a dip of glue," she said, "and I might add that it's very, very, too." If the pearls aren't the right color she dyes them to match.

Creating homemade Christmas decorations is Mrs. Ratliff's year-round hobby. She designed her first decorated tree about five years ago and planned to make a dozen a year for six years. But she changed her schedule. "My word," she said, "I couldn't even guess how many I made."

Besides the many jeweled balls that she uses on the tree at her son's house and the sequins used in the centerpieces at both homes, she has made three dozen for a home in California.

She spends three and four hours creating many of the decorations. Decorating for Christmas isn't just a hobby for Mrs. Ratliff. She works on the decorations every chance she finds. "I even been working on one Christmas tree," she said.

Friends give her their broken jewelry, miss-matched earrings and costume jewelry with missing stones.

Mrs. Ratliff makes candles and candle holders, angels and candy Christmas trees also.

Her year-round yule decoration hobby makes Mrs. Ratliff's Christmas cheer last all year.

THOUSANDS OF PEARLS, bright beads and yards of velvet ribbon goes on the satin and styrofoam balls Mrs. Mickey Ratliff Sr. makes into centerpieces and Christmas tree ornaments. Grandchildren Laurie and Derik Ratliff lend a hand in making this arrangement.

LITTLEFIELD WELCOMES VISITORS on all highways entering the city with these large, lighted "Season's Greetings" signs. Streaks of light in the nighttime photo by Joella Lovvorn are from car headlights which passed during the time exposure.

COTTON HARVEST WINDING UP

Ginnings At 55,000

The Littlefield cotton harvest is "down to the knots" but ginning is still going strong in parts of the county.

Several gin managers reported they expected to complete this year's ginning "today" when they were contacted Friday morning.

The Friday gin report showed 54,807 bales had been tagged out by 30 Lamb County gins for this harvest season. This total lags far behind for the same period last year.

Five gins in the Olton area had issued 17,355 green tags.

Six gins in and around Earth had tagged out 15,871 bales and several of the gin yards were covered with seed cotton and still running night ginning crews. One

Earth gin had almost 1,500 bales on its yard.

Springlake had ticketed out 4,807 bales through Friday.

Gins at Amherst accounted for 4,684 of the season's total.

Two Littlefield gins, Speck, Lumsden and the gin at Lums Chapel had issued 4,109 green tags.

Gins at Fieldton and Hart Camp had ginned and had on their yards 4,046 bales.

At Sudan, 2,695 bales had come in to the three gins, and three gins at Spade had 1,240 bales.

County wide the mike dropped over the past two weeks, especially on June cotton, and the staple length averaged about 15/16 compared to an inch and better on early cotton at the beginning of the harvest.

Price per pound over the county ranges from 11 to 16 for most of the cotton that is grading spots and tinges. Below grades and barks grades aren't uncommon this year. Pressley strength is from below 69 to above 95.

The 1969 cotton crop is expected to fall short of even conservative estimates.

At the peak of the 1968 ginning season, 63,801 bales had been ginned at 26 gins in the county before Thanksgiving.

County Farmers Approve Quotas By Big Majority

Lamb County farmers approved the cotton marketing quota referendum in an overwhelming majority.

Vote returns counted this week indicate 97 per cent of the county cotton producers favor the quotas, with only three per cent of the voters casting a vote against the referendum.

According to Lamar Aten, ASCS manager, 1,219 county farmers voted. Returns showed 1,191 voting to continue the quotas and only 28 favoring discontinuance of the referendum.

Approval means that producers growing cotton within their farm allotments will have price-support loans and payments available.

Penalties will be applied on excess cotton.

The '70 cotton allotment for Lamb County is up 11,565 acres over the '69 acreage. Last year the total allotment was 198,996, and this year the Lamb County allotment is 187,431.

Farmers will be allowed to plant 100 per cent of their allotment, but will be paid on only 65 per cent. There will be no cotton diversion acreage program.

