Temporary restraining order halts Pizza Hut construction was filed in district court this week against Pizza Management, charging violation of building restrictions and seeking a temporary restraining order to halt the construction of the new Pizza Hut on Hall Ave.

Plaintiffs are R & W Supply, Inc., et al, D. W. Bawcom, Charles Ary and Sedell Black.

The plaintiffs are owners of various lots located in the Crescent Park subdivision where the Pizza Hut is being built.

In the suit, they claim the restrictive covenant prohibits any building for any purpose from being erected nearer than 50 feet to the line of the highway. The plaintiffs claim that if the defendants are allowed to continue construction in violation of the restriction, this will cause irreparable injury.

Those bringing suit posted a $10,000 bond, and a temporary restraining order was issued Wednesday. When it was served, those doing construction for La Borde Construction, Inc. had already learned of the suit and had stopped work on the building.

A hearing is set before District Judge Pat Boone Jr. Friday, May 14, at 2:30 p.m.

The plaintiffs ask that full and final hearing, Pizza Management, Inc. be permanently enjoined from constructing any business building within the subdivision that violates restrictions, and that Pizza Management, Inc. be ordered to remove any structure from the premises which was built contrary to building restrictions.

The Leader-News contacted Pizza

Management, Inc. headquarters in Del Rio Friday afternoon and talked to real estate director Wally Bender.

Bender said the whole thing is a misunderstanding.

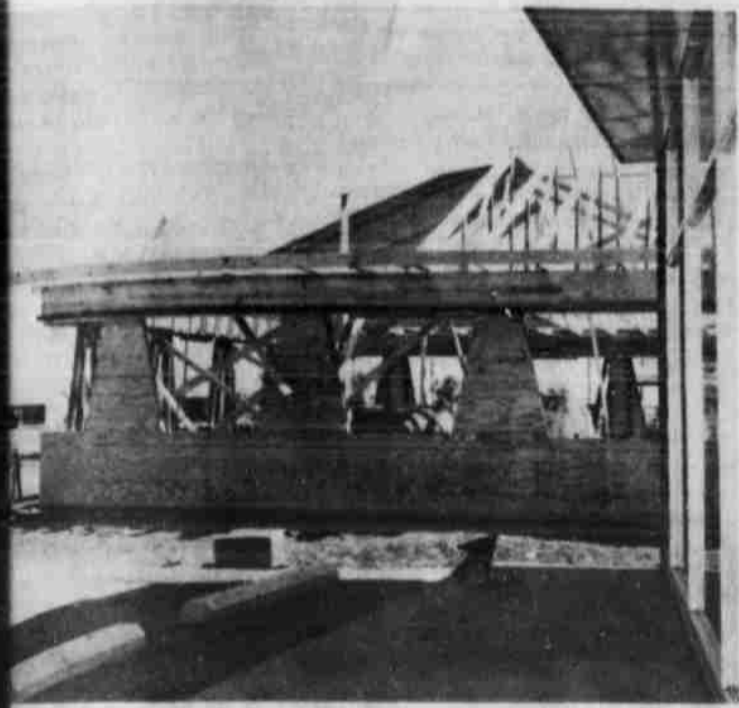

"When I got my information for laying out the lot, I was informed that the city restrictions require buildings to be 25 feet from the street, and I was totally unaware of any deed restrictions that supercede the city restrictions.

"We always build as close to the highway as we can—not in Littlefield only, but everywhere we build. We were not trying to violate any deed restrictions.

"It is unfortunate that those filing the suit let us go this far. If they had come over and told us when we were laying off the lot there would have been no problems. This is the first time we've been sued, and we don't know how to react."

