Ninth Grade To Remain Junior High Building

Littlefield Board of Trustees met tonight in a called meeting to discuss a proposal to move the ninth grade to the high school plant. A motion by Doug Brawley was seconded by Werner Ratliff to put the move off for a later date. Mickey Ratliff voted for the motion. Both Walden and Ratliff stated that they did not think it seemed impossible to do so.

At the meeting began, the board members were presented a mimeographed paper which pointed out seven things to be considered in re-alignment of the school.

Annual Athletic Banquet At Olton Saturday

Athletes and coaches will be invited to the Annual All Sports Banquet scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the Olton school cafeteria. The banquet will be given to outstanding athletes in football, basketball, golf, and track.

Victim Aided In Hospital Fund

A special hospital fund for Michael Thompson, who was burned last week, has been set up. The fund is now open at Security Hospital. Donations are being accepted to help with hospital bills. Thompson is hospitalized in the burns center at the Army Hospital in San Antonio, receiving second and third degree burns to his body—especially his arms.

Domestic rabbit raising and processing has come to West Texas. It's located just over the horizon in the Hockley County town of Anton.

Known as Rabbit Industries Inc., the complex hopes to be operational in 60 to 75 days. The firm had originally planned to build the rabbit processing plant in Lubbock, but a better offer was made in Anton.

Gilbert Lemmons, plant manager, was on hand this week, supervising construction which is in full swing. He pointed to two outbuildings of a "reconverted" lumber yard. He said, "That building there will be for holding rabbits after they're unloaded. And that one is where the pelts will be dried."

Lemmons and the board of directors for Rabbit Industries, Inc., have "high hopes" for the success of the operation. Lemmons said there will be a pickup service in a wide area surrounding Anton. In speaking of the rabbit pelts, he said, "We're going to try to influence a tannery to locate here." Skins of the rabbits are used in such diverse fashion as coats, dresses, gloves, and men's ties.

The plant manager was enthusiastic about the backing of the company. Five Lubbock doctors are on the board of directors, including Lemmon's son. President of the board is Dr. Ivan Barber, and Ronald E. Lemmons, M.D., is the vice-president. The secretary-treasurer is Dr. Denton Dewitt and general manager is Bill Casey.

Already, the firm is busy building rabbit hutches, and folks in the area "are hauling them off as fast as they're constructed." "We can't keep up with the demand," said Lemmons. He added, "I didn't know there were so many rabbit growers in the area." Rabbit Industries, Inc., is selling cages and equipment for "slightly over cost." "We're also selling feed for just about cost," said Lemmons. Presently a 100-pound bag of rabbit feed is selling for $7.50.

Lemmons said that feed from Evergreen Feeds in Ada, Oklahoma, is brought in in 23 ton lots. By no means is all the feed being sold to growers. The firm has its own rabbitry at Shallowater, and eventually plans on having from 12,000 to 15,000 producing does.

One of the difficulties for anyone getting into the business now will be the finding of breeding stock. Howard Robertson, who grows rabbits in Lubbock, and who is the plant superintendent of the Anton firm, said, "breeding stock will probably run between 10 and 15 dollars per animal." That figure will depend upon the age and breed of the stock.

Two of the meat producing breeds mentioned were New Zealand Whites and Californians.

The kill-ratio isn't expected to be too large in the beginning. Lemmons said the plant will be open one or two days a week at first, but with the increase in rabbit population, work days will increase. Plans are also in order for a U.S.D.A. meat inspector to be on the job.

Lemmons explained that the firm will have a kill-line plus a laboratory. From 12 to 14 persons will be employed on one shift, and plans are in order for eventually having three shifts.

The manager said, "at one station the head will be cut off and the brain removed. Later veins in the brain will be removed and used medically." He added, "all the rabbit's blood will be saved, since so many different medical tests are made using it."

Rabbit meat is expected to be the largest outlet, followed closely by bi-product uses. Lemmon said that fryer sized rabbits will probably sell in the grocery stores for $1.29 to $1.49 a pound. He added, "rabbit meat is much in demand in hospitals. It has the highest protein and lowest cholesterol of all meats, and doctors prescribe it for their patients when it's available."

Lemmons said that two barbecue firms are in contact with Rabbit Industries, Inc. "They're worrying us to death, trying to get the meat."

