

Furr's Offers $1,000 For Culprits In Robbery

Roy K. Furr, vice president of Furrs, Inc. headquartered in Lubbock, posted a $1,000 reward Tuesday for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties involved in the assault on Walter Brinson and the armed robbery of the Littlefield Furrs here early Monday morning.

Texas Rangers were called in Tuesday to assist the Littlefield police department and the Lamb County sheriff's office, and although no new leads developed before press time Wednesday, Texas Ranger Jim Singleton acknowledged the similarity of the assault and robbery here to a case in Lubbock last year.

Brinson, manager of the Littlefield Furrs Super Market, said he was awakened about 12:30 Sunday night by a knock on the door. He said he answered the door and a tall, slender blonde woman in her early thirties said she needed to use the phone in a hurry. When Brinson opened the door, the woman disappeared and two Negro men wearing masks and armed with pistols jumped him.

Brinson said he was struck on the head with the butt of a pistol and forced to lay on the floor after he was ordered to hand over the keys to the store and the combination to the safe.

Brinson said the men told him and his wife not to look at them or they'd kill them. They also threatened to kill him and his family if he didn't give them the keys and safe combination, he said.

Brinson said he could only describe the men as one fat and the other skinny, since he "didn't really care what they looked like under the circumstances."

Brinson said one of the men stayed at the house while the other went to the store, but when the would-be robber couldn't get the safe open he returned to the house. Brinson said he was forced to drive one of the men to the store in the Brinson car to open the safe while his wife and their children were held hostage by the other man.

Upon returning to the Brinson house, the store manager said the men tied him and his wife up with ties and some bloody towels and cut the telephone lines.

When they got loose, about 10 minutes later, Brinson spliced the phone lines together and called a neighbor next door to come get their 8-year-old daughter, Shellie, and 6-year-old son Rodney.

City Patrolman Johnny Bankston took the Brinsons to the hospital for treatment injuries. Six stitches were taken on the back of Brinson's head where he was struck with the butt of a gun, and Mrs. Brinson was treated for a kick on her head.

Brinson described the robbers as polite after the initial terrorizing. Mrs. Brinson was told to get in bed with 8-year-old Shellie who had awakened during the hassle. (The boy remained asleep in his room, Brinson said.) And Brinson was made to lie down on the floor in the bedroom after returning from the store with the robber. Brinson said they called him "Walter" and "Walt" and asked him if there was anything they could do for him before they left the house.

He said he told them he felt like he was bleeding to death and wanted a pillow, and they put a pillow under his head. Then he said he felt sick at his stomach and one of the men got him a glass of water.

Brinson said the amount of money taken was "a small amount" and less than the figure of $1,500 to $1,600 published earlier in the Lubbock and Amarillo papers. He added that the store makes a deposit every night.

The Littlefield case is similar to one in Lubbock last July when the W. A. McNally family was terrorized and held hostage by a white woman and two Negro men.

Similar methods of operation of other Furr store robberies were under study by officials.

BOARD OK'S TAKING OF BIDS

Band Uniforms Sought

Littlefield school trustees Monday night gave Band Director John McGee the go-ahead to design a new Wildcat Band uniform and ask for bids.

Once total figures are available, the board will take up the proposal again to make its final determination.

Discussion of new band uniforms came during a regular monthly meeting of the board in which trustees also accepted resignations of three faculty members and employed two new coaches.

The board also screened applications of candidates for the head basketball coaching position. Athletic Director Jerry Blakely, who presented the applications, was asked to invite two of the top four candidates for interviews with the board at a special meeting to be held this Friday night.

Band Director McGee showed the board samples of present uniforms, and pointed out the condition of the suits.

"We can field a band in uniforms next fall," he said, "but after the marching season, our uniform situation could be in bad shape for concerts."

Present uniforms are eight years old, and because of the deterioration of many of them, he said, size problems are mounting.

School Business Manager Sid Hopping told the board the school now has $8,887 in its fund for uniforms. That amount has been collected over the past eight years in rentals, and set aside for the time when new uniforms would be needed.

Approximately 115 to 125 new uniforms will be needed in order to outfit the band and have good size selection. The anticipated cost is somewhere near $100 per uniform, so the total outlay probably would be more than $11,000.

Earliest delivery of the uniforms probably would be January, 1972, since orders being taken now by several companies are being promised for December of this year.

Resignations taken by the board during the meeting came from Robbie Kay Sheffy, junior high math; Marjorie McCoven, junior high social studies; and Deverelle Lewis, former athletic director who became junior high assistant principal this spring after he suffered a heart attack last fall.

Lewis, in a letter of resignation, expressed appreciation to the board, the school system and the community. In the letter, he noted that he would be taking a post in the Distributive Education program of Lubbock schools next fall.

The two new coaches recommended by Blakely and approved by the board are Lewis Boomer, now an assistant at Odessa High, and Kenneth Carter, who will be graduating from Wayland College this spring.

Boomer, 27, who has been at Odessa the past five years, will be the junior varsity coach for football and basketball. He is a graduate of Panhandle (Okla.) State College.

Carter, who played football at Abilene Christian before injuries forced him out, is now completing college work at Wayland. He will coach 7-8th grades in both football and basketball.

In other activity at the meeting, the board heard reports on maintenance planned this summer for buildings and grounds, and for school transportation.

Three Arrested In Counterfeiting

The passage of 11 bogus $20 bills to Littlefield merchants was cleared up here Monday with the arrest of three men in Durango, Colo. this week.

Two of the men were from Lovington, N.M. and the third was from Winters. Arrested and arraigned before a U.S. Commission on charges of passing counterfeit $20s were James A. Eldred, 47, Bobby Williams, 31, and Buford McWright, 48.

A secret service agent told Lamb County Sheriff E.D. McNeese that the serial numbers on the bills were the same as those passed in Littlefield last week. The bills passed in Colorado showed a variance in colors and the word "TWENTY" was blurred like those found here.

Absentee Balloting

If you are a registered voter who plans to be away from the polls Tuesday, May 18 and wish to express your desires on the four proposed constitutional amendments dealing with ethics, legislative pay raises, welfare and water bonds cast your absentee ballot this week.

Deadline for voting is 5 p.m. in the County Clerk's office in the County Courthouse.

SHeldon FRANKLIN got one spanking, two lemon meringue pies, $25 in cash and $40 worth of gift certificates this week. The second pie and the cash and certificates are for his winning entry in the "Greatest Mom" contest. Sheldon's mother, Mrs. Ted Franklin, smiles as he samples the prize on the bonus pie she baked him after she learned he won the contest.

Spanked 9-Year-Old Writes Warm Letter

Sheldon Franklin, a nine-year-old Littlefield resident with a hurr haircut, outgoing personality and a sweet tooth for pie is the winner of this year's $25 and $40 worth of gift certificates contest.

