COUNTY AGENT CALLS MEETINGS TO DISCUSS CORN HOG PROGRAM

Notice to Farmers

According to a communication received from the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Supervisor, K. C. Holmes, Lubbock, Texas, it has been rather difficult for the enumerators in the respective counties to make a check of every farm in Lamb County, due to the fact that so many farmers were either away from home, or were moving from one community to another, and Mr. Holmes asks all farmers who were not enumerated by the enumerators to get in touch with the Enumerator, or to write the district office.

LANDSCAPING PROJECT FOR PARKS SOUGHT

Application For Funds Is Made To State Relief Body

The city park and the park at the city hall here may be rehabilitated and landscaped within a few weeks, if plans pushed by Mayor L. R. Crockett, City Secretary W. G. Street and School Board Secretary Carl Arnold work out.

The three city officials returned from Amherst late Wednesday with word that Franklin Lloyd, county relief administrator, would bring an application for relief funds to Littlefield today (Thursday) for signing and forwarding to relief headquarters at Austin.

Should funds materialize, the Littlefield officers said, not only the two parks, but city streets as well, would benefit from a beautification program before long. A treeplanting and landscaping project is sought.

County Hopes to Share In Federal Public Works Program

O. R. Walker, one of six Lubbock men who attended the state-wide public works educational meeting at Fort Worth last week, will help Lamb County people work out a survey of projects upon which they might get federal help at a county-wide meeting in the city hall tonight, (Thursday) at 8 o'clock.

School board members, city and county commissioners, and members of every county political subdivision have been invited to attend the session called for the purpose of making the survey. The meeting is open to everyone.

Results of the survey will be given Walker in the form of a preliminary application for possible loans and grants under the four billion dollar Roosevelt public works program now hanging fire at Washington.

Officials will put their heads together in an effort to determine what the county most needs in the way of public construction, and to find out what projects would be eligible for use in basing the preliminary application.

Itinerant Store Bill Introduced In Senate By Duggan Monday

AUSTIN, Feb. 5. (Special to Leader). — Legislative bulwarks against itinerant and irresponsible merchants who prey on Texas cities during busy seasons were sought in the Senate this week.

Protection of legitimate home merchants and provisions for issuing of State and local vendor's licenses are continued in measures of a bill sponsored by A. P. Duggan of the 30th Senatorial District.

Wandering retailers, setting up temporary business establishments in towns, must, according to the terms of act, deposit $500.00 with the secretary of State, this to constitute a special deposit subject to attachment by creditors. A state license fee of $25.00 will be required for operation of the store for one month. Municipalities may, also, by proper ordinance, fix a license for itinerant merchants. If the merchant operates the store for a longer period than six months, he will not thereafter be required to pay the license fees.

Provisions of the bill do not apply to bona fide residents of a county engaged in business in that county nor to commercial travelers for wholesale houses.

Another bill proposed by Senator Duggan this week would place collection of all occupational taxes under control of the State Comptroller of Public Accounts. It is believed the revenue of the State would be increased one half million dollars by this move.

The Comptroller's report now shows a $200,000 loss in occupational taxes through local collection.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parker of Plainview spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyman.

FIRST CALICHE IS LAID ON HIWAY 7 SURFACING WORK

Over Forty Men Are Busy Setting A Base For 17-Mile Strip

The first crushed caliche used as a base for the 17-mile surface strip begun on Highway 7 through Littlefield was poured into forms Monday at the county's eastern edge, according to highway and contracting officials.

About 4,800 feet of the forms had been set up to Tuesday and a section of about 200 feet had been laid. Water treatment will be started next week. Asphalt surface treatment will not be begun until the 17-mile strip is completely based with the caliche, officials said.

About 45 men, working in one shift are employed on the job at present but nearly 100 men working in two shifts will be at work after the project gets fully underway, it was announced.

Littlefield Schools to Enter State-Wide Singing Bee

FEDERAL OFFICER IS SLAIN

POST, Feb. 7. (Special to Leader). — Spencer Stafford, Fort Worth, treasury department narcotics division agent, was killed here late this morning. Sheriff W. F. Cato is alleged to have fired the shot. An inquest was scheduled to be held this afternoon. Sheriff Cato declined to make a statement. County Attorney H. G. Smith said: "Cato said he fired in self defense." Stafford and V. C. McCullough, Dallas agent, were here investigating drug traffic at time of shooting. Cause for the shooting was undetermined early this afternoon, officials stated.

