ERNEST LEE RICHARDS IS KILLED IN HYDRAULIC TRUCK ACCIDENT

Last rites were held Tuesday morning for Ernest Lee Richards, 33, who was accidentally killed while working on a farm near Tulia, Saturday afternoon.

Services were conducted at the First Baptist Church at Sudan, with the pastor, Rev. Wayne Perry officiating. Burial was in the Sudan Cemetery, under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home.

Richards, a farmer for the Howard Brothers of Plainview who had lived there less than three weeks, was killed instantly last Saturday night when the bed of a hydraulic truck fell and crushed his head between the bed and platform of the truck.

The hydraulic bed of the truck, containing between 300 and 400 gallons of gasoline, was raised when the young farm worker left the brothers in the field to go to the truck. The brothers, for whom he had worked only since coming to Tulia, previously had warned him that the hydraulic lift's control in the cab of the truck was broken, and that it was necessary to lower the bed from a position beneath the truck.

Richards chose what he thought was an easier method, releasing the mechanism by sticking his head and shoulders in between the cab and bed of the truck.

The Howard brothers did not know of the accident until, returning to the truck about half an hour later, they found him pinned. They rushed him to Swisher County Hospital, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

The body was taken to a Funeral Home in Tulia, where it was prepared for burial, and then was released to Hammons Funeral home here.

Surviving besides the wife, is the mother, Mrs. Lena Burrus, Visalia, Calif., and two brothers, J. R. Richards, Sudan, and A. D. Richards, LaPera, and two sisters, Mrs. Leota Skipper, Visalia, Calif., and Mrs. Cecelia Dean, Granite, Oklahoma. A half sister, Mrs. Lillian Fulcher, Sudan, also survives. All were present for the last rites.

Deceased formerly lived in New Mexico. It is reported that he had been married less than 3 months.

British Leave Ethiopian Army

ADDIS ABABIA, Ethiopia.—(AP)—A British military mission which has been training the Ethiopian army since 1942 will be withdrawn in the near future. An official Ethiopian government statement said the decision "reflects the further development of Ethiopia in the organization of her own affairs" and is also due "to the increasingly heavy demands on British manpower and financial resources resulting from the present world situation."

Other foreigners will remain in Ethiopia's military forces. A Belgian is a military adviser to Emperor Haile Selassie and Swedish officers are training the imperial guard and air force.

There have been unconfirmed reports that units of the Ethiopian army may be sent to Korea. However there is nothing official on this from the government.

... at 25 cents and third grading o-white ribbon winners brought 20 1/2 cents.

Pre-show estimates of number of entries, were not met, totaling only about two-thirds of the expected number of entries.

JUDGE ARRIVES LATE
The show animals were in place at the 9:30 opening hour, but judging was delayed until about 11:00 a.m., owing to the late arrival of the judges from Lubbock. No record of the number of visitors to the show was available, but Chamber of Commerce estimated the number of visitors to the show of upwards of 500, with more than 300 on hand for the judging.

Chambers of Commerce officials stated that the show was a success from every angle, and stated that all checks not personally delivered to the boys as consideration for the sale of their animals would be in the mails not later than Wednesday.

Judges for the show were Louis Henderson, buyer for Armour Packing Company, Lubbock, and Ed Swalley, Lubbock Packing Company, cattle judges and swine judges, Bob Harvey, Armour buyer, Lubbock, and L. M. Hargraves, swine expert from Texas Tech.

STRICT JUDGING RULES
The calves were judged and graded as either prime, choice, or good. Hogs were graded strictly on a weight basis, with those overly-fat penalized.

For the second consecutive year, the program was carried out on a feeding practice, voted most practical by the Chamber of Commerce, in utilizing home grown feeds. The use of prepared store feeds is banned, or burse cow feeding, is an automatic disqualification of any exhibit.

Late arrival of the judging team, and a consequent delay in the judging, also delayed the departure of the group of approximately two dozen boys who won first or second place with their calves or first place on their hogs, on a four-day trip to Austin, and other points, offered by Chamber of Commerce again this year in lieu of cash prizes and awards. Twenty-four boys were eligible, and 23 of them made the trip.