His entry in the Area's Greatest Mom contest was Tuesday for Janie Ted Franklin when she learned that Sheldon's entry won the Leader-News Mom's Day contest. "And you should see his face when I told him he won," she said.

Sheldon yelled, slapping a hand to his head. "I can't believe this. I thought I'd do it. But I did, didn't I?" His mother made "meringue pie hot" for him as a bonus in addition to the cash and the handful of gift certificates.

The contest, young entrants completed their entries beginning "My mom is the best because—". Sheldon wrote, "She spanked me. But I still think she is the best. Besides she just baked me a pie."

"Mrs. Franklin said, 'I was spanked by a pie and Sheldon started arguing with me. So I spanked him with a fly swatter and made him go in the living room and sit down. He's a big reader and likes reading the paper.' That's what Sheldon saw the contest entry and his mother if he could enter."

"I've got a lot to write Daddy about the winner said."

Franklin is a civilian employee in the area where he is a diesel mechanic. "I haven't seen him since he was 18th," Sheldon said.

Franklin and the Franklin's two sons lived in Littlefield again since their father went to Vietnam, but Mrs. Franklin was born and reared here. "And Sheldon was born here," Sheldon said.

He said he would like to let conversation lag, Sheldon said he would like to go to Germany or Spain with another company soon. "Then we'll go to Germany with him," he added. "But I'd rather go to Spain because in Germany if you don't get through with all your school work you get a spanking and get sent home right then, no matter what time of day it is. But if we go to Spain, we might have to fight the hobgoblins like I was reading about in a book."

Court OK's Opinion Poll On Weather Modification

A "hall" of a battle between advocates and foes of cloud seeding is on tap Tuesday after the Lamb County Commissioners' Court gave their "aye" Monday to a referendum vote in connection with the scheduled May 18 Constitutional amendment vote.

Commissioners consented to the referendum vote when Ross Lumsden, representing Farmers and Ranchers for Natural Weather, appeared at the meeting and asked for action to be taken on a letter dated May 8 requesting the vote from H.M. LaFont, attorney for the anti-hail suppression group.

LaFont stated in his letter that the referendum would not be a legal, binding election on the question of whether the people were for or against the weather modification, but would simply be an expression by the people of their wishes in the matter.

The group led by Lumsden opposes a group of farmers called Better Weather,

Inc. which seeks to employ Atmospherics, Inc. a California-based weather modification firm that has been granted a permit to seed clouds with silver iodide to break up hail storms.

LaFont suggested that if the Court

Where There's Smoke . . . It Costs Money!

How have residents of Lamb County reacted in the past year to the nationwide campaign aimed at reducing cigarette smoking?

How much are they smoking, compared with people in other parts of the country? On the basis of the latest statistics, although many men and women have joined the "I quit" ranks, most of them are elderly people and those who had been light smokers. The heavy smokers, on the other hand, have stepped up their consumption somewhat.

According to preliminary data covering the country as a whole, released by the Department of Agriculture, for the first time in four years there has been an increase in per-capita smoking. Consumption by adults rose by nearly two packs per smoker in 1970, it reports.

In Lamb County, according to a breakdown of its figures, approximately 1,894,000 packs of cigarettes were sold in the past fiscal year.

This was at the rate of 170 packs for every local resident over the age of 18.

It was less than in some parts of the country and more than in others. The average rate of consumption in this age group, nationally, was 202 packs. In the West South Central States, it was 172.

Women appear to have a harder time giving up cigarettes than men do. Among the reasons advanced for this are the feeling among women that they are less likely to get lung cancer or heart disease than men are and that they might gain weight if they stopped.

Even though the cost of smoking has been rising, due to the higher taxes imposed on cigarettes by many states and local communities, it has had little effect on sales. Americans are spending more than ever before, over $10 billion a year, in that direction.

In Lamb County, the overall outlay last year was approximately $795,000, or about $71 per smoker.

agreed to submit the question to the voters that the referendum be submitted:

"Are you for weather modification by cloud seeding?"

"Are you against weather modification by cloud seeding?"

Questions of the legality of the referendum have been posed by the advocates of the cloud seeding operations, with some charging that no prior notice was given, even that of posting an emergency notice, to the scheduled commissioners' meeting.

Others questioned the legality of the election judges counting the referendum ballots as proposed since referendum expenses are ordinarily paid by those seeking opinions.

Courthouse observers expressed fears that the commissioners' decision to extend balloting privileges to registered voters only may engender ill feelings among citizens who failed to register for the off-election year. Since the referendum votes count only as opinions, anyway, some persons are arguing that the election should be open to all residents.

Toad Has Eyes For Cactus

"PEEPING TOAD" or just plain curious? This horned toad has been sitting on the window ledge of the Weldon Findley home since Friday viewing a new cactus floral arrangement on a table in front of the window. The wonder remains on the "whys" for the horned toad's six-day, 24-hour watch.

Uncle Sam Increases Price On Mail Again

Littlefield Postmaster George B. Lumsden said today that increases in postage rates will take effect Sunday, May 14, as the new United States Postal Act begins its task of achieving self-sufficiency as required by the Postal Reorganization Act.

Lumsden noted that general postage rates have not been increased since 1967. Congress passed what was to be its final legislative act in this area.

He pointed out that, earlier, requests for increases were proposed to Congress by both President Johnson and President Nixon. In addition, President Nixon proposed an increase again in 1970, but none of the proposed increases were passed upon by Congress.

Lumsden explained that the new law authorized on a temporary basis the newly created Postal Rate Commission can make recommendations to the Postmaster General of the Postal Service on rate changes—will raise first-class rates from 6 to 8 cents an ounce, and second-class rates from 10 to 11 cents an

Measles Clinic Set Wednesday

A Rubella (three day measles) Immunization Clinic will be conducted Wednesday, May 19, at the Littlefield-Lamb County Migrant Health office, 605 East 5th, between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m.

The immunization will be given to all persons between 1 and 20 who have not had it before.

Children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. There will be no charge for the immunizations, but donations will be accepted.

Robert Graves Commissioned, Receives Degree

Robert Dale Graves was commissioned Second Lieutenant at West Texas State University Sunday during the graduation convocation service at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum, and he also received his Bachelor of Science degree in agriculture.

He was among 37 cadets who were commissioned as second lieutenants in the U.S. Army.

He was among the record graduating class at the University—887 students—who received their diplomas from Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WTSU.

This was the first time the University's convocation ceremony had no speaker—a decision made because of the size of the class.

The previous record graduating class was 832 graduates in 1970.

Graves was among the outstanding students honored by the WTSU School of Agriculture during an awards barbecue held Saturday night at the University farm north of town.

Graves was recognized in the 'plant science' division, and the event was sponsored by the WTSU Block and Bridle Club.