Beside the meat and pelt outlets, there are also plans for developing a dog and cat food plant. Too, rabbit's feet may be sold, and the fertilizer is expected to be in large demand. Red worms will be grown in the rabbit droppings, eliminating odors and fly problems. Lemmons said that rabbit manure is the highest in nitrogen of all domestic fertilizers, that it can be used in large amounts "without burning rose bushes or plants."

To begin with, the firm will pay 40 to 41 cents a pound for live rabbits, and they will buy rabbits in the three-and-a-half pound to five-and-a-half pound range

Arthritis Seminar Slated For Littlefield Tonight

A free seminar on the problems of arthritis will be held tonight at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

A panel of noted persons from the medical field will be present to answer questions and speak on various phases of problems with arthritis.

The seminar is being co-sponsored by the Texas Agriculture Extension Service and West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

Dr. Wm. A. Riley, Rheumatologist of Big Spring will begin the program with a discussion about "What Is Arthritis, What Can Be Done About It, and How We Can Live With It."

Dr. Riley is a graduate of Baylor University College of Medicine and did post graduation medical work at City Memorial Hospital in Winston Salem, N.C. He also worked in the Fellowship Section of Rheumatology, Baylor University College of Medicine. He is a member of the AMA Howard County Medical Society, American Rheumatism Association and is present Chairman of the Medical Committee of the Arthritis Foundation, West Texas Chapter.

This portion of the program will be followed by "New Techniques in Surgery for Arthritis", presented by Kenneth Scholz, Orthopedic, of Lubbock.

Dr. Scholz also received much of his medical training at Baylor University Medical School. He did residency and/or received fellowships at Parkland Memorial Hospital in General & Orthopedic Surgery, Baylor University Medical Center in Orthopedic Surgery, University of Texas, Southwestern Medical School in Orthopedic Surgery Department of Rheumatology and Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Orthopedic Surgery.

He has a specialty certificate from the American Board of Orthopedic Surgery. Dr. Scholz is Associate Clinical Professor at Texas Tech School of Medicine in Orthopedic Surgery.

The third portion of the program will be presented by a Medical Therapist on "Self Help Methods of Therapy for Arthritis." A demonstration of a paraffin bath and other equipment will also be presented.

Blood Drive Discussed For 'Women'

Tuesday, members of "We, The Women" and their guests heard John Swart of Lubbock, who is associated with the Blood Services Center, speak on the various phases of blood donation for the blood bank. He also presented a sound movie on the program.

A community-wide blood drive is set for Monday, May 6, in the Willy Room of the Lamb County Electric Co-op building from 2 to 8 p.m., and is being sponsored by the Littlefield Noon Lions Club.

Members of "We, The Women" will serve refreshments to the donors after they have given blood.

Swart informed the women that persons 17 to 65 years old may donate, but persons 17 years old must have parental consent. Another requirement is that the donor must weigh at least 110 pounds.

Blood samples and medical histories will be taken before blood is accepted. Swart stated that blood only has 21 days of shelf life after it is taken, and that a low 1.9 percent of the blood drawn for the Lubbock center ever becomes outdated.

License Costs $5-- Even If The Bride Pays

By NILAH RODGERS

The influence of the Women's Liberation movement has been recognized—with chagrin—by the marriage license clerks (women) in the Lamb County clerk's office.

"We couldn't believe it at first when the boy would turn to the girl after we asked for the $5 license fee," said Earlene Wimberly, county clerk deputy. "After the boys look questioningly at the girls, we've had quite a few girls pay for the marriage license," Mrs. Wimberly added, with the amazement of a woman brought up to believe a man should pay the bills—beginning with the marriage license.

County clerk Mary Beth Willey said she issued a license to one couple and they split the fee—each paying $2.50.

"We've even had mothers pay the fee," Mrs. Wimberly added.

Even in this day and age, the clerks are a little surprised to find the girls acting aggressive and the boys more like the blushing bride.

Stanley Doss, JP of precinct 4, said he has had a few women pay him for performing their marriage, but not many.

He said he married one couple recently, and the new bride wrote him a check for $15. "I congratulated the groom for starting his marriage off right with the woman paying the bills," Doss laughed.

Doss said he doesn't charge a standard fee for performing a marriage. He said it's old hat to say "just give me half what she's worth," when asked how much is owed. "And that can backfire," he noted with a wry grin.

"I married a middle aged couple, and she was beautiful. I bragged on her and told her how pretty she was. When the man asked me my fee I answered that the pleasure had been mine and he could give me what it was worth. She jabbed him and told him to give me $20, and the groom gave me the $20."