Twin Brothers Among
Two twin brothers were among the party who left, the Young brothers of Littlefield FFA, Troy and Roy, both of whom exhibited hogs, and won.

The trip to Austin was made in private cars. Accompanying the boys were David Eaton County Agent, Bob Crowell, Chamber of Commerce, Harry Kilne, E. B. Bills and Bill Rodgers, assistant County Agent and W. W. Hall, Voc. Ag. Teacher. In addition to the visit to Austin, and the state legislature, the group are visiting Tommy Brooks ranch at San Saba, where a chuck wagon dinner and barbecue was given Tuesday noon. They will return home Thursday evening. Chamber of Commerce pays all expenses and all bills.

The calf shown by Harvey Kendrick was the top money-getter. It weighed 1,085 pounds, and sold for $368.55, and was top blue ribbon winner.

The hog shown by Troy Young, was top blue ribbon winner, and netted his owner $53.61, weighing 265 pounds.

The heaviest hog shown, weighed 327 pounds, was judged a white ribbon winner, and entered by Dolan Fennell.

The complete list of winners follows:

homa, and Oklahoma City and Shreveport, La. For the past three consecutive years she has attracted thousands at her demonstration with food fashion model kitchens at the Texas state fair, Oklahoma state fair and Louisiana state fair.

Mrs. Knight is especially qualified to conduct an all-electric food fashion show as she is a specialist in electric cookery. She has been keeping company with Reddy Kilowatt for a number of years. Her relationship with the electric industry is like an old friend—tried and true. She was home service director for a large district of public service company of Oklahoma for a number of years.

Snooping into some of her past feats, she was on the honor roll at Ohio state. She did experimental work with a large nationally known food concern in the East. She has won several public speaking contests and performed in several little theatre productions.

She is a member of the American Association of University Women, Texas Home Economics association and Eastern Star.

Mrs. Knight is not only a specialist in foods and equipment, but has a pleasing manner, and her homey witticisms amuse. The recipes which she gives are from wide experience, testing and research.

Reddy Kilowatt Cake

1 cup sugar, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 cup raisins, 1-2 tsp. powdered cloves, 1-2 cup shortening, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 cup hot water, 1-4 tsp. salt. Put all the above ingredients in a saucepan and bring to a rolling boil. Cool and beat in the sifted dry ingredients:

2 cups cake flour or 1 3-4 cups all purpose flour, 1 tsp. soda, 1-2 tsu. baking powder. Blend together and pour in a greased and lightly floured pan 8x8x2" square pan. Spread the following frosting over the cake batter, using a rubber spatula, just before putting cake in oven:

Baked Frosting
1 egg white, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 1-2 cup chopped nuts, 1-8 tsp. salt, 1-2 tsp. baking powder. Beat egg whites and salt until stiff. Add brown sugar and baking powder and beat until mixture stands in peaks. Spread over uncooked cake batter. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Bake in a 350 degree F. oven 40 to 45 minutes. This cake is best served the same day. May be served with whipped cream if desired.

Mrs. E. C. Hill to Represent Church At Lutheran Meet

At the recent convention of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod held in Houston, Texas, at Immanuel Lutheran Church this past week (March 26-30), Mr. E. C. Hill of Littlefield served as special representative for Littlefield's Lutheran Church on West 3rd. The Rev. H. A. Heckmann, pastor of this church, was reelected to the Department of Public Relations to represent the South Plains area from Plainview to Big Spring. The local pastor is the chairman of the Department's Vital Statistics Office which has as its primary work gathering and keeping up to date all vital statistics on the pastors and teachers.

Expansion of personnel and program to accommodate the growth in membership in the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod was one of the main matters to be considered by the convention, which reelected as its state president, the Rev. Roland Wiederaender of San Antonio.

Dr. J. W. Behnken, president of the international church body, reported that there were over 300,000 adult accessions during the past ten years and the establishment of more than 100 new churches per year, almost one every three days, in the United States and Canada. Foreign Missions are being expanded on every continent and many islands.

