Citizens Urged To Save Newspapers and All Magazines

Boy Scouts To Gather Salvage Paper; Army Trucks To Haul Away

Plans are underway to stage a paper drive in Littlefield, as announced by Dr. Wm. N. Orr, chairman of the Paper Salvage Committee here, who stated that trucks from Lubbock would come through and pick up the scrap.

Orr stated that waste paper to be divided into two bundles, the magazines must be tied in separate packages, and that each bundle be tied securely with good string. He said that the Boy Scouts would gather the scrap and take it to a central point, where the Army trucks would pick up and haul it away.

Orr stated that it will be a matter of weeks before an organization could be set up to take care of the drive, but asked the Leader to urge on everyone the necessity of saving all magazines and newspapers as they are urgently needed for war effort.

GIPSY SMITH REVIVAL DRAWS LARGE CROWDS

Attends Two Day Red Cross Meeting

Mrs. L. M. Brandon, Executive Secretary of American Red Cross, left early Monday morning for San Angelo, where she attended a two day conference of Executive Secretaries of Texas and New Mexico, at the Cactus Hotel.

Mrs. Brandon was joined at Lubbock by Mrs. Teresa Gegg, Executive Secretary of Lubbock, and Mrs. Carra Mae Hogan, Executive Secretary of Hackley County.

Officials from the American Red Cross office at St. Louis were in attendance, and problems of various kinds were discussed.

Among the officials attending were: Richard F. Becker, Regional Director of Chapter Service.

Pfc. R. G. Standifer Receives Honors As Infantryman

Pfc. Rois G. Standifer, 20, of Littlefield, Texas, a member of the 86th (Blackhawk) Infantry Division Camp Livingston, La., has received one of the highest honors given to members of the Army Ground Forces—the Expert Infantryman's Badge. The award was presented by Major General Harris M. Melasky, commanding the division.

Pfc. Standifer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Standifer of Littlefield.

The Infantryman's Badge is probably one of the hardest for a soldier to earn. It demands that he be a first class fighting man, in top physical condition, and skilled in every phase of ground fighting and close combat.

Pfc. Standifer, who was inducted on Feb. 8, 1943, was a farmer before entering the service.

He is a graduate of Littlefield High school.

Radio Technician Training Offered

There is an extremely urgent need in the Navy for Radio Technicians. Seventeen year old boys who have at least a background of high school mathematics and algebra can apply at the Navy Recruiting Station, Post Office Bldg., Lubbock, Texas, and take a qualifying test.

This need occurs in the field of some of the most fascinating and colorful scientific developments of the war; developments which not only hasten the day of victory, but also indicate broad horizons of new opportunity in commercial enterprise after the war is over.

Men who successfully pass the "Eddy" test will start training for this important job as Seaman First Class and will first be sent to a Naval Training school for indoctrination and then to a Pre-Radio school where they will study mathematics for one month. From there, the men will proceed to a primary school to study electricity, radio, and shop practice for a period of nine months.

City-Wide Gipsy Smith Revival Now Underway

Methodist Church Not Sufficient To Accommodate Crowds

The City-Wide Gipsy Smith Revival is now in progress at the First Methodist church. The attendance has been excellent, the church building not being sufficient to accommodate the large crowds.

The dining room of the First Methodist Church has been equipped with a loud speaker to take care of the overflow crowd. If necessary the auditorium of the First Baptist church will also be equipped with a loud speaker.

Rev. Gipsy Smith is a very forceful speaker with an earnest Gospel message. He stays close to the Word of God, with an old-fashioned heart-searching sermon. The audience is held with intense interest.

Next week, morning services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Stores will be asked to close each of these four mornings for the forty-minute service, in order that our business men may have an opportunity to attend.

Seven churches in Littlefield are actively supporting the revival as follows: Assembly of God, Fundamental Baptist, First Baptist, Methodist, Four-square, Nazarene, and Presbyterian. The public is urged to join hands in this concerted effort to build the Kingdom of God.

They elected their chapter officers, who are: Jack Davis, president; Oscar Arend, vice-president; Coy Evans, secretary; Homer Peel, treasurer; Vernon Wright, reporter; Dal Brandon, sentinel; Bob Solesbee, historian; J. D. James, profit; Junior Tisdale, song leader; Gerald Roundtree, merchant; Eugene Carter, parliamentarian.

Hubert Gohlke was elected as district officer from the local chapter.

Eight girls were nominated as candidates for F.F.A. Sweetheart. They are:

Freshmen—Wanda Massey and Juanita Wright;
Sophomores—Lorina Salmon and Billy Marie Hopping; Juniors—Jerry Baker and Juretta Simmons.

Seniors—Mary Ellen Hayhurst and Ray Elliot.

From Wednesday until Friday all eight girls will be represented by a box into which the votes will be cast. One penny is counted a vote. Friday evening the votes will be counted, and on Monday the highest girl from each class will be carried on through the week. On Friday the votes will again be counted and the Sweetheart will be announced.

Three New Teachers Elected To Teach

At a meeting of the Littlefield School Board Monday evening, Miss Dora Jo Covington was elected to teach English and act as sponsor in the High school. Miss Covington formerly taught here, and is well known in Littlefield.