This year's returns show a larger percentage favoring the quotas, but the total number of votes cast was down from last year.

Last year there were 1,434 votes cast and 96 per cent, or 1,320 voted yes on the quotas and 64 voted no.

Details of the 1970 program sign-up will be announced by the ASCS at a later date.

Local City Manager Gets Regional Chore

Littlefield City Manager Jim Shearer was elected secretary-treasurer of the Panhandle City Managers Association during a meeting Wednesday in Amarillo.

This is the fourth office Shearer has held with the organization.

The Panhandle City Managers Association is comprised of city managers from a 32-county area from Oklahoma to the southern boundaries of Lamb, Bailey, Hale, Floyd, Motley and Cottle Counties.

The organization meets every other month when members discuss their common problems and exchange ideas. "The organization serves as a forum for exchange of information concerning cities—such as new laws, procedures and developments," Shearer said.

Besides his duties as city manager, Shearer also serves as permanent chairman of West Texas Municipal Utilities Committee, which is presently working on the Pioneer Natural Gas Company gas rate increase case.

Shearer is presently completing his eighth year in city management work, and completed his second year as Littlefield's City Manager in November.

He also completed a term of service as director on the Executive Board of Directors of the Texas City Managers Association in November.

Pampa City Manager Charles V. Hill was elected president of PCMA and Dumas City Manager H. R. Macomber was named vice president.

Amarillo City Manager John Stiff is outgoing president, and in the business session, Stiff told 15 city managers and assistant city managers that the regional planning concept is a part of the changing world.

"We are living almost in the 1970s and we can't operate the same way we did years ago," he said, adding that participating in projects utilizing federal funds has become "accepted" in the six years he has been in Amarillo.

During the meeting, Plainview City Manager Marshall Pharr presented a slide presentation of Plainview's annual progress report, which won an award from the Texas Municipal League.

'Messiah' Practices Slated This Week

Only two more practice sessions are to be conducted in preparation for the public presentation of Handel's "The Messiah", Dec. 21.

The rehearsals will be Tuesday night at 7:30 and Saturday afternoon, Dec. 20, from 3 to 5.

So far, 24 singers from throughout the Littlefield area have met to form the Community Chorus which will sing at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon at First Methodist Church.

More singers are needed to complete the chorus, which is being sponsored by the Littlefield Ministerial Alliance.

Charlotte Hinds will accompany at the piano, Earl Miller will play the organ, and Al Jordan, minister of music and education of First Baptist Church, will be directing.

"The public is cordially invited to hear the rendition, and we're expecting a large crowd as we did last year," Jordan said.

WHEN ALL THINGS began, the Word already was. The Word dwelt with God, and what God was, the Word was. The Word, then, was with God at the beginning, and through him all things came to be; no single thing was created without him. All that came to be was alive with his life, and the light of men. The light shines on in the dark, and has never quenched it.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

A True Picture?

By LIBBY MUGGETT

READ AN ARTICLE the other day by a lady who had gone through the Christmas cards she had received one year looking for appropriate religious scenes that could be used by foreign missionaries in teaching "heathens" about the Bible.

She got numerous shocks, once she really looked with seeing eyes, at the multiple inaccuracies and numerous assumptions on the different cards.

THE ARTICLE was still fresh in my mind as I was arranging a manger scene with little figurines I have had for what seems like a gillion Christmases and I began to try to visualize how it would appear to someone that had never read nor heard of the nativity story.

Here's what I came up with:

THERE'S A RICKETY old building with just one wall and three open sides and straw all over the floor. Square dab in the center is a crudely built old wooden cradle with a magnificently luxurious pillow in it.

Lying in the crude cradle and on the luxurious pillow is a pale white baby with golden hair and only a diaper on, which is rather strange since everybody else standing around has on long cloaks or heavy jackets.

RAMSHACKLE as this one-walled old building is, it is wired for electricity because there's an electric light bulb shining right up over the baby's head.

