County Cancer Society Sponsoring 'Swim-A-Thons'

The Lamb County Chapter of the American Cancer Society is finalizing plans for two "Swim-A-Thons", to raise funds for cancer research.

Littlefield youth—and oldsters too—will be swimming Tuesday night, July 23, at the Crescent Pool in Littlefield, and Earth residents are planning a "Swim-A-Thon" sometime early that week too.

Swimmers from throughout the county are invited to participate in either of the events.

The Lamb County chapter is attempting to reach an all-time high goal to qualify for the Golden Achievement Award, and the additional funds will be applied toward that goal.

Swimmers may secure a Swim-A-Thon card in Littlefield from Delinda Sebring by calling 385-5282 or 385-3745, Loretta Mears at 385-4644 or by going by the Leader-News office, or the A.E. Lichte home at 511 E. 8th, or at the home of Mrs. Lady Clare Phillips, 309 E. 20th.

Swimmers at Earth may contact Mrs. Jody Ellis, 257-3868.

Swimmers secure sponsors, who pledge a certain amount of money per lap, write them on the card, then bring their cards to the Swim-A-Thon, where an adult will watch the swimmer and validate his or her card, verifying the number of laps he or she swam. The swimmer will later collect the money from the sponsors and turn the money in to Gloria Jackson at the Security State Bank by Tuesday, July 30.

"Special recognitions will be given to the swimmer who swims the most laps, the swimmer who has the most sponsors, and the swimmer who brings in the most money," states Miss Ernestine Lichte, special projects chairman.

She emphasizes that the Swim-A-Thon is not a timed contest, but is simply an event to complete as many laps as possible. Swimmers do not have to swim their laps all at once, as they may rest and return later.

Parents of youngsters under 18 years old must sign the card, authorizing the child's participation.

Qualified life guards will be on duty. Crescent Pool will be donating the pool that evening, and participants may swim free. The pool is reserved, and on the Swim-A-Thon participants will be admitted for swimming.

For further information, contact Miss Lichte at 385-4675 after 5:15 p.m., or Joella Lovvorn at 385-4481.

Father-Son Team Captures Littlefield Golf Tournament

By ANDY ROGERS

Alvin Webb sank a three-foot birdie putt on the fourth hole of the sudden-death playoff Sunday to give him and his son Steve the championship of the Littlefield Partnership Golf Tournament.

Webb and Webb were tied with the team of Neal Duffy and Smiley Monroe after the regulation 36 holes with scores of 137, six under par on the Littlefield Country Club course.

On the first extra hole, Steve Webb and Monroe both made short putts for birdies. All four players missed the green on the second hole. Monroe chipped up to four feet, then Alvin Webb ran at a 35 footer from just off the green and missed by inches. Monroe kept his team alive when his putt for par curled around the hole and dropped in.

Duffy gave his team a good chance to put it away on the third hole. He hit a perfect shot from the left rough that ran onto the green and stopped seven feet from the cup. Both Webbs missed the green, but Alvin chipped to within a few feet. Duffy's birdie try slid by the hole, and Alvin Webb dropped his to keep the teams tied.

On the fourth hole, a 475-yard par five, Duffy crushed his drive nearly 300 yards, just out of the fairway on the right side. Alvin Webb positioned his drive right in the middle, and hit a brilliant second shot that rolled onto the green, missed the cup by a foot and then trickled off. Duffy also reached the green in two, with an iron, but his putt was a long, downhill, breaking one. When he did putt, the ball skidded by the hole and finally died about 10 feet below. Webb's chip for eagle wound up three feet away on the low side. Duffy's try for birdie refused to fall from just inches away, and Webb tapped in his four for the win.

The team of Schultz-Osborn won the third hole of their playoff for third place with a par, beating Taylor-Davis. Both teams shot 71-69 in the two rounds.

West-Roney carved out the low round of the tourney Sunday, a six-under 65 that with their opening round 73, gave them the first flight championship. Jerry Kirby-Bob Roden won second with a 73-72. Boyd-Carter were alone in third with 74-72, and Curlee-Tabor won a three-team playoff for fourth with pars on the first two extra holes. They finished the tournament with 74-74.

In the second flight, White and Young improved their first round total by five strokes (77-72) to take the crown. Arthur Duggan-Alex Duggan (80-72) won a playoff with Tommy Selby-Randy Dayton (76-76) for second place. Fox-Stokes were in fourth with 77-76.

