Stamps By Mail Service Offered

Postmaster George Thompson has announced that a new "Stamps by Mail" service will be offered in the Littlefield area beginning later this month.

According to Postmaster Thompson, the new service will permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail using a personal check or money order.

Thompson noted, "This service will be a great benefit to all our customers and especially shut-ins, the elderly and young wives. It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, quickly and inexpensively from their homes."

Leaflets outlining the details of the service will be distributed to area households and small businesses during the next few weeks.

This new service has been tested in other cities nationwide with good results," Thompson said.

One of our customers in a test city said, "I am very happy about this service, as many of us older people can't go around the way we would like. We appreciate this new service."

Usually we are pleased to provide a service which means so much to people like this senior citizen."

A one-cent fee will be charged to defray the cost of two-way postage, internal mailing of checks and other costs associated with the new service.

The 485-pound bale was ginned from 2260 lbs. of Northern Star 998 seed cotton, which was hand-pulled from five acres of land on the northwest side of Amherst. The bale rolled onto the scales at 5:40 p.m. and Thompson received 50 cents per pound for the cotton and $100 per ton for the seed. (Staff Photo)

Prenatal Education Class Offered To Expectant Parents

A prenatal education class for expectant parents has been announced by the Marriage and Family Services Division at Central Plains Mental Health Center in Littlefield.

Set for Monday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on Oct. 8, 15, 22 and 29, the class is designed to assist expectant parents in knowing more about pregnancy and childbirth. As well, the class will emphasize normal development of children from birth to age three.

Claude Dollins, director of the Marriage and Family Service Division, indicated that both husbands and wives are welcome in the class. However, some wives may choose to attend the class alone.

Dollins suggested that a major section of the program would deal with how expectant parents can strengthen their relationship while providing a healthy family setting for their expected arrival. He also noted that families expecting their first child as well as those who already have children would be welcome for the class.

Registration for the class can be made by calling 385-4013.

Many local physicians will likely have information about the class as well.

In a classic see-saw battle in which the lead changed hands six times, Levelland scored last and most and handed the Littlefield Wildcats a heartbreaking 32-27 loss. The game was played Friday in Wildcat Stadium before a capacity crowd.

The Lobos played aggressive, hard-nosed football, and won the rights to the Golden Trap, which goes annually to the winner of this game between the two perennial rivals. They also proved that their 8-0 loss to highly-regarded Andrews last week was no fluke, and that they have definitely improved greatly since last year, when they went 0-10.

The Cats seemed to be in good shape with 8:10 left in the game. Kenny Owens leaped over a wall of blockers to score from the two and the Cats pulled into a 26-26 tie. Bill Turner punched the point after through the goal-posts, and Littlefield moved into the lead.

But Levelland's Sam Mitchell came fighting back, and almost single-handedly put together a four-play scoring drive. He carried on third and one from the 35, and made the first down on the 37. On the next play, Mitchell, only 5'8" but 160 pounds of speed and muscle, took a pitchout around the left side, cut back to the middle and sped 63 yards into the end zone. The Lobos gave the ball to Mitchell again on the conversion try, but he was stopped a few feet short. Still, Levelland held a 32-27 lead with 6:13 left on the clock.

Craig Ratliff returned the Levelland kickoff to the 41. Terry Bryson rolled left on first down, turned the corner and picked up 12 yards to the Lobo 47. Pat Henderson carried to the 42. Kenny Owens went up the middle to the 38, and on third and two Bryson went around right end to the 32. The Cats picked up a break when a Lobo defender was called for pass interference on the 27, and on first down, Bryson picked up one yard. The second down pass was incomplete, and on third, Bryson was dropped all the way to the 41 while attempting a pass. Facing a fourth down and with 25 yards needed, Randy Cook gathered in a Bryson pass and bulled his way to the 26. Levelland took over on downs with 2:17 left, made one first down, and carefully ran out the clock.

For the Cats, it was a disappointing loss. See WILDCATS, Page 13

Old Fire Truck Promoting Lionism

By NILAH RODGERS

The Littlefield Lions Clubs new toy made its second official appearance at the downtown broom sale Saturday.

And in many instances, the bright red vintage fire truck attracted more interest than the wares the Lions were selling.

The 1914 LaFrance fire engine was restored by members of the Littlefield Noon Lions Club a week before the Festivities Days Parade. In the future, the 59-year-old fire truck will be used in parades, broom sales, driven downtown on Wednesdays to pick up Lions Club members, and every way possible to boost Lionism.

A new antique to the Lions, actually the seasoned truck is a castoff of the Shrine Club which used to be headquartered in Littlefield. The Shriners bought the truck back in the 1950s to use in parades and Kiva Shrine activities.

The late C. H. Messer went to Breckenridge and hauled the fire truck back after the ancient piece of firefighting equipment was retired from service. Built in the days before red lights and sirens, the Shriners felt the truck should have a bell.

So the Messers donated a big bell they'd come across while hunting deer in Colorado. Originally the big brass bell was the school bell at Powderhorn, Colo.

Flannery Newton restored the truck to running condition by replacing the original 6 cylinder motor with an updated '46 V-8 truck motor and transmission. Newton said their biggest problem was making the modern transmission fit the 1914 chain drive high speed setup. The truck appeared in parades four or five times a year for several years.

When the Littlefield Shriners disbanded, Newton inherited the truck—more or less. "It was just an old toy nobody wanted," Newton said. For years the truck was kept in barns. "Until we ran out of barns," Newton added. "For the last six or seven years, it has set out in the open over at Round-up."

