DE WARREN e group of Littlefield citizens the Littlefield School Board of Monday night to voice their on the treatment of Black within the local school system. Julia Porter served as an of the group which included bers of the Littlefield Black ity and two members of the chapter of the National ion For The Advancement Of People (N.A.A.C.P.), one being sident of the Lubbock chapter. Porter stated that she thought ool system should provide buses

Flats to the schools and also to have a policemen on duty at the crossing of Highway 385 and the railroad to aid the children in crossing the tracks."

Mrs. Porter also expressed the opinion that when "two Black students are involved in an incident at the schools where they could get expelled, they're not but when it concerns Black and White students, the Blacks get expelled for three, maybe five days. And we don't think that is right. And we want some Black teachers and we want someone on the school board."

Most of the early discussion centered on the subject of Black teachers and their recruitment.

Supt. Jack York stated that two Black teachers had applied last year and both had been contacted for teaching position but one had taken a job in Lubbock for more money than Littlefield could pay and one had preferred to teach in Amarillo so that she could continue graduate work at West Texas State.

Mr. Harold Chapman, Lubbock, asked if there has been a concerted effort to hire a Black teacher by contacting predominantly Black colleges.

To this York replied "no, we recruit primarily in our area... West Texas, Texas Tech, the Abilene schools our area. And we use other administrators to help us find teachers just as they use us sometimes..... last year we asked Roy Roberts, high school principal at Lubbock Dunbar for some help and he went to some of the predominantly Black colleges and he eventually recommended this Lubbock girl that stayed in Lubbock for a higher salary."

"We have never refused to interview an applicant based on their color or even refused to send an application to anyone.... if they're the best people for the position, we'll try to hire them."

Mrs. Carolyn Hodge and Mrs. Porter stated that they felt injustices had been done to many Black students in the manner in which they had been expelled from school, in the way tardy slips are See SCHOOL BOARD, Page 7

Police Looking For Suspect Harassing Littlefield Widow

With tears threatening and shrugging off shudders that brought goose bumps to her arms, Tuesday an elderly widow recounted harassing knocks, scratches, scrapes and bumps on her house over the past three months that have robbed her of her much-needed sleep and caused her unmerciful agonies.

Friends, neighbors and police are watching her house, and law enforcement officials ask that anyone with information on the person or persons causing the harassment to call the Littlefield police department or the

For weeks this woman has been awakened at all hours of the night by knocks on the door, scratches across a window screen or a banging on the side of her house.

Although police have not been notified, it is reported that other women who live alone in Littlefield have experienced similar harassment, with knocks on the door and no one there when they answer.

The police advise that any such happenings should be reported and they will dispatch an officer to investigate.

Editor Lamb County Leader-News 313 W. 4th Littlefield, Texas 79339

Dear Sir,

The National Institute of Mental Health (HEW) will be conducting an onsite review of the facilities and programs of the Central Plains Comprehensive Community MH/MR Center of Plainview, on Feb. 11-13, 1975.

The NIMH review team has requested an opportunity to meet with representatives of various agencies or organizations within our catchment area that would relate with Center activities.

Your agency/organization representative is invited to attend this meeting on Feb. 12, 1975 at 1:30 p.m., at the Central Plains MH/MR Center, 2601 Dimmitt Road, Plainview. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss existing or necessary future relations between your agency/organization and the Center. It is anticipated that the meeting will be adjourned at 4 p.m.

We look forward to your agency/organization attendance. If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to call. Thank you for your time and consideration. Sincerely, s/Teofilo Moreno Teofilo (Ted) Moreno Director of Planning and Evaluation

Looking Back To . . . 1938!

By WADE WARREN

Sept. 15th....on the front page of the Lamb County Leader, banner headlines proclaim "NEW THEATRE TO BE BUILT"... the movie business was apparently a booming business in the '30's as the third theatre to be built on Phelps Avenue was announced by W. J. Chesher to join the Palace and the Ritz.

the lot upon which the new theatre will be erected is located between the Southern Auto Store and the new brick store building being built by Sam Replin."And Chesher stated, "it would be given over to only the higher type of pictures. And what was showing at the already constructed Palace Theatre?..... "SING YOU SINNERS" starring Bing Crosby and Fred MacMurray, plus Chapter 5 of "Zorro Rides Again." For a special midnight show, the Palace had "Alexander's Ragtime Band" on the marquee starring Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche and Ethel Merman.

