Poll Tax Deadline Near; Important Votes Coming

Saturday Four-Way Deadline

Taxpayers face a four-way deadline Saturday at midnight. Time runs out for payment of poll taxes. It's also the last day to pay city, county and school taxes without penalty.

If you miss out on your poll tax, it'll cost you your vote in 1959.

Although it's an off-election year, voters in the area will cast ballots in several votes, including city and school trustee elections.

A Highway 84 vote also probably will come up during the year. An appraiser is working now on an estimate of right-of-way costs on the highway, and the county commissioners court expects to have petitions calling three separate bond elections in a project to widen the road to four lanes.

Voters in Littlefield also will need their poll tax receipts to cast ballots in the city charter election, which is set for Feb. 20.

Littlefield Jaycees, in an effort to speed up poll tax sales, will sell poll tax receipts in downtown Littlefield all day Saturday, starting about 10 a.m. They will set up a booth near the First National Bank.

About 3,000 poll taxes have been paid so far this year. County Tax Assessor-Collector Herbert Dunn reported Tuesday.

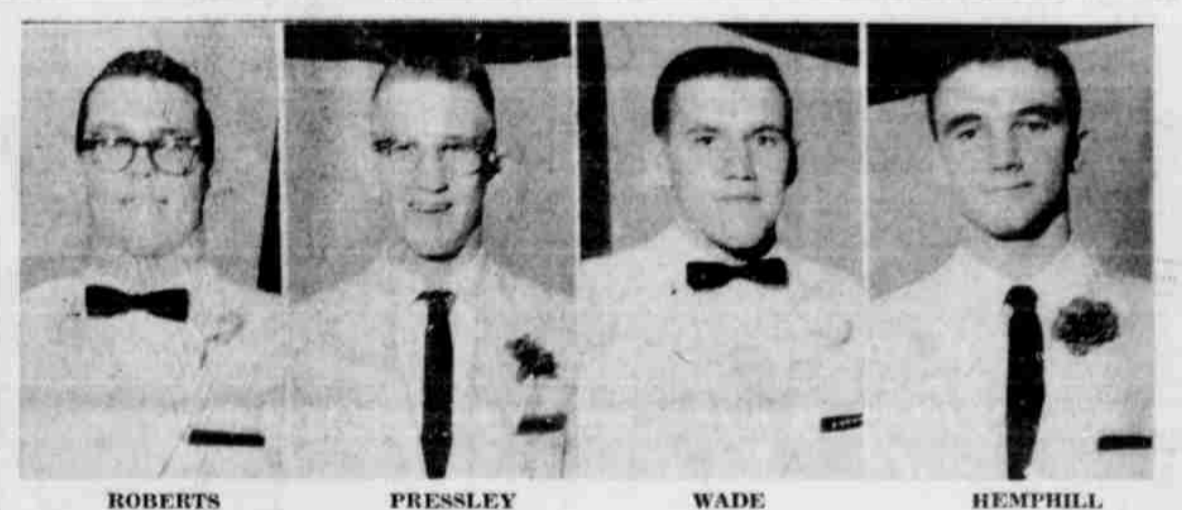

About 5,400 were sold in 1958, compared with 4,900 in 1957, he said.

Taxpayers who wait until after Jan. 31 to pay their city, county and school taxes will have to fork over extra for penalties.

It'll cost 1 1/2 per cent more on county and school taxes in February.

If taxpayers wait until February to pay city taxes, it'll cost them one per cent more.

And if they wait past February, it'll cost even more. That's the case at all three offices—city, county and school.

200 Attend Banquet Football Award Winners, Grid Sweetheart Named

Three linemen and a back received Littlefield High School's first football awards and a football queen was crowned Saturday night at the school's annual football banquet and coronation.

More than 200 persons looked on as Halfback James Pressley won the "Outstanding Back Award," End Hilton Hemphill and Peckle Bill Wade tied for "Outstanding Linemen" honors, and Center London Roberts received the "Fighting Heart Award."