When Newton proposed that the Littlefield Lions could use the truck if they would get it in running condition, they took him up.

Jim Marcum volunteered to head the committee and provide working space and storage facilities. Marcum, Tommy Brawley, Johnny Hall, Newton, Allen Brady, Rad Richardson, Tom Tollett and James Lee spent several nights getting the truck in running condition. Danny Stueart of the newly formed Early Risers Lions Club painted the truck a bright, shiny red.

"Doyle Patton showed up one night to work on the truck attired in his white pants and white shoes," Marcum said. "Without his faithful and fearless leadership, we would have completed the work in much less time!"

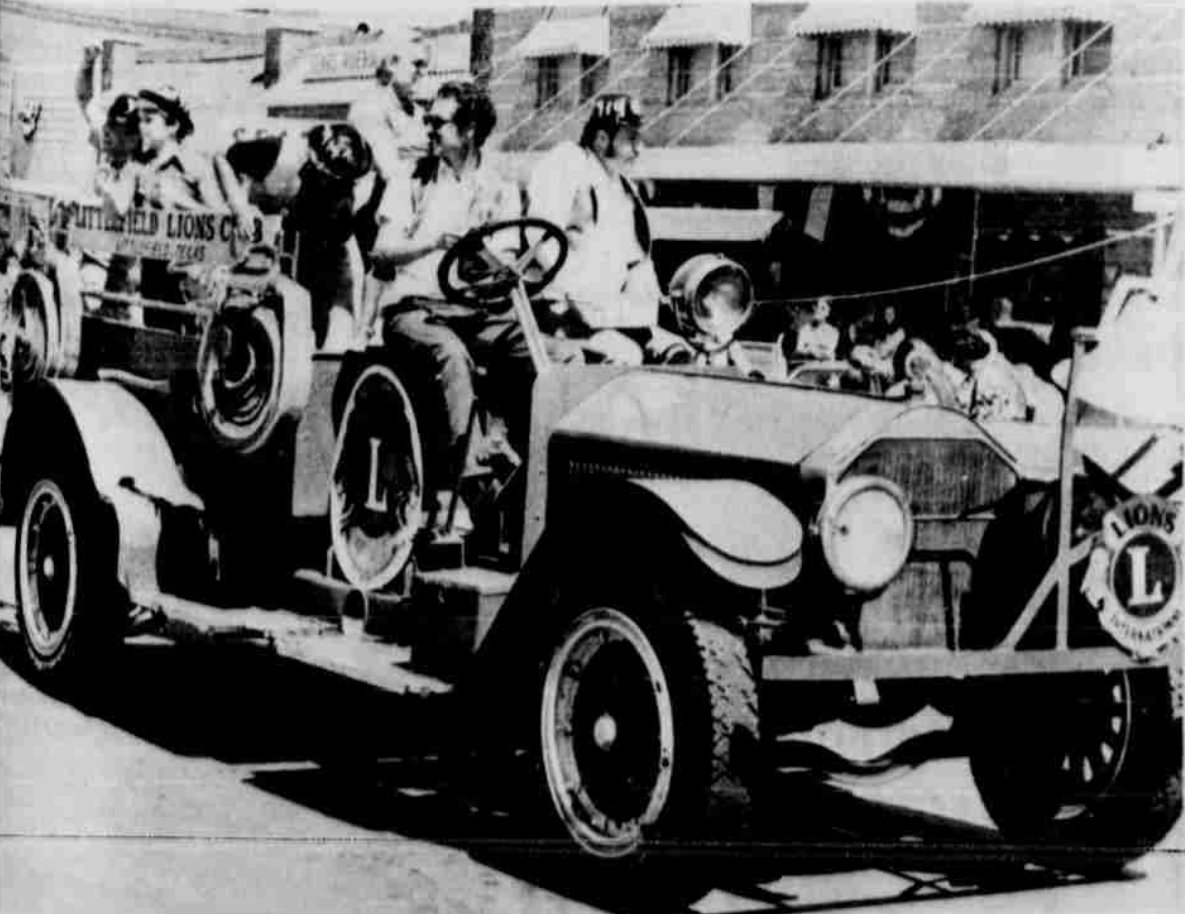

Despite its age, the truck is in good condition. The odometer shows 2,000 miles, and club members estimate the truck has probably traveled about 50,000 miles. Although officials advised that no safety inspection sticker would be necessary for parades and displays, Marcum said the truck could pass inspection. And if fire fighting equipment was installed, the truck could be used to fight fires again. The original water tank, pump and big engine were sold for junk when the Shriners bought the truck.

Everything on the truck is original except the motor and one of the transmissions. Besides two transmissions, the truck boasts two radiators with a coolant return system like that on cars today. And although it's older than Ralph Nader, the bumpers are made in a way that they absorb impact.

With all these modern facilities, it has its drawbacks. The 38-inch tires mounted on wooden spokes make handling a little hard. (Trucks have 20-inch tires.) The steering and two-wheel brakes are mechanical. When braking, a lever pushes another lever and that lever into a block or what is now a brake drum. The two transmissions and steering system make it tough to drive. And that chain drive on the back wheels like a bicycle chain practically guarantees that whoever is driving won't get many tickets, because the top speed is about 45 mph.

The old fire engine has seen its last days when it comes to fires, but it will be a good conversation piece and boost Lionism for a long time.

LITTLEFIELD Lions Club's 59-year old fire truck shown here making its debut in the Festivities Days parade. It made its second official appearance yesterday when the Lions displayed it on Phelps Avenue at their broom sale headquarters. In the future the fire truck will appear in parades and be used in ways to promote Lionism.