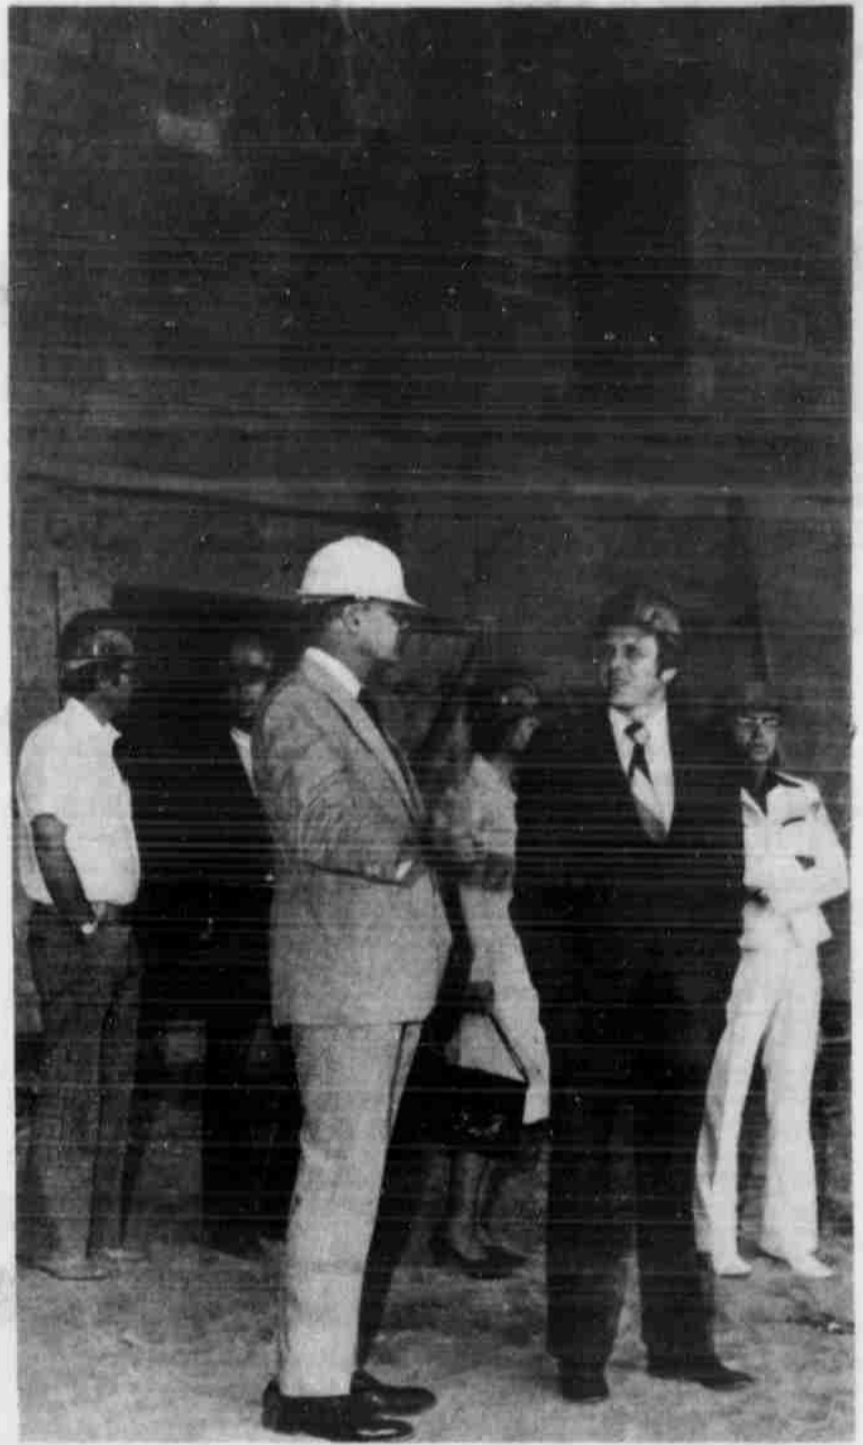

Bender said their attorneys were working on the suit and they didn't know what the final result would be. He said there was a possibility they could re-do the plumbing, pour some more concrete to the west and add 25 feet to the back side of the present construction.

"If this suit was filed maliciously, we'll have to look at it from another light," Bender said. "Hopefully, it won't end up that way."

HUT construction was stopped last week when a temporary restraining order was filed in district court charging violation of deed restrictions. The arrow indicates the point which the plaintiffs contend would be the 50-foot limit from the highway. [Staff Photo]

Candidates' expense reports show cost per vote nearly $1

With several days yet before the final accounting is due for candidates involved in the May Primary, one thing is clear—it is expensive to run for office.

Not even including the final round of advertising expenses, a quick tabulation shows that Lamb County candidates spent an average of about 88 cents per vote. This figure may be close to $1 a vote on final reports.

The second reporting period for filing expenses was April 30, and all of those in contested races filed their reports by the deadline.

Largest campaign expenditures were made by the candidates in the county judge's race.

Through the April 30th date, Ruth Forbis Kirby reported expenditures of $1,337.38. Glen Batson reported expenses totaling $1,384.86. Breaking this down to the cost per vote, Mrs. Kirby's race cost about 55 cents per vote for 2,527 tallies, and Batson spent about $1.99 per vote for the 1,154 votes he receives.

Batson showed no contributions. Ruth Kirby reported donations totaling $300.

Sheriff E. D. McNeese spent $894.41 through April. His Landslide victory of 3,203 resulted in the cost of about 28 cents per vote.

Jack Despres' expenditures report showed $413.63. His votes cost about 88 cents per each of 469 votes.

Neither of the candidates reported campaign contributions, but Despres reported borrowing $200.

In the tax assessor-collector's race, Herbert Dunn showed expenses of $753.60 through April for a cost of about 36 cents per vote. Nialah Rodgers showed expenses of $1,008.19 for a cost of 62 cents per vote, for 1,636 votes.

Dunn showed no campaign donations; Nialah Rodgers showed $120 in donations.