The biggest improvement in scores was carded by Deavors-Carruth in the third flight. They won that division with an 83-74, beating Gunter-Seider (83-75) by one stroke. Bolton-Gray captured third with 82-77. Northam-Burleson (80-77) birdied the first hole of their three team playoff to finish fourth.

STEVE AND ALVIN WEBB fired a three-under par 68 Sunday in the final round of the Littlefield Partnership Tournament to force a playoff with first round leaders Neal Duffy and Smiley Monroe. Duffy and Monroe had rounds of 67-70, and lost to Webb and Webb on the fourth hole of their playoff. See other picture inside. (Staff Photo)

Cindy Purdy's Poetry Chosen For Publication

Cindy Purdy, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Purdy of Littlefield has been notified that her poem, "Time" which was published this spring in the bi-annual anthology of high school poetry, "Young America Sings," has been selected to be published in one of a series of national anthologies.

Mrs. Hazel Ward, her English instructor, submitted the poem for publication in the bi-annual anthology this spring.

The poem in its entirety is included here:

TIME

The years go by so fast it seems
There's hardly time to sit and dream.
I once was small not knowing things.
And now, I'm sixteen, learning things.
I've met new friends and lost a few.
They move away and then what's new?
As time goes on I feel the pain

Of losing loved ones, life to gain
I feel the joy of living, life,
I'll now give mine with no such strife.
I'll go where life is bright and gay.
A baby is born this very day.
The baby child will grow and know
The joys that living time does hold.

A Summer Tan

NOW THAT THE summer sun is its hottest, you should use extra care when you go out in the sun. Otherwise, you could spend days recuperating.

The Food and Drug Administration warns that while Americans spend fifty million dollars a year to get a tan, many people will end up scorched. FDA has published a pamphlet to provide some tips to prevent a burn.

Single copies of "In Pursuit of a Summer Tan" are available free from Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

If you have the time, take the sun in easy stages. The first day stay out only forty minutes. The next, forty-five. Then fifty. After that, your skin will probably have thickened enough to stay out as long as you want. But at the end of those short times, get out of the sun. Indoors.

If you want to stay out longer the first day, you need a suntan or sunscreen preparation. Read the label. If it says "sunscreen" it will protect you better than one that says "for a great tan." But remember this: These lotions work only when they are properly applied to the skin. If you go swimming, or you play some game that makes you perspire a lot, or you just roll around on your towel, you could be unprotected.

"Check with your doctor before you sit in the sun if you are taking any kind of medication. Some drugs increase your susceptibility to sunburn. You should also avoid some fragrances—cologne, after shave, etc.—since some of these can have the same effect.

"If you begin to look pink or get sore, don't say "I always look that way when I get a tan." The pinkness and soreness mean you already have a burn and staying longer in the sun could be dangerous. Dust the pink areas with talcum powder, or apply cool wet dressings. If you have a really bad burn with blisters, see a doctor.

"Finally, remember that the sun quickly ages the skin. Even if your skin is baby-soft, it can develop the look of leather with continued exposure to the sun.

A Child's Worth

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a reprint from a recent editorial in the Avatanche-Journal. It is published here at the request of Mrs. Jonni Chapman.)

IN WRITING about traffic tolls and speed limits and the like, we recall during a lifetime in this business that auto mishaps probably have affected more persons' lives than any other one factor, including war casualties.

There was a time years ago when auto mishaps almost always were major news. But, no more. There are so many that they have become almost commonplace.

But, to those involved in them, or who have loved ones in them, each is a tragedy of unthinkable proportions. This is especially true where young persons are involved.

With this thought in mind, we would like to share a letter we received the other day from a mother whose son was killed in a traffic mishap.

Here it is as she penned it:

"AS THE FIRST anniversary of my young son's death approaches, I am once again determined that if his death causes one young boy or girl to think before they step into a street or road, he will not have died in vain.

"Until July 11, 1973, I was the mother of a beautiful, happy, healthy 15-year-old son. Today, I am the mother of a son who failed to look before he stepped into the pathway of an oncoming car, and who now lies in a grave in (and she named an area town.)

"My heart almost stops when I see a child, any child, flirt with death because for some reason he doesn't take the time to think before he steps into the pathway of death.

"One second of thought could have prevented my son's death and the pain and agony we live with each day without him.

"Please look. Please think. And please don't take a chance with your precious life. Be determined the people who love you will never have to look at the front page of a newspaper and see a picture of your broken body being loaded into a stretcher. Look and Think. It could save your life."

