

New Gin to Replace Building Lost in Fire Leonard Irvin Says

Work will start next summer in the erection of a new all-steel gin on the Irvin gin property to replace the structure destroyed by fire last Thursday, Leonard Irvin, owner and manager, announced.

Part of the project will include the replacing of the cotton house also destroyed in last Thursday's fire.

The new gin will be a 5-80, and will be the most modern and efficient available.

Originates in Cotton House

Originating in the cotton house, fire was discovered at 11:45 A. M. Thirty minutes later the cotton house and gin had collapsed.

Starting from an unknown cause, flames were evident within a matter of minutes that there was not a chance of saving the cotton house and gin. The flames, swept by a dust-laden wind to 50-mile-an-hour wind, seemed to virtually melt down the two buildings.

Loss Is $50,000

Mr. Irvin estimated the loss to gin buildings and cotton would total $50,000, partially covered by insurance.

Mrs. C. H. Calvert, bookkeeper, when in the alarm, rushed outside and piloted her car to safety, then reentered the office to save the books. But the smoke and heat were intense that she could not make her way into the office, a one-story structure which did not burn.

Immediately it was recognized that gin and cotton house were doomed. Firemen and volunteer workers concentrated the major portion of their efforts to saving ginned and unginned cotton and adjacent and nearby structures. It was feared that direction of the wind might turn and cause a number of fires which could get completely out of control.

Cotton Is Moved

Trailers and trucks loaded with unginned cotton, some of which caught fire, were hurried from the gin yard. Streams of water were turned on adjacent and nearby structures in order to keep them wet and render them not susceptible to flying fire. In every direction by the wind. These structures included Irvin Warehouse near the gin; Bowen Grocery adjoining the gin property; the Littlefield Farmers Co-Op Gin across the road to the north; and ginned and unginned cotton in the vicinity of the two gins. The dust was so thick that it was impossible to see more than the width of a street.

Fire did not reach bales of ginned cotton stored by the Irvin gin across the highway 51 and to the north of the property.

When the fire broke out there were approximately one dozen trucks on the Irvin property, most of these were rushed across the highway 51 to vacant land, some of them in flames as they moved, while others caught fire from flying embers. Alford Dunagin, heavy hauler, used a winch to upset these trucks and trailers, thus saving the equipment.

Protect Adjacent Property

All precautions possible were taken to frustrate the flames spreading to the cotton and plant of the Littlefield Farmers Co-Op Gin.

One of the efforts was the establishment of a fire line.

Kick Off Set For 8 P. M.; Wildcats Jinxed By Injuries Record Crowd Due For District's Top Grid Attraction

For perhaps the first time since the 1947 grid season opened, the Littlefield Wildcats will get a chance to show what they can really do tomorrow at Seely Stadium.

The injury jinx which has dogged the Cat squad all season is again on hand to weigh the balance in favor of the Levelland Lobos. One of the best guards in the district, Billy Sisson, is out with a bruised leg. Coach Fikes announced that Sisson may see a little service in the tilt with the Lobos, but more likely will watch the game from the bench.

Billy Arends and Jack Davis are among the injured. Arends has been ordered not to play. He was "cleated" in the leg during a practice scrimmage.

Dangerous Lobos

Fans who have been following the schedules closely know that the Lobos have not made the astronomical score brackets which have characterized the Wildcat clashes. Levelland has downed its opponents by considerably more narrow margins.

This salient factor is due primarily to the fact that the Lobos are a passing eleven. And if the passes are clicking, the last few minutes of the game can play where-naughty-people-go-when-they-die-with-a-score-sheet.

The biggest worry experienced Wildcat fans, in spite of their advantages will literally have to be on the ball to cope with the Levelland aerials.

The probable starting lineup:
WILDCATS: LE, Gene McCannlies; LT, Warren Rutledge; LG, Kenneth Pharris; C, Royce Jennings; RG, Donald Timian or Billy Sisson; RT, John Powell or R. L. Brewster; RE, Jack Davis; QB, Travis Price; BB, Joe Peel; TB, James Lee; FB, Jack Shelby.

