Plans are underway by the Littlefield Masonic Lodge to observe its twentieth anniversary with a special banquet meeting, which will be staged Monday, Dec. 15, at which time Grand Master Dr. E. M. Wood of Anson will be guest speaker.

The Littlefield Masonic Lodge was granted its Charter December 9, 1921.

At 5 o'clock in the evening there will be a tiled meeting in the Lodge room, at which time the Grand Master will be pleased to meet all Masons of the Community, and especially the officers of the different lodges in the district.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock in the Methodist Church, after which a very interesting and entertaining program will be given. Members of the local Chapter of the Order of Eastern Stars will serve the banquet.

This dinner and program is open to all Masons and their families, and such friends as they may desire to invite. However, in order that the Committee in charge may know the approximate number for whom to prepare, it is urged that those planning to attend advise the Secretary or some member of the Committee the number that will be in his party. The Committee on arrangements is composed of W. G. Street, F. O. Boles, V. F. Jones, Roy Gilbert, Robert Armstrong, C. O. Robbins, G. R. Sandidge, Norman Renfro and J. H. Barnett.

Grand Master Wood will be the principal speaker on this program, and music will be furnished by the Clovis Orchestra, who, was in attendance at the special meeting staged by the local lodge in 1938. A special feature of the program will be the reading of a history of the local Masonic Lodge, prepared personally by W. G. Street.

"Texas" To Be Shown At Palace Saturday And Over Week End

"Texas" the saga of our own State will be shown at the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday.

As big as the mighty State it glorifies, Columbia's breathtaking new drama of the old West, "Texas," opens at the Palace Theatre with William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford starred. A savage saga of lawless frontiers, of gun-smoking thrills and hoof-thundering action, "Texas" has been accorded an enthusiastic reception wherever it has been shown.

"Texas" is said to be an outstanding example of what may be done by the film industry when every phase of production, casting and story combines to provide perfect entertainment. All the great action pictures of the past, rolled into one, probably would fall in comparison to the new film's whirling tumult of flashing bullets, crashing hearts.

"We are going to win the war and we are going to win the peace that follows."

To speed that day, the president announced that the government had decided on a seven-day week for all war industries, including the production of essential raw materials.

Besides foregoing peacetime luxuries, the president said, people in all walks of life would have to pay more taxes, buy more defense bonds, forego extra profits, and to work longer and harder.

Congress considered late Wednesday, according to United Press reports, asking all men between the ages of 18 to 44 to be subject to the draft. Members of Congress declared that planes and ships are not enough for final victory—that a huge army on foot would probably be needed to overcome Japan, Germany and Italy.

FARM HOME IS ENTERED AND ROBBED

A. Armbrecht, farmer, who lives
7 miles northwest of Olton was robbed by a masked, lone gunman early Monday morning of last week. Mr.
Armbrecht was awakened when the gunman entered the room and lighted a lamp, then drawing a gun, demanded money. After receiving about $15 he began striking Mr.
Armbrecht and demanding "Where is the rest of your money?" One blow was struck severely enough that Mr. Armbrecht received a fractured jaw. Before entering the house, the gunman had stripped the wiring from the victim's truck so it could not be started, and upon leaving carried with him a shot gun, which was the only firearm in the house.

The modern-well equipped Wiggins Funeral Home at Sudan has been purchased by Pryor Hammons and Lenton Smith of Littlefield, and will be operated under the name of

HAMMONS-SMITH FUNERAL HOME

The business will be removed this month from the present location to the Cleveland building, across the street from Stone's Variety Store, Sudan, which building is being completely remodeled and redecorated, offering the new owners more space and permitting them to render prompt and efficient service at all times.

Your Confidence And Friendship Is Greatly Appreciated—

L. T. (Pop) Hunt To Be In Charge For Local Owners

The Wiggins Funeral Home, Sudan, which was recently purchased from Ben Wiggins by Pryor Hammons, owner of the Hammons Funeral Home, Littlefield, and Lenton Smith, also of this city, who has been connected with the Hammons organization for the past six years, is being operated under the name of Hammons-Smith Funeral Home, and is in charge of L. T. (Pop) Hunt, Licensed Funeral Director.

