AT HIGH SCHOOL

Board Closes School Cafeteria

Littlefield school board members voted to close the Littlefield High School cafeteria, named head coach Jerry Blakely athletic director of both boys' and girls' athletics, and discussed extensive repairs needed at all five public schools during the regular school board meeting Monday night.

In view of future repairs, board members suggested that a bond issue might be needed, and Superintendent Paul I. Jones was instructed to get the costs down in black and white.

ALL SCHOOL BOARD members agreed to discontinue the cafeteria service in the high school after a lengthy discussion of budgetary items.

The high school cafeteria will be closed effective with the 1972-73 fall term, but the snack bar in the cafeteria will remain open. High school students who wish to eat in the cafeteria and those on the free lunch program will be transported to the junior high cafeteria.

The reason for closing the high school cafeteria is that it seldom pays its way because so few students use the cafeteria facilities. Of those eating cafeteria meals, it was noted that half received free lunches.

LYNN REAMS, maintenance superintendent, Ed Jennings, the school's insurance representative, and all five school principals met with the school board.

Reams detailed maintenance problems faced this summer and in the future on all school buildings, school grounds and the football stadium. He prefaced his report by stating that "first of all we need more maintenance money."

The 1971-72 maintenance budget is $2,300.

Reams and the school principals pointed out the following needs:

LITTLEFIELD PRIMARY — the old section built in 1924 needs repairs in the immediate future. At least four rooms and the restrooms need painting. Plaster around radiators in nine rooms need repairing. Desks and chairs need refinishing, and help is needed for flower beds and grass upkeep.

ELEMENTARY I — needs roofing repairs, four rooms need painting immediately. Principal James Settle suggested removing a partition in the teachers' workroom to provide more classroom space.

AT ELEMENTARY II, Principal Jack Christian said the wiring is a serious problem and presents danger to students. He said the first floor which Severe thunderstorms dumped several inches of rain and pecked portions of Lamb County with hail Saturday afternoon, and again Tuesday evening. The additional threat of tornadoes was added Tuesday.

Thunder clouds that topped 42,000 feet pounded Amherst with baseball size hail. Lamb County highway patrolmen who were watching clouds in the Amherst area about 4 p.m. Saturday said side mirrors and headlights on their patrol car were broken by hail in the storm that dumped three inches of rain on the Amherst area.

Saturday, rains and hail were heaviest toward the Lamb County, Bailey County line where hail piled up on Highway 70 so deep that road graders were called into service to clear the road around Nichols Gin west of Earth.

Hail on Highway 168 one-half mile south of Olton caused a traffic accident Saturday afternoon. Doris Chaney McGill came over the rise on F 168 just south of Olton and hit hail piled on the highway, lost control of her late model car and went into the left ditch and through a fence.

Royce Turner of Pleasant Valley is recovering from a freak accident caused by a hail storm in the Earth area Friday afternoon. Turner was taken to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock after he was hit in the eye by a hail stone.

Turner was turning into his driveway at his farm in the Pleasant Valley community when his vision was obstructed by blowing dust and rain. He rolled down his pickup window to look out when he thought his vehicle was about to touch a highline wire, and a hail stone struck him in the eye.

Rainfall totals for Thursday, Friday and Saturday varied widely. In the Bula community residents reported not more than a half inch total, while as much as 4.5 inches were recorded between Springlake and Olton.

An additional .30 to .45 were recorded in Littlefield Tuesday, bringing rainfall in the city limits of Littlefield to more than 2 inches.

Band In Contest

The Littlefield Wildcat Band left early this morning to participate in the 1972 Six Flags Over Texas Band Festival, slated for today and Friday.

The Wildcats will be competing against other AA schools at 1:30 Friday.

Loyalty Day Rated Big Success Here

Saturday was a big day in Littlefield, when citizens waved flags, and viewed patriotic floats during the third annual Loyalty Day Parade, and ate barbecue, potato salad and all the trimmings during the annual Band Boosters' Barbecue.

Besides all the gaiety and eating, citizens trekked to the polls to express opinions in the Democratic and Republican primary elections.

Hail and rain threatened the evening barbecue, but hungry citizens turned out anyway to eat in the shelter of the Community Center.

The Circle Eight Square Dance Club of Littlefield won first place with their float entry "American Heritage", and Muleshoe's Chamber of Commerce took second place float honors when their "Ambassadors Saluted America." Red Andrews Trucking's "The Red Baron" was the third place winner.

The Lubbock Rangers took first place in the riding club division and Lamb County Sheriff's Posse won second.

Littlefield's Junior High School Band and the Whitharral High School Band were presented certificates of recognition for their participation in the parade.

A military color guard added a touch of patriotism and color to the event.

Approximately $900 was added to the coffers at the bank for the Band Boosters from proceeds of the noon and supper barbecue meals. All of the bands played in concerts during the two meals.