LOBOS: LE, Bickham; LT, Ham; LG, Alexander; C, Morris; RG, Morton; RT, Wright; RE, Northam; GB, Hart; LH, Seifert; RH, Blundell; FB, Wise.

The kickoff is set for 8 p. m. Referee, Chief Jones; Umpire, Stuh Harris; Head linesman, Russell Wimperley; Field judge, J. E. Dunn.

Band Queen

At the half, Wanda Armstrong, Queen of the high school band, will be presented.

The band itself will be fully informed for the first time this year.

Anton Girl Injured In Automobile-Truck Crash Friday Night

Miss Geneta Spradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Spradley of Anton, was admitted to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital Friday night suffering from a head injury and bruises sustained in an automobile-oil truck head-on collision two blocks north of Anton at an intersection.

Mr. and Mrs. Spradley, and daughter, Miss Geneta Spradley, accompanied by a neighbor, Mrs. Brown, and her two small sons, were returning home to Anton from gathering cotton, when the 1941 Ford sedan in which they were riding was in collision with an oil well truck in which four men were riding at an intersection North of Anton.

All occupants of the Spradley automobile were bruised and scratched, but the only one admitted to the hospital for treatment was Miss Spradley.

In an interview with Miss Spradley she stated that the accident occurred about 6:30 as it was getting dark, and that she thought trees at the intersection might have obstructed the drivers' views.

The Spradley automobile was badly wrecked.

LOSSES IN ANTON FIRE THOUGHT TO BE IN EXCESS OF $1,000,000

Losses from the fire which last Thursday threatened to wipe out Anton were estimated to be in excess of $1,000,000 with approximately 4,000 bales completely destroyed at the Anton Bonded Cotton Yard, owned by K. W. Wells, several hundred more bales burned at the yards of the three gins in the southeast part of the town and an estimated 200 to 300 bales of unginning cotton burned in approximately 65 trucks, trailers and wagons at the gins and vicinity. More than 50 of the trucks and trailers were also believed destroyed.

All of the cotton on the Wells' yard was covered by insurance, Wells reporting his insurance coverage for the yard and another yard west of town amounting to $995,000. Most of the cotton at the gins and the unginning cotton was also covered by insurance carried by the ginners. The cotton was insured at market value. Wells estimated his personal loss at about $10,000.

The Anton fire started shortly before 10 a. m. Thursday in a bale of cotton being ginned at the Anton Producers' Co-Operative Gin. The "fire-packed" bale was hastily taken outside to a vacant lot several hundred feet west of the gin where such bales are usually isolated.

As the bale was dumped from the truck, it burst and the west wind, freshened into a gust at the moment, quickly whipped the flaming cotton onto the nearby gin yard where 205 trucks, trailers and cotton-loaded wagons were parked, awaiting processing.

Some of the flaming cotton blew into the gin warehouse where ginning supplies, equipment, insect poisoning and other materials were stored. Soon the warehouse was ablaze.

With the warehouse afire, loose cotton burning in the trucks and trailers, a scene of almost utmost confusion resulted with some persons racing away with burning loads of cotton toward the more heavily populated section and other adjacent areas.

Persons in cars, attempting to prevent spread of the fire to the downtown section, sped ahead of the careening loose cotton vehicles and turned them toward the general countryside.

Other Gins Threatened
The flames, whipped by the 50-mile hour wind soon spread to the yards of two adjoining gins and for more than an hour there was a mad scramble to remove an estimated 325 vehicles loaded with loose cotton from the fire area. Each trailer contained from two to five bales of unginning cotton.

It was only a matter of minutes until the fire had spread to the Wells cotton yard, approximately two blocks to the northeast of the gin and by noon more than half of the more than 5,500 bales on the yard were burning.

With the nearest fire plug, nearly three blocks away, it was almost futile for members of the Anton volunteer fire department to attempt to fight the blaze, but they sought to prevent spread of the flames as much as possible. There was not enough fire hose to reach six other plugs in the downtown area.

For an area extending for several blocks surrounding the three gins and the cotton yard, trucks and trailers burned to the ground with their loads of cotton. Frantic owners dumped their loads in vacant lots and grass fires started, some of them sweeping to the area where the cotton was stored. One load burned on the Levelland highway two miles west of town.

