Board Keeps Aid, OK's Lunch Policy

Free Lunches Easier To Get

Littlefield school trustees, at the request of the Texas Education Agency, Monday night adopted more liberal policies on free or reduced-price lunches for children of low-income families.

The school system was asked to approve and publicize the new policies prior to the first of the year if it wanted to continue receiving aid under the National School Lunch Program.

The NSLP is a plan operated by the U.S. Department of Agriculture which provides commodities without cost to school lunchrooms.

Supt. Paul I. Jones told the board the school receives approximately $5,000 worth of commodities per year through the program.

Although the NSLP is a federal program, its operations in Texas are handled by a program director at the Texas Education Agency.

In a letter to the school district, the state program director, Charles M. Hicks, said many of the questions on an application form now being used by the local school system are "not allowable."

Jones said the questions on the local application were designed to determine "real need" and at the same time rule out any request which might take advantage of the benefits without such need.

In the past, a school committee determined eligibility on income figures which were set locally.

Under the new policies, eligibility will be determined according to an income chart which is reproduced elsewhere on this page.

The same committee, Littlefield School Welfare committee, will continue to have responsibility for determining who is eligible for the free or reduced-price lunches.

In explaining the new plan to trustees, Supt. Jones predicted that recipients of free lunches probably will increase because of the more liberal approach which is being taken under the new policies.

It is possible, he said, that the increased amount of free or reduced-price lunches could result in these lunches exceeding the

Policy Given On Free, Reduced-Price Lunches

Because some low-income families find it difficult to pay the full prices for school lunches, Littlefield schools will provide these lunches at a reduced price or free of charge to those children who are unable to pay.

Families who feel that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches may apply now to the Littlefield School Welfare Committee.

Copies of the application form are being sent to parents this week, and additional copies are available in the nurse's office in the Primary Building.

The completed application, signed by an adult member of the family, should be sent to the nurse's aide. Applications will be reviewed promptly and within three days the family will be notified in writing as to the decision made. Information provided on the application will be held in confidence, and decisions on approval will be based on the following income scales:

(a) Free Lunches				(b) Reduced Price Lunches
Family Size	Income	Number in school		Family Size	Income	Number in school
1	Below - $1,200	All Free		1	$1,200 - 1,920	20c

hardship, would affect a family's ability to pay for school lunches, such as prolonged illness in the family, unexpected expenses due to fire, flood, or any other disaster of this nature; seasonal unemployment and similar emergency situations, will also be considered.

If a family is not satisfied with the decision made on their application, it may request a hearing to appeal the decision. This request may be made orally or in writing to the school nurse who will review the application with them and see if different arrangements can be made.

The school district's formal free and reduced price policy statement and the procedure that will be followed when a decision is appealed are on file in the nurse's office and may be reviewed by any interested person.

value of commodities received from the NSLP.

"It is something we will have to watch to see if it becomes a financial burden to the district," Jones said.

In that event, the board might wish to consider whether to continue with the program in the Littlefield system, he said.

Jones said all parents in the school district will be notified of the new free or reduced-price lunch policy by letter. Application forms will be provided with the letter for those who feel they have children who would be eligible for the benefits.

Blanche Dodgen A Straight Shooter

By NILAH RODGERS
Leader-News Staff Writer

Mrs. Blanche Dodgen started "going back home" on deer hunts to Central Texas with her husband about 15 years ago.

Mrs. Dodgen has been a widow two and a half years, but when deer season opens she continues to take her rifle down and head for their stomping grounds down around LBJ country.

"This year I got two deer," Mrs. Dodgen said. "I have got three in one season, and I would have been allowed that many this year, but I just didn't see that many."

Mrs. Dodgen lays no claim to being a great shot, she says simply that she seldom misses. "The deer has to be fairly close, and standing still," she said, "and I don't take any wild shots. A lot of conditions have to be just right for me. And I don't take the chances some men do."

Mrs. Dodgen started teaching school before she married, then went back to college for a couple of years in 1926-27 for her permanent teaching certificate. "When you got a permanent teaching certificate then," Mrs. Dodgen said, "it was said this was more binding than a marriage license."

It was at South West State University in San Marcos that Mrs. Dodgen met Lyndon Johnson when he was just another college student. The Dodgens had a large house and rented out apartments on one side, and Johnson often visited them or another couple.

