Wildcats Have Good Season; Girls Look Toward Next Year

Coach Forrest Martin and the Wildcat basketball team ended the season here Tuesday night and it has been a good season for the locals. They won 14 games while losing nine.

The Wildcats had a good chance for the district crown at the start of the year but the Levelland Lobos came up with one of the best teams in this part of the state and took the district title without losing a single conference game. The Wildcats tied for third place with the Muleshoe Mules which won the district last year.

The Cats will lose three players this year. Those being Joe Walden, Freddy Howard and Frank Frye.

The girls had a most disastrous season winning only two games the entire year. They did however have one of the best sportsmanship teams in the district and won a trophy at the Whiteface tourney for this. Coach Clarence Williams was in his first year as coach of the girls and had very few returning veterans with which to get a good team from. The girls however played to the finish and are now looking forward to doing better next year.

The teams played in the new 900 seat gymnasium for the first time this year and the interest in basketball has more than doubled in Littlefield.

In the other game, Sudan nudged Amherst, 36-30.

Dennis led the Bobcats with 14 points, while Watson had 10 for Springlake.

Smith scored 20 points for Dimmitt, while Shelly, Copeland and Gullett each had six for Olton.

Governor Proclaims 4-H Week

Governor Allan Shivers has designated March 1-9 as 4-H Club Week in Texas.

In issuing the proclamation, Governor Shivers said, "Aggressive and trustworthy citizens are vital to the future of the world today, and we take great pride in these characteristics of the 116,000 Texas 4-H club boys and girls.

"Organized through county agricultural and home demonstration agents and assisted by volunteer leaders, 4-H club members are learning and demonstrating to others better methods of home making and farming.

"More important still, they are developing deeper appreciation for their country and the democratic way of life which it assures."

The governor concluded, "With complete confidence, I look upon the 4-H club members of Texas as capable leaders for tomorrow in agricultural, home, community and world affairs."

Texas 4-H boys and girls will join with nearly two million other 4-H club members of the country in observing National 4-H Club Week, March 1-9.

Whooping Cough on the Increase

Inasmuch as the incidence of whooping cough in Texas is expected to show an increase during the coming months, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, released a statement recently urging that strenuous efforts be made to control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease. There were 1273 cases reported during the first 5 weeks of this year.

"Whooping cough can only be contracted by direct exposure to the disease, and isolation of cases must be universally practiced if the incidence is to be controlled," Dr. Cox stated.

"The first symptom of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists day and night and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so, and allowing the young child to suffer an attack of this disease, may seriously impair his future health."

Save The Bolls-Produce The Bales

High acre yields, efficiently produced, determine the profit from growing cotton. One of the more important determining factors in high cotton yields is keeping the damage caused by insects to a minimum. Another mighty important item is the weather but man has been unable to do much about solving this problem. He can, however, through the use of the right insecticides at the right time materially increase the production of quality cotton.

The recommended control program for 1952 is divided into three phases: early season control, late season control, based on actual infestation and early stalk destruction and farm cleanup, says Gunter.

Right now, the specialist says is the time to get the spraying or dusting equipment repaired and ready for use. Labor is expected to be in short supply when the heavy work season arrives and unless everything is in readiness, valuable time may be lost getting ready for fighting the bugs. Time is on the side of the bugs, adds the specialist and unless cotton producers get in the first "kick," the job of controlling the harmful insects is made more difficult and expensive.

It is not too early to make plans now for carrying the fight to the cotton insects, says A. C. Gunter, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He suggests that every cotton producer in Texas obtain a copy of C-182, "1952 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas" from his local county agent's office.

It's just good management to plan ahead, says Gunter and especially in view of the expected shortages in labor and farm equipment.

Two adventurous girls who recently hitch-hiked 60,000 miles through 39 countries probably hold the world's record for girl hitch-hikers. Furthermore, the girls—Phyllis Burke, 21, of Dobbs Ferry, N. Whenever a plane wasn't crowded we could get a free air lift to another country—most of the time with RAF or UN planes. The British embassies throughout the world were particularly cordial to us and many times were helpful when American embassies turned us down."