Mrs. L. V. Wood, who has been teaching at Borger, will fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mrs. Ethel French, fifth grade teacher, who accepted a position in the Floydada schools.

Miss Fronciana Blevins has taken over part of the commercial work in the high school. Miss Blevins received her college training at TSCW. She taught in Central Texas last year.

Plans Complete For Victory Program

Pat Boone, chairman of the V. E. Day Program Committee, announced Tuesday that plans for the patriotic program to be held in Littlefield upon the surrender of Germany to the Allies were complete.

Others on the committee, besides Mr. Boone, are Supt. Fred Miller, as program chairman; and J. O. Garlington, O. K. Woodall, Rev. Lee Hemphill, Rev. C. Frank York, G. M. Shaw, W. Duffrain and Gene Latimer as committee members.

This program is being planned for Littlefield and for all of its vast trade area. Towns in the area that do not have their own program are asked to attend along with all of the rural people in the area.

It is expected that news of Germany's capitulation will be received on the air as many as three or four hours before any official bulletin is issued. We therefore stress that the program here will not commence until official word has been received at which time the fire whistle will blow in short blasts for a period of about five minutes. Whistles at the gin, cotton mill and compress will join providing they are operating at that time.

Farmers Sign To Grow Cody Kafir

According to reports of Lem Weaver, County Agent, 37 Lamb County farmers signed contracts to grow Cody Kafir, better known as "Waxy Kafir," in 1944. Of this number, 20 farmers have 1,236 acres for harvest, while the other 17 reported loss of stand due to hail and rain. More than 50 per cent of the 1,236 acres was reported to be of good stand. The majority of these producers are pleased with the growth and expect a good yield.

A premium of 30 cents per hundred will be paid for this grain by Igleheart Brothers, Incorporated, of Evansville, Indiana, through approved local elevators.

It was found by Mr. Harper, of the Lubbock Experiment Station, that in addition to being valuable as a feed for livestock, it is a source of human food.

Cotton Income May Be Increased

Farmers of Lamb County can make five dollars ($5.00) per bale more on cotton by not packing or "tramping" it on trucks and trailers since this tramps the trash into the cotton, thus causing a bad sample.

The loan rate on seventh-eighths inch middling cotton is 6.25 points higher than seven-eighths inch strict low middling. According to the Experiment Station records at Lubbock, cotton can be lowered one grade by tramping the trash into it after it is pulled. Some farmers report this to hold true with them.

Each farmer should talk with his ginner and find out if there is anything he can do to improve the sample of his cotton. The ginner must have the cooperation of every farmer if he is expected to produce the best grade possible.

With an expected yield of 30,000 to 35,000 bales of cotton in Lamb County this year, farmers can increase their total income by $150,000 and at the same time produce a product that is more in demand.

Versatile Red Cross

"Send me five pounds birdseed. Am not crazy." That was the rather startling request an American Red Cross club director, recently returned to this country from the Middle East, received from his daughter, an American Red Cross worker in England. An old man, she later wrote, had appealed to the Red Cross for food for his aged and invalid wife's pet lovebirds. When the birdseed arrived, others heard of it, and six more couples turned up with similar requests.

"So, Dad," she wrote, "please send me 20 pounds more of the birdseed."

That's Cooperation!

CORSICA—An American Red Cross club here demonstrates what a little cooperation can do. The kitchen was constructed by the French. The Italians contributed the fireplace. American Negro troops built the roof. And the British donated material for curtains and 6,000 books for the club library. The building was formerly on operations base for the U. S. Army Air Forces, so just to round things out, the Air Corps flew chairs in from Naples.

Red Cross Plane Kit

A special American Red Cross flight kit now relieves the monotony of their trip for wounded men being evacuated by air from the Middle East to hospitals back home. Designed at the request of Col. Eugene W. Billick, chief surgeon of the U. S. Army in the Middle East, the kits contain such recreation supplies as games and magazines, comfort articles, cookies, hard candy, and chewing gum.

The first unit was packed in a remodeled phonograph case, painted black with red letters, and carrying the legend, "Red Cross Air-Evacuation Kit."

Hungry Visitors

According to a recent report, soldiers who visited an American Red Cross club in Italy one Saturday consumed 7,970 raisin buns, 7,725 cakes, 432 cans of milk, 540 pounds of sugar, 360 pounds of coffee and 84 gallons of ice cream. All this food was served in the form of snacks, and none of these figures include food served in the club's restaurant.

TO OUR FRIENDS And CUSTOMERS:

Sincerely thanking you for your patronage in the past, and trusting to do more business with you this year.

WHO CALLED THAT LAMP A "LIGHT"?

Home study takes enough energy without having to use so much trying to see under poor light. Willie is probably bright enough, but if the light is not, his work suffers.

He needs good light (and so do you) for all indoor seeing tasks. When proper home lighting is so easy to obtain, why be without it? By observing the following simple rules you can be sure your light is right, even in war time:

Keep spare bulbs on hand, so that you can replace burnouts at once. Most electric dealers now have light bulbs in all common home sizes. Use the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each lamp or fixture.

Use flaring shades (wider at bottom than top) instead of straight-sided ones on your lamps. See that the shades have white or light-colored linings, to reflect more usable light.

Move lamps closer to points of use, so they shed light directly on the work. Light should come from the left side for right-handed persons, from the right for left-handed persons.

