In 1977, the tag will be stuck in the upper right corner to cover the debossed "75" and alternated for the ensuing years. Townsley said the tags cannot be easily removed without deterioration, a part of the plan to discourage vandalism

The "multi-year" plate to be used in Texas is almost identical to the one adopted by California some years ago. Specifications for plate design, letters and numerals were obtained from that state after careful study by Highway Department officials. "We found California to be completely successful with its 'multi-year' licensing system and it came closest to the 'new look' we wanted for Texas," said Director Townsley.

The 1975 Texas "version" is expected to cost the state 44 cents per plate to produce, almost double the manufacturing cost for the '74 plate. The dif' ference in costs being attributed to different materials and plate design. However, the validation tags to be us beginning in 1976 will run some three cents apiece. According to Townsley, the state will realize an $8.5 million savings in additional revenue from using the semi-permanent plates for the five-year period.

Some motorists will recall this is not the first time "Multi-year" license have been used in Texas. During the war years 1943 and 1944, small metal tabs were issued to renew the 1942 plate. Then again in 1947, when there was a shortage of metal plates, windshield stickers were issued as evidence of the payment of registration fees. Townsley praised the convenience the five-year plate will afford motorists, "Especially those who find changing license plates annually a chore!" He reminded "Certain classes of motor vehicles will still require annual pur-chase of plates. These include radio operators, dealers, state officials and those passenger cars displaying 'per' sonalized' plates."

Motorists using the new plates will notice the use of vowels for the first time. Since 1965, when the "English" system of a three-letter prefix and a two to three digit basic number was adopted, only consonants were used. Townsley says there are just too many vehicles in Texas to allow consonants only. The first 1975 license plate will be AAA 10 to be issued in Bastrop County.

Also for the first time, a new five-year travel trailer plate will be available This classification includes all camper trailers and house trailer-type vehicles which are (1) not in excess of 6,000 pounds gross weight or (2) not in excess of 8 feet wide or 55 feet in overall length when measured in combination with the towing vehicle, regardless of weight.

The registration fee is based on actual weight including all furnishings. Annual license plates and movement permits will be available for mobile homes and house trailer-type vehicles exceeding these specifications

Annual registration fees for motor vehicle owners will remain the same as in the past—$12.30 for vehilces weighing up to 3,500 pounds, $22.30 for vehicles weighing 3,501 to 4,500 pounds; $30.30 for vehicles weighing 4,501 to 6,000 pounds; vehicles weighing 6,001 pounds or more are charged at the rate of 55 cents per hundred pounds of weight.

Motorists are encouraged to register their vehicles early and avoid the "last minute" rush.

Registrants may apply by mail im-mediately, or "in person" at their county tax office and substations beginning Feb. 1.

Mail applicants are reminded to return the entire renewal notice along with their payment and one dollar per vehicle to cover postage and handling. Allow at least 30 days for delivery of

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has hired a new manager.

William (Bill) Y. Adams, 26, of Lubbock was hired for the post Friday, and he and his wife, Sharon, and young daughter Amy Michelle, will be moving to Littlefield as soon as housing is located.

Adams earned his BBA from Texas Tech in December with a major in general business, with emphasis in marketing, and a heavy minor in mass communications

He served onboard an attack aircraft carrier while in the U.S. Navy from Feb. '71 to Dec. '72, during combat and noncombat operations. He was in the combat zone 11 months, and was one of 20 men on the carrier with critical nuclear weapons design information access clearances.

Before and after his stint with the Navy, Admas was employed with Otice Green Associates in Lubbock, where he worked in public relations and advertising, specializing in political campaigns. He was supervisor of the Lubbock office during 1970.

Seven Directors Named For Hospital Authority

In a special called meeting of the Lamb County commissioners court here last Monday, seven board of directors were named for the newly created Lamb County Hospital Authority.