Even stranger, there's what looks like a young girl in a white flowing robe with golden wings all spread out stuck on a wire in the front gable of the old shack.

THERE'S ANOTHER young girl in the same kind of white robe and bearing a remarkable resemblance to the one stuck on the wire in the gable, except only this one's wings are folded and she's standing back behind the crudely built cradle with the luxurious pillow and pale white diapered baby.

There's a man and a woman on each side of the cradle that don't seem to have anything to do except sit there with hands folded across their chests. They both have on long, warm cloaks.

JUST OUTSIDE the railing on one side of the old shack is a rather long horned cow lying down that seems bored with the whole thing. There's also a three and a half legged donkey that's standing up and is interested in something because his ears are all pricked up and he's probably looking for his other half leg that broke off.

ON THIS SAME SIDE are three men dressed in formless old rags who must be shepherds because for some reason or other, they have brought what must be half of their herd in from the pastures.

Some of the sheep they are carrying and the rest are wandering all over the place, but the shepherds don't seem to care because they're all looking at the baby.

On the other side of the shack are three men in gorgeous array. One is in a purple robe and has a golden crown on his head so must be royalty. He's holding a red and gold package.

ANOTHER IS in a red robe that covers his head also and is carrying what looks like a golden Coleman lamp.

The third is dark skinned and wears a yellow robe with a turban wrapped around his head. His package must be heavy because he's lain it on the ground and is squatted down beside it.

BEHIND THE THREE splendidly outfitted men is one camel—just one. It must have carried all three of the men because it is already lying down and looking as bored with all the goings on as the cow, but a lot more tucked.

Standing beside the camel is another dark skinned man, but he seems to be left out of everything and can't go look because he's got his hand up to his eyes and is straining to see what the excitement's all about.

IT MUST HAVE SNOWED the night before because there's white all over the ground and that man sitting beside the baby with his hands folded ought to be closing in the other three sides of that old shack.

That lady sitting beside the baby with her hands folded ought to be scrounging up some blankets to put over that baby. The electric light just simply couldn't be giving off enough heat to keep that baby warm.

The whole scene is very strange indeed.

Dear Sir:

I am a graduate student in history at Western Kentucky University and am currently engaged in a seminar class on "The Cattle Kingdom."

My topic for research for the semester is, roughly, "Ranch Managers and Their Relationships with the Cattle Company," particularly in the Texas panhandle. I would appreciate any information or leads to such information relating to this subject.

If possible, please refer my letter to anyone in your area who might be of some help to me, particularly a library or local history buff.

I will be looking forward to hearing from you. Thank you very much.

PAUL HARVEY NEWS

Enlightened Selfishness

WHAT FUN WE ARE going to have spending constructively the money we've been spending destructively in Vietnam—$33 billion a year for war over there, when just $5 billion might turn the tide in our home-front war on crime.

That's what the National Commission on Causes and Prevention of Violence figures: $5 billion would initiate sweeping reforms in criminal justice, legal aid and crime prevention.

THE COMMISSION FOUND that our nation's entire system of criminal justice has been existing on less than 2% of our government expenditures.

What's happened, of course, is that our cities have mushroomed, population concentrations have created unprecedented problems, but criminal justice procedures too frequently have not adapted. This has resulted in inefficiency among police, courts and the penal system.

HANDCUFFED POLICE and hamstring courts have resulted in legal leniency which inevitably encouraged criminals so that today crime is increasing in the United States nine times faster than our population is increasing.

With increasing inefficiency and inconsistency in law enforcement, respect for laws and lawmen has diminished to where this commission saw fit to urge our President to hide from crowds! The commission recommended that Presidents and other political leaders desist from appearing at mass public meetings—use TV appearances instead—thus to reduce the danger of assassination.

THE 580-PAGE REPORT concludes that "domestic turbulence" is now so great in the United States that our leaders cannot any longer be as casual as formerly about public appearances. It urged state and local governments to review their protection procedures for governors and mayors and such.