IN SOME WAYS, it is amazing that more youngsters are not victims of traffic, especially on city streets.

Most motorists, at one time or another, must have thought as they approached a corner, or a car parked at the curb, that some child could suddenly dart into their path and be struck before any human reaction could halt the heavy machine.

One wonders at the thinking of those who drag race or just plain speed on some of our main thoroughfares.

Admittedly, a tragic mishap could occur when an auto is traveling only 15 miles an hour. But the chances for avoiding it are far greater at the lower speed.

We don't want to appear melodramatic, but since it is summertime, and many children are at play, perhaps the following thought, in addition to the mother's letter, might cause some of us to pause, think and not step so heavily on the gas. It is credited to Maranatha.

What Is A Child Worth

There are clocks to tell the time of day.

And scales to tell the weight of hay; But what rule, sir, would you employ To tell the worth of a girl or boy?

Measures there are for silver and gold.

By carats the worth of diamonds are told.

But there is no measure in all the world.

To tell what a boy or girl is worth!

RESCUE YOUR FOOD BUDGET with casseroles. This meal-in-one tuna dish is a boost to budget cutting, as well as nutritious good eating. It combines such favorites as tuna fish, macaroni, peas, cheese and potato chips to create a hearty good casserole.

A cream sauce forms the base of this dish, and an easy way to make a smooth cream sauce is to use corn starch as the thickening agent.

TUNA ONE-DISH MEAL

1/3 cup margarine
3 Tbsps. corn starch
1/2 tsp salt
1/8 tsp pepper
3 cups milk
1 small onion, finely chopped
2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ozs.) tuna, drained and flaked

1 pkg. (8 ozs.) elbow macaroni, cooked and drained
1 pkg. (10 ozs.) frozen peas, thawed
Crushed potato chips

Melt margarine in saucepan over medium heat. Blend in corn starch, salt and pepper. Remove from heat and gradually stir in milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to boil and boils 1 minute. Stir in onion. Place tuna, macaroni, peas and cheese in greased 2-quart casserole. Stir in corn starch mixture. Top with potato chips. Bake in 350-degree F oven 20 to 25 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

recipes that can help you with your relaxed weekend in the mountains. Here are three easy ones.

RANGER'S RICE WITH BEEF

1 lb ground beef
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 large clove garlic, minced
1 can (10 3/4 ozs.) tomato soup
1 1/2 cups water
1 1/2 cups quick-cooking rice, uncooked
1 Tbsp. Worcestershire
1/2 tsp salt
Generous dash pepper

In skillet, cook beef, green pepper and onion with garlic, until vegetables are tender; stir to separate meat. Add remaining ingredients, stir together. Cover; cook over low heat 10 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. Makes 4 servings.

EASY-DO FETTUCINE

3/4 cup milk
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese

1 Tbsp. butter or margarine.

In large saucepan, stir soup until smooth; blend in milk and cheese. Heat; stir now and then. Just before serving, toss hot noodles with butter; combine with soup mixture. Serve with additional cheese. Makes 4 servings.

HIKERS' BEANS

In saucepan, combine ingredients. Heat; stir now and then. Makes 4 servings.

PLANNING A PICNIC lunch both nutritious and easy to transport can be a real challenge.

Like any other meal, the picnic should provide about one-third of the day's nutrients, but it also has to be easy to carry and need little refrigeration.

To be sure the picnic is nutritionally sound, plan foods from each of the four basic food groups—meat, milk, fruit and vegetable, bread and cereal.

Sandwiches provide the essential bread nutrients and can be the traditional white bread or any specialty breads, rolls or biscuits.

Raisin bread will perk up the standard peanut butter and jelly sandwich, and wheat bread adds a different taste to dried beef sandwiches.

Meat group choices need to be those that do well without refrigeration—cured or smoked ham and meats, peanut butter or spicy-sweet cold baked beans make good sandwich fillings.

Cheese from the milk group a good sandwich filling also, because most cheeses keep well without constant refrigeration.

Fruits and vegetables that come "nature packaged"—apples, oranges, bananas, and cucumbers, celery and carrots—are good additions to the picnic lunch. Some of their peelings can be eaten or easily removed.

CLIPS AND TIPS:

BREAD ONLY thin slices of meat. Slices more than half an inch thick can become dry and hard on the outside before cooking in the center.

FOR A CHANGE of pace, fry ham and eggs in garlic butter. Pretty tasty!