Keep bulbs, reflector bowls and shades clean. Dust and dirt cut down light output.

Make your good lamps do double duty by rearranging furniture so that more than one person can use each lamp.

Rationing Of Coal And Wood Stoves To End October 15

Rationing of coal and wood heating and cooking stoves to consumers will end October 15, the War Production Board and Office of Price Administration have announced today.

OPA Rationing Executive Ely Osbourne stated that oil and gas stoves will remain rationed.

Current inventories of the coal and wood stoves, plus anticipated production, are expected to be able to keep up with unrationed demand after October 15.

Lt. Byron Lindley Receives Wings And Commission

A graduate of advanced pilot training class 44-H, Byron K. Lindley, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Lindley of Littlefield, Sunday, September 3, received his wings and commission as a second lieutenant in the Army Air Forces.

Rationing Changes Are Announced

Two important changes in the food rationing program were announced today by Opal L. Wood, Acting Food Rationing Officer, for the Office of Price Administration.

Effective September 17, all processed vegetables, except tomatoes, all fruit spreads, and all special products, except tomato catsup, will be taken off rationing. This move came when WFA said that the supply was sufficient to meet unrationed demands.

Use of blue ration tokens will be discontinued after October 1, as a result of removal of these foods from rationing. Consumers may use their blue tokens just as they have always used them, until September 17. Beginning September 17, retailers will not give blue tokens to consumers for ration change.

From September 17 through September 30, shoppers will be able to spend their blue tokens only in groups of ten. If necessary, during this period, they may pool tokens to make up units of ten. Fewer than ten tokens cannot be used.

Housewives should be sure to use all their blue tokens by September 30, because after that date they cannot use them.

J. O. Johnson Passes Away At Tanglewood; Burial September 2nd

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Johnson of ten miles north of Littlefield, returned home Monday from Tanglewood, Texas, where they were called due to the serious illness and death of Mr. Johnson's father, J. O. Johnson, 72, formerly of Littlefield, but later of Tanglewood.

Mr. J. O. Johnson passed away at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wilhite, at Tanglewood, Texas, Friday, Sept. 1, at 2 a. m., after an illness of three months.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, September 2, at 3 p. m., with Rev. Crone, Christian church pastor of Rockdale, Texas, officiating; and interment took place in the Tanglewood Cemetery.

Deceased has made his home in Littlefield for five years, and until two years ago when he moved to Tanglewood. He was a member of the Christian Church.

Besides his daughter, Mrs. Wilhite, survivors include three sons, as follows: Millard of 10 miles north of Littlefield; Larkin of Houston; and Brooks of Fort Worth; and a sister, Mrs. Bettie Epps, of Littlefield.

Home On Furlough From Alaska

Sgt. Franklin B. Robinson of the Infantry, who has been stationed in Alaska for 27 months, arrived home Friday on a 21 day furlough. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson, were former residents of Cooper, Texas, but have been living here sometime.

Sgt. Robinson was sent to Camp Shelby, Miss., from Alaska and received his furlough home from that camp.

He is also visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bryan.

Sgt. Robinson expects to be in the States six months.

Receives Medical Discharge From Navy

R. A. Seagler, formerly of Littlefield, but who has been in the Navy for nearly two years, was discharged July last, since which time he has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Seagler at Palestine, Texas, returned here last week and is resuming his electrical work.

Miss Tommie Bogard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Board of Bula, underwent major surgery at the Payne-Shotwell Hospital about two weeks ago, and her condition is much improved.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING FARM ELECTRICAL SERVICE

IN WARTIME CONDITIONS RELEASED

If You Are A Farmer Study These Regulations

Since the War Production Board has recognized the real need of electricity on the farm for increased production for our war effort, attempts are being made to allocate a portion of available material for electrical extensions during the war to serve farm production equipment. The order authorizes construction of farm extensions up to 5,000 feet in length on certification of the local County Agricultural Conservation Committee, while extensions over 5,000 feet must be submitted for approval to the office of War Utilities on Form WPB-2774, accompanied by animal certifications.

In order for a farmer to obtain an extension of electric services under these wartime standards, he must have livestock on hand which will support the extension on the basis of 100 feet of line for each animal unit determined in accordance with Schedule 1, which follows:

SCHEDULE 1—EQUIVALENT ANIMAL UNITS

LIVESTOCK ON HAND

1 Milk Cow	One Unit
10 Beef Cattle (all cattle, including calves, other than milk cows and cattle in feed lots)	One Unit
20 Cattle (in feed lot)	One Unit
30 Breeding Ewes	One Unit
160 Lamb (in feed lot)	One Unit
3 Brood Sows	One Unit
30 Feeder Pigs	One Unit
75 Laying Hens	One Unit
600 Chickens (broilers)	One Unit
250 Chickens (not laying hens or broilers)	One Unit
40 Turkeys or Geese (in laying flock)	One Unit
125 Turkeys or Geese (not laying flock)	One Unit
6 Milk Goats	One Unit
30 Goats (other than milk goats)	One Unit
160 Kids	One Unit

Applications filed with the County Agricultural Conservation Committee after April 20, 1944, can still secure electric service for their farm providing they can comply with the rules that went into effect by the Amendment to Utilities Order U-1-C. Future amendments to this amendment may relax the present requirements and it is suggested that farmers, who can not qualify under the present rules, keep themselves informed in regard to any future changes that may be made.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Zachary, former Littlefield residents, but now of Amherst, have received two letters from their son, Pfc. Billy J. Zachary, in which he advises his parents that when they hit the beach at Saipan in the invasion that his pictures and personal effects were ruined by the water.