TODAY'S YOUNGSTERS, reared in the jungle, perhaps will not be offended—as the rest of us are—by these recommendations. The very idea that in our sweet land of liberty leaders must stay behind bulletproof glass and women must hide behind shuttered windows and schoolteachers must go to work daily fearing for their personal safety.....

What's encouraging, however, is that the commission believes we can afford to buy more protection and, at the same time, reverse the crime increase—with money.

THE $5 BILLION which the commission recommends would double the present federal investment in the administration of justice and the prevention of crime. It would provide federal funds to help create offices of criminal justice in every major city as a step toward ending the fragmented system of parallel and overlapping criminal procedures. It would finance modern procedures, computer control, incentives for police, courts and correctional institutions. And federal aid in these areas would release municipal funds for "more police."

WE ALREADY HAVE an armed guard on every commuter El train in Chicago.

More lawmen standing guard is like rubber gloves as a remedy for a leaky pen but it's better than nothing—and we've tried nothing.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE
Not For Sale

By BOB WEAR

"EVERY MAN HAS HIS PRICE" is a rather common saying among men. They are saying that, for the right price, everybody will sell out; that character, integrity and good name are "for sale".

Of course, this is not true. Some people are not for sale.

WE MUST ADMIT, however, that many people will sell out, and do sell out; but there are people (many perhaps) who realize that some things are priceless and are not for sale.

There are people who retain their integrity, regardless of the price offered for letting it go.

According to daily reports, many persons are presently selling a lifetime of usefulness and happiness for a brief time of self-indulgence and self-abandonment. They are selling out for a very small price—so much they give for so little.

IT IS NOT SO BAD that a man sell a $10,000 painting for $10, as for a man to sell a lifetime of meaningful living for temporary satisfaction of a fleeting desire.

Some things must never be for sale. We must not sell principles for expediences; or integrity for indulgences; or character for corruption.

"NOT FOR SALE" must be our attitude toward all of the recognized elements of a rich and full life.

What price do we give to our honesty and integrity? Who is able to assign a proper value to one's character, or to one's good name? These are some of the life qualities which must be high on our list of things "not for sale".

WOULD WE SELL OUR SOUL? "What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? What would a man give in exchange for his soul?"

When we are tempted to sell out, and we will be, let us resist. Remember: in the next hour, or day, or week, or month, or year, or some time we will rejoice in our wise decision.

HOLDING OURSELVES and our virtues in high esteem is never cause for regret or remorse, but it is our strength, our peace of mind, and our enduring joy.

Wildcats Drop Pair, Host Hereford Tuesday

Littlefield's Wildcats dropped two close games in the Abernathy Tournament Thursday and Friday, and the losses took them out of tourney action and brought their season record to 3-5.

Coach Jim Jefferies' crew was a victim of two Class A schools, falling to Ralls by 65-59 and to Spur, a team the Cats had beaten earlier in the year, 51-47.

The Wildcats will get a chance to redeem themselves here Tuesday night against Class AAA Hereford. They'd like to turn the tables on the Whitefaces, who won an earlier game in Hereford, 60-48.

The Junior Varsity will play at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday with the varsity clash to follow.

Against Ralls, Littlefield stayed even with the Jackrabbits for three quarters. But after a 43-43 score at that point Ralls outscored the Cats 22-16 in the final period.

The Cats played well enough to win offensively, hitting 33 per cent of their shots, but the defense couldn't hold off Ralls in the final quarter.

Max Hutchins led the scoring with 15 points, and each of the other four starters—Charlie Holt, Charles Carter, Steve Owens and Gary Nace—had 11 points.

Gary Lanston had 24 points to lead in the Ralls attack. Ten of his points came when Ralls needed them the most, in the fourth quarter.