Mr. Hunt has been in the insurance business and connected with the Wiggins Funeral Home, for the past several years. Previous to Mr. Wiggins purchasing the Stewart Funeral Home Mr. Hunt assisted Mr. A. Stewart in the operation of same, so is no stranger to the people of Sudan and vicinity.

Mr. Hammons, one of the owners of the new funeral home, has been in business in Littlefield for the past fourteen years. The local establishment has been in its present location for the past nine years. Last year considerable improvements were carried out by the Hammons Funeral Home. The building was enlarged, and considerable new equipment added, to make of it a funeral home only found in cities much larger than Littlefield.

Mr. Hammons, Licensed Funeral Director, is assisted in the operation of the Hammons Funeral Home by Mrs. Hammons and Lenton Smith, both of whom are licensed funeral directors.

Mr. Smith, co-owner of the new enterprise, has been a resident of Littlefield since a small child, receiving his education in the Littlefield Schools. He graduated with the 1935 class of the local high school.

The Cleveland building, across the street from the present location of Hammons-Smith Funeral Home, is being completely remodeled and re-decorated, and as soon as completed, it is the plan of the new owners to move the business into this building, which it is hoped will not be later than Jan. 1.

The personnel of the two funeral homes will work together, and when needed, assistance will be extended the Sudan concern by the members of the Hammons Funeral Home here.

In an interview Monday Mr. Hammons stated that the Sudan concern has modern equipment, and the latest funeral supplies.

The new building when occupied will offer larger space and a more convenient service to the public in general, it is stated.

J. P. Bradford Of Brownfield Buys Littlefield Hotel

Several weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Onstott purchased the Brownfield Hotel from the Bradfords, which Mr. Onstott has been operating, while Mrs. Onstott remained with the hotel here. She joined her husband there Monday.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Three Littlefield Homes Burglarized

Three Littlefield homes were entered this past week, and a considerable amount of money and jewelry taken.

The homes of Buford Nichols, and Mr. Riggins were burglarized Saturday afternoon, while the families were pulling cotton. Mr. Robertson's residence near the cemetery was entered Monday afternoon, while the family were in the cotton patch working.

A Muleshoe man was arrested Tuesday by Lamb County Sheriff's Department, charges of alleged burglary filed, and examining trial will be held in Justice Court today (Thursday).

War Emergency—

Hemphill was instructed by national headquarters of the Red Cross in St. Louis to appoint an emergency county chairman for Red Cross work, to be in line to handle any emergency that might arise because of the "eminent dangers of the Pacific," from which angle we would first be involved.

To avoid confusion in the Red Cross work, Mr. Hemphill was advised to make the appointment—without publicity—and C. A. Duffy of Amherst was appointed county emergency chairman at that time.

After being advised of the emergency financial drive, Mr. Duffy will meet with co-chairmen, who are appointed as follows: L. C. Hewitt, Littlefield; L. E. Silcott, Olton; E. L. Yarbrough, Amherst; W. H. Lyle, Sudan; M. E. Kelley, Earth.

The meeting has been called for 7:30 p. m. Friday at Amherst, at which time detailed plans will be made for the drives in the co-chairmen's respective towns.

Mr. Hemphill gave an inspiring talk to members of the Lions' Club at their regular weekly luncheon Wednesday on "What Can We Do Who Stay at Home?"

He informed the members of the club of the additional $3,000 for war emergency, and stated that "this should be accepted as a mere beginning for us."

He continued in his speech, "We can buy Savings Bonds . . . Render every public and community service which we are called upon to do . . . Give primary consideration to the work of the Red Cross . . . and beware and watch out for Fifth Columnists in this area who are aliens, but supposed Americans who refuse to join America in her Crises."

U. S. Declares—

push the Japanese into the conflict, with the purpose of impeding the program of American assistance to Great Britain.

But, a White House statement said, the program of American help to the British "will continue in full operation." The announcement caused some surprise because a short while before Winston Churchill had said a diminution of such help was to be expected.

