OLD-TIMERS SLATE REUNION

Pioneers To Meet Tuesday

Hundreds of Lamb County pioneers will receive the red carpet treatment when they gather Tuesday afternoon at the Lamb County Community Center in Littlefield for their 23rd Annual Lamb County Pioneers Reunion.

Pioneers and their guests will begin registration at 2 p.m. in front of the center, located at the corner of West Third and Ripley Streets.

A huge barbecue, brief entertaining program, and lots of visiting have been promised the old-timers of the county.

Persons who have lived in the county at least 25 years, or who were residents of the county that long ago, are eligible to become a member of the organization.

Herbert Dunn of Littlefield and his committee members will be in charge of the registration.

All persons over 12 years old are to be registered, and persons must have a registration to be served at the barbecue.

Pioneers who are more than 70 years old will be served in the barbecue line first, and the serving will continue through those who are younger, with children served last.

Prizes will be given to the oldest woman present, oldest man present, the pioneer who travels the farthest, and the pioneer who has lived in the county the longest period of time.

If a person has received a prize in one of these categories in the past, he will be honored, but the person next in line will receive the prize.

Gold ribbons will be worn by persons living in the county 50 years or more, and blue ribbons will be issued to those residing in the county 40 years or more.

Buck Ross of Littlefield is president of this year's Pioneer Association, and will preside for the festivities.

He will appoint a nominating committee during the session, and they will present a slate of prospective new officers for next year. Members of the organization will elect the new officers during the business session following the program.

A brief program of singing, music and other talent is being planned by Weldon Findley, program chairman. Vocalists who have appeared on previous programs are returning by request, and a stringed instrumental group will be featured.

Musicians who will contribute their talent include the Dunn brothers, Joe Dunn of Big Spring, Newt Dunn of California and John Dunn of Littlefield; Leldon Phillips of Muleshoe; Truman Cotton of Anton; and Albert Findley of Levelland.

The welcoming address will be delivered by District Judge Pat Boone Jr., a second generation pioneer whose father was president of the Lamb County Pioneers 20 years ago.

The huge barbecue will be served at 6 p.m. when 600 pounds of beef, donated by Security State Bank, will be served with all the trimmings. The 920-pound Charolais-Hereford steer was purchased from Sudan Livestock and Feeding and Littlefield Frozen Food donated the processing.

Beans, coffee, tea and relishes will be provided by the reunion committees, and the in-county pioneers will bring salads and desserts to go with the barbecue.

V. M. 'Pete' Peterman was chairman of the beef committee and Fred Lichte is chairman of the barbecue committee.

Other committee chairmen are: F.E. Yohner and Roy Wade on the purchasing committee; Mrs. Bonnie Haberer, hospitality chairman; kitchen supervisor, Joe W. Bitner Sr.; scrapbook custodian, Mrs. L. E. Slate of Sudan; tables and chairs, Buck Phillips; gifts, Mrs. V. M. Peterman; and publicity, Betty Hodges.

Sheriffs Posse Like Big Happy Family

By NILAH RODGERS

Camping out under the stars, riding horseback across canyons, over prairies and in parades, and helping neighbors when emergencies arise are just some of the things that keeps over 60 Lamb County Sheriffs Posse riders members in good standing.

The Lamb County Sheriffs Posse as well as all the riding clubs that belong to the national organizations are family affairs.

One of the youngest riders is 2-year-old blond haired blue-eyed Tory Blackwell. He's still a little short in the stride to ride alone, but he rides double with his parents, Nelda and Bill Blackwell. Four-year-old Meleta Blackwell and another four-year-old, Shila Reeves, are the youngest members of the riding posse.

Although most people think of the posse as the uniformed riders behind parade color guards, less than half of the members suit up for the parades. Others key on the once a month play days, some like the trail rides when the group gets together to ride through an area or nearby ranch, Palo Duro Canyon, or along the Canadian River.

Regardless of their status in life, the posse offers something for every horse lover. Membership in the Lamb County group includes bankers, doctors, machinists, farmers, ranchers, house wives and all the kith and kin. Riders include families from all over Lamb County, as well as from Whitharral, Levelland and Lubbock.

Standing Cotton Acreage Revealed

Of the total 172,842.2 acres of cotton planted in Lamb County earlier this season, the total number of standing acres as of Friday is 144,591.9 acres according to a detailed survey made by the ASCS office.

Richard Newman, county executive director, said according to ASCS records, 28,250.3 acres of cotton has been destroyed by hail and other adverse weather conditions.

These acreages were determined by farmers' certifications and measurement service.

Of the total acreage planted, 5,053.5 acres of cotton was in a two in one out pattern, 23,899.4 acres were planted two in, two out, and 152.9 acres of cotton was planted two in, four out.