The directors were named to comply with the County Hospital Authority Act. The court named three from Littlefield, J.L. Marcum, J.E. Chisholm, and Rev. Joe James; two from Earth, Ed Dawson and Ardis Barton; Eugene Trotter from Olton; and Dewitt Tiller from the Sudan-

Later, these men will draw for positions of one and two-year terms.

These directors will elect a president and vice president from among themselves. A secretary and a treasurer will be elected, and these positions can be combined and may or may not be vote of directors present.

The commissioners court passed the adoption of a hospital authority by a 3 to 2 vote on Christmas Eve. Commissioners Jack Peel and Buddy Free voted for creating the authority, and commissioners A.J. Spain and Hubert Dykes voted against the creation of the authority. Outgoing county judge G.T. Sides cast the deciding vote in breaking the tie.

A feasibility study will be conducted by the Louisiana-based hospital management corporations planning on buying the present two hospitals in Littlefield. If the study is favorable for the building of a new 110-115 bed hospital, then the Internal Revenue Service will be contacted asking for tax exempt status so tax exempt bonds may be sold to finance the new construction.

Plans call for $5 million bonds to be sold in three years.

All expenditures for the feasibility study and preliminary work prior to actual construction will be paid for by QualiCare, Inc. and DeBlois, Inc. headquartered in New Orleans.

Several persons, representing both sides of the issue, attended the court meeting when action was taken here Christmas eve. Administrators from both hospitals in Littlefield were Vegetarian diets- no meat, poultry or fish- have risen in popularity recently. But the major concern in planning a vegetarian diet is to insure that the protein quality is adequate, according to one nutritionist.

"Getting enough protein is usually not a problem since the average adult requires only about 46-56 grams of protein each day," Mrs. Dorothy Powell, county extension agent,

"Although foods of vegetable origin contain some protein, they do not have the variety of the important amino acids that animal proteins do.

"To obtain a good balance of amino acids and to improve the quality of vegetable proteins, animal and vegetable proteins should be combined," Mrs. Powell explained.

impression of the brash, aggressive, rawboned Texan, Lynn was unassuming, cultured, friendly- a very charming young man.

PIGS AND CHICKENS He told of his home in Littlefield, Texas (population around 7000). His father raises pigs and chickens; his mother is a schoolteacher. His sister is married to a vet. He has two younger brothers. "Plain American folk," said modest

He gave a brief description of Texas— and never once quoted the old cliche that "everything is YH Chapter bigger in Texas."

He did mention, however, that Texas A. M. University which he attends is 500 miles from his home; that Texas covers 26,000,000 acres and that he had only been four times to other parts of the USA.

EDINBURGH MAN He was particularly pleased to attending Edinburgh University, which was renowed throughout the world. It would give him great pleasure to say:
"I am an Edinburgh man."

He had enjoyed a great deal of hospitality, especially through Methodist organizations, and had been taken around the country a good deal and into people's homes

He had joined the Hare and Hounds Cross-Country Club and had run at Hawick and Glasgow— and had skinned knees to prove it.

He was enjoying being in Scotland and meeting the people. He hoped they had found that "Americans were not all that bad either.'

Members found that Lynn was not all that bad-in fact, he was one of the best, as was evidenced to the rapturous response when Bill Shannon proposed the votes of thanks.

President Jim Izatt presided. Hoofnote: Lynn said cowboy films showed the Texas of 100 years ago. They do not carry sixguns nowadays. The cowboy drives around in his big car, although he might have his horse in a trailer behind.

The year 1975 is here, demanding the faithful discharge of the duties of life. What shall we do? How shall we live? Let us do whatever duty demands and live as becometh the children of the heavenly King. My home is delightful, my sorroundings are all pleasant, I ought to be thankful and happy;

How strange that mortals here below should ever be thoughtless, careless or unkind! Jou'll Warm Up To

To The EDITOR

Dec. 16, 1974

Dear Editor:

We as consumers are upset over the outrageously high prices we are forced to pay for most agricultural products today at the supermarkets in order to feed our families. We know that it is not the farmers, ranchers, or cattlemen who are "ripping us off" when we learn that some of our cattlemen friends are having to sell their beef at auction for prices ranging from 12 cents a pound to 25 cents a pound while we are paying in the stores for that same meat anywhere from 99 cents a pound for hamburger up to $2.19 a pound for steaks or chops.

