RATE $1.09 FOR 6TH YEAR

City OK's Budget, Tax Rate

By JOELLA LOVVORN
News Editor, Leader-News

City Councilmen approved a budget of $628,089 for fiscal year 1969-70 and for the sixth year in a row, set the ad valorem tax rate at $1.09 during their regular meeting Thursday night.

No one appeared to contest the budget as it was presented, and councilmen unanimously adopted it. The new budget is $61,266 over the budget for fiscal year 1968-69, and was the sixth year that the ad valorem tax rate has remained at $1.09 beginning with fiscal year 1964-65.

"The proposed budget is balanced, and the program of work presented can be accomplished with present estimated revenues, thereby eliminating the necessity of a tax increase or service rate increases," City Manager Jim Shearer told the councilmen.

"To balance the proposed budget, it was necessary to delete and postpone several needed items which we had hoped to accomplish next year," Shearer continued.

"However, the program of work as proposed, would provide for continued progress and improvements in municipal services, the personnel organization, and accomplishment of certain vital needs which were eliminated from last year's budget proposal by necessity," Shearer said.

Some of the significant features of the proposed program of service will include:

1. Replacement of two police patrol cars;
2. Replacement of the 750 gallon water tank on a fire department pumper truck;
3. Replacement of one garbage pucker unit in the refuse collection department;
4. Replacement of the Dempster Dumpster truck;
5. First annual payment for the sanitary landfill track loader, $7,142;
6. Addition of one equipment operator for the sanitary landfill disposal system;
7. Replacement of the street sweeper at an estimated cost of $14,900;
8. Increased appropriations for street lighting in certain residential and business areas;
9. A proposal of $7,950 for improvements and maintenance of paved streets;
10. Increase in costs for employee hospitalization insurance and workmen's compensation insurance;
11. Reinstatement of the subsidy to the municipal airport operator which was deleted in last year's budget, $3,600;
12. Increased estimates for chemicals and electricity to operate the new sewer plant;
13. Replacement of a 2-inch water line in the high school addition for better service;
14. Requirements for debt retirement are increased by necessity in the amount of $5,145, as compared to the previous fiscal year, and
15. Salary increases are proposed for employees based upon the pay plan adopted by the City Council in July of 1968.

Of the total $628,089, in expenditures for next year, $363,769 will be from the general fund, $133,225 will come from the water and sewer fund, $60 from the migrant health fund, and $131,035 in total debt requirements—which includes $59,475, general obligation tax bonds and $71,560, water and sewer revenue bonds.

A summary of expenditures from the general fund by account includes:

- Legislative, $11,541.
- Administrative, $15,374.
- City Secretary—Tax assessing, collecting, $21,023.
- Legal—Corporation Court, $3,889.
- Police Department, $71,604.
- Fire Department, $25,236.
- Building Inspection, $7,565.
- Refuse collection, $88,841.
- Street department, $93,533.

Park and recreation, $20,813.

Airport, $4,350.

A summary of expenditures in the three accounts of the water and sewer fund includes:

Billing and collection, $40,387.

Sewage collection and disposal, $25,504.

Water production and distribution, $67,334.

Other items on the lengthy agenda included approving the bills for payment and reading and approving the minutes of the previous meeting.

Councilmen appointed Charles Russell to serve a three-year term on the Board of City Development. I. D. Onstead had requested that he be replaced on the Board.

L. D. Hafley, municipal airport manager, appeared to discuss some of the problems and progress the airport has at present. After presenting a need for building a repair shop, councilmen asked Hafley to come back with some figures of costs involved, then they would consider the situation.

Councilmen considered a request for street lighting on West 9th Street, and voted to install lights on corners of Westside and Wicker on 9th.

Councilmen discussed the recent rural telephone rate increases of the Littlefield exchange, and denied they had anything to do with the rural rate increases.

"When we talked with General Telephone representatives about the Anton to Littlefield and Littlefield to Anton direct dial service, we were not informed of any rural increase, and even if we had, we would have had no jurisdiction over it," Mayor J. E. Chisholm emphasized.

The discussion about the rural

LAMB COUNTY CITIZENS are again filling Christmas "Ditty Bags" for U. S. Servicemen in Vietnam. To the left is Mrs. Ruth Wade, executive secretary of the Lamb County Chapter of American Red Cross, who is being assisted by Mrs. Lyle Brandon and Mrs. Doris Frey as they place articles in the bags. Volunteers assisted with making the bags, and placed white cotton socks, tooth brushes, combs, writing paper, calendars, personal telephone directory booklet, wash cloths, and pens in them. Several businesses have donated items.

EXPLAINS LAW

Offensive Mail Flows

Member influx of offensive advertising mail mailed to Littlefield residents has increased lately.

A person receiving mail considered to have authority under a new law to ask that he and family members receive no more mail of any kind from the sender, according to Thompson, acting postmaster.

There is a law prohibiting pandering advertisements, Thompson said. An advertisement is considered pandering if it is to sell material which is, in the opinion of the recipient, "erotically or sexually provocative." This can be in any form—display, printed or editorial-style—and it is up to the individual receiving the mail to say whether he finds such mail offensive, Thompson said.

Persons who have received offensive mail fill out a form at the post office and mail it to the postmaster. The sender is also ordered to remove the family's name from any lists he owns, controls or rents. Thompson said persons receiving offensive mail are often shocked by the contents they find offensive or to be morally harmful to their children. In many cases these ads are not obscene and are therefore not illegal, he said, but are clearly offensive in many homes.

Filling out the post office form 123, this law gives the recipient the right to decide what mail from a firm sending out what is considered offensive.

The Post Office Department and the Department of Justice are required by law to follow several specific steps in carrying out a family's request that it receive no more mail from a firm.

When the patron's request is properly submitted, the Post Office Department sends a prohibitory order directing the sender to refrain from any further mailing of any kind to the complaining patron. This is effective 30 days after the sender's receipt of the order.

The patron then should bring any violation of the order to the attention of the postmaster who issued the order, enclosing all evidence, such as a second mailing of its envelope.

If the mailer still fails to respect the order, the Postmaster General will ask the Attorney General to apply for a federal court order directing compliance. Failure to observe the court's order may be punishable by a fine or imprisonment.

Superintendent, Board In Austin

Superintendent of Littlefield Schools, Paul I. Jones, and board of education members W. W. Birkelbach, E. D. (Buddy) Bingham and Pat Downs left early this morning for the annual meeting of the Texas Association of School Boards and the Texas Association of School Administrators two-day Austin convention.

Pat Downs is a voting delegate for the Sunday business session.

The group plans to return to Littlefield late Monday night.

Rendon's Viet Action Earns Bronze Star

On Sept. 9, the Bronze Star was awarded by The President of the United States to Specialist Four Jesse Rendon of the United States Army.

son of Manuel Rendon of Anton and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Spade.

Distinction was given to Rendon in Vietnam and states "The Bronze Star was presented to Specialist Four Rendon, United States Army, distinguished himself by meritorious service in connection with military operations in a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam.

During the period September 1968 to September 1969 he consistently manifested exemplary professionalism and initiative in obtaining outstanding results.

"His rapid assessment and solution of numerous problems inherent in a combat environment greatly enhanced the allied effectiveness against a determined and aggressive enemy.

"Despite many adversities, he invariably performed his duties in a resolute and efficient manner. Energetically applying his sound judgment and extensive knowledge, he has contributed materially to the successful accomplishment of the United States mission in the Republic of Vietnam.

"His loyalty, diligence and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Army."

Major General Lloyd B. Ramsey was the commanding officer who signed the document, along with Stanley R. Resor, secretary of the Army.

Sp-4 Rendon is now visiting his folks in the area while observing a 30-day furlough. He was stationed at Chu Lai, Vietnam, where he served in the Americal Division, 1st 198th Light Infantry Brigade—known as the Ready Rifle Battalion.

After his furlough, he will be stationed at Fort Carson, Colo.

PLANNING COMMITTEEMAN Jim Jones points out low-lying terrain just south of Anton that is part of the Yellow House River and actually a tributary of the Brazos. A million-dollar, four-county recreation center is planned for this site with 867 acres of run-off water to be maintained by a 1,160-foot dam.

CITY COUNCILMEN adopted the city budget for 1969-70 and approved an ordinance establishing, levying and apportioning the ad valorem taxes for the City of Littlefield for the year 1969, during their regular meeting Thursday night. To the left is Mrs. Beth Harry, city secretary; and behind table, left to right are Councilmen Paul Carmickle, Chester Harvey, Paul McCormick, and James Shotwell. To the right is Mayor J. E. Chisholm. In front of the table are City Attorney Ted Sansom and City Manager Jim Shearer.

Yellow House One Day A Water Playground?

By NILAH RODGERS
Leader-News Staff Writer

When heavy rains fall, cotton and croplands in the Yellow House Draw are covered with water.

That's bad now. But eyed as a possible recreation area, it may not be long before those who farm around this natural tributary of the Brazos River may derive more income from their plays lake than they are now making from cotton farming.

Located just two miles south of Anton, the draw meanders through northern Hockley County close to the Lamb County line and then curves southeast into Lubbock County, its course bending within a mile and a half of Anton.

Water stands here—17-18 feet after heavy rains.

If Anton and area residents' dreams come true, and if recreational plans get off the drawing board and become a reality, this will be the site of a 1,300-acre water playground, carved out of four sections of land. Projected plans include an 18-hole golf course, swimming pool, playground equipment, camping and fishing.

Ultimately, the project will include an 8-foot dam of permanent construction, backing up 600 acres of water.

The proposed reservoir will contain up to 6,224 acre feet of water, varying in depth but averaging 6 feet. Engineering studies reveal that 3,500 acre feet of water annually is yielded by the drainage area. A dam would establish a constant water level of 4,000 to 5,000 acre feet.

The dream originated with Anton businessmen and farmers. Lacking an official name, the plan started out being called the Anton Lake and Recreation Project. But before long Anton residents decided the project was too big for Anton alone, and included representatives from Littlefield, Whitharral, Spade, Smyer, Shallowater and County Line. The name was then changed to Four County Lake and Recreation Center.