Man first began using energy when he discovered fire and the benefits that fire could give him. Cooking and warmth in the winter.

As time went on and man learned more, he started using animal and whale oil to light the lamps to see by at night. Next, came coal, then oil from the ground and, in the process, natural gas. This replaced manufactured gas because it was cheap and, many thought, plentiful.

But then the natural gas started to run out and suddenly there was an energy crisis . . . and people worried about the future.

The great hope for the future was left to electricity.

But, you say, it takes gas to make electricity. Yes, in our plants we do use natural gas but there ARE other sources of things from which to make electricity.

Coal is one — and that's what our next plant, about to be built, will use . . . low sulphur western coal with the most advanced pollution control equipment.

Is there enough coal? Yes, we have under contract a fifty year supply.

What other sources are there? Beyond the fossil fuels there is nuclear energy. The breeder reactor will actually make more fuel than it uses. The fusion process will use seawater for fuel — that supply is unlimited.

So, it's obvious that the big source of energy now and for the future for industry, agriculture, business and the home is electricity.

With electricity you can be sure that the electric appliances you buy today can still be used in the future . . . no shortage, no obsolescence with clean electricity.

Your future is ELECTRIC!

County Cotton Producers Set Breakfast Meeting

Lamb County cotton producers and agribusinessmen will elect a businessman director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. at a 7:30 breakfast meeting Thursday, Sept. 20, at the Tasty Taco Restaurant in downtown Littlefield.

Announcement of the election comes from Paul Bennett of Littlefield, current Lamb County Businessman Director to the 25-county commodity organization, and J. D. Smith of Littlefield, producer director.

Each of the counties in PCG territory has two directors, one a businessman, usually a cotton grower as well, and the other a cotton producer. They serve two-year terms, with businessmen elected on odd years and producers on even years. Each is eligible for re-election every second year.

Smith and Bennett said all interested parties are urged to attend, and that both farmers and businessmen are eligible to vote in the election.

In addition to the election, Smith said a member or members of the PCG staff will be on hand "to bring us up to date on cotton activities and to answer any questions concerning the organization's objectives." He added "Directors to PCG are the men who determine the organization's policies and actions on legislation, research, promotion, finances and other matters so vital to the cotton economy of Lamb County, and all cotton people should make every effort to be on hand for this election."

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

LITTLE CHILDREN ask so many questions that are hard to answer.

I read a story about a little boy going into a minister's office and looking around asked, "where is God?"

HOW DO YOU tell a little boy where God is, or any one else as far as that goes.

ONE TIME a little girl said to me, "If God made all the world and everything else, who made God?"

It takes a lot of searching to answer questions like that. "Who made God and where is He?"

THE BIBLE says, "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth."

So I say to my little friend, "I don't know who made God, but away back there in the beginning maybe millions and billions of years ago God was there."—He was there.

HE WAS BUSY creating stars, and planets and worlds in a celestial cosmos that is so great that we can't begin to conceive of how big it is.

Yet God in all this vast universe has time for me and for little girls and boys.

I don't know who God is, but I can feel Him in my heart and I see His love shining from the face of the people with whom I come in contact.

I can see His influence at work in the world—still creating and still shaping it according to His plan.

SOMEONE said, "God's purposes never fail, they may be postponed for awhile if we fail Him."

I know also, that I cannot go beyond His love and care.

I know some people now who have great burdens to fear.

REMEMBER He has promised to always be near, and He is. He is as close as our own breathing, our own thinking. He is only a thought away.

Just center your thoughts on Him and let Him help you lift that heavy load and you will find peace of mind and joy of living.

IN PSALMS we read this, "In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried unto my God: He heard my voice out of His holy temple, and my cry came before Him, even unto His ears."

HE DOES HEAR us when we cry and gives us strength. He hears us when we pray.

Dear Editor:

This is being written to tell the whole story about Mrs. Don Ford's fish story. The information has already gotten back to me that she is telling about the 9 lb. fish she caught, and the 7 lb. fish that I caught.

She has a picture for proof of her catch; however, she is not telling about the 5 lb. fish I caught just after catching the 7 lb.

Seven and five make twelve, you might say, a 12 lb. fish.

You are invited to come to Alabama to do some fishing.

Dear Editor:

Charles Ary said "one or the other"—tax assessor or data processing—have got things in a mess. THEN IT SEEMS HE GOES ON AND DECIDES WHERE TO PUT THE BLAME—the tax office.

In places where I have lived, people voted once a year...in the fall. Here in Littlefield, people can vote often on a liquor election, and I have thought, "How extravagant!" Also, I have thought, "How much trouble that is for the authorities," and "How expensive for the people."

Sincerely,

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Satisfied Mind

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that there is so much dissatisfaction where there should be and can be justified satisfaction.

A "satisfied mind" does not imply a lazy mind, or an indifferent mind, but it is the condition of mind produced by the realization that this day has been a time of doing our best.

This does not mean that we have accomplished everything we wanted to accomplish, and it does not mean that it has been a day free of mistakes. It is, however, a day we have used well; we have tried, we have done what we could to correct the mistakes we made, and we plan to do better tomorrow. We are not upset, or anxious, or bitter, or in a state of mental and emotional turmoil.

THERE MUST BE SOME incompleteness about each day of living, but this just part of the reality of life. If we permit this incompleteness to cause dissatisfaction, we will never know the joy, the strength, and the peace of a "satisfied mind".

There will be days when it is impossible to do everything we want to do, or should do; when we will not be able to complete what we begin; when we will experience big disappointments; but, if we have made an honest effort; we are very foolish to reject the reward of a "satisfied mind".

