

IRENE LYNN....Littlefield's "Teacher of the Year"

Mrs. Lynn Selected 'Teacher Of Year'

BLAH RODGERS
News Staff Writer

Irene Lynn takes the business of teaching rather seriously. Because of her superior ability to impart knowledge to students and to do so with a love of learning, many teachers have chosen Mrs. Lynn as "Teacher of the Year."

The attractive English instructor with the distinguishing white streak in her prematurely graying hair and a toothpaste smile will be one of the hundreds of "Teachers of the Year" from all over Texas who will be competing for the state honor. State winners will be nominees for National Teacher of the Year.

"Teaching is the highest profession there is because of the influence it has over youth," Mrs. Lynn said. "Teachers come in closer contact with young people than any one else in the world. We exert a great deal of influence over them in their formative years."

"At this age, students are trying to find themselves—they want to hook on to something—and they look to the teachers. Yes, I take teaching seriously."

"When honors come her way, she is modest," Mrs. A. D. Ward said. "She always says, 'yes, but others could have done better.'" Irene Lynn always minimizes her importance to the credit to others. We are all hoping she goes far in the contest."

Mrs. Lynn has been teaching 22 years, with 18 of these being in the Littlefield system. Her first teaching job was teaching seventh graders at Littlefield. She taught English and typing for more years at Bula during the 1940s.

She had all typing classes her first year at Littlefield High, then she began teaching English with some speech classes along the way. Mrs. Lynn has senior English classes now, and is head of the English department.

Mrs. Lynn attended McMurry one year and has her degree from Texas Tech with an English major, and minors in history and education.

She is a member of the Littlefield Classroom Teachers' Association, Texas State Teachers Association, the Littlefield Teachers' Forum, is incoming president of the Littlefield study club, and a member of Delta Kappa Gamma.

Mrs. Lynn's school activities are numerous. She is chairman of the high school English department, and heads the scholarship committee. She has sponsored the National Honor Society for several years, was senior sponsor for several years and directed three plays. She directed the Interscholastic League one-act play two years.

Her students have been published in the National Poetry Anthology numerous times, with seven receiving special recognition for superior work.

Former students from the four corners have written her complimentary letters giving her credit for help she's given them, fellow teachers say.

English departments at Texas Tech, West Texas, South Plains and other colleges and universities have lauded the Littlefield English department, and Mrs. Lynn deserves a fair share of this praise, teachers say.

"Students come back to Mrs. Lynn to tell her that what she taught them was truly worth while," Mrs. Ward said. "They say it is easier to adjust in college and their grades are better because of the good basic background she gave them."

Co-workers with Mrs. Lynn say she goes beyond the call of duty for any educational, civic or community endeavor. She is genuinely interested in the feelings of others, they say. Fellow teachers say she will gladly take on extra assignments and heavier loads to produce harmony, cooperation and help others.

Mrs. Lynn was chosen by Littlefield teachers to represent them on the state level because they feel she is exceptionally skillful and dedicated.

Clayton Is Named Water Inc. Exec

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake, considered by many to be the State Legislature's leading water authority, was named executive director of Water, Inc., Tuesday.

Clayton has taken the job as head of Water, Inc., at a reported $20,000 per year salary. Clayton said he accepted the position on a temporary basis, planning to continue in his legislative post, at least for the time being.

"I have no plans to resign my legislative post this term," Clayton said in a telephone conversation Wednesday noon. "However I will re-assess this position next term to determine whether I can do a better job to get water to Texas by staying where I now am."

Clayton said. "We need to get this area coordinated."

Clayton replaces Cliff Chamberlain who left Water, Inc., about the first of the year.

L. Dean Rea of Tulia has been named the new associate executive director, and will be Clayton's right-hand man.

Clayton has served as representative of the 72nd district since 1963. The district is comprised of Deaf Smith, Castro, Farmer, Bailey, Cochran and Lamb Counties.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and State Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon have both described Clayton as "the water authority in the Texas legislature."

Wreck Toll High In '68

Three people were killed and 51 were injured in car accidents on Littlefield streets in 1968 according to records compiled in the office of Chief of Police F. A. Fitzgerald.

From 162 accidents, motorists paid out about $74,950 for repairs compared to $58,300 for 147 accidents in 1967. In 1967, three died and 40 were injured in car accidents.

Police estimated the cost of 167 accidents in 1966 at $40,728, about half that of 1968. One person was killed and 39 injured in 1966.

Chief Fitzgerald said the differences in costs between 1968 and 1966 could be the result of three things: more serious damages; increases in the cost of labor and parts; and lower estimates in 1966.

T. A. Hilbun, automobile insurance underwriter, said these figures were nominal when you consider the large number of vehicles registered for the city.

"Insurance rates for counties are set on damage estimates from accidents reported to the State Department of Public Safety and then to the Insurance Commission," Chief Fitzgerald said. Because estimates are made at the scene of the accident, some of them are higher and some of them are lower than actual repairs cost.

The 1968 report shows that 132 citations were issued for the 162 accidents in 1968. There were 126 citations for the 149 accidents in 1967, and 155 citations for the 167 accidents in 1966.

Failure to observe stop signs and to control speed were the major causes of accidents in 1968.

Following too closely and backing away from the curb were third and fourth in the violations.

Rep. Clayton is chairman of the House Interim Water Study Committee at the present time, as well as holding posts and chairmanships of several key house committees.

He is a member of the executive committee of the Interstate Conference of Water problems, chairman of the Texas Water Conservation Association, and represents Texas at the Southern Water Resources Conference annually.