WANT TO MIX UP a good cool batch of vanilla ice cream? Mix together 2 1/2 cups sugar, 4 eggs, 1 large can evaporated milk, 1 Tablespoon vanilla, 1 box junket and 7 cups milk. Freeze in ice cream freezer. Makes 5 quarts.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Don't Be Skimpy

By BOB WAIN

MANY GOOD ACTIVITIES fall short of accomplishing the maximum which is possible, and which is needed. Much is lost because of "giving insufficient or barely sufficient attention; or effort to; or funds for."

Some things may not suffer as much as others, though they are handled in a "skimpy" manner; but even these would be better, if given full attention; or full effort; or adequate funds. Just "settling by" is usually undesirable, and can be a very serious mistake.

WE ARE OFTEN "SKIMPY" with our efforts, we often fail to give maximum efforts in many things. Some of these may not be as important as others, and being "skimpy" with our efforts toward these may not be of any great significance.

We should realize, however, that this "skimpiness" may be a basic trait of our character that should be corrected. It is very difficult to fluctuate from great effort to little effort, according to our evaluation of what we are doing.

OUR FAILURE to APPLY the best effort in what we do is certainly a big mistake.

This failure may be caused by laziness; or it may be due to lack of interest; or it may be that we are a shirker; or it may be some other flaw in our character.

IN ALL THINGS WORTH our consideration, a sound guideline is: "don't be skimpy."

WE CAN BE "SKIMPY" in many ways, and whatever the way; it will always be a loss to us. Oftentimes our "skimpy" actions hurt the cause of which we are a part, and lessen what could be a worthwhile accomplishment.

IT IS A GREAT personal loss.

IT SHOULD BE OUR AIM to increase our efficiency in every phase of our personal life; in all of our doing and giving. We can reach this aim, if we remember the injunction: "don't be skimpy."

"It is more probable that the man could, with no injury to his health, increase his efficiency fifty percent." W. D. Scott.

THE GOOD LIFE IS OUT of our reach until we begin to do our best. We may do as well as some other people, but we will be happy with what we do.

What we do will be better than the persons do, but this is not the point; the point is: for our personal well-being, not to be outdoing someone, we must "not be skimpy" in our doing and giving.

WISE GENEROSITY, which is doing and giving according to our capability, is the key to abundant life.

We may not be able, in all situations, to do all we would like to do, or give all we would like to give, but it may disappoint us, but it is not damaging to us.

"DON'T BE SKIMPY" is the goal that will lead us to satisfying rewarding life conduct.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

IT KIND OF gives you an uneasy feeling to know that the money you're carryin' around in your billfold is practically worthless, doesn't it?

As due proof of this, you might notice how much of it is needed to exchange for your goodies.

After around 40 years, it dawns on me just what that man, FDR, did to us when he took us off the gold standard. Quick 'thinkin', huh?

IF MEMORY SERVES me right, correct me, if I'm wrong) we were on the silver status for a while, then junked the whole idea!

As of now, that currency we use for our medium of exchange, is an unsecured note properly mottoed by the inscription, "In God We Trust!"

WHILE WE freely admit that the God is the best security one can have, doubt that He's going to intervene in our worthless paper fails to provide with life's necessities.

Even the silver dollar that was once back our currency has turned to paper.

SO WHEN YOU begin to look for financial security, you're aware that Uncle Sam's currency ain't it!

He can print it as rapidly as he wants, and the value of this money is guided by the printing that's put out.

One thing for sure, this realization done wonders for my worrying about national debt!

THERE HAS BEEN some talk about the price of 1974 cotton and some conversation toward cotton contracting. So far this year, most farmers are not too anxious to contract this fall's cotton because of the skyrocketing prices farmers received last year.

Some cotton buyers are still trying to contract cotton for this fall. One contract that I have seen is what is called a "Hog Round Contract". This company agrees to pay a producer 60 cents per pound for all the cotton he produces, but if you will read the fine print, it also states that in case the buyer cannot sell the cotton for a reasonable profit, that he will have the opportunity to void the 60 cents per pound and pay the highest price possible.

Another clause in the contract states that if a farmer cannot sell his cotton for the price offered, he may sell elsewhere, but in doing so, he must pay the original contractor one percent of the gross price you received for your cotton from another company.

THE ANSWER TO the math question published in Sunday's column, is that George started smoking eight hours later, at 3 p.m.

When the first cigarette was smoked, made from six butts, he had a butt remaining. So his first cigarette consumed the tobacco of five butts, and left the contents of one butt which could be used in the second smoke.