In today's permissive society, sometimes there's an aura of urgency on the part of the applicants applying for marriage license. "I had one girl come in who changed her name three times in one day, (got a divorce, got her maiden name back, and got married) and went to the hospital that same day," one deputy said.

Linda Thompson said one girl came in and told her that she had to have a marriage license issued that day so the baby's father's name could be put on the birth certificate. She said the baby was over due and if she had to wait until after the weekend, it would be too late.

Another girl said she had to have a marriage license before the hospital would put the name of the father on the birth certificate.

"I think hospitals are wising up," Mrs. Thompson said. "Hospitals here don't require proof of marriage, but larger hospitals are requiring a license before they'll record the name of the father."

There is no waiting period in Texas. A couple 18 or older can get a blood test, a license, and get married on the same day. Both must be 18 or older to get their license on their own.

But a teenager must show up at the county clerk's office with proof of age in the form of a certified copy of their birth certificate or drivers license.

If either or both are 16 or 17, then parental consent is necessary, too. A girl who is 16 or 17 must have parental consent, while a boy who is 16 or 17 must

Forum Concludes Study About 'Heroes'

The Forum concluded a year's study on "American Heroes" with a program on George Washington Carver brought by Mrs. Lenton Smith.

Mrs. Smith told how George Washington Carver was one of the most frustrated men who ever lived. He had been born with an artist's soul and passionately loved flowers. His life-long dream was to paint flowers. His child-like diary tells the story. He said he had to argue hard with God. "Let me paint Lord," he had prayed. "Flowers to study and paint. I will ask nothing more." But the Creator had conflicting ideas and His reply was stern. "Your shall not have flowers to study, but you shall have dirt to analyze, not orchids to paint, but peanuts to dissect."

In 1896, Booker T. Washington, who had developed Tuskegee Institute in Alabama into a nationally known Negro institution of learning, heard about Carver's work in the agricultural field and asked him to come to Tuskegee Institute as a teacher. This was the finger of God, for which he had been waiting. He accepted.

When Carver arrived at the institute, he found there was no equipment in the laboratory, so he and his students built a laboratory of sorts. He had the students plant cowpeas instead of cotton, then he showed them how to cook them.

The South had too much cotton and boll weevils, so he turned to raising peanuts. He persuaded the farmers to plant peanuts, but they said "goobers" were for hogs. Carver told them that the peanut was an idel food for man. He set out to find ways of using it.

We know that he made over three hundred products from peanuts.

Among the things he made were face powder, printer's ink, butter, shampoo, creosote, vinegar, dandruff cure, instant coffee, dyes, rubberoid compound, soaps, salads, and wood stains.

It was the boll weevil that had driven farmers to raising peanuts. Now, sweet potatoes were rotting in the fields. Carver turned to them. He extracted from the lowly yam more than a hundred products, most important being flour, starch, tapioca, breakfast foods, stock foods, numerous dyes for silks and cottons, vinegar, mucilage, ink, and synthetic rubber.

Near the end of his life, Dr. Carver endowed the George Washington Carver Foundation with all he possessed. He knew that he was planting rich seeds in the garden of time.

Mrs. Hubert Henry, president presided for a short business meeting.

Mrs. Dick Carl discussed plans for the spring party, which will be held in the party room of the Tasty Taco, May 10th.

MRS. W. D. Smith was hostess for the meeting.

Mr., Mrs. Frank Cummings

Visit Sons On Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummings left immediately after school dismissed Friday, April 12th—as Mrs. Cummings is a teacher in the Littlefield school system—on their way to the Baptist Encampment Park at Lake Brownwood, where the First Baptist Church of Brownwood was having a fish-fry with other food served "Dinner On The Ground" style, on tables under the trees near the edge of the lake. Near 600 people were there.

After the meal the group gathered a short distance from the tables on a level grassy spot, overlooking the lake and enjoyed guitar music and singing by the entire group, all seated on blankets on the grass.

The singing was followed by a message by their pastor, Dr. Logan M. Cummings.

On Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cummings stayed at their son's home (the parsonage in Brownwood) to see and listen to the services at the First Baptist in Brownwood on television. "The entire services were wonderful with over 1,200 present," they said.

They also visited their daughter, Sharon Lee Cummings, who is a graduate student in the University of Texas. They also visited many other places of interest in Austin.

On Wednesday, April 17, they went to Stephenville where their son, Dr. Joe F. Cummings and wife Marian and 3 children live.