Clayton plans to work through the Water, Inc., staff while the legislature is in session, and will devote full time to the job when the House adjourns.

"I hope to get all the people in this area speaking in the same voice."

'We, Women' Plan Cookbook And Tasting Bee

JOELLA LOUVORN
News Editor, Leader-News

Ten new members were received at Tuesday's meeting of "We, The Women", when they met at noon in the Reddy Room to finalize a month-long membership drive.

Members of "We, The Women" discussed at length plans for gathering recipes and publishing a cookbook. Committee members were named, with Elsie Garland serving as committee chairman.

Other members of the committee are Lou Russell, Bobbie McShan, Betty Hodges, Beulah Dunlap, Betty Smith, Myda Smith and Julia Randall.

Plans are being made to conduct a tasting bee in conjunction with the cookbook sales, where most of the dishes published in the cookbook may be sampled.

President Betty Kehoe presented a reading titled "Lifters and Leavers". She encouraged women of the organization to be better "lifters," although they have done "lots of work" in the past.

Members were informed that a committee of four—Beulah Dunlap, Betty Hodges, Sonja Patton, and Betty Kehoe—represented "We, The Women" at a Rotary Club meeting Thursday, to explain the origin, plans and purposes of the organization.

Mrs. J. E. Ransburg of Honolulu, Hawaii, sister of Mrs. Betty Hodges, sent a shoe box of small hula dolls to be used in decorations or for sale in bazaars. Mrs. Ransburg attended

Kehoe Gets Spot On C-C Board

Jerry Kehoe, district manager for General Telephone, has been named to the board of directors of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce.

Announcement of the new director came Monday following a board meeting at which Chamber directors accepted, with regret, the resignation of Arthur P. Duggan Jr.

Duggan, a past president of the Chamber and a longtime board member, said he resigned the post because his business affairs take him out of the community often.

"I've been unable to make several board meetings," he said, "but I'm willing and anxious to help on as many civic projects as time will permit."

In other action at Monday's C-C meeting, the board heard plans for the Christmas parade to be held Saturday, Dec. 6 and named four persons to the Community Action Project.

They are Odell Chandler, Bill Kelly, Babe Banner and Dutch Wilkinson.

Manager Jim Kelly reported that a C-C membership drive is planned in late spring, before school is out.

Course May Change On School Proposal

"Compulsory consolidation is going to have to be abandoned and we have to obtain our objectives in some other way," Rep. De Witt Hale told the House Public Education Committee.

Superintendent of Littlefield Schools, Paul I. Jones, Dr. W. C. Nowlin, board president, and board members Flannery Newton and Calvin Price were among some 700 persons who packed the Texas House chamber Tuesday for the first big hearing on proposed public school reforms.

Hale's bill would base the determination of how much of its school costs a local district could bear on the true market value of real estate but would not force taxation on this basis. It would be up to each district how it would raise its local school costs, Hale said.

Speaker Gus Mutscher made a surprise appearance. Mutscher, who has opposed the consolidation feature of the bill, said a "long-range plan of educational improvements" should include systematic expansion of school finances, attention to the special needs of poor children and those from food and fiber out of business," Healy's letter to the committee said.

Haley's bill would base the determination of how much of its school costs a local district could bear on the true market value of real estate but would not force taxation on this basis. It would be up to each district how it would raise its local school costs, Hale said.

More than 24 opponents of the bill who wished to testify waited patiently while Hale and members of COPSE explained the bill. It took more than three and one-half hours to introduce the lengthy bill.

The man whose committee will oversee the financing of the bill, chairman Bill Healy of the House Appropriations Committee, made his opposition to the bill clear by distributing a letter at the hearing began.

"If the state forces local districts to tax property on its market value, it will force all the farmers who produce

What The Leader-News Thinks

A Hopeful Feeling

AN AURA OF HOPE pervades the American Cancer Society's Officers. No claims of miraculous cancer cures are being made—or even predicted.

But, nonetheless, there is a distinct feeling the battle against the dread disease is slowly and surely being won.

THE REASON for this hopeful feeling can be found in many areas. Last year, for example, the President was informed that the number of Americans alive and cured of cancer had grown to 1,500,000, a hundred thousand higher than the year before.

To be considered cured of most types of cancer, a person must have been free from all evidence of the disease for five years after treatment.

DISCOVERIES OF NEW DRUGS have helped in the fight against leukemia, cancer of the blood-foaming tissues.

These new drugs, together with more efficient utilization of earlier drugs, plus more specific techniques have helped a number of leukemia patients live beyond five years.

This progress has convinced some scientists that a cure for leukemia may be found sooner than for many other types of cancer.

OTHER LIFE-SAVING factors, the Society notes, are the increasing awareness by women of the value of the annual Pap test for uterine cancer and the slow but steady recognition by the public of the need of regular physical checkups.

THESE ARE BUT A FEW of the hopeful factors today which surround the whole subject of cancer.

Yet, the battle still has a long way to go.

Research must be intensified and carefully channeled, but there's a glimmer of light in the horizon. And we recommend the American Cancer Society's 1969 theme: "Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check".

THE PHILOSOPHER

Daily Log

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reports on a strange item he discovered out of Washington.)

Dear editor:

People are always talking about all the rules and regulations Washington is always thinking up for the people, so it was with considerable amazement I read in a newspaper last night that Washington has thought up some for itself.

The Attorney General's Department, out of force of habit I guess, has come up with a set of rules for the 1,200 lawyers it has in the Justice Department.

Every lawyer must keep a log every fifteen minutes of every day of how he spent his time. What he did from 9 a.m. to 9:15 has to be entered, from 9:15 to 9:30, etc., right on through the entire day, five days a week.