At the coronation earlier in the evening, Carol Jean Naylor was crowned football sweetheart. The banquet crowd also heard Sammy Baugh, coach at Hardin-Simmons University, say that "desire and effort, not winning," are most important in football.

High school lasses played the part of southern belles as they were escorted by football team members at the coronation.

Each couple went to the stage of the school auditorium, which was decorated with a Southern Plantation theme.

The coronation was climaxed by the crowning of Miss Naylor as queen, by Pressley, her escort. Attendants were Jan Christian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Christian; Gary Crump, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crump, and Gylma Batson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Batson.

At the banquet, the four award winners received trophies from Head Coach Don Williams.

Pressley, Hemphill and Wade each were named to the all-district team as they led the Wildcats to a 5-5 season in Williams' first year as head coach. They were the team's tri-captains.

Only one outstanding lineman was scheduled to be named, but the coaches found the award a toss-up between Wade and Hemphill and awarded the honor to both of them.

Roberts was described as the Wildcat who showed the most determination and fighting spirit in winning the "Fighting Heart" (Continued on Page 6)

Close Check On Funds

This is the fifth in a series of articles discussing the 13 sections of Littlefield's proposed home rule city charter, which will be voted upon here Feb. 20.

Littlefield voters, under a proposed new charter, will have a closer check on the city's financial status through regulations set up in Article 5 of the charter, "The Budget."

The article requires that a city budget be prepared and submitted at least 90 days prior to the beginning of each budget year.

This budget will be a public record and the city council will be required to hold a public hearing on it.

Public Budget, Hearing Required In New Charter

The budget or fiscal year, as provided in the proposed charter, will be from the first day of October until the last day of September of the next calendar year.

Responsible for preparing the budget is the city manager. He must obtain from each department estimates of revenue and expenses for that department and mold these figures into a workable budget for the year.

After the budget has been prepared, the city council must publish a notice of time and place for the public hearing to be held.

At that hearing, voters may speak out for or against the estimates of any items in the budget.

A majority of the city council must approve for the budget to be adopted.

A copy of the budget must be filed with the city secretary and the State Comptroller of Public Accounts in Austin. The final (Continued on Page 6)

Work Started On Gas Line in Farwell Area By Pioneer

Construction of the final 10-mile segment of a new eight-inch natural gas transmission pipeline began Monday in the Farwell-Lariat area.

The new line, known as "Line 196," is being constructed by Aery Construction Company, Pampa, under contract with Pioneer Natural Gas Company. It will be used to complete an exchange agreement between Pioneer and El Paso Natural Gas Company.

Line 196, also known as the El Paso-Lariat-Farwell line, will connect El Paso Natural's Dimmitt compressor station to the Southern Union Gas Company transmission system near Farwell.

Southern Union will purchase the gas from El Paso Natural at this point to serve its Clovis, New Mexico, customers.

Upon completion of the new line, an exchange agreement between Pioneer and El Paso Natural will be completed, giving El Paso Natural Line 196 and Pioneer the existing Amherst-Farwell and Umberger-Farwell "triangle" transmission lines. Completion of this exchange agreement will make it possible for Pioneer to serve additional customers and provide better service in the "triangle" area of Deaf Smith, Castro, Parmer, Bailey and Lamb Counties.

Completion of the new line is scheduled for Feb. 6. Immediately after the project is finished, Pioneer will begin replacing 21 miles of existing six-inch pipe between Sudan and Muleshoe on the "triangle" line. Twelve-inch pipe will be used in the replacement project to provide for the additional capacity in the "triangle" area. Pioneer will also construct an additional five miles of 10-inch line to connect the line near Muleshoe to the Friona-South transmission line.

Neither of the contracts for these two projects has been let.

Sewer Expansion Work To Start Soon, Mayor Says

Work on a $10,000 sewer expansion project here is expected to start soon, Mayor E. J. Foust said Tuesday.