Dr. Cummings is on the staff of the Graduate School of Tarleton State University. Joe had just been to a golf tournament in Fort Worth Monday, April 15, and had won first place, which carried with it some prizes. They returned to Littlefield, Saturday April 20.

John Kelley Receives

Texas Tech Scholarship

John S. Kelley, an agricultural engineering major at Texas Tech University in Lubbock, is one of 15 science students from Texas Tech and Lubbock Christian College who received $500 scholarships Monday in recognition of their academic accomplishments.

Making the awards was the Lubbock Chapter of the Achievement Rewards for College Scientists Foundation (ARCS).

Kelley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Kelley of Rt. 2, Earth.

The scholarships were presented during a luncheon in the Lubbock Women's Club by ARCS Scholarship Committee chairman, Mrs. David M. Vigness.

"Each of you is the kind of person the future depends upon," Mrs. Vigness told the students. "We have picked you as 'winners' and will look forward to hearing from you in the future and wish you great success in your chosen careers."

The scholarship recipients will begin their senior year at their respective institutions next fall. Each holds a 3.8 grade average on a 4.0 scale, according to ARCS chapter president, Mrs. C. B. Carter.

Annual fund drives by individual chapters raise monies for scholarships in each chapter area. Enrollment figures were used to determine the number of scholarships to be awarded in each Lubbock school. Texas Tech students received 13 scholarships and Lubbock Christian College received two.

To The EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I'm writing to tell you about a historic resolution recently passed by the Senate of the United States. I believe it could help bring about a dramatic change in the moral and spiritual life of our nation.

The Congress hereby proclaims that April 30, 1974 be a National Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer; and calls upon the people of our nation to humble ourselves as we see fit, before our Creator to acknowledge our final dependence upon Him and to repent of our nation sins.

This resolution was sponsored by Senator Mark Hatfield and Senator Harold Hughes. It is one of the most significant steps taken by the Senate since it confirmed President Abraham Lincoln's Call to Prayer in 1863. I have enclosed a copy of the complete resolution.

I'm sure you'll agree that this national call to prayer comes at a time when our nation is desperately searching for direction. We are experiencing a time of national uncertainty. The news of our day tells a story of corruption, violence, doubt, fear.

The Scriptures give a promise that speaks to America's condition today:

"If my people who are called by my name shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, will forgive their sins, and will heal their land" (II Chronicles 7:14).

I believe we can experience a rebirth of the moral and spiritual values that have given our nation strength down through history! But this rebirth of faith and freedom will happen only if we pray.

I believe that all Americans, regardless of their religious beliefs, can participate in this National Day of Prayer.

The moral and spiritual well-being of our nation is at stake! A concentrated day of prayer by millions of Americans can certainly be a first step in bringing positive change to our nation.

Thank you for your efforts on behalf of the National Day of Prayer, April 30, 1974.

Sincerely,
s/Bill Bright

Several of us in this area are concerned about special education in instruction for our children.

We now have a petition circulating to acquire signatures of interested citizens who also would like to see a more complete educational opportunity of ferred here in our own school system.

The program sought is to include services to aid mental retardation, learning and language disabilities, emotional disturbances, speech and hearing therapy, behavioral problems and education for the deaf.

Dear Friend:

I am enjoying the thirty-day recess from the Constitutional Convention in Austin. It's giving me a little time to catch up on some work around home and offering me a chance to do some campaigning.

I wanted to use this letter to inform you of some of the things that have happened at the Constitutional Convention since we convened in January.

Of the eleven articles to be included in the document, we have tentatively approved seven—the Bill of Rights, Executive, Voter Qualification and Elections, Education, Finance, Local Government and the Mode of Amending the Constitution. The four articles awaiting approval are Separation of Powers, Legislative, Judiciary, and General Provisions.

The Bill of Rights was not changed nor was the Preamble to the Constitution; however, there was substantial change in some of the other articles that we considered.

The Executive Article gives the governor some additional authority such as appointing one-third of the members of all boards and commissions during the first four months of each new term. It also allows him to designate the chairman of boards and commissions and authorizes the governor to remove appointed officers for cause if the Senate does not vote against such removal. The article provides a manner for the governor to submit reorganization plans and it also provides for a self-destruction of state agencies every ten years unless they are extended by law.

The article on voter qualifications and elections is relatively short and conforms to the federal constitution in that 18 year olds are given full rights. One provision of the article authorizes the legislature to define property ownership as a qualification for voting on property taxes or authorizing any debt that will be paid for with property taxes. Another provision restores voting rights to felons after they have served their sentences.