OUR SENSE OF VALUES is going to be the governing factor. The real satisfaction in which we will find the "satisfied mind", with all of its blessings, does not depend upon what we have, but upon what we are.

If we love material wealth above all else, we will never be satisfied. If our first love is popularity, status or like; a "satisfied mind" is not reach. If, however, we put first (the things we call spiritual enduring); and let everything be in its proper place, we will have satisfaction we seek.

THIS SATISFACTION is ourselves. It is not a life depends upon the way the world but it depends upon the way we going.

Our self-image must be well and it can be; and our movement must be controlled, formed and wisely chosen goals. All of this is easily reach, and is in complete our potential.

"A MAN WHO FINDS no satisfaction within himself, seeks for it elsewhere." —Rochefoucauld

THERE IS A RESTLESSNESS seems determined to destroy effectiveness and personal mankind. If permitted to take one's life, it usually becomes in its power, and relentless in us, from a dissatisfied mind; but not an inevitable condition. We choice.

WE CAN THINK STRA maintain our personal integrity, thankful for our blessings, be in our associations with others, to do our best; and be happy "satisfied mind".

ACQUAINTANCES ARE forever

telling me that the little woman at my house has a lot of "get up and go". Guess she has at that. 'Cause that's just what she did!—Got up and went!

Oh no! No hard feelings. It's just that the older daughter had scheduled a surgery, and the little woman wanted to be there, to see that everything came out alright!

NOW, I'VE NEVER been in sympathy with this "Wimmin's Lib" thing. And the last few days haven't done anything to change my views. I'm still of the opinion that the woman's place is in the home, and I've got the digestion to prove it! (Indigestion, that is!)

The first day she was gone, started off just like any other day. And then the alarm went off! From there on was a little number of inconveniences that began to snowball at an alarming rate.

I FIGURED THAT the day would be different from the time I found I'd left the back door open, and it'd rained in the back room. Nothing serious, that is, that couldn't be overcome by donning galoshes.

The time I'd been using to read the morning paper had to be used in preparing breakfast for number two son and myself.

FIRST THING, of course, make coffee. Now I'd a swore I was supposed to use a table coffee per potential cup, but I'd forgotten. Did discover that it was enough instead of the usual.

Somehow too, the oatmeal cost about twice as much as I'd had and had a very peculiar taste. My two son kept toying with his oatmeal, giving me puzzled glances.

Finally, "Dad, this oatmeal funny, did you leave out salt?"—Er,—well, you ARE to use a little salt, aren't you!

WELL, THE BACON and come out very well (seem as though is the pop-up kind.) In fact, I did a pretty good job on the last somehow, the cafes are beginning a little of our business.

Aside from that and the fact have trouble finding clean socks things just keep staying right through them, I'd say I don't woman any more than you'd engine in your car?

SEEMS TR'S A little worried needn't be. Doubt if I'll be copy of HIS stuff!

A TIP OF THE HAT goes to the JV and freshman football teams for a good job against Tahoka, Thursday. If you didn't get to see the games you might make a point to see one in the future. These youngsters did some outstanding football playing.

WHAT WOULD YOU GUESS, if someone asked you to name the single category of goods or services that Americans spent the most on? Food? That would be a popular guess, right now. Or perhaps housing? Well, get ready for a shock. In 1971, we spent a total of $332.6 billion to purchase food, clothing, housing and automobiles. The same year, we spent $338.6 billion on local, state and federal government.

IN REFERENCE TO COTTON contracting one often wonders how a merchant can fulfill a contract with a farmer when the price drops at harvest. Some do not, and either leaves the country quietly or declare bankruptcy.

Although some companies DO honor contracts, even when it seem to be at a loss. These firms usually hedge their risks, either by taking an offsetting position in the futures market or selling to textile mills for future delivery. This fixes their profit margin at levels having a reasonable relationship to their buying price. Textile mills, in turn, hedge their position—by selling cloth for future delivery.

Looks like contracting may be a move to make in the future, the gamble is not much greater than the way a farmer has been selling his cotton in the past, the only difference is that you know what you will get for your cotton in advance and you will know if you had a good deal by contracting early or you lost money when you start ginning in the fall.

PAYMENT LIMITATION to for the four years is set at $200 person, total, on cotton, wheat, grain crops. Rules for whether corporations and stockholders may be considered separate persons will go regulations issued in December meaning less than 50 per stockholders won't be penalized.

A BRIEF TALK made by one personnel at Halfway Thursday water conservation was enough to those who attended become aware of water situation in this area. 10 years are left for us with an water supply, unless we start something towards conservation this time the water supply will start to drop.

They suggested several conserve water that will pay control watering such as every row, and more parallel terrace bench leveling to prevent runoff as other practices. We should take of their suggestions and become aware of our water situation.

Some of their practices may farmer an average of about $10 but this is a lot cheaper than runoff of water and having a $700 per acre that will not produce enough to pay taxes.

From my own experience, parallel terraces will pay for themselves this year in increased yields past years. Actually conservation not cost—it pays. Mr. Farmer, over, conservation today could mine whether your young son will your footsteps, or be forced to common labor.

