

It's A Dog's Life For The Kids

Holiday Weekend Quiet Law Enforcement Front

Law enforcement officers reported a quiet Memorial Day weekend in Littlefield, Lamb County, with three booked in the jail and highway patrolmen investigating one wreck. Police investigated one wreck during the holiday period and four men were booked for drunk in public.

Someone who evidently knew the combination and $85 in cash and three or four pocket knives valued at $5 each were taken. Entrance was gained by going through a storage building at the west side of the office and crawling over a window lowered from the top. Then the hinges to the door into the office were removed.

Some State Offices Closing For Birthday

Most state offices will be closed today, in observance of Jefferson Davis' birthday, a state holiday. The Texas Employment Commission will remain open, however. Among offices to be closed are the Driver's License office, the Highway Department, and the Department of Public Welfare.

Weekend Rains Welcomed On Parched County Farms

Time Running Out For Cotton Planting

For many area farmers the weekend rains came just in the nick of time. For others the timely rains were too slight and/or came too hard to soak into the thirsty ground.

June 1 is considered the "normal" planting date by the ASCS office, and farmers have until 15 days following the June 1 date, or until June 16, to file a preventive planting application to hold their 1971 cotton history and to receive their payments.

A number of farmers in the dryland area west of Littlefield say they do not have enough moisture to plant on, even though three days of precipitation last week totaled more than two inches in some places.

Much of the moisture over the area fell so hard that farmers said the water ran off rather than soaking in. Several farmers around Bula said the rains didn't penetrate the soil an inch deep, or as one farmer quipped, "It's still dry clear to China." Most of the planting in this area was being done on irrigated farms.

Sand fighting was the general rule over a wide area Sunday and Monday. Farm experts predicted that most of this year's cotton crop will go into the ground this week, with the majority of the total cotton acreage not already planted going into the ground in a four-day period. June 20 is considered the "normal" planting date for grain sorghums. Farmers who have not planted by June 20 will have 15 days following the June 20 date to make application with the county ASCS office to hold their grain sorghum history for 1971.

County Favors Stricter DWI, LSD, 'No-Knock' Law

Respondents in a state-wide survey, including District 72 of which Lamb County is included, were overwhelmingly in favor of mandatory jail sentences and driver license suspension for drunk drivers, a chemical test law to determine DWI guilt, and for increasing the penalty for possession of LSD.

The question on which respondents were most evenly divided was on lowering the penalty for first offense possession of marijuana. There were 1,043 in favor of lowering the penalty, and 1,386 against. In District 72, all 52 persons responding to the question favored the chemical test; 49 favored the DWI Jail while two were against it; 29 favored the "no-knock", while 14 were against it and 8 had no opinions; 24 favored the marijuana penalty lowering, while 45 were against it.

SS Recipients Get Increase

Social security checks to be delivered today to 1.3 million men, women and children in Texas will be higher than the monthly amounts they have been receiving.

John G. Hutton, social security manager in Lubbock, said the checks covering benefit payments for the month of May will include the general ten percent increase in benefits signed into law by President Nixon March 17.

The payments are retroactive to January 1. Separate checks, scheduled to reach social security beneficiaries on June 23, will cover the amount of the increases for the retroactive months of January through April.

Hutton said that the increase raises the monthly benefit rate of social security payments in Texas by nearly $12 million--to a total of about $125 million. Nationally, the new monthly benefit rate totals $2.9 billion paid to 26.2 million beneficiaries.

HAIR YE, HAIR YE, STYLING IS IN

Barber Changes With Time

Since Sedell Black started barbering 16 years ago, things have gone from the short to the long of it.

Flat tops were the rage in male hair styles then, and the more hair barbers clipped off, the better the customers liked it.

"Now it's just the opposite," Black said. "They come in here now and ask me if I can fix them up without taking any hair off."

This kind of fixing up is styling, it takes an hour--sometimes more--to do, and the razor cuts, drying and hair arranging are as complicated as some of the goings-on in styling women's hair.