Jerry Biffle of Anton is president of the planning committee and Richard Howard of County Line is secretary-treasurer. Other committeemen are N. L. Reinsch of Smyer; Robert Avery, Whitharral; W. O. (Bill) Thompson of Spade; Jim Jones of Littlefield; and Jack Kassahn of Shallowater.

Money is the "big" thing as far as the project is concerned right now. Officials hit a snag enroute to Farmers Home Administration financing.

The formation of a water district is being considered along with financing from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation of Housing and Urban Development. All feasibility tests have been made, and steering committee member Jim Jones said U. S. Representative George Mahon has been contacted for assistance in

Need A Ticket For Pep Dinner?

Tickets are still available for the Annual Pep Farm Dinner, slated for Tuesday night in Parish Hall at Pep.

Each year, Littlefield merchants buy tickets, which admit the merchant and a farmer. These tickets may be picked up in the Chamber of Commerce Office or at the door.

The 7:30 event "will feature a good menu and a delightful program too," according to Mrs. Leonard Albus of Pep.

Pep women will cook and serve German sausage, green beans, sauerkraut, potatoes, homemade bread and cherry cobbler.

Extra sausage and bread will be for sale after the dinner.

"This will be an informal, fun-time affair, so we urge everyone to try to go," said Jim Kelly, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Littlefield Native Joins L-N Staff

Emil Macha, a Littlefield native, has joined The Leader-News staff in advertising sales and sports reporting.

Macha has been engaged in route sales in Littlefield 13 years, and was employed in the engineering department of KVOW Radio while in Littlefield High School.

Macha was born in Littlefield in 1934 and has lived here since, with the exception of two years he served with the U. S. Army in training and in Germany.

He served three years as a Lamb County deputy sheriff, Macha and his wife, Nadine, a Needmore native have two daughters, Regina Ann, 9, and Sandra Jeanne, 7; and one son, Sheldon Paul, 1.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Macha of Route 1, Littlefield, and he is grandson of Mrs. O. L. Schlottman of Littlefield.

MRS. RICHARD GENE ALEXANDER

Glass-Alexander

Vows Pledged

Miss Linda Kay Glass and Richard Gene Alexander exchanged wedding vows in Ford Memorial Chapel of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock at 7 p.m. Sept. 20.

Rev. David Ray, pastor of the church, officiated the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glass of Anton and Mrs. Wilma Alexander of Littlefield.

Mrs. Gene Lanham, organist, accompanied Mrs. Frank Wilson, soloist, in presenting wedding selections.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Royce Rohe of San Antonio. Bridesmatron was Mrs. Ronny Glass of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride and the bride's maid was Miss Pat Alexander of Littlefield, sister of the groom.

Flower girl was Miss Cynthia Weaver of Clovis, N. M., cousin of the bride.

Miss Melissa Weaver of Clovis, N. M., cousin of the bride, and Miss Shari Weige of Lubbock, cousin of the groom, were candlelighters.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown of peau de soie fashioned with chantilly lace appliques on the empire bodice and long petal point sleeves with see-through appliques.

The gown featured a scoop neckline and A-line skirt with scattered lace mittiffs. The Watteau chapel length train had see-through lace appliques and was accented with large flowers.

Her headpiece of peau de soie roses accented with pearls held her veil of imported silk illusion.

For something old, she wore a bracelet belonging to her grandmother. Something new was her wedding gown. Something borrowed was a handkerchief belonging to her mother. Something blue was a blue garter and she wore a birthdate penny in her shoe.

The ceremony was performed before an altar of white gladiolas between two candelabrum flanked on each side with green palms.

The attendants wore identical formal-length dresses of coral primo with empire waistline featuring satin bows at the waist with puff sleeves.

Their headpieces were of coral satin, with imported silk illusion.

They carried long stem white carnations with coral bows.

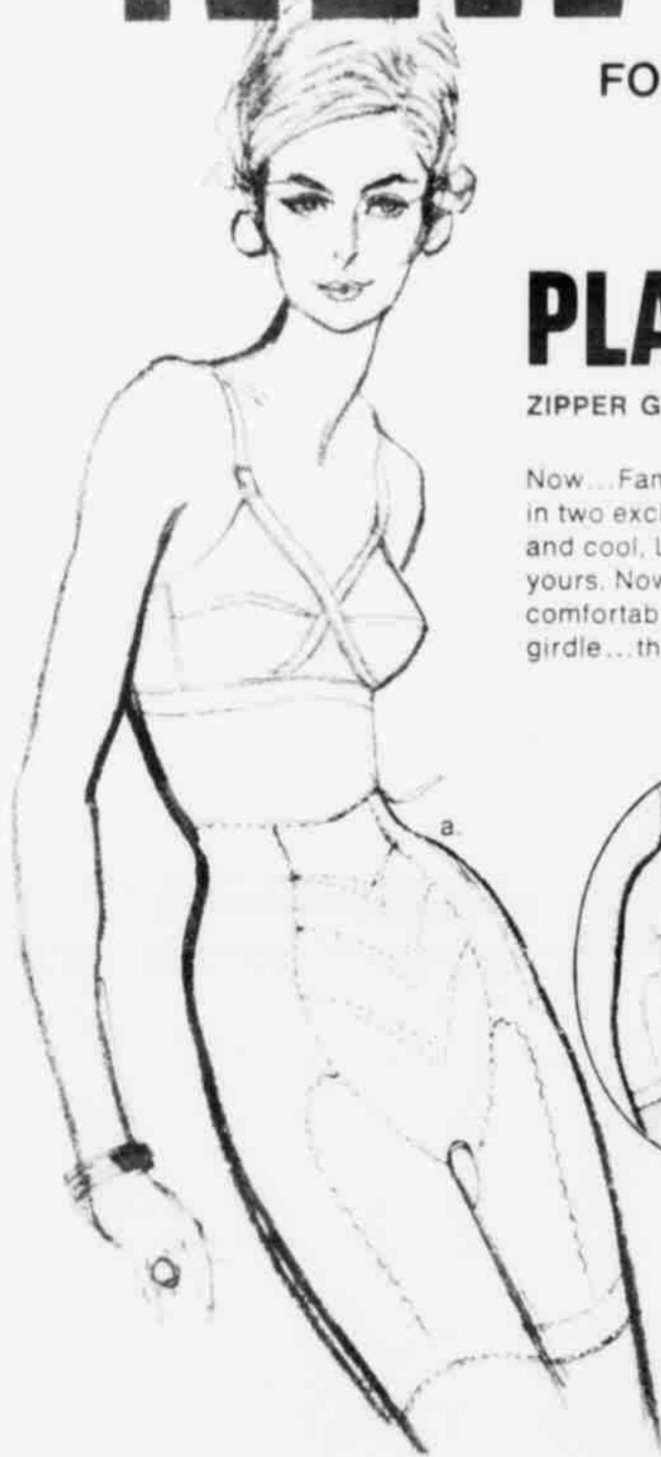

Best man was Paul Buckley of Dallas.

Ringbearer was Michael Weige of Lubbock, cousin of the groom.

What The Leader-News Thinks

No Substitute

RUMORS PERSIST of financial difficulties facing many publications. When such respected institutions as the late "Saturday Evening Post" find it impossible to make both ends meet, people cannot be blamed for wondering if the written word is to become a thing of the past.

ONE AUTHORITY gives an encouraging answer to the contrary so far as newspapers are concerned. The dean of the school of journalism of a large university observed that, "Only the newspaper, of all the news media today, can fully live up to the challenge of providing the people with the news they are searching for....Nobody can fight City Hall-if City Hall has to be fought-like a crusading city editor. "Nobody knows where the body is buried like a good reporter. "Nobody can interpret the news in meaningful fashion like a good editorial writer. "Nobody can be closer to understanding the impact of the news on the people of the community than a working publisher who is part of the life of that community."

THE ARCHIVES of the local newspaper constitute the only printed record of community life. Learning to read is a useful achievement-and will remain so.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

The Machine Age

By LIBBY MUDGETT

THE COYOTES HOWL around my house at night, the rattlesnakes rattle and the winds blow free, but I'm still a member of the electronic age of the computer.

RE the magazine billing service and 25 cents.

A very patient gentleman sold me on the idea of saving $5 over a period of several years by taking my magazines from aforementioned company. The reason I know he was patient was because he silently waited, drinking coffee and smoking three cigarettes, while I figured up if he was right or not.

HE WAS. The savings came to $5.

He assured me that the magazines would be a couple of months in coming, but that the first payment wouldn't be due until they had all arrived.

He was a great prophet, with the exception of the Good Housekeeping.

I STARTED GETTING CUTE, polite little notes from the magazine billing service, gently but politely reminding me of my bargain and of the fact my first payment was due.

I answered the first three, telling them that as soon as the Good Housekeeping started coming, so would my payments.

Funny thing about those little notes, they were all from different people, typed by other people and signed by still other people.

IN TIME, the Good Housekeeping started coming and I sent in my payments. By then, there were two due.

I immediately got another note, this time not so cute and explaining to me the amount of bookkeeping and office help required in handling overdue payments, and saying I owed 25 cents for that first payment because it was late.

It was signed by still a new person, so I wrote him back that it wasn't I that was late, it was Good Housekeeping and I owed nothing.

I GOT ANOTHER little note, not cute or polite at all, in fact sort of threatening, from still a different person, demanding that 25 cents PDQ.

I took the envelopes from all of the company's previous correspondence to me, tore the cancelled stamps off and enclosed them with my note pointing out that they had already spent far more than 25 cents trying to collect from me an overdue fine that I didn't owe and suggested they try Good Housekeeping.

I also informed them I was through writing them unless they started enclosing self addressed stamped envelopes, because I was fast on the way to using up my $5, saving.

SO THEN THEY started telephoning. Oh yes indeed they started telephoning. Something about like every other day.