Against Spur, who the Cats had beaten earlier by nine points, the Wildcats ran into a poor third quarter. After leading 29-24 at the half, Littlefield got only two buckets and a free shot while Spur tallied 18 points in the third stanza.

Behind 42-34 after three periods, the Cats closed the gap to four points but didn't recover from the third quarter breakdown.

Holt and Hutchins led Littlefield scoring with 12 points each. Nace had 7 and Owens and Carter 6 each. Eddie Hickman and Pat Boone each scored two points.

Rivers and Kelly led Spur with 14 and 13, respectively. Rivers was the key man in Spur's comeback, hitting for eight points in the third quarter.

DANNY SEWELL of Spade and Anton's Terry Belcher duel for the ball during the Anton tournament championship game Saturday night. The Anton Bulldogs took the title with a 44-40 win.

Anton, Whitharral Cager Advance In SP Tourney

Anton swooped over Union and Sundown and advanced to the finals in the Second Annual South Plains College Class B Basketball Tournament at Levelland. The Bulldogs were set for the Saturday night championship game at press time, following the two opening wins.

Klondike ripped the Whitharral Panthers, 70-41, in their Thursday opener, but the Panthers rallied Friday and slipped past Whiteface, 58-55, for a chance at the consolation title.

Anton's James Turnbow fanned the nets for 27 points to lead the Dogs past Union 55-39 Thursday. Mervin Jackson tallied on 21 for Union.

The Anton Bulldogs bared their fangs and put the Sundown Roughnecks on the short end of the 57-38 score in Friday's tournament action when James Turnbow paced Anton again with 20 points.

Whitharral's five stumped their toes 70-41 in the opening clash with Klondike Thursday, and moved to the consolation side of the bracket. Larry Gage and Johnny Graham combined for all but 10 of the total points with Gage counting on 17 and Graham adding 14. Val Stevens dumped in 26 for the Cougars.

The Panthers came from behind Friday to lick defending Whiteface 58-55 and move into consolation play Saturday night. Gage and Graham swished the strings for 23 points each for the Panthers, and Terry Brownlow tipped in 18 for the losers.

Anton and Whitharral both lost out in the girls' second round of play to miss a title bid. Union's six rolled over Anton 62-48 Thursday. Gene Ann Herrin and Pam Bell tallied on 16 each for Anton in the opener.

Bledsoe skimmed over the Anton sextette, 42-41, Friday. Gale Kelsey was high for Anton with 15.

Klondike sailed past the Whitharral feds, 60-34

Thursday. Kathy Williams pumped in 22 for Pantherettes.

Whiteface rolled Whitharral 49-29 in the game, with Kathy Williams managing 15 points for losers.

Amherst In Finals Of Springlake Meet

Amherst cagers out-scored Three Way and Springlake-Earth to advance to the finals in the Springlake-Earth Tourney.

Eddie Moats of Amherst hit 36 points, leading his team to a 61-57 victory over Three Way in the opening round.

Hart downed Sudan, 60-46, in their opening game, with David Weaver netting 15 points for Sudan.

Olton lost to the host, 78-66, in their opener. Willie Wilburn scored 31 points for Springlake-Earth, and Al Rey made 15 for Olton.

In the second go-round, Lockney bumped Hart, 56-47, and Amherst rolled over Springlake-Earth, 64-48, as the winners advanced to the finals Friday night.

Amherst's Mickey Johnson hit 27 and Wilburn sunk 13 for the Wolverines.

In the consolation bracket, Quittaque topped Sudan, 61-38, for a place in the finals opposite Three Way, who outscored Olton 60-48.

Jerry Bellar set the pace for Sudan with 13 points, D. Roberts got 19 for Three Way and Al Ray led the Olton Mustangs.

In girls action, Amherst downed Three Way, 47-33, with Elaine Weaver scoring and Cheryl Obbe had 11 for the losers.

Sudan stunned Hart, 56-47, with Angela Pickett netting and Becky King scoring 15 for Hart.