For hours after the fire had started, these loads of cotton blazed and smouldered and occasionally gusts of wind whipped more of the flaming cotton into the air.

Scores of volunteer workers, several of them driving tractors and one bulldozer pulled and pushed the unburned cotton away from the fire area. They were joined by several hundred other volunteers from nearby towns later in the day after calls had been made over Lubbock radio stations for aid. Several hundred bales of cotton were saved from the fire through these men's efforts.

All during the fire, the heavy dust storm, which cut visibility to a few hundred feet, added to the confusion. For a time, it appeared that the gin plants themselves would be destroyed, but all three are constructed of galvanized sheet metal and did not catch afire. Only building to burn was the warehouse at the co-op gin, where the fire started.

Approximately a block away to the southeast of the co-op plant was the Thomas Gin company's plant, owned by Luther Thomas; and a similar distance further to the south was the plant of the Hollywood Gin Company managed by August Loos.

Preston Lyda, manager of the Anton Co-Op Gin, said he could not estimate the loss at his plant. Most of the loss was said to be covered by insurance.

Aid Sent To City
Trucks of the Littlefield fire department answered a call to come to Anton, but had to return to Littlefield, when it was reported the Irvin Gin had caught fire there. Lubbock Fire Department also answered a call to Anton and then went onto Littlefield, when it was reported there was not sufficient water supply at Anton.

When efforts to prevent the spread of the flames by use of the fire hose proved futile, the Anton fire fighters made repeated trips to a fire plug in an emergency tank truck and succeeding in wetting down some cotton to prevent further spread of the blaze.

Tires and Tubes Stolen At Sudan

Thieves made quite a haul of tires and tubes Thursday night last at Sudan, which Lamb County officers are investigating.

Richard West of that city lost two tires and wheels and two pick-up tires and wheels, which were taken from his trailer and truck parked at the rear of his home on Main street at Sudan.

C. Broyles, also of Sudan, had back tires and wheels taken off automobile, which was in his garage Thursday night.

Tire and wheel was taken off a belonging to Homer Morris, which was parked at his home.

Spotlight and gallon of anti-rust was taken from the automobile belonging to Mrs. Nickles at Sudan Thursday.

Neistel of five miles south of Littlefield had two trailer tires and tubes taken from his automobile Thursday.

This last theft is believed to have been done by a different party, or persons, than the several Sudan thefts according to Sheriff Hugh Rice, who said that the methods taken and fingerprints were different.

When interviewing Sheriff Rice Thursday, officers had not found any leads to the thefts.

"Taint" Right!

This here Littlefield, one of the last stands of the West, is gettin' entirely too civilized.

If we don't do somethin' to stop all this monkey business we'll get to be a great big city like Lubbock, or Amyrilly, or Amon Carter's town, otherwise known as Fort Worth. But if we ever get like Dallas - - - God forbid.

Gone are days when the cowboys met the afternoon train and deviled the tenderfoot arrivals - - - when six blocks from the bank was the edge of town - - - when chains on all four wheels were a "must" in a trip to Lubbock in wet weather - - - when plenty of folks didn't know the name of the street on which they lived - - - when house numbers didn't exist - - - when it was OK to turn around in the middle of the street just anywhere in town - - - when beer was sold legally - - - when a pup with a license was a social climber - - - when everybody knew everybody else and how many kids in the family - - - when a good lot on the main stem could be bought for $700 - - - and, and - - - well, what's the use, them days are gone forever.

Now look what has happened to our fair little city: The post office club just about busted up with the coming of city delivery; the cops will not let us park any place any old time; we stop and we go by the lights; Clovis has been dry for several moons and cold beer in Littlefield over the counters took wings; the telephone operators know less and less; there is only one way to steer your way around by the telephone route when you have lost your book or are too lazy to look up a number, and that is ask for information, and by the time you have gone all around the detail you've got inflammation - - - and now, folks, horrors; they've gone and installed "nickle bandits" all over the down town section.

It "taint" right; they sure ruined a heap of good pasture land when they cluttered it all up with houses, and stores, parking meters and cops.