Over 5,000 souls and 25 new congregations have been added to the Texas District of the church in the last two years.

This growth in membership prompted the convention to increase their number of circuits from 11 to 21. A circuit is a geographical area—served by a "visitor" (a pastor elected by the Synod to transmit information from officials and boards to the congregations) by an elected layman who serves as financial advisor and a public relations representative.

An evening session at the convention was devoted to questions and answers in regard to a 10 million dollar offering which the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod plans to raise during the next few years for the purpose of raising the church's program of higher education to still higher standards.

the membership of the organization.

Lamb County, this year, is specially honored, through the fact that our own County Judge, Otha Dent, now heads the big organization as President, and will preside at all meetings, as well as occupying the top spot, in planning all-year activities of the organization. It is a tribute to the personality of the Judge, also, a mark of distinction and honor conferred upon him by the membership of dozens of West Texas Commissioners Courts.

John Ben Sheppard, secretary of State is the highlighted speaker for the convention, who accepted the invitation to talk, when Governor Shivers found it impossible to attend.

Other prominent men who will have a place on the two-day program include: Fred A. Wemple, of the State Highway Commission, Attorney General Price Daniels, former Attorney-General Wm. McCraw, and Bill Daniel, who will report on activities of the present session of the legislature, and others.

Judge Dent will be accompanied to Wichita Falls by his wife, who will attend the sessions and banquet scheduled. Likewise, the four Commissioners of Lamb County, Roy Gilbert, Fred Wilson, Sam Carley and George Brown, with their wives will be in attendance.

ADOPTION OF CONSERVATION METHODS WOULD PERMIT BUILDING OF MORE HOMES

Wasteful spending for many unessential non-defense purposes will lower American housing standards unnecessarily during the emergency, according to Ed Seely, local lumber and building materials dealer and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"In the first place, the increased taxes collected to finance the excessive spending mean that the public has that much less to spend on, repairing and improving its homes," Mr. Seely said.

"In addition, because the wasteful spending by the government adds to the inflationary pressure which has been forcing prices up, the government attempts to counteract that pressure by imposing unnecessarily harsh credit restrictions on new home purchases, from acquiring a new home.

"It is true that shortages of some critical materials will require some reduction in housing construction during the emergency. But there obviously is no urgent need for a 40 per cent cut-back in new homes, such as has been recommended by the Housing and Home Finance Agency, when production of automobiles and household appliances, which use critical materials almost exclusively, is being cut back considerably less.

"Adoption of conservation methods would enable the building industry to construct at least 80 per cent as many new homes as were built last year with 20 to 40 per cent less critical material, if credit were not so rigidly restricted to offset the extravagant and unnecessary spending for non-military purposes in Washington.

Sudan FFA Youth Takes Spotlight As Auctioneer

A youthful auctioneer from Arkansas, now a member of the Future Farmers of America at Sunday, stole the spotlight at the Lamb County Junior Fat Stock show here today.

He is Billy Clayton, who learned to cry the auctioneer's chant while living at Danville, Ar. Kenneth Bozeman, professional auctioneer from Lubbock, was scheduled to cry the sale following the fat stock show. He was unable to arrive so Bill Rodgers, assistant county agent, gave it a try. Someone suggested Billy be given a chance and Rodgers readily agreed.

Got Top Prices

Bill, 19, clad in blue overalls and a brown slouch hat, climbed into the ring and took charge of the microphone of the public address system. He swung a rough-hewn walking stick, the type carried by Kentucky colonels and auctioneers, in a professional manner. His cry was as hard to understand as that of a veteran. He managed to get top price and better for the steers and fat barrows offered by the 4-H club and FFA boys.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W.

Plainview Youth Reported Improved

Little Wade Thackery, Jr., of Plainview, taken from here to a Dallas hospital for treatment of a serious kidney disorder Saturday, was reported to be improving rapidly in Dallas late Monday.

The child had been a patient of Dr. Gale Seigler in Olton Memorial hospital for the past two weeks, a victim of the kidney disease, nephrosis. Physicians who had examined the boy said his only chance for recovery was in contacting a case of old fashioned measles.