The money from the barbecue will be used to purchase additional equipment and aid the bands in other ways, according to Band Boosters President Hubert Henry.

Voters Favor Briscoe, Tower

Lamb County voters turned out 3,035 strong to vote in Saturday's first general election primary and joined the statewide trend of general political housecleaning by voting overwhelming disapproval of the incumbent governor.

Dolph Briscoe won the popular vote thumbs up over Gov. Preston Smith and hopeful Ben Barnes, polling 1,856 to Smith's 366 and Barnes' 437.

Barefoot Sanders polled an even 400 more votes than Ralph Yarbrough in the Democrat's U.S. Senate race.

Eighty-three of the 92 Republican votes cast favored John G. Tower. Albert Bel Fay received a simple majority vote as governor on the Republican ticket.

Lamb County Democrats showed their disapproval of forced busing of public school children to achieve racial balance almost seven to one.

Republicans expressed more disapproval over daylight savings time than on the busing referendum, with 61 to 13 against the time change and 58 to 17 showing disapproval of forced busing.

There were 6,696 qualified voters in Lamb County eligible to vote in the first primary. Heavy rains Saturday afternoon and a severe thunderstorm warning over the county were blamed for a lighter turn-out than was predicted.

See page 12 for voting totals by precincts in contested races and the busing issue.

BAND BOOSTERS moved their evening barbecue inside the Community Center after a downpour of rain and hail threatened the event. Hundreds turned out for the meal in spite of the bad weather.

FIRST PLACE FLOAT in the Loyalty Day Parade Saturday afternoon was sponsored by the Circle 8 Square Dance Club of Littlefield. Theme of the parade was "True Patriotism Through Positive Action", and theme for the float was "American Heritage". Thousands of citizens lined Phelps Avenue to watch the parade, which featured bands, Marine honor guards, old cars, and riding clubs in addition to the floats.

Mrs. Baird taught her sons to take personal responsibility for the quality of their products.

MRS. BAIRD'S

And today Mrs. Baird's is still judged by men of the Baird family... because they still care for personal supervision.

CHARYL RUSSELL

WELL, IT'S nearly here, you know... the last day of school! Just think... three whole months of summer and just goofing around. Oh, you, some of you have to work, too.

Tests are coming up, so those of you who are failing better work... or ELSE!!

Mary K.M. — I don't think I should get a zero on this paper.

Mr. Burch — Well, I don't either, but that's the lowest mark I could give you.

Sherry Shotwell: Here's an autograph of Mark Twain.

Karen Carter: All I see is an X.

Sherry S.: That's his "mark."

Karen C.: Where's his "Twain"?

Sherry S.: Down at the station.

A seventh grade boy ranked second in his class. Top place was held by a girl. "Surely, son," his father asked, "you aren't going to allow yourself to be beaten by a mere girl, are you?" "But, Dad," the boy said, "girls aren't as mere as they used to be."

LAST WEEK, elections were held for Happiness Is . . .

The Last Three Weeks!!!

student council. Junior High council for next year consists of: Jerry Stamps, president; Becky Dunn, Shelley Collins, Mike Williams, and Kim McKinnon, freshmen representatives. Eighth grade representatives are Sherry Shotwell, Jill Hinkley, Blake Wood and Kyle Shipley. Sophomore officers are: Rickye Parker, president; Michelle Sawyer, vice president; Regina Williams, secretary; Kim Wood, treasurer. Representatives are: Sharla Grant, Sheila Dangerfield, Ben Farmer and Roy Turner.

Cheerleader tryouts were also held. Cheerleaders for next year are: Patti Chisholm, head cheerleader, Lori Wilkinson, Debra Johnson, Kathy Elliott and Susie Giles. Sophomore cheerleader is Shebra Johnson.

Friday afternoon, at high school those trying out for twirlers and drum-majors were judged. The Junior High twirlers will be Sherry Shotwell, head twirler; Lana Ratliff, Susan Ogerly, and Karen Carter, and Debbie Spencer as alternate. Kathy Walker will represent the sophomore class as a high school majorette. Lisa 'Sue' Garland will be junior high drum-major. Congratulations, and good luck!

Fat pedestrian knocked down by car: Couldn't you have gone around me?

Tommy B.: I wasn't sure that I had enough gas left.

One day a girl offered to make her father a sponge cake. When it came time for him to try the first slice, the girl had to admit, "I threw it away. It didn't turn out too well. I think I must have bought the wrong kind of sponges."

THE DRAMA CLUB is working on the play, "With Bells on Their Toes." It is a "come back" of "Cheaper by the Dozen," last year's play. It will be presented around the 16th of May. Everyone come! (Please)

THE SECOND driver's ed class should be over in a few weeks, and then they will have their restricted license, too. Can you imagine about 60 freshmen with their license? And accompanied by a licensed driver over 21?!

HAVE A GOOD week and may the bird of paradise fly around your world!!!