Sustains Chest Injury In Fall

O. K. Smith, employed by the Union Compress & Warehouse Company, was admitted to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital about 6 o'clock Thursday evening, suffering from chest injuries sustained when he fell off the dock at the Compress.

Mr. Smith, a cotton weigher at the Compress, was unable to carry on weighing work due to the high winds and dust storm Thursday, so was assisting other men in loading cotton. He stated that he and other workmen had just finished loading a car of cotton, and were closing the door, and it stuck at the top. Smith was attempting to push the door at the top when he lost his balance and fell about 5 feet, hitting a Mexican worker, standing there. When asked what happened to the Mexican Mr. Smith said he was knocked out at the time he didn't know whether or not the Mexican was hurt.

Mr. Smith came to Littlefield about four weeks ago from Pittsburg, Texas.

Cotton Bale Falls On Man, Causing Blood Poisoning

A. D. Hallford of Enochs was admitted to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital & Clinic Tuesday of last week suffering from blood poisoning in his right leg, caused from an injury to his leg about a week previous.

Hallford, an employee of the Enochs Cooperative Gin, stated that he was tying bales of cotton when a bale fell on his right knee. Blood poisoning set in Monday of last week, and Tuesday he was admitted to the local hospital for treatment.

He was much improved, and released Sunday, returned to his home. Hallford has been employed by the Enochs Gin about five years.

PERMITS TOTAL $4500

According to W. G. Street, City secretary, the building permits this month have been low, there being only two permits, totalling $4500 issued. Mrs. S. P. Middlebrook and Robert Jennings received permits for the erection of residences.

SEVERAL FIRES OVER DISTRICT

There were several fires over the South Plains late last week, in addition to those of Anton and Littlefield.

SEAGRAVES GIN BURNS

SEAGRAVES—Damage was estimated at $15,000 or more in the gin fire which burned the Independent gin, just north of Seagraves on the Brownfield highway, to the ground late Thursday.

Witnesses said the fire began in the gin's press, spread to the dock, enveloped six or seven bales of freshly ginned cotton, and within a matter of 25 or 30 minutes had burned the building to the ground. Fire fighting equipment was hampered by a two block distance to the nearest fire hydrant.

Mike Muetersloth is owner of the Independent gin.

In addition to building, equipment and cotton destroyed, approximately 10 tons of cotton seed was lost also, it was said.

THREE FIRES IN LAMESA

LAMESA—Fire losses at three separate alarms last Thursday amounted to a little over $6,500. The great damage was at the cotton yard just outside the city limits where "32 or 33 bales were destroyed" at an estimated loss of $6,000.

WILSON HAS FIRE

WILSON—Fire broke out Thursday afternoon in a cotton burr pile at Howard's Gin here. Only slight damage was done.

Mother Undergoes Operation

Vernon Hofacket, manager of Firestone Store, returned Sunday from Stephenville, Texas, where she had been since the previous Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hofacket. His mother underwent an operation for gall bladder trouble Wednesday of last week, and is reported to be getting along fairly well. Sheriff and Mrs. Hofacket moved to Stephenville from Levelland.

Building Permits Near Half-Million Mark

Building permits issued in the City of Littlefield hovered close to the half-million dollar mark at the end of the 44-week period to date.

For the period ending November 11, building permits represented a total of $461,900.

Expanding business firms and home-builders helped keep the weekly average high.

C of C Members Study Store Modernization

A group of members of the Chamber of Commerce left today for Plainview to attend a Store Modernization Clinic.

Ideas and plans for effect in storefronts will be studied and long-dormant plans for modernizing stores in Littlefield aired at the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Autry and Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Autry of Carlsbad, N. M. visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Walraven Sunday.

SALES TRAINING CLASS CANCELLED

The recently organized Littlefield Retail Selling Institute got off to a bad start, when the course in Pre-employment Sales Training for unemployed and part time employed persons scheduled to start November 10th, was cancelled.

Cancellation was necessary when only six Littlefieldians attended the first meeting, while the regulations of the State Board of Vocational Training call for a minimum of 12 persons before a class can be officially organized.