Little 'Mars' Man To Invade Earth

A musical one-act play, "Roddy Riddle From Mars" will be presented by the Spade School grades first through fifth, Friday, May 14, at 8 p.m., in the Spade School Auditorium.

There will be no charge for admission and the public is invited to attend.

Roddy Riddle lives on the planet Mars. He likes to watch the boys and girls on earth through the powerful lenses of binoculars. Children on earth seem to have such a rollicking, good time that Roddy decides to steal away at the first opportunity he has, and pay them a visit.

He boards the first Comet Express "The Flash", sails through the Milky Way, and finally slides down the tail of the Comet and lands on earth, near "The Lakeview Gardens," where a Spring Festival is just in progress.

He has the time of his life, with Dick and Daphne showing him how things are done here on earth. But soon he is missed from Mars, and Capt. Dunkle-Dumps of the Order of the Silver Garter, comes to summon him back to his home. So it's "So long, Roddy!" but his earth friends hope he'll come again.

Characters in the play are: Roddy Riddle From Mars, Chris Myers, Dick, Lynn Cowan, Daphne, Gina Kay Glazener, Lady Spring, Kelly Moberley, Mistress Mary, Elaine Guthrie, Capt. Dunkle-

Dumps, Rodney Hall; Attendants to Lady Spring, Bret Brown and Randy Offield; and Heralds, Glen Ivins and Moses Soliz.

"Johnny Jump Ups": Bill Reed, Rolando Casas, Ivo Culberson, Frank Guzman, Joe Sanchez, Guy Moberly, Victor Soliz, Jesse Reyes, Jack Johnson, Craig Wallace, Ricky Cordao, Larry Ivins, Bryne Long, Victor Balderas, Ricky Reed, Lonnie Perez, Reynaldo Casas, and Erasmo Gonzales.

I'M BACK ON the salad binge again! But you know when the season begins to approach and the ingredients for tasty and nourishing salads are the most plentiful—one will get a hungry appetite for salads.

Salads can be as light as lettuce or hearty enough to be the complete meal.

For light summer meals that are tasty and nourishing, try one of the following recipes.

HERE'S A GOOD oriental flavored recipe for chicken salad, which is a bit out of the ordinary.

ORIENTAL CHICKEN SALAD
3 cups diced cooked chicken
1 cup drained canned bean sprouts

1 1/2 cups sliced celery
1/8 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup French dressing
2 tabsp. soy sauce
3/4 mayonnaise

Salad greens and ripe olives
Mix the first five ingredients and chill. Blend soy sauce and mayonnaise. Stir into first mixture and serve on greens with a garnish of olives. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

RICE IS an ingredient seldom thought of as a "salad maker." This recipe has the combination of ham and rice for a nourishing treat.

RICE AND HAM SALAD
1 1/3 cups packaged precooked rice
3/4 tsp. salt
2 tabsp. dry mustard
1 1/2 tsp. sugar
2 tabsp. wine vinegar
1/4 cup vegetable oil
1/2 green pepper, chopped
1 cup diced cooked ham
1/2 cup cooked peas
Chopped parsley
Salad greens

Prepare rice with 1 1/3 cups boiling water and salt as directed on the label. Mix next 3 ingredients with 2 tabsp. cold water. Gradually beat in oil. Stir lightly into warm rice.

Cool and add next three ingredients. Add more salt if necessary. Sprinkle with parsley and serve with greens. Makes 4 servings.

THIS SALAD, being an old favorite, gets a face-lifting when it has the "Texas" brand!

"TEXAS" BRAND POTATO SALAD
4 medium potatoes

1 can condensed consommé
1 clove garlic
3 tabsp. tarragon vinegar
2 tabsp. olive or vegetable oil
1 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. pepper
Few sprigs of parsley, chopped
1 small onion, chopped
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
Salad greens
Cook peeled potatoes in consommé with the garlic until potatoes are tender. Drain and discard garlic. (Liquid can be saved for soups or gravies.) Dice potatoes while still warm. Mix remaining ingredients, except greens, to make dressing. Layer potatoes and dressing in bowl. Cool, then cover.
Chill several hours or overnight. Serve with greens. Serves 4.

Special guests were Mrs. and wife of Lubbock of the Compress; C. V. Bennett, and James Bennett, director of the Seed Assn. They each were introduced.

Holland of the board of directors presided in the session.

Directors are Leroy Bennett, Bennie Harmon, Messamore, Dick McMillan, Jimmy Cowan, James Bennett, and Loyd Seymour. Bennett and Seymour's terms expired. They were re-elected. The directors' wives were recognized for their service.

D. Bennett gave his report and the auditor made his report. Improvements have been made in the facilities and a better service served the steak dinner to approximately 125 attending.

Dividends were passed out to stockholders to conclude the meeting.

Shower Honors Jolene Reid

BULA—Miss Jolene Reid, bride-elect of Mike Swenney, was honored with a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Pearl Wallace, Friday evening, May 7.

Guests were registered in the bride's book by Miss Leisa Risinger, cousin of the bride.

The honoree's chosen colors of yellow and green were used in the decor throughout the house. The serving table was laid with a runner of yellow linen, centered with an artistic arrangement of yellow rose buds, surrounded by white carnations and greenery. Ken Wallace and Beverley Tiller poured the lime punch and served tarts and assorted sandwiches. Napkins carried out the names "Mike" and "Jolene."

The hostess gift included a floral print bedspread and bed pillows.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mmes. Glenn Blackmon, Brewer Gage, Dan French, Ray Keeling, Dewey Kilby, Eddie Wallace, E. E. Carter, L. H. Medlin Jr., Beatrice Parks, Pearl Wallace and John Blackman.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Bob Swenney, Mrs. Auto Dorich, Mrs. Pete Storch and Jean Murphy, all of Levelland.

Hospital Week

MAY 9-15, 1971 has been designated National Hospital Week, an occasion recognized by nearly all of the nation's hospitals.

This year's theme is "Your Hospital Cares—but who loves a hospital?" This approach will be used throughout the year to emphasize that hospitals care enough about people to know they don't want to be hospital patients.

THE FIRST TIME an attempt was made to tell people about hospitals was fifty years ago on National Hospital Day.

The "day" was extended to a week in 1953, enabling hospitals to expand their public information efforts within the community.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL WEEK is celebrated during the week that includes May 12, the birthdate of Florence Nightingale, a pioneer in improving the hospital system.

This year marks the 150th anniversary of Florence Nightingale's birth.

THE PURPOSE of National Hospital Week is to inform the public about its hospitals and about health care in general.

Hospitals participate in various activities during the annual observance, including displays of informational material, recognition of employee accomplishments, and community orientation regarding hospital services. Often, several hospitals cooperate to inform the public about health care in the community.

THE 1971 THEME of "Your Hospital Cares—but who loves a hospital?" will be used throughout the year to help tell the hospital story. The theme was selected to point out that hospitals care about people even though they realized most people would rather stay away from hospitals.