A contract on the project was awarded last Thursday to Moore Pipe Line Construction Co. of Lubbock.

Approximately 60 homes in the west Littlefield area will benefit by the project.

A 75-gallon-a-minute lift station will be installed in the alley between west 1st and 2nd streets, somewhere near the west end of the streets.

In an effort to cut costs on the project, the city will use some pipe it already has on hand. City workers were using ditch digging equipment at the city park early this week to get some excess pipe from there.

President Eisenhower is on hand when he complains programs now in effect and, in addition, in controlling either production.

Congress, when it set to tackling the sticky farm surpluses, will find it difficult in agreeing with the President on both points, however, likely to be on what should be done.

At Levelland

Former Littlefield Man Gets Unwanted Greeting

When 23-year-old Frank Fry left Littlefield three weeks ago to become manager of Levelland's Furr Food Store, he didn't expect such a "welcome."

A bandit greeted Fry with a pistol as Fry left the Levelland store about midnight Saturday, taking about $7,000 in checks and $3,000 in cash.

Fry left Littlefield in early January. He had been assistant manager of Furr's here.

The robbery occurred as Fry opened the door of his car. He was on his way to put the money in a night depository at a Levelland bank.

A masked gunman bobbed up from the rear seat of Fry's car and demanded his money sack. Fry gave it to him and then—at the bandit's order—walked away. He went to the police station and told his story.

Levelland police were still checking the case Monday.

Fry went to work for Furr's here in 1951 when he was a 16-year-old high school senior. He worked his way up to assistant manager.

He was named manager of the Levelland store three weeks ago.

Fry and W. C. Kitchens, his assistant manager, worked late the night of the robbery, along with a Negro janitor—Orel Moore. The store closed at 8 p.m.

Kitchens worked until about 9:45 p.m. The janitor left about 11 p.m., when he left to clean up the Littlefield store. He worked at the store here until about 5 a.m.

Fry walked out of the Levelland store about 11:50 p.m., after checking receipts and making his week's reports.

550-Acre Cuke Crop Set At Olton

OLTON—About 550 acres of cucumbers are expected to be planted in the Olton area next season, members of Olton's Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture were told Friday night at a general membership meeting.

Elmer Moore reported on a trip in which he and several other Olton men visited Brown-Miller Co. of Texarkana, the firm through which Olton area farmers contracted for cucumber acreage last year.

Moore described the company's facilities for processing of cucumbers.

In other activity, the C-CA discussed a general membership drive, which is now under way.

Discussion topics slated for afternoon session include parliamentary procedure, how to make money, promotion of school spirit, better relationship between students and faculty, responsibility of student council membership, eliminating popularity in elections, the all-school social, an effective student council and politics in student government.

Is Driver Education Needed And Legitimate -- Or A Frill?

Is a Driver Education course, in today's public school curriculum, a frill, or is it legitimate?

This question is frequently asked of educators, legislators, law officers, safety professional and of anyone else who may have a sound reason for his answers.

From at least two responsible quarters, Adlai E. Stevenson and Dr. Milton Eisenhower, opinions have been voiced against DE courses in public schools.

Dr. Eisenhower lumped driver education in with the so-called frill courses.

Mr. Stevenson would leave the responsibility of driver education in the hands of parents—or chance.

Frankly, one can't very well quarrel with either of these distinguished gentlemen's arguments since they are, after all, only opinions.

At the other end of this traffic seesaw are persons who are equally opinionated in their views on driver education.

One such person is President Eisenhower, whose own Point Highway Safety Action program, calls for complete driver education courses for high school students.

In Texas, state support for DE courses in public schools is being sought by the leaders of the Texas Education Agency, Congress of Parents and Teachers Association, Texas Department of Public Safety, Texas Police Association, National Safety Council, Texas Safety Association and numerous other civic and educational groups.

The "antis" argue that DE courses only clutter a curriculum in which more emphasis is needed on science and other academic teachings.