Mrs. Dodgen taught school in Blanco County 10 years before the Dodgens moved to Littlefield in 1929. They bought the place east of town where she still lives in 1930 and their original three-room house was made of logs brought here from Ruidoso.

But after a few years of dry West Texas weather, Mrs. Dodgen said the bark on the logs started to peel and they stripped the bark off and stuccoed over them.

Mrs. Dodgen taught school in the Littlefield system during the Depression. "You'd teach or work wherever you could get a job back then," she said. Then she taught at Sudan three years.

But people around Littlefield remember Mrs. Dodgen best for the 18 1/2 years she spent as a state welfare worker.

"I missed working with children," she said, "but I soon found that it was just as satisfying working with old folks, and 95 per cent of the people we assisted were over 65 years old."

Mrs. Dodgen retired in June from her long tenure with the welfare program, but her sentiments remain with the needy. Tuesday she was making doll clothes for a welfare basket that will be distributed through her church group, and last week she noticed a little boy in her Sunday school class needed a hair cut and she asked his mother for permission to take him to the barber shop.

Although Mrs. Dodgen has been retired for six months, she hasn't been faced with nothing to do yet. She paints pictures, sews, crochets beads, has a garden and keeps her own yard in the summer and invites her six grandchildren for visits. "I'm a jack of all trades," she concluded, "but diversification is a good way of life. If you can't find something you like in one field, you can find it in another."

Commissioners

The Lamb County Commissioners' Court approved the purchase of a new pickup for precinct number one at their regular monthly meeting Monday.

The pickup was bought from Armes Chevrolet for a balance of $1,950, less trade-in.

In other action the commissioners approved the payment of the monthly bills, approved the withdrawal of bonds from the depository, and accepted monthly reports of county officials.

MRS. BLANCHE DODGEN hasn't missed a deer hunt in the last 15 years or so. The coat on her lap is made from the tanned hides of her hunt. The book she holds is her autographed copy of Lady Bird Johnson's White House Diary she received at an autograph party in Johnson City recently while she was in LBJ country visiting and hunting deer.

OFFICERS Truman Burrows and Cruz Hernandez hold certificates of accomplishment in a ceremony in Levelland last week. They are graduates of a basic law enforcement training course.

Officers Complete Course

Officers Truman Burrows and Cruz Hernandez completed their studies in a 40-hour basic law enforcement training course at the Levelland Junior College last week. The two officers were awarded certificates of accomplishment in a ceremony held at the college Friday afternoon.

The forty-hour course is the second unit of an initial four-unit 160-hour course of basic law enforcement training. Certified as the training agency for the 15-county region by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education, SPAG will offer 160-hour training courses at Levelland, Lubbock and Plainview, thereby giving officers three opportunities to receive training during the year. In addition to the basic training courses SPAG also plans to provide one or two day specialized seminars on subjects such as accident investigation, narcotic identification, communications, etc., as determined by the interest of region officers. A new state law which went into effect Sept. 1, requires any full-time law enforcement officer hired after that date to become certified within one year of his original appointment by receiving 140 hours of basic police training through an accredited training agency.

Gayle's Gatherings

By GAYLE MILLS
LEADER-NEWS SOCIETY EDITOR

MY MOTHER, Irene Petross of Tulsa, Okla. can no doubt whip up some of the best appetizing meals that I know of — and naturally, I'm prejudiced. I can still smell the aroma of her cooking coming from around the kitchen door to my bedroom — just wishing to myself that she would hurry up and get the meal ready so I could sink my hungry chops into that delicious food of hers.

So many times Mother prepared a recipe for "Cabbage Rolls" that would sharpen your appetite in a hurry. The recipe belonged to my late grandmother Petross. Being of German-Indian descent, grandmother was well known in the field of cookery. For many years grandmother and grandfather Petross (of Greek descent) owned two restaurants in the small town of Okmulgee, Okla. Mother told me that people came from far and near just to taste her cabbage rolls and her other fine cooking. Since I have had so many requests for a cabbage roll recipe, mother finally sent me the recipe for "Grandmother Petross' Cabbage Rolls" and we want to share it with you. We hope you will try it and enjoy it as much as we have through the years. This recipe is about 60 or 70 years old.