The Education Article spells out a mandate to furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity where public schools are concerned. The public and county school funds are retained in the constitution. Higher education will be funded by two permanent funds—the permanent university fund from which the investment income is used by the University of Texas and Texas A & M systems and the "State's Higher Education Assistance Fund," which was established to benefit all state senior colleges and universities not in the UT and A & M systems.

The Finance Article requires all real and tangible personal property to be taxed on the basis of market value, the appraisals being made by the counties. There is a provision requiring the legislature to provide a method to appraise agriculture land on a productivity basis. The article provides for "pay as you go"—no state debt provision—and prohibits public funds from being used to influence the election of public officials.

The Local Government Article maintains county offices and terms of office as they are presently; however, it does provide that by a vote of the people in a county, certain offices can be combined and the governing body be authorized to enact ordinances. The article allows cities with populations of 1500 or more to adopt home rule charters. As an alternative to be submitted to the voters, the new constitution proposes county home rule on majority vote of the county's citizens.

The article on the mode of amending is similar to the present constitution's amending process except that some referendums submitted to the people (such as the issuing of state bonds,) will not become a part of the constitution. Another provision of the article recommends that there be a constitutional convention once every thirty years to re-evaluate the document and suggest changes if necessary.

I hope the short comments on the above articles are helpful and as soon as the Convention completes its work, I will try to provide a comparison of the proposed document and the present constitution.

In the meantime, if I can help or assist you in any way, please call me.

Your voice in state government, s/Bill Clayton
Bill Clayton

P. S. I urge you to contact me with any thoughts you have on the proposed constitution. We go back into convention session on May 6th, and at that time we will debate the Legislature, Judiciary, General Provisions, and Separation of Powers articles. All the articles will be debated again and then a final 2/3 majority vote will be required by the Convention delegates on the entire document before it is placed on the ballot for citizen approval or disapproval. There's lots of time for your input and I would be pleased to hear from you.

"Don't Forget To Vote May The 4th."

Highway Convention Has Been Postponed

All members of the Highway 385 and International Parks Highway Associations have been notified that due to the energy crisis, the 1974 IPIHA Convention which was originally scheduled for May 10 and 11, will be postponed until November.

Location of the convention in November will be either in Colorado or Nebraska.

HOW ABOUT some Rumbledethumps for dinner? What's Rumbledethumps?

I recently came across a story which came from Glasgow, Scotland and was headlined with the first line of this column.

It seems that with the aid of lady cooks, the Scottish Tourist Bureau is promoting Rumbledethumps, Whim Wham, Clapshot, Bubbly Jock, Tweed Kettle and Cullen Skink to introduce visitors to their local tasty food dishes.

According to the story, "The dishes are not as complicated as they sound!" Translated into our own common knowledge of foods, Rumbledethumps is boiled cabbage and potatoes, Clapshot is boiled turnips and potatoes, Tweed Kettle is poached salmon, Cullen Skink is haddock soup, and Whim, Wham is "a dessert to match its name."

ON PRETTY SPRING DAYS like Sunday was, several residents dusted off their barbecue grills, lit their charcoal and cooked a feast for their families and friends.

Here's a recipe for barbecued chicken that is excellent for persons who don't like highly seasoned tomato sauces.

BARBUCUED CHICKEN

2 (2 1/2-pound) broiler-fryer chickens
Olive or salad oil
Garlic
White pepper to taste
Marinate chickens, cut in half or quarters, in mixture of oil, garlic and pepper. Cover and refrigerate 4 to 5 hours.

SAUCE

2/3 cup butter
2/3 cup water
1 1/2 Tbsps. lemon juice
2 tsps. flour
2 tsps. bottled steak sauce
2 tsps. sugar
1 tsp. liquid smoke
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. hot pepper sauce
Dash cayenne
Heat all ingredients for sauce until hot and smooth. Drain chickens well and arrange, cut side down on grill, turn and baste often with sauce.
Grill over moderately hot coals 45 minutes to 1 hour.

THIS IS ANOTHER recipe for barbecue sauce, and makes up into three quarts. According to the recipe, it will keep a year if kept in the refrigerator.

SMOKY BARBECUE SAUCE

1/2 cup melted butter
1/3 cup brown sugar
1 lb. 4 oz. bottle regular barbecue sauce
1 lb. 4 oz. bottle smoky barbecue sauce
1 lb. 4 oz. bottle catsup
3 oz. bottle liquid smoke
1 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce
Red pepper sauce (if desired)
Mix all ingredients. Store in refrigerator in tightly sealed jars.