How did they manage to live and travel on a shoestring? Phyllis says it was easy because "people all over the world opened their "Two girls traveling together get lots of sympathy. In one of the Arab countries we were invited to join a harem. We also got a few proposals of marriage—lots of men want to marry an American passport."

Beverly parted from Phyllis in Australia—married a Hungarian she had met in Singapore. But Phyllis didn't meet anyone who interested her, particularly. ## Jiggs Gets Four "Hot-Foots" Cappy Miller's bought himself a new car. We won't be seeing his old jalopy bouncing over the back roads any more. I'm going to miss it, too.

Many a morning Cappy and I drove off in that rattletrap for a day's hunting or fishing. We'd pile rods or guns in back, and prop open the trunk compartment—so Jiggs, Cappy's pointer, could jump in and go along.

They say when Cappy brought the new car home he opened up the hood to show off the engine—and poor old Jiggs hopped right in! Figured it was the trunk. He hopped right out in a hurry, too. That cylinder head was mighty hot.

From where I sit, old habits are hard to shake, once they get a hold. Like, for instance, too many people are still in the habit of trying to run their neighbors' lives—telling them how to act, what to wear, whether or not to enjoy a refreshing glass of beer. I say that kind of thinking's outmoded . . . ought to be turned in for a new model!

D. E. Convention Next Week In El Paso

Three D. E. students and instructor, Jesse Foster, will leave here Thursday, February 21, at nine a. m. for El Paso to attend the sixth annual Distributive Education clubs of Texas State Convention. Headquarters will be Hotel Cortez.

Students selected to represent the club will include Gerald Grimes, Frankie Douglas and LaJuana Hishop. Students originally selected will be unable to attend. At the Convention, the state sweetheart will be selected from the various districts. Bryce Cecil, state sponsor for the D. E. clubs of Texas, and the 1951-52 officers of Texas D. E. Clubs are making program arrangements and planning various activities.

Included in the events will be a tour of El Paso, a luncheon in Juarez and there will be a dance and reception at the Hotel headquarters. On the 23rd, will be the regular convention business and selecting the new officers for 1952-53.

There were not many bad experiences connected with the adventure, according to Phyllis, who noted that there is a great deal of anti-American feeling because American tourists "throw their money around." Young people who have respect for American dollars are appalled at tourist habits and think of America as a nation offering nothing but job opportunities.

Phyllis was amazed that GI's gripe about the country of their station, and that Americans abroad make loud and unpleasant criticisms of the countries they visit.

After a hitchhike to South Africa, South America and Ball, Phyllis hopes to live in Italy, Austria or the Orient. She plans to write a book, and possibly hike to California before she goes abroad again, she said.

"One thing that is noticeable throughout the world is the freedom of American women. In other countries women are looked down on. No matter where we traveled, other girls were amazed that we had so much freedom."

C of C Field Day To Be Held In Brownfield In July

The nine-county agriculture improvement field day will be held in Brownfield in July. It was announced Tuesday. Several South Plains cities had bid for the site, according to Wayne Smith, Chamber of Commerce Manager at Brownfield, but he has received verification of the fact that Brownfield has been chosen for the meeting. From West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials.

Counties participating will include Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Terry, Lubbock, Gaines, Yoakum, Lamb and Lynn. Farmers from each of these counties will attend the field day, which is jointly sponsored by Chamber of Commerce in the various counties, as well as the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Seminole To Change City Government

Seminole voted 319 to 20 to change its form of government from a three-man city council to a six-man board of aldermen.

Earl Denton, Lovel Stull and Cravy were elected aldermen to serve with the three councilmen until the city election April 15.

Under Texas law, towns of population or more are permitted to change to aldermanic city government as has just occurred at Seminole. There was considerable discussion as to the time for such a change in the past some years back.

Buick even keeps the Sun in its Place

Of course, this new glass—which reduces glare and incoming sun-heat—is a Buick feature in '52

WITH all the new things we've had to talk about in 1952 Buicks, we're just getting around to this one.

It's called "Easy-Eye Glass"—a new kind of glass with a cool, soft, blue-green tint, which filters the sun's rays entering your car—cuts down their glare and heat.

You'll appreciate the "glare control" at any time—and when you hit your first stretch of hot-weather driving you'll find that this glass does a great job of keeping the heat out of your lap.