His letter, dated Aug. 27, follows: "In our last main calls I have gotten 18 letters from you. I was very glad to hear from you. I also got letters from five other parties, and the package you mailed to me in March. The cake wasn't any good but the rest of it was all right. Thanks very much.

"(Roy and I) We are at a base camp now. Am I glad to be back. As you know I was in Saipan, and Tinian. I could have written and told you, but I knew it would worry you, so I didn't.

"I got the two pictures of Janna Lou that you sent. I would still like to see her though. You know, I told you that all of my pictures got ruined. All of my stuff that I took with me got wet when we hit the beach on Saipan.

"Have you heard anything from my drivers' license? I might need them some day you know. I can almost see you driving a truck.

"I haven't got much else to say at the present time so I will close.

Cpl. Ellis Stagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stagner of Amherst, who has been stationed in England since January last, has recently been moved to France.

Cpl. Stagner clipped from the Stars and Stripes and sent his parents the following news item:

"TEXAS BY A TEXAN"

Cpl. Wm. D. Hodges feels that the world in general and his buddies in particular are not fully informed as to the part Texas is playing in the present war, to say nothing of the merits of the Lone Star State. So with apologies to Mark Twain, the Burlington Liars Club and Baron Munchausen we offer you a few of his facts on Texas to complete your education.

"Texas occupies all of the North American continent except a small part set aside for the United States, Canada and Mexico. Texas is bounded on the north by 25 or 30 states, on the east by all of the oceans except the Pacific, on the south by the Gulf of Mexico, and South America and on the west by the Pacific Ocean and Asia.

"Texas is so big that people in Brownsville call people in Dallas Yankees, and the citizens of El Paso speak of the residents of Texas as being 'effete Easterners.' It is farther from El Paso to Texas than it is from Chicago to New York, and Texas is closer to Milwaukee by air than it is to El Paso. The United States with Texas left out would look like a three-legged Boston terrier.

"The chief occupation of the people is to try to keep from making all the money in the world, and at that the wealth of Texas increased 539 per cent from 1900 to 1927. At one time Texas was so wild that not even the law of gravitation was obeyed, and the chief pursuit of the Texas people was Indians, but now it is crop records and oil production. It is so healthful in Texas that in Eastland a horned frog lived 30 years sealed in a corner-stone without food, air or water.

"The word Texas is of Indian origin and means 'Friends' and the Texas people are that way yet unless you take a slam at their state.

"If your front gate is not at least 18 miles from your front door, you do not belong to society as constituted in Texas. Down on the King Ranch the front gate is 150 miles from the ranch house and the owner is thinking of moving farther back. Other Texas landlords have whole mountain ranges on their ranches, and one Texas farmer has 40 miles of navigable river on his farm.

"If all the people of the United States were to move to Texas it still would be no more densely populated than is Massachusetts. Texas has land enough to supply every person on earth with a tract 20 by 200 feet, and have enough left over for all the armies in the world to march around five abreast.

"To move the Texas corn crop would take a string of box cars longer than the distance between New York and San Francisco. If the 1,500,000 tons of sulphur mined in Texas annually were in the hands of his Satanic Majesty, they would solve his Nazi problem. If all the cotton grown in Texas were baled and built into a stairway it would reach to the Pearly Gates. If the 378,233,017 barrels of oil produced in Texas in 1934 were made into gasoline it would run a certain car through eternity. If all the hogs in Texas were one hog, he could dig another Panama Canal in three roots and one grunt. If all the Texas steers were one steer, he could stand with his front feet in the Gulf of Mexico, his hind feet in Hudson

"The Pick of the Plains"

Bay, punch holes in the moon with his horns and with his tail brush the mist off the Aurora Borealis."

"Boy, will this burn up the California Chamber of Commerce?"

Cpl. Lewis Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fleming of four miles east of Amherst, recently arrived in England, and writes his parents as follows:

"Dear Folks:

"How is everything by now? As for myself I am O.K., but I am a long, long way from home. I had a fairly enjoyable trip over here, but hope I never have to make another one. I haven't had a chance to get around much since I arrived, but from what I hear the English girls are really something. However, what few I have talked to don't seem to understand my language. I have about decided I don't speak English after all. I don't believe I ever as pretty country as this, but I'm ready to leave it for Texas any time. Please write often as possible.

Need For Electric Service Extensions Now Recognized

Among the activities that have been curtailed due to the war and lack of material and manpower, is the construction of powerlines by the various REA cooperatives in this section of the country, to serve farm homes and rural communities.

However, since the War Production Board recognized the real need for electricity on the farm to increase the production of food and fiber for our war effort, attempts were made to allocate a portion of the available critical material for this purpose, and their Utilities Order U-1-c states the policies adopted for farm electric extensions during the war. This order permits utilities to construct electric extensions to serve farm production equipment provided that an increase in food production or a saving in farm labor would result comparable to the amount of critical materials and manpower used in the construction.