Each time it was a different person, none of whom ever knew the previous callers. Or at least they claimed not to have.

FINALLY, one bright memorable morning after I had gone through the same tale for the humpteenth time, I asked how could they afford to spend all of that money trying to collect just 25 cents.

This person must have been a country girl at one time, because she took the time to explain things. Each one of those notes came from a different department of the magazine billing service. Each department had it's own generous office operating budget and it was nothing to them the cost of stationery and postage.

AND AS FOR the phone calls, they were free more or less. The magazine billing service paid the telephone company so many thousand dollars a year and they could then phone all over, city or boondock, for nothing extra.

As for the 25 cents, that was for the company computer's tummy, to keep his little insides all straightened out.

I thanked her for her humanity, said it was nice to have met her, knowing from past experiences that she would disappear into the dark crevices of the magazine billing service never to be heard of by me again, and told her I still didn't owe that 25 cents and not to haunt the mailbox looking for it.

WELL, I DON'T KNOW what happened, but correspondence ended. Maybe somebody got tired of the whole mess and fed the company computer a quarter-or some Pepto Bismol. Or maybe Good Housekeeping came through with the 25 cents overdue fine, which hardly seems likely.

But there's an organization I'm thinking of joining. It's called the International Society for the Abolition of Data Processing Machines.

"I guess they're the most unfriendly people in the whole neighborhood!"

PAUL HARVEY

Could Be Worse

SPORTSWRITER BOB OATES of the Los Angeles Times recently watched a replay of a three-man assault which knocked unconscious a San Diego quarterback and asked, "How come violence is deplored on streets and campuses yet admired and encouraged in stadiums?" He says every college president deplores violence and every football coach teaches it.

VIOLENT SPORTS-football, hockey, car racing-are attracting an increasing following, but violent sports are not new.

Bullfighting originated on the Isle of Crete 2,000 years before Christ. It spread to Spain, Portugal and Latin America, embellished with additional "refinements" Picadors on horseback lanced the bull to weaken neck muscles. Banderilleros on foot stuck darts in the bull to increase his irritability. Then the matador would kill the bull with a sword. Usual quota, six slain bulls for one afternoon's show.

TOURNAMENTS were the amusement of the Middle Ages. Knights on horseback fought with lances and sabers, usually to the death.

In ancient Greece and Rome chariot drivers raced with firebrands tied to the tails of their horses. Only the skillful and/or the lucky survived the collisions and sharp turns. The Roman Circus Maximus would be witnessed by a quarter-million spectators.

IN THE YEAR AD 80, the Colosseum advertised "games" to last 100 days.

These included fights to the death involving 10,000 prisoners and 5,000 wild animals.

The depravity of these events was designed to inflame the passions of the gladiators and the blood lust of the mob.

Each day ended with mounds of corpses and the "show" ran 14 consecutive weeks.

IN THE 18th and 19th centuries, disputes were frequently settled by dueling, usually with swords or pistols. According to the unwritten code of 1800 in France, honor was satisfied by wounding-but Americans demanded death.

For example, when Charles Dickson in a newspaper article denounced Andrew Jackson, Jackson killed him.

AARON BURR blamed Alexander Hamilton for an election defeat in 1804 and killed him.

Today in Central America, South America and Spain, cockfighting is a prevalent "sport." Gamecocks are fitted with metal spurs and goaded to peck and tear each other to pieces.

THERE IS ONLY ONE culture where violence was almost totally absent: China's. Confucian scholars preferred dominoes and kite flying. Their only cruel sport involved training crickets to fight one another.

So in the light of history, modern football-with protective gear and strict rules and only a comparative few casualties each year-while a modern outlet for furious tribal instincts is, for yet uncivilized man, probably a step upward.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Nudity Is Shame

By BOB WEAR

MUCH IS BEING SAID and written about the increase of nudity in our society. It is being discussed more and more as the advocates of nudity become increasingly brazen.

All of this must be part of the effort to degrade mankind, and destroy human decency.

THERE WAS A TIME when nudity was not shameful, and it was completely proper.

It was the human rebellion against God that caused nudity to become a shame.

It was shame which the people themselves recognized and, on their own initiative, tried to hide.

It has been a shame every since, and is part of human degradation.

THE MAN AND THE WOMAN God created and placed in the garden of Eden "were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed."

They were permitted to eat all of the fruit growing in the garden, except the fruit which grew on the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

THEY REBELLED, and made a wrong choice in acting against "the establishment". They lost their freedom, their happiness and became fugitives; trying to run away from God and away from life; trying to hide.

"Their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons."

WHEN THE CREATOR called the man, the man replied, "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."

This marks the beginning of human shame and trouble.

THE FIG LEAVES were not adequate cover for these persons who brought shame into human history. The Creator, "made coats of skins, and clothed the man and his wife." Nudity has been a shame from this time forward.

In the beginning, the man and woman felt no shame, no dishonor, no guilt because they had not yet rebelled against Divine Law; they had not disrupted the original harmony between themselves and God; and they had not corrupted their original completeness.

WE CANNOT RETURN to this original condition of life. The small colonies of people who claims to be doing this are miserable failures.

All movement in the direction of nudity is further acceleration of the self-evident degeneration of some segments of human society.

AN INTELLIGENT sense of shame is essential, in all ways, to individual and collective strength and courage.

All efforts to eliminate a wholesome sense of shame are degrading and downgrading.

These efforts, to whatever extent they are successful, will weaken and undermine everything that is decent and essential to human well-being.

IF THE NUDES were isolated, the harm done would be confined to them; but nudity is not isolated. Great damage is being done to many, many persons (children and all others) by the avalanche of pornographic material.

It is a great tragedy that so many people support nudity by such wide-spread acceptance of the degrading filth being circulated by the merchants of pornography.

This may be the most dangerous threat to our way of life, because it tends to destroy personal and social integrity.

NUDITY IS NOT FREEDOM. According to published information, it is being said that nudity is freedom.

This is a strange concept of freedom, and the actual results of nudity prove it to be the complete opposite of freedom.

It is a kind of bondage that destroys everything that could help and bless mankind. These are the people spoken of by inspiration, "They glory in their shame."

MODESTY AND MORALITY are still the most enriching, rewarding and strengthening qualities in human character and personality.

DEAR EDITOR

What Our Readers Think

Preserve Freedoms

Dear Ed:

How empty must be the life of an infidel!- It must be a pointless and frustrating existence. The Apostle Paul says: "If, in this life only, we have hope in Christ, we are, of all men, most miserable!"

Small wonder this self-declared infidel, Mrs. Madeline O'Hara is making so much noise!- like a kid whistling in the dark.

She needs company; and knows it. She's trying to gather a following of disciples to her cause. Moreover, her burning conscience demands that she try to justify and prove her position!

Not believe in God? The thought is incredibly, ridiculous!- Indeed, it's terrifying!- To have no strength but my strength-to have no hope beyond my declining years, to have no one to rely upon that's no wiser nor stronger than mere men defies my imagination. Where can we look that we DON'T see testimony that GOD IS?

The Psalmist says, "The Heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims his handiwork."

Now, our "outdated" constitution promises us freedom of religion AND speech. Yet woman is trying to get laws (and is having too much success) that will forbid anyone mentioning God in her presence (I suppose bothers her "conscience") by doing this simply by raising voice.

May I encourage you not to be ashamed to give voice to your faith?

Write your Congressman, Governor, Supreme Court Justices, other powers that be, and tell you'd like to have your freedom of speech and religion preserved.

Moreover, you could write the space center command and tell them that the Astronauts be free to express their feelings through Scripture reading, or prayer as they see fit. O'Hara would be FREE to use HER radio or TV (off!)

Last, but not least, you might Mrs. O'Hara know that you're praying for her!

We sit helplessly by and our freedoms slip away, one by one. Let's try to preserve the we have left--OK???

THE PHILOSOPHER

War Commissioner

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm once more has his mind on war, his letter this week indicates.)

Dear editor:

I hadn't paid much attention to it, you let a man try to keep up with everything on earth and he'll wind up not knowing much of anything for sure, but according to a copy of The Avalanche-Journal, I picked up on the road near this farm yesterday in an effort to keep America beautiful, Israel and Egypt have been fighting off and on for the past couple of years, and this almost flooded me.

Why it was only two or three years ago that Israel whipped Egypt in exactly six days, I remember reading about it and how all the world was excited over how fast Israel won and how whipped Egypt was, and yet here they are again.

You mean to say wars that are like the pennant race in baseball or football? You start over every year? You beat us this but just wait till next year?

Obviously what the world is a Commissioner of War, to make some rules. Heretofore, when a country whipped another, the loser could figure it'd be at least 20 years before the loser could field a team, but nowadays no one seems to know when it's won and nobody ever wins the war and the world series of wars comes to an end.

I don't believe it'll be anybody ever won the World Series in baseball, if the games dragged into winter and then on into the year and the year after that, fans, given no chance to whoop holler, would gradually interest.

Sooner or later somebody supposed to win, squirt champagne around the locker room, take trophy and go home for a while but dragging the fight out to sure gets monotonous. It strains on the gate receipts.

In case Congress is looking for a High Commissioner of War, up some rules and get some dependable won-lost statistics would like to say I'm a candidate.

Yours faithfully

COUNCIL

increases and the involvement of the city council came after some of the councilmen had been accused of giving permission for the rural rate raises.

"General Telephone assessed those rates themselves-we had nothing to do with it," City Manager Jim Shearer said. "We voted two years ago to approve the extended area service to Anton, and a rate increase of a nickel per month for city residents with telephones and 35 cents per month for businesses with telephones," Shearer said, "But we have no control of activities outside the city limits."

In other matters of business, councilmen:

1. Discussed information pertaining to the proposed gate rate increase application of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, and acknowledged receipt of the letter informing them of the proposed increase.

2. Considered a proposal by the Texas Highway Department to take over maintenance and operation of traffic signals located at the corner of Highway 54 and Highway 385. Because of a new state law which went into effect Sept. 1, new city population figures govern the control of signals on state highways. Councilmen decided to defer the matter until City Manager Shearer could write a letter to Oscar Crain and have him clarify the matter.

