

Wildcats And Lobos To Battle Over Trap Friday

There's no question that they'll be an improved ball club," head coach Blakely stated as he looked over the report on Littlefield's next game, the Levelland Lobos. They have several offensive and defensive starters back and they've been picked by many as co-favorites for district's number one slot. They platoon most of the way and this is always a factor in a real physical ballgame as I expect this one to be." Levelland defeated Brownfield last Friday night 9-8 as Lorenzo Childers scored the Lobos' only touchdown and Levelland picked up two more points on a safety to provide the winning margin. Quarterback Bobby Smith leads the Lobo attack and Wildcat fans should remember him from last year as he threw two touchdown passes to returning end, Marty Estes. Another Lobo, who has been given a lot of consideration this week by the Wildcat coaching staff, is halfback Mike Govan who gained over 165 yards last year, plus scoring two touchdowns.

Possibly Levelland's best backfield member is 160-lb. fullback Gilbert Ramos who has been described as a "very determined runner." The Lobos run out of a wishbone formation that makes the triple option always a threat, plus giving added power to sweeps. Defensively, Levelland uses multiple defenses with various alignments and stunts. "As a matter of fact," Blakely added, "their defensive linemen and linebackers spent almost as much time in the Brownfield backfield as the Brownfield backs did."

secondary are Turner, Lichte, Patterson or Schlottman, outside linebackers are Richard Barton, Elms, or Durham. Inside linebackers will be either Payton or Cruz, defensive ends will be either Farmer, Larry McDonald or Blevins, while the defensive tackle slots will be manned by either Hopping, McCain or Soria.

"Of course we all know that this is the annual battle for the 'Trap' and word from Levelland is that they're going to turn out en masse for this game," Blakely added, "but we know that the Littlefield fans will be there in force as always too. I'd like to express appreciation in behalf of the entire school system for the turnout at Cooper and know everyone that can, will be in Levelland Friday night."

Reflecting back over the Cooper game of last Friday, Blakely said that they were disappointed from the standpoint that "we lost a game we should have won. As for the turning point of the game, there's no doubt that it was the blocked punt and their subsequent score. The fact that we lost our poise after their score was also disappointing. However, this is characteristic of an inexperienced team and we will overcome this as the season progresses."

The kickoff is at 8 p.m. and will be played at Lobo Stadium in Levelland. For the Levelland game, Buddy Jungman will definitely be out and possibly he'll be out for three weeks. Rick Hopping will alternate with Steve Cruz in the fullback slot in Jungman's place while Reginald Payton will take over Jungman's defensive position at middle linebacker.

"We had an opportunity to put the game out of reach in the first half and could have been leading by 21-0 in the third quarter, but our offense was unable to take advantage of the opportunities it had. We were pleased with the way our offensive line played... they were vastly improved over the Tulsa scrimmage. Also, we were pleased the way our defense played for three quarters."

Expected starters for the Wildcats for this week include Ronald Farmer at quarterback, Rick Hopping at fullback, Bill Turner at tailback, either Stanley Patterson or Sammy Schlottman at halfback, Gary Lichte and Kip Elms at ends, Ben Farmer and Jimmy Durham at tackles, Jerry Soria and Doug McCain or Larry McDonald at guards and David Blevins at center. Expected to start in the defensive

"Jerry Soria, Ben Farmer and David Blevins had good efforts on the offensive line while Rick Hopping, Farmer and Gary Lichte all turned in good defensive games," Blakely added.

Certified Speech Therapist Hired In Meeting Monday

The Littlefield School Board of Trustees smoothly disposed of a seven-item agenda Monday night in their regularly scheduled meeting. The highlight of the meeting was the employment of a certified speech therapist for the school system. Mrs. Chelyne Flaniken, who for the last three years has headed a nine-member team in San Antonio in a language and learning disability program, was hired on a three-day a week basis. Superintendent Jack York stated that Mrs. Flaniken will work primarily with the kindergarten, first and second grades and then eventually work into the third and fourth grades. $290 of her salary will be paid from local funds while the state of Texas will pay the rest of her salary. In other action, the board approved a motion to transfer the general funds to the superintendent's office from the tax office, passed a resolution authorizing Tax Assessor-Collector Carlton Parker to borrow up to $90,000 to meet the September payroll if the need arises, postponed action on re-roofing Elementary I, approved the financial statement, and received a comparative report from Supt. York concerning enrollment figures as of Sept. 6:

Pollard, Bryson, Hensley First Weekly Contest Winners

Lloyd Pollard of Route 1 Sudan won first place in the opening football guessing contest this season by picking all the winners except the Denver City loss to Seminole. By predicting 12 winners, Pollard wins the first place $5 weekly prize outright and is on his way toward racking up the most points for the grand prize of $25 and tickets to the New Year's Day Cotton Bowl classic at the close of the season. Eight contestants predicted 10 winners each to bunch up and tie for the two other weekly prizes. On the basis of the tie-breaker scores, T. W. Bryson gained the $3 second place check and Larry Hensley came in third for the $2 weekly prize. Hensley and Arthur McLelland were only two points apart in taking the $2 spot. Other contestants with 10 correct choices were Dana Clayton of Littlefield, Jimmy Randolph of Earth, Jeff Birkelbach of Littlefield, Richard Rogers of Littlefield, John L. Smith of Lubbock, and Lamar Pollard.

Refrigerator Review

By DOROTHY POWELL
Lamb County Extension Agent

Need a refrigerator to replace one that has conked out? Don't look down on a less-than-new appliance. It may not be very glamorous, but it can be a real lifesaver. Of course, there is some risk in buying a used appliance but you can make it less of a gamble by following these guidelines.

Before you shop, look over the new models. Check sizes, features and prices so you'll have an idea if the price of the used refrigerator is reasonable.

How old is the appliance? The life expectancy of a new refrigerator is about 16 years. Of course, some will last longer and some less, depending on how they are cared for. Later models will usually last longer and require less service.

Where you buy is important. A dealer who sells new refrigerators may sell used ones, too. He usually knows the condition of the appliances he sells. He may offer a guarantee as well as parts and service if you need them later. Ask him about delivery and installation.

You need some information if you buy directly from the owner. Did the owner buy it new? How much service and repair did it need? How long has it been used? Why is it being sold?

Check the outside of the refrigerator for damage. The inside should be clean and free of odor. All the accessories and shelves should be in place and in good condition. Make sure the gasket around the door is soft and seals tightly. To check the gasket, close the door on a sheet of paper. If the paper is easily pulled out, the gasket needs replacing.

What type of freezing compartment does the refrigerator have? Does it automatically defrost? Consider your needs such as storage space, size, right-hand or left-hand door opening, and kitchen arrangement. Measure your space and the refrigerator to be sure it will fit.

Minister To Present Act For Special Services Here

El Calvario Baptist Church will be conducting a weekend revival at their location on 1100 College Street in Littlefield, beginning Friday and continuing through Sunday. Nightly services will be conducted at 7:30, and the pastor, Celestino Rangel, extends an invitation to the public to attend any of the services.

Guest speakers will include Rev. George Borden of Wichita Falls, a former student priest who will bring his life's testimony; and Rev. P. R. Martinez of Junction, who will deliver the Gospel message in a unique way. Rev. Martinez is pastor of the Goodwill Baptist Mission at Junction and becomes the "victim" of several acts performed during the services.

He quotes John 20:25—"Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe."

He continues, "Many people are very much like Thomas, people find it difficult to believe unless they can see with their eyes."

A flat rock which is 1 1/2 inches thick and 18 inches by 18 inches square resting on the minister's stomach is to be broken into bits by the one heavy blow of a heavy hand axe.

Rev. Martinez was unshaken, and demonstrates the act wherever he holds a revival. He usually announces what he will attempt the following.

Rev. Martinez also makes use of Karate, as he breaks a board in two with one blow with his bare hand. The boards are 1x12x12 inches, and he starts by chopping one board at a time, and works up to three boards at once.

Witnesses say that when he gets tired of breaking boards with his hand he uses his head and also his elbows with the greatest of ease.

Several other acts will be performed, and according to the church's pastor, "Rev. Martinez uses these means and other means for the glory of God. He has used his talents to win the lost to Christ, as he has performed in Texas cities and in Mexico with good results."

Census Survey To Get Data On Immunization

The Bureau of the Census will survey a sample of households in this area the week of Sept. 16-20 to determine the extent people have been immunized against selected diseases, according to Percy R. Millard, director of the bureau's regional office in Dallas.

Census Bureau interviewer who will visit households in this area is Rosemary McNeese of Rt. 1, Amherst.

The immunization survey conducted nationally every year, provides information on immunization against measles, influenza, smallpox, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, rubella, and mumps. This information is needed for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention.