We can readily see that it is the "middlemen" between the producers and the consumers who are literally exacting their "pound of flesh" from both groups, buying low and selling with a huge profit mark-up. What is needed, we believe, is citizens action to stir our government officials to correct this deplorable situation by adopting proper policies affecting middleman profits, feed costs, incentives to produce, imports and exports and marketing procedures.

The farmers and ranchers want to produce and to receive a fair reward for their investment of money and labor just as we consumers want to receive fair value for our hard-earned money when we go to the supermarket, but neither is the case now. The producer is not receiving a just price; nor are we paying just prices when we buy that same meat at retail stores.

It is time for a change and the place to -start, we feel, is in the U.S. Department of Agriculture. There needs to be a change made not only in the present Secretary, Earl Butz, but also in the policies of his department which so vitally affect the livelihoods of both producer and consumer in this country.

We have initiated a "Nuts To Butz" campaign utilizing bumper strips and letters to government officials to call the attention of our political leaders to sentiment here at the grass roots level. If anyone would like to join in this effort we would be happy to hear from them. We can still effect change in this free society of ours, if enough of us express our opinions! Yours for fairness and equity to both producer and consumer.

The economy continued it nosedive, with hundreds of thousands in the auto industry alone left jobless and the U.S. in the grip of a full-blown recession. Even the most optimistic of the Nation's economists predict that the double-digit inflation plaguing the country will be around for months to come

SOME COMFORT for the nation could be found, however, in the fact that soaring inflation is a world-wide phenomenon and, indeed, a number of industrial countries are in considerably worse shape than the United States on this score. Another small plus on the ledger was the lifting of a 4-year ban on the private owning and trading of gold, a move which hopefully will help restore confidence in the country's economy.

Motorists began the year by waiting in long lines for fuel in many parts of the country. Although long-term solutions to the Nation's energy shortage are still beging sought, the Federal Energy Administration promises, in the short run at least, that there will be no shortage of liquid heating fuel for homes this winter- and no lines at the service station as last year.

LOWERED SPEED LIMITS as a result of that shortage also contributed to one happy statistic in 1974: the National Safety Council estimates that some 9,300 fewer persons will die on the Nation's highways this year than died last year. Through October, 38,170 had been killed, compared to 47,520 for the same time last year.

Warclouds appear to be fathering again over the Middle East at year-end, abetted by the shocking "official" recognition of the murderous Palestine Liberation Organization by both the United Nations and Arab States. At home, however, Americans can be humbly grateful that none of our sons lost his life in 1974 on the battlefield.

THE UNITED STATES and the Soviet Union continued to eye each other warily during 1974, while striking new agreements for closer economic and While seasoned observers warned of the dangers of detente, President Ford proceeded to strike a tentative agreement at Vladivostok, putting a socalled "ceiling" on the number of strategic weapons in the arsenals of each country. Military experts in this country, however, appear convinced that the new SALT agreement heavily favors the USSR.

WHILE 1974 will not be remembered fondly by many Americans- including those hit hardest by a sick economy- in world perspective it wasn't that bad either.

We did end yet another year as a stable, free country having the oldest living Consititution in the world.

And for that alone, each of us should be thankful.

Brownlow. Investing In Gold

FOR THE FIRST TIME in forty years, Americans have the chance to buy and sell gold bars. This change occurred Dec. 31, as the result of new

Many consumers consider gold a hedge against inflation. The theory is that the price of gold goes up faster than the rate of inflation.

However, the price of gold is not determined by supply and demand alone. Speculation drives up the price, which can make it very risky.