Cost per vote seems to be just about as expensive for precinct-wide races as for county-wide elections.

In the commissioner for precinct 3 race, David Thompson reported expenses of $876.17. Preston Pointer reported $397.04 in expenses, and Jack Peel's expenses through April totaled $855.34.

Cost per vote figured about $1.38 for Thompson's 631 votes; $1.07 for Pointer's 369; and 80 cents for Peel's 1,070.

In the justice of peace race in precinct 1, Jack Yarbrough reported expenses of $260, and Tobe Vereen reported expenses of $277.50. This figures about $1.23 per vote for Vereen's 225 votes, and 49 cents per vote for Yarbrough's 526.

A citizens' committee donated $110 to Yarbrough's campaign.

City discusses ski rentals, broken bulbs

In their meeting Thursday night, Littlefield's city council decided to review the Bull Lake lease with Dr. Wallace concerning concessions, then proceed to work up a contract with James Grimes for rental of jet skis and trail bikes, providing he secures the proper insurance, etc.

Grimes advised he wishes to rent Kawasaki Jet Skis (small jet propelled boats about 42 to 5 feet long which can cruise at approximately 40 miles per hour on water), and small 100CC 10-speed trail bikes for entertainment and recreation at Bull Lake.

He also advised he would provide the proper liability insurance for both vehicles, and proper equipment for the jet ski (such as life jackets and maintenance on the vehicle). He stated he would not permit racing or "any rough stuff" because "we don't want anyone hurt."

Councilmen decided to review the

To The EDITOR

Jerry Tidwell and
The Lamb County Leader-News
Littlefield, Texas

Dear Mr. Tidwell:

I'm sure most of your readers are religious minded, so with your permission I would like to direct these questions to them.

How would you like it if you were forced into buying a Democratic party card, a Republican party card, or any other political party card for that matter? (I am not saying that such cards do exist in the United States, I am merely illustrating a point.) Suppose the government allowed its subjects to persecute all those not buying such a political card. Suppose that women were raped, men were brutally tortured for not buying this card. Suppose that because of your religious preference you were banned from further practice of your belief and even deported from the country.

No doubt you are thinking: "That would be an outrage!" That is in direct violation of the Constitution. Yet in Malawi, Africa, thousands of African Jehovah's Witnesses are being persecuted in this way, and Malawi is a country with a constitution that allows freedom of worship and conscience. It also claims to be a Christian country. Below are reports picked at random from many.

On January 2, 1976, Witnesses Aizeki Zoyaya and Harry Kampango from Zomba District, northeast of Blantyre, were murdered by having their private parts cut off. This followed three days during which they had been beaten severely and deprived of food and water at the direction of a chairman of the Malawi Youth League named Kachoka. Although Kachoka reportedly turned himself in to authorities, fifteen Jehovah's Witnesses fleeing from the incident were imprisoned.

A report dated Dec. 30, 1975 says seven female Witnesses were taken to Magomelo. Their clothes were stripped from them and they were made to walk around naked. Nine female Witnesses were taken to Chitowa branch, where branch chairman, Kenedi, raped one. He was identified in the report as coming from Galanga village in the Dedza district. These nine female Witnesses reported the incident to the police. The police detained them and let them go the next day. Members of the Malawi Congress Party then came and took all their belongings, including the bicycles of their husbands, who were in prison.

An estimated 5,000 Jehovah's Witnesses (and their children in some cases) are currently being held in Malawian prisons and prison camps. Men and women are subject to hard labor. Medical treatment is nonexistent and overcrowded facilities require that inmates sleep outdoors without cover or blankets. Many are forced to eat their food off the ground for lack of eating facilities.

These persecuted Jehovah's Witnesses are no different than the Jehovah's Witnesses who call at your door here in Littlefield, as far as their religious beliefs are concerned.

No doubt your religious beliefs differ somewhat from those of Jehovah's Witnesses, but those who are lovers of what is just and right may feel impelled to speak up on behalf of these persecuted Christians.

If so, they have the opportunity. They can write to the proper authorities in Malawi to convey their concern. At the same time Jehovah's Witnesses will continue to put their confidence in the God of salvation, Jehovah.

Also, the Malawi Government will have an opportunity to prove that it respects the guarantees of freedom of worship and conscience, and the freedom to work and live in peace to which its constitution subscribes. Listed below are two Malawi officials to whom you may write if you desire.

Dear Editor,

As a former resident and an off-time visitor, I would like to express my opinion on what spoiled an otherwise very nice Festivities Day Parade.

If you didn't notice, which I'm sure you did, it was the constant noise of the fire truck siren. I know the fire truck is very expensive, very necessary and a source of great pride to the community, but a siren is not a pleasant sound, is associated with tragedy and sadness, besides being just down right nerve wracking.

Where I was standing, which was just beneath a speaker, you could not hear the announcer of the music from either of the nice looking school bands. I am not alone in my thought. All the people near me expressed the same opinion.