GRANDMOTHER PETROSS' CABBAGE ROLLS
Cabbage
1 lb. hamburger meat
1 onion (diced)
1/4 cup rice
1/4 cup Crisco
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons chili powder
Pull apart cabbage leaves and scald in boiling water. Roll mixture in cabbage leaves and fold over to form a square. Tie with a thread or string.
Pack in a large pan with some of the leaves in the bottom. Cover with water to about half over cabbage rolls. After you bring them to a boil, cover and simmer for 3 to 4 hours.
Yield: 6 to 8 rolls.
These rolls should have a weight on them while cooking. Use a heat-resistant plate or similar and set a cup of water on top of the plate.
Mother also had the following recipe named after her that was featured in the American Home magazine.

MRS. PETROSS' VERY OWN APPLE COBBLER
Combine:
3/4 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

1/4 teaspoon salt
And mix with 5 cups sliced apples. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup water.
Dot with 1 tablespoon butter. Cover with foil; bake in a 400 degree oven for 15 minutes.

PUMPKIN CAKE
Mix together:
1 1/4 cup Wesson Oil
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 cups pumpkin (fresh or #303 can)
Combine with:
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 teaspoons soda
2 teaspoons cinnamon
Add:
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Bake in a 350 degree oven for 45 minutes.

PUMPKIN CAKE FROSTING
Mix:
1/2 stick soft oleo
8 oz. package cream cheese (soft)
1 box powdered sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup coconut
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Add a little milk if too thick.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Nothing Free

By BOB WEAR

NOTHING IS FREE. For everything that is described as being free, a price of some kind has been paid sometime, some place.

It is tragic that so many present-day people seem to think that so many things are free. This extremely false viewpoint is producing problems of increasing perplexity.

THE THINGS WE NEED are not supposed to be free. Nothing is worse for us than not to earn what we get.

For example: It has been divinely decreed that we earn our daily bread; not that it be given to us. If it is given to us, somebody has had to pay for it; it is not free. Someone has very well said, "There are no free lunches."

THE MOST CERTAIN WAY to demoralize a person, and make him unfit for living is to give to him what he should be earning by the sweat of his brow.

After a while, such a person is so gravely handicapped that he becomes helpless and hopeless.

We are not helping people by giving and giving to them the things they need. In order to fulfill our purpose for being, we must work for what we need.

MAN MUST WORK. That is certain as the sun.

But he may work grudgingly or he may work gratefully; he may work as a man, or he may work as a machine.

There is no work so rude, that he may not exalt it, no work so impulsive, that he may not breathe a soul into it; no work so dull that he may not enliven it." -Giles.

THE WORLD OWES US NOTHING. It is regrettable that so many people have been led to believe that the world is indebted to them.

This conclusion throws everything out of balance. Everybody suffers loss to whatever extent this unjustified viewpoint is accepted.

Nowadays it seems that, one way or another, the free-loaders are going to take what they want from those who, by work and good management, have acquired the things they need. This is a great evil, whether done by lawlessness or by faulty governmental programs.

THE SUPPLY DWINDLES. When the worker is forced to give what he earns to those who will not work, it is not long until the worker is going to produce only what he needs.

It is one thing to share what we have with someone in need, because we want to help; but to be forced to give to the shirkers is something else.

There is nothing free. Somebody must produce everything essential to the needs of mankind.

EVERYTHING WE HAVE has been produced by labor, good management and wise planning. A great price has been paid to bring all of it into being. It is not free, and must not be considered so.

It must not be disposed of as if it were free to be given away indiscriminately. When it is, both the recipient and the producer lose.

THE BURDEN INCREASES. All of the efforts to make food, goods, schooling, medical care, etc. free have become a monstrous burden for the people who are still working.

What happens when the workers grow weary and no longer have the will to work?

GIMME! GIMME! GIMME! GIMME!"

A WOMAN'S VIEW

Peace On Earth

By PEARL BRANDON

HERE IT IS almost Christmas and once again we celebrate the birth of Christ. That tiny babe born many years ago in a manger, and who lived to be only 33 years old.

The National Geographic School Bulletin special Christmas issue is very interesting this time, telling of "Europe's Thousand Year Pause".

THEY DESCRIBED it as the "in-between period" as neither ancient or modern. When one century was very little different from the other.

When a thousand years showed very little change in the lives of people...not as much change in one thousand years as in the century in which we live.

YET DURING all those years, through the middle ages to now, people worshiped Christ and most things accomplished were in His name.

They built monasteries, cathedrals, roads and founded cities.