We know—because thousands of happy Buick owners already have this new comfort feature. The rest of the automobile industry is just beginning to discover what Buick discovered a year ago. It's a great idea, which costs you very little extra if you order it when you're buying a new car.

But this still leaves the other folks with a lot of catching up to do.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything that approaches a Buick's million dollar ride.

You'll look a long way before you'll find anything so completely satisfying as Dynaflo Drive.

You'll find it hard to match the style and beauty and harmonious good taste of a 1952 Buick's interior trim and fabrics.

And when it comes to what you get for what you pay—we'll gladly match price tags with the field.

Have you had a good look at the '52 Buick? That's something you ought to do soon.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost—available on most models. (Not presently available in Massachusetts.) *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other series.

WEST POINT.
"People mention me as having been an All-America player. I was merely honorable mention on one or two All-America lists in my last season as a combination guard and tackle in 1942," he states.

He still racked up a good game of tackle last fall with the 508th Red Devil team, which he also coached. With Col. Lawrie and Capt. Michael C. Chester lending a hand to the coaching reins, the 508's gridders won four of eight games.

Col. Mesereau also coached the 11th Airborne team which won the Far Eastern Command title in 1946, going undefeated by downing an All-Navy team, 21 to 7, in Shanghai. After that, he was called to West Point to coach the plebe team for two years, and he served as assistant graduate manager of athletics until June, 1950.

Then came a year at the Armored School at Fort Knox, Ky., and then the 508th Airborne Infantry Regiment, in which he held command of the second battalion as a major before his silver oak leaves arrived last July.

Col. Mesereau first attracted attention as a footballer for St. Cecilia High in Eastwood, N.J. A brother, Capt. (Dr.) Arthur T. Mesereau Jr., was the physician for the West-Point football team last fall.

Even when it comes to in-laws, Col. Mesereau can't escape athletics. His father-in-law is Gene Leone, New York City restaurateur and sponsor of boxers, baseball players and football backer.

Every time Papa Leone looks at 220-pound Tom Mesereau, he doesn't think of him as the husband of his daughter, Louisa. He thinks of what a fine heavy-weight fighter the colonel might have made.

Leone had Tex Coulter, All-America tackle from Army, signed as a heavyweight boxer, but Tex got married and decided against fist-cuffs. The man who plays host to hockey, basketball and trotting gatherings also had Al Pollard of Army in line to become a fighter. "I'll find a good heavy-weight fighter yet," said Leone on his last visit here. Lt. Col. Tom just grinned, turned away and went back to his parachutes.

Qualifications For Air Force Are Revised

Time-in-service requirements for aviation cadets have been lopped off so that any airman now in the Air Force with a high school sheepskin is eligible to apply, according to information reaching...

Gerald F. Cutshall local recruiter for the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force here in Littlefield today. Revision of the qualification ticked into Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio the end of last week and opened the gateway to the wild blue yonder to hosts of qualified airmen.

Under the program that was launched last November airman with a high school diploma and 13 months of active service were eligible to apply for one of the three cadet programs. Applicants were also restricted to airman serving in the Zone of Interior.

But the new revision of the qualifications eliminates the time in service requirements and opens up applications to airman serving in Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Panama Canal Zone.

However, none of the rigid mental or physical requirements for training as a pilot, observer, and radar interceptor have been eased, Sgt. Cutshall said.

Applicants for pilot and aircraft observer training are needed immediately. A substantial number of high school graduate airman will be entered into flying training classes beginning in April 1952.

Details for the application procedure have gone out to all squadron commanders and they have been advised to tell their men of the details.

Airmen undergoing basic training are eligible to apply and will be examined during their period of training.

Sgt. Cutshall said that there are over 150 airman in the Air Force from the Littlefield area at the present time. About 90 percent are high school graduates or better.

"This is the golden opportunity for most of the lads I've enlisted in the Air Force, and I certainly hope all of them will take the advantage of this deal," Sgt. Cutshall said.

There are only two air force enlistment vacancies left for the Am- arillo recruiting area, from now unappings of chapter activities during "her year," and also contained programs and souvenirs from Grand Chapter, which she attended in San Antonio last fall.