There is a good demand among male customers for hair straightening, too. For customers who don't have enough hair, Black has men's hair pieces. And men are catching on to hair coloring--something the women have been doing a long time. The latest men's fad is frosting the hair. "But I don't think the men in Littlefield will stand still for that," Black said.

"It takes a lot of nerve to go back to school and learn all this after you're already established," Black said. "But barbering is selling a service, and if you can't sell what the people want you can see the end of the road for barbers."

Black thinks things will get better for barbers who'll change with the times, and he has spent more than 80 hours in seminars recently. Re-learning his trade isn't as time consuming as barber school. "But at $20 an hour it's a lot more expensive," he added.

Meantime they are standing in line for the stylings, and Black has recently started taking customers by appointments only so they won't have to wait so long.

Customers who want razor haircuts, and these are still in the majority, are scheduled 15 minutes apart. But the appointments are necessary because of the hour to style a head of hair and the time it takes to straighten curly hair.

Most people either really like the appointments or they're really against them, Black concluded.

SEDELL BLACK uses a hand dryer and brush in styling Cliff Smith's hair. The Littlefield barber takes his customers by appointments only because of the time it takes for styling.

WHEN YOU ARE in a blue mood, or maybe all out-of-sorts with the hustle and bustle of a busy day, and hot weather is bearing on your nerves—catch hold gals, cheer up, and treat yourself to a low-calorie "V-8" Bully Cocktail", or low-calorie "Deviiled Egg Pick-Ups" and watch your spirits lift.

Forget about the pound-adding potato chips and soda pop, try something just as tasty, but lower in calories and a lot more nutritious for you.

"V-8" Juice is refreshing anytime, high in Vitamin A and a good way to get your Vitamin C. It fills you up and adds very few calories to your food intake.

"Deviiled Egg Pick-Ups" taste deliciously fattening, but because they are made with low-calorie French dressing and chopped dill pickle, each half egg amounts to only 44 calories. What more could you ask for in a low-calorie snack and an "afternoon pick-up" for those housewife doldrums?

"V-8" BULLY COCKTAIL.
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed beef broth
1 can (12 ounces) "V-8" Juice
Combine soup and "V-8" Juice. Makes five 4-oz. servings. May be served hot also.

DEVIILED EGG PICK-UPS
3 hard-cooked eggs
1 tablespoon bottled low-calorie French dressing
1 tablespoon finely chopped dill pickle
Cut eggs in half lengthwise. Remove yolks; mash. Blend yolks with dressing and pickle. Stuff lightly into egg whites. Makes 6 devilled eggs. About 44 calories per egg.

HERE'S ANOTHER refreshing "V-8" Juice cocktail.

"V-8" REFRESHER
Combine 1 can (12 ounces) chilled "V-8" Cocktail

Vegetable Juice and 1/3 cup chilled ginger ale. Serve over ice cubes. Garnish with quartered orange slices. Makes 3 servings.

LET'S NOT forget the children! When they come in from play for a refreshing drink be sure to have an icy pitcher of fruit punch in your refrigerator to cool and rejuvenate the little ones. Remember too, fruit punches provide vitamins disguised as delicious beverages.

SUMMER REFRIGERATOR PUNCH
1 cup fresh fruit (strawberries, peaches, cherries, etc.)
1/4 to 1/2 cup sugar
1 cup RealLemon bottled lemon juice
1 6-ounce can frozen pineapple juice
4 cups cold water
ice
Wash, stem or pit fruit and slice larger fruits into bite sized pieces.
Place in bottom of pitcher and add sugar to taste, depending upon sweetness of the fruit. Add RealLemon bottled lemon juice and chill for several hours.
Add frozen pineapple juice which has been reconstituted according to directions. Add water, mix well and place in refrigerator.
Serve as desired over ice cubes.

MAYBE A "Grape Delight" would suit the younger ones' taste better.