In the Olton hospital, Dr. Seigler had deliberately exposed the child to measles germs, but the boy did not contract the disease. Then, as a final attempt to save the child's life, his parents flew him to Dallas for treatment.

He was given a blood transfusion just prior to leaving for Dallas. On arrival there, the boy was again subjected to measles germs and failed to catch the disease.

Neuphrosis is a kidney disorder which inhibits the flow of water through the kidneys. Measles would have set up a counteracting condition which would have cured the boy.

However, the Dallas physicians reported Monday the child was improving without measles, and would be allowed to return to his home in Plainview soon.

Nurses at the Olton Memorial were bought by the Armour and Company representative of Lubbock.

Furr Food stores of Littlefield bought blue-ribbon beef steers for 35 cents per pound.

hospital said Wade was one of the best patients they ever had in the hospital.

"He was so pleasant he won the hearts of nurses, doctors and visitors," one nurse said. No reason was given for the child's having been hospitalized at Olton rather than at a hospital in Plainview except, "His parents just wanted him in this hospital."

The child had been by physicians in Plains, Mo. and other cities to Olton.

PRAGUE — (AP) — The boy never built up immunity to measles, and is now in service to a report published by Prague press.

CHOOSE GAS for COOKING because: GAS is FAST GAS is DEPENDABLE GAS is CLEAN

Speed and dependability are musts for cooking a wide variety of dishes. Especially with the modern homemaker who likes to have plenty of time for other household duties and social events.

That's why modern women choose gas ranges for their homes. When a modern homemaker cooks with a gas range she is in and out of the kitchen... with a complete meal ready to serve... in a matter of minutes. And... with an automatic gas range built to "CP" standards, she can cook a meal while she is miles away from home. All she has to do is load it, set the automatic clock, leave it, and come back hours later to find her whole dinner ready to take out of the oven and serve. Plymouth Motor Company Announces Fifth Model Plane Contest

Plymouth Motor Corporation will sponsor the Fifth International Model Plane Contest at Detroit, Mich., on April 22-27. D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth, announced that this will be the first year in which they have been put on a competitive basis.

Invitations to the International will, as in the past, be limited to the top 500 model fliers in the United States, its possessions, and foreign countries who establish outstanding records in preliminary meets. Plymouth dealers in hundreds of cities and towns are planning local and statewide contests between now and July 29 in which young hopefuls may qualify. First preference will be given to fliers who have qualified in contests sponsored or co-sponsored by Plymouth Dealers. Second preference will be given to those fliers who submit applications based on winning performance in any other model plane contests sanctioned by the Academy of Model Aeronautics, governing body of model aviation in the United States. The International is sanctioned by the AMA and held in conjunction with the Aero Club of Michigan.

Prizes in the Fifth International will include $4,725 in U. S. Savings Bonds as well as 96 first, second and third place trophies for the various events, and eight beautiful perpetual trophies.

"The addition of combat flying and Navy carrier deck operations to our contest is in keeping with the latest trends in model aviation," Eddins said. "Since our association with model fliers, we have found that they like to build models closely resembling the full scale planes which have the most modern developments."

Eddins said that the combat and carrier events permit the model fliers to build the latest innovations into their models, and also to develop "physical coordination and skill to a far greater degree than is demanded in flying models in the less complicated events."

The combat event, for example, features actual "dogfights" by the planes of two contestants who compete against each other. The models, flown by control lines, have long paper streamers attached, and the idea is to cut the opponent's streamer as near as possible to the plane. Judges award points for successful attacks, as well as for adroit evasion of attack. Combat maneuvers of the midjet planes are breathtaking to see. Zooms, climbs and dives emphasize the skill of the fliers as they narrowly avoid mid-air collisions and devastating power-dive crashes.

In the carrier deck event, points are scored for properly taking off, speed in flight, slow flight, for landing the model and halting it with the carrier's arresting gear, and for planes built to the scale of or closely resembling Navy carrier planes.