Thank you,
s/Sara Armstrong Mitchell

Dear Editor,

I would like to thank all of the people who supported our Little Dribbler All-Stars all the way to the National Tournament. The support shown throughout the year really had an effect on the boys, and I feel it helped give them the drive to win the State Championship. This was the first time the Boy's Little Dribbler program needed sponsors to help send our team to a tournament. No one in the City of Littlefield turned us down...Some even volunteered money and their services.

Next I would like to thank the parents of the boys. Many of them took off with loss of pay and some just dropped everything and put their children first. You could see the parents' good up bringing of their boys. We were together over a month without a fuss or a fight. I think that is the main reason for this team's success. I've never seen kids get along with each other so well. I was proud to be a part of such a team.

There are a lot of other people who helped make this such a successful year. The school has always let us use the gyms at no cost. The principles have worked a lot of overtime closing up after games, etc. The teachers kept record of the boys' assignments and are allowing them to make up their work. The newspaper has given the town complete coverage of our tournaments. Their effort is to be commended.

I am really proud of our little town and our boys.

Yours truly, lease to be sure of concession allowances then work up a contract for the rental service.

The council appointed Dr. Albert Perkins to the unexpired term on the Planning Commission. The term will end in April 1979.

Council members decided not to advertise in the senior tabloid of the Leader-News because they "didn't want to set a precedence", and they felt such should be turned over to the Board of City Development of Chamber of Commerce.

In discussing the lighting situation at the tennis courts in Crescent Park, City Manager Jim Blagg advised that the city is having considerable trouble with broken bulbs. He stated that 14 bulbs have been replaced since Oct. 1 at the cost of $5.25 per bulb, due to the fact that someone had been breaking them.

Blagg recommended that all 10 fixtures be replaced with 1500-watt quartz lighting at a cost of about $400 to $500. The new lighting would increase the visibility and require less electricity. Councilmen recommended that the city manager check further in to the matter for further action, and that a close check be made to find and prosecute those who are breaking the bulbs.

The council went into executive session to discuss personnel.

Dear Friends,

I'd like to express my sincere thanks to everyone of the 1,626 citizens who gave me a vote of confidence as candidate for tax assessor-collector. It is very gratifying to receive 44 percent of the overall votes against a well liked and respected incumbent like Mr. Dunn.

I'm glad I entered the race. I did not lose; I simply did not get enough votes to be tax assessor this year.

I knew when I filed there could be only one winner. But in no way do I feel like a loser. A person never advances if he is afraid to try. I worked hard, and I do not regret doing so. Anything worthwhile deserves expending honest effort. Not having the confidence and fortitude to try would be far worse than lacking only a little reaching my goal.

I've renewed old acquaintances and made many new friends. This wasn't the first opportunity I've had, and there will be others.

Meantime, I intend to continue doing a good job.

Thanks again for every vote. Your votes did count. There will be a next time.

DOES CARTER HAVE it all sewed up? Has Jerry Ford drowned himself in the Panama canal? Will Henry Kissinger resign, regardless of who is ushered into the White House? Will John Connally throw in with Mr. Ford?

These are questions being asked by the people who make a living by provoking the curiosity and the imaginations of John Q. Public. Everyone has fun in the guessing games, and the guys that guess nearer to right, are the ones that get to say, "I told you so!"

WHICH IS A GAME all of us can participate in, and keep our interests whetted, until that eventful day in November. And my guess is that when that day comes, that ballot will be split more ways than a jig-saw puzzle!

One wonders how a primary vote consisting of such a minority as the GOP vote in Texas, can be so decisive as the cheer-leaders make it out to be.

I POINTED out before, that where there was any interest, to speak of, in local elections, that few people would bypass them for the sake of voting in a wild card primary, which doesn't really decide much anyway. The independent voter still hasn't spoken his piece.

When it comes down to the nitty-gritty, most of us had rather stick to the tried and proven than to risk an adventure into the unknown. We like to talk loud and put up a big front but when the chips are down, and it's time to step into the ring, our knees turn to jelly.

AFTER ALL, ANY man we send to the top spot in Washington, will largely be at the mercy of Congress we send along with THERE'S where we ought to be a lot of thought, also.

But then, the bright spot whole picture is, that Texas is signs of becoming a two-party politically. This can only be a sign and can only lead to choices in the voter's ballot.

THO I WAS taught so long ago, hood, it's been a long time since thought of all democrats as halos; while all Republicans horns! Too, I remember that the "Catholic" had much to do with the defeat of one (D) Al Smith, when. Just who was it that was president's seat instead? Was Herbert Hoover? (Talk about mination!)