For the more adventuresome moviegoers, the Ritz down the street offered 'Spawn Of The North" with George Raft, Dorothy Lamour, Henry Fonda, and John Barrymore.

If you didn't want to go to the movie Friday night, the Littlefield Wildcats were opening their football season against White Deer. Football was serious business back then too, as on the Booster Page, Pat H. Boone stated, "the honor of Littlefield is in your hands" and Jimmie Brittain got right to the point in his ad that said "Littlefield Expects You To Win!"

Well, they didn't win... lost 32-6 and Coach Sanders put his gridders "through rough and tough scrimmage sessions so the locals would be prepared for better football."

Weatherford's Grocery was having a grand opening sale and one could find 10 pounds of sugar for 57 cents, 48 pounds of Kimball's Flour for $1.30 and a pound of Folger's Coffee for only 25 cents.

If the lady of the house was ready for a night away from the kitchen, one could go to the Littlefield Hotel for a complete meal "with chickens from their own poultry farm for only 35 cents.

Piggly Wiggly had some bargains too as they advertised a pound of pork and beans for a nickel, baby beef roasts for 14 cents per pound and a head of fresh, iceberg lettuce for 4 1/2 cents each.

Cobb's Department Store was getting ready for fall business as men's suits were advertised for $12.95 and dress pants ranged from $1.98 to $5.95. Men's work socks were 12 for a buck and children's, extra heavy sanforized coveralls, reg. 79 cents were on sale for two pairs for a dollar. $2.98 could buy you a battery that was guaranteed for six months at McCormick Brothers Cut-Rate Auto Parts Store

If you wanted a battery that could keep you going for a full year, then you'd have to shell out $4.29.

A Golden Rod Pump (readers, you'll have to explain that one to me) seemed to be a popular item and you could buy one for only $1.89.

It was almost time for new car showings and Hewitt Chevrolet Company promised to have the '39 Chevrolet on display Oct. 22 and it would feature a "triple-matic clutch" and "perfected knee-action riding system."

Batson Motor Co. advertised the 1939 Plymouth "so beautiful you won't believe it's a low-priced car." and it was low priced... only $836 delivered!

And it didn't cost just a whole lot to operate those new automobiles either, Morris & Son Service Station had 72 Octane bronze gas for 14 cents per gallon and Special 72 Octane Leaded for 16 cents per gallon.

Pennzoil was 25 cents a quart and if you wanted "cheap" oil, it would only cost you 35 cents a gallon.

Ware's Department Store advertised $1 dress shirts for 79 cents and 'Marxmade' 2 pants suits for $19.95. You could be the best dressed girl in town with a Sonja Henie sweater set for only $1.

As the weather got colder, the movies got hotter at the Ritz Theatre as the Oct. 6. 1938 marquee announced "the return engagement of "Nudist Secrets" which was "the most talked about picture in the world." To sum up the Fall of '38, the Littlefield Hotel advertised 'hot and cold running water in every room."

IN SPITE OF certain social hazards, there are many who like their onions raw, Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist note

"A big slice of mild, sweet onion does wonders for a sandwich and goes well with blackeye peas and cornbread," she points out.

Onions are most prized as a seasoning agent for soups, stews, stocks, stuffings and sauces. They add zest to casserole dishes, too. Onions can stand alone as a side dish-baked, scalloped, creamed, glazed or french fried.

"Onions are usually classified as mild or strong, fresh or dry. Dry onions in many colors and shapes, are the most important commercially," she says.

She advised that the best formula for selecting dry onions is to pick those that crackle, are bright, clean, hard and well shaped. "Moisture at the neck of the bulb indicates decay. Misshapen onions are objectionable largely because there may be more waste," she reminded.

IS THE FOOD budget too small for today's prices? Maybe a few suggestions on sugar substitutes will help stretch that food dollar.