These health questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor. Results of the monthly employment survey provides data on conditions in the labor force, prime indicators of the economic health of the country. For example, the Nation's unemployment rate was 5.3 percent in July; it was 5.2 percent in the previous two months and had held in the 5.0 to 5.2 percent range since the beginning of the year. Total employment was 86.3 million in July, essentially unchanged from June but up by 500,000 since April.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is held confidential by law and is used only to compile statistical totals.

Sun Can Hurt

By DR. J. R. FAIN

SKIN CANCER is the most widespread and curable of all the more than 100 forms of cancer.

The skin is the body's largest organ. It protects the body from injury, eliminates waste, regulates our temperature, and receives sensory impressions.

ABNORMAL CONDITIONS often develop which in most cases are non-cancerous but sometimes the sore that doesn't heal is cancer.

Cancer of the skin is readily detectable. One should bring any suspicious skin changes or sores to the attention of a physician.

ANY DARK BROWN or black molelike growth which becomes ulcerated or bleeds is suspect. Any lump, scaly area or white spot on the lips or in the mouth which lasts longer than two weeks should be seen by a physician.

Anyone can develop skin cancer although it is most prevalent among people with fair complexions who are exposed to excessive sunlight.

TREATMENT FOR SKIN cancer is by surgery, radiation or a combination of both.

Of course one should avoid prolonged exposure to sunlight as a major way of preventing skin cancer.

THE LAMB COUNTY UNIT of the American Cancer Society received three awards Monday night in a meeting at Earth in the Community Center. Making the presentations to the Lamb County Unit President Joella Lovvorn, is Paul Archinal of Lubbock, Area I Public Information Chairman. Awards presented were the Golden Achievement Award to the county and to Crusade Chairman Mrs. Harold Phillips for "reaching an all-time high in Crusade income and for exceeding the per capita goal of the Texas Division in the 1974 Crusade to Conquer Cancer"; and the certificate of authorization to the Lamb County Unit from the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society. Cancer Unit Awarded Golden Achievement

The Lamb County Unit of the American Cancer Society received the coveted Golden Achievement Award Monday night during a monthly meeting in the Community Center in Earth.

Making the presentation was Paul Archinal of Lubbock, known to many as Admiral Foghorn of television fame, who serves as Area I Public Information Chairman.

Accepting the award for the Lamb County Unit and for the Crusade Chairman Mrs. Harold Phillips, was the unit chairman, Joella Lovvorn. Miss Lovvorn stated, "I accept these on behalf of all the citizens in the county who made the award possible. They have given of their time, effort and money to reach an all-time high in Crusade income, and in the special Swim-A-Thon to raise last-minute money."

Archinal also presented the Certificate of Authorization to the unit.

Total raised during the 1973-74 year was $9,618, compared to the past best year of $9,539. The total of $9,618 was broken into two divisions, crusade, $8,965; and memorials $653.

Other county units in District 3 which earned the award were Cochran, Floyd North and Floyd South, Hall, Lynn Parmer and Terry.

During the program, a film on quackery, starring Robert Ryan and titled "Journey Into Darkness" was shown to citizens from Pep, Earth and Littlefield who attended.

During the business meeting, the appointment of service-rehabilitation chairmen for the county, and the listing of the American Cancer Society in the telephone directory were discussed. No appointments were made, but are being considered.

Ed Jones, District 3 Executive Director, informed the board members that 76 cancer patients had been registered in the county through the third quarter of the year, and that there are a total of 80 medical personnel in the county—including doctors, nurses, dentists, etc.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

An Apology Helps

AT THE VERY BEST, all of us make some mistakes; because none of us can be perfect in our speech and action. Some of us may make fewer mistakes than others, but none of us can live without some mistakes.

It is possible that we can make some improvements, as we move along from day to day; but there will always be some words, and decisions, and actions which are unwise and out of order.

WE MUST NOT become discouraged by our deficient behavior, because most of it can be corrected. In the instances involving other people, "an apology helps." When such is indicated, the sincere apology will help more than anything else.

It indicates our proper regard for the personal worth and well-being of others, and is also expressive of some of the very highest life qualities of which we are capable.

"AN APOLOGY" IS "an admission of error or discourtesy accompanied by an expression of regret." This, however, must never be a degrading or downgrading of one's self. Of course, we will feel a strong sense of humility; but this, or itself, does not tear us down.