3. Voted to authorize Jim Shearer to advertise for bids for the purchase of a new four-wheel street sweeper.

4. Voted to accept Mitchell-Ford's withdrawal of a request to lease a city parking lot on Phelps Avenue.

5. Granted permission for the Junior High band to practice on grounds in Laguna Park, but declined to allow the park to be striped with diesel.

6. Were advised of a new law which went into effect Sept. 1, governing city council meetings. Written notice of meetings must be posted three days prior to the meeting, and items to be discussed on the agenda must be included on the notice.

7. Discussed recent personnel changes on the city payroll.

8. Discussed and decided to look into the traffic situation on West 4th Street.

One-Car Accident Injures Resident

A Littlefield man, Alfred Martinez, 24, remains in serious condition at Lubbock Methodist Hospital following a one-car accident late Wednesday morning.

The Martinez vehicle was damaged near Anton Thursday morning, passing motorist.

Highway patrolman Don Kofke of Levelland said Martinez was alone on a paved country road when he apparently missed a curve and struck a tree, probably after the rain.

Martinez was taken to a Littlefield hospital by ambulance, then transported to the Lubbock hospital where hospital officials listed him in serious condition Thursday night.

qualifying for a federal grant. The first price tag for the package was estimated at $800,000. Now members of the planning committee are thinking in terms of $1 million.

More engineering studies are being made by the Ralph Douglas Muleshoe, and legal clearances are being made by attorneys for people from Littlefield, and surrounding areas, hoping success for the convention that would provide economic recreational growth for the area.

'Bear Grass'

Yucca—also called "bear grass" and "Spanish sword"—is a plant which has long flourished on the High Plains according to Texas Tech Botany Professor Chester M. Rowell.

According to Rowell, the name "The Staked Plains" likely is related to the yucca. The Spanish first gave the area that description, called it the "Llano Estacado."

"As you come up on the Caprock," said Rowell, "you often see the dry stalks of yucca standing up just like stakes. I think it's very possible that the plant is responsible for the name."

Highway Patrol Investigates 11

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 11 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of August, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in one person killed, three persons injured and an estimated property damage of $11,990.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eight months of 1969 shows a total of 76 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 23 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $52,135.

With the beginning of school, the sergeant reminds all motorists of the state law regulating traffic in regard to school buses.

Wolves Gun Down Wildcat In Offensive Battle, 46-20

Littlefield's underdog Wildcats surprised Colorado City with a pair of first quarter touchdowns, but the Wolves came back to win a 46-20 offensive show at Colorado City Friday night.

Two brilliant kickoff returns by the Cats' Mighty Mite, 140-pound Wendell Horn, set up a pair of TD's and enabled Littlefield to take a 14-7 lead early in the first period.

But Colorado City's rampaging offense tied the game at 14-14 before the first quarter ended, and rolled for three more touchdowns in the second and third quarters.

The Cats held their own in the fourth quarter until a final play 18-yard field goal put the icing on Colorado City's cake.

If anyone thought the Wildcats would roll over and play dead after last week's runaway loss to Dunbar, they probably scratched their heads in amazement at the outset of this scoring show.

Coach Deverelle Lewis' eleven took command at the beginning, and the Wildcats relinquished their grip only when a break suddenly went sour in the second quarter.

Behind 20-14, Littlefield seemed to have fortune smiling on them when Linebacker Randy Mitchell recovered a loose football at the C-City 28 with 5:21 left in the first half.

in three plays, but the threat died when Colorado City's Joe Kirschbaum landed on a fumble.

A ball game that had been a slam-bang trade of TD's to that point finally began to lean Colorado City's way.

And the Wolves made it stick when they drove the 84-yard distance in 14 plays and scored with 25 seconds left in the half.

A two-point conversion, QB Steve Vest passing to FB Skip Maines, gave the Wolves a 28-14 lead and the first solid advantage by either team in the first half.

The Wildcats couldn't stem the tide early in the third quarter, as C-City used a big fourth down break in the series following the second half kick-off.

The Wolves faced fourth and 13 from their 22 after Littlefield's Monte Trotter nailed HB David Garcia, C-City's big scorer for the night, for an 11-yard loss.

Littlefield had an excellent chance to get the ball at the Wolves' 10-yard stripe when Vest fumbled the punt snapback. But the slippery Wolf quarterback managed to pick up the ball, escape a pair of Wildcats, and shuttle down the left sidelines to midfield.

That big gain took a little out of the Cats, and put the thrust behind C-City, which went the remaining 50 steps in eight plays, making it 35-14.

If that weren't enough to chill the Cat spirit, another unlucky turn of events put a big damper on things. The Wolves chalked up a safety with 11 seconds left in the third period, when a pass from center got past Punter Randy Mitchell. That made it 37-14 and pretty well settled the issue.

C-City's Garcia racked up four touchdowns for the night, scoring on running plays covering 20, 3, 6 and 2 yards. The 165-pound halfback also Defensively, the excellent play from who nailed QB Vest on two plays that ran 25 yards and was the biggest thorn in Colorado's offensive side.

Coming up with a tackle for the Safety Owens, HB Holt, LB Hickman, RB Mitchell, Guards Owens and Larry Pardy.

Kickoff and punt specialist Wendell Horn was great, returning for 40, 77, 23, and 25 yards, and an average of 42 per runback.

It was Horn who carried it back to the C-City 46 yard line, where he looked as though he would go all the way.

That first Wildcat a thing of beauty. From the HB Funk took the play Holt and stepped to the right sidelines for 11.

Funk got another to the 10 down the sideline, and two plays Holt tallied from the

The 7-0 lead at 1:19 first quarter was less than a moment. Garcia raced 20 yards to tie it up.

But here came the Mite again. Horn kicked off at his 11, and the right side broke down the sideline.

C-City 12 before a RB brushed him out of the score at 6:06, and added the point to Littlefield.

Just two minutes though, C-City had again, when Vest yardage to Holder at 1:58.

The Wolves' step Cats on the next kick began kicking shorter from Horn, but he managed to come out to the Littlefield 45.

The offense couldn't time, and the Cat Fleet Stanley Bray back to the Wolves 45.

C-City rolled the 13 plays, with Vest from the 1. The end and C-City had a 10 with 10:46 left in the quarter.

The teams traded until 5:21 when Vest pounded on Vest's the Wolves 28. But away when Littlefield it right back and he drove 84 yards for before halftime.