The order authorizes construction of farm extensions up to 5,000 feet in length on certification of the local County Agricultural Conservation Committee, while extensions over 5,000 feet must be submitted for approval to the Office of War Utilities on Form WPB-2774, accompanied by animal unit certifications.

In order for a farmer to obtain an extension of electric service under these wartime standards, he must have livestock on hand which will support the extension on the basis of 100 feet of line for each animal unit determined in accordance with Schedule 1, as follows:

Schedule 1—Equivalent Animal Units

Livestock on Hand:

- 1 milk cow ----- 1 Unit
- 10 beef cattle (all cattle, including calves, other than milk cows and cattle in feed lot) ----- 1 Unit
- 20 cattle (in feed lot) ----- 1 Unit
- 30 breeding ewes ----- 1 Unit
- 160 lambs (in feed lot) ----- 1 Unit
- 3 brood sows ----- 1 Unit
- 30 feeder pigs ----- 1 Unit
- 75 laying hens ----- 1 Unit
- 600 chickens (broilers) ----- 1 Unit
- 250 chickens (not laying hens or broilers) ----- 1 Unit
- 40 turkeys or geese (in laying flock) ----- 1 Unit
- 6 milk goats ----- 1 Unit
- 30 goats (other than milk goats) ----- 1 Unit
- 160 kids ----- 1 Unit

The farm electrification program must be restricted to farmers who can qualify under this standard because of the fact that there still is a shortage of materials and equipment required for construction of electric lines. Transformers are particularly short at the present time because of the necessity of producing as much radio and radar equipment as possible for use in combat equipment. The Army and Navy requirements for radio and radar equipment this year are very greatly increased over 1943, and facilities of all types are being taxed to the utmost to meet these requirements.

Facilities normally used to produce distribution transformers are now producing radio and radar transformers to the maximum extent possible. As a result the supply of new distribution transformers in the small sizes in only a fraction of the demand for them. Also requirements for poles are somewhat in excess of the supply and any increase in the farm electrification program would result in a real shortage of poles. Insufficient manpower for logging prevents any increase in pole supply.

Because of these shortages, many farmers who have urgent need for electric service to assist in food production, will be unable to secure service promptly, in spite of the fact that they qualify for extensions under the rules of the War Production Board. It has, therefore, been necessary to allocate the available supply of transformers in order to effect an equitable distribution to the electric systems which need transformers. No expansion of the farm electric program is possible until these war time shortages have been relieved.

Prior to April 6, 1944, the rules regarding electric extensions were somewhat more liberal, particularly with respect to extensions over 5,000 feet. Because of the increasing stringency of the transformer situation it was necessary on April 6, to restrict the program previously in effect, and the order was originally stopped all proposed projects not conforming to the new requirements, except where setting of the poles had already begun. It was obvious that this order would work a substantial hardship on those farmers who had qualified for electric service under the rules in effect prior to the April 6 amendments, and these conditions were brought to the attention of Honorable George Mahon, Representative from the 19th Congressional District of Texas. Through his efforts, and a desire on the part of the War Production Board that their ruling should cause as little confusion and hardship as possible, Utilities Order U-1-c was again amended effective May 15, 1944, in order to relieve these hardships.

Utilities are now permitted to extend electrical service to farmers whose applications have been filed with the County Agricultural Conservation Committee by April 20, 1944, provided the committee issued a certificate not later than June 1, 1944. It is probable, however, that the transformer shortage will result in considerable delay in actually providing service on extensions authorized under this liberalized rule.

Applications filed with the various County Agricultural Conservation Committees after April 20, 1944, can still secure electric service for their farms providing they can comply with the rules that went into effect by the Amendment to Utilities Order U-1-c of April 6, 1944.

Future amendments to Utilities Order U-1-c may relax the present requirements and it is, therefore, suggested that farmers, who can not qualify under the present rules, keep themselves informed in regard to any future changes that may be made.

MUST REPORT PURCHASES OF ALL USED CARS

On and after September 12, 1944, dealers as well as all other sellers, must file a certificate of transfer with their local War Price and Rationing Boards reporting their purchases of used cars, the District Office of Price Administration has announced. Dealers, and other sellers generally engaged in the business of selling used cars, will also be required to file with their local boards, not later than September 21, an inventory report of all used cars in their stocks on September 11.

In completing the certificate of transfer for their sales, on and after September 12, they are required to indicate on their reverse side of the certificate whether the car was purchased before September 21, on that date, or after that date.

ONLY 60 CARS AVAILABLE IN LUBBOCK DISTRICT

Only 60 new passenger cars will be available for rationing in the Lubbock OPA District during the month of September, Ely Fonville, District Rationing Executive, has announced.

This is the smallest quota since rationing of cars began and is a 40 per cent reduction over the August quota, he said.

"No new cars have been manufactured since February, 1942. The quotas for rationing are getting smaller and smaller. That means eligibility requirements must become stricter and stricter. Each application sent to the District Office will be considered carefully for eligibility, need, and serviceability of present car, before a certificate is granted," Fonville stated.