What I want to know is, do you reckon there's any danger of this spreading?

Are we getting close to the time when Washington will require me for example to give a daily account of how I spent my time from sun-up to sun-down?

Since you never can tell and I like to be ahead of the hounds, so the speak, so long as the hounds are asleep, I decided to jot down what I did yesterday, just to see how it works.

6 a.m. to 6:30: studied about getting up.

6:40: got up.

7 to 7:30: waited for breakfast.

7:30 to 8: ate.

8 to 9: planned my day's work.

9 to 10: revised my plans

10 to 11: can't remember.

11 to 12: too near lunch to start anything now.

12 to 12:30: ate

12:30 to 1:30: nap.

1:30 to 3:30: went to town to get a tractor part.

3:30 to 4: discovered it didn't fit.

4 to 4:40: finally decided to try again tomorrow.

4:40 to 5: a man can't work all the time. Rested.

5 to 6: watched television's summary of the embattled world, got back to normal with a copy of The Leader-News.

6, threw the log away.

This is not to say however that those 1200 lawyers shouldn't keep it up. Any time spent checking on themselves is that much less time spent checking on you and me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

"I'm glad I'm on my side of the Generation Gap!"

PAUL HARVEY

Smothers Brothers

THE SMOTHERS BROTHERS smothered all competition for a year. In the last rating, their show was not even mentioned among the top 20. What happened?

Tom Smothers, usually the spokesman for the team, blamed CBS. "Harassment by censors," he said, "has resulted in programs so bland that they are uninteresting."

A CBS INSIDER who considers Tom "impossible and arrogant" says the network considered dropping the show a long time ago because of headaches over censorship, taste and related matters.

Normally, this is scarcely a subject with which you and I should be concerned. But since the Smothers Brothers have frequently injected themselves into the controversy over Vietnam, the military draft and the Chicago Police Department, perhaps they will allow me to inject myself into the public rhubarb over their declining collective career.

THE TROUBLE can best be delineated with an analogy. When Arthur Godfrey was an ex-cab driver, still awed over his acceptance as an early-morning disk jockey, his personal warmth was radiated—and reflected—nationally.

When he became the "Florida hotel tycoon" and when he began to absent himself from his own programs with increasing frequency "to go bear hunting with my friend Charlie Wilson" or Eddie Rickenbacker or whomever, he became somebody else.

Arthur Godfrey became Mister Godfrey, owner of an automated horse ranch in Virginia and breeder of prize animals.

A DANGEROUS ILLNESS revived public compassion for Godfrey in the mid-40's—briefly. But he was never again the ex-cab driver, the ordinary guy with whom you and I could affectionately identify.

Godfrey is one example of dozens of lesser luminaries whom I have seen diverted by similar temptations and sidetracked.

ARTIE SHOW once cynically said, "Celebrity is the name you give somebody when you put him on a pedestal so you can throw rocks at him."

But more a menace than the celebrity's critics are his suddenly accumulated friends. Each has a different idea to suggest and each suggestion is necessarily a modification of the image which created the success.

BY THE TIME Tommy and Dick Smothers, groomed in the bistros, went network, their act had been refined. Dick was the neat, pert, sensible younger brother. Tommy was the irrepressible, unpredictable interrupter of serious songs with delightful inanities. He resolved every subsequent argument with, "Mother always liked you better!"

Sometime in 1968 they got too much advice from too many people. They reached too far for controversial comedy, as when they invited a folk singer to parody our President with, "The big fool said to move on...."

TOMMY DIVORCED, Dick sprouted a sophisticated moustache and began getting increasing mention as a race car driver. Neither development "fit the image."

TV is a cruel cannibal with an insatiable appetite for new material. Perhaps no entertainer can supply enough for an hour a week, week after week. The great comics who've lasted longest don't even try.

IF THE SMOTHERS BROTHERS career is not beyond repair, they might start the road back up by first taking a trip back home to mother.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Our Common Debt

By BOB WEAR

WE HAVE A COMMON DEBT. It is the obligation to do our best with our potentialities according to the opportunities we have.

Inspiration teaches, "Everyone to whom much is given, of him will much be required."

WARNINGS ABOUT THE TREND toward, and the danger of mediocrity in our social order are coming from every known source.

It is quite obvious, however, that few people give heed to these timely warnings. The tendency to conform, just for the sake of conforming, is very strong.

WE SEEM DETERMINED to be with the crowd, regardless of the loss in personal accomplishment and in contribution to the common good. History gives us a sound basis for the conclusion that conformity, just for the sake of conforming, always lowers the level of individual and collective life. Everybody loses.

If it is often necessary for the individual student in our public schools to have help in order to carry the burden of outstanding accomplishment. This condition reveals the general state of our society. It is unusual to find a student or anyone else who is honestly trying to do his best.

MUCH OF THE VAST unused strength of human resources and abilities is lost because of our continuing efforts to be one of the crowd. This always leads toward mediocrity. We must face the fact that we differ in our potentialities.

This difference should be used for the good of all, and it can be when each one of us does his best.

MUCH OF THE VAST unused strength of human resources and abilities is lost because of our continuing efforts to be one of the crowd. This always leads toward mediocrity. We must face the fact that we differ in our potentialities.

This difference should be used for the good of all, and it can be when each one of us does his best.

THE WORD "MEDIocre" means "halfway up" or more literally, "middle of the jagged mountain".

This helps us understand what we are doing to ourselves and to each other as we move toward mediocrity.

Knowing this, let us be assured that a benevolent Creator has endowed us with the ability and strength to move about the middle of the jagged mountain.