GRAPE DELIGHT
2 6-ounce cans frozen grape juice
3 cans water
1/3 cup RealLemon bottled lemon juice
1 cup crushed ice
Mix ingredients, place in refrigerator. Serve over crushed ice.

MRS. PHILLIP McLEMORE

Miss Gaston Weds
Phillip McLemore

BULA--Miss Becky Lea Gaston and Phillip Randel McLemore were united in marriage Saturday evening May 22, in the Richland Hills United Methodist Church of Fort Worth.

Rev. Michael Patison, minister, officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gaston of Fort Worth and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pickard of Fort Worth, and Aubrey McLemore, also Fort Worth.

The altar was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli, majestic daisies and altar candles, flanked by a pair of white votive candle stands and a pair of tapers with palms.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, and escorted to the altar by her father, wore a formal gown of pearl white satin and peau de ange lace. Her gown featured a lace yoke with a Mandarin collar, enhanced by a high rise bodice and insets of lace accenting her long petal point sleeves.

Medallions of matching lace were repeated on her A-line skirt, and on the wattleau train that was caught at the shoulders by a satin french bow. Twin bands of lace edged the train which fell to an aisle width. Her headpiece featured a three tier veil of french illusion held by a cluster of lace petals, outlined in pearls. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies entwined with stephanotis, atop a white Bible. The groom's boutonniere was taken from her bouquet.

For "something old," the bride wore an heirloom wedding band belonging to her late great-grandmother, Mrs. Lura Rhodes. For "sentiment" she carried a bankie with pearls and lace that belonged to her grandmother Bogard.

"Something blue" was a garter, and she carried a six-pence in her shoe.

Maid of honor was Miss Susan Gaston of Sudan, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Dianne Owens, Miss Debbie Johnson and Miss Debbie Drelling, all of Fort Worth. They were attired in identical dresses of leaf green tresella with a fitted bodice, A-line floor length skirts and cap sleeves. Each carried white baskets of daisies.

Best man was Tray Beck of Denton. The guests were seated by Doug Parker of Austin and Bill Sturgis of Dallas.

Flower girl was Shell Bogard of O'Donell, cousin of the bride. Candles were lighted by Miss Kimberly Lurah Kennison and Miss Dusty Kinnison, both of Olton, cousins of bride. They were attired in dresses identical to the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride wore a yellow crape dress with a lace bodice, A-line skirt and a full long sleeved lace coat. She wore

Blane Simmons Flies To Home In Australia

AMHERST--Not many 17-year-old boys have the interesting and thrilling experience that Blane Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Simmons had.

His parents left earlier this year for Australia after he had finished his training at the Church of Christ Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock.

Blane had never made an air trip before. He left Lubbock May 25 and stopped off a day in Denver with relatives.

From there he flew to Los Angeles, to Honolulu for a short stop with friends, and to Auckland, New Zealand, then on to Brisbane, Australia.

His parents reside near Brisbane and met him there.

Blane's parents had sent two tapes to him telling things to do and not to do.

One of the "notes" was to avoid Tokyo and Hong Kong. They had gone that way.

Blane stayed in Lubbock after his parents had gone to Australia. He attended the Lubbock Christian High School meeting which featured a full day of workshops, social events, the awards luncheon, the election of new officers, and idea-swapping sessions.

Mrs. Day will present a report on the convention to local board members at their meeting this Thursday.

Favorite Sports

ASK THE FIRST 100 people you meet what their favorite sport is and chances are good that at least 70 will say swimming. Even golf and fishing have taken back seats as sport choices, a recent nationwide survey shows.

Thousands of new pools will be constructed this year throughout the nation. In Texas at this moment well over 50,000 pools are attracting swimmers like bees to a flower.

THIS IS ALL to the good, because swimming lends itself to social adjustment. It teaches coordination and builds stamina and character. A child who overcomes fear of water has learned courage.