It was recognized, however, by Mr. E. F. Bingham, organizer and instructor of the course, that considerable difficulty would be encountered in starting a class at this busy time of the year.

Mr. Bingham intends to make available special courses to employed salespeople after the first of the year.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony in the Olton Baptist Church, Saturday evening, Nov. 1st at 7:00 o'clock Miss Dorothy Nell Dobbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dobbs of Olton became the bride of Kenneth Bain Parish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Parish of Springlake, Texas.

Rev. C. T. Jordan, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Earth performed the double ring ceremony before an arch entwined with fern. On either side of the arch were placed baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and the candelabra.

A medley of wedding music was offered by Miss Glenna Belle Roberts

Miss Nola Jane Clark and R. A. Packard Marry

On Saturday afternoon, November 1, at 5 p. m., Miss Nola Jane Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Clark, Springlake, became the bride of R. A. Packard, son of Mrs. Leona Packard, Springlake, in a ceremony read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Cook.

The single ring ceremony was read by J. A. McCormick, Church of Christ minister from Littlefield, before an improvised arch of white and yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride wore a white wool dress of Earth, pianist, who accompanied Miss D'Ruth Hopping of Lubbock as she sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Always." "Clair De Lune" formed the musical background for the ceremony, and the traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Cameo Rose frosted faille street-length dress, fashioned with a fitted bodice, V-neckline and a side drape to the hemline. Her hat and accessories were chocolate brown accented by a touch of gold.

She carried a white Bible, belonging to Miss Doris Thurman of Olton, topped with two white gardenias with baby mums entwined in the white satin streamers. The bridal tradition of something old was carried out with the bride wearing a cameo brooch belonging to the bride's Grand mother, Mrs. J. W. Payne of Wellington, Texas.

Miss Rosalyn Schreier, cousin of the bride, attended as maid of honor, wearing a bermuda blue frosted faille street length dress fashioned after that of the bride's. Her hat and accessories were black. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Billy Wayne Clayton of Springlake served the groom as best man. Norris Sampler of Olton and Mike Dent of Springlake, ushers, lighted the tapers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dobbs wore a gray crepe dress with black accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Parish, mother of the groom, wore a gray gabardine suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias.

For her going away suit, the bride chose a Geranium red three piece suit of French gabardine with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Olton high school, and attended Texas Technological College for the past two years. She was a member of the Capa Y Esapada and Las Visitas clubs. Mr. Parish is a graduate of Springlake High School.

After the wedding trip to Denver and other scenic places in Colorado the couple will be at home in Springlake.

maker suit with black accessories. For something borrowed she carried a white Bible belonging to Mrs. Charles Packard and her corsage of pink rose buds was tied with blue satin ribbon. For something old, she wore an heirloom necklace belonging to Mrs. J. L. Hinson and for good luck, a sixpence in her shoe which the groom brought from England on his return from overseas service.

Agnes Bozeman, who was bridesmaid, wore a fur trimmed green suit with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

James Packard acted as best man for his brother.

The bride's mother wore a dress of cream colored wool with a corsage of yellow baby mums, while the groom's mother was attired in a black crepe dress.

Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held, with Mrs. Foy Cook, sister of the groom and Mrs. Charles Packard presiding at the lace covered table, from which the three-tiered wedding cake was served with punch to the following wedding guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Clark and children, Norene, Thurman, Bernice and Glenn, Mrs. Leona Packard, Donald Packard, James Packard, Mrs. Wages of Olney, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Fay and sons, Clifford, Ralph and Lesley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Packard and Kay, J. A. McCormick, minister, Mr. and Mrs. Teal Loftis and daughters, Paulette and Glenna, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hinson, Agnes Bozeman and Mikey Dent.

The young couple are at home in Springlake where Mr. Packard is engaged in farming.

Levelland Machine Downs Muleshoe

The Loboes of Levelland High school put on an offensive gridiron show before a large homecoming crowd and the team they must defeat to win the District 5-A championship Friday night as they rolled over the Muleshoe high Yellowjackets, 38 to 7.

Eye-witnesses to their easy quest of the invading Yellowjackets were members of the Littlefield team who will see even more of the Loboes, come next Friday night, as the two unbeaten 5-A elevens meet in Littlefield for the title.