WE MUST NOT BE WILLING

THE FARMER'S WIFE Fancy Rodeos

By LIBBY MUDD

FRIENDS, rodeo just ain't what it used to be.

Oh, the stock is still wild, the roping is still great and if anything, the riding is better than ever. But just how much does one get to see of that in the modern day city rodeo?

I OVERHEARD a city rodeo chairman dicking with a representative of the Rodeo Cowboys Association recently.

"Broken Bones, I do hope you understand about our request that you get more of your cowboys into the Grand Entry Parade. People are demanding a more beautiful ceremony this year than ever and you should see the shiny costumes our officials are going to wear!"

"Wal, Mr. Chairman, the boys're havin' trouble long 'bout then figgerin' out the broncs they drawn for the Bareback Bronc Riding. We gotta study 'em. See, we don't jest git up thar and RIDE. Takes lotssa preparation."

"Oh, about that bareback event, Bones, I'm afraid we're going to have to cut that out this year. Due to the longer, greater, more colorful, more glamorous Grand Entry, we just won't have time. You do understand?"

"Naw, Ah can't say Ah do."

"WELL, BONES, we tried to work it in, really we did, but due to the Girls Trick Riding event coming right up after the E

we just couldn't."

"GURRRRLS!"

"Yes, that goes over big with the men. Sells lots of tickets. Naturally, there'll be no fees for Bareback since we have it, heh heh!"

"Heh, heh."

"NOW ABOUT the Wrestling. Could you get entrants down to three? We should go ahead and steer wrestling, even though we have had complaints from ladies about it looking dangerous."

"***** maghty right it is! Whadda 'spect us to do out thar, heh tea party?"

"Now now, Bones, don't be up. I'm just trying to arrange have a little bit of rodeo bet we have the Square Dancers."

"Square Dancers?"

"YES. Men and women horseback go through all different calls of a square dance. Goes over great with the ladies. Could your boys rush things a little during the Saddle Bronc Riding?"

"Wal, now, Ah reckon better jest talk to the boys 'bout that. They're in a big hurry than we are anyhow."

"Don't be petulant, Bones. I'm just trying to give Ding-a-Lings more time."

"The Ding-a-Lings?"

"THEY'RE A NEW sing combo that all the teenagers wild about. If we can let them at least ten numbers, teenagers will buy tickets mad. Uh, Bones, don't blow your cool, but I'm afraid we may have to cut out the calf roping to the Ding-a-Lings time enough."

"Cut our ropin'? How kin we have a rodeo without bareback ridin', three rasslers, hurried up saddle broncridin', and no calf ropin' Half the RCA counts on calf ropin' to make up fer losses."

"WELL, TELL all your boys they can enter the Brahms Riding. We've scheduled it last night. Looka here, some cowboys don't go in fer that. We got specialists, too, jest like all city fellers."

"BONES, I've done my best. But we simply have to make time slot for Lonesome Dave."

"Who in tarnation Lonesome Dave?"

"Why, he's the great T. star! The kiddies are crazy about him. And we've found from experience that the kiddies get the whole family out. The right after him, all you cowboys can ride the bulls to your heart content, if Dave doesn't take 'em long."

"Mister, you ain't havin' no rodeo. What you're havin' is of them blasted Variety Shows. You don't need no cowboys and no stock 'tail. Jest sequins and tame hosses!"

First Team Captain Found At Morton

BY JUNNIE GRAY
On March 14, the Littlefield High School volleyball girls discovered Littlefield's first team captain of its first football squad. Yes, that's right because Luther Hargrove of Morton gave us an interview on the beginning of the football team and various other things.
The organization of the great sport of football was started at LHS in the years of 1922-23 and was coached by Hank Shephard.
Not only was this sport started but the Wildcat was chosen to symbolize LHS and maroon and white were chosen as the school colors.
When Mr. Hargrove was asked to recall some of his teammates he came up with eight of them. They were Ross White, Loyd Springer, Pete Brashear, Ira Smith Jr., Toley Gray, Fountain Parker, Leonard Wright, Alf Wright and of course himself.
The sport of football of LHS was started when Mr. Hargrove and his fellow classmates decided that they would get together and begin a team, which is exactly what they did.
As usual, many of the boys' parents disapproved in the sport and would not let their sons play because they felt it was too rough.

The football uniforms which they wore looked basically the same as they do today. They wore maroon jerseys and a type of yellow colored pants.
For transportation back and forth to the games the boys used a model T truck. The furnishings of the truck were not factory-made, but made at home.
If one wanted to go and watch the Wildcats play they would have to come and sit on the hard soil of Littlefield, because at that time there was no stadium.
Mr. Hargrove stated that Littlefield's first team had a terrible season. He said that they may have won two games that whole year. Some of the teams they played were Farwell, Brownfield, Slaton, Lubbock, and Plainview.
Our rival town of Levelland was not even in existence in the years of 1922-23 according to Mr. Hargrove.
The school not only had the single sport of football, but they also had basketball, and track.
These other two sports were supported by the townspeople as much as football was.

There was no gym for the basketball boys to play in, so again they used Littlefield's hard soil. In the school years of 1922-23, Toley Gray was the basketball team captain.
Mr. Hargrove was also in the first graduating class of LHS. Some of the seven people who graduated with him were: Annie Weibe, Nell Ruth Earnest, Lynn Yantis, and Ross White. The other two he could not remember.
Superintendent of the school was R. L. Speight and Hank Shephard was Principal. There were about 70 pupils enrolled in the entire Littlefield school system.
Mr. Hargrove, looking back into the past of Littlefield, recalled that Littlefield was equipped with about two hotels, two general stores, a wagon yard, where they parked their horses and buggies, and a Union Church. Mr. Hargrove made an estimate of about 50 as the city's population in the year of 1913.
There were approximately five teachers to run grades one through ten in 1922. After Mr. Hargrove graduated from his final year of high school (which was grade ten) he came back three years later and graduated from the eleventh grade, which had just been added.
Yes, the night on March 11, 1969 the volleyball girls met a real celebrity.