WHAT SHOULD YOU look for when buying gold? A reprint from "Consumer News" gives advice from government and private industry financial experts. Single copies of "Investing in Gold" are available free from Consumer In formation, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

*First and foremost is the warning for consumers to buy from a reputable dealer. Large banks, commodity exchanges and companies that manufacture and sell gold have high standards for insuring its quality. This is important because the markings that indicate the gold's quality can easily be falsified.

*Also, never buy gold through the mail. When silver was advertised through mail orders, many consumers who thought they were getting a bargain were defrauded because their orders were never filled. The same thing could happen with gold. "If you are going to buy gold, the Treasury Department advises there are certain markings you should look for on the ingot. First, look for the stamp of the company that made the gold. All quality gold ingots or bars have this stamp. Also, look for the "fineress" number indicating the percentage of gold in the bar. This number can range from .995 to 9999 (the best). Finally, look for the weight of the gold. The weight should be marked on the ingot in a permanent

You would also be wise to speak to officials in your bank or to your stock broker. In addition, you may want to contact the commodity exchange in your area for information about companies that are selling gold and about buying gold contracts.

I GUESS IF I had a title for this article I would call it "Fear No Evil." As we begin this new year of 1975, mankind seems to have many fears, but a long time ago, David must have been fearful, also, as he prayed alone, probably while he was exiled. Anyway, he must have received assurance from his God for he wrote the beaufitul 23rd Psalm in which we have the quotation, "I will fear no evil, for Thou art with

SOME OF US fear sickness, but being afraid is the best way to develop it. All of us want to live longer and we fear the disease that may take us away sooner. Most of the time the illnesses we fear the life we have unafraid and un daunted SOME PEOPLE fear that they may not have enough material things in life. These fearful people need to realize that man can eat only one meal at a time. live in one house and wear only one suit of clothes at a time.

In this day and time, some of us find it hard to live within our income.

LAST YEAR when we were delivering the "Meals On Wheels", I visited a lot of old people-some living in very tiny houses on a very small income. Their outlook on life seemed as bright as those living in much better circumstances. They were grateful and humble and a joy to be around.

Some fear failure in life, but what is failure? "He who has done muchcomparatively speaking-with little has succeeded, while he who has done little-comparatively speaking-with much has failed." So says Leroy

I HEARD a man say once, "I have never accumulated much in this life-I haven't amounted to much. Yet that man had raised a fine family of several children and managed to educate them. He was judging himself in the wrong

OTHERS FEAR society. They fear what others may think, feel or say about them. This is truly a foolish fear. We have nothing to do with the circumstances under which we were born. Some are born poor, or rich, or black or white and there is nothing we can do about that part of our life. The Lord must have needed us in our own particular place or He wouldn't have placed us there, so it is up to us to do the best we can in our own little corner in life.

There is only one intelligent thing to do: Please God and live your own lives.

SOME FEAR old age. How useless! the clock. We can live a good life regardless of our age. One old lady I know said, "I don't have many years left and I'm going to enjoy every one of

SOME FEAR death. But why fear death? It is like going to sleep at night, tired and weary, and waking up in the morning to a glorious new day.

The phrase "fear not" appears many times in the Bible. God meant for His people not to be afraid. The 23rd Psalm also says, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me."

WE HAVE NOTHING to fear but God. and that is like fear joined with love like we love a dear earthly father and want to please him, for we know He loves us and wants only what is good for us.

The person who fears God has no cause for any other fear.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Wise Comparison

MAKING COMPARISON begins sometime early in the individual's life. and the practice soon produces problems; because most persons compare themselves with others.

This may not produce problems for everybody, but, for many people, it is a continuing activity that is very hurtful to

IN SOME LIVES, the outcome of the comparisons which people make bet ween themselves and others is a very poor self-image; with the usual related personal difficulties.

The tragedy is in the fact that these people could have a satisfactory selfimage. If they would forget about the ways in which they do not quite measure up to what they think they see in others, and be sure to concentrate on their own good points; they could have a muchneeded wholesome appreciation of THESE PEOPLE often become very discouraged, and soon begin to function much below their potential. Many will become envious of all persons who excel them; and this envy becomes the source of various kinds of ugly behavior.