BARBUCUED SPARERIBS

3 pounds spareribs

MARINADE

1/4 cup soy sauce
2 Tbsps. honey
2 Tbsps. burgundy
1 Tbsp. brown sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 piece fresh or dry ginger root (about 1 inch long), grated
1 clove garlic, minced
(NOTE: Fresh ginger roots may be purchased at Chinese restaurants or Chinese food shops. Wrap them in foil and keep in the refrigerator.)
Wipe ribs with damp cloth and set in glass baking dish (do not use metal). Mix marinade ingredients. Refrigerate ribs in marinade overnight. Remove from refrigerator about a half hour before ready to cook. Drain. Barbecue over low heat about 6 inches from fire. Baste and turn often until well done, about 1 hour. Makes about four servings.

TIPS AND TIDBITS:

TO REMOVE BLOOD and meat juice stains from white cottons and linens, soak in cold water. If the stain persists, soak in lukewarm ammonia water (3 tablespoons of household ammonia per gallon of water). Then launder in lukewarm water and detergent. The same instructions go for other washable fabrics and colors—if the colors are fast. If questionable, use hydrogen peroxide instead of ammonia.

DO NOT BRUSH your hair when it is wet. It can cause split ends and will pull out. Comb-dry your hair instead. A hair brush used a hundred strokes nightly keeps your hair healthy and shining.

PLACE LAYERS of newspapers on each shelf when defrosting your refrigerator to help sop up water and eliminate a lot of sponging.

AFTER YOU'VE defrosted your refrigerator, wipe with pure vinegar the inside and gaskets to prevent mildew. A little vanilla on a piece of cotton and placed in the refrigerator will eliminate odors.

Dial 385-4411 To Call Ambulance

Persons wishing to solicit the service of an ambulance are now reminded to call 385-4411.

The City of Littlefield is now in charge of the operation of ambulance service for the southern portion of Lamb County.

Residents at Spade, Hart Camp, Fieldton, Amherst, Sudan, Whitharral and Littlefield are reminded to write the new number inside telephone books for easy and quick reference.

Calls will be handled by the city dispatcher, and the ambulance will be manned through the police department.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE Staying Put

CHANGES ARE JUSTIFIED now and then, but, as a general rule, "staying put" is the most rewarding manner of life. Changes we make in our life situation or location must not be made without very good reason.

Trying to run away; assuming that change will solve all difficulties; and such like are not valid reasons for being always on the move.

Roaming about, going to far away places and trying to find "greener pastures" have been romanticized in books, songs and stories of dreamers. These are taken much too seriously by some folk, people who seem to fail to understand that these books, songs and stories have little or no basis in fact. Unfortunately, the restlessness generated just adds to the misery of the people who make the mistake of being always discontented.

"ONE PRINCIPAL REASON why men are so often useless is, that they divide and shift their attention among a multiplicity of objects and pursuits." —Emmons.

"STAYING PUT" is usually the wise choice for us. Of course, if there is a well-thought-out reason for making a move and we want to make it; this is the wise choice.

Otherwise, the richness and fullness of life are found in "staying put". Generally, this is the choice that brings the secure feelings we need; we can usually do better in fulfilling our obligations; we can develop and maintain more meaningful friendships; and become more substantial in all significant ways.

LOOKS AS IF the Big Boys may be able to hand something on Nixon, yet! That is, if they can bully him into giving them his little black book and family diary.

WAS QUITE interested in the letters of research on the Sod House bit. Had a pretty close experience with one of those 'Half Dugouts' myself. I'll try to get around to telling about it sometime.

JUST MUST GET around to mowing my lawn pretty soon. Way it's been, I'm afraid it might start blowing.

IF IT HASN'T rained by the tenth of next month, I'm ready to start worrying. As of now even my dandelions are beginning to look sick.

I'D BEEN counting my blessings for the fact that I'd thought we lived among some of the most understanding people of any part of the world. However, I guess we're more civilized than I thought.

A TIP OF THE HAT goes to our neighboring city, Abernathy, for being foresighted enough to facilitate a new look in education. It took quite a bit of foresightedness and ambition to provide for their students the new uniquely designed Academic Center.

The new building is a wonderful asset to the community and the community and the board should be commended.