Continuing this way, he was able to make eight cigarettes, and still have one butt left for starting the next day's

HERE IS ANOTHER problem to work. It has to do with financing. It should be rather simple to solve.

You always felt you had a good house design, and decided to build the building business instead of the you are in.

You talked a banker into financing you, and obtained credit from a bank of suppliers. You build the house then go to sell them.

In due course, you make $29,600 for each house.

On the first house you make $29,600 for each house.

On the first house you make a percent profit. That you like. But the second is sold, a week later, the housing market finds that the $29,600 received, you have a percent loss.

Everything considered, figuring are you money ahead, behind, or did you manage to just even!

MRS. LYNN DRUM and

There's a lot of brains and sweat behind superior hybrid sorghum and corn.

And PIONEER[®] People furnish all of these.

The average sorghum farmer now produces four times as much grain from a given amount of land as he did 20 years ago. How? One important reason is in the seed he plants. The development, production and distribution of that hybrid seed is one of the most revolutionary things that has happened in agriculture since the invention of the tractor.

Most of the hybrid sorghum development has taken place right here in the grain producing areas of Texas. And the revolution is still going on.

Many of the talented, conscientious people of Pioneer Hi-Bred Company have been involved in the revolution from the start. And they are all involved in it now. Every year they discover or develop new things... new varieties of sorghum, new techniques of production, new methods of handling and marketing their products.

They do it with a rich mixture of talent and hard work. Some of your neighbors and friends are Pioneer People. Ask them to tell you about their work.

Littlefield's PIONEER[®] man:
ARLEN SIMPSON Working as Pioneer's representative in the Texas South Plains and Southeastern New Mexico, Arlen has come to know the needs of growers with a wide range of soil and weather conditions. This experience in development and production of corn and sorghum hybrids makes Arlen Simpson one of the most knowledgeable men available to work with growers in West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

Little League All-stars Split Games In District Tournament

Brady Bradley fired a four hitter and fanned 11 Anton batters Monday to lead the Littlefield Little League All-stars to an 8-1 victory. The win came in the first round of the district tourney in Anton, but Plainview ended Littlefield's hopes for a championship by edging the locals 17-15 Tuesday.

Littlefield jumped to an early lead Monday by scoring in the first inning, and added runs in the second, third and fifth. Anton scored its lone run in the sixth.

Mark Yarbrough started Littlefield off with a walk. On a passed ball and overthrow by the catcher, he stole second and third. Joe Rodriguez pounced a grounder to second base which was fumbled, enabling Yarbrough to come in.

In the second inning, Brady Bradley scored on Ricky Silvas' single and Silvas scored when Steve Jackson bounced a ball to the pitcher, who overthrew the first baseman.

Tommy Williams hit an inside-the-park home run in the third. Neither team scored in the fourth, but Littlefield came back with four more in the fifth. Yarbrough, Rodriguez, Williams and Bradley all scored on a cluster of hits.

In the sixth, Anton scored their only run when Oakley crossed the plate after a Littlefield error.

Bradley gave up only four hits to the Anton squad. Oakley, Hodges, Decker and Long all got singles for Anton, and Hodges was credited with the loss. He gave up three hits and six runs in four and two-thirds innings of work. Bryant went in for relief.

Williams led the winners with his round-tripper and a single, followed by Tracy Birkelbach, Rodriguez and Yarbrough with singles.

Littlefield committed two errors to Anton's seven.

Tuesday's game with Plainview was a wild one throughout with Plainview holding a slight edge during nearly all of the contest.

Littlefield vaulted ahead in the top of the first 1-0, but lost their lead when Plainview countered with five. Littlefield came back in the second to notch five and regain control of the game, but in the bottom of the second Plainview scored eight and was never again pressured until the last inning.

In that last inning, Littlefield trailed 17-14. The locals managed to push across one run, but James Johnson was called out on a very close play at home base for the third out.

McCalister picked up the win and Stevie Jackson and Joe Rodriguez pitched for Littlefield. Rodriguez paced the Littlefield batters with an inside-the-park homerun and a single. Tracy Birkelbach cracked two singles and a double, followed by Alvin Contreras with a double and a single. Jackson with two singles and Eddie Gregory with a single. Plainview had 12 hits. Littlefield committed nine errors, Plainview eight.

The coaches for the All-star squad were Paul Yarbrough and Lonnie Birkelbach.