Husky little voices under the guidance of instructors Evelyn Garlington and Morgan Layfield, are daily raised in the old songs in the Littlefield schools in anticipation of the gigantic singing bee to be held at the Centennial in Dallas in 1936. Such songs as "America", "Beautiful Texas" and "Home on the Range" are examples of the types to be sung when several thousand school children from the 22 supervisory districts over the state gather in the Centennial city for the biggest singing bee.

We Do Our Part

AN IDEAL GOVERNMENT

If we were asked to depict an ideal organization, we would say, offhand, that it would be one under which any able-bodied, intelligent man or woman could always find work at wages sufficient to provide for the necessities of life and lay aside something for old age, and after forty years of work be able to retire on his or her savings.

We think that a government which concentrated on those objectives and on nothing else would come pretty near to being an ideal government. Its corollary functions might well include provision for the security of the thrifty individual's savings, and regulation of terms and conditions of employment as would at least not impair the worker's chance of living to enjoy the fruits of a life's work, and would protect him on the one hand against unfair competition by the workers of any foreign nation in which a lower standard of living prevails, and on the other hand against exploitation by unprincipled employers.

Such an ideal Government would protect every man in his right to keep what he has earned, and as an essential part of that protection, would be administered as economically as possible, in order that the burden of taxation might rest as lightly and as equitably as possible upon all its citizens.

This ideal Government would make it its first concern that every child had an opportunity to obtain the best education of which it was capable. If, in spite of that education, it persisted in making a fool of itself as it grew up, we do not believe that is any part of any Government's concern.

That is not to say that Government should permit the swindler to roam unchecked; it should not tolerate impositions of any kind upon the ignorant and the unwary. But we do not conceive it part of Government's business to recompense the victims of their own foolishness and extravagance.

The ideal Government would neither pamper its criminals nor allow such social conditions to exist as tend to make crimes against the body politic alluring to the young. It would be a Government of few laws, and those restrictive upon individual liberty only as the exercise of that liberty infringes upon the liberties of others. It would be adequately policed and its laws would be rigidly enforced.

We do not expect ever to see such a Government, either in the United States nor anywhere else. We believe that what we have set down represents in large measure what our Government is striving for. We think that there are too many people who want Government to do a great deal more than the simple essentials which we have outlined, and that progress toward economic recovery is being hampered by too many lawyers and uplifters having a finger in the pie.

Sixty Percent State and County Taxes Reported to be Paid

Roy Gilbert, Tax Assessor and Collector has announced that about 60 percent of the 1934 county and State taxes were paid before February 1, when a penalty is added.

The Tax Assessor and Collector also stated he was very appreciative for the response people had made in payment of their taxes.

Construction Plan Presented to Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5. — A $50,700,000 construction program of roads, streets and grade-separations for Texas has been presented to the finance committee of the United States Senate by highway advocates as a sound way to employ part of the huge federal public works fund. Col. Ike Ashburn of Houston, manager of the Texas Good Roads Association, said today.

The Texas program is part of a nationwide plan worked out by road leaders from many states. They listed for the committee 23,192 specific projects, to cost $1,700,000,000 which the various state highway departments can initiate immediately or within the year.

There are 975 projects on the Texas list, Colonel Ashburn said including 75 underpasses or overpasses, 26 eliminations of dangerous highway intersections, 650 federal aid or secondary roads, and 200 within cities or towns. Colonel Ashburn urged all influential Texans who favor the plan to so advise their senators and representatives in Washington.

"This program meets all the President's policy demands for public works," the Texan said. "These are useful and permanent improvements, with more than 80 percent of the money going to wages. The projects are efficiently planned. They do not compete with private enterprise, and they add to the economic resources and stability of the nation."

"This seems to be the only definite and detailed plan advanced thus far by any agency for unemployment relief under the terms of the present bill."

Aside from their revenue-producing power and enhancement of community values, highways gave more employment last year, dollar for dollar, than any other type of public work, employing some 1,000,000 men, Colonel Ashburn said. Texas needs highways for her Centennial in 1936, he added.