The latest yield estimate based on the number of standing acres in the county now stands at 115,672 bales of cotton.

Weather factors for the next 30 days will heavily affect the projected yield which could vary greatly either way at this point.

Posse members are always ready to lend a helping hand, too. The sheriff or a deputy sheriff is always included in the membership, and the club rides under the sheriff's or a deputy's direction on some occasions.

The posse is on call at all times to help with any law enforcement assistance. At activities that draw large crowds, posse members help handle parking, etc. Mounted riders have helped search for missing children, the posse has helped in dragging operations for drowned victims, and in the roundup of strayed cattle.

Helping the youth of the community is of prime importance to posse members. And with more than 50 per cent of the membership made up of intermediates, juniors and peewees, there will be a sheriffs posse in Lamb County for many years.

Some of the youngsters have set national riding records.

A great deal of pride is reflected in the number of posse points. Three years ago, the Lamb County posse earned next to the highest number of points of any riding group in the nation.

The posse is judged by association rules in every riding event. Only members in full uniform are allowed to ride in parades. If they forget part of their equipment, they just don't ride with the posse. Points come off when a member forgets his bow tie or sheriff's badge, so it's better to do without the rider than for him to ride out of uniform.

Not only must the posse member be properly dressed, but his horse must have his feet and mane trimmed right. Sportsmanship and horsemanship count, too.

A member can get in all the riding and social activities he wishes with the play days, twice a month meetings, trail rides and parades.

The next two weeks are filled with posse activities. The posse will head up the Festivities Days parade next weekend, and the following week they will be a host posse at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch Rodeo.

They will meet at Boys Ranch on Saturday for three days of camping out, barbecues, rodeoing and trail riding. Riders will participate in the grand entry Sunday and Monday.

After a ride along the Canadian River Sunday morning, they will return for outdoor church services in the arena with the boys and personnel from the ranch.

Everybody will take his own camping supplies and bacon, eggs and bread for breakfasts. The food committee is handling the eats for the remaining meals excluding two big ranch barbecues.

It will be like a big family reunion or picnic.

DUB BERRY, president of the Lamb County Sheriffs Posse, saddles up his palomino, Buck. Other Posse officers this year include Dave Whited, arena director; Bill Blackwell, parade marshal; Robert Moore, pony express; Pat Blackwell, secretary; Jo Phillips, treasurer; Pete Peterman, reporter; and Nelda Blackwell and Linda Jones, food committee. The riders are a host posse for the Boys Ranch Rodeo Sept. 3 and 4.

ROUND Charolais-Hereford cross steer will be barbecued Monday and Tuesday morning in preparation for the 23rd Annual Pioneer Reunion slated for the Community Center Tuesday, Aug. 22. The steer weighs about 600 pounds of beef, shown hanging in the center. Security State Bank donated the beef, and LaVell Cowan, right, presents the check from the V. M. Peterman, beef chairman of the Pioneer Reunion. R. B. Kirby of Littlefield Frozen Food, left, donated the processing of the beef. Fred Lichte and his committee are in charge of the barbecuing.

MR. & MRS. KENNETH HAIRE

FORMERLY OF LITTLEFIELD

Miss Chisholm Weds Randy Lynn Haile

Mrs. Carl Ann Chisholm and Randy Lynn Haile were united in marriage Saturday evening, Aug. 19, in First United Methodist Church of Littlefield.

Officiating for the reading of the double ring vows was Rev. David Hamblin, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy E. Piercey, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Virginia Haile, all of Littlefield.

Church decorations featured an arched candelabra decorated with huckleberry foliage, and a communion table featuring a memory candle and multi-colored asters, spider mums and daisies. Solral candelabra trees were placed on either side, flanked by large arrangements of the same multi-colored flowers.

Musical selections were "Color My World", "Whither

Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer." They were presented by Mike Threadgill, organist; Mary Elizabeth Shotwell, flutist; and Linda Horn, soloist.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian styled gown of white silk organdy accented with Guipure lace. It featured a V yoked bodice that was outlined with petals of Guipure lace scallops and appliques of lace flowers and leaves. The high Victorian collarlet was also edged with the lace, and her long tapered sleeves were appliqued and cuffed with the lace. A V lace motif formed an apron effect on the bouffant skirt which rose to a bustle fullness at the back forming a chapel-length train. Lace petals and applique flowers encircled the hemline of her gown. A Victorian bonnet of matching Guipure lace held her bouffant veiling which was sprinkled with lace petals and fell in tiers to her waistline. She carried a Victorian cascade bouquet of stephanotis, baby's breath with a removable Cattleya orchid corsage. The bride had a silk handkerchief that belonged to her great-grandmother for "something old"; her wedding dress and veil was "something new"; pearl earrings from her grandmother was "something borrowed"; and the traditional blue garter was "something blue".