To which the "pros" ask: What good will it do to provide only scientific and academic courses if, in the face of today's increasing traffic problem, our youths make short use of their lives because of killing themselves in motorcides?

Frill-claimers point out that the expense involved in DE courses for state supported schools is too great—even at the estimated costs of $35 to $40 per pupil.

DE supporters answer that the costs are too great without the courses (the Texas Safety Association places Lone Star traffic accidents costs at near $275-million, for 1958).

"What's wrong with Stevenson's viewpoint?" asks some critics. "Why can't I teach my own children to drive?"

"That is how we got on to the horns of this traffic dilemma in the first place," is the answer. "The vast majority of parents aren't qualified to teach youngsters how to drive."

So it goes. What is the answer? Or answers? It is doubtful if anyone group knows, but this much we can see; the annual traffic toll in Texas (which 2500 or more) and throughout the nation (near 40,000) is far too great in costs and human suffering.

What's more, population increases and upward trends in car buying indicates our traffic problems will become more acute before they improve.

Too, we know that the largest percentage of traffic accidents occur in the 20-24 age group. Thus, indicating that our young people are learning to drive more by accident than by parental instructions.

Gov. Price Daniel is proffering a two-pronged, 210,000,000 plan to cure state fiscal ailments.

First prong is to raise $65,000,000 to pay off the debt expected in the general revenue fund by the end of this fiscal year. Second prong is to raise $72,800,000 a year ($146,600,000 for the next biennium) to cover spending from the general revenue fund.

Sources for this money would include: (1) a natural gas severance tax, (2) an increase in levies on motor vehicle sales, tobacco and corporation franchises and (3) unclaimed bank deposits, insurance policies and property, which the state would take over.

Gov. Daniel increased his previously recommended budget by nearly $20,000,000 to include appropriations for retiring state bonds, providing medical care for people on welfare rolls, a driver education program and advertising for tourists and industry.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas lawmakers face the old "chicken or egg" problem as they move into the session's main issue—money.

Is it best to decide first how much the state must spend to keep its various programs going and then scrape up tax money to cover them? Or should the tax take be set first and the pie sliced up accordingly?

Thus far, both problems are being juggled at the same time. Already the mathematical acrobatics are spreading jitters among spectators — both appropriation seekers and tax worriers.

Gov. Price Daniel is proffering a two-pronged, 210,000,000 plan to cure state fiscal ailments.

First prong is to raise $65,000,000 to pay off the debt expected in the general revenue fund by the end of this fiscal year. Second prong is to raise $72,800,000 a year ($146,600,000 for the next biennium) to cover spending from the general revenue fund.

Sources for this money would include: (1) a natural gas severance tax, (2) an increase in levies on motor vehicle sales, tobacco and corporation franchises and (3) unclaimed bank deposits, insurance policies and property, which the state would take over.

Gov. Daniel increased his previously recommended budget by nearly $20,000,000 to include appropriations for retiring state bonds, providing medical care for people on welfare rolls, a driver education program and advertising for tourists and industry.

"Most interesting, they suggest the need for longer class sessions, more math, science and foreign languages and more stringent grading standards and stiffer college entrance requirements."

DOWN MEMORY LANE

(Taken from files of the Lamb County Leader, Feb. 4, 1943)

Several Littlefield boy scouts will attend the annual district meeting at the Hilton Hotel in Lubbock.

T. Wade Potter has been chosen as Shrine Temple Head for Lamb County.

Mrs. Elton Hauk will attend the Grand Assembly of Rebekahs in Dallas.

On motor vehicle, tobacco and liquor sales. Net gain from the revisions would be a $11,500,000 a year gain in revenue.

Like Daniel, Seeligson recommends that the state take over unclaimed money and property.

Seeligson was vice chairman of the State Tax Study Commission that spent the between-sessions on the working tax problems.

FAIR WARNING — Gov. Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey both declared at their inaugural that they have sympathetic hearts for Texas taxpayers.