PEOPLE LIVE in history, each generation in only a small part of it, while centuries pass. Great men come and go. Time moves on and the human race moves upward.

The Psalmist said "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Who hast set thy glory above the heavens. . . what is man, that thou art mindful of him . . . for thou hast made him a little lower than the angels."

LET US GIVE THANKS unto God for this free land where we can celebrate Christmas. Where we can set up a Christmas tree and exchange gifts among our loved ones. . . where we can sing Christmas carols and where we can attend the church of our choice.

Let us pray for peace. Let us pray for our boys in far-away places who would like to be home for Christmas.

Let us look for the time when men "will not study war any more and peace shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

LET US PRAY that all people may know our God as we know Him and doing so will love their brother as their self.

At the birth of Christ the angels sang "Peace on the Earth, good will toward men".

The pro shop of the Littlefield Country Club was broken into Tuesday night and a loss of $800 was estimated on the missing items which included a 21-inch stereo record player and numerous records, a 21-inch portable television set, and about $135 in cash.

Entry was gained by breaking the windows on the north side of the building.

Friday night, Leonard Stamps reported the theft of four tires and wheels taken out of his pickup while it was parked at the VFW Building for about three hours that night.

THE PHILOSOPHER

The Mail

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm examines the mail situation this week.)

Dear editor: Since I don't depend on the mail service as much as a lot of people, I can't tell any difference in a newspaper delivered by Uncle Sam and one delivered by a good strong north wind. I figure I can take a calmer view of the mail situation that always develops along about this time of the year, railroad strike or no railroad strike.

example mine and some other wouldn't need to write letters let the machines write each objection to this though amount of unemployment among postmasters.

Another method to avoid the log-jam of mail of course was Christmas every tenth year, it'd catch on.

Or, since I don't have any getting a letter from the farm to your office in Little Congress should prohibit a letter that goes any further carrier can carry it.

Actually of course a railroad strike isn't all bad for the Post Office Department, especially in big cities. It gives it an excuse for getting bogged down in mail it was going to get bogged down in anyway. But everybody recognizes mail service isn't what it used to be and something ought to be done about it.

Actually there's nothing mail system, it's just sort of way system: too many people at the same time.

If everybody followed the system we wouldn't have problems at all. He said if months before answering the you'd be surprised how few swearing.

One solution the Post Office Department is looking into is a machine that reads handwriting. It wants a machine that can look at the address on a letter, decipher it, and ship it on its way, un-touched by human hand.

If you think this is a good know along about next June.

If they can get a machine smart enough to read some people's handwriting-for

Mod Army

SIDEburns on soldiers, beer in the barracks, an elite cadre of conscientious objectors.

In and out of the Pentagon, our military is undergoing a major overhaul.

For better or worse, it will not be the same again. Like it or not, you are going to get a "mod army."

HOW MUCH we can frustrations of no-win war for in narcotics addiction, alcoholism, general disease among computers can't compute.

That morale problems have none can deny. The Navy's re-enlistment rate from 23% to 9% in five years.

AT THE BIRTH OF America, John Adams wrote: "We shall have a long, obstinate and bloody war to go through." It was and we did.

Our military materialized fighting on the side of revolution. In the "unwar" in Vietnam, we're fighting on the other side. And we are admittedly determined not to win. Small wonder that our military is in ferment.

SO UNIVERSALLY unpopular war that draft law violations are 12 times more than five years a day! Even while the shooting at the White House and the Pentagon with plans for a zero draft, an armed force.

Army, Navy and Air Force individual base commandment periment with relaxed discipline chores, more time off.

U. S. ARMY regulations are perused and used by conscientious objectors to avoid combat. Army regulation 635-20 says a soldier can apply for CO status even after he is in uniform.

The Supreme Court opened the exit door even wider when it decreed that a conscientious objector need not belong to any particular church, but may avoid service because of "deeply held moral or ethical convictions."

UNDER CONSIDERATION bonuses, health benefits, educational opportunities as for re-enlistment. Historically, military bonuses padded by the Pentagon and reduced by the Congress, generally 10%.

SO, IN 1969, 943 GIs sought CO status. 1970 figures will exceed that number.

Then there's the drug problem, multiplying by two every year since 1967. Last October the Defense Department revised its regulations on drugs, substituted rehabilitation for prosecution.