One of the theme's implications is that people certainly don't love being sick, but when they are, they begin to appreciate the special services and facilities which the hospital offers.

PAUL HARVEY

Here's A Job

PRESIDENT RICHARD NIXON says any honest job is more dignified than begging. I'd almost forgotten that what we now call welfare recipients we used to call beggars.

AS A BOY, I worked Saturdays stacking and sacking groceries and sweeping the store's parking lot for $1. Not $1 an hour; $1 for 17 hours.

I wouldn't want to have to do it again, but if I had to, I would.

With the President, I agree that there is nothing undignified about a job that puts bread on your family's table.

THERE ARE JOB openings right now in grocery stores and in restaurants, in snack bars and in those franchised fast-food-service roadside carryout restaurants.

In fact, when you include all the food-service work looking for workers in schools, colleges, hospitals, nursing homes and factory cafeterias, there are right now 5 million jobs available.

AND THESE ARE NOT just low-pay busboy opportunities. Things have changed since Paul Harvey was a stock boy. I know one company which offers a profit-sharing plan which gave a dishwasher a retirement bonus of $400,000! Your chances of making a million are better in food-related industries than in aerospace or electronics or medicine or law.

IN ALMOST EVERY city in the United States, right now there are millionaires who have made it in food service.

And you don't even have to know how to cook to make it big in this business.

Richard Senn, the man who directs dining services for United Airlines, probably couldn't boil an egg, but he serves 24 million meals a year.

TWENTY PERCENT of all jobs in this industry are in that managerial category.

Because of more working wives and the economy of quantity production, within 10 years more than half of all the food consumed in the United States will be consumed away from home.

I know of no industry with faster and more certain growth potential.

IT'LL HAVE to have 500,000 new employees each year.

How can you get in on it? There are three ways:

1--You can start at the bottom with a so-called menial job as busboy or dishwasher in a hotel or dietary aide in a hospital and do that job so well you'll be moved up through the ranks of supervision. Most restaurant and hotel chains have training programs.

2--You can enroll in a good vocational school or junior college which trains management personnel in the food service business.

3--Go to college at Cornell, Michigan State, Houston, New Hampshire, Washington State, Penn State, Oklahoma State--where they offer degrees in food management.

THIS IS JUST one industry that's pregnant with limitless potential; we'll talk about others later. But wherever, let's go back to work. If the politicians let us as responsible adults wean ourselves away from that tax-fat-wet-nurse in Washington.

OBITUARIES

FRED W. LUECK

Funeral services for Fred W. Lueck, 84, a resident of Slaton four years and a former Littlefield resident for 44 years were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the Immanuel Lutheran Church at Posey with the Rev. Richard Owens, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Englewood Cemetery under the direction of Englund Funeral Home.

Lueck died about 10:15 a.m. Tuesday in Mercy Hospital in Slaton following a lengthy illness.

A Washington County native, Lueck moved from Bell County to Littlefield. He moved to Slaton in 1967. He was a farmer.

Survivors include his wife, Freda Lueck; three daughters, Mrs. Florine Killen of San Antonio, Mrs. Celest Schroeder of Rt. 2 Slaton, and Mrs. Lenore Coble of Buchanan Dam; a brother, Herman of Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Lydia Rodenbeck Sr. and Mrs. Melinda Holdde, both of Brenham; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Palbearers were Edgar Shultz, Cecil Price, Roland Stegemoeller, Alvin Neugebauer, Clarence Lobstein and E.C. Stageno.

LENA EMALINE ROLLINS

Funeral services for Mrs. Lena Rollins, 79-year-old resident of Slaton, died early Monday morning at the Amherst Manor Nursing Home, Amherst, were conducted Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Sudan.

Rev. Wayne Perry of Lubbock, J. R. Manning, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Sudan Cemetery. Hammons Funeral Home of Lubbock was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Rollins was born Feb. 18, 1892, in Alabama and had lived in the home about a month.

Surviving are three daughters, E. Williams and Mrs. George H. Lubbock; a son, F. L. Rollins of Lubbock; a brother, A. T. Bagby of Ariz.; three sisters, Mrs. Virginia Sley of Rotan, Mrs. Joe Huggins Brown Hembree, both of Fort Worth, seven grandchildren and many great-grandchildren.

LARRY DALE GORE

Graveside services for Larry D. Gore, 19, of Muleshoe, who died at the Muleshoe hospital after a long illness, were held Tuesday afternoon in the Muleshoe Cemetery.

Rev. Clarence Bennett, minister of the Nazarene, and Campbell, officiated. Burial was directed by Singleton Funeral Home of Muleshoe.

Gore was a native of Amherst, lived in Muleshoe most of his life. Surviving are his parents, Mr. Wayne Gore of Muleshoe, and Mrs. Joyce Gabbert of Muleshoe; two sons, James Gore of Portales, N.M., and Gore of San Antonio.

LULA DICKENSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Dickenson, former first grade teacher at the Littlefield schools, who died Monday at noon in the Fort Worth Nursing Home, will be conducted 10 a.m. at Lamar and Smith Funeral Home in Dallas.

Mrs. Dickenson taught first grade here from 1952 until 1965.

She was a sister to Ross Littlefield and Jerry Lumsden, county school superintendent. She is half sister of Mrs. J. T. Lybrand, Sudan resident.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

The Best Way

By BOB WEAR

CARELESSNESS IN ACTIONS seems to be much too prevalent among people who are capable of accepting responsibility for diligence and skill in what they do.

This is a loss to the people who are careless, and a shortage of productivity, in quantity and quality, which is a loss to all concerned.

WHATEVER WE DO that is honorable and essential work or service, we must be ever searching for the best way to do it.

This is the way of personal satisfaction, and maximum appreciation for us and what we do.

JUST TRYING TO GET by in our work, our schooling, etc. seems to be the guideline which controls many persons. With this attitude, it is only a matter of time until we can only "get by."

If this is our view, we are going to be something less than pleased with ourselves. There is within such people an underlying kind of dissatisfaction with self that will help increase undesirable traits of character and personality.

COMPLACENCY COMES too soon for too many people, and this is an unnecessary limitation of one's life, and accomplishments. Of course, there is a time to be satisfied; but not as long as there is a reasonable possibility of making improvement.

Our effort must not cease until we are convinced, beyond doubt, that we have found the best way.

OUR INPUT MUST NOT be curtailed through inefficiency, carelessness, laziness, lack of pride in our work, or in any other such way. We can usually find a better way to do what we do, and get more done with greater ease.

The quality of work is usually improved as we find better ways to do the work.

THERE IS ALWAYS a best way of doing everything. This is a self-evident truth, and we, in all we do, must continue to search until we think we have found the best way.