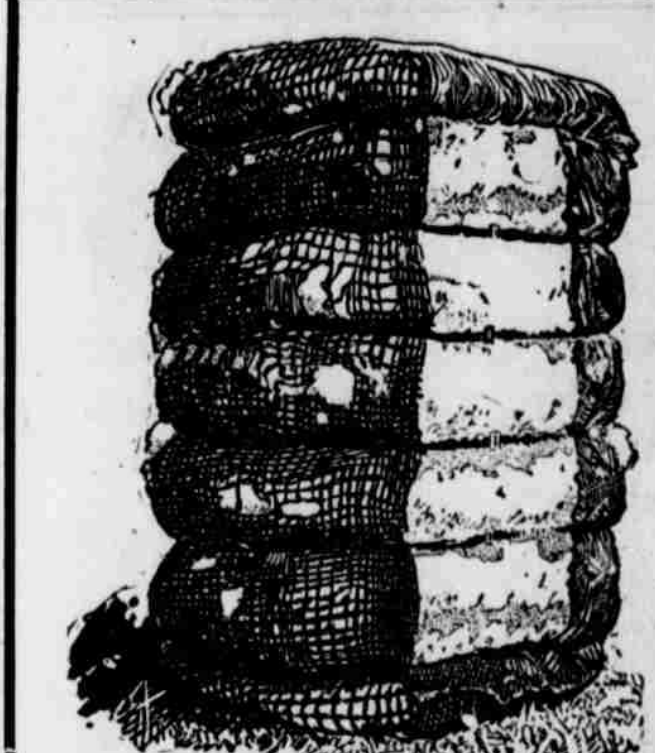

Is Promoted To Chief Petty Officer

Chief Petty Officer E. L. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Taylor of Littlefield, has recently been promoted from First Class Petty Officer to Chief Petty Officer. He is a Seabee in Navy construction, and "somewhere in the South Pacific," believed by his wife to be on the Marshall Islands. He is reported as getting along fine. Mrs. Taylor is making her home on East Eighth Street.

Miss Merle Myers And Lieut. Charles B. Brotherton Wed

Miss Merle Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olive Myers of Lockney, and Lieut. Charles B. Brotherton, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brotherton, C.M. 1-C, and Mrs. Brotherton of Littlefield, exchanged wedding vows Sunday morning, September 3, at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandmother, at Lockney, Texas, with Rev. Vaughn, pastor of the First Methodist church of that city, officiating in the beautiful double ring ceremony.

The bride was attractive in a blue crepe street dress with brown accessories, and wore a white orchid corsage.

She was attended by Miss Doris Huggert of Lockney, who wore a black sheer crepe. Her corsage was white gardenias.

The groom wore the dress uniform of the Air Corps.

Mrs. Brotherton was a member of Lockney School faculty for two years. Returning to West Texas State College, she completed her studies and received her degree in Home Economics on August 30 last.

Lieut. Brotherton, 23, just arrived home from service overseas on August 30. He was stationed in England with the Eighth Air Force, where as a Navigator on a B-17 since last October, he had completed his 28 missions over enemy territory, and since completing this service, has been serving as instructor at an air base in England.

The couple left for Colorado and New Mexico on a short wedding trip, and are expected to return to Littlefield this week, following which they will leave here Friday for Santa Monica, Calif., where Lieut. Brotherton will report for re-assignment. He expects to be stationed in the States.

Lieut. Brotherton's father, R. A. Brotherton, with the Seabees, left for overseas service last March, and is stationed "somewhere in the Pacific." He also has three brothers in the service.

The ceremony was also witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Darby, parents of the bride, and Mrs. McKnight, mother of the groom.

Mrs. Darby wore a navy blue suit with white accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias.

Mrs. McKnight wore a blue dress with black accessories, and her corsage was of white gardenias.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony on a short wedding trip to Red River, N. M. Lieut. McKnight, however, took ill with a cold while there, and the couple returned to Littlefield Saturday.

At the conclusion of Lieut. McKnight's furlough, the couple will leave for Midland, where he is stationed.

One of the most delightful occasions of the season was given Wednesday evening, August 23, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fox, seven miles southeast of Sudan, honoring Lieut. and Mrs. Aubrey Earle Fife, with a lovely wedding shower.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Fox were: Mrs. J. W. McCaghren, Mrs. Quinton McCaghren, Mrs. Joe Fisher, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Martin Maxwell. The interior of the reception suit was made more attractive by vases of beautiful radiance roses, zenias, fern and other garden flowers placed in vantage points about the rooms. A large toy airplane, decorated in red, white and blue was swung in the livingroom over a table that was laden with many lovely and useful gifts. Little Aubrey J. Newman, dressed in white, who was ring bearer in the wedding, and Little Miss Quinnelle McCaghren, dressed in a pink evening gown, who was flower girl in the wedding, led the bride and groom in and seated them near the table, where the honoree opened the lovely packages and passed them around for everyone to see.

Observance Program--

consist first of services at all of the churches, followed by a parade and gathering in front of the post office.

Regardless of the time when the official news is received here, unless it is between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m., official church services are to be conducted 2 hours later, lasting for one hour, at which time they will join to form the parade.

If the whistle blows between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m. services at the churches will be held at 10 o'clock the next morning, to be followed immediately by the parade and program at the civic center.

The town closing schedule is as follows:

If the news come on Sunday, stores will close all day Monday:

Should the news come before noon on a work day, all business houses will close immediately and remain closed until 12:30 p. m. the following day.