SYNOPSIS . . . Ellen Church, 17, years old, finds herself alone in the world with her artist mother's last warning ringing in her ears, to love lightly. Of the world she knew little. All her life she had lived alone with her mother in an old brown house in a small community. All her life, first as a new baby, then a bubbling child, then a charming young girl . . . she had posed for her talented mother who sold her magazine cover painting through an art agent in the city . . . Mrs. Church's broken life . . . the unfaithful husband, his disappearance . . . and after seventeen years of silence announcement of his death was at last disclosed to Ellen. The news of the husband's death killed Mrs. Church. . . . Ellen, alone, turned to the only contact she knew, the art agent in New York. Posing years of posing, was her only talent so she was introduced to two leading artists. Dick Alven and Sandy Macintosh. Both used her as a model and both fell in love with her . . . but Ellen, trying to follow the warped philosophy of her mother to "love lightly", resists the thought of love. Her circle of friends is small, artists and two or three girl models. Ellen attends a ball with Sandy. While dancing a tall young man claimed her and romance is born. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

meet him, could hardly hold back her arms. They seemed to be on springs—on springs that dragged them forward, toward him. Ellen—she wasn't looking quite so vivid herself, as she had in the brief costume of a page boy. Her hair was parted demurely in the middle, and she wasn't made up. She wore a plain little dress of navy blue crepe, with white linen collar and cuffs, and small, strapped black slippers. She was like a school girl in appearance. "Well?" she asked.

The red rushed up under the brown of the boy's cheeks, but he managed to speak just as nonchalantly as she had. "Very well indeed!" he answered. "Oh, very—"

And then, without quite knowing how they got there, they were in each other's arms, and he was kissing her

Without quite knowing how they got there they were in each other's arms.

"But now," said Ellen, "you'd better take me home. And then you'd better go home yourself, and go to bed and get some sleep. And when you wake up, have black coffee—lots of it. I'm not saying have coffee," she endeavored to laugh, "because I think you need it, because I think you've been drinking, or anything. You said you hadn't, and I believe you. And—" It was such a long speech, Ellen wished that she might give up the effort, that she might just stop talking and let her head lie back on the broad shoulder beneath the Pierrat suit. "And, after you've had your coffee, sit back and go over the facts in the case. And if you still feel the same way about marrying me, by noon tomorrow, come around and we'll get down to cases. My name? It's Ellen Church. I've been forgetting that you didn't know who I was either. You'll find that name below a bell at this—" she gave him a street number, "address. And if, after the sleep and coffee and the thinking, you still want to go on . . . Well, a marriage license can be had they tell me, up to four! If we should happen to get together tomorrow perhaps I'll let you buy me one. But if you, she was able, by gritting her teeth, to make her voice seem casual, "if you don't show up, I'll know you're completely normal again; I'll probably be that way, myself. No," all at once she was shivering violently, "don't kiss me—not now. Don't you dare to kiss me! If you come tomorrow, there may be years of kissing ahead of us. . . . If you don't come, we'll have one less moment to forget."

Her heart said, "Oh, God, don't let him stay away." It said, also, in swift panic, "Don't let him come. I can't pretend with him much longer. And if he comes, I'll never be able to do anything else but pretend!"

The taxi turned sharply through the dawn, and made for the nearest park exit.

Tony came the next day, slightly before noon, looking a trifle older than he had in his touselled Pierrat roustome. Seeming less sun-browned, less sure of himself, but somehow more dear than ever—indefinitely more dear! Ellen, starting forward to

My father died just two months before my mother went away, and when she followed him (and say what you will it was heartbreak, for she hadn't been ill,) she was calling—"the boy's voice shook, "calling his name. I believe in that kind of marriage, myself." Ellen's eyes were staring far away. "My mother loved my father until they both died," said Ellen. "And that," her imitation of Claire's shrug was piteous, "and that's why I don't believe in that kind of marriage. I want to get what I can out of life—I want to squeeze life dry, like a sponge. If you marry me, it will have to be on those terms. You're not to expect too much from me. Not too much love, or too much gentleness, or too much loyalty. I'll try not to do anything to put any sort of a blot on your name—you can pretty well count on me there, because I'm not the type! But I shall continue to have my own friends, and to go out with them. And I'll keep on with my work, if I find I'm not busy enough running my marriage. I'll—"

One of the first things she had noticed about Tony was the strength of his jaw line. It widened out now, in an odd manner. It became blunt. "What," said Tony, "if I make a few remarks and stipulations? As long as this seems to be a mutual contract we're drawing up! What if I say that I'll have as many women friends in my life, as you have men? What if I say that I'll find my excitement elsewhere, if you don't keep my home peppy enough? What if I say I don't care about the blots that I put on the family name, as long as wearing the family name can be held so cheaply by my wife? What if I say I thoroughly agree with your theories? That what you've said can go—double!"