The Loboes rolled as a smooth-functioning gridiron machine hopping into an early first period lead and adding touchdowns with consistency as the game progressed. Out of it loomed four well poised, hard hitting, deceptive Lobeos backs, Bobby Hart, W. A. Wise, E. C. Seifert and Bobby Blundell. It fell Seifert's lot to peg pay-dirt for three of the touchdowns, but the machine-like functioning of the entire team really held the spotlight.

Roughnecks High

Quarterback John Ethridge scored three touchdowns, two on 50 and 60 yard gallops, and kicked three extra points to lead the Sundown Roughnecks to a 39-6 triumph over Morton in a District 5-tussle Friday night.

Sudan Drubs Friona

Backs Ralph May and Jim Edins spearheaded a Sudan Hornet offensive machine that drubbed the Friona eleven, 60 to 0, in a non-title Class A grid game Friday night.

New Gin To

lishing of a width of fresh dirt between the gin and the area to the north on which cotton was burning. This was accomplished through the efforts of W. G. Street, city secretary, who asked Travis Jones, superintendent for L. A. Purcell, street paving contractor, to bring his firm's maintainer to the scene of the blaze. Mr. Jones quickly responded to the call and had the maintainer on the job within a very short time.

The only loss sustained on the Littlefield Farmers Co-Op Gin property were four bales of unginced cotton and one bale of ginced cotton, according to F. M. Brewer, Jr., manager.

150 Bales Endangered

There were 150 bales of unginced cotton on the Co-Op yard at the time of the fire. Five bales burned, four of unginced cotton and one of ginced cotton. Constant efforts were exerted in extinguishing fires breaking out in the unginced bales of cotton on the yard. All loss was covered by insurance.

The Irvin gin was built in 1928 by W. M. Lowrimore and Leonard Irvin. The former is now a resident of Lubbock. The gin has been rebuilt and improved from time to time. Construction of the cotton house was carried out in 1938.

Splendid cooperation was in evidence in efforts to fight last Thursday's fire. This included the arrival of fire fighting equipment from Lubbock, but the truck returned home immediately in view of the fact that the local fire fighters and volunteers had the situation under control.

TELEPHONE COMPANY IS CARRYING OUT EXPANSION PROGRAM

An extensive service improvement and expansion program is being carried out in Littlefield and area by the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co.

Announcement of projects was made by G. D. Shelley, district manager.

Two new switchboard units have been installed at the Littlefield exchange for the improvement of the service. These are temporary boards, and will be replaced later with permanent equipment. The temporary equipment provides accommodation for two more operators to work.

New Circuits West

Additional circuits, to be completed this month, are being constructed west from Littlefield. An additional circuit to Amherst is being installed; another between Littlefield and Muleshoe, and a third new circuit will provide faster service to the Clovis area.

The company plans additional circuits to Lubbock, and one direct circuit to Levelland.

Work has been started on a line to serve Highway 51 South to the city limits and the portion of the city east of the road.

An "Adopted" Family—

There have been many stories of the adoption of destitute European families by Americans. But here is a story of the adoption of a Texas family by a Texas group.

When a tornado hit the little town of Higgins last spring, the destruction was equal to any "blitz." Assistance for the stricken town poured in from all over the country.

Members of the Rehm Home Demonstration Club in Hartley county knew that it would take time for family life to recover from the loss of home and property. So they decided to "adopt" a Higgins family.

The ladies of the club met together last month and canned 100 quarts of corn and 30 quarts of green beans to be delivered to their adopted family, a concrete example of the kind of help they are giving.

The project has been very popular with every one in the community, Norma Lee Lantz, county come demonstration agent, says, and other clubs in the county are adopting families, too.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER SAYS DISCOVERY OF AMERICA WAS MORE IMPORTANT TO EUROPE THAN US

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake this week discusses a topic he's an expert on—holidays.