Forum Serves Fall Breakfast

The Forum held their traditional Fall Breakfast Sunday morning in the party room of the new Tasty Taco. Red, white and blue colors were used to carry out the club theme for the year, "American Heroes". A miniature George and Martha Washington stood on a white styrofoam platform surrounded by red, white and blue balloons to form the centerpiece of the head table. A royal blue strip extended the length of the other table, on which paraded white miniature statues of the presidents from Washington through Eisenhower. The program was given by Mrs. Paul I. Jones. She discussed the epic poem "John Brown's Body" by Stephen Vincent Benet. It concerned happenings of the Civil War Period. Mrs. Jones presented a dramatic recording of the poem read by Judith Anderson, Tyrone Power, and Raymond Massey. Four new members, Mrs. Kenneth Broadus, Willie Florence, Walter Gilliam and Joye Hall were welcomed into the club. Mrs. Vergil Zoth was a guest. Mrs. Frank Cummings, program chairman, distributed new yearbooks. Next meeting will be Oct. 11 in the home of Mrs. Cummings.

Inspection Point Is Closed

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has proposed that the designation of Tulia, as an official grain inspection point be revoked.

The Plainview Grain Inspection and Weighing Service, Inc., the agency to which the Tulia inspection point is assigned, recently requested the closing because of the low volume of grain inspection work done at Tulia. The Plainview agency will provide grain inspection as needed from Happy.

Official grain inspection service is administered by USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service under the U.S. Grain Standards Act.

Anyone wishing to comment on the proposal should send comments, in duplicate, to the Hearing Clerk, Room 112-A, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250, no later than Sept. 30.

The proposal was scheduled for publication in the Aug. 31 Federal Register.

The Consumer Alert

by John L. Hill
Attorney General

Although the federal mail fraud statute—one of our oldest consumer protection laws—has been on the books for 99 years, the fertile minds of confidence men keep producing schemes that lead to consumer disappointments and law enforcement actions.

One of the most famous of mail frauds undoubtedly was the simplest. The promoter advertised in newspapers and magazines: "Last Chance. Send $1." His postoffice box number followed.

By the time government officials put a halt to that, the fellow had gathered in $200,000 worth of dollars which had been rushed by mail by people who didn't want to miss out on that "last chance." No charges were filed, however, since the advertiser had not misrepresented anything, and hadn't promised anything he did not deliver.

Most of the frauds which are perpetrated cost the victims much more—not only in money, but in terms of time and effort.

Among the most vicious, I believe, are the fake job promises.

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division has been the recipient of complaints from persons who followed through on advertisements about employment guidance, only to have their hopes dashed. Typically, the advertiser offers information about "job opportunities" to the person who will send $3 or $4 to learn more.

In some cases, the mailing of the money is the last episode, but the average consumer just chalks the loss off to experience.

Other schemes are more complicated, and more lucrative. They may involve a notice that the sender of the original fee has been "accepted," and for a couple of dollars more, he or she is urged to return an "application" to rush along the referral process.

If the consumer doesn't hear any more after that, real disappointment sets in. By then enough time and effort and hope has been invested that the person really feels cheated, and turns to an agency such as our Consumer Protection Division, or a county or district attorney, or the U.S. Postal Inspector.

While enforcement of the federal mail fraud statute is a function of the postal service, deceptive advertising is illegal under the Texas Deceptive Practices-Consumer Protection Act as well, and our state and county prosecutors can take action. The new act even provides for a court order to refund the consumer's money.

Another advertised practice to beware of is the "learn-at-home" or "work-at-home" plan which promises you fabulous financial rewards if you will send in some money to learn how to sell, raise minks, write advertising copy—there are many twists to this.

Usually, you are required to buy some "materials" for the study or manufacture described.

Remember that there is no easy way to learn at home or to earn at home. The money and time you spend will be your own, and there is no guarantee that your efforts will sell.

We know that some reputable schools and "cottage" manufacturing industries do provide real educational services and parttime employment on a mail-order basis. The fraudulent operator is banking on your confidence in the honest operations when he advertises his.

But at a time when inflation, economic distress and unemployment are major problems, cruel misrepresentations of learning and earning plans are especially outrageous.

If you have any doubts, or complaints, do notify the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division office in Austin, Houston, El Paso, Lubbock, San Antonio or Dallas, or your better business bureau, or county or district attorney.

THIS BIG ONE didn't get away! This 9 1/2-pound channel cat was caught by Mrs. Don Ford while visiting in Helena, Ala. recently. It was caught in a pond owned by Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stubbs, sister and brother-in-law of Bob and Vinita Wear. (Photo by Sam Stubbs)

Get In Shape For Hunting

You say your lease is all sewn up, your gun is oiled, your camping equipment is in top shape and you are sitting on your hands waiting for the hunting season to start?

Maybe shouldn't be sitting, suggest Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

Instead, walking and maybe even a little jogging would be better for your heart. According to the American Heart Association, 50 percent of all deaths in Texas are from cardiovascular diseases, heart attacks being the single greatest killer. Hunters, especially those with sedentary jobs, are prime candidates to become one of these statistics.

Part of every year's hunting preparations should also include a program geared at preparing the body for the rigorous days ahead.

Here are some tips from the American Heart Association which should help a few more hunters get safely home from their trip:

—Arrange to see your doctor before your trip. Discuss your plans with him and take his advice.

—Dress sensibly. Consider the climate both day and night. If you hunt at an altitude higher than where you live, start a few days early to get acclimated. Get adequate rest before the hunt starts. Don't hunt when exhausted. Plan your day of hunting and rest often.

—Know the approximate distance to be covered. Know the location of the nearest center.

—If you are already a heart patient, be sure one member of your party knows about your condition and the medicines you take. Never hunt alone.

—When you bag a heavy deer, get help in taking the animal out of the woods.

The checkup a few months before the hunt is most important. If your doctor okay it, start a training program to get yourself in shape.