Ellen's hand were folded in her lap. They looked like calm little fingers, but in reality the nails of them were biting into her pink palms. Tony—oh, he mustn't go about with other women! Not when he was her husband. She—reversing a single standard to fit her own quaint measure —could be less fastidious. Because she knew that other men wouldn't ever matter to her. But how could she be sure that some other girl wouldn't matter to Tony? She started to speak, changed her mind, and said something entirely different from that she had intended to say. "At that, our marriage should work out better, she said, "than most marriages. It's built on a perfectly honest fifty-fifty, cards-on-the-table basis." Some of the bouyancy seemed to have gone out of the heir to the Brander millions. Only his doggedness, the strong line of his chin, was left.

"It'll work out all right!" he told Ellen. "Say when!" Oh, the throbbing of the heart in Ellen's breast! Oh, the persistent beat in her temples. . . .

"Why," she said, and her voice sounded like a stranger's voice, even in her own ears, "why the sooner the better! It's just after twelve, now. Maybe, if we took a taxi, we could catch us a license right off, and be married, and have a bite of luncheon together, before three. At three o'clock I have a date to pose for Dick Alven, in his studio. He's doing a mural . . ." She broke off before the torrent of Tony's words.

"Do you mean to tell me," he was shouting, "that you'd go off, right after the ceremony, and pose for some artist? Do you mean to tell me you'd leave your husband to go to another man, so that he can paint you into a dirty little Indian picture?" Ellen was interrupting.

"Long after our marriage is over, Tony," she said hotly, "long after we've stopped being, Dick's mural will go on, giving beauty and finesse to people. It's not a dirty little Indian picture. Tony—Dick is a great artist."

"Great artist be hanged," grated Tony. "I bet he's in love with you, the—"

Ellen's face was burning. "If it's going to be like this she said, when we've known each other less than a day—well, then, I guess we'd better call it off the whole business."

But, suddenly, she was in Tony's arms again, and his mouth was against her mouth. And the whole earth whirled dizzily about them.

And then with her hand tight in Tony's, and a blue, small hat clamped down over her ears, and a white, strained smile on her lips, Ellen was being whirled away—toward lower New York and the marriage license bureau.

Only they weren't going in a taxi. Tony was driving a scarlet Rolls-Royce roadster with a special body and a mean way of nosing through traffic.

The document which gave two young people the right to join their lives together was properly authenticated. It was witnessed and sealed. And then the man behind the bars was speaking.

"Want to be married here, now? he questioned. The clerk can do the job—"

Ellen had a desire—a keen desire—to scream. No, she didn't want to be married in this dark, dusty room. Not to Tony—to Tony whom she loved—to Tony who would be her husband.

But Tony, with a blush creeping down until it covered his firm, tanned neck was stammering out something.

"No," he was saying. "Not here. I want to be married in a church. Only married once, y'know."

The man who had sealed the papers said something, here, about being an optimist.

"As for that," Tony added, as if he were speaking in his own defense, "we haven't a ring yet!"

Ellen, glancing swiftly down at her slim, ringless hands, was flushing, too. Why, she had quite forgotten about a ring! Of course, they'd have to buy one, wasn't it all a part of the marriage service?

"With this ring—" something like that?

Her embarrassment made her forget to be dishonest. "I want to be married in a church, too," she told the man behind the bars, and the man laughed at her vehemence.

It was only when Tony had slid into the driver's seat of his car, and slipped in the clutch, that he sighed and spoke.

"Thank God, that's over!" he said. Ellen sighed, too.

"The first hundred licenses are the hardest!" she told him, but he ignored her flippancy. Instead, guiding the car deftly through the traffic, he reached down and briefly patted her hand.

"Such little baby fingers," he said. "Wonder if we'll find a ring small enough to do any good?"