In fact, this action, when it is wholesome and intelligent, is up building. It is part of the process of substantial self-improvement. In this framework, we have the opportunity to make some of our most substantial progress in both personal behavior and in our relationships with others.

"I WILL NEVER APOLOGIZE" position some people take. They know that they should do so, but they decide that they are willing to pay the price for their stubbornness: the standpoint of the most wholehearted of life, however, none of us can pay this price.

Yes, we may get by without the apology; but this failure is a permanent burden, and with extent, lessen our personal effectiveness.

SOME CONSEQUENCES from a refusal to apologize are deplorable. Friendships are broken; marriages fail; jobs are lost; mind is disturbed; and accidents occur; because someone will not apologize.

"AN APOLOGY HELPS" though it may not get us everything we desire.

NEGLECT TO APOLOGIZE is the action that should be avoided. It is the kind of neglect that just hurts. The ultimate result is as refusing to apologize.

"I WILL APOLOGIZE IF" is a common failure. There is a situation in which it is justified, but as a general principle it is not justified.

If apology is in order, we should do it. "An Apology Helps."

CLIPS & TIPS

By JOELLA LOVVORN

IF RECIPES can be honored with distinguished service awards, Marshmallow Treats would probably qualify.

Since its introduction to the public 35 years ago, this popular confection has been featured regularly on packages of oven-toasted rice cereal. It has also been the subject of all kinds of consumer letters.

A homemaker writes: "At Easter time, I make a little confection that is great for kids... a welcome item for the Easter basket crowd."

OTHERS WRITE to share their pleasure at the bake sale proceeds brought by Marshmallow Treats.

Our organization made a clear 80 percent profit from the sale of these Treats.

Still others report the success of sending them in "care" packages. A mother writes:

"I just must tell you what a hit Marshmallow Treats made with my son, now living in Hawaii. He writes back and says he and his friends are crazy about the Treats."

NO MATTER what the time or place, when you try this recipe, you're in for a treat... Marshmallow Treats, that is.

MARSHMALLOW TREATS

1/4 cup regular margarine or butter
1 pkg. (6 to 10 oz.) regular marshmallows (about 40) or 4 cups miniature marshmallows
5 cups oven-toasted rice cereal

1. Measure margarine into 3-quart saucepan; melt over low heat. Add marshmallows and cook, stirring constantly, until marshmallows are melted and mixture is very syrupy. Remove from heat.

2. Add oven-toasted rice cereal; stir until well coated.

3. Spread warm mixture in buttered 13x9x2-inch pan. Using waxed paper or buttered spatula press firmly into an even layer. Cut into squares when cool.

Yield: 24 squares, 2x2 inches.
Note: For thicker squares, press warm mixture into a buttered 9x9x2-inch pan. Best results are obtained when using fresh marshmallows.

BREAKFAST DOESN'T have to be the same boring meal every day, according to one foods and nutrition specialist.

"Breakfast is still important to restore energy for the day ahead, but a 'good' breakfast doesn't have to be the traditional bacon, eggs, biscuits, juice and milk," says Sally Springer, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Breakfast should supply some protein food and a vitamin C-rich fruit.

Sources of protein that are often overlooked for breakfast are peanut-butter toast, toasted cheese or some other favorite sandwich, or hard-cooked eggs," she said.

You can eat these "portable foods" at the bus stop or even while riding to school or work.

The specialist stressed the importance of protein at breakfast, because "without it energy sags around 10 a.m."

Turning to fruit, she suggested adding sliced peaches, oranges, pineapple chunks or melon balls to your favorite fruit juice.

"Surprise your family—serve something a little different for breakfast," she advises.

HERE'S A GOOD recipe for blueberry cake. It makes a mighty good dessert for the family meal. And besides, it's easy to make.

BLUEBERRY CAKE
One package yellow cake mix
1 tsp. vanilla
1 can (1 lb., 5 oz.) blueberry pie filling
2 eggs, beaten

Using a large mixing bowl, combine all ingredients until well blended. Pour into a 9 1/2 x 13 1/4 inch greased cake pan and bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes or until cake is done when tested.

Frosting? Use your favorite white frosting.

DID YOU KNOW that popcorn contains more food energy than 96 percent of all edible foods?

DID YOU KNOW that about three billion pounds of fish and shell fish are caught commercially for food in the U.S. annually?