The current administration, through Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, is calling for all-out production of agricultural commodities in 1974 and is taking off almost all planting restrictions to that end.

In a nine-day tour of western states, Butz is proclaiming that prospective world supply-demand conditions will be such in 1974 that there is little risk of an oversupply bringing on a drastic drop in farm prices. Moreover, he says the Government, under the new farm program, is accepting a part of the price risk that does exist.

"And we have to agree with the secretary on both counts," says Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock. "There are in fact strong indications that world demand for cotton, wheat and feed grains will continue to provide good markets, assuming no further government interference with exports. Therefore the risk of overproduction and disaster prices does not appear to be great.

Nevertheless there is a degree of risk, particularly in view of the market's dependence on foreign purchases," he adds. "And the secretary is correct when he says the government is accepting a part of that risk. But farmers too will be accepting a great deal of risk, and the respective risks of each should be clearly understood."

For cotton, the government assumes a part of the risk under the 1974 farm program in two ways. Producers, first, are guaranteed a "target price" for the production from allotted acreage (not total acreage). Second, the government provides producers with a price support loan of 25.25 cents per pound, basis middling-inch, 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire at average location, on all of their production.

The target will be 38 cents per pound. Producer payments, in the event of a market break, will be the difference between this target and the average price paid to farmers for all cotton sold in 1974.

"This of course means," Johnson cautions, "that when a payment is involved farmers who sell their cotton for a price below the national average will have a total return below 38 cents."

Should cotton prices, nationally, hold at or above 38 cents, there would be no payment. In this event the most significant provision of the cotton program for year would be the insurance feature which protects producers against total financial loss in the event of weather-induced failure.

If producers are unable to plant because of flood or other adverse weather conditions, they receive a payment of 10 cents per pound on payment yield (price yield) from their allotted acreage.

Also, should adverse weather after planting reduce total production from the allotted acreage to less than 66-2/3 percent of expected yield (payment times allotted acreage), producer will get the difference between the payment rate per pound and the market price.

The producer's part of risk is obvious. If the "target price" system will not provide total return equal to production costs, he is at the mercy of the market. On his allotted acreage, he is overplanting his allotment. He is risking the difference between the loan value of crop and his cost of production.

"A somewhat similar situation exists for production under the wheat and grain sections of the law," Johnson says, "but long as there is a clear understanding of the program the producer has a chance to make the planting decisions.

"And in some instances farmers will have forward contract options on crops, which will further the decision making process he adds.

Hunter Safety Program Offered

Anyone born on or after January 1, 1949 will have a Hunter Safety Certificate before he or she will be eligible to hunt in the state of Colorado and several other states.

This Hunter Safety certification will eventually be nationwide as it is sponsored by the National Rifle Association.

Anyone interested in this course should contact Kenneth Sjogren, 285-3401 Olton Texas after 8 p.m. will start a class Sept. 18 at 8 p.m.

Beef Carcass Show Scheduled

Custom cattle feeders from across the Tri-State area will be participating next month in one of the most significant events of the year for those involved in the business of producing red meat—the fifth annual High Plains Fed Beef Carcass Show.

Most of the activities for the attention-getting show, which pits one feedlot against another, will begin from noon to 4 p.m., Oct. 15, when the pens of cattle arrive at Glover Packing Company in Amarillo.

Spearheading the annual competition again this year will be Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the West Texas State University School of Agriculture. He will be assisted by Dr. Don Beerwinkle, acting head of the WTSU Animal Science Department, and W. W. Grisham, Jr. of Amarillo, District Extension Agent for the Texas A&M University Extension Service.

The cattle will be slaughtered Oct. 16 and evaluations made by the judges—Doyle Oliver, representing the U.S. Department of Agriculture grading service; and Dr. Zerle Carpenter, Texas A&M University meats specialist—the following day.

Prior to the quarterly meetings of the Southwestern T-Bone Club meeting at the Big Texas in Amarillo, the best and worst carcasses will be on display outside the restaurant in a special trailer furnished by Santa Fe Railway. On the program with Dr. Smallwood will be guest speaker and the presentation of awards by James Shelton, chairman of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce agribusiness committee.

Changes Made in USDA Food Distribution

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced changes in food distribution program regulations which limit the use of federally donated foods in nutrition programs for the elderly, and under Title VII of the Older Americans Act.

The recently announced rule changes will permit nutrition programs for the elderly to get some foods which USDA distributes to charitable institutions, but without regard to whether the elderly people need are needy.

The Nutrition Program for the Elderly is administered by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) in cooperation with state agencies on aging. The Food Distribution Program is administered by USDA's Food and Nutrition Service (FNS).

JV, Frosh Take Games Over Tahoka

Littlefield Junior and Freshmen squads out on top of their counterparts Thursday in their first game of the season. The JV rolled to a 33-0 win over Tahoka.

like now that we've won, our spirits are high and they'll do all right the rest of the season. I think things will go pretty smoothly the rest of the year.

"I was particularly impressed with our defense. They played exceptionally well. Our outside linebackers did an outstanding job. Our offense was not as aggressive as they should've been, but I think it (aggressiveness) will come. Our backs ran exceptionally well at times."

The JV played through a scoreless first quarter before going ahead 6-0 at the half. They were up 26-0 after a big third quarter, and finished out with seven points in the last period.

Sammy Schlottman and Steve Cruz led the JV with two touchdowns each. Lonnie Twitty scored one TD. Ronald Parmer scored a two-point conversion and Johnny Cruz kicked one conversion.