Then came the stock market '29, which the Republicans a millstone around their necks for years. After that came the away created by (D) Franklin Roosevelt. This followed by After which we always associated Democrats with give-aways and the Republicans with crash hard times. To some it's a

WHEN IT COMES down to tacks both sides, mainly, just be the party in power and will anything they think you want in order to get there. It's my meditation that when you remember: THE RIGHT EXERCISING, HAS TO DO THE WELFARE OF THE CO USE IT WISELY, AND WITH THOUGHT! (Hope I can make that, in November!)

TODAY'S THOUGHT

Presented by Hammons Funeral Home

"Mommy, fix it, please..." "Mother, help me, please..." As children we knew we could count on her, and we did. She understood us. She was our insulation against childish chills of fear and anxieties. As time goes on, many mothers hear different words; strange words of impatience, irritation, exasperation - yes, even rebellion. They hear, "Oh, mother, you just don't understand." In later years, if we will only admit it, we know many mothers did understand things that were beyond our understanding in former years. But, there are some things a mother should not be expected to understand at any time.

How can she understand why days and weeks go by with no word from those she likes to hear from? How can she understand why she is expected to be insensitive to indifference or neglect? How can she understand why expected phone calls don't come through? How can she understand why [unwritten] letters don't arrive? Yet, on Mother's Day she understands. Frankly, wouldn't it be more pleasant for her if demands for her understanding would be less on all the other days?

Woman's Club closes season by serving May breakfast

May 1 Littlefield's Club closed its 1975-76 season with the traditional breakfast, this year held at the Park Inn in Lubbock. To the brunch, Lub-Charlene's presented a show which featured the Club's members, as well as several of formals; cottons to silks; in any bright color one might desire.

Breakfast concluded, president Lorene Hulse presented Miss Dora Moya, recipient of the Woman's Club's scholarship. This scholarship presentation, also, has become a club tradition. "Each year a senior girl who is deserving and has been an asset to her home, school, church, and community is selected," said Mrs.

Hulse. "Miss Moya has performed at a high level of efficiency in all of her work, not only in school but also in every endeavor she has undertaken," Mrs. Hulse added. Dora is the 18-year-old daughter of Mrs. Connie Moya, and she has four sisters. She has lived in Littlefield but attended school in Spade her first year—the other years, in Littlefield schools. She is a member of the Chemistry Club and won the seater award for excellency in that field. She is also a member of The National Honor Society, having been inducted in her junior year; and is one of the top 10 students of Littlefield High School.

Her most significant honors were becoming a member of the Honor Society and winning the chemistry award.

She attends Sacred Heart Church.

Her hobby, she says, is horseback riding.

Miss Moya's plans after high school graduation are to attend West Texas State University for pre-medical study and training and she aspires to become a surgeon. "Truly a remarkable young lady," said Mrs. Hulse.

Olton students plan graduation square dance

All Littlefield and area square dancers are invited to attend the Olton square dance and salad supper Saturday, May 15.

Plainview. The Armory is on the Lubbock Highway or 87 South.

Caller will be Maurice Stephenson of Shallowater, who has been teaching the class, and Stanley Sullivan of Borger.

Admission is $2 per person.

ins 2 30 Nursing Home Week

Texasans have been urged to visit Nursing Homes by "Heloise", the internationally famous writer who is this year's official hostess of Nursing Home Week sponsored by the Texas Nursing Home Association.

"Many of Texas' finest citizens reside in Nursing Homes where they receive the total care available from qualified, licensed professionals," she said in issuing the invitation from her home in San Antonio where she authors a column of clever households hints syndicated in hundreds of newspapers.

Heloise has compiled an impressive record of some 14,000 hours of volunteer service, much of it in Nursing Homes.

"My hint for happiness is to visit a Nursing Home," said Heloise, "they are nicer than you think and the people in them are wonderful. Your visit will be awarding experience."

Observance of Nursing Home Week, proclaimed by the Governor and local officials to begin on Mother's Day each year has become traditional in Texas. Members homes of TNHA regularly schedule a variety of activities, ranging from exhibits of residents' handiwork to entertainment, teas, chapel services and Open Houses with most facilities specially decorated for the occasion.

Texas has 982 licensed nursing homes with facilities to accommodate 93,219 residents requiring various levels of long-term care. The administration of matching state federal funds in which Texas participates under Medicaid Title XIX has been rated number one best in the nation.

Antelope surveys this month

Antelope surveys of Panhandle and Permian pronghorn antelope began this month by wildlife biologists in Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in 1975. A total of 12,730 antelope were found in West Texas. The majority is found in the Permian Basin region, which includes those counties of El Paso, Brewster, and Big Bend. The surveys were to be completed by July. Winkler said all surveys will be completed by July. The surveys will be two biologists in each area, and they will be flying individual surveys in each area. We will have about one-third of the surveys completed in each of the Permian Basin counties, Winkler said. The traditional antelope hunting season is held in early October.