Governor Daniel proposed efficiency and economy by combining some of the 175 separate agencies and 213 special accounts operated by the state.

Ramsey promised there would be "no stringing up of the unfortunate taxpayer by the heels to shake out enough money to give everyone everything he wants."

Added Ramsey, "I refuse to admit that the success of a legislative session, or an administration, depends solely on the amount of money it can spend."

NO PAY, NO WORK—House and Senate agreed easily on an automatic shut-off of the regular session at 6 p.m. May 12, but had more difficulty deciding where to get their salary money.

House members shied from a Senate plan to take from a surplus in the fund to aid the permanently and totally disabled. (Future campaign fodder, for sure reasoned representatives.)

Instead, they proposed borrowing from the Insurance Department Building fund. Both houses agreed to tap the drivers license fund.

Adelinite adjournment resolution this early in the session is unprecedented in recent legislative history. So is a session of only 120 days, the period for which legislators can be paid.

Both are regarded as reflecting disgruntlement over the defeat of the legislative pay raise amendment last fall.

Already three new pay raise proposals have been introduced: (1) to pay $50 a day for 150 days, (2) $40 a day for 120 days, $20 a day thereafter and (3) $4,200 a year.

Present scale is $25 a day for 120 days only.

FLOOD BEGINS — Dozens of new bills—and old bills dusted off—are flowing into legislative hoppers. Already introduced or ready for introduction are measures that would:

TAX GROSS RECEIPTS of manufacturers and importers of manufactured products, by R.p. Jerry Sailer of Permilia, estimated by author to raise $400,000,000 a year.

REVISE JUVENILE LAWS to allow prosecution of youths, 16 and over, for felonies, by Reps. Joe Ed Winfree, Houston, and Ben D. Sudderth, Gustine.

GIVE REA COOPS the right for 10 years to build and operate lines in an area annexed by a city to be sponsored by Rep. Alonzo W. Jamison of Denton.

REQUIRE A TWO-THIRDS VOTE of both houses to pass a tax measure, a constitutional amendment proposed by Rep. Bill Jones, Wa'las.

Bass Participates in Parade, Review

Army Pvt. Elton K. Bass, 17, of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Bass, Rt. 1 Littlefield, recently participated at Fort Campbell, Ky., in a farewell parade and review for the commander of the 937th Engineer Group.

Bass, a clerk-typist and radio operator in the group's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in May 1958 and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. He was last stationed at Ford Ord, Calif.

Sandhills Philosopher

Drivers Can't Use Enough Gas To Pay For 8-Lane Road

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm must be a little tax-conscious, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: I was sitting by the fire the other night flipping through a magazine when I ran into an article saying the United States government is looking for inventors, and I went ahead and listed a long string of things this country needs to have invented.

Now I never save invented anything, outside of a few excuses, but I've had a lot of experiences trying to keep other people's inventions running, and what impressed me by that list was what it left out. It left out what looks like the Federal government itself ought to be the first to think of and put at the head of the list.

What this country needs, over and above all other gadgets and labor-saving devices and handier hydrogen bombs, is a new source of tax revenue.

It doesn't make any difference whether it's President Eisenhower in Washington, Governor Daniel in Austin, or the governor of any other state, including Alaska and the mayors of most cities and towns, everybody is looking for a new source of tax revenue.

Right now, everybody seems to be in a rut, and about all anybody can think of is to put a new tax on cars and gasoline. Any time any official has to wrestle with the problem of finding new revenue to balance a budget, he generally comes up with the idea of raising tax on gasoline.

This makes sense, in one way, as most people will give up nearly everything, including groceries and clothes, before they'll stop driving their car.

But I'm afraid they can go too far in this direction. Of course their argument is that we're building 30 billion dollars worth of new highways across the nation, not counting all the side roads and local highways, and the best way to pay for them is to tax users.

