April 1 Is Deadline for Vehicle Registration

April 1st, is the last day for Texas motor vehicles, according to W. Townsley, Director of Vehicle Division of the Texas Department of Transportation. He noted that owners of motor vehicles should display 1974 license plates by Tuesday, April 2 to avoid late penalties. Many owners choose to register at the last minute when the penalty is higher," said Townsley. County tax offices and courts have been open for registration since Feb. 1.

Townsley reminded that beginning in 1975, Texas will change over to the 5-year license plate. "We're already manufacturing the '75 plates. That's how much leadtime we have to give ourselves."

In 1976, instead of buying a new license plate, motorists will purchase a 1- by 2- inch adhesive-type sticker that will be placed on the upper left corner of the plate," said Townsley. "In 1977, the sticker will be stuck to the upper right corner, then alternated for the following years."

According to Townsley, the 5-year plate will feature an entirely new design, including the use of vowels for the first time. Since 1965, when the three-letter system was adopted, only consonants were used. However, with an ever-increasing number of motor vehicles, the entire alphabet will now be employed. As an example, the first 1975 license plate will be AAA10.

Townsley says the 5-year license plate will save Texas taxpayers an estimated $10.5 million over a four year period, since annual license plate production will no longer be necessary.

Meeting On Ambulance Service Joint Commissioners-Council

Since Hammons Funeral Home gave notice that ambulance service will be discontinued, city and county governing bodies have continued to express concern over finding and financing an emergency ambulance service for Lamb County.

In a second meeting of city and county officials Thursday night, all attending were unanimous in a decision that ambulance service is a necessity, and since funeral homes are discontinuing ambulance service, it will be necessary for the cities and county to provide this essential service.

No details of work were outlined in the Thursday meeting, but it was pointed out that it will take more tax money to provide ambulance service.

Littlefield city councilmen, city representatives from Olton, Springlake, Earth and Sudan, the Lamb County Commissioners Court, representatives from both Littlefield hospitals, and the health planning coordinator from SPAG were present.

Another joint commissioners court and city council meeting is set for Thursday. Commissioners will convene at 3 p.m. to discuss proposals. The court will be joined at 5 p.m. by Littlefield city councilmen. Then councilmen will go into their regular meeting at 7 p.m.

Past Political Races Close, 1974 May Set Another Record

Lamb County has a history of closely contested political races, and some speculate 1974 will be another record for the books.

The county judge's race in 1966 is probably the closest primary win in this area. In that election incumbent judge J.B. Davis was ousted by Jim Mangum by only six votes. Davis had been elected to that post in 1962 when he drew two candidates, one a Democrat and one a Republican.

In the '62 May primary, Davis polled 2773 votes. Truitt Sides lost out to Davis in the Democratic primary, and Ray Keeling ran on the Republican ticket.

Several memorable runoffs have occurred in offices with more than two candidates. Longtime county clerk Charles Jones drew two candidates in 1954. Vaneta Stovall and Max Hulse made bids for the office and Jones won over Hulse in the runoff.

There was a close commissioners race that year with Bill Jeffries, Roy Gilbert and Ray Brock running. Jeffries and Gilbert were on the general election ballot due to less than 55 votes difference in the first go-round. Jeffries won that post.

The present county treasurer was one of four candidates for that office in 1958 when Lucy Moreland beat Mrs. Bill Pass by 18 votes in the second primary. Other hopefuls on the first primary ballot were L.D. Stanaford and S.S. Pete Parrack.

Ray Lynn Britt gained her position as district clerk in the first primary in 1966 when she narrowly defeated incumbent Ernest L. Owens by 27 votes.

Former sheriff Dick Dyer won a majority of the votes in the May 1964 primary when he edged out three candidates, W.A. Dick Ratliff, Loy Dalton, and V.S. Smith Jr.

Present Sheriff E.D. McNeese won a majority in the first Democratic primary in 1968 when he won over W.A. Hatfield, S.H. Russell and Don Hatley.

This year, most elective county posts have drawn opposition. For county judge, incumbent Truitt Sides has drawn Bill Angel as a candidate for that office.

Three seek the post of county clerk. Mary Beth Willey filed for re-election. Candidates for that office are Mrs. Willey, Kathryn Day and Betty Ann Hall.