Deer seasons set for south, Texas deer seasons

Antelope hunting seasons in Webb County and the Trans-Pecos region were set for Dec. 11-26, 1976. Prairie chickens may be hunted in some Panhandle and Permian Basin counties Oct. 16-17. In the southwesternmost portion of the state, javelina may be hunted Oct. 1, 1976-Jan. 2, 1977. Antelope season in the Texas Panhandle was set for Oct. 2-5, and in the Trans-Pecos Basin, Oct. 2-10. A Nov. 6-12, 1976, aoudad season was approved. In other game and fish matters, P&W Commissioners: Deleted wording in game proclamation pertaining to closed season on all game birds and animals within corporate limits of a city since city limits are moving farther out into huntable habitat. However, all federal, state and local regulations will continue to apply. Set the regular deer bag limit in Zavala, Kerr and Real Counties at three deer, no more than two bucks, antlerless deer by permit. P&W Commission action in these three counties is subject to concurrence by county commissioners' courts. Reduced the deer bag limit in Robertson County to two bucks. Set the Medina County deer bag limit at three deer, no more than one buck. Set a Nov. 13-Dec. 19 deer season in Dimmit County, bag of three deer, no more than two bucks. Set a nine-inch minimum limit on blue and channel catfish in counties of the Possum Kingdom, Northeast and Southeast Regulatory Districts.

Pioneer Days

By V. M. [Pete] PETERMAN

water for livestock and human consumption is available. The gracious and neighborly people that they are, they have constructed outlets where the ranch owners can get water just about every place that is needed.

When the Halsell Cattle Company sold out, and the sandhills were leveled and put in cultivation, a man named Gibson traded some of his land that joined the land that the Public Service had the water rights on and was destined to forever remain as Ranch Land. Through trade and possession he soon wound up with 7 sections of the best sub-irrigated and usually lush grass land of the Old Mashed O. This land joins about 1/2 section of circle sprinkler irrigation alfalfa and permanent grass land owned by the Gibsons.

THE GIBSONS

Thurston Gibson was born 77 years ago on his father's ranch in King County near the town of Guthrie. He came from a family of nine children and grew up under the usual circumstances of Ranch life in the wild west.

His younger brother is foreman of the Four Sixes Ranch at Guthrie, the only town in King County.

So Thurston Gibson, tall and stately, is not only a real cowboy, but a cow man in his own rights.

Gibson came to Lamb County in 1924. A few years later he was married to Murdie Bartlett of Olton. Murdie came from a rather large family that came to Olton in the early days of Lamb County history.

The Gibsons lived on a good farm west of Olton for a few years, and then came to their Ranch in the sandhills. They acquired quite a spread and were soon in ranch business.

EL PONDOROSA

The Gibson Ranch home is certainly a landmark that can be seen for many miles. It's a two-story structure, with large brick porch post, a large brick fireplace and a large three car garage, that is built onto the house. The large spacious yards with a grass back yard of several acres of bermuda grass is used for the saddle horses.

Their large spacious driveways spell welcome. The quaint old mansion with its stairways and high ceilings, and a living room big enough for all, has a big bar glass in the dining room with a table large enough to feed a branding crew of 40 people. Hospitality always abounds, and when Murdie Gibson prepares a meal there is enough for everybody.

Outside the house are the usual tenant houses and store rooms, that are always important to ranch activities.

Have you ever seen a saddle room on a real live ranch? Corrals that can handle several hundred head of cattle, built of prefabricated steel, with all modern facilities?

The Gibsons raised a girl, and any little girl that was brought up under those circumstances is always beautiful. She attended school at Springlake, and after college married Hollis Cain from Biron, Ala.

They have three children, three sweet little girls, and you can guess they are the pride and joy of Murdie and Thurston.

The Cains live on the farm that the Gibsons had before they moved to The Ponderosa.

Hollis Cain comes to the Ranch most every day to help manage and run the spread. Beautiful white face cattle. A cow calf herd with the finest of registered bulls is something to see.

Cain has his good herd started, and they have one division of the Ranch they call theirs.

Just think how handy for them to take over when the Gibsons retire.

A lot of things may come and go, but I bet the Gibson Ranch and the Ponderosa will make history for Lamb County for years to come.

CHARLES MUNCY, a senior at West Texas State University from Amherst, went to WTSU as an accounting major, but changed to computer science because computers "fascinated" him. Muncy, a computer information system major and accounting minor, took two CIS courses and changed his major as a junior. "At first I was just curious, then I became interested," Muncy said. As part of a CIS lab project outside of class time, Muncy is helping to design an inventory system for an Amarillo business firm on the computer. Muncy is the son of Clarence A. Muncy. (WTSU Photo)

Dr. J.H. Oyer attends TNA meet recently

Dr. J. H. Oyer attended the Texas Numismatics Association meeting in the Civic Center in Amarillo April 23-25 as a representative of the Lamb County Coin Club.

He reports that the governor's award was given to D. C. Joplin of Levelland, who is a member of the Lamb County Coin Club and serves as Governor of District 9.