Maid of honor was Beverly Chisholm of Canyon, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Patti Chisholm of Littlefield, sister of the bride and Cynthia King of Sudan. They were all attired alike repeating the Victorian theme in variegated pastel shades of blue, lilac and pink voile. The fitted bodices were yoked with tucks and lace insertions of white Val lace with deep lace ruffles outlining the V yokes. Collarlets of voile and lace were edged with the lace ruffling and their long sleeves of voile were gathered to cuffs of tucks and lace and ruffling at the wrists. Matching satin ribbons adorned the high waistlines of their softly belled skirts. They wore matching colored organza flower garland streamers in their hair, and carried baskets of multi-colored flowers.

Flower girl was Michelle Parkman of Maple, and ring bearer was Matt Garrett of Lubbock.

The candles were lighted by Prynness Parkman of Maple and Kelly Messer of Roswell, N.M.

DeLon Walker of Littlefield served the groom as best man. Groomsman were Jim Hall and John Piercey, both of Littlefield.

Ushers were Tim Walker, J. R. Lynch, Randy Parkman, all of Littlefield and Louie Jarrett of Indiana.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Piercey wore a samron rose silk floor-length chiffon dress with a high dutchess neckline and long tapered sleeves. She wore matching accessories.

The groom's mother was attired in a dusty rose Venice lace gown fashioned with an Empire bodice, long fitted sleeves and a high ring neckline. She wore matching accessories.

Debbie Hafley registered the guests.

A reception followed in the parlor of the church. Serving at the bride's table were Debbie Hafley, Kay Terry and Timmy Campbell. At the groom's table were Dae Lynn McCowen and Wanda Cotter. Others in the houseparty were Mmes. J. R. Fain, Freddie Parkman, Charles Hunsinger and Mike Threadgill.

The bride wore a green and white knit dress with white accessories for a honeymoon trip to Corpus Christi.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Littlefield High School, and the groom attended Littlefield High School, Allen Military 48 To Die ?

COLONEL WILSON E. SPEIR, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that statewide traffic accidents over the Labor Day week-end will claim 48 lives.

The Labor Day holiday, as set by the National Safety Council, is a 78-hour period from 6 p.m. Friday, Sept. 1 to midnight Monday, Sept. 4.

AT THE CLOSE of the Labor Day period last year, a DPS tabulation showed that 41 persons had died in 34 traffic accidents. Late deaths pushed the toll to 43 persons killed in 36 accidents.

Speir said the DPS and local law enforcement agencies would be taking all possible steps to reduce the holiday death toll. A special "Operation Motorcade" will be in progress over the Labor Day weekend and tabulations of rural and urban fatal wrecks will be reported to the news media of Texas three times daily.

AS IS CUSTOMARY on major holidays, all available DPS patrolmen will be placed on duty throughout the state. They will make full use of radar and breath testing instruments in an effort to curtail the major causes of fatal accidents—excessive speed and drunk driving.

"These educational and enforcement programs will have an impact, but a great deal of the responsibility for accident reduction rests in the hands of individual Texans. I am appealing to all our citizens to join with us in saving lives by 'Driving Friendly,' both during the holiday and throughout the remainder of the year," Speir said.

Driving Statistics

THOSE OF US WHO DRIVE TODAY are survivors. Every day, thousands of other drivers who take to our highways aren't so lucky.

They wind up victims of the motor car which in its brief life, has already claimed more lives than all the wars in our history.

Half the deaths, injuries and property damage occurring on our highways year stem from accidents in which alcohol is involved. For a long time, the effects of alcohol on accident rates lay buried in the very statistics of accidents.

Alcohol was rarely listed as the "cause" of an accident. When, for instance, a drunk driver smashed into a tree at 80 m.p.h., only excessive speed" was likely to be entered as the cause on the official accident report.

BUT NEW RESEARCH techniques and investigation procedures have finally exposed the drunk driver as the greatest menace on our highways.

First of all, we have to overcome complacency. We must build public opinion to the point where drunk drivers will not be tolerated on our highways. And we can begin by examining our own opinions and feelings about this problem.

The drunk has long been viewed as a comic character, harmless and amusing. But behind the wheel, he's a potential killer.

AND IT IS ONLY in curbing this potential for destruction that we can ever hope to reduce the tragic toll of death and injury that each year mars our highways. The toll has been reduced in other countries.

It can and must be reduced here.

WE HAVE THE MEANS AT hand. But what seems lacking is a sense of urgency. Right now, a nationwide campaign is underway aimed at heightening public awareness of the dangers of the drunk driver and channeling public action against what has clearly become the greatest scourge in our nation's history.