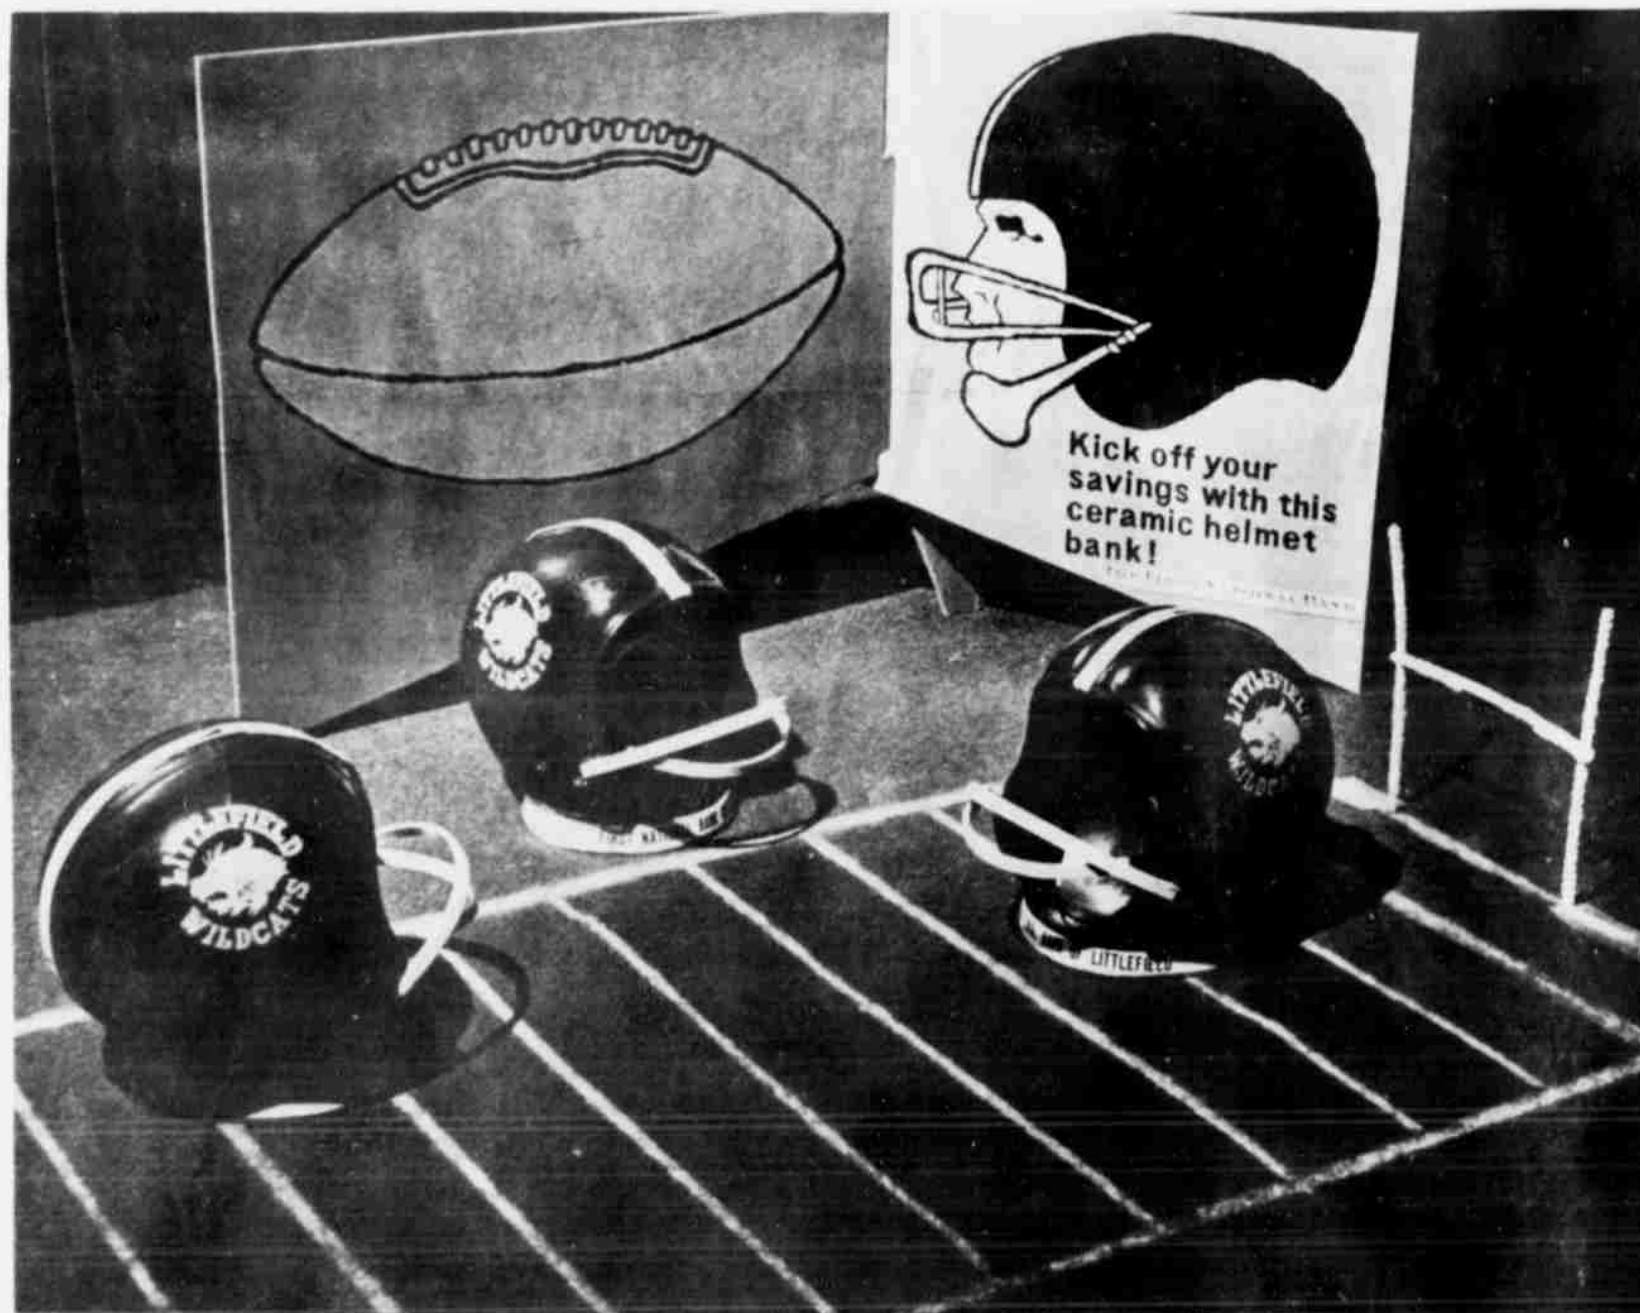

That, coupled with which came on following the kick-off and the safety. Cats down 37-14 going fourth quarter.

The fourth period standoff, with Garcia run and Owens' pass making the dozen pass.

C-City Kicker Ken booted an 18-yard field the final play of the Three pass attempts the second half to defenders helped Littlefield offense as Holt made numerous completing 7 of 18 the last two stands of 28 for 149 yards night.

New Deal Nips Anton

The Anton Bulldogs had the New Deal Lions by the heels at halftime Friday with an 8-7 lead, but the Lions sprung the trap for a 15-8 lead on their home field.

New Deal scored first on a TD pass from Kelly Sherman to Ronnie Williamson and Randy Dunn kicked the PAT.

The riled Bulldogs showed their fangs when Tom Gilbert passed to James Holmes and Holmes galloped for an 80-yard TD. Bulldog John Cantu ran the conversion for two more points.

Bulldogs and Lions battled a scoreless third quarter. Renza Caldwell leaped over from the two yard line for another Lion TD in the final quarter, and Sherman ran the two extra points.

Anton meets Cooper at Cooper Friday for the third game of the season.

What It Was, Was Football!

Coach Jim Jefferies' Junior Varsity lost an offensive battle to Hereford's JV Thursday night at Hereford, 54-32.

Paul Danford, who gained 233 yards rushing for the night, scored TD's on runs of 65, 35 and 75 yards.

Leroy Danford got another Littlefield TD on a 78-yard pass play.

Porfirio Cristan picked up the other Cat score when he went 75 yards on a fake punt. The Littlefield JV will meet Levelland here Thursday.

Muleshoe Tips 8th Graders

Littlefield 8th Graders dropped a pair of games to Muleshoe there Thursday evening, with both the A and B teams falling by 22-0 counts.

Coach Jerry Trees said his Wildkittens were playing in their first ball game ever, while Muleshoe 8th graders have had a year of experience.

Terry Bryson was Littlefield's top gainer with 90 yards.

Defensive standouts were Kenny Owens, Pat Henderson and Kelton White. The locals will play Levelland there Thursday.

ED HICKMAN SCORES Littlefield's second touchdown on a one-yard sneak. Besides Hickman (37), other Cats are Gary Nace (86), Randy Mitchell, Charles Carter (60) and Monte Trotter (77).

WHITHARRAL tackle eludes his blocker to take out a Loop Longhorn. The players stand 1-1 now in non-district play after the Friday night battle.

'Horns Down Whitharral, 38-26

The Loop Longhorns trampled the Whitharral Panthers 38-26 on the Panther field Friday night.

Loop's Barry McConnal scored for the Longhorns in the opening minute of play, by running 35 yards for a touchdown, then plunged over to add two extra points.

Whitharral rallied with a TD from Monty Rodgers from the 10. Conversion try by Johnny Graham failed. Danny Yoakum ran over from the one-yard line for Loop's Longhorns and Eddie Aldridge came through with a two point conversion.

Larry Gage took the ball from Graham and ran 30 yards for Whitharral's second TD. Quarterback Graham made the two points after.

Longhorn Yoakum ran 10 yards for a third Loop TD and McConnal made the extra points for a 24-14 halftime score.

Neither team made it to pay dirt in the third quarter, and Whitharral's Rodgers narrowed the margin with a 31-yard run in the fourth period. McConnal and Aldridge came back with touchdowns for Loop and McConnal added the last two points after.

Johnny Graham romped 36

Olton Holds Canyon To Tie

The AA Olton Mustangs held highly favored class AAA Canyon to a scoreless tie at Canyon Friday night, putting a blemish on high hopes the Eagles have for 1969.

Canyon, winner over perennial powerhouse Phillips the previous week, won the battle of the statistics, but the Mustangs chalked up a moral victory.

Olton's defense, led by Barry Cowart and Gary Durham, stopped the Eagles nine times inside the Olton 20-yard-line, and three times inside the Mustang 10.

Canyon marched to the Olton four as time ran out, and reached the Mustang eight on two other occasions.

Two fourth quarter field goal tries also failed for the Eagles. One was an attempt from the Olton 24 and the other was a try from the Mustang 19.

Canyon led in first downs, 13-6, and Dave Erwin, Eagles' 9.7 sprinter, chalked up big gains, including one 50-yard run to the Olton 18 on the first play of the game.

But Olton's stout heart and tough defense were too much for the Eagles. Defensive stalwarts besides Cowart and Durham were Joe Chitwood, Ronnie Key, Pete Rivera, Gary Dickenson, Alfred Garza and Mickey Crowder.

Sudan Hurries Past Amherst Dogs, 39-0

The Bulldogs quickly came back after the half and gained enough yards for a first down, with James Moore carrying the ball to the Amherst 34. The next series of downs were fruitless for the Amherst team and Sudan took possession of the ball on the Amherst 43.

Humphries, a hard-charging Bulldog, managed to throw tackle on Weaver for a two-yard loss. A couple of downs later Sudan had to give up the ball.

Moates completed a pass to Mickey Johnson on the Sudan 49. Moates' next pass was intercepted by Sudan's Gregory McNabb. On the next play, a Bulldog recovered a fumble on the Amherst 46-yard line, but Amherst drive failed to net a first down.

The Hornets took possession for a couple of downs which ended when an attempted pass from Boyles to Shawn Potter was intercepted

Bula's 'Dogs Downed

Bula Bulldog backs Tom Newton and Ron Risinger did the running and scoring on the Bulldog field Friday night, but Wellman's Johnny Tubbs, Rick Jeter and Archie Crestman ran up a victorious 60-36 score on Bula.

Tubbs led the Wellman scoring with three touchdowns and passed to Rick Jeter for two more. Randal Redman

Springlake-Earth Scores 2nd Win

It was Springlake-Earth all the way here Friday night as Wolverine fans noted when Hoyt Glasscock returned the Hale Center Owls' opening kickoff the length of the field to set up a one-sided scoring exhibition.

The Wolverines trampled the Hale Center Owls, 40-0.

Glasscock's 100-yard runback started the assault and it continued with his two-point conversion.

Tony Barton soon got into the scoring act by charging nine yards for another Wolverine touchdown.

A pass from Mike Cleavenger to Willie Wilborn set the stage for Barton to charge 11 yards for another score before the half-time curtain was pulled.

by Moates. Sudan quickly regained possession when Eugene Lopez recovered an Amherst fumble.

Both teams remained scoreless in the third quarter, Bellar ran 40 yards for another Sudan touchdown, but this was called back by an offside penalty. With seven minutes left in the fourth quarter a pass from Boyles to Potter netted the final tally for Sudan. The try for the extra point was no good.