Team racing, which was added to the International for the first time last year, will again be one of the contest's features, Eddins said. In this spectacular event, gas-powered control line planes pit their speed against each other while racing in the same control circle, and the flier must train excellent ground crews to handle the model at landings for refueling.

Eddins pointed out that 15 national and 21 International records were set in last year's International.

There will also be events for

H. S. Students To Vote On Change In Constitution

The student body of Littlefield High School has a special election scheduled for next Monday afternoon, when they will vote on a change in the Constitution of the Student Council, in the form of an amendment, which if carried will in future permit members of the Senior Class to vote in spring elections, now constitutionally denied.

Two-thirds majority is necessary for the adoption of the amendment, and if carried it would permit newly elected to sit in on Council Meetings for the remaining weeks of the present school term. In the past Seniors have been barred from voting.

Another election will be held Friday of next week to name student council officers and cheer leaders. A president, vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, and Publicity Director. Nominating petitions must be in by Wednesday.

Four cheer leaders will also be chosen in this election, for the Pep Squad. Eight girls have already been nominated. They are: Pat Grant, Mary Neil Caldwell, Doris Robinson, June Robertson, Etoile Pierce, Frances Clark, Preble Lewis and Wanda Webb. Four will be elected.

rubber and gas-powered free flight models, handlaunched gliders, gas and jet-propelled speed planes, and the flying scale models.

Participation in the International will be open to boys and girls in three different age groups: freshmen, 11 years or under, not yet 12; juniors, 12 to 15, not yet 16; and seniors, 16 to 20, not yet 21. As in the past, model fliers above the age of 20 may still fly in a special open class in local and state contests, but will not be permitted to compete with the younger modellers in the International at Detroit. Entry forms will be available at Plymouth Dealers' showrooms about May 15, 1951.

Levelland Wins District 4-A Track Meet; Morton, Muleshoe Trail

Lamb County's Lobos won the District 4-A Track and Field meet at a Saturday, but were seri-ly threatened by the Morton and Muleshoe Mules.

Levelland's Sneed, outstanding performer, gave the Lobos an early lead this morning in the discus throw and in the performance in the mile. His performance in the mile, a heave of 48 feet, 6 inches, was a new district record.

The Levelland crew saw its lead gradually whittled by the Indians and Muleshoe. Morton was only two minutes behind the Lobos, while Levelland was 17. But a finish by the Mules gave Levelland second place.

The one-day meet was well-organized and run off in top-notch fashion. In only two events, the 880-yard run and mile run, did the officials have trouble.

Too many entries clogged the field, and 15 runners had to compete in the finals of the half-mile, with 12 running in the finals of the mile.

The wind, expected to play a strong part in the meet, did not affect the tournament in any way, with the exception of blowing over hurdles before the events were run, and kicking up dust squalls.

Shallowater Netters Walk Away With District 7-B Tennis Tourney

Shallowater's Mustangs, winning seven out of eight events, walked away with the District 7-B tennis tournament on the Texas Tech courts Saturday.

Shirley Jerden and D'Aun McNeely of Frenship spoiled the Mustangs' attempt at a clean sweep, winning the girls senior doubles crown.

The Frenship girls defeated Idalou's Virginia Luck and Mary Jim Ashburn, 3-6, 8-6, 6-2 in the preliminaries. Then they rolled over Mary Scarbrough and Patsy Foreman of Idalou, 6-4, 6-4, for the championship.

Shirley Giles lost only one game in winning the senior girls singles title. She defeated Leta Altman of Frenship, 6-0, 6-1, and then downed Idalou's Joan Armstrong, 6-0, 6-0.

Shallowater's Mustangs, winning seven out of eight events, walked away with the District 7-B tennis tournament on the Texas Tech courts Saturday.

FIREBALL POWERED

HAVE you ever wondered how it would feel to go the limit on power and comfort and quality in an automobile?

Or how it would feel to be lord and master of a car that can take its place with the finest in the "fine-car field"?

Then, sir, this is a call to action.

The first action is yours—the simple action of getting in touch with a Buick dealer and planting yourself behind the wheel of a ROADMASTER.