Should word come on Saturday, all business houses will close immediately and remain closed until Monday morning.

If the news is received at noon or after of any work day, business houses will close at once and remain closed all the following day.

Should the happy news come on a holiday, all business houses will close the following day.

All merchants and business people in Littlefield are asked to display as many flags as possible and to immediately close their place of business.

Services will be conducted in all of Littlefield's churches and all are urged to attend their respective churches. Doors to the churches will be thrown open immediately upon receipt of the official news.

The Victory Parade, immediately following the church services, will form at the north end of XIT Drive in front of the Cameron Lumber Company and line out on the highway thence to Phelps Avenue and will then march down Phelps to the post office.

All groups to form in the parade are asked to have patriotic banners and flags displayed.

Leading the parade will be the band, followed by the Richard New Post of the American Legion and veterans, following them will be the Boy Scouts, the entire school body, social and civic organizations, followed by all who wish to participate.

The parade on reaching the civic center will remain intact until after they are lead in prayer by the Rev. A. B. Haynes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at which time they will disperse and rally around to join in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

An impromptu speech in which Pryor Hammons, Jr., and Supt. Fred Miller will try to bring out some interesting facts and experiences. Mr. Hammons has recently received a medical discharge after seeing action in the Southwest Pacific. The jest of their topic will be that the war is not completely won, that many hardships must yet be endured both by those on the fighting fronts and those who remain at home, and a reminder that we must not for a single moment let down the guard that we have maintained during the past war years.

Two appropriate band numbers will be played by a band to be organized at the Littlefield High school under the supervision of A. B. Taylor or someone else.

Judge E. A. Bills will give the address of the day, his topic being, "History of American People." Mr. Bills will bring out the many hardships, joys and sorrows that the people of the United States have endured during our life-time history, and something on what we must face in the post war period.

A fitting tribute to the boys that have given life and limb that we here at home may enjoy a world in which we may worship as we see fit; that we may work and play to our own desires; that the traditions we have carried down through our history may be continued with malice toward no one, by J. Frank York, pastor, First Methodist church. Charles Signor will sing "When the Lights Come On Again All Over the World."

A community sing, in which everyone is urged to participate, will be led by Mr. Signor. The closing song will be "God Bless America."

Immediately following the singing everyone will remain in their places and bow their heads for the closing prayer by Rev. Lee Hemphill.

The crowd will at this time be dismissed and are urged to journey to their or friends' homes to spend the remainder of the day in quiet solemn tribute to our forces still in combat duty.

Gasoline powers the attack... Don't waste a drop...

MOTORISTS URGED TO RENEW "A" BOOKS

Motorists who have not yet made application for renewal of their "A" gasoline ration book are urged to do so immediately so that they will receive their new book before the coupons become valid September 22, the District Office of Price Administration said today.

Ely Fonville, District Rationing Executive, also announced that effective September 15, the requirement that tire inspection records be presented when making application for gasoline or tire replacements is revoked. Drivers will not need their tire inspection records after they receive their new "A" books.

Each motorist will receive a new Mileage Rationing Record, which will thereafter serve as the record of gasoline rations issued, he said in explanation.

Poison Available To Farmers At Cost

The effective use of Atlacide Johnson grass poison has been proven by D. Myers, farmer of four and one-half miles east of Littlefield. Mr. Myers sprayed Atlacide at the rate of one pound per 100 square feet of space and finds that it will give 85 per cent kill in four weeks. Mr. Myers' land was irrigated, which, according to Lem Weaver, county agent, aided in the quick kill.

Approximately 100 Lamb county farmers are now using Atlacide Johnson grass poison and favorable results are being reported. Atlacide is practical to use where the grass is in spots and a small amount now should save considerable time and trouble later.

A limited amount of this poison is being handled by the Commissioners Court and is available to farmers at cost, which is 40 per cent cheaper than other sources of supply.

WHITHARRAL MAN SUFFERS PARALYSIS

Marvin Mayfield, 32, of five miles west of Whitharral, was overcome by exertion and heat Saturday morning, which is believed to have caused him to suffer a stroke of paral-

Mr. Mayfield had ran about 1 1/2 miles trying to pen some cows, which had gotten out of his pasture, after which he drove his car about five miles to where he was cutting feed for E. S. Collier. On getting out of his car he fell up against it paralyzed. Frank Rutherford brought him to the Littlefield Hospital, where he is resting nicely, and it is expected he will be better in a few days.

Herds of War

"Out where the West begins" is where important food for war begins too.

The thundering herds of our western ranges stand for a basic food men eat to fight on, men eat to work on.

When the war cry went out for meat and still more meat, western ranchers, stockmen and farmers responded by raising the greatest number of beef cattle, hogs and sheep in the history of our country.

Put her there, partner! You're doing a great job in that fighting Home on the Range!

Flight Officer Walter Dyer, Commander on a B-24 Liberator and stationed in England since June last, is making missions over enemy territory. One of his crew, S-Sgt. M. J.
Trantham, wrote Mr. and Mrs. Dyer
the following interesting letter.

"I don't suppose you remember me, but I have been wanting to write you ever since I met you there in Pueblo. Remember you stopped there in town, and gave me a ride out to camp.