The game kept the fans on the edge of their seats with both teams occasionally intercepting passes and recovering fumbles. It was hard fought to the final seconds.

Sudan earned 23 first downs, gained 344 yards rushing, and 44 yards in the air. Amherst got 5 first downs; 43 yards rushing and 34 yards passing.

Sudan has a 2-0 record for the year. Amherst's mark is 0-2.

THE '70 DODGE CHALLENGER, only new entry in the sporty specialty car field, is built for luxury, performance, and comfort.

THE 1970 DODGE POLARA has the look of a high priced luxury car yet has a low price tag. Hood has been lengthened, rear deck shortened for longer look. New Torsion-Quiet suspension system gives better ride.

THE 1970 DODGE ADVENTURER, the sporty top-of-the-line pickup that's built for work or play, features a host of luxury, convenience and performance options.

'70 Dodges On Display Tuesday In Littlefield

Higher appearance and comfort levels with added accent on customer value strengthen Dodge Division's position in the standard-sized, medium-priced segment of the car market in 1970.

"Polara and Monaco interior and exterior styling improvements, upgrading of basic features, including a quieter, easier ride, provide the luxury car buyer with an even greater return on his investment," said Robert B. McCurry, Dodge general manager.

All the new Dodges go on display at Garland Motors Tuesday, Sept. 23.

The front end of Polara and Monaco for 1970 has been lengthened three inches and the rear end shortened four inches, giving the cars a new proportion, and a longer, lower "go ahead" look.

Front and rear ends have been completely restyled for 1970. Massive loop bumpers surround the grille and taillights. On Monaco, backup lights are located behind vertical slots in the ends of the fenders. Side marker lights are set in the ends of the bumpers.

The Dodge Challenger—low profile, aerodynamically-designed, four-seat compact—joins the Dodge car family along with such well-established names as Charger, Coronet, Dart, Polara and Monaco.

While the Challenger is related to the famous Charger styling theme, it has a design and style all its own.

The long-hood, short-decked, rounded body has an airflow pattern. Starting at the front, a thin blade bumper complements the grille design.

The grille is recessed, headlights are canted and blend with the venturi styling of the front end design.

Coronet, Dodge Division's bread and butter car will receive a wide spread of product restyling and engineering improvements in 1970.

The new Coronet takes much of its direction from sales trends in the hottest portion of the automotive marketplace, where a conglomerate of bright colors, wide tires, slippery aerodynamic shapes and scoops abound.

The Dodge Charger lineup will include a new lower priced offering in 1970 to enhance an automotive series that has been the unqualified success car of recent years.

The new model will be called simply Charger. It will include a more modest trim package and offer a front bench seat as opposed to the fold-down armrest or bucket seat models. A 225-cubic inch Slant Six and a 318-cubic inch V-8 will be the standard six in eight-cylinder engines.

What has been the standard tunnel-roof Charger will be called the Charger 500.

Two high performance models round out the Charger lineup—the Charger R/T (Road and Track) and Charger Daytona.

Dart, Dodge Division's most successful car in accounting for 30 per cent of all Dodge sales during 1969, takes on a new look.

The Dart has been extensively restyled for 1970. The hood has been extended to give a longer, lower look. A split grille includes combined parking and turn signal lamps and is flanked by single headlamps.

The rear of the Dart has also been restyled. A massive, broad-contact rear bumper houses parking, tail, stop and back-up lights. The 1970 Dart looks longer, but the actual increase is only 8/10's of an inch. The new overall length is only 196.2 inches.

Band Boosters To Conduct First Meeting

The Littlefield Band Boosters will gather for their first meeting of the school year at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 22, on the High School Field.

The Littlefield Wildcat Band will present a drill rehearsal to show the Boosters how they prepare for a half-time performance. After the Wildcat program, the Band Boosters will go to the High School Band Hall for their business meeting.

All Band Boosters are encouraged to attend, since plans for the school year 1969-70 will be set up at this meeting.

Membership tickets will be on sale at the meeting, entitling members to free admittance to all the Band Concerts.

Styling Improvements Featured In Plymouths

PLYMOUTH FURY III, like all 1970 Plymouth models, offers substantial styling improvements and a high degree of luxury in the standard-size low-price field. Major styling changes are at front and rear, with full loop bumpers encircling the grille and taillamps. Offering a wide choice, Fury III is available in 2 and 4-door hardtops, 4-door sedan and convertible models. Above, the Fury III 4-door hardtop.

Substantial improvements in styling and the addition of two new top-of-the-line models are features of the 1970 Plymouth Fury line, which go on display Tuesday at Garland Motor Co. in Littlefield.

The Fury line has been restyled front and rear to give all models a more massive appearance. There are full-loop bumpers which encircle the new horizontally-designed grille and the taillamps.

The new models are in the Sport Fury series: the sports S-23 and the GT, which adds a high performance model to Plymouth's standard-size line.

The Fury is 214.9 inches long overall, up four-tenths of an inch from last year. Its wheelbase remains at 120 inches. A new wider rear track of 62 inches complements the integrated loop bumper rear styling.

The Fury interior features the highest style level and more trim options than ever before available.

The Sport Fury series is expanded to include four-door sedans and hardtops in addition to the two-door hardtop.

The exterior ornamentation and the interior trim and appointments achieve a readily discernible differentiation for the Sport Fury from the Fury I, Fury II, and high volume Fury III lines.

Four body styles are available in the Sport Fury series—two-door hardtop, two-door formal hardtop, four-door sedan, and four-door hardtop.

Chrysler-Plymouth Division's 1970 intermediate car line—Belvedere, Satellite, Sport Satellite, Road Runner and GTX—features fresh exteriors and interiors, new engines and an improved option list.

"We believe the Plymouth intermediate line will continue its very successful growth pattern of the past two years on two primary strong fronts," Glenn E. White, Chrysler-Plymouth Division General Manager, said. "On the one hand, Plymouth Belvedere, Satellite and Sport Satellite offer the buyer of the mid-sized car premium value as an appealingly styled, and economically sound investment."

"And on the other hand, Plymouth Road Runner and GTX offer the buyer most interested in high performance two exciting cars which have proven their ability to deliver outstanding performance for the dollar invested. The runaway success of Road Runner bears witness to the soundness of this underlying product concept behind Plymouth's performance cars," he added.

Body refinements for 1970 include two new grilles and a bumper with styled wrap around bumper guards and grille surround moulding, as well as restyled hood and fenders. Road Runner and GTX have new power-bulge hoods.

Chrysler-Plymouth Division's sports-specialty performance entry, the Barracuda, is an entirely new car for 1970 and will be available in three series.

The option availability and level of performance exceed anything in Plymouth's history for this 2-door model in hardtop and convertible body styles.

Exterior styling on all three types of Barracudas features a bold, "racy" theme—long hoods, short decks, steeply raked windshields, concealed wipers, and minimum overall height.

The Plymouth Valiant line has two new additions for 1970, an all-new two-door coupe, the Duster, and a new high-performance model sharing the same body, the Duster 340.

"The new Valiant Duster and Duster 340 are significant additions to the Plymouth line in their respective market areas," White said. "Their sales potential is enhanced by a blend of such complementing features as appealing new coupe styling, economy-budget prices, exceptional economy of operation without major sacrifice of performance on the Duster, and the availability of personalizing options."

Featuring an attractive and youthful sports coupe styling theme, the Dusters have tip-open rear quarter window glass, ventless front door glass, and a chrome capped thin-section "B" pillar.

Standard engine in Duster is a new 198-cubic-inch six-cylinder engine which achieves a compromise between fuel economy and a high level of performance which is necessary and safe for modern freeway speeds and operation.

Plymouth makes it

1970 Hemi-Cuda.

This year, there are 10 new Barracudas. And we've changed the looks substantially. (We've packed a 426 Hemi engine under a "Shaker" hood on one of them and called it the Hemi-Cuda.)

However you look at it, our Barracuda is all-new. We've moved it two inches closer to the ground. Pushed the wheels farther apart on our standard torsion-bar suspension. Put a tough optional bumper on the front that comes in most paint colors. And given the interior the design and comfort of a jet cockpit. If you want a car that makes it... Plymouth makes it.

1970 Sport Fury Brougham.

Here's our luxury model. (One of 28 Fury models with a new wide stance.) It's big enough inside to carry six adults in comfort. It's plush. But the price is still Plymouth. With a front seat that has individual adjustments for the driver and passenger, center armrests, and a reclining back on the passenger's side.

Of course, the carpeting is thick, the headlights are hidden, and the price is still Plymouth.

Whether you like your luxury in small packages, or as big as a 1970 Sport Fury... Plymouth makes it.

1970 Chrysler Line On Display Tuesday

The 1970 line of Chrysler cars feature major improvements to the suspension system which significantly reduce road noise and vibration. The 15 model line goes on display Tuesday at Garland Motor Co. in Littlefield.

The completely new styling which appeared on the 1969 Chrysler has been refined with changes centering mainly on the front and rear of the cars and new body side ornamentation which is distinctive for each of the five series: Newport, Newport

Custom, 300, New Yorker, and Town & Country wagons.

"We have accentuated the basic good looks of Chrysler through styling refinements and have further developed mechanical aspects which make the car quieter and more luxurious," Glenn E. White, Chrysler-Plymouth Division General Manager, said.

The reduction in road noise and vibration has been accomplished through the installation of rubber insulators in the suspension system to eliminate continuous metallic paths for the transmission of noise and vibration to the body. The insulators separate the front frame structure from the passenger compartment and mount the rear axle and springs in a rubber "sandwich."

Working in conjunction with these changes are forward body reinforcements to insure a shake-free feel, a rubber coupling added to the steering column to prevent transmission of vibration to the steering wheel, and additional sound insulation to the rear seat and shelf panel area to further reduce noise in the passenger compartment.

The noise and vibration isolation system is standard on all models except convertibles and station wagons.

New grilles, a new full loop rear bumper, rear deck, and associated body panels significantly update front and rear end appearance. The massive full loop front bumper is retained.