This is not a "wise comparison" except when there is a possibility of seeing some things in other people which we may use as good examples. This is always a possible source of help to us, if we understand what we are doing.

COMPARISONS WITH OTHERS may cause us to completely overestimate ourselves. If we choose others who are obviously inferior to us in looks, in skills, in accomplishments, or in some other way; we develop a high degree of selfconceit; with all of its up It can, and often doe necessary personal failure lose the ability to keep balance. HAPPY NEW YEAR! 1975 has finally arrived and I'm happy that all of you are able to be with us again this year. Now that 1974 is history, many are wondering what 1975 will be like. I don't think that it will bring anything new to anyone of us. There may be some slight differences to what we have experienced in the past, but nothing real new.

Some will have more failures than in the past, others will probably be more successful than others, and a few may even realize a certain amount of heartaches, and failure in health while others may blossom in those categories. But all in all, nothing will be new-just variations of the original.

SINCE THIS IS AN agricultural area, prices of our commodities and weather are our chief interests. As far as prices go on farm products, it is my opinion that all prices will be within the profit making range. In some instances the profit of some farm commodities will be a little slimmer than last year because of the high cost of production and some other crops that showed a slim margin last year will show quite a bit of profit this year because of the lack of expense required to produce these crops. In the weather department, we now have more moisture going into a new year than any other time in the history of this great country-that is with the exception of Noah's flood-and from all indications, 1975 will be a wet year. Crop conditons will be excellent, as long as we do not have an early freeze or a few summer hail storms.

MANY PEOPLE use the first 12 days in January as a guide as to the type of weather an area receives. Each day represents a month in the new year. Others use the six days before Christmas and the six after Christmas to determine what the weather will be like for the next year—each day representing the months of the new

Group Makes Trail Ride In Old-Fashioned Campout

By EVA HOPPING On Thursday morning, Dec. 26, Coke, Scott and Corey Hopping, along with their dad, Clifford Hopping, left Lubbock with five friends-Bob Stewart,

Mike Buckner, Jimmy Richards, Glenda Settle and Roy Ward on horseback, as planned, to ride to the beautiful sandhills on the ranch property South of Earth, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Gibson of Springlake. Of course, the weather was not good as it was sleeting and the temperature was 27 degrees. Eva Hopping was to meet them at their first stop with the horse trailer in case of any emergencies and their first meal on the ride. The starting point was the stables about two miles South of Lubbock belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson of Lubbock

About six miles from the start, the trail riders stopped at the Brunken Toyota Company on Loop 289 where Calvin Brunken served the group hot coffee and warm hospitality and two riders, Glenda Settle and Roy Ward dropped out to wait for better weather.

The second rest stop came at Hwy 84 about 11 miles from the start where Eva Hopping-better known later to the riders as Mother Hopping"met them to bring the first round of food.

After lunch, the horsemen traveled to the rest stop about four miles West of Shallowater to camp over night.

bedded their horses and themselves down for an early start the next morning. The cowboys slept in a tent they pitched while Eva and Clifford had a nice travel trailer provided by their friend,

Clarence Graut of Lubbock. After bacon and eggs and lots of hot gravy and coffee and hot chocolate the next morning, the group mounted, and in much nicer weather, rode to the Dick Hopping farm at Fieldton, where they made camp Friday night and where Glenda Settle, Roy Ward, Jay Lester, Wyatt Crawford and Preston Mon-

The group arrived at the J.T. Gibson ranch home about 4 p.m. Saturday, and after visiting a short time traveled on to the "White Elephant" Sand hills where camp was set up and a big meal of barbecue, beans, potato salad, and cherry cobbler was prepared by "Mother" Hopping.

After everyone's appetite was appeased, the group gathered around the camp fire to sing along with Preston Montgomery and Jay Lester on the guitar. Sunday, everyone was up to a beautiful day and warm temperatures and games on hor seback was directed by Clifford. About 12:30, the "Big Boss"