This is not to be done with a feeling of anxiety, but with a deliberate calmness that increases our chances of succeeding.

IF WHAT WE DO is useful, it is important; and it is important enough to be done in the best way.

This means that we must be trying to make improvement by honestly looking for the best way. This requires our close attention, our undivided attention.

POSTAGE

master pointed out, since about 75 per cent of first class mail and airmail is from commercial mailers.

In addition to increases in first-class mail and airmail is from commercial mailers.

In addition to increases in first-class rates, second and third class will also go up on May 16.

However, the full increases proposed by the Postal Service will not be put into effect on a temporary basis, in second and third class, since the postal reform legislation contemplates that such increases be phased over 5 years--or ten years for non-profit organizations--provided Congress appropriates the necessary funds to ease the transition to the full rates.

Because of the phasing provision, the increases to come effective May 16 for second and third-class will generally be only 1/5 of the total increase which has been proposed by the Postal Service.

No changes are made in the rates for parcel post, which is the principal component of fourth-class mail. However, initial increases will be made in the "book rate" which is classified as fourth class.

The new temporary rates also make changes in other postage rate categories and special service fees, such as special delivery and registered mail.

The Postal Service advised the public in February that it intended to make temporary increases if the Postal Rate Commission did not make the recommended decision within 90 days, and Sunday, May 16, was selected as the date on which the rates would become effective.

When the domestic changes go into effect, there will be conforming increases in letter rates to Canada and Mexico.

Aid For Drouth

Congressman Bob Price and Senator John Tower ate lunch with Secretary of Agriculture, Clifford Hardin, Tuesday and were told that President Nixon is considering additional aid to drouth stricken areas in Texas which the two lawmakers had requested.

"Secretary Hardin advised us that he and the President are studying all possible legal avenues to get additional aid for farmers and ranchers in our state," Price said.

The Panhandle Congressman said they discussed the possibility of government owned grain being made available to cattlemen at reduced prices to maintain foundation herds and also discussed eligibility to graze irrigated set-aside acreage without penalty.

"I also mentioned the so-called 'pauper's oath' that farmers and ranchers are forced to sign in order to obtain reduced price government grain," Price said. "The Secretary stated that possibly this could be changed where the applicant would only have to sign a statement indicating that he did not have sufficient liquid assets to purchase feed at the market price."

County Women Tour London

MYRTLE CLAYTON
Springlake

Ella Lindley and Mrs. Clayton left the Lubbock Carnival Tour, sponsored by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

They went by way of Des Moines, Iowa; Bangor, Maine; and then on to jolly old London. They lost some hours in the U. S. A. and found two lovely girls, Miss Marcie Creech and Miss Mary Betts of Ft. Worth.

We enjoyed this four-day tour. We missed the Safari bus tour to the things on our own. We took a cab and went to West Abbey.

The recorded history of West Abbey begins in Edward the Confessor's time. It is dim and misty, by an ancient act of remembrance, he made Westminster Abbey the cradle of the empire there on an island in the Thames River.

In the 11th century to the 15th century, the palace at Westminster Abbey was the kings' place of worship.

Westminster enshrines the bones of almost all that the Saxons, the Normans, and the Tudors have buried, and contains the remains of many of the kings, judges and nobles, but the Abbey was above all for a "House of

The ancient coronation chair stands in the St. Edwards Chapel, but is transferred to the center of theatre and before the high altar for a coronation. Since 1296 the coronation chair has been used for every coronation with exception of Edward V and Edward VIII who were never crowned.

This building remains as one of the greatest examples of Gothic architecture, containing many works of art not only in the way of monuments, but in the way of pictures, plate and fabrics.

We entered this famous Abbey with other tourists but with a desire to worship in the church proper. Drawing on our bold Texas spirit we walked past the tourists to the high altar and back of which was an iron wrought petition and asked an attendant for permission to worship.

The attendant opened a gate in the petition and we entered in the collegiate church of St. Peter in Westminster.

This Sunday, April 25, was "Anzac Day," a day of commemoration for those who died in the Australian and New Zealand forces, the two commonwealth nations of Great Britain.

As we sat among the splendor of the chapel, the metal breastplates of the three nations, the quiet dignity of the service, listening to the music of the great organ and the voices of the Lay Vicars as they sang, we felt so humble.

The Prime Minister of New Zealand read the "First Lesson," and His Excellency the High Commissioner for the commonwealth of Australia read the "Second Lesson." The Honorary Canon of Sydney Australia preached the "Sermon." At the close of the service all stood and sang the national anthem.

After the church services we went with the people to the town square in front of the House of Parliament, where wreaths were placed on the tomb of the Unknown Soldiers, which is symbolized by a huge monument in the center of the street. A brigade of uniformed horsemen and a band march followed by several other marching groups portraying the different phases of the wars pertaining to the history of Great Britain. Never shall we forget this Anzac Day and the influence it has on England,

Australia and New Zealand.

We walked on down to the beautiful Trafalgar Square, here we fed the pigeons, took pictures and mixed with the people. Just Texans getting around and not missing a thing, looking at all the statues and ornate sculpturing and amazed that there is no vandalism to the fountains or statues in anyway.

From Trafalgar Square we walked on down town to Madame Tussaud's Wax Exhibition. This famous world museum had its beginning in London in 1835. Among those portrayed here were John F. Kennedy, Dwight D. Eisenhower, George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and many others.

Grabbing the subway to get back to the London International Hotel, we had already come to the conclusion that we were so confused about the money exchange that we were being taken and taken good. The majority of the English are confused also.

An "Elizabethan Feast," was planned for us on Sunday night. This feast was served in authentic 16th century surroundings, even to the wooden plates and bowls—drank soup directly from the bowls—no sweets and the wandering minstrel played and sang as we ate.

Monday morning the bus tour took us over the "West End" of London. Saw the main shopping areas, Piccadilly Circus, buildings of Parliament and Buckingham Palace. Today of all days, it just had to rain so we missed the Changing of the Guards.

Monday afternoon's highlights were "St. Paul's Cathedral," and the "Tower of London." For 13 centuries a cathedral dedicated to the honor of St. Paul has stood upon the summit of Ludgate Hill. The first cathedral was destroyed by fire and in succession four other churches were destroyed. The rebuilding of the cathedral was finished and dedicated in 1240, other portions were added later, and all in the same graceful Gothic style. After the Reformation, houses and shops were erected right up to the very walls of the cathedral.

The American Memorial in the chapel just behind the "High Altar," is the tribute of the people of Britain to the 28,000 American citizens who, from their bases in the United Kingdom, met their death in the second world war. Opposite the crimson-draped altar stands a glass case containing the "American Roll of Honor," in which are inserted the names of the 28,000 dead. This was presented by General Dwight Eisenhower on behalf of the United States on "Independence Day," July 4, 1951.