A new wider rear track provides increased stability and further enhances appearance. Revised full-width tail lights for the 300 and the New Yorker provide continuity of rear end identity for these models, and the 300 again has concealed headlights.

ENGINEERING IMPROVEMENTS in the 1970 Chrysler line significantly reduce road noise and vibration. Main styling changes center on front and rear and body side ornamentation. Shown is the Chrysler Newport Custom four-door hardtop.

46 Years Old - - And New Twice Every Week

LITTLEFIELD, TEXAS, SUNDAY, SEPT. 21, 1969, PAGE 1B

HISTORY DUGOUT—Mr. and Mrs. M. Sims Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. James Slaughter stand outside the two-story box and strip dugout which once served as headquarters of the Col. C. C. Slaughter Silver Lake Ranch. The dugout, which has interior steps leading to the underground room and to the upper floor, has been covered with a protective coat of thin stucco. It will be moved to a 12-acre site on the Texas Tech campus to become part of an outdoor, living museum of ranch life. The Ranch Headquarters will be located on the 76-acre site of the new museum at Texas Tech. Mrs. Davidson and DeLoach, both of Dallas, are grandchildren of Slaughter, and they made the gift of the dugout.

FROM C.C. SLAUGHTER RANCH

Dugout, Records Donated To Tech

The dugout which was the headquarters of Col. Slaughter's Silver Lake Ranch and hard-to-locate records of this 19th century cattleman became property of Texas Tech. The dugout is just southwest of the northwest corner of the campus. The gifts were presented by Mrs. James I. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. M. Sims Davidson, both of Dallas, who operate White Farms, Inc., west of Dallas. James DeLoach and Mrs. Davidson are grandchildren of Col. Slaughter. The mid-1880's was the biggest taxpayer by the growth of a $520 million made in cattle at the time.

James DeLoach spoke for himself and his sister.

"To be able to express our enthusiasm for the Ranch Headquarters project through the presentation of the two-story dugout and to honor our grandfather, Col. C. C. Slaughter, and his contribution to the ranching history of Texas at the same time gives us obviously the greatest pleasure."

The dugout is the fourth acquisition by the committee.

Director Sylvan Dunn of the Southwest Collection expressed the university's appreciation for the gift of the records.

"These Slaughter materials are extremely scarce in proportion to the importance of the man whose ranching ventures were among the greatest ever undertaken in Texas by a single individual."

"As far as we have been able to ascertain," Dunn said, "the only C. C. Slaughter papers made available to researchers are those in the Southwest Collection." He referred to those donated in 1966 by a great grandson, Don W. Slaughter of Lubbock, including 254 letters from Col. Slaughter to his son, George M. Slaughter.

"We appreciate the fact that descendants of Col. Slaughter recognize the value of these records," he said, "and we are placing them with other significant ranching materials to provide an accurate history of Texas' first big industry."

Col. Slaughter, who earned his brevet rank during the Civil War, was one of the first children born in the Republic of Texas—recorded as the first male child of a marriage contracted in the Republic. He was born in Sabine County on Feb. 9, 1837.

He was the son of George W. Slaughter, a rancher and preacher who came west from Louisiana in 1830. The influence of the father was apparent throughout the life of his son, Christopher C. (Lum) Slaughter.

C. C. Slaughter was described by one historian as a man who "played the role of churchman openly and constantly" throughout his life. He served as vice president of the Southern Baptist Convention and for eight years as president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

He founded what is now known as Baylor Hospital in Dallas and sponsored a correlated system of Baptist schools in Texas, providing a grant of $25,000 to initiate the system.

He was a charter member of the Northwest Texas Cattle Raisers Association which later became the Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association of which he was the second president. In Dallas he founded the America Exchange Bank which has merged to become the First National Bank.

He was "making a hand" with cattle at the age of 12, working on the Patroon Bayou-Sabine River divide. At 17 he began trading—buying lumber in Anderson County and selling it in Dallas. Using this money he bought wheat in Collin County, made it into flour and sold it in Magnolia. The $520 he cleared went into cattle, and C. C. Slaughter was on his way toward making Texas history.

He ranched with his father in Sabine and Freestone Counties, and then in 1856 the family moved to Palo Pinto County. There were interruptions, first Indian fighting and then the Civil War.

In 1867, however, the ranching had prospered, and Slaughter drove 300 head of cattle to Jefferson where a packer paid the unheard of price of $35 a head in gold. The following year he began driving herds to Kansas.

In 1887, Slaughter founded his Long S. Ranch at the headwaters of the Colorado in Texas. His other ranches were the Silver Lake and the Running Water.

As early as 1871, Slaughter made a strong effort to improve the Texas breed. He imported Kentucky Shorthorn bulls. Later he brought to Texas the first Hereford bull ever to sell for $5,000 at public auction. The animal was Sir Bredwell. In 1893 he bought the grand champion bull, Ancient Briton, at the Columbian Exposition in Chicago.

WEST TEXAS RANCHER Col. C. C. Slaughter, left, on Duke, and his son, George M. Slaughter on Bob spent lifetimes building the three West Texas Slaughter ranches. This picture was taken at what was described as "Camp B" before 1916, the year George Slaughter, who managed the ranches for his father, was struck and killed by lightning while riding.

to Texas Tech and furnished authentically by the DeLoache children was the original headquarters of the Silver Lake Ranch, one of the three totalling 1.5 million acres under fence.

When extensive new headquarters were built south of the present site of Morton, the two-story dugout became a line camp.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Holden are co-chairmen of the Ranch Headquarters Committee, established to preserve the ranching history of the Southwest. Dr. Holden, author and ranch historian, said the two-story dugout was important architecturally as well as historically.

"It typifies 'the beginning' of most West Texas ranches," he said. "When ranchers preceded civilization, they found the land so accommodating to cattle that human accommodation mattered little. It took men of foresight and stamina to utilize a dugout while carving a realm."

"Nelle DeLoache Davidson and James DeLoache are to be commended for making this two-story dugout available for the Ranch Headquarters as a fitting tribute to the part their grandfather played in the development of the ranching industry."

In a joint statement made by Burton P. Smith, president of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, and Leonard J. Nussbaum, president of TransState Tire Company, an agreement in principle has been reached between Pioneer Natural Gas Company and TransState Tire Company for the acquisition by Pioneer of TransState Tire Company and its subsidiaries.

TransState Tire Company, with general offices in Amarillo, is an independent tire retreader in the United States.

The Pioneer board of directors announced that they would purchase the entire capital stock of TransState and its subsidiaries through the exchange of common stock of Pioneer.

Fruit Of The Spirit

Eagerly we await each new season and the crop of fruit from our trees. We know the harvest depends on the quality of those trees. The Good Book plainly tells us that good fruit comes only from good trees and bad fruit from bad trees.