THIS CONGRESS talks of Defense Secretary Laird's budget by 50% and restores purposes for which it can be used. The dogma that America's world's police chief has been interestingly by some of the lawmakers who two decades ago equally eloquent in their arguments contrary.

THIS LAST MONTH an Air Force colonel told Congress that he drank when he flew. He said more than a few pilots do. A specialist estimated that there are 30,000 alcoholics in the Navy.

IF THAT SOUNDS increasing are the human considerations in unprecedented involvement in war first time in our country's military -eyewitnesses report. -presumably Americans, fighting other side.

Auto Mechanics Students In Trouble Shoot

Chrysler-Plymouth Division has announced a major improvement in its Tool and Job Program - a special feature of the national Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest - as a part of a continuing effort to encourage more young men to become auto mechanics.

Littlefield students will compete sometime in May.

The program improvement was announced in New Orleans by John H. Moore, Jr., manager of the Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest, during the 64th annual convention of the American Vocational Association.

Moore said that all participants in the contest including LHS students, now will be able to purchase a valuable set of mechanic's tools at minimal cost directly from Contest Headquarters in Detroit.

In the past, Trouble Shooters had to be employed by a Chrysler Motors Corporation dealer to be eligible to purchase the tools at reduced cost.

Moore explained that the Tool and Job Program was inaugurated in 1968 by Chrysler-Plymouth to help defray the purchase price of these tools. A substantial investment in proper tools is a prerequisite to employment for most new auto mechanics.

"The goal of the program," Moore said, "is to get as many as possible of the 4,000 young men who compete annually in the Trouble Shooting Contest to seek employment in the automotive service field."

Under the revised Tool and Job Program, Moore said all students who participate in a local Trouble Shooting Contest will receive a certificate which entitles him to purchase for only $274 a 181-piece tool set and a six-drawer tool chest which has a retail value of $539.

As a further incentive for a Trouble Shooter to seek employment at a Plymouth dealership, Moore said the program also provides that if a Plymouth dealer hires the Trouble Shooter, the dealer can buy the tools and then sell them with no down payment to his new employee for $224. This is less than half the retail price and is $50 less than the direct purchase price.

This means the Trouble Shooter can go to work immediately for a Plymouth dealer with his own set of tools and can use these tools while he is paying for them through a weekly payroll deduction. For example, a deduction of only $4.30 each week will pay for the tools in one year.

If the apprentice mechanic's employment is terminated for any reason before the tools are paid for, the program provides that the dealer and Trouble Shooter can reach an agreement on ownership and final payment.

A SNACK BAR has been set up in the cafeteria for students who wish to buy such snacks as candy, cake, sandwiches, hot dogs and potato chips. Mrs. Doris Morris, left, mans the bar as students Carol Chisholm, Janna Gilbert, Kathie McBride and Becky Broadbudd select their purchases.

GOD'S PSYCHIATRY

A DEVOTIONAL

By WAYLAND HUTTO

At no other time of the year are so many people excited about giving.

Christmas giving is a means by which people show their love. Wouldn't Christmas be horrible if we gave no one anything?

It has been our tendency to settle down in the midst of our blessings and be content with only receiving. Living in prosperity has opened doors to greed and selfishness that need to be closed forever.

Consider. Is your enthusiasm centered in receiving?

Every year we hear of the drives and crusades by charitable organizations to accumulate money, food, and clothing for the poor and needy. We are forced to wonder at our own fortunate circumstances and to pity those not so materially fortunate.

While our eyes see the worldly needs of others, God's eyes see the poverty and greater needs of our souls.

God gave us the greatest and most perfect gift-life. In His love for us, He made it possible for everyone to have real life through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

"Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Luke 12:34. God has proved that He treasures us by giving us the gift of life. We must prove we treasure Him by giving Him our lives.

Since you cannot totally submit yourself twice, give the greatest gift you can to your loved ones, friends, and fellow man-give them love.

LHS Speaks Out

By PAM BRANNON and JOAN TIMIAN

The question the students answered this week is: "Why do you think we should NOT legalize the use of marijuana?" There were many different reasons given. But the majority of the students felt that we don't know enough about it. The legalization of marijuana might lead more people to use it. That it might lead some people to the use of harder drugs.

These are some of the answers that we got:

Mike Montgomery, (Jr.)-"I believe we should not legalize grass because more people will smoke it and maybe go to harder things to get better highs. Harder things may destroy future generations."