School Improvement Aim Of P-TA President

Brenda Wilkinson, newly elected PTA president is setting sights for improving our schools.

May 4, a called meeting of the Littlefield PTA was held in the REA Willy Room. School needs were openly discussed, with suggestions and opinions aired.

The principals of each building agreed that the rocky playground area was of concern.

Interested men who are to look into the situation are Pat Bradley, Dutch Wilkinson and R.D. Garland. Dr. Albert Perkins is drawing up a master plan of the school grounds and buildings.

"It is hoped that all parents interested in improving our schools will take an active interest in this needy project," stated the new PTA president.

"There are many things to be done and many people willing to be of service," she continued.

"All persons interested in helping in any way are asked to contact one of the building representatives. Ideas and suggestions are always welcome," she said.

Representatives are: Jane Byers, Primary; Kay Tunnell, Elementary I; Landa Clayton, Elementary II; Jane Maddox, Jr. High; and Carolyn West, High School.

Officers for 1972-1973 PTA are: Mrs. Brenda Wilkinson, president; Mrs. Dee Dee Davis, vice president; Mrs. Dwyce Ratliff, secretary; Mrs. Sandy Bradley, treasurer; Mrs. C.R. Stevens, historian and press book; and James Settle, parliamentarian.

L.H.S. Has State Champions

Vicky Davis, LHS senior, brought home a state championship trophy in journalism this week after winning a first place in State AA Competition as well as a first place in all conferences at the state UIL literary events meet in Austin.

Miss Davis and Pam Brandt, junior journalism student, flew to Austin last Thursday to enter the Friday competition at the University of Texas. They were accompanied by their sponsor and teacher, Mrs. Amy Turner.

Miss Brandt also placed third in the state in AA-conference headline writing.

Miss Davis' winning feature story was on a young boy named Tom Sawyer who excelled in his class at school and received a large scholarship. Students in the UIL contest were given one hour to write their stories. They had no previous knowledge of the material.

"Vicky used the Tom Sawyer name to give her story an unusual twist," Mrs. Turner commented Monday. "She's a very creative student and I'm not at all surprised at her winning this honor."

Vicky, however, seemed considerably surprised. "I don't know how I won!" she said. "I'm just not that good."

Others apparently disagree with her, including the judges who picked Vicky as the top high school feature writer in the state of Texas.

"Of course, she's that good," her teacher laughed. "Vicky should definitely be a writer. She has the talent and has had the ideas."

Beryl Harris, LHS principal, also offered his congratulations to the students this week.

"I offer my congratulations to Vicky on her tremendous accomplishment, as well as to Pam and to all others who have represented us so well in our Interscholastic League competition. I hope everyone realizes what a real accomplishment that these students have attained for themselves, Littlefield, and Littlefield High School," he commented.

Prior to the state honors, Miss Davis had placed first in both district and regional feature writing. Miss Brandt this year has taken firsts in district editorial writing and headline writing, first in regional headline writing, and second in regional editorial headline writing, in addition to the third place state honor.

Tina Russell, junior journalism student, also placed first this year in district news writing.

THE WINNERS—Vicky Davis and Pam Brandt proudly display their medals and trophies which they won at the state meeting last weekend in Austin.

LHS SPEAKS OUT

Like Seniors?

Survey question asked LHS students this week was: If you could be like any senior, who would you be like? Why?

Most of the answers received from juniors and sophomores were not exactly flattering to seniors. Here are a few samples.

Terry Bryson, sophomore — Danny Estrada — so I could call him a wetback and get away with it.

Mike Hopper, junior — Nobody I haven't seen one I would like to be like, and that's the truth.

Melvin Johnson, junior — Mark Rogers, because I could use his brains.

Mike Morris, junior — Dennis Hartley, because he is a scoundrel.

Danny Rendon, sophomore — Like Brent because of the girl he goes with.

Robby Newton, sophomore — Any guy who has good looks, money, a great personality and physique.

Billie Pierce, junior — Mary Davidson, because she's so gay and happy. She really gives Mrs. Ayres the go around.

Tina Russell, junior — Carol Ann (Chisholm) because she's so dumb in Algebra II.

Vicki Grimes, junior — Marsha Starnes and Linda Horn because they both have great personalities and are so friendly.

Kendall Cline, sophomore — Anyone that is passing and getting out of school.

Dona Davis, sophomore — Cynthia Adair, because she was a cheerleader.

Shelly Grant, junior — Marsha Starnes — she has all the love and joy in her heart that I'd like to have.

Monte Angel, junior — Any

SENIOR RINGS

At the end of each story that a reporter writes, the symbol -30- is traditionally used to signify its end.

Likewise, this same symbol is placed next to a staff member's name when he leaves the publication. The Skat will recognize graduating staff members in its staff boxes this week by placing a -30- next to their names.

Skat staffers consistently make sacrifices to present the news every week to the community. This recognition is not only a public goodby, but a tribute to their efforts.