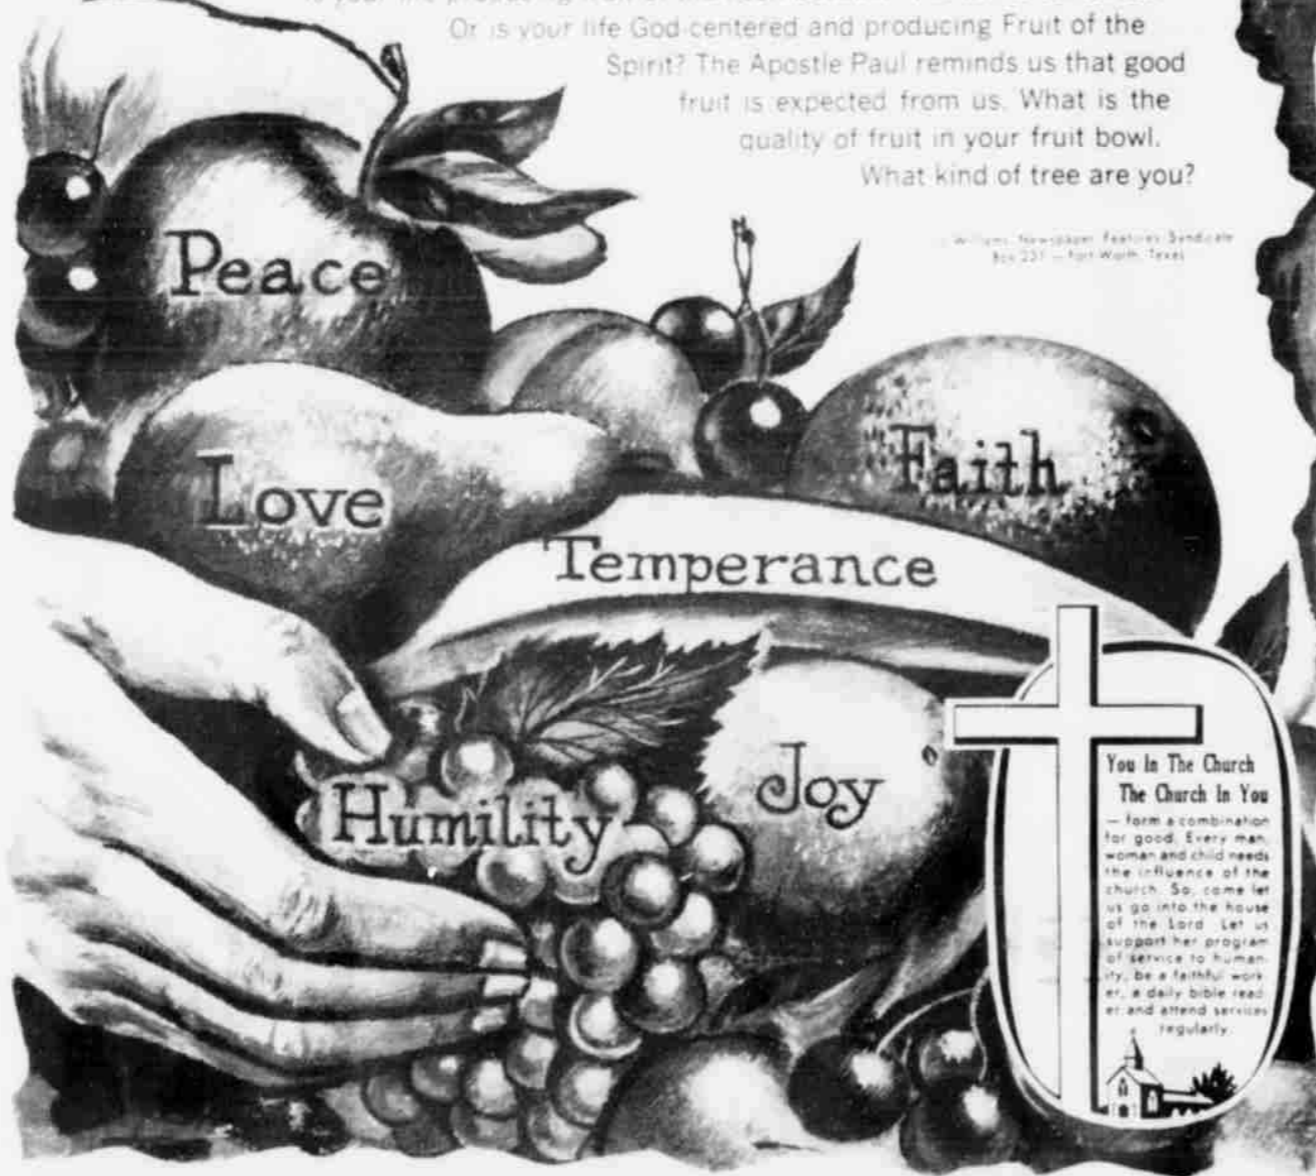

A human life is like that. And the need is great for good people who will produce good fruit for the common good... fruit of the spirit!

Love, joy, peace, humility, temperance and a faith to live by.

We have too much immorality, licentiousness, enmity, strife, anger and selfishness already. These are the fruits of bad trees. One would do well not to allow too much of this harvest on his fruit bowl.

Is your life producing fruit of the flesh because it is world-centered?

Or is your life God-centered and producing Fruit of the Spirit? The Apostle Paul reminds us that good fruit is expected from us. What is the quality of fruit in your fruit bowl. What kind of tree are you?

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL Heart Religion

ROBERT C. WHYBREW
First Church of The Nazarene

Scripture Reading: Ephesians 3:7-21
Text: St. Matthew 5:8: "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God."

THE CHIEF ERROR of every age is to make religion consist of mere externals. The most bitter foes that Jesus had to encounter were those who had this notion of religion.

Prayers, tithes, fasting, religious dress, keeping of feast days, zeal in making converts, giving, church attendance, and the rehearsal of their own excellencies made up the religion of the day.

MANY OF THESE THINGS were right in themselves when they became the expression of a pure heart, but in the case of these churchmen they were offered as a substitute.

Jesus said, "These things ought ye to have done and not to have left the other undone." St. Luke 11:42.

Notice the words of Jesus: "Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye fools did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?" St. Luke 11:39-40. There are many such people today who have no more idea of religion than these churchmen. To them we would quote the words of Jesus, "Did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?"

Is not the inner man the real man? Is not the thought and motive and passion world within greater and more extensive than the word and act world without? And is not this man within—the author of all the words and acts—LIFE?

JESUS SAID THAT THESE professors of religion who made much of the outward and little or nothing of the inward were like beautiful sepulchres, whitewashed and clean without, but full of uncleanness within.

This seems a hard saying, but it was what Jesus said.

JESUS DECLARED that we must first make the tree good and then the fruit would be good. No tree can be made good by hanging good fruit on the outside. No man can transform a sour crab apple tree into a peach tree by hanging peaches on the outside.

Too many churchmen are supposing that the performance of good works makes a man good, instead of seeing that a good man performs good works because it is his nature, while a bad man sometimes does them because it seems to him the best thing for his present advantage.

Jesus proposed to make the tree good, and then it would not be necessary to hang good fruit on it, for it would put the fruit there without effort as a matter of nature.

THE RELIGION of Jesus begins on the

Youth Evangelist Sets Amherst Meet

Gerry Craft of Fort Worth, president of Christian Youth Leaders Institute and Gerry Craft Youth Associational International, will be speaker for revival services which begin today at the Amherst First Baptist Church.

The three-times daily services, 7:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., will continue through Sunday, Sept. 28, according to the church's pastor, Rev. Glenn Willson.

Craft has been an active youth leader and lecturer 15 years, and has participated in football and wrestling on a collegiate level and football on a professional level.

GSPA Official Attends Meeting

Grain Sorghum Producers Association Vice President K. B. Parish of Springlake attended the Grass Roots Listening Conference at Texas A&M University in College Station Sept. 18.

He accompanied Pat Northcutt, Silverton farmer and GSPA secretary-treasurer, who was the spokesman for the Association as they presented the policy views of GSPA to Clifford B. Hardin, Secretary of Agriculture.

Northcutt listed several points which the Association feels should be continued and considered in future farm legislation.

Among them are: 1. Production restraints, 2. Price support and loan program, 3. Reseal program in commercial storage, 4. A reserve program designed to hold grain for emergency situations, and 5. Opposition of limitation of government payments at any level.

GOLF YOUR GAME?

To the right handed golfer, the grip of the left hand is the key to a good game. Grip means pressure and pressure can add up to pain. After the round soothe the skin and relax the fingers by "washing" the hands in good quality witch hazel. Keep a bottle handy in the locker. Witch hazel is a great for tired, burning feet, too.

inside and works out, while the religion begins on the outside and tries to work its way in. The test as to whether our religion is of human invention—the place where it begins.

If any new order of religion or law is to work out, let all men know that it is not simply a base imitation.

Solomon says, "Keep the heart with diligence, for out of it are the issues of life." Here he likens the heart to a fountain out of which flow the streams of thoughts, words and actions.

Just as a man would be foolish to look outside a fountain and purify the water that came out and thus expect to make the water pure, so would a man as successfully purify his heart by simply attending to the outside.

JESUS WHO KNEW just what the human man is, said of it, "Out of the heart, evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies, these are things that defile a man."

WE ARE ACCUSTOMED to hear today about the wickedness of our cities, and of the whole world, a "bad heart," and all the expressions of it in words and actions are simply the working out of what was inside all the time.

The effort of all the laws and orders of religions of the world is to get men to be better than their hearts want to behave. Crimes and sins of society are born in sinful hearts.

IF ANY RELIGION is to be of any man, it must have its chief sway in the heart. There never was a more successful way to keep men from evil than this—to keep men's minds on externals of religion to such an extent that they keep their attention from the heart.

THE FIG TREE that cumbered the earth will soon be cut off and some other will take its place, for without heart religion the earth and the world are dead.

If religion in the heart is not a reality, not a supernatural power and presence, then there is no need of any religion. The world all about us can duplicate and produce the morality of the church without religion as well as the church that has no religion.

AS LONG AS THE WORLD stands in the place for heart religion and God will have it in the world.

It is the only hope of the world. Let us each stand for heart religion, remember that the greater part of it is on the inside, and hence needs great attention.

GERRY CRAFT

Adult Institute Set In Plainview

An area-wide institute for Sunday School workers with adults has been scheduled for Sept. 29-30, at the First Baptist Church in Plainview, with conference leaders coming from both state Baptist and convention-wide levels.

Included in the list of program personalities are Mr. and Mrs. John Sizemore, Alvis Strickland, Mrs. Douglas Hills, Mrs. Lee McCoy, Miss Hazel Rodgers, and Ferris Jordan—all of the Baptist Sunday School Department of the convention-wide Sunday School Board at Nashville, Tenn.

Personalities from the Texas Sunday School Department will include James Frost, Richard Sims, and Cecil Roenfeldt.

The two-day event will open Monday evening, Sept. 29, at 7 p.m. with "Focusing on Outreach to Adults" as the theme. The general meeting will be followed by group conferences for officers and teachers.

Tuesday morning's session will include visual presentations, group discussions, and an evaluation period.

Featured Tuesday afternoon and night will be such presentations as "The Role of Human Relationships" (visual), "Looking at the Physical Environment" (field trip), "How Adults Learn" (panel)—in addition to general meetings and workers' conferences.

Special help for extension department workers will be included.

Rev. Larry Edmonson, is serving as chairman for the event.

Food Canning Demonstration Slated Monday

By LADY CLARE PHILLIPS
County H. D. Agent

Preservation of food is full swing among home tomatoes will be given at the Springlake Community Center Monday, Sept. 22 at 2 p.m.

Even though some do not have tomatoes this year, they are available in the Muleshoe area and the high cost of foods is due to can your own tomatoes. This demonstration is to anyone who wants to attend.

Tomatoes are a good source of Vitamin C which is needed. They can be used in many different dishes in your county. A demonstration agent will be at the Courthouse.

FIRST TELEPHONE COURSE
The first telephone course was on January 25, 1969. Alexander Graham Bell and Thomas A. Watson.

RULES OF THE CONTEST

All you have to do to be eligible for the weekly cash prizes is complete the form below and turn it in to the Leader News office. In each merchant's block is a game. Mark out the team in all blocks you believe will lose. Then in the "Breaker" box, put the scores you believe each of the teams will make. Winning judging will be based on the total number guessed correctly. In case of a tie, a tie-breaker will be used to determine the top winners. Decision of the Leader News scoring judges will be final.

To be eligible for the 2 free tickets to the New Year's Game at the COTTON BOWL, the total number of correct guesses will be totaled through the 12-week season.

Entry forms must be in the Leader News office, 313 West 4th Street, no later than 5 p.m. Friday. Forms mailed to Leader-News, P. O. Box 72, must be postmarked Friday. All late entries will be voided by the judges.

LIMIT—One entry per contestant per week.

BE SURE to complete the form by PRINTING plainly your name and complete address. Contest winners will be announced in each Thursday's issue of Leader-News.