It's hard to explain the elegance and splendor of this chapel, yet you somehow forget all this when you stand before this "American Tribute," and say to yourself, "I am glad I am an American."

Visited the "Tower of London," which houses the famous crown jewels—unbelievable, and guards really on alert.

London City by day—now city by night, where an enjoyable evening had been planned. Music hall entertainment at the famous Stars Garters, then to "The Talk of the Town," where our dinner was served while international celebrities entertained.

Tuesday morning our tour took us through the gentle Buckinghamshire Country side, and the Chiltern Hills to Oxford. Oxford is England's oldest University town, 30 colleges in HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS to the Littlefield FFA Chapter were presented to S. A. Palmer, Mrs. Nadine Foley, and Lyndol Nelson Tuesday night during the Annual FFA Banquet in the High School Cafeteria.

Oxford, 25 for men and 5 for women. Here we visited one of the colleges. Went past Blenheim Palace, ancestral home of Duke of Malborough and birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill.

At Stratford Upon Avon we lunched, later toured the city of Stratford whose thatched-roofed cottages and beautiful gardens reflect the character and atmosphere of the past. Viewed Shakespeare's birthplace and Shakespeare's Memorial Theatre on to the Village of Shottery and to visit the home of Anne Hathaway, Shakespeare's wife. Went back to London by the way of Banbury. Saw many hedge rows and where they "Chase the Fox."

Tuesday night, our foursome attended the "Cambridge Theatre," where we saw Ingrid Bergman, Goss Ackland and Kenneth Williams in the play "Captain Brassbound's Conversion," by Bernard Shaw.

An hour's flight brought us to Paris, France on Wednesday morning where we were met by bus and toured by French capitol main sights, including the Montmartre, the Champs Chailot, the Arc de Triomphe, Chailot Palace, the famous Eiffel Tower, Concorde Square and Main Boulevards.

Lunch was served at the "Les Chevaliers de Table Ronde." After lunch toured the Left Bank and Latin quarter. The highlight was a visit to the "Louvre" where we saw the original "Mona Lisa" and many other great works of art.

Visited the cathedral of Notre Dame, the Tuilleries Gardens, Palace of Justice, Sorbonne University, the Luxembourg Palace and Gardens and the Elysee Palace, then returning to England after an exciting day.

Thursday, the highlight of the tour, flying to Amsterdam, land of beauty and color. Acres and acres of bright colored tulips—600 different types of tulips and each type has a name. There is a $100,000,000 export of tulip bulbs here each year.

This was Queen Juliana's birthday so flags were flying. Most houses are from the 17th century and when houses are repaired it must conform to the 17th century style, this keeps the quaint country type buildings uniform.

Small, small cars in these countries and in Holland they sometimes fall off in the canals, but with a hoist and $35. they are lifted right out again. Sometimes our bus was on the sidewalk right up next to the buildings in order to get down the street on one Amsterdam street.

Amsterdam gets its name from the Amstel River. Visited the Rembrandt Square and entertainment center. At the Rembrandt House we saw the most beautiful and famous of the Rembrandt paintings. Toured the queens palace, Jewish Quarters picturesque canals and windmills, on to a diamond cutting industry and the Tulip Gardens of Keukenhof in Vogeelzang, Holland.

Friday we traveled west of London to the Royal Palace and Fortress of "Windsor." The King Henry VIII Gate is sited at the lowest extremity and farthest from the Royal Apartments. It was built so that, should it fall to the attacker any further progress would require a stern uphill fight. This was rebuilt later in 1510.

It was Edward III who founded the Order of the Garter. Only the King had the power and authority to invest those he chose to receive the "Order of the Garter." Sir Winston Churchill received this high honor. Here is located the Devil's tower very ancient but much altered. Some of the low walls around the private garden are 4 centuries old. One of these I had to touch.

A magnificent China collection is one of the interesting things that a visitor could spend much time looking at. Then the Doll House that was created for Queen Mary 1865-1953.

The living quarters for the Royal family are located in this castle. The queen was at home but ill during our visit. Am sure she missed seeing us Texans. From here we went to Runnymede, beautiful country side and here is a plot of land and a memorial to the late President Kennedy. It was here in 1215 that King John was forced by the English barons to put his seal to the Magna Carta.

Lunching at Virginia Water on the edge of Windsor Great Park, we visited Hampton Court Palace. This palace was built in the 16th century for Cardinal Wolsey and later taken over by King Henry VIII.

The story is that when King Henry came to see the Wolsey Palace he was very upset and said to Wolsey, "Why you have a more beautiful castle than my own." Wolsey fearing the King, said, "Oh, but Sir, I built it for you," and King Henry immediately moved in and took possession.

Returning back to London International Hotel, and must make one more of England's famous restaurants, so to "Flanagan's" we go to eat fish. Suitcases outside our hotel

Littlefield Man Escapes Grain Cave-In Trap

Dan Tinsley of 319 W. 4th Street in Littlefield considers himself a lucky man after being almost buried alive under a pile of grain after being trapped more than three hours in an elevator north of Olton last week. Tinsley was working for Leo Smith augering grain into storage when one of the pipes choked up. Tinsley climbed up on the train to unstop the flow and was entangled in a cable near the pipe. After becoming entangled, Tinsley was unable to get out of the way of the grain as it kept feeding into the auger. At times during his ordeal, grain was up to his nose, but he said he just kept holding on to the pipe and blowing the grain away from his nose so that he could breathe. Smith said he had taken Tinsley to work at the elevator and returned later and started to drive on, but happened to notice that not much grain had been moved. Upon investigating he found Tinsley practically buried in the grain. The Olton volunteer fire department helped dig the grain away and put up pieces of tin to hold grain back while Tinsley was freed. TRUCKS ARE LIFELINE More than 35,000 American communities—more every year—are totally dependent on truck transportation to deliver the goods needed for daily living.

Industrial Arts Club Wins Eight State Places

The Littlefield High School Industrial Arts Club went to the Texas Industrial Arts Fair at Austin May 6 and 7. Ten projects were taken and eight places were awarded. They were four firsts, two seconds, and two thirds.

The first place ribbons were taken by Bill Hamblin with his bowl, Brad Nace with his

Among the other places taken were two second places with Larry Purdy and his gun case and Randy Trotter and his desk.

The two third places were taken by Buddy Witcher with his gun cabinet and Billy Wormly with his cedar chest.

Future Farmers Of America To Compete In Contests

Future Farmers of America teams from 20 high schools in this area will compete in farm mechanics contests to be held at Texas Tech University Thursday, May 13. The Texas Tech Department of Agricultural Education will host the teams from Abernathy, Anton, Cooper, Floydada, Idalou, Littlefield, Ralls, Roosevelt, Shallowater, Sudan, Bula, Dimmitt, Matador, Morton, Muleshoe, Patton Springs, Pep, Springtown and Tula.