What really caught my attention is a statement made by Dr. Delwin Webb, superintendent of the Abernathy schools, and that is "Our basic goal will be to take care of the academic needs of ANY INDIVIDUAL STUDENT."

Webb also indicated that he interprets individual instruction to mean that the goal of a school system should be to be responsive enough to fulfill the needs and interests of each one of its students. "We all have interests, but they're all different," emphasizes Webb.

This is a good approach for all of us to follow because it is our responsibility to develop the young minds of the children of our community. We should be reminded that the education of one's mind is the only thing that we can produce that will be used by all of our students for the rest of their lives.

NOW FOR MORE DOWN to earth writing, or should we say down in the lake writing. It seems that a local family took advantage of the Easter holidays and went fishing. Now this is well and good. (At this point I would like to call to mind the various cartoons about people who are noted crawling out of the water after they have fallen in, with fish in their pockets, etc.) In this particular instance this is not true because this individual's wife fell overboard and when she came up the only thing she had was a soaking wet personality and not a thing in her pockets.

With regard to OSHA proposals, which would require that protective devices for power transmission, electrical and other farm machinery components be installed on all farm equipment, the Board resolved:

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

The Board of Directors of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., meeting in Lubbock April 18, elected five cotton producers and one well-known cotton-oriented businessman to its Executive Committee.

Paul Bennett, a former ginner at Amherst and now in the seed business at Littlefield, was chosen to serve on the Executive Committee from Lamb, Hale, Floyd and Motley counties.

In addition the board adopted a resolution opposing what was described as "inequitable" regulations handed down from Washington by the U.S. Department of Agriculture concerning disaster payments under the current farm program, and another calling for public hearings on farm machinery safety requirements proposed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

PCG represents the interests of cotton producers in a 25 county area surrounding Lubbock, seeking to better the producer's lot through production and utilization research, by representing them in legislative matters, promoting area cotton for use in the world textile industry, and providing a variety of other services.

The 25 counties are divided into six districts with comparable production volumes, and one member of the Board is elected from each of the six districts to serve on the Executive Committee along with the organization's officers and past presidents.

W. L. "Preach" Edlemon, cotton grower from Friona, was elected to represent Farmer, Deaf Smith, Castro, Swisher and Briscoe Counties;

Gary Ivey, Crosbyton producer, was named to the Executive Committee to represent Crosby, Dickens and Lubbock Counties.

The PCG Board contends in its resolution opposing recently issued disaster payment regulations that USDA is attempting to subvert the intent of Congress when the Agriculture and Consumer Protection Act of 1973 was passed by:

(1) limiting the amount of some producer allotments

Thoughts

From The Living Bible For though I spend my life searching for wisdom, knowledge, and skill, I must leave all of it to someone who hasn't done a day's work in his life. This is not only foolish, but unfair. So what does a man get for all his hard work? Days full of sorrow and grief, and restless, bitter nights. It is all utterly ridiculous. So I decided that there was nothing better for a man to do than to enjoy his food and drink, and his job. Then I realized that even this pleasure is from the hand of God.

There is A Star in Littlefield

AUTHORIZED BRAKE SERVICE CENTER

These 6 steps. Can Make Your Brakes As Good Or Better Than The Brakes On A New Car.