But there are also elements of risk. This accelerated interest in swimming creates hazards to life and limb, and dangers of disease transmission. That's why the State Health Department conducts courses to teach pool operators the various skills of their jobs.

"SHORT SCHOOLS" for pool operators are concentrated during the months of spring and early summer, the intention being to enroll as many operators as possible before hot weather and overflow crowds make it hard for them to get away from their work.

Co-sponsored by the Texas Beach and Pool Association, courses consist of six hours of intensive technical and practical instruction. It covers such things as how to disinfect the water, and how to control water acidity. Water acidity, incidentally, is the factor which causes swimmers' eyes to burn, rather than chlorine as is popularly supposed.

THE COURSE also covers pool safety, bathroom sanitation, and the various filtering systems used by modern pools.

How important are swimming pools as links in the chain of disease transmission? Eye, ear, nose, and throat, skin and intestinal infections are among the most common conditions spread in swimming pools. Typhoid fever and diarrheal diseases have been traced to neighborhood pools.

MOST PREVALENT, however, is ringworm of the feet, commonly called "athlete's foot." It is not contracted in pool water, but by walking on wet walks and floors on which the spores of the infection flourish.

In well operated pools there is little chance of contracting any of these conditions. That's the reason for the Department's emphasis on swimming pool sanitation.

SWIMMERS, TOO, have a responsibility toward pool cleanliness. Like most public places, a pool quickly assumes the character of its least desirable patron.

Mosquito Season

IT'S THAT TIME of year again! Flowers are blooming, trees have turned green, and mosquitoes are out.

THEIR BITE is painful, but even worse, they carry diseases. If you are a horseowner, arthropod-borne diseases should be of special interest to you.

Sleeping sickness of Equine Encephalomyelitis, also known as "Encephalo", is almost always fatal when it attacks but is so easily preventable. A series of two injections of the vaccine will protect your horse during the mosquito season.

ANOTHER DISEASE, though not carried by mosquitoes, is always of special concern. This is Tetanus, or "Lockjaw". This disease, rarely seen in humans because of routine vaccination programs, is much too prevalent in horses. Again an often fatal disease is easily preventable by something so simple as a vaccination.

Every horse, whether pastured or stabled, upland or marshland, hot or cold country, should be tetanus-protected. The bacteria that causes tetanus is a spore-former and can live dormant for years in almost any environment.

VACCINATION TIME is a good time to have routine tube-worming done. Bot flies begin to get active at this time of year and lay their small yellow eggs on the hairs of your horse's legs and underside.

When the horse licks himself, the eggs are carried into the stomach where they hatch. The larval bot then attaches to the stomach wall and feeds. Imagine how painful a small army of these monsters (about the size of a marble) can be! They also rob your horse of strength and stamina he needs.

Other internal parasites such as blood worms, round worms, and pin worms can be treated at the same time.

THESE ARE SOME of the preventive procedures that should be done routinely. They are extremely simple compared to the costly, time-consuming and often unsuccessful treatment of the conditions after they occur.

THE PHILOSOPHER

New Rule

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses potatoes and politicians this week, we believe.

Dear Editor: According to an article I read in a newspaper the other day and am just now getting around to thinking about, the Food and Drug Administration in Washington has come out with a new truth-in-labeling rule.

Under it, if a grocery store advertising Idaho potatoes, for example, those potatoes have to come from Idaho, Louisiana hot sauce has to come from Louisiana, etc. Can't be selling Arkansas potatoes in an Idaho sack or Idaho's in an Arkansas sack. This rule was demanded by either the potato or the sack people. I don't know which.

I guess there's some point to this, although it's impossible for me to tell where a potato came from, if the gravy's made right. As for Louisiana hot sauce, it's all what you're used to, I guess, as the people in Chicago say about their mayor.

However, this truth-in-labeling can be carried too far. For example, if you think right hard you probably can think of one or two people acting as Congressmen who are clearly mis-labeled. Is the Food and Drug Administration coming out with a rule against this?