One important development in this campaign occurred in 1966 when, under the provisions of an act passed by Congress, the Federal Government entered the field of highway safety. One of its first targets was the drinking driver.

"DEATH BY OUNCES", a research booklet, notes that the drunk driver killed 27,000 men, women, and children—almost double the number killed as the result of violent criminal acts.

He injured 2,350,000 others, many permanently. This represents an average of more injuries in one month than were sustained through crimes of violence for the entire year.

He was responsible for a daily economic loss amounting to nearly $20 million.

He caused suffering and grief that no one can begin to measure in terms of economic loss.

Research, surveys, new legislation, and action programs are all signs that we are at last moving to meet the problem of the drinking driver head on... before it meets us on the road.

Cafeteria Meals Nutritious, High School Offers Snack Bar

Littlefield school students eating in the school cafeteria this year will get hot, nutritious lunches planned to fill the needs of growing children.

Kindergartners through fourth graders will pay 35 cents per meal, grades five through 12 pay 50 cents, and guests and teachers will be charged 75 cents per meal.

Daily milk breaks are held for students through the second grade at five cents per carton except those receiving free milk.

All school lunches include at least two ounces of meat or high protein food, three-fourths cup vegetables or fruit, fruit juices high in vitamin C, and a roll or slice of enriched bread with butter, plus one-half pint of whole milk.

Cafeteria personnel try to give sufficient servings the first time through since the time it takes to feed the 1,000 to 1,100 students who eat in the cafeteria daily does not permit cafeteria workers nor students time to go back for second helpings.

Extra desserts such as brownies, doughnuts and cinnamon rolls are sold to students who want additional dessert. Students may buy two brownies for a nickel, and doughnuts and cinnamon rolls for five cents each.

Extra milk in addition to the half-pint served with meals may be purchased for five cents a carton.

Littlefield High School students who wish to eat at the cafeteria will be offered bus service to and from the junior high cafeteria. The LHS cafeteria has been replaced by a snack bar.

High school students have their choice of hot dogs, hamburgers, Frito pie and sandwiches. Packaged potato and corn chips and other snack items, plus brownies, cookies, cinnamon rolls and cold drinks will be available.

He was born Nov. 3, 1903 in Coffman County. He was driving east on Farm Road 40 Tuesday, and was attempting to turn north onto FM 400, when a pickup truck, driven by a Vernon man, collided with the right side of Griggs' car and with a pickup truck driven by a Rails man.

Two Accidents Investigated

Two wrecks have occurred in Littlefield the last part of the past week.

Wednesday evening, officers were called to the scene of a two-vehicle mishap at the intersection of West First and North Westside.

Betty Rios Cruz of Littlefield was driving a 1969 Ford pickup west on West First and Elmer William Walker of Littlefield was driving a 1965 Rambler north on North Westside, when they came to the traffic signal that showed red and green both ways. The pickup collided with the Rambler's right front fender.

Thursday afternoon, a 1965 Buick was being driven by Danny Ray Hukel of Littlefield southward on XIT Drive, when a 1968 Cadillac was driven by Susan Ann Cotton of Littlefield eastward on West Ninth. She stopped the Cadillac at the stop sign, according to the officer's report, then proceeded forward and collided with the right rear panel and fender skirt of the Buick. The left front fender and bumper of the Cadillac were damaged.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE Communication

MANY OF THE PROBLEMS in human relationships are explained by such terms as: "a break-down in communication"; "no communication"; "we can't communicate"; "we are not communicating"; and other similar ones.

As generally used, "communicate" seems to mean, "to understand and to be understood". A more formal definition would be, "A technique for expressing ideas effectively in speech or writing or through arts".

THE COMMUNICATION so essential to satisfying human associations involves the total personality, and the interrelatedness of all of its ways of expression.

Misunderstandings probably rob us of more joy and contentment than any other source of loss. These are part of the loss suffered by inadequate communication.

Someone is not careful to say, with words and actions, what he wants to say; or someone doesn't pay attention to the message; or someone doesn't accept what is said, but assumes that the communicator meant something else; or the message is distorted by such undesirable attitudes as prejudice.

THE FAILURE TO BE CLEAR and exact in transmitting our thoughts, or our needs, or our instructions, or our wishes, or our feelings can cause failure in communicating.

Failure can also occur, when we are not honest in our transmission or reception of the message. Of course, in these instances, full communication is impossible.

SOME PEOPLE DON'T LISTEN may be pre-occupied, or distracted, or they may not care. They may be so self-centered, unmindful of others that they have no touch and have no interest in the story communication.

Some listen, but translate what they hear to suit themselves and their interests. Again, communication has been made a failure.