The contests will be conducted at the Agricultural Engineering Building according to Dr. Lewis Berger, chairman, Department of Agricultural Education.

Each team will consist of two students. Results of the contests will be announced at a dinner meeting in the U.S. Pavilion.

Sponsors of the contests also purchase the food for the dinner. Sponsors include electric cooperatives in Floydada, Spur, Tula, Muleshoe, and Littlefield.

God's Psychiatry

By WAYLAND HUTTO

At this time of the year, many changes come about. Not only does school dismiss, but also many changes take place in the outdoors or nature.

In our modern world an increasing emphasis is being placed on nature. When the sand isn't blowing, we have one of the most beautiful areas in which to live.

However, we often take this blessing for granted until the sand again comes to remind us.

In our lives we find a parallel to this illustration. We are all blessed so richly—some with wealth, some with beauty, some with love, and some with all of these.

As grandparents, we appreciate these blessings; as young people, we forget them. Our interests are in activities more than personalities and knowledge more than wisdom.

Some people are intelligent enough to know that men are saved by faith and not by works; however, James 2:26 says that faith without works is dead. In other words, if we don't make as our purpose the doing of God's will, then our faith will dwindle until we lose our inner peace and joy.

When times are bad and we are feeling low, we must remember that God's will is for us to rejoice in hope and be patient in tribulation.

Then, we are reminded of our blessings and our Father which art in heaven. The only way for one to possess peace and joy is for him to believe and do God's will.

Remember this: "A man's beliefs tells you less about his religion than his way of life does."

But, a man must first believe before his way of life will reflect Jesus Christ and God's will.

Pat Boone Is Secretary Area I FFA

Pat Boone, member of Littlefield's Future Farmers of America, was elected secretary of Area I FFA during the organization's convention Saturday at Palo Duro High School.

Other area boys who were involved in competition Saturday include: Freddie Maxwell of the Sudan FFA Chapter, second place Area Lone Star Farmer; Gary Durham of Olton FFA, $600 scholarship from Production Credit Association; and Tommy Clevenger of Anton, $1,000 Investor Owned Utilities for $50 Area I.

LHS Speaks Out

This week's question was handed out to most of the Junior class. We asked them "Do you think as the class of '72 you can live up to the HIGH moral standards of the 'GREAT CLASS OF '71'?"

It seemed to be cut down time for the Senior class because we got answers like, what high moral standards, I didn't think they had any, and it shouldn't be hard.

Here are some of the answers we got:

Dennis Cowen, (Jr.)—"Yes, it wouldn't be hard."

Jim Cawthorn, (Jr.)—"Man we are it! We'll make the class of '71 look sick."

Debbie Hafley, (Jr.)—"Yes, if we all stick together. It shouldn't be hard to do!"

Judy Curry—"We are just as good of a class as '71, maybe better, I think that our morals are even higher."

Danny Chronister—"Sure, anyone can live up to something that small."

Wanda Cotter—"I don't know. I think that we are gonna have a really great class next year, but I don't know how high the moral standards are that we're suppose to live up to."

Scott McNeese—"The class of '72 cannot only live up to the high standards, but far surpass the Class of '71'."

Velva Lee—"Yes, I think the class of '72 can easily live up to the class of '71 moral standards, and anything else they did."

Mark Rogers—"What 'high moral standards?' We can raise all the trouble we want and still be less rowdy than they were."

Bruce Hall—"It will live up to and most probably 'out-do'!"

Cynthia Adair—"Yeah."

Kathy Turner—"Yes, I feel the class of '72 is a united one. We'll stick together through everything."

Jerry McCary—"What High Morals of the Sorry Class of '71'?"

Marsha Starnes—"Sure, we can."

Bob Grissom—"I don't think that should be too hard."

Linda Horn—"Yes, because we can't go much lower."

Duff Wattenbarger—"I didn't know they had any moral standards."

Gail Williams—"No."

Annelle Harris—"Yes, we can do that and anything else that we set our minds to."

Delon Walker—"Yes, I think we will live up to the high moral standards of the class of '71 because it won't be all that hard to do."

Martha Brown—"I didn't know that their moral standards were that high, but I am sure we can live up to theirs."

Larry White—"Yes."

Molly Green—"The class of '71 did a lot of good things and really had a lot of great people in it. I hope our class will be better though."

Rocky Cristan—"Yes, even better than them, it'll be hard to surpass them but we'll do it."

Suzann Sanchez—"Yes, I think we could live up to the high moral standards."

Beverly Kemp—"It depends on what the high moral standards are."

Glenn Short—"Yeah, probably so."

Carolyn Gray—"Yes, and I think that the class of '72 will be greater than the class of '71."

Beverly Tiller—"Well of course."

Sharon Gray—"Yeap! Sure can."

Brenda Feagley—"Yes, we're a great class too."

Sid Jacobs—"What Great Class of '71'?"

Larry Crumpton—"Yes."

Debra McAnally—"I'm sure gonna try, although it won't be very hard. No, really, they've done a great job."

Kerry Nicholes—"What high moral standards?"

Jim Hall—"Yes and no. It speaks for itself."

Frances Hernandez—"Yeah, I guess."

Rosa Martinez—"Yes, I think."

Charlotte Jennings—"What moral standards?"

Kay Terry—"Hugh, I bet we can make the class of '72' even better."

Timmie Campbell—"Yes, we can be better than the 'Great Class of '71.' We will be the 'Magnificent Class of '72'."

JUNIORS display their new senior rings.

Cheerleader, Officer Elections Held Inductions To Come Next Week

Cheerleader and Student Council officer elections were held Friday, May 7, in the high school gym.

Cheerleader elections were held first. Each girl wishing to become a 1971-72 cheerleader had to perform a yell.

The new cheerleaders for next year are: seniors, Debra McAnally, Cynthia Adair, and Carolyn Gray.

Juniors are Tonya Pickrell and Debbie Sorley. Sophomore elections have not been held yet.

A total of ten people campaigned for seven positions to fill the officer titles in Student Council. Next year's officers are:

President, Jay Trammell; vice president, Mike Morris; secretary, Martha Brown; treasurer, Gail Williams; social director, Wanda Cotter; publicity director, Cynthia Adair; and parliamentarian, Amy Owens.

NEW CHEERLEADERS for the 1971-72 school year are, left to right, Debbie Sorley, Debra McAnally, Carolyn Gray, Cynthia Adair and Tonya Pickrell.

Juniors Wearing New Rings

If you have noticed the Juniors walking around holding out their hand it is because they received their class rings last Friday.

The Senior class of '72, this year's Junior class, had three choices of rings: the phantom ring, the incised ring, and the Encrusted ring.

In the Phantom ring, the letter L is set deep in the stone.

The incised ring, the letter L is set close to the top of the stone.

THESE SENIORS have been together in the Littlefield Public School system all twelve of their school years.