Mrs. Luce graciously responded at the conclusion of the program, and thanked her officers for the party and for what they have done for her during the past year.

the dining room, where they were served coffee, star shaped sandwiches and cherry heart tarts from

Glamor Begins In The Nursery

GLAMOR GIRL—Cleanliness is the first rule for your baby.

By BETTY CLARKE

AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

Smart mothers employ psychology in making their little girls beauty-conscious.

Some mothers will throw up their hands and say, "What do I do now
—I can't even get my tot to wash
her hands."

One mother offers this list of inducements for small-fry grooming:

1. Use over-sized matching wash-cloths and impress on your tot that it is a-mother and daughter combination.
2. Baby should have a complexion brush similar to mother's.
3. Mother and baby should have toothbrushes in the same color.

4. Try a game of hair-brushing with mother and daughter counting strokes as they brush together.

There is one problem connected with this routine—baby is likely to get so accustomed to performing her beauty rituals with Mom that it will be necessary to be on tap for each performance.

Then too, with a "you and I do alike" program, baby is likely to want to use lipstick and powder also. One way to solve the powder problem, according to some mothers, is to teach the youngster to shake her baby powder out on a nice big powder puff (supplied by mother). She can pat this puff on her face to her heart's content.

Dr. Ashdown In Charge Of Research Project On Wheat Enemy, The Greenbug

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 16—An Oklahoma A&M entomologist, Dr. Donald Ashdown, has been employed to take charge of a research project on an old enemy of the wheat growers, the greenbug.

Harold Hinn, general manager of the Harvest Queen Mill and Elevator Co. of Plainview and coordinator of a greenbug-control research fund, announced Saturday that Dr.

Ashdown would take over the project at Pantech Farms near Amarillo in about March 1.

The project, to attack the pest known as greenbug as a menace to Texas wheat, is a cooperative project between Texas Tech, the Texas A&M College, Experiment Station and the Division of Forest and Entomology. Investigation of the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

All original research at Pantech is being carried out by cooperation between Texas Tech and Texas A&M College.

"During the past two years, wheat production in the Plains area has been reduced 75 to 80 per cent due to the greenbug and other pests. Something must be found that will stop the damage," Hinn said.

Santa Fe Railway Co. originated the greenbug control project and is a major contributor to the research fund. Santa Fe was joined by Rock Island Railway Co., Harvest Queen Mill and Elevator Co., Producers' Grains Corporation of Amarillo, Uni-mann Elevators Co. of Fort Worth, Burrus Mills of Dallas, and country and terminal grain elevators of 25 West Texas towns.

Funds are being provided to support the investigation over an initial period of three years.

The 34-year-old Ashdown is a native of Utah. He received his B. S. degree from Utah State Agricultural College in 1912 and his Ph.D. from Cornell University in 1918.

During the past four years, in which he was in charge of research in the fruits and vegetables branch of the Oklahoma Experiment Station, he worked closely with Dr. R. C. Dahms, noted Oklahoma entomologist, who is in charge of greenbug investigation for the Federal

DR. DONALD ASHDOWN

Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

At Pantech, Dr. Ashdown will be dealing with a treacherous little insect that can wipe out entire fields of young wheat in a few days. Due to the limited climatic conditions in which the greenbug is destructive, widespread damage due to the insect may be noticed only twice in a decade.

Some research has been carried out on the control of the greenbug, but thus far it has proven either too expensive or limited in its effect. Dr. Ashdown's definite path of investigation is unknown at present, but in addition to insecticides he has expressed special interest in systemic insecticides, a seed treatment which might immunize the plant against the bug.

In carrying out the study of infestation and its control, considerable thought and study will be given to the influence of fertilizers on both production and resistance of the wheat plant to greenbug infestation.

More than 2,000 acres of wheat land will be available as needed for greenbug research on the Pantech Farms. The farms have been operated by the Texas Tech Division of Agriculture for research since 1949. Three other major projects are in progress on the farms at present.

Until these filings are made, they are not in compliance with the price stabilization program.

"Contractors are not required to make filings on jobs that were in progress at the time the regulation (CPR 93) became effective, November 20 of last year," Hoyle Bowles, head of the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Section of the Lubbock OPS, said, "neither do they have to file if they had properly filed under Ceiling Price Regulation 34, the regulation covering services."