Of course you might argue the Food and Drug Administration is talking only about items that are for sale, but it's entirely possible those Congressmen could meet those terms too. Or take some State Legislators... but I won't get into that. When a man makes his point he ought to stop and leave something for his readers to fill in on their own.

Come to think of it, how about cafes that serve home-cooked meals a mile from any home? And won't Boston-baked beans get mighty cold if they're served in Littlefield? Not even a super-sonic plane we can't afford could get them here that fast.

Rules sometimes get pretty complicated. I believe in truth in advertising all right, but if the next step is to require complete truth in Congressmen, for example, or complete truth in people, you've got a mighty unwieldy job on your hands.

Yours Faithfully,
J. A.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

No Waiting

By BOB WEAR

WAITING TO LIVE is one of the most deceptive views to be found, and it is so very prevalent. It is admitted that there are appropriate seasons for doing some things, and; for best results; these must be observed.

Too many of us, however, are missing too much of life and the joy of living by waiting for a more convenient time.

THINGS WE SHOULD DO and can do must not be postponed, because we are looking forward to an uncertain time when we think everything will be ideal for the doing.

Generally, these times never come. This is the faulty view that prevents the doing of many of the things important to the fullness of living.

"IT IS TOO LATE NOW," is often heard from the lips of the people who have made the unnecessary mistake of waiting to live. This is the day for living, if we ever expect to live. There must be no waiting.

This is the day for self-improvement; for helping others; for serving God; and for doing everything essential to a meaningful life.

TODAY IS FOR LIVING. Tomorrow may be a good time for some things, if there is a tomorrow; but it is a mistake to wait until some day not yet born for the best of living to begin.

"TOMORROW! It is a period nowhere to be found in all the registers of time, unless perchance on the fool's calendar. Wisdom disclaims the word, nor holds society with those who own it. 'Tis fancy's child, and folly is its father: wrought on such stuff as dreams are: and baseless as the fantastic dreams of the evening."--Cotton.

WE MUST LEARN that some of the deeds necessary to a satisfactory fulfillment of one's life will have to be done in the face of great difficulties.

We cannot afford to try to wait until all difficulties have vanished, and then begin to live. If we do, there will be no living; just a miserable kind of existence.

GOOD INTENTIONS and good ideas delayed may be lost forever. The people with these good intentions and good ideas keep waiting, and waiting until everything is just right.

The time never seems to arrive. Persons who always wait for a convenient season or a more favorable time seldom find the beginning place for complete living.

"HE WHO OBSERVED the wind shall not sow; and he who regards the clouds shall not reap."--Bible.

Our living must be done in spite of difficulties; and some of it will be done because of obstacles; if we have the will to live.

THEY WHO WAIT to live will probably never know the joy and the fullness of life, because they usually wait too long.

PAUL HARVEY

Four-Day Workweek

HOW WOULD YOU like to work just four days a week? Are you sure?

When I first went to work at a radio station in Tulsa, Okla.--a part-time job after school hours--I was too young to work under the government's child labor laws, but I managed to get a special work permit. I have forgotten the stipulations under which those permits were allowed; it has been a while. Anyway, I got one.

NOW IN THOSE DAYS almost everybody worked a six-day week. Even during the depression the Biblical formula of "rest on the seventh day" was custom and, in some places, law.

Then when unions became effective in the late Thirties and began agitating for "Saturday afternoon off," the notion was considered by most people to be pretty revolutionary.

IT WAS NOT until after World War II that the big cities began to close down on both Saturday and Sunday, mostly due to pressure from suburban commuters.

Now there is agitation for a four-day workweek, a three-day weekend. Twenty-seven companies already have adopted the short workweek.

The C. A. Norgren Co. of Littleton, Colo., is one of them. Norgren has pioneered several previous social and industrial innovations. A manufacturer of air-processing systems, this company instituted a profit-sharing system 25 years ago.

NORGREN WAS AMONG the first industries to landscape and otherwise beautify its premises, to wire happy music into its airy lunchrooms.