DEAR EDITOR:

I been meanin to write you about this for several weeks but just ain't got around to it what with one thing and another and anyway tomorrow's as good as today as far as I'm concerned, but one Monday in October I went into town to cash one of my wife's egg checks which she carelessly left on the kitchen table and I will pay her back just as soon as I get around to it although the community property law ought to work both ways and half of what she makes ought to be mine, don't make no difference if she ain't got no legal mind and can't see it that way, and went to the bank and pushed on the door but it wouldn't give and since the bank didn't have no way of knowin

I was comin to town that mornin I knowed it couldn't have closed on my account, just to keep me from askin for another loan and besides I ain't dumb, I finally catch on and have been convinced for years that me and the bank can't do no business with each other on account of lack of cooperation from the bank, and I went into a cafe and found out the bank was closed on account of Columbus Day.

Now I ain't got no objection to a holiday, can't get too many for me, the bank can close every time the wind changes and it wouldn't affect me none, but what I started out to say is that if Columbus' discovery of America is cause for a holiday in the United States, it ought to produce a triple-decker holiday in Europe and I personally would appreciate them Europeans given a little more attention to it.

In fact, I wish you would read up on history and find out how Europe got along before America was discovered. Where'd they borrow their money from? Who'd they use for reserves to throw in when they was about to lose a war? Who come to their rescue after they won and didn't have nothin left to live on? Who rescued civilization over twenty

They'll Do It Every Time

WHEN WILMER WAS WORKING NIGHTS, HIS THEME SONG WAS "SLEEP". THE LYRICS WENT LIKE THIS—

THE LUCKY GUY— COMIN' HOME WHEN I'M GOIN' TO WORK! SOON HELL BE ASLEEP WHILE I'M SLAVIN' AWAY! ME! I NEVER GET ANY SLEEP! NOBODY COULD SLEEP AROUND THIS MADHOUSE IN THE DAYTIME!

By Jimmy Harlo

NOW WILMER'S WORKING DAYS. DOES HE SLEEP NIGHTS? NO! AND NEITHER DOES ANYBODY ELSE IN THE HOUSE.

WILMER! IT'S THREE A.M. AREN'T YOU EVER COMING TO BED?

Tham to MRS. L.L. OAKLAND, CALIF.

ty years in them days? Although it wasn't no great day for the Indians, I suppose discoverin America was a pretty good thing for you and me, but what it was to us ain't nothin compared to what it was for Europe and I wish you would find out just how the day is celebrated over there. Do the banks all close up that day and the governments refuse to ask for a loan from the United States on that hallowed occasion? If they ain't celebratin properly, I for one am goin to complain.

I ain't no European, but if I was I believe I'd put Columbus a good many notches above Napoleon and Bismark and Nelson and Caesar. From Europe's standpoint Columbus discovered a gold mine heck with the East Indies or what he thought he was goin.

Yours faithfully, J. J. A.

Helpful Hints From Your Home Demonstration Agent

By Dudley B. Hambright

Gladiolus bulbs, hahlia roots and other plants with dead tops may be taken up after the first heavy frost, or they may be left in the ground if the soil is well drained, and the climate mild. Give winter protection with dead leaves or other humus. Plant hardy sweet peas for early blooms during November and December. For early spring blooms continue planting larkspur, calliopsis, cornflower, California poppies and cosmos.

At this time of the year results can be obtained by planting "house-grown" herbs. For best results, start new plant by means of rooted cutting or by crown or root division rather old plants indoors. In order for flavoring purposes during the winter, these plants must have plenty of sunlight and a temperature maintained well above freezing at all times.

Mulch strawberry plants heavily with straw or grass. Remember how this plant got its name STRAWberry.

A mulch over bulbs will protect them during the winter. Plant tulips in November. Transplant lilies-of-the-valley and fertilize with bone meal.

BUILDS HOME

J. F. Boothe, owner of a large storage elevator at Anton, is building a nice home in the east part of town. The house, which will have 5 rooms, bath and garage, is located on a seven acre tract in East Side Acres. The house will be frame with a veneer of stone.

COOPERATE IN FOOD DRIVE

The various clubs of Anton, including the Lions Club, are sponsoring the collection of such items as canned foods, wheat, flour, etc., for the car load being loaded at Lubbock, as a part of the Food for Peace Drive.