Randy Trotter, (Jr.)-"People are wild enough now."

Brent Whiteaker, (Jr.)-"Because if it was legal, everybody that hasn't or even if they have would start smoking the stuff, and everybody would walk around taking a trip. I guess."

Pam Haste, (Jr.)-"I don't think it should be legalized because more people would take it, not realizing how harmful it is."

Scott McNeese, (Jr.)-"Because we do not know enough about marijuana to know if it is harmful or not."

Micheal Holmes, (Jr.)-"I think there is no real use for it. The world wouldn't be a better place if the use of it was legalized. In my opinion I think the towns, cities, and community would be a better place to live. Take alcohol for instant in some ways it's just like it."

Martha Brown, (Jr.)-"From the standpoint of grass effecting your body, marijuana could be legalized. It does not permanently damage you, only possible temporary distortion of distances. My reason for not believing that grass should be legalized goes to two main things: you cannot control its potency and it would be too hard to set the restrictions on it. The leaves of the same plant don't have the same potency. Legalizing marijuana could get rid of some of the bad stuff, but it could also put more there."

Kerry Nicholas, (Jr.)-"I think we should not legalize the use of marijuana because the extent of the effects on the body are not known."

Mrs. Betts, (Am. Hist.)-"As long as it is illegal, it will be harder to acquire and certainly higher in price. These two things should keep it out of some hands."

Vicky Davis, (Jr.)-"Marijuana should not be legalized because in the long run it hurts many more people besides the user."

Amy Owens, (Jr.)-"We should not legalize it because it is harmful."

Cathy Nelson, (Jr.)-"Because we have a big enough problem with drug abuse as it is. If we were to legalize it the problem would get worse."

Dorothy Williams, (Soph.)-"Because there are so many different effects on different people. But the ones that use it are going to get it one way or the other. So why legalize it?"

Lydia Davis, (Fresh.)-"Because of the danger it has on lives. If it is legalized the whole nation would be in an up roar. So I think it shouldn't be legalized. Marijuana is one thing the world can live without."

Carol Chisholm, (Jr.)-"Although marijuana does not harmfully effect the body, I do not think it should be legalized because it would be too easily obtained for those who are restricted from it. This could lead to the use of the harder stuff for all."

David Friday, (Jr.)-"I think we should not legalize marijuana. It would hurt the people and the government. I think it would tear down our country."

Mary Davidson, (Jr.)-"Because doing this would be one step closer to giving into the every whims of the youth of today. The youth has been pampered and has never been made to accept rules made by their parents, state, or government. If it displeases them they ignore it and the older America gives."

Larry Crumpton, (Jr.)-"If we do more then likely there will be more people getting marijuana to use."

Gail Williams, (Jr.)-"Marijuana would be much easier to get and might lead people who would never think of using drugs to try it and go on to harder stuff."

Ministerial Alliance Sponsors City-Wide Drive

The Littlefield Ministerial Alliance is sponsoring a city-wide drive for the Church World Service Clothing Appeal, according to Doug Morton, chairman for the drive.

The Church World Service helps to supply the needs for disaster and war refugees in more than 30 foreign countries. The Church World Service truck is to be in Littlefield during the week of Jan. 18, but the drive for clothing and blankets will be completed in Littlefield by Jan. 13.

All types of good lightweight clothing is needed, as well as blankets. The majority of the countries assisted are in tropical climates, and the blankets are often used as tent-like shelters.

Other items which are needed include sewing and knitting supplies, personal health items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, combs, etc., and school supplies.

It is requested that all clothing and blankets be accompanied by 10 cents per pound for the clothing and 25 cents for each blanket to help defray the expense of shipping and processing.

There are many ways the people in Littlefield can be of help to those who have been the victims of disasters and war," Rev. Morton said. For additional information, contact your own church office, or call Doug Morton at 385-5272.

Turkey Shoot Set

The Littlefield FFA is sponsoring a turkey shoot Sunday, Dec. 20.

The shoot will be one mile south of Littlefield on U.S. 385 and one-fourth mile east, with shooting beginning at 2 p.m.

Everyone should bring their own guns, and shells will be on sale at the site.

What To Do When Car Is Submerged

Everyone, at one time or another, has wondered what it would be like to be imprisoned in a submerged automobile.

The fear of such an incident is not totally unfounded, as 27 Texans died last year when the vehicles in which they were riding went into water.