"Obviously Germany did all it could to push Japan into the war," the White House said. "It was the German hope that if the United States and Japan could be pushed into war that such a conflict would put an end to the lease-lend program."

"As usual the wish is father to the thought behind the broadcasts and public announcements emanating from Germany with relation to the war and lease-lend program."

"That such German broadcasts and announcements are continuously and completely 100 per cent inaccurate is shown by the fact that the lease-lend program is, and will continue, in full operation."

Central and South American countries have fallen in line with the United States, Canada and Great Britain, rallying against Japan with declarations of war. Several of these countries have frozen Axis' national bank accounts, and reports are that most of these countries have also included Germany and Italy in their declarations of war.

Cuba declared war on Japan Tuesday night by unanimous votes of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies, according to associated press reports.

Mexico has pledged support to the United States and Great Britain.

German action in the Japanese-American war—perhaps open intervention on Japan's side or a formal declaration of war against the United States—appeared eminent late Wednesday.

The British radio Tuesday night reported that Cuba had declared war on Germany and Italy as well as Japan.

Reports late Wednesday were that two British warships had been sunk by the Japanese off Malaya in the most disastrous single blow struck to the British navy in the whole war.

Committee Urges—

"TO THE PEOPLE OF LAMB COUNTY:

"Without warning, like a thief at night, the Japanese Imperial Government has bombed our shores, attacked our ships, killed our soldiers and slain our civilians. To such an uncalled for dastardly attack freedom loving, honorable God fearing men of America have only one answer. The American people from the farthest southern tip of South America to the frozen shores of the north will answer with bullets. Japan has struck, and we must submit or fight, and if we fight we will conquer—our nation has made its choice—we will fight. We must fight a war that has been thrust upon us without reason or provocation. We will fight, and God being on our side we will win the victory. Freedom will continue to reign in America.

"To this great cause the American people must pledge their resources, their wealth, their honor and manhood.

"Have we, as citizens of Lamb County, done our part?"

"We, your Defense Bond Committee, urge you to buy defense bonds and stamps, and furnish the Government the means with which to buy material to win this war for freedom. We do not expect every one of you to buy bonds, but we believe any of you can at least buy stamps. Any amount, however small, invested in our Government's security at this time will be important.

"The time is at hand for us to act, and show by our acts that we are standing four-square for right and liberty, and that we believe in the present and future of America.

"See your postmaster or your Banker and invest your share."

Lamb Farmers To Vote On Marketing Quota Referendum Saturday

County Cotton Farmers Will Also Decide Fate Of Loan Program

County cotton farmers will decide the course of cotton this year when they vote in annual cotton marketing quota election, according to W. E. chairman of the Lamb A.A.A. committee. A decision will be made Saturday, December 13, and seven poll taxes will be set up within county, the chairman explained.

Increased production in many commodities in the War-Freedom program, any in cotton will cripple the effort because of the shortage on hand, Bentley said. Due to naval and war blockades,

Father Of G. W. Falls Passed Away Thursday

J. L. Falls, 73, a resident for 18 years of Lubbock and father of G. W. Falls of Littlefield, passed away at his home at Avenue H in that city Thursday, Dec. 4, at 5:00 p. m. following an illness of about a year.

Funeral services were held in the 23rd street and Avenue N Church of Christ Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, and interment made in the Lubbock Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his widow, four daughters, Mesdames Hugh Dixon, J. C. Teague, and Robert West all of Lubbock and Mrs. C. O. Cross of Oklahoma, and two sons, G. W. of Littlefield and J. B. of Lubbock. All the children, except the daughter residing in Oklahoma, were present for the last rites.

Export trade has dropped from 6.2 million bales during the 1939-40 season to 1.1 million bales during the 1940-41 season. Export trade for the present season is expected to hover near the 1.1 million bale mark.

As a result of demands made for cotton in the national defense program, domestic consumption of cotton for the 1940-41 season just ended was the highest on record. Consumption was about 9.6 million bales, which was about 2 million bales above the preceding year.

"Although our domestic consumption has gone up, the increase will not offset the loss of our former export market," the chairman said.