WOW Wins Game Over Birkelbach

WOW 6, BIRKELBACH 5
 A hit by Bobby Avery to right field knocked in Wade Conwright in the top of the sixth to give WOW a 6-5 victory over Birkelbach Tuesday night in major league play.

Birkelbach got two runs in the bottom of the sixth but was shut off before they could get the tying run in.

Conwright hit a triple and a single for the winners. Bobby Avery and Richard Rogers each got doubles.

Tony Cowan hit a three-bagger for Birkelbach and Mike Gregg hit a single. Conwright was the winning hurler. Ralph Mendez pitched for Birkelbach.

LIONS 8, BUTANE 7
 Rudy Ayala connected for a single and knocked in two runs in the bottom of the sixth to give the Lions an 8-7 win over Littlefield Butane Monday night in Major league baseball play.

The Lions were behind 4-1 in the bottom of the third before rallying by getting two runs in the fourth, a pair in the fifth, and three more in the sixth.

Littlefield Butane scored four runs in the first and three more in the top of the sixth.

Rodney Hall was the big gun for Butane by hitting a single, a double and a triple. Ricky Huey got a double. Chris Pace, Brent Maddox, Greg Bruton got singles. Rudy Ayala was leading hitter for the winners with a pair of singles and a double. Jay Lee and Norva Simington each got a single.

Brent Jones was the winning pitcher and allowed four hits.

George Colbert pitched for Littlefield Butane.

TIE GAME
 In Major league action, Saturday night the Optimists and Birkelbach battled to a 4-4 tie after seven innings of play.

In the bottom of the seventh inning, the Optimists had the bases loaded, had one out and the game was tied 4-4. Ralph Mendez, second baseman for Birkelbach, picked up a grounder hit by Hank Conley. He then tagged Greg Moreland as he ran to second. After tagging for the out Mendez ran to first for the unassisted double play that ended the inning and preserved the tie.

Paul Harlan, Jeff Birkelbach, Angel Hernandez, David Cutshall, and Greg Moreland were hitters for the Optimists by getting singles.

Ralph Mendez led Birkelbach with a pair of singles. Larry Dempsey, Randy Taylor, Steve Friday and Jody Torres were the other hitters.

Kyle Shipley was the pitcher for Birkelbach.

Bucky Healy started for the Optimists and Hank Conley relieved after two innings.

The game will be finished at a later date.

Happiness Is . . . The Honors Assembly!!!

Pace received the award. In the Junior High Band there were two best bandmen this year. They were Bruce Peel and Mari Louise Bennett. The members of the L.J.H. Band that made all-region band were announced. Jim Bob Harris and Bruce Peel presented three trophies to the school on behalf of the L.J.H. Band. Gary Pace also presented a trophy on behalf of the seventh grade band band.

MRS. KEELING recognized all the members of the F.H.A. Club and the officers. She also presented certificates to six girls in sewing and cooking. Linda Sherley, Cindie Huber and Laquinta Clark were awarded for the sewing abilities. The Food and Nutrition awards went to Phyllis Owens, Patricia Sevier, and Tandy Talbert. The Crisco Award, an award given for the most outstanding Homemaking girl, was given to Rita McKinney.

MR. BRAWLEY then took over the program and recognized the Drama Club. Awards were given for the "Most Outstanding Actor and Actress", and also for the "Most Cooperative" player. Jill Owens and Johnny Villafranco received the awards for the best actress and actor. Michele Sawyer received this award in the eighth grade. Carol French received the award for the "Most Cooperative" player. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

MR. BRAWLEY also recognized the Boy Scouts who put up and take down the flag each day, teachers' aides, library aides, and office help. These people have done a very good job this year and have contributed a lot to our school.

THE STUDENT Council was also recognized for their hard work that they've done this year.

THERE WERE 113 students who received the "Perfect Attendance" award for the first semester. We can't list them all!

NEXT, THE HONOR Roll and Court of Honor students for the first semester were announced. Those making Semester Honor Roll in the seventh grade were Shelley Collins, Brian Gregg, Jerry Shults, and Jerry Stamps. On the Court of Honor were Brad Banner, Sharla Birkelbach and Ken Turner. In the eighth grade, those receiving an award for Honor Roll were Joe Foley, and Carla Sanders. The Court of Honor consisted of Toni Gardner, Debbie Jones, Rickey Barton, Rickey Birkelbach, Richard Barton, Rickey Parker. The freshman Honor Roll was made up of Pam Turvaville, and Jim Bob Harris. Those making Court of Honor were Terry Bryson, Carol French, Bruce Peel, Gary Brown, Andy Rogers Barbara McBride, and Kelly Pratt.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!
THE LAST EVENT of the assembly were the sweater awards to the freshmen. In Algebra I Barbara McBride and Bruce Peel received the award; in General Science the sweaters went to Carol French and Jim Bob Harris; the Spanish sweaters were awarded to Elvira Castillo and Maurice Gonzales; and in English I Tandy Talbert and Andy Rogers received the sweaters. All these students worked very hard and are very proud of their sweaters.

CHEERLEADER and Student Council elections will be held tomorrow. Good luck to everyone!!!!

Schroeder-Do you hear me, Linus? We're lost, lost, helplessly lost? Trapped out here on the vast burning desert without food or water. (Gasp! Moan!) Save us, someone! Save us, someone!

Linus-Oh, come on Schroeder. Can't you remember that we're just playing in my sand box?

HAVE A GOOD WEEK and Remember! Only two more weeks of school!!!

Four Receive Tech Degrees

Four Littlefield students are among more than 2,700 students who have applied for degrees at Texas Tech University's commencement exercise May 15.

William T. Pecora, acting Under Secretary of the Interior, will deliver the principal address at the 8 p.m. exercises in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

Texas Tech is a multi-purpose university with eight academic divisions—the colleges of Arts and Sciences, Engineering, Business Administration, Home Economics, Agricultural Sciences and Education, the School of Law and the Graduate School. Tech has a student body of more than 20,000.

The list of degree candidates from Littlefield includes: College of Business Administration: Barbara Burleson Steffy, secretary administration, College of Education: Ethelreda Katherine McBride, elementary education and Gerald Raymond Roberts, art education.

College of Engineering: Joseph Batton Hilbun, chemical engineering.

Rabies Clinic At Sudan Today

The Sudan fire department will sponsor a Rabies clinic at the Sudan Fire Station today, Thursday, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Dr. Jerry Gleason of Muleshoe will administer the shots to all Sudan dogs for $2 each.

City dog tags may also be purchased at the same time in the city hall. Male dogs and sterile female dogs may be tagged for a dollar and other females may be registered for $2. These tags will be valid for a year.

The last clinic was held last year on June 11, and Sudan residents are urged to take advantage of the clinic and have their pets re-inoculated.