"The minute I met you both I could see you were plain, honest to goodness American people—people who have worked hard in their lifetime. Right then and there I understood why you had such a fine man for a son. You know, Mr. and Mrs.
Dyer, I could tell by the type of son you have that you were swell people. I am writing this note not to be throwing roses but to give credit where credit is due. I guess you call him Walter, but we always call him
"Commander" Dyer or sometimes I call him "Boss."

"We think we have the best pilot in the E.T.O. Our pilot has never said a harsh word to any member of our crew since the day we met him, and I don't think there is another pilot in the E.T.O. (European theatre of operation) that you can say that about. That guy would give you the shirt off his back, and I know there isn't a member on his

him. I don't believe he has an en-always saying "they sure like that guy Dyer."

"I want to tell you one thing, that boy of yours can sure fly a plane. He can throw those big bombers around like you can drive a car.

"We are now going on missions over enemy territory. With the skill and courage your son has, you have nothing to worry about. We have been in some pretty tight spots, but good old commander always gets us out, and back to the base.

"Brother, he's got what it takes, and I don't mean maybe. We are proud of him and I am sure you are also. He has gotten us gunners our ratings, and we are now as high as we can go.

"It is time for me to hit the old bed, so I want to sign off by saying —it is a privilege and pleasure to be able to serve under your son and I want you to promise me you won't worry about him because with the spirit of your family, and my wife, and family, riding with us, we will end up on Top.

"P. S. Walter, one of the other gunners and myself went to the dog races last Saturday, and boy did we have fun—I never laughed so much in my life.

"Keep your fingers crossed and we will "see you later."

"Yours truly,

Craigo is believed to be on Saipan. He is a mechanic, whose duty it is to keep the trucks in good shape. He also drives a truck, and is now said to be on Oahu Island. Mr. and Mrs. Craigo have three sons in the service. J. C. Craigo, S 2-C, is in the Coast Guard, and has also been stationed on Oahu Island. He was agreeably surprised when reading a newspaper in the Southwest Pacific to find his brother, James', name in the newspaper. He clipped the article and sent it home to his parents. He has been in the service since October, 1943, and overseas since December last.

1st Lieut. Ernest F. Craigo, 30, instructor in the Air Corps, had been stationed in England, but in a letter received by his parents last week he stated he had landed safely in France.

Paul (Bozo) Pumphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pumphrey of Littlefield, is stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland, in the Ordnance Department of the Army. He has been expecting a furlough, but now states he does not believe he is going to get a furlough at this time. Paul has been in the service about two years.

Cpl. Raymond A. Fanning, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fanning of Earth, has landed in the States after having been overseas in the South Pacific for two years. He is expected to arrive home soon.

Lieut. Alvin R. Gerik, pilot of the Air Force, stationed in England, was sent a cable last week, through the Red Cross, notifying him of the illness of his brother with meningitis. Lieut. Gerik had completed 25 missions about two weeks ago, and, therefore, it is hoped he will be able to get an emergency furlough. The sick child is a patient in the Payne-Shotwell Hospital.

A telegram was sent Thursday to Pvt. Woody L. Rhodes at Fort Bliss, Texas, to the effect that his mother, Mrs. Olan L. Rhodes of Hart, was very ill. The service man, however, arrived home about the time the message was sent, on a three day pass, and has applied for an extension.

Mrs. Rhodes is confined in the Littlefield Hospital, where she underwent a major operation Thursday last and is reported as doing nicely.

Lieut. G. D. Kemp Awarded Silver Star

WITH THE U. S. FORCES IN FRANCE — Although wounded in both legs, Lieut. Gibson D. Kemp of Olton, Texas, brought back his patrol and his sergeant who died on the way. For his extraordinary bravery in the face of the enemy, Lieut. Kemp was awarded the Silver Star.

The official narration of Lieut. Kemp's unit occupied a defensive position in the vicinity of St. Germaine D'Elle. During this period Lt. Kemp was out on three combat and two reconnaissance patrols behind enemy lines.

"On July 3, Lieut. Kemp was given the mission of destroying a house which was believed to be an enemy command post and at about midnight Lieut. Kemp, with one squad proceeded through his own lines to the house. After carefully establishing a base of fire to protect the demolition men, Lt. Kemp together with Sgt. Leslie R. Sarenpa, demolition man, proceeded to the house and set the charges, one in the basement and two on the first floor. After pulling the fuse igniter, the two withdrew from the house and awaited the explosion. After a wait of about 20 minutes with no explosion, Lieut. Kemp decided to investigate the cause. As he and Sgt. Sarenpa crept back toward the house the silence was split by the staccato of a German machine pistol and the explosion of two hand grenades thrown by a hidden enemy. Sgt. Sarenpa fell to the ground fatally wounded. Lieut. Kemp, although severely wounded in both legs by fragments from the grenades, immediately sprayed the hedge with his machine pistol and silenced the enemy automatic weapon. At this time a German machine gun opened up.

"The squad leader crawled up to the two wounded men. Lieut. Kemp and he dragged Sgt. Sarenpa back. Although wounded, Lieut. Kemp maintained control of the squad and ordered its withdrawal. Organizing a covering party, Lieut. Kemp led the patrol back into his own lines with the wounded man who died. Lieut. Kemp's achievement in bringing back his squad and walking the mile and one half to the aid station although severely wounded in both legs is a testament to his leadership and courage."