At the same time Lamb county farmers are voting on whether they want to continue marketing quotas, they will also be deciding the fate of the loan program. Loans are not in effect during the years when marketing quotas are rejected. If quotas are rejected by vote of the producers in the referendum, no loans can be made from the date the result of that referendum is proclaimed until the next succeeding marketing year, which, in this case, would be August 1, 1943.

Last year, the referendum carried in Lamb county when 82.2 percent of cotton farmers voting approved quotas.

101 West Texas Towns Enter Defense Contest

Final official entry list in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Defense and Preservation contest stands just over the century mark, announces the regional chamber.

As the deadline came—set for December 1 by the WTCC's house of delegates at the recent Midland convention—the contest books showed a total of 101 West Texas towns, from the largest to among the smallest, entered in the year-long inter-community competition. Announced objective of the contest is the stimulation of greater, more unified participation in national defense and in West Texas territorial activities—this through the region's Chambers of Commerce and Public Affairs committees. To date, 145 of these committees, with total membership of 1,113, have been created.

The contest will close late in 1942. The announcement of the four winning towns, with award of $500 in prizes, will be made at the WTCC's fall convention at Waco.

Amherst Exceeds Red Cross Quota

According to a statement by Mrs. Lester LaGrange, chairman of the Amherst branch of the Lamb County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Amherst citizens exceeded their quota in the Red Cross Roll Call just concluded by one member. The Amherst quota was set at 125 members and final tabulation at the finish of the campaign revealed that there had been 126 subscribers. Mrs. LaGrange and her co-workers are to be highly commended on their tireless effort in putting Amherst over the top in the Red Cross Roll Call.

The administrators of the fund are the presidents of the University of Texas, Texas Technological College and Texas A. & M. College.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Many people, who for years have been demanding that the government keep its hands off business, are now blaming congress because it isn't acting fast enough to enact drastic legislation for government control of business.

The reasons for this change in public sentiment are obvious. Under the greatly changed condition caused by the war and our defense program, the people realize that the government is forced to control business in one way or another.

Control over prices and control over labor are the two measures which are being most sought after by the public. We have been told that certain inflation and immediate skyrocketing of prices will be the penalty for delays in price control legislation.

None of us like the idea of government control over business. But all of us rebel against domestic difficulties which might be prevented by suitable legislation.

The debate in congress on these two measures — price control and labor control—will be heated and many-sided. No matter what legislation is finally enacted, there will be some minority groups which will be unduly penalized and others which will get benefits that are out of line.

That is always true of legislation. But it is hoped that groups which may be affected will all look at this difficult legislation from the viewpoint of consumers, rather than as manufacturers, farmers, laborers or politicians. For every American is a consumer—and the legislation which is of greatest benefit to us as consumers is the legislation which will be most helpful in the majority of the people.

LIBERTY'S BIRTHDAY

The 150th birthday of the American type of freedom will be celebrated throughout our country on December 15 — the anniversary of the day on which our Bill of Rights became part of the constitution.

During these days when all freedom is threatened, it is particularly fitting that the citizens of our country have this opportunity to commemorate an important birthday of Liberty to reflect on the history of what generations before us have done to keep freedom alive in this nation.

The day of December 15 signalizes the ratification of the Bill of Rights by the state of Virginia. Virginia's assent, in 1791, meant that three-fourths of the states had ratified the Bill and it thus legally was added to the constitution.

This part of the constitution includes our guarantee of freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, protection of individual's property, trial by jury — the things which all loyal Americans have since then defended at all cost.

On this anniversary, communities throughout our country will hold celebrations in honor of the event. The President will address the nation, defense organizations will hold special ceremonies and schools will take advantage of the opportunity to instill the spirit of freedom in the younger generation.

With 150 years behind it, the Bill of Rights to most of us is no longer just a law—it is ingrained in our philosophy and expressed in all our actions. We take it for granted because we always have had freedom, but we don't have any illusions about what our lives would be like if these freedoms suddenly were snatched away.

If a feeder lamb gets stiff or blouted give it a four ounce syringe of mineral oil. Exercise also will help the meat. A reduction in freight rates on nursery stock will become effective December 1. This applies to Texas and all or part of 5 other states.