In late November, West Texas State University Agri-Business Professor Don Williams suggested that unseasonably bad weather in the nation's Gulf Coast states, along with low productivity on the world sugar market, will continue to result in high sugar prices.

A Kansas housewife who saw the article suggested that blackstrap molasses would be a good substitute for the penny-wise and pound-weary housewife. The impact of Williams' predictions didn't end there. Recently, a dietition with an Oklahoma university suggested some substitues for one cup granulated sugar. Among other alternatives were one cup of strained honey less a quarter cup liquid per cup of honey, one and one-half cup of molasses or sorghum less a quarter cup liquid, or two cups of corn syrup less a quarter cup of liquid.

Williams said the factor contributing most to high sugar prices is that previous exporters of sugar have become importers.

According to Williams, the market has changed little over the past few months, and the shortage will continue to exist until the next crop of sugar is harvested in the summer.

SOY IS BECOMING better known as an economical way of stretching more expensive protein sources such as meat and eggs. Since soy itself is a source of good quality protein, it's a nutritious alternative.

To help you see where soybeans can slip themselves deliciously into your family's meals, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has published a new booklet called "Soybeans in Family Meals". A copy may be obtained for 35 cents by writing Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

The booklet includes buying, storing, and cooking tips for vegetable-type green and dry soybeans, soy flour and grits, soy milk, soybean curd, and soybean mash or pulp. Recipes are included for main dishes, salads, soups, vegetables, breads, sauces, and

Other helpful information for those just getting acquainted with soy includes:

-Fresh soybeans are in the store in late summer or fall and make a succulent vegetable.

-Canned green soybeans are usually available in all seasons.

-Dry soybeans may be purchased the year round and are prepared for eating in the same ways as other dry beans. -Soybean sprouts can be bought or grown at home. They're good in salads and can also be served as a vegetable. -Soy milk, prepared from dry soybeans, may be used in place of cow's milk in most recipes and can be used also as a beverage.

-Soy protein concentrate, protein isolate, and textured protein are part of the new soy developments- and are sold as protein extenders to be used, for example, to stretch the meat in a meatloaf.

"Soybeans in Family Meals" is one of approximately 250 selected Federal publications listed in the current edition of the Consumer Information Index.

JOYCE FRIDAY

Mrs. Calvia Joyce Friday, 26, died Friday in John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, following a long illness. Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon in Hammons Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. A. J. Kennemer officiating.

Burial was in Littlefield Memorial Park.

She had lived in Littlefield 20 years. Mrs. Friday was a native of Amherst. Survivors include her husband, Darrell; a son, Stacey Ray of the home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hammons of Denver City; two sisters, Mrs. Darlene Stringer, Roseburg, Ore. and Mrs. Linda Gallant of Denver City; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson of Amherst and Mrs. Alma Stockstill of Earth.

Pallbearers were Buford Finchum, Jimmy Pierce, Charles Ary, Jack Friday, David Thompson and Doc

in 1914 at Amarillo.

Survivors include the widow; a daughter, Mrs. Jenelle Tucker of Amarillo; two granddaughters, Mrs. Delbert Howell and Mrs. Pam Younger, both of Olton; and four greatgrandchildren.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Dispel Gloom

WE DO HAVE PROBLEMS, and it seems that no one knows just how serious they are; but we know that they are more serious than we want them to

According to predictions, the general situation will probably worsen before we find needed solutions. The consensus seems to be that there are no easy or quick answers; but there is no justification for being intimidated, or for

WE MAY NOT get everything worked out just the way all of us would like, because this is probably too much to

We will, however, find some solutions, and we can make some adjustments; and we can keep trying. Regardless of the difficulties, there is no known law or power that makes our defeat inevitable. We must not overload ourselves with despair and gloom.

ONE OF THE WORST things we can do is permit the clouds of gloom to engulf us; as we "tighten our belts", 'make our sacrifices", and otherwise accept our share of the burdens that must be borne. Of course, we must be sober-minded, and diligent, and realistic; but we can do all of this "in good spirits". We must do so, in order to give ourselves a "fighting chance".