They did find the ring. All the way up in the Fifties. A slim little circlet of sapphires ("because they're more like you, believe it or not, then diamonds!"). And a great single sapphire on a gossamer hoop of platinum.

"Your engagement ring?" Tony remarked.

"We're on our way," Tony said, as they paused in the heavy early afternoon traffic on the avenue, "to the Little Church Around the Corner. It's a bromide, I suppose, to be married there. But I've always liked its green handkerchief of a lawn and its green shrubs—" Steadily, to keep the panic from rising from submerging her like a sea. Ellen turned her eyes from Tony's face. Somehow, when her eyes were on his face, she couldn't see, or think, clearly.

The car turned, sharply, into the side street. And there stood the Church about which so many legends have been built, the Little Church set friendly-wise in its green oasis of lawn.

Farm Problems, "Floating Stores," PWA And Trades Day Discussed by C. of C.

In the absence of the President, A. R. Hendricks, who was out of town, and J. S. Hilliard, vice-president, who was ill, Dr. Ira Woods presided at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Tuesday.

County Agent D. A. Adam of Amherst was a visitor. He was accompanied by Dr. C. P. Brady District Supervisor of Animal Husbandry, in charge of T. B. Test work in Lamb and Bailey counties.

Agreements Being Signed
Mr. Adam reported the reorganization of the farm and cotton associations, stating they were starting to sign up cotton agreements. He announced that any man who did not sign cotton reduction or corn-hog agreements last year were permitted to enter into contracts this year. He stated there were 794 Lamb County farmers who did not sign last year. Mr. Adam reported they would start signing up the corn-hog agreements next week, and that this would be handled by the local committees similar to last year.

Rehabilitation Discussed
Rural rehabilitation was also discussed by Mr. Adam, who stated it was the duty of each community to appoint local committees, for the purpose of assisting the farmers how to plan projects. Frank Lehman, W. H. Rutledge and John I. Bowling is the general committee. Mr. Adams stated a Rehabilitation expert would be in attendance at Farm meeting here Thursday or Friday next, who would address the farmers on this subject.

Reports on "Floating Store" Bill
G. M. Shaw reported on the progress made in the effort of the local committee to secure legislature towards placing special taxation on merchants who establish a business for a short time, particularly in the fall of the year, and then discontinue just prior to paying taxes on January 1. He stated he took the matter of "Floating Stores" up with the merchants of Levelland, and with the Chamber of Commerce of Brownfield, who are planning to start work at once. The Brownfield group appointed a committee, with whom they have invited the local committee to meet.

Letter From Senator Duggan
The receipt of a letter from Senator Arthur A. Duggan, in regard to such legislature was reported by Mr. Shaw.

This letter reads as follows: "Answering your letter of the 31st, will state that if the merchants desire to organize have the merchants all over the state write their senators and representatives regarding the Itinerant Merchants Bill. It will be helpful. Legislators like to hear from the home folks."

"The secretary of the State Retail Merchants Association was in to see me yesterday about this bill and tells me that they will send a bulletin to each one of their members urging them to get behind it. That, of course will help very much. I would hesitate to ask you to go to the expense of having a committee come down here when the bill comes up before the State Affairs Committee. I believe I can get a favorable committee report on the bill, but Senator DeBerry is going to fight it to the death on the floor of the Senate. Our Tax Program Committee is solidly behind the measure, however, and I have hopes of being able to get it passed."

"Be sure and write your representative, Mr. Doyle Settle, about this measure and ask him to see me."

"Assuring you of my interest and desire to serve not only the merchants but all the people is my desire I remain,

Sincerely yours,
ARTHUR P. DUGGAN
State Senator

School Board, City Co-operates
Mr. Shaw also reported that the local committee had met with the Littlefield School Board, who voted unanimously to co-operate, stating the Board would mail a summary of the proposed bill to all school boards in West Texas. He also reported that the City Commission were also mailing likewise material to all City Commissions and County Seat towns west of Fort Worth.

Mr. Shaw stated he with other members of the committee planned on going to Amarillo and Plainview this week, and interview the Boards of Development in these cities for the purpose of interesting them in the movement.

Trades Day Discussed
A Trades Day for Littlefield was also discussed, and the suggestion was made that a mass meeting of all merchants be called to make plans for such a day. He reported that the local merchants had as good a dollar day Monday as any first Monday last fall, and believed with co-operation of all the business establishments, the Trades Day would be an outstanding success here.