Barney Welch of Fort Worth, governor of District 5, and former member of the local club, received an award for being the most active in his district.

The Junior VIP Award was given to Guber Pitzer of Levelland, member of the Lamb County Coin Club, for getting the most junior members (24) into the TNA.

Four of the six exhibits from this district received awards.

Next year's meeting will be in Fort Worth near the end of April.

Both Oyer and Joplin presented reports on the meeting

By CARL F. KASTEN
Honor thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth." Eph. 6:2-3

As we pause to honor our Mothers today, it is well that we recall this promise of God to those who honor their mother. From the time of creation it has been so, for we read of how Adam showed his faith by naming his wife, Eve. Gen. 3:20 "And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living."

Ella Mae Miller writes "Mother is best endowed to love and train and teach her children. Her continued love, expressed so often in kisses and caresses, the closeness, her moment by moment concern, and her availability at all times, develop security in the child. As she goes about her daily household duties, the children are there. They work together. They play together. They learn the deep lessons of life through informal daily living. She is the natural teacher of God and His truths. She shows Him to her children as she talks of Him, and she points Him out in nature and circumstances. 'Mother' is the name for God in the lips and hearts of little children."

In 1898, John H. Nicholson of Janesville, Wis. came to the Central Hotel at Boscobel, Wis. for the night. The hotel being crowded, it was suggested he take a bed in a double room with Samuel E. Hill of Beloit, Wis.

Because John Nicholson, as a 13-year-old lad, had promised his dying mother that he would read God's Word and pray daily, and because it had been his custom for many years to read the Bible before retiring, the two men soon discovered that both were Christians.

As a result of this meeting, one year later an association of Christian Business men was formed. This has developed into an association of Christian business and professional men known as The Gideons.

Today this association numbers over 50,000 men, who are instrumental in placing 1 million copies of Scriptures every 25 days, in areas of distribution in over 100 countries around the world.

"THOUGHT: 'There is nothing sweeter than the heart of a pious mother.'"—Martin Luther.

Harold Dean Carson planning European duty

OLTON—Pianist and artist, Harold Dean Carson and Malcolm Hughes of Amarillo, appeared in a program Sunday, May 2 in Olton School Cafeteria.

Soon to depart for Europe, the two have volunteered for three month's missionary service in child evangelism. Art work of Hughes hung in exhibition in Olton State Bank the week preceding his appearance here.

Teacher of piano and organ 28 years in this area, Carson has been organist for the First Baptist Church 24 years and has been chosen to present music at 20 or more graduating classes of Olton High School and has rendered the music for numerous weddings.

Others who took part in Carson's concert include Mrs. Mary Cary, pianist; Nancy Brown, soloist, and Mrs. Elizabeth Paxton, all of Amarillo. Mrs. Paxton, who will play the violin, is a performer with Amarillo Symphony and violinist for the visiting Amarillo choir.

This program of music and art was open to the public.

Carson and Hughes will leave Chicago May 25 for conferences in London, England and Edinburgh, Scotland, before going to Langebruck, Switzerland, to spend the summer months as members of the headquarters staff of Child Evangelism Fellowship.

"CSF is an international, evangelical organization dedicated to 'reaching unreached children of the world with the message of Jesus Christ,'" Carson explained.

"Europe has 200 million children, and at least 75 per cent of them have never heard the gospel message. In Western Europe alone 90 million children are being reared in an atmosphere of little opportunity for teaching and in an attitude of indifference to spiritual matter," he stated.

A Sunday School teacher for 21 years, Carson has worked with junior high and high school levels. Through publication and rendition of his own musical compositions, Carson was invited to participate in the CEF program.

Hughes, 18, already established as an Amarillo artist, makes use of chalk drawings to communicate Christian messages, he often gains added interest with the use of "black light" in presentations.

An exhibition of Hughes' art work, matted and framed water colors and framed oil paintings were hung in Olton State Bank April 24 through May 1. They were transferred to the school cafeteria for display May 2.

Neilson takes study in seminar

Representatives of Westinghouse Electric Corp. recently conducted a heat pump seminar at South Plains College on the servicing and installation of procedures for the latest models of heat pump type heating and cooling equipment.

Among those attending was Roger Neilson of Littlefield Service Center.

Twenty-seven employees of the refrigeration service industry from as far away as Amarillo and Roswell, Portales and Lovington, N.M. attended the five-day seminar in SPC's Technical Arts Center.

Graduates of the seminar, which is approved by the Texas Education Agency, received a diploma and two career education units.

The 20-clock hour seminar covered an introduction to heat pumps, basic electricity, electrical schematic reading and diagnostic procedures, and work with heat pumps, electrical problems and specialized welding procedures and malfunctions.

If you store potatoes in a cool, dark, moist place they should remain usable for up to three months.