We have enough load to carry, and there is no reason for making the load seem heavier by eroding our spirit and our strength; by taking the dreary way that leads along the dark road of gloom. This is not the way along which we will find the solutions we seek market hogs. Another plus lies

IN OUR LAST column, I gave you sort of a run down as to what to expect in cotton and milo for 1975. Now I'd like to take this opportunity to let you know what to expect in the hog market for

At present, optimism is the word for Texas swine producers in 1975. The more optimistic outlook is primarily because there will be a fairly sharp reduction in pork supplies. For the U.S. it was estimated that market hog numbers on Dec. 1, 1974, were 9 percent below the previous year. Sows kept for breeding were reduced by 15 percent.

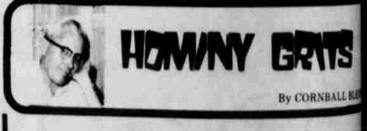

For your information, market hogs and pigs on hand Dec. 1, 1974, represent potential pork supplies until the first of June, 1975. However, pork supplies may be even less, maybe 12 percent less, since hogs are expected to come to market at lighter weights because of high feeding costs.

Positive factors having influence on pork prices for the first half of 1975 include the reduction in potential supplies of pork to be marketed. This production during the first half of the year will be off some 10-12 percent. This will increase prices pork producers receive for prices is that broiler pro pected to be 10 percent below period in 1974. Of course, there are always factors affecting pork price. supplies will be greater in I producers are expected a production-enough for each to consume 125 pounds of bed crease of 8 pounds over IM the economy continues to I slump this will have a seven on spending. ard Of Thanks

We would like to express our utmost gratitude and appreciation for all the wonderful people who were so good to us during our time of bereavement. Thanks for all the beautiful flowers, food and words of kindness. Our special thanks to Rev. Kennemer and Buddy Wells for the beautiful ceremony and music. Darrell Friday and the family of Joyce Friday.

The president of the N.A.A.C.P. in Lubbock ended the groups discussion by stating that "the executive board of the N.A.A.C.P. will meet and make recommendations on some of the problems these people are facing and see if we can't get this thing worked

In more routine matters, the board approved the financial statement, unanimously approved a motion to allow students to graduate in less than four years if all academic requirements are met, granted the band permission to attend a Band Festival in San Antonio April 24, 25, 26 and 27, approved the athletic budget (which appears in its entirety at the end of this story), set the school board election for April 5 and extended the contracts of Forrest Martin, James Settle, Jack Christian, Byron Ford, Tommy Brawley, Jerry Blakely and Carlton Parker for two

The vote on extending the contracts

was 5 in favor and 2 against with David Hampton and Dickie Hopping voting

Martin received a $900 per year raise, Settle and Christian each got a $300 per year raise while Ford and Brawley received a $250 per year increase. Parker received a $500 per year raise all effective Aug. 1.

The board also voted to raise the salaries of Mr. Reams, maintenance supervisor, and Mr. Oliver, bus foreman, to $140 per week.

In the final actions of the night, the board authorized the advertising of bids for roof work on Elementary II and the Primary School and formally acted on the expulsion of two Junior High Students till the end of the quarter.

This Series Made Possible by These Business Firms and Individuals Who Support Our Right to Worship Freely.

SEEK YE THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Man can serve two masters at the same time-ifif they are masters in different realms. We can be completely devoted to our families, loyal to our government, fair and honest with our employer.

Jesus spoke of the realm of the spirit when He said, 'You cannot serve both God and mammon [money]." Serving means to become a slave to-and a man who is utterly devoted to God will not be a slave to money.

If a man tries to serve both God and money-and many do-what happens? Jesus pointed to the birds and the flowers and emphasized their quiet trust for the needs of tomorrow.

But He did not refer to the realm of beasts of the field. They live by the law of tooth and fang. A life-consuming search for food and water and a willingness to kill to obtain them is clearly observable in both man and beast. And Jesus was saying you cannot live by the law of the jungle and by the law of God at the same time. God's law is the law of love, for God is love. And He says, "Seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things [of life, water, food, clothes] shall be added unto you." (Luke 12:31)