PWA Appropriations
Dr. Woods brought up the subject of PWA appropriations for public works in this section, and that according to figures furnished Lamb County would be entitled to from half to a million dollars federal fund for work such as building public building recreational centers, swimming pools, paving, etc., and that application on any such projects must be in by February 11th. The purpose of the PWA funds is to furnish work relief, as a substitution for direct relief.

Dr. Woods stated O. R. Walker, Architect, who has had considerable experience in the planning of such projects, had promised to attend a meeting here in the city hall Tuesday night to assist the local committee in the securing of such projects.

Gymnasium Needed Here
Rev. H. C. Travis addressed the meeting bringing out the need of public gymnasium, or recreation center, where the scouts and other athletic groups might meet.

Doc Jackson of Levelland arrived Sunday to spend the week in the Seely home. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Seely.

EIGHT TEAMS TENSE AS TOURNEY DRAWS NIGH

SPORT WORLD

By BILL NORRIS

This week brings three important happenings. Monday, "All clews point to nobody but Hauptmann," declared State Police Chief Schwarzkopf; Monday, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh was 33 years old; and Thursday, eight Lamb County cage teams tightened their belts and prepared to blast each other off the Sudan floor when the county tournament opens on the weekend.

While bluntly picking a favorite would not be our idea of the thing to do, we can't help but feel that the four teams which thus far cast the heavier shadows on the trophy screen are Spade, Olton, Littlefield and Sudan, in the order named.

Olton has G. Slack, Hair and Richards, Spade has Stevens (a likely lad) and Fowler, Sudan will have a slight edge on their own floor in early rounds, and Littlefield has McGavock, Yantis, Pierce, Dunlap, McKnight, and Hall. The Wildcats, while not so hot in recent tourneys, have picked up remarkably in the past two weeks. The home lads have plenty on the ball, and plenty on the bench if needed.

Coach A. C. Bishop, pilot of the Whitharral cagers who won their own trophy at the recent Whitharral tourney, dropped in to exchange a few passing remarks with us Sunday night.

Flushed with victory, Mentor Bishop spoke highly of the Wildcats and Kitties and other South Plains teams which co-operated in making the tourney, played on the splendid new Whitharral floor, a remarkable success. The clean cut Whitharral coach also complimented Cagemaster Barksdale and Mrs. D. D. Webster, Lubbock, for their smooth impartiality in calling final games. Good luck on your new floor, Coach Bishop!

Fortunate, indeed, is the youngster who, at about the tender age of four or five begins hammering on the furniture with a pair of sticks, or beating his tiny fists against the piano keyboard 'til it sounds tin-panny, or trying to whistle a tune out of Pop's old $800 Strad with a hack saw. For this lucky lad is trying to tell Mothers and Dads that he has music in his little soul. And, if properly followed up, he may be another Sousa, or Kreisler, or maybe even a Teagarden.

Give the kid a chance. A. B. Taylor's newly organized Junior Band is the place for him. As quickly as he starts in school, buy him an instrument and let Maestro Taylor get hold of him. From this apprenticeship, he will graduate smoothly into A. B.'s regular band, and by the time he finishes school will have a solid foundation upon which to go ahead in case he so desires. The expense, you ask? Nothing but the original cost of an instrument. Instruction is free, and the upkeep is practically nil. Gives these insistent little hands a chance—for someday, they may develop into big capable hands destined by nature to make music history.

KITTIES, HOST ARE FIRST AT WHITHARRAL; CATS WIN FROM LEVELLAND B BUT LOSE OUT

Littlefield's Kitties continued their season's victory march by trimming the Anton ladies, 40-11, to emerge on top of the Whitharral invitation heap Saturday night. Whitharral was tops in the boys division with a 22-19 win over Spade in the finals.

Coach Barksdale's Wildcats, after using mostly their second string to humble the Levelland B five, 38-26 in the opener, were eliminated by Whitharral, 20-10, in the second round. Levelland's B boys and Whitharral's girls were consolation winners.

Opal Carpenter, forward, and Madean Kimmel, guard, both of Littlefield won coveted berths on the all-tournament sextet. Other all-tourney girls were Lorene Newsom of Whitharral and Essie Webb of Anton, forwards, and Alta Jackson of Anton and Brown of Claene, guards. Webb's 19 free throws, 12 of which came in one game, won her a pennant.