Well, I'll tell you, You a driver to pay for a single way, one he uses every day, ought to pay, but it's got to be mighty hard to tax a man one way for three months going in the same direction four more going in the other. The average man just doesn't have enough gasoline to pay for eight-lane highway, unless he makes cars that burn eight times as much gas, and I think working on that too.

The problem is too big, but if a man wants to go back in history two notches to Thomas Edison, Alexander Graham Bell, Robert Fulton, Wright Brothers, let him find a new source of tax revenue. I think he'd better hurry.

Yours faithfully,

is serious business, but on the lighter side. Early this morning, the laboratorian whose duty it is to examine the brain tissue for signs of rabies was interrupted and informed there was a "head" out. He was out in a hurry, but he would have forgotten if he had he known what was in store.

Two ladies were waiting for a genuine African lion's head. The lion had been brought from a cub, but lately it had been with its master and had to be put down.

There was little chance of rabies, but it pays to be sure about such cases. So the head was sent to Austin for examination. The results were negative.

Microscopists have examined the heads of skunk heads, cat heads, and even the head of a dog head and even a head a short while ago. The strangest was a deer head. It proved to be negative, but the horns be cut off. The man was convinced the deer wanted a cheap way to lose horns.

and early spring see a rise in the number of rabies in State Department laboratories. It is needed to inform the public about the means of rabies and the means of preventing outbreaks.

There were 491 laboratories of rabies plus 163 rabies cases in animals. At two years vaccine for rabies of human exposure to rabies was distributed by the Health Department.

A state law made it possible for county commissioners to enact legislation for rabies during a rabies year. These measures can be from year to year as a program to keep rabies at the lowest possible level.

Personnel from the State Department of Health are sent to counties and health jurisdictions to help them with their own rabies programs.

The battle is a year long. A let-up in any part of the program may mean an outbreak. Everyone should have their dogs and cats vaccinated if they are often outdoors.

Control is a necessary part of the program even if you get a lion's head in the house.

were made on horseback. However, his father balked at the idea of his son becoming a man of medicine.

"Doctors in those days had a hard time and he didn't want me to have any part of it," Rooks said.

Rooks spent four years as an apprentice watchmaker, then moved to Troup and opened his own shop. Even though the small town had few families living there then, the newly arrived watchmaker had plenty to do.

"In fact," Rooks said, "I had too much to catch up with and I'm still behind in my work." And that looks like the pattern for the rest of the craftsman's life.

Rooks stifled his rock-steady hands, lifted his snowy head and looked out the big plate glass window with its B. Rooks, Watchmaker" in gold letters.

The master craftsman smiled and said: "No, I'm not going to retire. I have a job with the railroad as long as I live." Then he bent his small frame back over his bench, back to his love, his life.

Diligently Pray For The Work of Your Church

This Series is Sponsored By the Business Firms and Individuals Listed On This Page. These Firms Along With the Ministers of Littlefield Hope That Each Weekly Message Will Be An Inspiration To Everyone.

THE CATHEDRAL WE LIVE IN

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	121	1-8
Monday	Psalms	139	1-24
Tuesday	Psalms	77	1-20
Wednesday	Psalms	19	1-29
Thursday	Psalms	104	1-35
Friday	Psalms	103	1-22
Saturday	I. Kings	19	9-13

Mt. Whitney in California: 14,496 feet high! Just one of the spires of the cathedral we live in.

When God made this world of ours he gave us many a glimpse of Himself. In the towering peaks we see His dignity—in the fertile plains, His providence—in the wild storms, His wrath—in the shimmering rainbow, His mercy—in the mighty falls, His strength—in the mirror lake, His peace.

But to reveal His Love—the greatest quality of God's nature—He gave us His Son, Jesus Christ . . . born in a stable . . . slain on a cross . . . risen to reign forever.

This world is the Cathedral in which men worship Him. Its altars are the churches to which the faithful throng.

Life is God's gift: To live in His Cathedral . . . and work . . . and play . . . and WORSHIP!