Springlake-Earth powered Olton 62-37. Vicki Gray scored 30 points for winners and Merle Givins 15 for Olton.

Friday night Floydada Springlake-Earth scored victories, advancing to finals. Sudan and Amherst battled for third-place Saturday night and Olton Farwell tangled for consolation laurels. Final results will be the Thursday Leader-News.

Reduce Taxes With Records

Good records can save tax dollars at income tax filing time for Northern Texas taxpayers.

Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue in Northern Texas, said good records help you get all the deductions and credits you are entitled to.

A good system for keeping records is to label envelopes or folders according to the types of income and deductions you have, Campbell said. Bills and receipts should be put in the appropriate folder as they are paid.

Taxpayers who itemize their deductions on Form 1040 must have available cancelled checks, receipts, statements, and other data to support the claimed deductions.

Campbell said that, in addition to saving tax dollars, good record-keeping makes preparation of the tax return a much easier task.

ANTON'S NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY members host an annual invitational basketball tournament each year and donate proceeds to their school's athletic fund. Here the committee in charge of statistics check on the high point scorers on a game in progress.

ANTON NHS RUNS TOURNAMENT

Honor Group Aids Athletics

LAH RODGERS said saying advises if you want a job done to ask someone who is already doing it. This is the theory Anton students use in the National Honor Society (NHS) in its invitational basketball tournament each year.

The seventh annual Anton tournament is held Saturday night and the NHS is $600 richer. But these NHS members aren't in the tournament for the money. All their efforts go to the athletic department.

Anton NHS members have a finger in the pie at Anton, with many of them being athletes as well as honor students busy in extra-curricular activities.

And speaking of pie, there is plenty of that at the Anton tourneys—chocolate and lemon meringue and all the favorite homemade varieties. There are all sorts of sandwiches with generous fillings and hot coffee and soft drinks. Mothers of NHS members furnish the food and help in the concession stand during tournaments. Ring-side seats allow patrons to eat without missing a play.

At night and during off-periods the Anton stage band raises the gym rafters with rousing, foot-wagging tunes. Anton NHS members spend about 200 hours preparing for each tournament. Committees are appointed for greeting, statistics and programs. Everyone pitches in to stencil, run-off and staple together the up-to-date programs filled with statistics on past tournaments.

"It's a lot of work," NHS member and athlete Gene Ann Herrin said, "but we really enjoy doing it."

Anton students usually clear expenses on opening day of the tourney, then it's profitable sailing from then until the final trophy is given out.

In the past, profit from the tournaments have bought and paid for new jerseys, blazers for boys' and girls' basketball teams and similar purchases. This year proceeds went into the general athletic fund.

The 1969 tournament is history now, but students are as busy as one-armed paper hangers with nettle-rash preparing statistics and getting ready for the eighth annual tournament next year.

Residents Get Advisory Posts

Two residents of Littlefield have been named to important advisory posts in agencies of the 1.8-million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Albert Perkins will serve on BGCT's Christian Education Commission, and R. B. Hall, pastor of First Baptist Church, will serve on the public relations Advisory Committee.

These appointments were revealed at a Dec. 5 meeting of the BGCT Executive Board in the First Baptist Church in Dallas.

MAN'S STRUGGLE

Throughout the ages man has had his struggle. Ambition kindles a fire that sends him in search of higher and greater achievements. Too bad if his course deviates and his efforts become knotted in unethical procedure. If we are to attain higher ground—if we are to scale the heights placed before us—then our efforts must be seasoned with the highest moral intent. It is all too simple to get along when we compromise with evil and set up our code of rotten rules for attaining our selfish, material desires. If this man's climb is to be really successful—his efforts crowned with glory—he will need God as his guide in his struggle. You need the help of the church in your struggle.

Indescribable Generosity

Dr. WILLIAM A. TERRY
Irvin Street Baptist Church

"For unto you is born this day in the City of David, A Saviour which is Christ the Lord", Luke 2:11.

THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION is a giving religion. It had its birth in God's gift of His Son to the world as its Saviour. Paul declared it to be "a gift unspeakable"; 2 Corinthians 9:15. Words are too weak to describe it. But it has been slow for mankind to receive it.

THERE WAS NO ROOM for Him in the Inn: Luke 2:7.

He was crowded out that night in Bethlehem. The world has ever tried to crowd Him out. He who deserved the most earth had to offer, was given the least, and instead of the best He received the worst.

Born in a stable, lived without a home, died on a cross, and buried in a borrowed tomb, He who was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor that ye through His poverty might be rich. 2 Corinthians 8:9.

THE WORLD HAD no room for Him then. It has all too little room for Him now. His teaching is not convenient to the carnal desire, to selfish ambition nor to world. They did not want Him in Camparneau did not want Him.

They drove Him out of Nazareth. Gadarenes asked Him to leave their coast. And what a chilly atmosphere in the world of Christ today. He is crowded out of nations not much thought is given Him in chambers or legislative halls.

He is too small for consideration in affairs and activities of the world. He is aside in many of our colleges and great of learning.

IN COMMERCIAL LIFE He must allowed to interfere with business. international life the guns of war drown a message of peace.

If we will make room in our hearts for Him we will give us courage to meet the experiences of life.

He will give us the Christmas light to our hearts through all the years and with its joy, and fill our hearts with its and make our lives radiant with its glory.

OUR FATHER we thank Thee for Thy Holy Son Jesus to die for us and Him we are saved. Amen.

Bible Is Losing Influence

The Bible has problems. Sales have been steadily declining for years, the Wall Street Journal reports. What's worse, say people who live by the Book, the Bible is clearly losing its influence on American life.

"We are a Biblically illiterate nation," laments the Rev. Laton E. Holmgren, general secretary of the American Bible Society, a church-sponsored organization that translates, publishes and distributes Scriptures. Through "a certain disillusionment with pure secularism is creeping in," he says, this is "an era of skepticism, agnosticism, atheism."

In 1957, 14% of Americans believed that religion was "losing its influence on American life," according to the Gallup Poll. By this year, the figure had jumped to 70%—"one of the most dramatic reversals in opinion in the history of polling," says George Gallup. The result can be seen in sales figures for what is called the all-time No. 1 best-seller. The number of Bibles and Testaments sold in the U. S. declined to about 14 million last year from 19 million in 1958.

Even the reduced sales figure apparently overstates Americans' interest in the Bible. "Do not be deceived by the number of Bibles that are actually bought. I can tell you where they are. They are on the shelf of some cupboard, untouched," Father Louis Everly, a Belgian priest, wrote recently in a U. S. Catholic magazine. In most years, several paperback novels outsell any version of the Bible, but if all versions are lumped together the Book is rightfully acclaimed the top seller. There are hundreds of versions of the Bible in English—nobody knows how many—including a vegetarian edition, "sexless" editions and a paraphrase in which Paul is an ex-Baptist, cotton-picking preacher.

The King James Version is still the leading seller, accounting for as many sales as all other versions combined, according to World Publishing Co., a leading publisher of Bibles. This Protestant version, written in the first years of the 17th century by 54 scholars, is popular with publishers because, unlike modern translations, it isn't copyrighted and can be reprinted without royalty payments.

(The King James Version was commissioned by the king because the most popular Bible of his day, the Geneva Bible, had marginal notes questioning the divine right of kings. While the scholars labored for 4 years on the new translation, he disported at horse races, cockfights and masques at which the queen and her ladies of the court cavorted in see-through costumes.)

Even though Bible sales are falling while sales of books in general are rising rapidly, new versions are being marketed regularly. The Reader's Digest plans to publish an illustrated King James Version of the Bible next year and offer it to subscribers for about $21.