- 1 WE DISMOUNT YOUR BRAKE SHOES
When your brake shoes look like the photo above, you're driving with your life in the balance. Even when the linings are not worn out, there may be a hidden weakness that can cause your shoes to fail. Linings can become glazed by excessive heat, reducing friction potential to dangerous levels. Oil, dirt, and other contaminants on the shoes, especially at high speeds may cause the shoes to become detached from the shoe. Star Brake Service uses a thorough inspection to reveal the true cause of brake failure.
- 2 WE THOROUGHLY RECONDITION YOUR BRAKE SHOES
When we overhaul your brakes, we like to start with a good foundation. We use the brake shoes that are already on your car because we know they are "mated" to work properly with the rest of the brake mechanism. We do not substitute an entirely different set of brake shoes. In reconditioning your shoes, we completely remove the old lining and clean the table of the shoe. When we are satisfied that the shoes are as good as new, we're ready to reline them.
- 3 WE RIVET ON PREMIUM LININGS
Two things to remember about our Star Brake Service: 1) We use only premium-grade Star linings, secured to the shoe by the only positive method known—precision power-riveting. No adhesives or bonding agents are used because we know that even the best of these can be affected by extreme heat. 2) Ventilating grooves in the lining and hollow center vented rivets allow free air circulation through and around the shoe to ventilate friction surfaces. Result: reduced brake heat-up and faster cooling—safer, smoother braking.
- 4 WE TURN WORN DRUMS TO RESTORE 100% BRAKING SURFACE
To put relined brake shoes in a glazed, scored or out-of-round drum is like putting a new tube in a worn-out tire casing: sooner or later, you're bound to have trouble. Reconditioning drums is a must for a complete brake job. With our precision Star drum lath, we restore drums to "like new" condition, with a fresh, perfectly round friction surface machined to precision tolerances.
- 5 WE GRIND SHOES TO ENSURE PRECISION SHOE-TO-DRUM CONTACT
Turning drums is not enough. For full braking power, shoe linings must be arc-ground to the precise contour of the drum. This gives you complete, 100% contact with the drum with quiet, steady stopping power on all four wheels. You get safer brakes and smooth stops, eliminate pulling, squealing and swerving. With our Star shoe grinder we arc the new shoe to full contact with the reconditioned drum. No "wear in" and "take-up" adjustment needed because we compensate for initial wear.
- 6 WE CHECK ALL HYDRAULIC AND MECHANICAL LINKAGES
What goes on between your brake pedal and your brakes? We make it our business to find out. As part of our complete Brake Service, we thoroughly check all hydraulic and mechanical linkages. If any part is too badly worn to give reliable service, we'll tell you so. That's why, when we deliver a complete brake job, you'll know that your brakes are as good or better than the brakes on a brand new car. And that's a mighty good thing.

Cook Grabs Two Thirds In Regional

Littlefield's Randy Cook came up seven inches short of a berth in the state track meet when he hurled the discuss 132' 7" in the regional meet at Odessa Friday.

Cook's toss was good for third place in the event, and he also won third in the shot with a personal best mark of 48' 10 1/2". Cook was the only Littlefield athlete to score points in Odessa.

"I feel like we had a successful track season," commented LHS Track Coach Lewis Boomer. "Overall, I was real pleased with all the boys, and we were happy to have six qualify for regionals. All six of them competed well, but there's a lot of pressure at a big meet like that and a lot of competition."

Ricky Richards reeled off a 48' 10" shot put his personal best that placed seventh. Buddy Jungman ran a 2:03.9 in the 800, which was his top time of the year by four seconds but failed to qualify him in the finals. In the 400, Stanley Patterson turned in a 35.2 Bill Turner was a half-second off his best 330-yard intermediate hurdle time when he finished in 42.5. Mike Cotter in the pole vault failed to clear his previous best height of 12' 3".

Thoughts

From The Living Bible With Jesus' help we will continually offer our sacrifice of praise to God by telling others of the glory of his name. Don't forget to do good and to share what you have with those in need, for such sacrifices are very pleasing to him. Obey your spiritual leaders and be willing to do what they say. For their work is to watch over your souls, and God will judge them on how well they do this. Give them reason to report joyfully about you to the Lord and not with sorrow.

If you can't get PIONEER Brand 8311

here are some excellent alternative hybrids for High Plains farmers.

Pioneer Brand 8311, the "Golden Bronze Yield Leader," has been our most popular hybrid this year — so popular, in fact, that it may be in short supply in some areas. One reason is that the demand has been so great downstate where 8311's disease tolerance is so important. Fortunately, there are several other Pioneer Brand hybrids that are proven top performers on the High Plains. If you can't get 8311, ask your dealer about these.

PIONEER Brand 8417

This versatile yellow endosperm sorghum is a champion yielder in the medium-late maturity class, for irrigated or non-irrigated land. It has large open heads, uniform head height, strong stalks for easy threshing, good tolerance to smut and anthracnose.

PIONEER Brand 820

This top-notch full-season hybrid, is a consistently high yielder. Excellent drought resistance and standability plus good roots and stalks make it a good choice for irrigated or non-irrigated farming on the plains.

PIONEER Brand 828

One of the highest yielding sorghums you can plant, this full-season hybrid responds well to good management on good land with plenty of water. Plains growers like it because it holds its quality and threshes well even after an early freeze. It produces sturdy stalks with semi-compact heads of dark red grain.

PIONEER Brand 846

Famous for its versatility and adaptability, this medium-maturity hybrid yields along with the full-season varieties. Resistant to smut, rust and MCM, its outstanding hybrid vigor and excellent drought resistance help it turn in consistently high yields even under stress.