LACK OF CONSIDERATION people can make communication impossible. It may be either the communicator or the recipient, but often it is the communicator who accepts the responsibility for expressing himself in terms that others understand.

There must be the greatest consideration of one another in the most effective and helpful communication to take place. It is more important to all of our associations with each other.

WE MUST NOT TAKE anything granted. Too often we assume others have the information we should give to them. This is because serious misunderstandings. It is better to repeat, and make sure; than take so much for granted. From the other side, it is necessary that we not assume we have the full report, we must have.

COMMUNICATION will be when everybody involved in it and places the best possible care on the words and actions of each.

Residents of Girlstown need money, and several Littlefield citizens are rising to aid the cause.

Mrs. I.D. Onstead, who has become known as one of the contact points between Girlstown and Littlefield, remarked that "you can't imagine odds and ends those girls need referred to a long list of items.

Mrs. Phelps Likes Helping Elderly

Most Hospital Auxiliary members work one day a week, spending half a day at one of the hospitals and the other half day at the Hospitality House, but Dell Phelps goes two better than that.

Mrs. Phelps puts in her usual day as a Hospital Auxiliary member, plus two more afternoons a week at the Hospitality House. "I feel working with the elderly is the most gratifying work I've ever done, including my war time work," Mrs. Phelps said. "Oh, those old people love me! They meet me at the door with, 'I've been looking for you!'"

Besides the afternoons she works, Mrs. Phelps goes out to the home every day to visit her mother, Mrs. Minnie Carroll. The Phelps moved back to Littlefield from Albuquerque so Mrs. Phelps could be near her mother when she entered the home four and one-half years ago. "I decided if I was going to live here, I'd better get to be a part of the town," Mrs. Phelps said, "so I got busy."

Mrs. Phelps is a charter member of the auxiliary, joining when the group organized in 1970. This year she is president. "We could use more members," Mrs. Phelps said. "The other home for the elderly has asked us to work out there, too, but we don't have enough workers." The Phelps spent 30 years in the service before Phelps retired as a Lt. Colonel. "And he started as a buck private," Mrs. Phelps added. "We've been many places and have lots of fond memories."

Mrs. Phelps doesn't like the "three meals a day bit," but she does like to cook usual and foreign dishes. The following recipe for chicken is a Portuguese dish Mrs. Phelps originated, and zucchini squash cooked this way is simply delicious, according to Mrs. Phelps.

MRS. HARRY PHELPS

SAVORY ZUCCHINI

 1 pound zucchini
 2 tablespoons butter
 1 tablespoon instant minced onion
 3 teaspoons beef stock base
 1/2 cup water.
 Wash zucchini and cut in half. Slice thinly lengthwise; then cut each thin slice into match-like sticks. Heat butter in large, heavy skillet. Add onions, beef stock base and water. Stir to mix and add zucchini. Cook quickly over high heat, turning constantly with pancake turner. Cook only until crisp tender and liquid absorbed, not more than 5 minutes. (4 servings)

CHICKEN ALA PORTUGUESE

1 fryer cut up
 1/4 c oil
 1 onion chopped
 1 clove garlic
 1 teaspoon Oregano
 2 teaspoons sweet basil
 1 can mushrooms
 1 can tomatoes with chili
 1 cup grated cheese
 1/4 cup parmesan cheese (optional)
 In a large skillet saute chicken until brown. Add onion and garlic and cook until transparent, add tomatoes, mushrooms, oregano and basil. Cover and cook until chicken is tender. Cover with cheese and allow to melt. Garnish with small cooked tomatoes and parsley and serve over cooked rice. (6 servings)

Palmer McCown Assumes New Church Duties In Virginia

Palmer McCown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCown of Littlefield and director of the Baptist Student Union on the campus of South Plains College, has recently accepted the position of Minister of Youth and Adult Education for the Columbia Baptist Church in Falls Church, Virginia. Palmer and his wife, Patsy, were honored at a special reception held Aug. 13 at fellowship hall in the Levelland First Baptist Church.

They were presented a salad bowl set, chip and dip set, and an engraved silver service tray. McCown assumed his duties as director of the Baptist Student Union at Levelland in January of 1970. He also served as a Bible instructor at South Plains College. Prior to his going to Levelland and SPC, he served as ESU director and a Bible instructor at Sul Ross College in Alpine. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Hardin-Simmons University and his Master of Divinity Degree from Southwestern Seminary.

McCown is also a graduate of Littlefield High School. Palmer and Patsy have one daughter, Stephanie, who is six years old.

'For Pete's Sake!' To Be In Anton

ANTON--"For Pete's Sake!", a film, will be shown Tuesday, Aug. 22, at Central Baptist Church, Anton. The full-length comedy-drama, filmed in color will be shown once beginning at 8 p.m., and is open to the public at no admission charge. Filmed entirely on location in Denver and the Colorado Rockies, "For Pete's Sake!" is the story of a family man and service station owner, who is knocked flat by unexpected problems, but finds the strength to stand up again, to face life anew.