Damage Scenes At Anton Fire

burned almost to the ground. Loaded trailers of cotton were pulled off from the gin yards as quickly as possible after the fire broke out, but they soon were also in flames like the one picture at the bottom, left. It is standing in high weeds on a vacant lot adjacent one of the gins. The weeds were burned by the flames also. Note the tires of the trailer burning. In the picture bottom, right, to be seen the remains of what were two farmers' trailers, loaded with loose cotton at one of the gins. The cotton, trailer bed and even the tires of the trailers were burned.

ELVIN HAIRSTON ILL

Elvin Hairston of Spade has been ill for the past three weeks. He was a patient in Payne-Shotwell Hospital a week, and in Amherst Hospital a week, and is now in the Veterans hospital, Amarillo. Mrs. Hairston's father, W. T. Garnett, minister of Church of Christ, Lovington, N. M., is at Spade helping to gather his cotton and feed crops. Hairston is suffering from a stomach ailment.

LOSES ARM

S. R. Tadlock, Olton well drilling contractor, suffered the great misfortune of losing his left arm recently when he was caught in the cat line of a rotary well drilling rig he was operating. Mr. Tadlock's arm was completely severed from his body, just below the shoulder. He was rushed to the Plainview Hospital. On arrival at the hospital he was in serious condition from shock and loss of blood.

Mr. Tadlock is now reported to be doing very nicely.

B. O. Hall Is Recent Visitor In Littlefield

B. O. Hall of Healdton, Oklahoma spent from Saturday until Tuesday in Littlefield and area recently on business.

Mr. Hall owns a farm 9 miles south and 2 1-2 miles east of Littlefield, and was here looking after his farming interests.

He had also been to Farwell where he visited cousin, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Henderson. He returned home Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Hall is the father of Mrs. O. H. Downs formerly of this city. He reports that Gene Downs, who is now attending State University at Lawrence, Kansas, was unfortunate enough as to suffer severe injury to a foot last summer, when working on street construction, at Great Bend, Kans. A concrete mixer fell on his foot and fractured several bones. Mr. Hall stated that it was just recently that Gene was able to walk without crutches.

Gene and Gene Downs both have graduated from high school since leaving Littlefield.

Farmers spent about $800 million for new farm machinery in 1946, not counting tractors.

An hour of work on the farm now, as compared with 1920, results in about a third more milk, a half more corn, and more than twice as much wheat.

A study in Texas shows that costs of producing cotton in the state range all the way from 19.4 cents to less than 4 cents per pound.

Junior Class Plans Big School Year

The Junior class of Littlefield high school is looking forward to a big year. They are planning for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held April 23, 1948.

Since the banquet will be very expensive, the Juniors plan to make money by a rummage sale, slave auction, candy sale, and selling Christmas cards.

The play committee will have the junior play selected by December 1, 1947. The food committee is working out the menu for the banquet and the decoration committee is deciding on the decorations. The class, also, has to select their senior rings for next year.

"Make maximum use of pasture" is a good general rule to follow in feeding stock, whether beef or dairy cattle, hogs or lambs. It will save badly needed grain as well as reduce costs of operation.

"Frost-proof" vegetables simply means that the seed has been planted in open field plant-beds and as the weather becomes colder, the plants become "frost-proof" or toughened to cold weather.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE
 "Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Nov. 16.
 The Golden Text is: "He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal" (John 12:25).
 Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Galatians 4:7).

 The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The real man being linked by Science to his Maker, mortals need only turn from sin and lose sight of mortal selfhood to find Christ, the real man and his relation to God, and to recognize the divine sonship" (page 316).

Less bulk, lower freight rates, more bales per shipment... these are some of the services your cotton compress contributes to the efficient marketing of cotton.
 The big gin bale must be reduced to less than one-half its size to meet railroad requirements of 100 bales per car... reduced to less than one-third for the most economical water freight rates. Without your cotton compress, twice as many railroad cars and three times as many freighters would be required to market your cotton... raising your costs and lowering your profits.
 In "making little ones out of big ones", your cotton compress gives a service the cotton industry depends on for fast, economical handling of America's greatest money crop.

Prissy's Got a Man! (Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them . . . because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer.