If a contractor elects to use a percentage markup established under CPR 34 he may not apply that percentage to current costs. The new construction regulation CPR 93 contains adjustment provisions for recomputing percentage markups against current costs.

However, most contractors did not file under that regulation, he said, which means practically all of them must file under the new tailored regulation on construction.

The regulation, Bowles emphasized, was written to cure the hardships worked on contractors by CPR 34. The new filing requirement provides that the filing must be made on any contract or job started since November 20 within sixty days after work starts or the contract is accepted.

In general, the new regulation establishes ceiling prices on the basis of current costs for labor, materials and equipment, plus a specified markup for profit, based on customary profits during a base pe-contractors are not aware that they are required to make certain filings with the district office.

Except for actual increases in labor and material costs, it is not expected that the new regulation will result in any general increase in charges for construction work,
price officials said.

The regulation covers transactions in which the seller furnishes labor service or any combination of labor, materials, equipment and service for building construction, highway construction, heavy construction, railroad construction, and a broad range of miscellaneous construction.

Also included are transactions which involve shop fabrication by the installer of materials; the sale of installation or erection service by a manufacturer who installs or erects a commodity manufactured by him and charges separately for the installation or erection; and any transaction involving both the manufacture and installation or erection of a commodity with a single charge for the entire service.

Lamb County Soil Conservation District Supervisors 1951 Annual Report

The board members are: Raymond Cooper, Chairman; Wallace Goddin, Secretary; C. H. Messer, Member; C. C. Byars, Member; and Thurlio Branscum, Member.

I. Progress of the Lamb County Soil Conservation District.

A. The board received 60 applications for assistance for the first part of 1951. We have received 95 Forms 1 through the PMA Office. PMA Form 1 is a request for assistance on permanent type practices that the PMA is going to pay part of the cost. The District prepared 81 plans on 22,858 acres. This brings the total to 286 plans on 77,134 acres. Technicians have completed soil surveys on 72,124 acres.

B. Assisted District cooperators in planning and establishing conservation practices to the following extent:

C. Other.

I. Newspapers and radio stations in the area have been very cooperative in publicizing, planning and executing field days. Newspapers gave field days good publicity and carried District news stories.

II. Results of establishment of conservation practices on farms by individuals.

A. Sam Harmon deep broke some sandy land and it yielded one bale of cotton per acre.

B. Mr. A. F. Wedel produced 4675 pounds of grain sorghum per acre following hairy vetch. Grain sorghums on the same type of land with same treatment produced 3370 pounds per acre following cotton. Cotton following vetch produced 1 score acres had damage as compared to 1/2 bale per acre on land with no soil improvement crop.

Attitude of farmers toward the ### District.

A. Farmers are realizing that the land isn't going to last forever unless cared for. They are much easier to work with than when the District first started.

B. Approximately 20% of the farmers are cooperating with the District.

C. Farmers are slow to rotate their land with soil improving crops.

IV. Attitudes and assistance given by businessmen.

A. The District has the backing of all the businessmen in the District. They realize their business depends on the welfare of the farmers.

B. Amherst business built a new building for office space for the District.

Father Doing Well, Too!

There's a sort of a family reunion at the Littlefield Hospital which convened not altogether unexpectedly, but nevertheless, with some unusual complications, Thursday afternoon and evening.

The report from the hospital, too, is unusual, as following the birth of a baby girl to Mrs. Teddy Brewster (who has been named Theima Vicky Lynn), the hospital issued a report that not only the new daughter, but both mother and father were doing well.

The reason for the appendage of the father's name to the official hospital bulletin was due to the fact that while riding a tractor at his farm, on which he was also "toting" a shotgun with the hope of seeing and getting a rabbit, probably to "wrap the baby bunting in"—the gun was, in some unknown manner, accidentally exploded filling one of his legs with small sized bird shot—or rabbit shot if you prefer.

And the hospital bulletin is issued correctly when it recites, "mother, father and daughter are doing well."

Mother Of Mrs. Martens Passes Away In Iowa

Mrs. J. A. Martens received a message Wednesday to the effect that her mother, Mrs. J. M. Frank, 74 of Lewis, Iowa, had passed away about 4:30 p.m. that day, as the result of a stroke of paralysis.