Bible publishers say they keep coming out with new editions because even though sales are declining the books still are often quite profitable. What's more, many of the versions being marketed are labors of love, willingly subsidized by individuals or religious organizations, update the language, push a can convert a special group.

Bookstores estimate 75% of the Bibles purchased as gifts. But Bibles are purchased at bookstores. Door-to-door salesmen sell hundreds of thousands of Bibles annually and some industry executives estimate that these sales accounted for half the estimated total dollar sales of $28 million last year.

House-to-house salesmen typically earn a commission, and a few $15,000 a year. The so-called Bible Belt in the South and Midwest is considered by the best territory, because people there are religious—and more willing to open their doors to sales

State Traffic Plan Endorsed By TSA

The Texas Safety Association has endorsed the state's newly-created official traffic safety program.

In reporting a recent action of the TSA Board of Directors endorsing the state program, Robert F. Miller, president, Trinity Universal Insurance Company, Dallas, and TSA Vice President for Traffic Safety, stated that Governor Smith's office had developed a sound, far-reaching traffic safety program that could put a check to the state's rising traffic crash toll.

"However," Miller said, "success will depend upon complete implementation of the program and this will demand whole-hearted cooperation from the legislature and local governments plus enthusiastic participation by the motoring public."

Additional traffic safety legislation and adequate appropriations by the legislature will be necessary before many parts of the official traffic safety program can be activated.

Pointing out that the next regular session of the state legislature is more than a year away, Miller urged cities, counties and citizens' organizations to immediately take an active part in the program.

"The Texas Safety Association is ready to help local governments in all parts of the state where safety councils are not now in operation," Miller said; and added, "We are eager to work with all citizens' group planning traffic safety activities. As we cooperating completely the Governor's traffic program, we are in a position to effectively coordinate programs in all sections of state.

"Texas traffic casualties now exceeding 18,000 a year and costing $80 million 30 days. Clearly, traffic with this kind of casualty and cost are our state's number one problem and demand number one attention. means full and enthusiastic support of the official traffic safety program," concluded.

The Texas Safety Association may be contacted at 1623 South Loop Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78704.

The Secret of Selecting Siding That Protects Your Home Better--Longer!

You've heard of aluminum siding. You've heard of steel siding. You've heard of wood siding. These are fine products, but we do not believe you should purchase siding because of the base material. We say this siding should be purchased primarily on the basis of the finish, not on what is underneath. This makes sense, because it is the finish, not the base material that fails. When it (the finish) cracks, curls, peels, wears thin or becomes unsightly for any other reason, repainting or resurfacing is necessary. The secret, therefore, to retaining the beauty of a home at the lowest possible maintenance cost is to select exterior siding that has a finish which gives longest possible service. Vinyl on metal (Vinylized Siding by Mastic) provides that finish.

AS FLOORING—Vinyl takes a merciless beating daily.

AS PIPING—Vinyl carries corrosive liquids and acids.

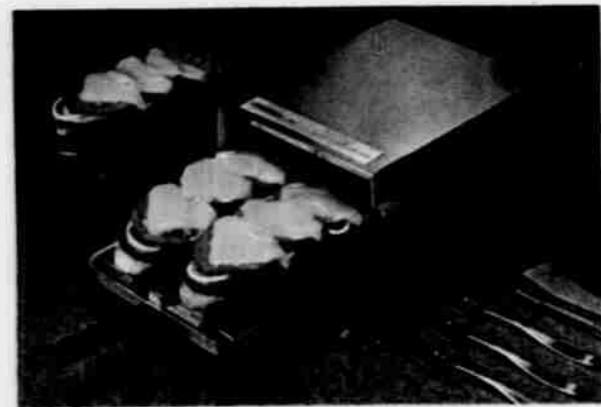

IN AUTOMOBILES—Vinyl's weatherability and durability makes it the auto maker's choice for interior and exterior use.

IN CONSTRUCTION—Vinyl is used to protect the exteriors of modern skyscrapers and high rise apartments.