The family film has been seen nationwide by over three million persons in theatre premieres, and has been cited by one film critic as "the perfect mixture -- it's drama at its boldest, comedy at its lightest, and action at its liveliest." "For Pete's Sake!" stars Robert Sampson, who also starred in world wide's "The Restless Ones". Pippa Scott, as Pete's wife, Marge, is well-known for her Broadway appearances and numerous television roles. John Milford and Sam Groom are both familiar to television audiences.

Army Option Is Announced

The department of the Army has announced that the 25th Infantry Division, based in Hawaii, is now part of the "Special Unit of Choice" enlistment option.

SGT. Holguin, local Army recruiter, explained that under this option, the enlistee can specify the 25th Infantry Division and then choose a military occupational specialty (MOS) from those available in the unit before he enlists.

"If a young man wants to see Hawaii", said Sgt. Holguin, "this option is perfect. The Unit is based at Schofield Barracks which is very near Honolulu and the beaches at Waikiki. It's a chance to serve our nation and at the same time see a fascinating part of the country."

The 25th Infantry Division, known as "Tropic Lightning" is rapidly instituting changes as part of the Modern Volunteer Army Program. These changes include partitioning of barracks, decentralized inspections, elimination of sign-in-sign out requirements, and a short order line in the dining halls.

For more information about the 25th Infantry Division "Special Unit of Choice" Enlistment Option, call SGT. Holguin at 747-3711 Ext. 618 or visit his office on Phelps St. in Littlefield, next to Clark's Restaurant, Monday, Wednesday, Friday or Saturday from 9 to 12 a.m. of every week.

Local Photographer Wins National Honor

last week.

Alma Roberts' entry of Virginia Thompson was in the division in which the photographer did all the work, including taking the picture, printing and the coloring.

Mrs. Roberts was the only photographer from the state of Texas to have any work accepted for national display at the convention.

This is the fourth time Mrs. Roberts has entered portraits in the national conventions, and each time she has had one chosen to be displayed. One portrait in 1970 was given two merits.

Merits collected from the hangings go toward a craftsman degree. Mrs. Roberts has five merits now toward the 15 merits needed for the ultimate achievement a photographer can attain.

Only one out of three entries submitted were chosen for exhibition from among 700 association members.

ALMA ROBERTS did this portrait of a Littlefield High School senior which was chosen for national exhibition last week at American Photographic Artists Guild convention in Detroit, Mich.

Wayland Closes Summer, Prepares For Fall Term

Summer school at Wayland Baptist College ended Aug. 18 with a 43 per cent increase in total number of hours registered over 1 summer under the new innovative calendar change.

For the first time this summer, Wayland employed a four microterm plan as opposed to the traditional two six weeks summer sessions. Under the old program, a student could earn a maximum of seven hours credit during a six weeks course. Under the new program, a student may earn a maximum of four hours credit per three week microterm.

Following the pattern of the January microterm, lecture courses during the summer microterms met for three hours each morning with laboratory and physical education classes in the afternoon.

The new plan allows Wayland to continue to serve public school teachers who are presently under a new calendar with which the conventional summer calendar conflicts. In addition, the four micro-sessions permits greater flexibility with travel-study courses, provides variety in instruction for faculty and students, and offers greater freedom of choice in course selection.

Boles, registrar, stated, "We evidently met the needs of the students and their desire to be involved for a shorter period of time in study. This is the only reason I can see for the increase."

In speaking of the new program and the increase in enrollment, Mrs. Audrey

Meet The Minister

The J.B. Cagle Family

Rev. J. B. Cagle is soon to begin his second year of his second stint in Littlefield with the Littlefield Missionary Baptist Church.

He first served the church as pastor from 1959 until 1967, then moved to Ohio, and came back to Littlefield Sept. 9, 1971.

Rev. Cagle is a graduate of Childress High School, and received his Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Bible Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth in 1954.

He is attending South Plains College in Levelland and is working on an elementary education degree.

He serves as a substitute teacher in LHS and LJHS, and remembers that he even taught a home economics class one day.

Rev. Cagle has served as president of the Littlefield Ministerial Alliance, and has been on the board of directors of Arlington Baptist Schools until this year.

His main hobby is watching football—both on television and the stands. His wife, Camilla, commented on his enthusiasm for the sport by saying, "When someone stands up and cheers in his own living room, he must enjoy it!"

His first pastorate was at Grapevine in 1954, and 2 1/2 years later he went to a church in Belton. He served that church 3 1/2 years before he came to Littlefield the first time in 1959. Then in 1967 he moved his family to Wooster, Ohio until he returned to Littlefield last year.