PEGGY RICHEY, Evah Tucker, Carolyn Lumsden, Mary Hobratchsk, and Elaine Graves form the girls' tennis team. It is not too often that so many girls have taken an interest in tennis.

NHS Sale Underway

The annual National Honor Society bake sale was the main topic of discussion at the Monday morning meeting of the Joe E. Hutchins Chapter of NHS.
Rosendo Soria, president, appointed five committees to sell orders for cakes and pies.
Janie Hyatt, Nancy Hall, Carla Chambers, Milynda Morris and Allen Williams, serving as committee chairmen, were assigned to take orders in specific parts of town.
NHS members set prices as follows: pecan and cream cherry pies, $2.00; other pies, $1.50; chocolate cakes, $4.50; and other cakes, $3.00.
Proceeds from the sale will go to form a scholarship for a NHS graduating senior.

Only 41 more school days left.

GUESS WHO this senior is. He stands 5'6" and you'll probably find him wherever the action is.

STUDENT VOICINGS

QUESTION: If you could be anyone in the world, who would you be and why?
Beverly Chisholm (Sr.)—"I guess just me not because I like myself that much, but because I've got so much to look forward to."
Vickie Wimberley (soph.)—"I'd like to be a nurse on the USS HOPE. For one thing, I'm interested in medicine, and also I like to work with people and help them."

Business Club Chooses Pins And Symbol

A business club meeting was held Thursday, March 20, in the typing room. Elaine Tiller, president of the club, called the meeting to order and stated the objectives of the meeting.
One of the objectives of the meeting was to select a symbol for the club. The members decided to have a symbol which will signify the various business courses taught here at LHS. These courses include typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, general business, and data processing.
To select membership pins was also one of the objectives of the meeting.
Pat Chandler, vice president of the club, read the constitution to the members. The purposes of the club there are to develop character, leadership, to create an interest and an understanding of business, and to encourage members to develop citizenship and patriotism. The constitution will be read to the members two more times before it will be voted on.
The next meeting will be held on April 10. This meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. so that more students may be able to attend.

THE BEAT GOES ON**

By DANNY GOWEN
There's been a lot of controversy about the profane literature and movies, which have been in wide circulation in the last few years.
A few years ago, movies, in which a person or persons were seen in the nude, were highly restricted to only a handful of studios.
But now, the situation has changed and more and more of these movies are being screened by all types of theaters.
Most of the theaters have had a long reputation of showing acceptable pictures, which do not concern themselves with morality.
Most of the theaters today are owned by responsible and respectable people, but they are too often swayed by the small price of an admission ticket to let a person, who is underage, be admitted.
Just recently in Lubbock, two of its city councilmen were shocked to find that an outrageous picture was being shown in one of the better theaters.
As a result, the management of the theater made a public apology and agreed to provide for a system, in which some movies would be screened for obscenity before shown to the public.
But, still there are other theaters and now days almost anyone can be swayed by the price of admission ticket.
Isn't it strange how people always seem to turn out for a picture by Walt Disney, who has always been known to produce a good, clean movie?

'Gammer Gurton's Needle' Presented At Snyder

LHS speech students presented a one-act play at the district UIL meet in Snyder Tuesday. The cast left Littlefield Monday afternoon to put on a dress rehearsal in Snyder that evening before the actual performance Tuesday.
"Gammer Gurton's Needle", the play represented by the contestants, is famous as the second oldest comedy in English. Probably written in the 1550's, "Gammer" was first published in 1575; the title page read: "A Ryght Pithy, Pleasunt and merie Comedie: Intytuled Gammer Gurton's Needle...made by Mr. S. Mr. of Art."
The play is a rollicking farce laid in a sixteenth century English hamlet which could have been the model for Lil' Abner's Dogpatch. Among its often-patched, seldom-washed inhabitants is Gammer Gurton, a jolly old gossip whose most precious possession is a steel needle.
But, alas!—Gammer loses her needle, and the entire village finds itself in a turmoil. Hodge valiantly searches, Diccon complicates matters with some mischief, and Dame dars anybody to accuse of stealing anything!"

Those in the cast include Peggy Dean as Gammer Gurton, Nancy Hall as the Chat, David Sevier as Hodge Jan Christian as Tyb, King as Cocker, Williams as Diccon, Hobratschsk as Doll, Davidson as Doctor, Gary Garrison as Mr. Bailey, and Emery Watson Stage Manager.
Mrs. Elizabeth Ayms director of the play Curtis Timmons is director.

Another important volleyball game was played Friday afternoon at 2:45 in the Pep Tournament by the freshman girls. The girls play Morton and came out with a victory. They then received fifth place in the tournament winning a trophy. Twelve teams were in the tournament, so our freshman girls did pretty well.

The girls are starting track this week. They are getting ready for a meet in Idalou this Saturday. So.....

Good Luck Girls!!!

"Hey, you!" yelled a Policeman at Bob Grissom. "You're crossing the street when the sign says 'Don't Walk'."

Even Wash Your Dog

Wash your car, pickup, camper, tractor, hogs, or dogs at Perry's Car Wash. These are just some of the things that have been washed at the two car washes at 10th and XIT, where you have your choice of the do-it-yourself "wand" or the fully automatic "Orbit".