SITTON and NORTON Drilling Company employees and their wives prepare to board Continental Flight for Las Vegas, Nev. as part of a group of 31 couples who were winners of the 1975 Safety Contest held by the company. Employees win and lose points for good and bad safety practices during the year, and at the end, winners are rewarded with an all-expense paid trip. Trips in the past have been to New Orleans, Disneyland, New York City, Mexico City, and the Bahamas. From left to right are: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Team trains in drug, crime prevention

A team of educators from the Lubbock-based Education Service Center and a similar group from Littlefield Independent School District, along with those from eight other nearby schools, have completed training for a regional program in drug education and crime prevention; the program is to be implemented in all grades, K-12, during the 1976-77 school year.

The 65 schools in the 20-county region served by the Education Service Center formed a cooperative in Oct., 1975 for a two-year approach to combat the misuse of drugs and prevent crime. "A regional problem, a regional program" is the rationale; the program is designed to operate as an entity with a regional needs assessment, common instructional guide, objectives, activities, evaluation and dissemination. School districts under the direction of a local school management team serve as components of the Regional Cooperative; each school district has one representative on the Regional Advisory Committee for Crime Prevention and Drug Education as appointed by the Education Service Center Board of Directors.

The Education Service Center staff has trained local teams who in turn work with the school staff, students and community.

The two-year Regional Cooperative goal is to minimize crime and drug abuse by providing a variety of educational experiences designed to increase self-esteem, develop interests, appreciation, and the capacity to relate to others; improve skills for making decisions and clarifying values, and strengthen staff competencies in providing these learning experiences, which will be consistent with the Texas Goals for Public Education for all students.

A Banker's Viewpoint...

Of all the small animals that roam our woods and fields, the one that walks with the greatest calm and dignity is the ordinary skunk.

A beautiful little creature, the polecat takes its dainty steps or pauses in relaxation, with disdain for larger animals, for predators leave the skunk alone. So the skunk goes his own happy, unhurried way, confident and poised, at peace with the world.

The reason he can be so nonchalant, of course, is that the skunk is equipped with what, in his own world, is comparable to the nuclear bomb. And we think there is a lesson in this for the United States of America.

For too many years this country, although equipped with nuclear weapons that make us just as invincible as we might want to be, has gone about the world trying to ingratiate its way, with smiles and gifts, into the hearts of other nations large and small. We negotiate arms limitations with predatory Russia, and live up to these limitations ourselves while we are fully aware that the Russians are cheating on the deal wherever and whenever they choose.

It seems to us it is time for our country to recognize the ways of nature and of mankind.

We should walk this world with dignity and calm and confidence. We should make clear, without boasts or threats of any kind, that we are fully able and ready to defend ourselves—at the same time keeping our nose out of other nations' business.

If we thus kept up our strength and maintained our dignity, others would respect us for it, and we would stand a far better chance of living at peace with the world.

personal counseling, and offer an opportunity to visit an active Army post.

It will be a unique opportunity for the retirees to hear Ms. Martha McSteen, regional commissioner for the Social Security Administration. Up to the minute details of the Social Security administrative and legislative changes will be presented. Additional presentations will be given concerning VA and CHAMPUS benefits by respective representatives. "CHAMPUS benefits should be of utmost importance to the retiree," said Mr. E. G. Fish, Retirement Services Officer, "because of recent changes in the program."

Other activities available for the retirees and their dependents include: —Sightseeing bus tours of Fort Hood will be offered during the afternoon of the Open House. The tours will originate at the Community Center. —Two commissary facilities will be available at Fort Hood for customer service to retirees.

—The Main Post Exchange and the Four Seasons Store will be open for retirees and dependents.

According to Fish, "Reservation forms for the official activities of the Open House must be turned in by May 19, in order to provide the best possible program in comfortable surroundings. Reservations are important, for they do two things—let us know how many people we have to take care of, and let us know how many counselors are needed to answer questions of interest to the retirees."

Fish further emphasized the need for people who have not received an invitation and reservation form through the mail to write or call him at Fort Hood (817-685-5210).

If the students win the state contest, they qualify for all-expense-paid trips to the National Plymouth Trouble Shooting finals at Chicago in June. There, more than $45,000 in college scholarships and other prizes await the winners.

Pioneer declares dividend

The board of directors of Pioneer Corporation at their meeting held May 4 in Amarillo declared a regular quarterly dividend of 30 cents per share, payable June 3, 1976, to stockholders of record on May 20, 1976.

Consolidated net income and earnings for Pioneer amounted to $11,007,947 compared to $6,586,914 during the same period of 1975.

In making the announcement of the income, K. B. Watson, company president said that first quarter income was up notably over the previous year due to several factors. He pointed out that Pioneer Nuclear made a sale of stockpiled uranium concentrate to Philadelphia Electric Company from the company's inventory and generated revenues in excess of $4.6 million.

The quarterly report for Pioneer Corporation will be mailed to stockholders about the 17th of May.