CHAPTER VIII

SYNOPSIS
Longstreet, broker, dies in a car from poison scratched into his car by a needle-pierced cork in his seat. He was taking a party of friends, including his engagement to a woman, an actress, to his West End home. His partner DeWitt, wife Fern and his daughter, wife of Christopher Lord, a vaudeville friend Pollux, friend of DeWitt, Imperiale, and Latin, and Michael Collins, Irishman, make up the group. Attorney Bruno and Inspector Thumm, aided by Drury Lane, retired circus actor, investigate. Each of the party seems to have a motive against Longstreet and Bruno think DeWitt guilty, but he had an affair with Fern and he had a sinister hold on Lane. Lane declares he knows the man but identifies him only as "Later a man is murdered on the boat while Bruno, Thumm and I were waiting to meet the writer of the letter." DeWitt, whom Bruno identifies by chance, joins them. The man is Conductor Wood on the trolley. Evidently it was he who wrote the anonymous note. Bruno says that Felipe Macquichao was staying at DeWitt's house. DeWitt admits he and Longstreet made their fortunes mining in the West, but refuses further information. He is arrested for the death of Longstreet. DeWitt, who is presumably the murderer of Longstreet, is calm, as if a hidden fear. He acquiesces, he plans to see his wife. Lane calls on DeWitt.

"One moment, Mr. DeWitt," interrupted Lyman blandly, "was there any other reason for refusing to have your finger bandaged?"

I left the Club and took a cab to the ferry... Bruno was on his feet, protesting to the testimony as "irrelevant and immaterial," and demanding that it be stricken off the record. Lyman said: "Your Honor, the defendant's testimony is important in building up a defense which will prove his innocence." Judge Grimm overruled the District Attorney's objection, motioning Lyman to continue. But Lyman turned to Bruno and said: "Your witness."

Bruno scowled, then rose and for fifteen minutes badgered DeWitt, attempting to shake his story and bring out facts relating to Longstreet. To these Lyman inexorably objected and was sustained. Finally, after a dry reprimand from Judge Grimm, the District Attorney sat down, mopping his forehead, and DeWitt stepped from the stand. "I call as second witness for the defense," announced Lyman, "Franklin Ahearn."

DeWitt's friend, wearing a look of complete stupefaction, was sworn in. "Did you notice Mr. DeWitt's hurt finger during your dinner together at the Club?" asked Lyman. "Yes. It was raw and ugly looking, but the cut had formed a rudimentary scab of dried blood."

"Did anything occur at the dinner-table or afterward which bears upon this point, Mr. Ahearn?" Ahearn sat thoughtfully stroking his jaw. "Yes. Mr. DeWitt held his right hand rather rigidly and used only his left hand for eating purposes. It was necessary for the waiter to cut his chop."

"Your witness, Mr. Bruno." "Did you know where the defendant was going after he left you at 10:10 that evening?" "No." "How is it that you did not leave with him?" "Mr. DeWitt said he had an appointment."

"With whom?" "He didn't say, and of course I didn't ask." "What did you do after the defendant left the Club?" Lyman was on his feet again, smiling another objection. Again Judge Grimm sustained, and Bruno released the witness.

"For my third witness," Lyman said in a deliberate drawl, "Inspector Thumm!" Thumm started, like a boy caught stealing apples, thudded into the witness-chair. "You were in charge of the police investigation on the ferry boat when Wood was discovered murdered?" "I was!"

"Where were you standing just before the body was fished from the river?" "On the upper passenger deck, at the railing." "Who was with you?" "The defendant and Mr. Drury Lane." "Did you notice Mr. DeWitt's finger was cut?" "Yes." "Please describe the appearance of the wound as you saw it at that moment."

"Well, it looked sort of raw. There was a dried-blood scab formed over the cut." "Over the entire length of the cut, Inspector? The scab was in one piece?" "Yes. It looked very stiff." "Now, Inspector, please tell what happened after you noticed Mr. DeWitt's wound."