The wand gives you soft, hot, soapy (and clear rinse) water at 500 pounds of pressure for five minutes for 25 cents. The wand is good for washing motors. The wand has been used to clean carpets, horses, and horse troughs, bicycles, and all sorts of air conditioner pads.

During the stock shows, enterprising youngsters ran their hogs through the car wash. Lynn Todd, manager, reports the hogs just loved it and came out looking like champs.

Todd has seen just about everything washable washed with the wand except dirty children, and he says he wouldn't be surprised to see that before long.

The wand was the first car wash put in at Perry's, about four years ago.

The "Orbit" is one year old, and Lynn Todd is celebrating his first anniversary in the automatic car wash business.

Upon entering the Orbit, a spray bar washes underneath the car with 600 pounds of pressure. The pre-soak spray cycle cleans the wheels and the underside of the vehicle.

The Orbit will wash your car, going through the full cycle of two soaps and two rinses, in two minutes. Soft water, commercial detergent and 600 pounds of pressure will give you a sparkling clean car and all for only 50 cents. Add another quarter and you'll get a Prestone wax job. A jet spray of Prestone wax is especially good for new cars.

An attendant is on duty at the Orbit to vacuum and chamois your vehicle for you. Twenty-five cents is charged by the attendant for vacuuming and 50 cents for chamoising for those wanting this optional service.

Two coin operated, commercial-type vacuum cleaners are located conveniently for do-it-yourself vacuuming.

Pick-ups and most campers can be easily washed in the Orbit, also. Since the Orbit has been in Littlefield, washing cars and pick-ups is much easier. And the car wash businesses, like Perry's Laundry is open day and night, 24 hours around the clock.

A soft drink machine is located near the coin deposit for the Orbit car wash, too, and in the laundry there are all sorts of drink and snack vendors dispensing coffee, cold drinks, potato chips, chewing gum and Cracker Jacks 24 hours a day.

Lumberman Clement Offers Experience

Harold Clement, manager of Higginbotham-Bartlett Company, has been in the lumber business more than 30 years. His first lumber yard was at Bula in 1936.

Clement has been a resident of Lamb County since 1932, where he was associated with Higginbotham-Bartlett at Amherst.

There are five Higginbotham-Bartlett lumber companies in Lamb County with yards at Earth, Olton, Sudan, Amherst and Littlefield.

"And our company still operates like the old country store," Clement said. "We accommodate the people, and are always looking for a way to benefit the community. Success of the company is due to this policy."

The first Higginbotham-Bartlett in Littlefield was located in 1923 just east and across the street from the present location.

Some of the carpenters and hired hands lived in these buildings for a while.

Over the years there have been four or five line lumber yards in Littlefield, but they are all gone except Higginbotham. "Higginbotham came here to stay," Clement said.

Higginbotham is the place to go for those clean-up, paint-up, fix-up supplies. To help with the clean-up work, Higginbothams have a complete line of small tools including garden equipment and water hose. Higginbothams carry a full line of Jones-Blair and Sherwin Williams paints, and all types of painting supplies including step ladders, brushes, and drop cloths. They have Old Masters antiquing paints, too.

For fixing up, Higginbothams do anything from building a multi-million building to repairing your screens or replacing glass in your storm doors. They carry a large selection of floor coverings or order any type of flooring. They stock a good selection of 12 ft. linoleum.

A full line of Trewax brand floor care products is also carried. This is highly advertised and good line of wax.

A complete stock of all building supplies can be found here. Varying contractors work out of the office and can do anything from contracting a turn-key job on a new house to re-roofing your present home, adding car port, garage, patio, or extensive remodeling.

Pipe fittings, and plumbing supplies are also carried here, along with water well supplies and submersible pumps. If you have a windmill, you can get repair parts for it here, too. George White Ranch bought over $1,000 worth of windmill towers and parts just last week.

Whatever your needs in the lumber line, Higginbothams will give you the old country store welcome.

Denial Of School Prayer Violation Of Constitution

Answers by Rev. Ken Johnson, pastor of Missionary Baptist Church.
(Second in a series.)

Christian society has preserved pure the doctrine of the gospel through all the ages."

Mosheim, the scholarly Lutheran historian, speaks of Baptist history: "The true origin of that sect which acquired the name of Ana-Baptist by administering anew the rite of Baptism to those who came over to their communion is hid in the remote depths of antiquity, and is consequently extremely difficult to be ascertained."

Baptist churches since the close of the 19th and early 20th century have in some instances moved closer to the reformed theology position of the church and have embraced the Protestant concept of the church. In this manner some Baptist have joined fully the "Ecumenical" movement and a position leading to interdenominational work. True Baptist, however, remain a testimony to scripture truth which embraces the New Testament as the only guide to faith and practice. Baptist Churches, therefore, who hold this truth remain forever separate from compromises of scripture truth. Their aim is to continue in pure unchanged New Testament Christianity.

3. How many Missionary Baptist Churches are there?

Ans: The number of Baptist in America was estimated at over twenty one million by "The Baptist World" in 1962. The number of separate congregations in indefinite. Baptist who have associated into hierachial groups list various numbers of churches as constituent members but their claims sometimes overlap when certain churches belong to two or more organizations.

Of the twenty largest Sunday Schools in America, the clear majority are Independent Baptists. The largest churches in the world are Independent Baptist Churches.

4. Is the Missionary Baptist Church autonomous?

Ans: The Littlefield Missionary Baptist Church is governed by the membership of the church. We are independent to do as the membership feels led of the Holy Spirit. The Missionary Baptist Church is not "affiliated with" nor "members" of any association or convention.