Then last August, Norgren adopted the four-day workweek.

Each workday has been lengthened one hour.

AP WRITER Paul Patterson, in a progress report on this experiment, concludes that results are altogether beneficial.

Applications for employment at that company have jumped 300 percent. So far, 40-hour production levels apparently are being maintained on a 37-hour workweek, though the productivity study is not yet complete.

WHAT DO THE WORKERS do with their increased time off? Some use the time for golfing or skiing. Women workers report having more time with their children. An executive is paneling his basement.

Rocky Mountains residents are likely to be pre-adapted to the outdoors. For big city workers, the shorter workweek is likely to encourage moonlighting.

THE LABOR DEPARTMENT guesstimates that the number of Americans holding down two jobs is greater than the number of unemployed. Thus the ambitious, energetic worker holding two jobs is likely to be punished with higher taxes to support the larger number of persons with no jobs at all.

BRITAIN'S PRINCE PHILIP recently suggested that restiveness among workers derives mostly from boredom, from the monotony of their jobs, that higher pay is but a temporary palliative.

Idle hours with no place to go and nothing to do can be even more boring.

Perhaps more industries first should move to within reach of the mountains, the woodlands or the sea.

HOMNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

"GIVE A MAN a fish, and you have given him a meal.--TEACH him to fish, and he may eat for the remainder of his life."

So, reads the old Chinese proverb. I read this bit of wisdom, hanging in a prominent place in the foyer of a trade training school.

MY FIRST feeling was one of deep respect for the wisdom thus displayed. Sure, and 'tis a worthy aim of life--that, is, to be able to cope with the problems of our society, and, to be able to teach others to do the same.

At an early age, I heard of the term, "Cats' paw". I didn't want to display my ignorance by asking directly about this term, however, I eventually heard the full story of the monkey and the cat.

SEEMS THIS monkey had a lot of chestnuts that were roasting in a fireplace. However to get the nuts, something of a problem. The fire, nuts were prone to burn the nuts.

After thinking the problem over time, the monkey grabbed the fat tail took him by the foreleg, and used it to rake the nuts from the fire!

AND SO, the expression: "Use cat's paw!"

Now when we put all this together, may learn a very worthwhile lesson of us who are adept at catching should pass our knowledge on to others.

COULD BE, that it may eventually come to the point that NONE of us will be necessary to work! (Or, get our butts burned!)

The leader...any way you look at it.

Cadillac for 1971 It could well be your best car buy, any way you look at it.
Styling. It's a carefully created combination of styling continuity and contemporary flair.
Comfort. A longer wheelbase and new suspension system mean an even smoother ride.
Performance. The proven 472-cubic-inch V-8 is amazingly responsive—on regular gasoline or no-lead and low-lead fuels

Luxury. In the incredible quietness inside, in the beautiful standard appointments and in the many features you can order.
Choice. The first Cadillac luxury you enjoy. There are nine models from which to choose.
Value. A Cadillac traditionally returns a larger portion of original investment than any other car built in the land. Cadillac is the leader—any way you look at it. And now is the time to look at it—at your authorized Cadillac dealer's showroom.

Cadillac is doing something about traffic safety, but some things only you can do. You might be surprised by the scope of our involvement in advancing the cause of safety.
Did you know, for instance, that Cadillac was the first to install safety glass in its cars? And introduced the triple braking system?
Today you can see evidence of the magnitude of our concern. The 1971 Cadillac incorporate a host of recent safety developments including an energy absorbing steering column, Padded instrument panel, Seat belts for all passenger positions. Side-Guard steel beams in the doors.

And the work goes on. But all our efforts will not be enough, unless you do your share.
Here are five ways you can help: 1. Always use your seat and shoulder belts. 2. Make sure your car is in good running order. 3. Never drive when you're tired or under the influence of alcohol. 4. Support driver training and uniform traffic codes and enforcement. 5. Drive defensively. Please. Will you do your part?