"The body was grappled at that moment, and we made a dash for the stairway leading down to the lower deck." "Did anything pertaining to Mr. DeWitt's wound occur as you were doing this?" Thumm said sullenly: "Yes. The defendant reached the door first and grabbed the knob. He sort of cried out, and we saw the cut on his finger had opened. It was bleeding." Lyman leaned forward and tapped Thumm's beefy knee: "The scab opened and the wound began to bleed merely from the defendant's grasping the door-knob?"

Under THE DOME At Austin

By GORDON K. SHEARER
United Press
Staff Correspondent

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 9—(UP)—Holly wreaths already are hanging figuratively about the Texas capitol. Most state employes will have all of Christmas week as a holiday. This in reality gives them an opportunity to leave Austin at noon on Saturday, Dec. 20, and return to work Monday morning, Dec. 29. In addition, they will be given a one-day holiday on New Year's Day.

Board of Control has adopted Dec. 1-28 as its Christmas holiday period and most departments follow the Board of Control pattern, through the decision is left separately to each department head.

The State Department of Education has announced its holiday period will start on Dec. 20, and most of the other departments are expected to choose the same date.

The State Highway Department may be an exception. The Highway Commission expects to conduct a monthly hearing on Monday, Dec. 22, so at least a part of the highway department staff must remain on duty almost until Christmas Eve.

Before starting on the holidays, most departments will have Christmas trees or Christmas programs. Usually the department head gets a gift to which the department workers each contribute small amounts.

In most of the departments, the exchange of gifts among workers is arranged by lottery so that each person receives one present and is donor of one. Who will give to whom is decided by drawing names.

The State Department of Education will make its Christmas party on Dec. 19 a sort of reunion. Because of the nature of the departmental work, a large part of the force is on duty at places other than Austin. All of these people are being invited to stop at Austin on their way to their homes and take part in the party. It will be held at an Austin hotel ball room, with an old-fashioned Christmas tree, games, refreshments and singing of carols.

Civic organizations in Austin were given permission to erect holiday signs on bill boards at the entrance to the state capitol grounds at the head of Congress Avenue.

Large billboards with holiday scenes flank the entrance gateway. One signboard pictures Christmas of today in an American home and the other the Christmas at Bethlehem. The picture of the manger, the Star of Bethlehem and the Three Wise Men then is given a patriotic twist that does frightful damage to chronology. A large American flag appears in the poster.

State officials, who were appealed to for an explanation of the flag over the Bethlehem scene, said: "Ask the Chamber of Commerce."

To state employes the holidays will mean merely holidays. To the persons living in the various state eleemosynary institutions Christmas will mean a variation from their usual existence.

Patients who are well enough physically and mentally to leave state hospitals will be permitted to visit relatives. U. S. Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, who started a campaign to have children from state orphanages invited to private homes for the Christmas holiday period, has requested that the practice be continued.

The O'Daniel family took two orphans to the mansion last Christmas, but because of the serious illness of Mrs. Stevenson it is doubtful if Gov. Coke R. Stevenson will be able to follow the president.

Allowance is being made in the institutional December budgets for turkey dinner on Christmas day with all the usual Christmas dinner dishes, and there will be Christmas trees at the institutions where there are children. A dollar allowance is made for purchase of individual gifts.

A study of teachers' salaries in Texas has been undertaken by the Division of Information and Statistics of the State Teachers' Association. That an increase will be recommended is apparent from announcement that the investigation is to determine the amount needed to bring school teachers' salaries up to a level to take care of the increased cost of living; the number of teachers now receiving salaries below fixed levels; and the increased state funds needed to bring them up to another level.

Texas highway officials are puzzled about 1943 automobile license plates. With prospect that steel will not be available for new plates, various substitute methods of licensing cars, trucks, trailers and motorcycles have been proposed but there are objections to all.

Plates now being issued for 1942 were made before there was any thought of a material shortage for 1943, and it is feared the 1942 plates will rust to a point of illegibility if they were used an additional year, especially in the Gulf Coast areas.

Winshield stickers have been suggested. Objection is that they are not suitable for use on trailers and motorcycles.