Lucy Moreland, county treasurer, is seeking re-election. Fannie Rogers has filed for that office.

Two of the four county commissioners have expiring terms, and both have drawn opposition candidates. T.L. "Buddy" Free at Earth is opposed by Clarence Kelly. Hubert Dykes is opposed by Eugene Young for commissioner of precinct 4.

For justice of peace precinct 4, Jerry Collins has filed for the office now held by Stanley Doss. Norman Humphreys has filed for the JP precinct post at Sudan where W.P. "Toby" Vereen is incumbent.

McMurry Chanters To Present Concert Here Tuesday Night

The McMurry Chanters, directed by Dr. David Blackburn, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 19, in First United Methodist Church, Littlefield.

The famous McMurry College choral group is making its annual spring tour and will sing 14 concerts during the period of March 2 through March 24.

"The Raising of Lazarus," a contemporary composition on an ancient Biblical theme, is a work by a McMurry composer-in-residence, Dr. Macon Sumerlin, which is a featured part of the tour repertoire.

Dr. Sumerlin has combined instrumentation from the electronic synthesizer with choral voices in this new work.

"The Chanters group," says Dr. Blackburn, "is one of the five musical ensembles at McMurry. It is a highly trained, motivated group of outstanding musicians with a reputation of excellence. They perform demanding traditional choral literature as well as premiering new contemporary sacred works."

Other selections are works by Johan Sebastian Bach, Johannes Brahms, Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina, Marc Ingegneri, Dale Wood, Jean Berger, Walter Ehret, Alice Parker, Lloyd Pfautsch, Hall Johnson, Paul Christiansen, and Jester Hairston.

"Tour time is always exciting for the Chanter organization," says the director.

"They get to know each other better and to work together better," Dr. Blackburn says. "It is a tremendous chance for fellowship and spiritual growth. We are very happy to have a chance to share this with people at the concerts."

Before coming to McMurry this year, Dr. Blackburn was a member of the music faculty at Baylor University. He is also Minister of Music at St. Paul's United Methodist Church.

There are 47 members of the Chanters this year. Sopranos are Cynthia Tibbs of Abilene; Kay Reed of Spearman; Mersha Elliott of Brownwood; Kay McMenamy of Shallowater; Donna Robinson of Garland; Bonnie Wynne of Pecos; and Jayne Houston of Ralls.

Also, Becky Bradley of Albuquerque, N.M.; Coelita Biles of Springlake; Vicki Beck of Dumas; Lyana Lance of Abilene; Karen Scott of Hereford; and Diana Riddle of El Paso.

Tenors are Ken McDonald of Abilene; Bill Braudt of Amarillo; Fred Kunkel of Abilene; Bill Taylor of Abilene; and Derven Rodgers of Abilene.

Altos are Susan Brown of Artesia, N.M.; Cindy Graves of San Antonio; Cheryl Allen of Abilene; Ramona Hamilton of Abilene; Carol Criswell of Abilene; Norma Matteson of Abilene; and Sharon Willman of LaCoste.

Also Doris Wossom of Amarillo; Patricia Noll of Danville, Pennsylvania; Glenda McMullen of Bethany, Oklahoma; Suzy Galarneau of Amarillo; Peggy Hoffman of Waco; Pamela White of Abilene; Carol Warner of Bowie; and Deb South of Clyde.

Calling All Homemakers
Brought To You By Bert & Carol Wallace
HERE ARE SOME NEW AND OLD IDEAS
This week, we bring you some general decorating tips we thought you might enjoy reading about and think about.
Bright contrasting throw cushions are nothing new on a living room sofa—but how about a few of them placed against the bolster of your bed, in well selected colors? This can brighten up your bedroom.
If you have an empty space at the end of your living room, you might consider a special cocktail-conversation-coffee grouping by using a love seat faced by several small chairs, and a small round table in the center of the group.
A room is often improved by replacing a huge, space-taking cocktail table with a pair of smart, smaller tables.
We know that every home maker is always interested in decorating tips and furniture ideas, and for that reason we extend a cordial invitation to you to visit us. You're free to browse around to your heart's content, with no obligation, and we think you'll enjoy seeing all the new furniture and ideas we have. Come on in!