"We didn't play too good the first half," said Coach Dee Blevins. "We had several opportunities to score and just couldn't capitalize on them. But in the second half, the boys put out more or less a total team effort. The offensive line did a good job, and the backs did a good job running. We played real good defensively, and our offense totaled something like 350 yards."

.. WILDCATS

ending to an exciting night. They scored first after Mike Govan fumbled on the second Levelland play. Owens recovered that fumble, then followed with runs of four and 11 yards. Then from the ten, Henderson slipped out from his flanker spot, took a Bryson pass over his shoulder, and rolled over a tackler for the score. Turner's kick was good, and the Cats were up 7-0 with 8:31 left in the first quarter.

Govan made up for his fumble on the Lobo's next possession. He took a handoff around the left side, broke up the sidelines, and dashed 48 yards to the 27. Levelland Quarterback Jim Richardson attempted a second down pass, but was knocked back to the 30 by Ricky Richards and Richard Hopping. On fourth and nine from the 27, Marty Estes broke behind the Cat defender and took a Lobo pass from Richardson in the end zone. David Smith stubbed the point after try straight into the air, and Littlefield held onto their 7-6 lead.

Littlefield punted away their next possession, and Levelland attempted to do the same thing from their 30. But Smith fumbled the snap from center, and Bryan Myres and Gary Lichte swarmed in to tackle him. Lichte recovered on the 16, and Littlefield was given another opportunity to score. The Cats couldn't get a first down, and Turner's 27 yard field goal attempt was to the right.

Levelland ran two offensive plays, then Govan dropped the ball again and Buddy Jungman recovered on the 21. Henderson ran a trap through the right side to the five, Bryson went to the two, and then an illegal motion call put the ball back on the seven. Henderson finally sliced up the left side for the score, and Turner made it 14-6.

Levelland couldn't start anything, and Smith punted out of trouble to the 12. Owens fumbled on third down, and Bill Wright of Levelland recovered on the 16.

Springlake-Earth Stops Cooper

Estes scored again on a pass similar to the other TD play, but Levelland's try for two points was stopped.

Smith's kickoff went to Stanley Patterson on the 22, and he returned to the ball up the middle to the 41. The Cats drove to the Lobo 38, but a clipping penalty moved the ball back across the midfield line. Bryson's third down pass was picked off by Richardson, who returned it to the 47. On first down, Govan got around the right end and raced in for a 53-yard score. Estes gathered in the conversion pass, and Levelland took the lead for the first time, 20-14. That's how the score remained when the first half ended.

In the third quarter, Levelland wasted no time in giving the ball to the Wildcats. After receiving a Littlefield punt, Mitchell fumbled on first down, and Skip Smith fell on the ball on the Lobo 43. But David Smith cut in front of a Bryson pass on second down and intercepted, Levelland drove down to the 22, and there they were faced with fourth and four. The Cat defense held as Richardson overthrew Daniel Maye in the end zone.

Then began a long drive that took nine plays and resulted in Owens bulging his way over several tacklers from the 12. Turner's PAT was blocked by Steve Alexander, and the game, like many of the Cat fans' stomachs, was knotted at 20-20.

Levelland put together a long drive of their own following the kickoff, the gist of it coming on a 22 yard scamper up the right sidelines by Mitchell. Govan scored on a sweep from the nine, and Mitchell tried another sweep for the conversion. He was met at the goal line by Owens and two other defenders, and after the collision the referee signaled no good. There was 10:45 left in the game.

Turner returned the kickoff to the 39. On second, Henderson carried for 14 yards to the Lobo 43. On third and six, Head Coach Jerry Blakely sent in Turner with the play, a pass, and instructions for Bryson to watch Turner on the play. Turner got behind his man, caught the pass from Bryson and cut across the field, finally going down on the seven. Owens crashed to the three, Bryson rolled right to the two, and then on fourth, Owens dived over for the Cats final score. Littlefield took the lead briefly, but Levelland, as already recounted, was not to be denied.

Mitchell (16 carries, 146 yards) and Govan (17 carries, 145 yards) supplied all the firepower Levelland needed. Though they fumbled three times, they made up for their mistakes with some outstanding running inside. Henderson ran well for the Cats, picking up 85 yards in 14 attempts, and Owens (10 for 47) and Bryson (16 for 50) also came through with some solid runs. Littlefield had 18 first downs to the Lobo's 14, but the difference was in yards rushing. Levelland plowed up 312, while Littlefield had 195.

The Springlake-Earth Wolverines put it all together Friday and stopped Cooper 13-0.

S-E scored their first touchdown in the last few minutes of the first half. Quarterback Hal Wood finished off a 70-yard drive with an 11-yard pass to Junior Saucedo. The drive was powered by the 48-yard run of Halfback Doug Jones.

Then, on the opening kickoff of the second half, Jacob Miller raced 85-yards to score, and put the Wolverines in winning shape.