Then let this great-powered and dazzling performer take over.

There's action in every one of the 152 horsepower in its Fireball engine—more action than most proud owners of this eager beauty will ever use.

There's counter-action in its gentle and sure-gripping brakes, the finest that Buick has ever engineered.

But there's also luxury—the luxury of double-depth Foamtex cushions and custom upholstery—and of ample roadweight magnificently poised on coil springs which individually cushion every wheel.

There's a spacious feeling of room, above and around you—room that is unsurpassed anywhere in the fine-car field.

And to make every mile effortless and relaxed, there's the very exclusive advantage of Dynaflo Drive—not as an "extra," but as a standard ROADMASTER feature.

So why not drop in and satisfy yourself, as our guest, that here indeed is a fine car that goes the limit—in everything but price!

Check for yourself what others ask—and what others offer—and you'll discover ROADMASTER prices a call to action that a wise man can't ignore.

Work Starts On Olton-Hart Road

As laying of caliche was started this week on the Fieldton portion of a 24-mile county paving project, Commissioner George Brown predicted completion of the Olton-Hart Camp road sometime in June.

Brown said that Boswell Bros. of Fort Worth, contractors on the project, began laying of caliche base on a three mile strip south of Fieldton Monday morning.

Pending good weather, trucks are expected to commence bringing base material into Olton for preparation of the road surface south to Hart Camp in about two weeks. Contractors have already completed laying of a clay base, about 12 inches in thickness, through the sand hill portion of the road, Brown said.

Although trucks will have a 20-mile haul for caliche to be used. Brown said that it is expected that everything will be in readiness the middle of May or the first of June.

The entire schedule, of course, depends on favorable weather conditions.

All in all, however, the prospects for smoother riding for residents both to the south of town and in Olton proper appear excellent.

Unloading of rock and gravel for the city paving project has already started, and Kerr and Middleton of Lubbock are proceeding with plans to start laying black-top on city streets by the middle of April—only 15 days away.

Mrs. James Masten of Morton, was awarded a $25.00 Saving Bond, as first place winner in The Child of the Year Contest, sponsored by the Rose Theatre in Morton. The winsome young lady is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Masten of Sudan.

Judges, both out of town men, did not know identity of any of the contestants, and were in agreement "that the contest was exceedingly difficult, the ingenuity and charm of all winners to a report from Tribune.

Puncture-Proof Butyl Tube

The above picture shows a cross section of a tire containing Firestone's new, lightweight puncture-proof butyl tube recently announced by Hawk and Hofacket, local Firestone dealers. The tube is indicated by the heavy black line and the lighter line which outlines the nail points.

The new tube, which seals itself instantly when punctured, is the first of its kind to be made entirely of butyl. It will hold air many times longer than natural rubber tubes and will outlast several sets of tires. Its price is 25 per cent lower than the price of similar products now on the market.

The tube is made in three layers with two puncture-sealing elements under the tread. The inner layer is a special soft butyl, which will flow around a nail or similar sharp object to prevent loss of air and seals the puncture after the nail is removed. An intermediate layer of especially compounded butyl resists tearing or enlargement of puncture holes. The tough, heat-resisting outer layer of butyl provides superior air retention.

Tasty Tuna Patties

The cook who can come up with a tasty tuna patty of melting tenderness should be revered in song along with the lass who could bake a cherry pie. For tuna patties, combining the delicate goodness of tuna flakes with seasonings and crumbs, are truly a gustatory delight.

This tuna patty, with velvety textured mayonnaise baked in should make the hardest-to-please man sigh with contentment.

Broiled Tuna Patties

- 4 hard cooked eggs
- 1 6 1/2-ounce can tuna, flaked
- 1 1/2 cups fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoon finely cut parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- Lemon slices
- Paprika

Finely dice the eggs and combine with the tuna, 1 cup of the bread crumbs, the parsley, salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Mold into 5 or 6 patties, and cover them on both sides with the remaining crumbs. Broil under low heat until golden brown and heated through. Garnish with lemon slices sprinkled with paprika.