Camilla spends most of her time keeping the family fed and the home in order, but enjoys sewing when she gets time. She particularly enjoys working with her husband in the church office and in visitation. Her children are her main attention.

Becky, their 15-year-old freshman, plays the piano for the church services and enjoys playing records at home.

Ten-year-old Brent will be a fifth grader this year, and played on the Fire Department team in Little League Baseball this past summer.

Barbie, 7, will be a second grader, and Brad, 2 1/2, is the "chief door slammer" at home according to his mother.

Refrigeration Class Offered

South Plains College will offer classes in heating-air conditioning mechanics, during the fall term at South Plains College, beginning Aug. 28.

Russell McDonald will serve as instructor of the program. McDonald has recently joined the faculty at South Plains College from Amarillo. Prior to coming to SPC, he was employed with Anglin Refrigeration Company in Amarillo and is a retired Master Sergeant of the United States Air Force.

The heating-air conditioning mechanics program is an 1800 clock hour certificate program spread over the length of four semesters of study.

Students will be introduced to the basic concepts of refrigeration with strong emphasis on theory as it applies to the service technician.

Persons will be taught to be a "troubleshooter" in which he will have acquired the ability and knowledge to solve the problems he encounters in all types of refrigeration equipment. Emphasis will be placed on practical experience in repair of numerous types of refrigeration and heating units.

Friends' remarks bore her to death

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I am an 18-year-old girl, recently graduated from high school. I am planning on going on to college to become a mortician. When people ask me what I am going to be and I tell them, they about fall over.

Abby, I know that not many women want to be morticians, but you should hear some of the awful remarks people make when I tell them what I am going to do. They wouldn't believe folks could be so mean and cruel. I even laugh and ask me if I am kidding.

My mind is made up and I am not going to change just because people think I'm weird, but I do wish they would tell them not to put down high school graduates who have selected unusual professions.

FUTURE LADY MORTICIAN

DEAR FUTURE: There is no excuse for ridiculing rudeness. Hang in there. You could be the one to give them their last "putdown."

DEAR ABBY: A simple question: When people ask how you are, do they really want to know?

DEAR DELLA: Most people prefer a few cherry notes not an organ recital.

DEAR ABBY: Please print this. It may save a marriage. I have a sweet, wonderful friend with a high personality, but since her marriage not too many ago, she has let herself go.

She has two children and has gained about 50 pounds. She never bothers to fix her hair and her clothes are a mess. Her home is not just untidy—it's filthy! Her husband is a goodlooking man with an easy-going disposition. I think he tries to overlook his wife's appearance and sloppiness, but how long can a marriage last when day after day the husband comes home to a slob?

DEAR WORRIED: Some men, believe it or not, overlook a lot where there are compensating qualities. Don't assume that if your friend reads this, it will ruin her marriage. The one for whom the advice is usually usually thinks it's for somebody else.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from "YIP" girl with the boyfriend who didn't know how to kiss.

Your advice was to tell him about the problem. Well, she has the knowhow, it's not necessary for her to tell you—she can teach him without saying a word. Kissing is a natural thing, it's surprising how quickly an inexperienced person learns if he has the right teacher.

Personally, I'd just as soon have an amateur teach him to kiss to suit me.

DEAR ABBY: I am boiling! I just read an article in the Los Angeles Times entitled, "The Pride of a Single Mother."

In that article the writer said, "Paying the lady down the street $2 an hour for plunking the front of the TV all evening is highway robbery."

How about the little old lady who is hired to look after children who have never had any discipline, seldom eat a decent meal (they "snack" all day) and have no set time? She's supposed to be housekeeper, nurse, and help with the homework and entertain them.

I baby-sit and was never paid $2 an hour. I was paid 50 cents an hour, and I've had as many as four kids to look after at one time for the same 75 cents! When I raised my price to a dollar you never heard a word from me!

I think we need a good baby-sitter's union. If I join, if women can't afford to pay someone a decent wage for looking after their children for an evening, let them look for the job. Edit this and print it, please.

LITTLE OLD LADY BABY-SITTER

DEAR LADY: What's to edit? You've said it fully.

DEAR ABBY: My sister in law thinks she knows more than I do just because she's a college graduate. I am a college graduate. In fact I only went thru the tenth grade but I do have common sense which I wouldn't trade for a sister in law for her college diploma.

She and her husband [my brother] sneak out of the house while their 14-month-old baby is being distracted by the baby-sitter because if the baby knows the parents are leaving he will make a fuss and cry.