5. How is the Missionary Baptist Church governed?

The Lord Jesus Christ established the local New Testament Church: We do not believe that he established nor sanctioned any Convention or Association to Lord it over the churches. Therefore, the local church is completely autonomous and self-governed.

In the Book of Acts which describes the ministry of the earliest churches, we find the greatest evangelistic missionary effort in the history of New Testament churches. In those days travel was slow; there were no television sets; and printing and radio were unheard of. In a short period of time, some thirty years, the Gospel was spread through the known world by churches that were autonomous; They belonged to no association, convention, or outside church denominational organization.

6. What does the Missionary Baptist Church believe about the Bible?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church believes in the verbal inspiration of the scriptures. By this we contend the original word of God is perfect, without human error, and the divine revelation of God to man. We accept the 66 books as named in the authorized version as canonical books and all others are considered spurious and pseudographic.

7. Do members of the Missionary Baptist Church believe in the virgin birth?

Ans: The membership of our church holds as a cardinal doctrine of belief the Virgin birth of Christ.

8. Does the Missionary Baptist Church believe in predestination?

Ans.: The membership of our church believes in predestination. By this we mean the complete sovereignty of God as opposed to fatalism or unimpeded history. We believe God has a divine plan of the ages revealed in the Bible.

9. What kind of Baptism does the Missionary Baptist Church believe in?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church practices baptism by immersion of the professing believer in water. We believe baptism is held in authority to be administered by the New Testament Church. We baptize because of the believer having been saved. We believe Baptism shows forth to the world the believer's faith in the Saviour.

10. Is infant baptism practiced? Why, or why not?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church does not practice any form of infant baptism. We do not baptize infants because: (1) There is not one single example of infant baptism in all the Bible nor a scripture that commands it; (2) Only professing believers are baptized in the scripture accounts; (3) Infants cannot possibly have repentance or faith personally as they are incapable as an infant.

11. What sacraments are observed?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church does not recognize "baptism" or "The Lord's Supper" as "sacraments". We observe the "Lord's Supper and baptism" as ordinances of the church. The Lord's supper is a memorial that shows forth the Lord's death till he comes (I Cor. 11:26) and baptism is the picture of our burial and resurrection with Christ. (Rom. 6:1-6.)

12. Which rules, conventions, or rituals of your church are most misunderstood?

Ans.: Probably the most misunderstood point which people observe in the Missionary Baptist Church is our belief in Christ as eternal all sufficient Saviour. We consider the death of Christ as the only pardon for man's sin. We do not consider good works, baptism, sacraments, penance, or other human elements as adding to the work of salvation Christ completed on the cross. We believe works are the product of salvation and not the basis.

13. How does the Missionary Baptist Church receive financial support?

Ans.: Financial support of the Missionary Baptist Church is gained through the tith and freewill offerings of the members of our church. We do not operate businesses, cake sales, rummage sales, or any external function to support the work of God from external sources. We do not take pledges nor assess gifts to the church. All giving is personal and prompted by love for our Saviour.

14. What does the Missionary Baptist Church believe about Heaven and Hell?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist believes in a literal heaven as the home of the family of God which is all the redeemed of all ages. We believe in a literal hell where all unsaved of all ages shall suffer in eternal torment separated from God forever.

15. What is the belief of the Missionary Baptist Church concerning divorce?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church believes in the sanctity of the home. We believe the home is an institution created by God. We believe divorce is only acceptable to God for the unfaithfulness of a marriage partner but not demanded if the unfaithful repents and is accepted by their mate. We believe remarriage is only justified after the death of one's mate. In short, we believe if a person has a mate, all steps should be taken to keep the home intact.

16. What is required of a person to become a member of the Missionary Baptist Church?

Ans.: To become a member of the Missionary Baptist Church the candidate must be accepted by the majority vote of the membership. The church accepts only professing saved people who have been scripturally baptised in a New Testament Baptist Church. We accept the repentant who come forward in our services asking baptism and membership in our church. We accept, after questioning, those who come by "statement of faith" when their original membership and record of baptism is unobtainable from a disbanded church or a Baptist Church whose records are lost.

17. What are your personal thoughts on segregation-integration?

Ans.: The membership of the Missionary Baptist Church believes in the dignity of every race. Our consideration of every fellow man is that they are equally created by God and their births dependent on the Sovereign will of the Creator and His Grace.

We believe God separated the races and the ideal is to remain separated. We therefore desire all actions which cause the mixing of races by inter-marriages cease.

18. What do you think about the Court ruling on prayers in school?

Ans.: The Missionary Baptist Church believes it is the right of every individual to pray when, where, and as often as he feels he should. We therefore, consider it a flagrant violation of constitutional rights by the U. S. Courts to deny prayer in the schools. Our position is that of complete separation of Church and State. We believe the government should neither establish nor support religion.

The Baptist Joint Committee lobby in Washington, D. C., opposed actions to put prayer in schools again. The Missionary Baptist Church does not support this group though they profess to be Baptist. We believe firmly that a student who does not believe in prayer should have the right to deny participation.

Paul Renfro Praised By Commanding Officer

Mrs. Norman T. Renfro of Littlefield received a letter recently from the Air Force, 29th Tactical Airlift Squadron at San Francisco, concerning her son, Paul Renfro.

Printed below is the letter.

Dear Mrs. Renfro,

This week I had the pleasure of swearing in your son Paul as a regular officer in the United States Air Force. I thought that I would take this occasion to tell you of his selection and to congratulate you upon it.