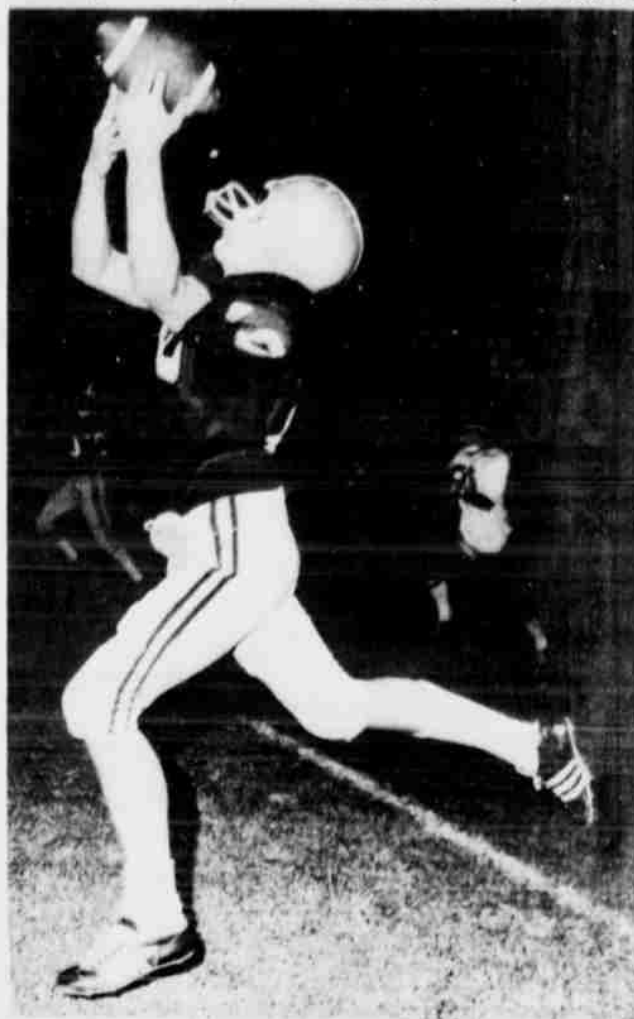

Amherst Falls To Wilson 27-8

Wilson scored once in every quarter and held off Amherst 27-8 Friday.

All of Wilson's touchdowns came via the pass. Phil Kitten gathered in three of the scoring tosses and Greg Bednarz scored the other touchdown.

It was a tough night for Amherst. Halfback Sandy Moore injured his ankle after carrying four times for 29 yards, and to add insult to injury, the Bulldogs' bus broke down on its way back from Wilson.

Stanley Miller was indirectly responsible for both of Amherst's scores. He scored on a one-yard plunge in the third, but was stopped trying for the extras. Then in the fourth quarter, he carried all the way to the goal line, then fumbled. Wilson recovered on the one, but on the next play, the Bulldog defense swarmed over the ballcarrier for the safety.

BILL TURNER appears to have caught this pass from Terry Bryson, but the ball slipped out of the sophomore end's grasp. Turner later was on the receiving end of a 52-yard bomb, and booted three extra points. (Staff Photos by Wade A. Warren)

TCU BROTHERS

Talking of brothers...four Horned Frogs are following in the footsteps of an older bud. Linebacker and captain Dede "Mean" Terveen was preceded at Frogland by Donnie, a defensive guard in 1967-69. Defensive end candidate Keith Judy is the younger brother of Steve, star quarterback of 1969-71. Tight end Bill Bishop's older brother John lettered at linebacker in 1970 and Mike Blackwood will try to replace Lyle, an all-SWC performer the past two seasons, in the secondary.

QUARTERBACK TERRY BRYSON turns the corner and heads up the sidelines. Bryson hit on five passes for 84 yards and rushed for 50 more. The Cats were defeated Friday by Levelland 32-27.

NY OWENS (32) fights for extra yardage Friday in Cats loss to the Lobos. Owens scored twice for Littlefield and picked up 47 yards rushing.

Sudan Surprises Favored Plains 8-0

The Sudan Hornets scored early and made it stand up for the rest of the game as they surprised favored Plains 8-0 Friday.

In the first quarter, Donald Johnson recovered a Plains fumble. Halfback Mark Hanna ran 12 yards for the score with 1:32 left in the first quarter, supplying Sudan with all the points they needed.

It was a total team effort by the Hornets. Mitch Chester led the defense with three interceptions and Donnie Noles placed four of his punts inside the Cowboys' 10 yard line to play big parts in the win. The Hornets also ground out 210 yards rushing.

Linebacker Danny Williams added the last two points for Sudan by dropping Plains Quarterback Weldon Nelms for a safety in the last period.

Smyer Whips Whitharral 70-6

The Smyer Bobcats' opened District 1-B play Friday with an impressive display of offense as they dropped Whitharral 70-6.

Mark Stroope led the Smyer onslaught with three touchdowns and 176 yards on only 10 carries. Woody Lyons added 12 points on a touchdown and three two-point conversions, and Quarterback Garry Gilbert had two touchdowns.

Whitharral, down 48-0 at the half, scored their lone touchdown with two minutes left in the game. Benito Lopez scurried 40-yards for the score.

MIKE GOVAN of Levelland finds himself trapped while trying to return a kickoff. Danny Cushion (44) turns him inside, while Gary Lichte (50), Craig Ratliff (42), Cory Logsdon (51) and Stanley Patterson (80) move in for the kill.

The Olton Mustangs, after failing to score in the first three quarters, erupted for 16 last quarter points. But they still were unable to catch Muleshoe, as the Mules won 36-10 Friday.

Muleshoe was up 23-0 at the half. David Wheat, who ran for 136 total yards, scored on runs of five and eleven yards. Quarterback Don Long threw a 34-yard touchdown to Perry Stockard and ran for two two-point conversions.

Muleshoe added their last nine points in the third quarter. Terry Stewart burst in from the three, and an Olton snap to the punter hit the crossbars of the goalposts for a safety.

Olton came alive in the fourth. Monte Chitwood scored on a 10-yard pass Jimmy Parker, then Mustangs' Glen Johnson stepped between the quarterback and the back, intercepted the ball and ran five yards for a touchdown.

Olton's record stands at 2, while Muleshoe went