George Cook, director of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Water Safety Services, said the number one rule to remember is "stay calm and don't panic."

Don't try to get out of the car until it comes to a halt. Even if completely submerged, there will be an air pocket in the top of about six inches.

When the car has stopped, take a deep breath, roll down a window and slip through and swim to the surface.

Cook said if there is a current, don't fight it.

Arrested Juveniles On Probation No Injuries In Wreck Near Earth

Two juveniles who were arrested and promptly released with no charges made against him.

Jailed by county officials this week were two drunks, a 46-year-old man from Littlefield and a 43-year-old from Muleshoe, and Robert Trotter Jr., who was picked up by the Department of Public Safety on traffic warrants from the office of the justice of the peace.

ALERT ON FIRES

The dry and windy weather has created conditions very favorable for grass fires. Hunters are urged to be doubly careful with fires while in the field.

Two cars collided at the intersection of FR 1055 and 2901 Sunday about 4:15 p.m., causing no personal injuries but about $800 in property damages.

Mrs. Frances Geraldine Wheatley of near Earth was driving a 1970 Rambler south when Leonard Green of Earth stopped at a stop sign in his 1962 Falcon, then pulled out into the path of the other car.

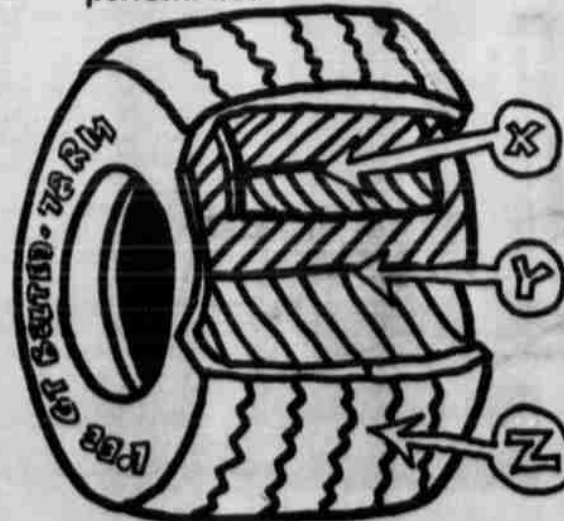

Highway Patrolman Bill Angel estimated property loss of $500 to the Rambler and $300 to the Ford.

Are belted tires really worth more?

If you usually buy tires for $10.95 or even $18.95, you probably find the price of a belted tire hard to believe.

Granted, it's a lot of money. But you'll save money in the long run. A good belted tire actually costs less per mile to operate than a conventional bias-ply tire! Because a good belted tire will last a lot longer. It's belts will provide more stability and less squirm.

So what's a good belted tire? We believe the Lee GT Belted RM is good. In fact, we think it's the best. Lee has been building belted tires longer than many other manufacturers. And Lee builds belted tires with the materials that, in our opinion, perform best.

- X The two belts are fiberglass - for long mileage and excellent handling.
- Y The two body plies are polyester cord - for strength and a quiet, smooth ride.
- Z And its wide interlocking tread hugs the road for easy cornering.

MY BELTED TIRES COST LESS PER MILE TO OWN.

YA GET FREE MOUNTING TOO.

Compared to any conventional bias-ply tire, the Lee GT Belted RM really is worth more. It's worth a lot more... especially since it costs less per mile to operate!

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Viola Jordan does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Jordan and nine out of 10 professional cooks agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

CHICKEN CHOW MEIN

Mrs. Viola Jordan, Gray County Courthouse, Pampa

- 5 lb. chicken (I sometimes use a large, fat fryer)
- 1 medium sized onion
- 1 small can mushrooms (chopped)
- 1 small package spaghetti
- 1 no. 2 can tomatoes
- 1/2 cup ripe olives (chopped)
- 3 tbs. Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 button garlic
- 3/4 lb. grated sharp cheese

Cook chicken with one button garlic until tender. Cool and bone chicken. Cook spaghetti in plain water. Saute onions, add tomatoes with a pint (2 cups) of broth. Make a paste of 2 tablespoons of flour and cold water and add to onions and tomato mixture and simmer 30 minutes. Add chicken, mushrooms, olives, spaghetti. Sprinkle grated cheese on top of mixture and bake in a large baking dish for 30 minutes in a hot, gas oven (400 degrees). Serves 10 to 12.