As you probably know the competition within the Air Force for selection as a regular officer is extremely keen. The selections are made based upon the quality of the officer's work, his educational background and many other factors.

Though the educational level of the officer corps of the Air Force has been rising rapidly during the last decade, Paul with his master's degree certainly stands out from the crowd. But perhaps even more important is the fact that he is one of the finest aircraft commanders in our squadron.

Though he is younger and less experienced than many of our aircraft commanders, he has turned in a fine performance under very trying conditions indeed. He has had to face vile weather conditions, hostile fire and primitive airfield conditions in order to accomplish his mission in Vietnam.

I might also add that this particular mission is one of the most vital that the Air Force has in Southeast Asia for a great many of our forwardmost units are wholly dependent on airdropping or airlifting their ammunition and their vital supplies.

Paul is certainly a fine young man and he richly deserved this recognition. I am sure that you are as proud to have him for a son as I am to have him as a member of our Squadron.

Sincerely,
William I. Coleman, Colonel,
USAF
Commander

April 1 is deadline for having 1969 license plates mounted on vehicles and casting absentee ballots in school trustee elections throughout the area, and in city council elections in Littlefield, Earth and Olton.

City elections will be conducted that same date, Tuesday, April 1, and school board elections will be Saturday, April 5.

Spanish-speaking homes, an attractive program for teachers, "an effective organizational structure" and "a better system for measuring local ability and insuring local support to the state foundation program."

Paul Jones said he gathered from questioning that there were certain parts of the bill that some committee members did not favor. Jones predicted that Gov. Smith will strike out parts of the bill if it passes.

Favorable parts of the bill are being introduced separately and will come up at a later date.

Jones said it remains to be seen whether the committee will approve H. B. 300 and put it on the calendar, modify it, or reject the proposal.

The Littlefield group had to leave when the meeting recessed for dinner, Jones said. Other area superintendents and board members stayed for the evening session and were not back by press time.

Among others from this area attending were Bill Mann, Springlake-Earth superintendent and board members Sandy Sanderson and Norman Hinchliff, Ray Shultz, Earl Spruill, Percy Parsons and Elmer McGill, of Olton; Joe Bailey of Spade; and M. J. McDaniel, Bula.

License Sales At Fast Pace

Sale of license plates is brisk at the county tax assessor-collector's office, with the deadline just hours away.

Car tag sales have "picked up quite a bit the past week," although as predicted, many people are waiting until the last two weeks to obtain their 1969 tags.

At closing time Friday, 5997 tags had been sold over the county, including the count from the sub-stations. Deputies report this figure to be about one-half, with about this many more tags yet to be purchased.

License plates can be purchased through April 1, and those waiting until after the deadline will have to sign an affidavit, deputies said.

Motorists who fail to have their license plates on their vehicles by midnight Tuesday (April 1) can be fined up to $200 for operating the vehicle. Those who fail to get their license plates before the deadline will have to pay a 20 per cent increase in fee as a late penalty.

Fees for the 1969 plates are the same as in 1968. For vehicles weighing up to 3,500 pounds, the fee is $12.30; from 3,501 to 4,500 pounds, $22.30; 4,501 to 6,000 pounds, $30.30; and 6,001 pounds and over, 55 cents for each 100 pounds. Owners should bring titles and last year's registration receipts when buying new tags.

Approximately 19,000 vehicles were registered last year.

and plans to continue in an active teaching status.

The major purpose is to recognize the contributions of teachers. In choosing, Mrs. Lynn, teachers say their nominee has the respect and admiration of students, parents and co-workers, playing useful roles at school as well as in the community.

Following Henry Ward Beecher's adage, "if there is a job to be done, I always ask the busiest man in my parish to take it on, and it always gets done." Mrs. Lynn has been church treasurer since '52, young adult Sunday school teacher 14 years, study chairman for the missionary society for six years, and director of vacation Bible school at the Church of the Nazarene.

"I don't have enough time to get bored," Mrs. Lynn said, when asked what she did in her spare time. Somehow she finds time to make all of her daughter's and her own clothes. "And I love to bake desserts and cook candy." She smiled her television commercial smile, "I like to cook all the things I shouldn't more than anything else."

Wildcats Fifth At Hereford

Kenneth Twitty sailed 21 feet, 7 inches to capture first place in the long jump at Hereford Saturday, leading the way to Littlefield's placing fifth place in an exceptionally strong field.

Twitty, who left the take-off area well behind the board, possibly cleared the 22-foot mark, according to Coach Jimmy Bartlett.

But his was the only first place taken by the Wildcats, who were competing against some of the strongest track clubs in the state.

The meet was won by Amarillo Tascosa, with Plainview close behind, 122-108. Both are AAA schools.

Third and fourth went to other members of the 3-AAA family, Dunbar and Estacado, who earned 92 and 81 points, respectively.

Behind Littlefield's 32 points were host Hereford, 23; Levelland, 17; Canyon, 12; Clovis, 6; and Muleshoe, 0.

The 'Cats captured several points by three of them tying for third place in the pole vault, Charles Holt, Randy Walker and Jerry Wright all went out after clearing 11-3. Winning height was 12-3.

Adolfo Aguirre placed sixth in the mile and Steve Owens sixth in the 330 intermediate hurdles.

The mile relay team was fifth, behind Estacado's winning time of 3:25.21.

Not counting in points, Littlefield's 2-mile relay team placed fourth. The race, which was for sophomores only, was entered by Keith Sitton, Larry Purdy, Ruben Sanchez and Allen Holbratsch.

The club will run this Saturday at Seminole.