USE A MUFFIN tin to make individual salad and dessert gelatin molds. In half the tins, mix grated vegetables with the gelatin and in the other half, add fruit and/or nuts. Presto! You have both salad and dessert ready. With this swell gel idea, you can even "personalize" each portion to individual taste. (Tip: If you coat each tin with mayonnaise before-hand, mold will slide out easier.)

LOVE ITALIAN FOOD and watching your weight too? Use ricotta cheese instead of cottage cheese and mozzarella cheese in place of processed cheddar when making lasagna. You'll really cut down on calories.

WHEN WASHING fruit, it's a good idea not to let the fruit stand in water. Some lose food value and flavor that way and others get "water soaked."

Wildcat JV Whips Sudan, By 42-0

The Littlefield Wildcat JV team ran over an outclassed Sudan JV Thursday, 42-0.

According to Eddie Hooper, JV coach, the young Wildcats had a good overall effort and singled out Danny Martinez's defensive efforts as stopping several Sudan scoring threats. Offensively, Hooper pointed out the play of Jack Speck, Dennis McCain, Layne McKinnon and Kevin Yandel.

The 'Cats scored on their first offensive effort as Terry Foley scooted 30 yards for the first TD. It didn't take Littlefield long to score again as they recovered a fumble deep in the Hornet's territory and Rudy Ayala passed 25 yards to Martinez for the score. Ayala scored the extra points after the first two scores and the first quarter ended with Littlefield ahead 16-0.

In the second quarter, Blake Wood scored on a 40-yard run and again Ayala scored two to make it 24-0.

Martinez scored first in the third quarter and for the first time, the 'Cats did not convert on the point after try but the score was 30-0 at this time. Ayala passed to Martinez late in the third quarter to make the score 36-0 going into the final frame.

Wood scored the final TD for Littlefield to make it 42-0.

The next game for the Wildcat JV will be Sept. 19 at Levelland at 5:30 p.m.

Gamebirds Need Cover Plants

Gamebirds need cover plants for hiding and nesting, according to Robert L. Powers, soil conservationist. Grain and grass seed furnish plenty of food for birds in Lamb County. However, plants that provide shelter are often few and far between.

Bobwhite quail need dense type shrubs or bushes to provide escape, loafing, and nesting places. Without good cover, quail populations may remain low even when adequate food is available.

Farmers can plant windbreak trees to help provide some cover. Planting a mixture of trees and shrubs in windbreaks gives variety. "Mixed cover is better for wildlife", Powers said.

Russian olive is one shrub-type tree that benefits birds. It grows well in Lamb County and can be mixed with taller growing windbreak trees.

Wildlife areas can be developed by planting trees and shrubs in the dry corners left by pivot irrigation sprinklers. An acre or two in each corner will protect many birds. Livestock shelter is another benefit gained from these trees and shrub plantings.

Pheasant need tall grasses during late spring for nesting. Additional information on tree plantings for wildlife can be obtained by contacting the local Soil Conservation Service.

Many women veterans who did not use their GI Bill after the Korean Conflict now have a second chance at Veterans Administration financial help for a college education or other training, under a new law, according to Jack Coker, VA Regional Office Director. When eligibility for this veteran's benefit was recently extended two more years for all veterans discharged after Jan. 31, 1955, it had a special significance for women veterans whose children are reaching ages that allow them more free time.

The deadline for completion of training is now May 31, 1976, or ten years from the veteran's date of discharge, whichever is later.

Of the some 160,000 women veterans eligible for current GI Bill school benefits, about 54,000 have trained under this program.

This spring, nearly 21,000 were in training, mostly in college. Only 209 were on-the-job trainees.

Below college level training is available in a wide range of occupations such as hotel or motel manager, specialty shop or store manager, and hairdresser, plus other programs also open to men.

Women veterans of the Air Force lead in GI Bill training, with 15,672 having trained. Army is running second with 15,361.

In addition to veterans, 3,909 servicewomen have trained under the current GI Bill, of whom 842 were in training in April.

BUSINESS ROLE IN OIL DIPLOMACY

"Official government policies and negotiations cannot solve problems alone. I believe the best results will come when official diplomacy is complemented with effective 'business' or 'industrial' diplomacy. Business should leave strictly government policies to governments. But they should not hesitate to play an active role in helping to build viable economic relations with oil-producing and non-oil producing countries." — Charles H. Smith, Jr., chairman of the board of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and chairman of SIFCO Industries, Inc., Cleveland.