I say this is wrong. Parents should prepare the child for their departure and say goodbye, and even if it makes a fuss, at least the baby will know they are leaving. [I have baby-sat with lots of children of all ages, and I have noticed that most babies will cry when the parents say goodbye, but as soon as they are out of sight they stop crying.]

Please put this in the paper with your comments.

DEAR LIZ: You're right on target. When parents are away from little ones, when the little ones discover they are alone, they feel abandoned and betrayed—which is the traumatic and punishing treatment a child can experience. [Ask any psychoanalyst.]

DEAR ABBY: Would you kindly comment at your earliest convenience regarding the policy of sending a 17-year-old boy across the United States alone by plane. He is to visit his father who is divorced from his mother.

The boy is perfectly normal, but if I were he, I would want more than a couple of pretty stewardesses grinning at me like two Cheshire cats for six and a half hours. I would never taken an airplane trip alone and insists that he be allowed to go and he will be all right. [He will return alone, but I am his grandfather, and yes, I have all my wits about me, but I am not so sure about his parents who are so slightly worried.]

DEAR WORRIED: Don't worry. The stewardesses are more than just grin at young passengers who are traveling alone. They insure their safety and comfort. If the boy is put on the plane and met, there is no reason to be concerned about him.

Problems? Trust Abby. For a personal reply, write ABBY, BOX 69700, L. A., CALIF. 90069 and enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Watches Popular Accessory For Fall

Watches will be a popular accessory for fall. Many people will purchase watches as a gift for themselves or as a gift for others. The watches sold in costume jewelry departments retail from a minimal amount of money to regular watch prices. Much impulse buying occurs in the "under $25" category, according to the specialist.

Some retailers report disillusioned customers who have purchased one-jewel watches. What significance does this jewel movement have and what can you look for to aid your selection of fashion watches?

"It is the jewels that make the most important contribution to the accuracy and reliability of a watch," Miss Schnorr said. "Jewels—mainly rubies—act as bearings to reduce metal-to-metal contacts which produce friction and wear within the works."

She said that a 17-jewel watch is considered to have jewels located at major points of metal contact to produce an accurate, durable and quality watch. More jewel movements could be considered a luxury.

"In selecting a watch, consider your purpose for purchase of the time piece," the specialist advised. "Is it more for fashion to be used for a relatively short time or will it be your only watch to last as long as possible? Do you have another watch? Could one with less than 17 jewels serve your purpose?"

When considering a specific watch, the specialist suggested making a general inspection.

"View the case for dents, discoloration, scratches and a possible loose crystal or back. Does the general appearance appeal to you? Are the numbers on the dial legible?"

"When winding the watch, you shouldn't feel any slippage. The stem should enter the setting position with a slight click and without excessive force. The stem should remain in this position during the setting operation."

Miss Schnorr said that most consumers want fashion quality.

"Some good quality one- and seven-jewel movement watches are available in a lower price range. Shopping with a recognized purpose and an inspecting eye should enable you to purchase a reliable fashion watch."

'Defensive Driving' To Earn Saving

As a direct result of a suggestion made by the Texas Association of Insurance Agents, Texas automobile owners may, beginning Sept. 1, save 10 per cent on the cost of their auto insurance.

All that is required, according to Josh R. Morris, Jr., the association president, is to successfully complete the new Defensive Driving Course that will soon be offered statewide.

The announcement follows a recent ruling by the State Board of Insurance that Texas automobile owners could receive a 10 per cent reduction in bodily injury, property damage and collision coverage by completing the "defensive driving course"

(DDC) as outlined by the National Safety Council.

"Savings from this credit could amount to as much as $43 million a year in Texas," Morris continued. "While this is a substantial financial benefit, the savings in life and injury that can result from DDC is expected to be even more significant. The National Safety Council tells us that, properly taught, the DDC will reduce traffic accidents significantly."

The Texas Association of Insurance Agents is working in cooperation with the Texas Safety Association in implementing the new program. "At the moment our biggest headache in getting the program off the ground is a lack of trained instructors," Morris points out. "We are working with our 83 local associations and 2,300 independent member agencies throughout the state in an effort to recruit enough qualified instructors to meet the anticipated demand for the program come Sept. 1. We are also interested in hearing from any individuals who would like to become accredited DDC instructors. Interested persons should contact the Texas Safety Association, 1623 South Lamar Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78704 for further information."

The Texas Safety Association will conduct the actual training of instructors. Says Association General Manager Lloyd Palmer "our association will conduct courses in DDC in all sections of the state. We're going to do all it our power to help make the DDC available to everyone in the state."

"The course should cost $10 or less per person and the resulting credit will be good for three years. This credit," Morris says, "is not to be used to pay for a premium over a three-year period."

When the three-year period, the DDC credit is reported by an individual to allow for him to again qualify for the 10 per cent premium credit.