Some states are proposing to manufacture "permanent" plates that will last five years. That plan may be adopted if steel is made available for their manufacture. 2

The 1942 plates, with colors reversed from the way they were used in 1941, will be available for use in Texas beginning March 1 and must be on vehicles by April 1. The exception is that automobiles bought in March must be registered for a month under 1941 licenses. Cars that already have 1941 licenses can discard them and begin using the 1942 plates March 1.

No 1942 plates lower than 5,000 are to be issued, doing away with the scramble for low numbers that has caused the department con-

Unlawful To Operate Car Without Certificate After January 1

It will be unlawful for a person to operate an automobile or truck after Jan. 1 unless he has a certificate of title to same, and he will not be able to register his car or truck after that date without the certificate. This is information that the News has received.

Persons who have neglected getting a certificate should make application with the county tax collector at once. It takes some time to get a title, and it is only a short time until it will be unlawful to be without one.

considerable embarrassment in the past. The omission of low numbers will move up the numbers assigned to various counties.

CHOSEN TO PLAY ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Claude Patton, Sudan regular left tackle, was chosen by the coaches of 5-A, almost unanimously, for the all-district team.

Patton, the outstanding player on the Sudan ball club and the best in the district, was a sensitive spark, a fine block vicious tackler. Patton did the Hornets' punting and knew when he was licked. He covered a fumble in the Ocho for the only touchdown in school career. A graduating he will be missed dearly by coaches and students of Sudan.

Gifts Made From Cotton Urged For Christmas Giving

Give presents made of cotton. Make this year's, more than ever, a real "Cotton Christmas" in Texas, urges the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in a bulletin to its affiliates.

A news letter by J. Thos. Davis, president, and D. A. Bandoen, manager, issued Saturday, outlined the WTCC's participation in a movement to do something for the South's No. 1 industry by stimulating the buying of cotton gifts for Christmas, thus increasing domestic consumption of the staple. Chambers of Commerce in the territory were asked to at once call on their local merchants and newspapers, urging the former to concentrate their holiday advertising on cotton goods and the latter to carry on supporting news and editorial campaigns.

"Through this campaign," said the WTCC officers, "you can help put over the 1941 'Cotton Christmas' campaign in Texas. The movement is being promoted and conducted by the Statewide Cotton committee joined by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Texas Cotton association, Texas Bureau federation and other organizations. We believe that very important movement can give great and lasting impetus our towns will take hold of aggressively during the few weeks remaining in the pre-Christmas buying season."

A Bank Check

A bank check is the best medium of exchange. Most business is transacted that way. Why?

Because a check is a receipt; it shows to whom, when and for what purpose all money was paid, it is a protection against loss both to the giver and to the receiver, it saves carrying money on the person; it eliminates change making, it avoids the necessity of keeping accounts of small payments, it is convenient and the best evidence of progressiveness. A checking account may be opened at this bank for any amount. It is not necessary to deposit a fortune, although one may come out of it.

And, at the end of the year, your bank statements will make very convenient records for making out your income tax reports. Be sure you list all sources of income on your deposit slips, and make a note on every check what the payment is for.

"Church and synagogue must join now in combatting anti-Semitism as well as its consequences," says Dr. Conrad Hoffman of the International Missionary Council. "Anti-Semitism is a peril to the church and its continued existence as much as to the Jew. Mass emigration of Jews will require the attention of the church as of the synagogue and together they must solicit government action. Presumably Palestine and North and South America will be the chief outlets for this enforced Jewish emigration. In other words, Anglo-Saxon leadership will be involved. British and American Jews and Christians will thus be brought closer than ever. And in their social, cultural and political interchange there will be increasing spiritual and religious interchange as well.

When B. L. Leonard, San Francisco hotel man, (right, above) prepared a special luncheon for "Seeing Eye" dogs he set up actual tables and served a special menu for them. Blind lyric soprano Mary Coward, founder of the National Association for the Advancement of Blind Artists, is shown with the host and one of the guests, "Blondie," who glances at the "bill of fare."

Dr. A. L. Warnshuis, of the International Missionary Council, reports that all the overseas missions of the Protestant churches of France are being carried on despite the war. Churches in unoccupied France and in Switzerland have "given sacrificially," he says, to support the missions in Madagascar, Togoland, and Senegal; while the French missions in South Africa, Cameroun, Gabon, New Caledonia and Tahiti are being supported by funds raised principally in the United States and in Great Britain and her possessions and administered by the International body. The Lutheran churches of the United States, he adds, have contributed for the carrying on of Lutheran missions formerly cared for by German, Danish, Norwegian and Finish congregations. During the past two years American Lutherans have contributed $372,000 for these "orphaned missions" in Africa, Syria, Arabia, India, New Guinea, China and Japan.

Dr. A. Uzawa, a leading Christian member of the House of Peers of Japan, who is also head of the Meiji University, has been elected president of "The Japanese Christian Laymen's Organization" which has been formed to foster the work of the new "Church of Christ in Japan." T. Takahashi, head of the lay organization of the Methodist Church in Japan, has been chosen chairman of the Board of Trustees. The purpose of the organization is to provide finances for the new Church, and to endeavor to co-operate with Christian churches in Manchuria, China, and elsewhere. "We are mightily moved by the fact that the Christian churches of Japan have united and formed the Church of Christ in Japan," says a statement of the new body. "At this time when a new order is being established in Eastern Asia, this united church becomes an organized force reinforcing the nation in a courageous spiritual advance."

Eight foreign missionaries, two home missionaries and eight deaconesses will be commissioned for Christian service by the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Church at its annual meeting in New York City. The commissioning service will be on Wednesday evening, Dec 3, at the Church of St. Paul and St. Andrew, with Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of Atlanta, Ga., making the principal address.

DELL MORGAN SPEAKER AT FOOTBALL BANQUET

Dell Morgan, coach of the Texas Tech Red Raiders, was the principal speaker Friday night at the annual banquet given members of the Sudan high school football team and their coaches by the Rotary club.

The banquet was held at the Methodist church. Morgan's team probably will play in the Sun Bowl classic at El Paso New Year's day.

HAS 7,000 STUDENTS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 9 — (UP) — As an indication of the growth of the army's pilot training program, the Gulf Coast Air Corps Training Center reports that it has 7,000 aviation students in its 23 schools — eighteen times as many as were in training less than two years ago.

Retail Stores Will Sell Savings Stamps

Everybody in Texas who enters a store to buy a stick of candy or a four-poster bed, or goes into a restaurant for a cup of coffee, is going to be hearing before long just how he can help his country. The retail industry of Texas, working closely with Frank Scofield, State Administrator of National Defense, has taken the job of assisting Texans to help their country in one of the important phases of national defense—paying for the ships and planes and guns that are needed to make this nation safe.

Sixty thousand retail stores, under a program put into effect by the Texas Retailers for Defense Committee, are being enlisted in the campaign to sell the defense savings stamps which the government's Treasury authorities say must be sold. Many retail stores already are selling the stamps, and it is expected that the activity will now become universal.

Directing this undertaking is a committee of seven men, representing all lines of the retail industry. Alpert L. Walters of Dallas, secretary of the Texas Chain Stores Association, was appointed chairman of this committee. Working with him are Dr. N. J. Danforth of Fort Worth, secretary of the Texas Pharmaceutical Association; Roger Q. Flournoy of Dallas, secretary of the Texas Retail Grocers Association; Charles T. Lux of Austin, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association of Texas; H. E. Dill of Dallas, secretary of the Retail Furniture Association of Texas; P. D. Moreland of Austin, secretary of the State Restaurant Association of Texas; and J. H. Calvert of San Antonio, representing the Texas Retail Dry Goods Association.

"This country's defense program demands the best efforts of every man, woman and child in America," Scofield said in explaining the need for this work. "Every one of us is going to have to help share the cost if this nation is to remain free—and the best possible way to do it is to invest in stamps or bonds that will pay for defense now and bring money back to the individual later on.

"Some time every week, a person in Texas goes into a store. Now we will have all the independent stores and all the chain stores in the state selling stamps, and by this means we can reach thousands of people who cannot be reached any other way."