Capt. Oma Carpenter of the Kitties was second to Lil Rutherford of Pettit in competition for the field goal pennant. Rutherford's 37 points got the nod over Carpenter's 36.

The boys all-tourney five included Stephenson of Anton and A. J. Geron of Whitharral, forwards; Stevens of Spade, center; B. Dowden of Whitharral and Fowler of Spade, guards.

Roe Tipton of Whitharral won the boys free throw pennant with 9 successful tries. A. J. Geron's 37 points gave him the goal pennant over Stephenson of Anton who made 36 tourney points.

A Dallas man who hadn't been able to speak a word in six years finished playing a tune on his harmonica, turned to his friends and inquired, "How'm I doing?" At last, a use for the harmonica.

POME
Of all diversions that I know,
Indoor hunting packs more woe,
And sorrow,—yet, alas! alack!
I'd like to get the money back
I've sunk in playing these machines
Which tax me far beyond my means. It's awful.

When I'm feeling pretty pleasant,
Cause I lack just one more pheasant,
The payoff looms, I'm set to grab
it,
Then up jumps a lousy rabbit!
And, if all I need's a quail,
I miss—and that's what makes me
wail, S'unlawful.

Encore
But what a thrill when I push down
The payoff lever. What a sound,
When twelve big nickels fall and ring.
It surely takes away the sting
Of having clumped my last two bit
Pieces on twelve misses—and one hit.

Wildcats In Thrilling 17-15 Victory Over Teacher Cagesters

Sweeping from behind in the final two minutes, the Wildcats apparently found their apples Monday night when they nipped the Cundiff-managed Faculty five, 17-15, to continue their hold on the League ladder's top rung. Fans saw some of the saltiest floorwork of the season thus far.

Two points behind in the final two minutes, Pierce, Cat guard guard took a quick pass and scored with one hand from in front to pull into a tie. A little later, J. Walker, sub forward, dribbled in for the crisp shot which settled the issue just 15 seconds before the final whistle. Score at the quarter, 5-4 for the Faculty and at the half 7-7.

McGavock, slender Cat forward, shot two goals and a free try. Wildcats Foust and Pierce picked up four and three points, while Yantis and J. Walker each were once successful. Dunlap sank a charity try.

Hanes' five Teacher goals topped the evening's efforts. Hobbs cupped two penalty shots. Thaxton, Jeffries and Bryant each eked out a free throw. Teacher Layfield was defensively excellent. Lyman, while on the floor only a few minutes, played good ball. Hall, big Cat center, got his share of the tipoffs against Thaxton.

Morton Organizes Basketball League

The Medal Basketball League of Morton got underway in the Cochran County city Tuesday night. Morton high school cagers and five independent teams were charter entrants in the league which is open to any other team in the district which desires to enter.

Games will be played each Tuesday, Friday and Saturday nights during the schedule three-to-six weeks season. An executive committee composed of Pat Colman, Cecil Barker and others will supervise eligibility rules. Miniature gold basketballs will be awarded members of the winning teams at the seasons close.

Morton Maidens Win Pettit Cage Tourney

Morton's Black and Gold Maidens were winners of the top trophy at the Pettit girls invitation tourney, Jan. 26 by whipping the Pettit lassies, 29 to 21, in the final contest. Richland won the consolation playoff, defeating Cobleland, 16-6.

Morton battled her way to the finals by downing Midway, N. M., in the opener, and handing the powerful Anton Ladies a 34-21 defeat. Reba Hill, Thelma Jones and Anna Faye Miller were outstanding for the Morton six during the tourney.

Sunnydale Spurt Fails As Firemen Come Out On Top In 29-24 Game

Sunnydale's powerful last half spurt by the Fishers, Joe and Jack fell short and the Firemen took Tuesday night's first affair, fast and full of personals, 29 to 24.

Troy Howton, with his free throw eye working overtime, accounted for seven Firemen charity tosses and three baskets to emerge high for the evening. Joe Fisher's nine points, all in a brilliant last-half drive, stalemated a like number gathered in by forward Woody of the Fire Crew.

Jack Fisher, Dale, tipoff, was good for eight points, while Aldridge, stocky Smoky center, managed for six. J. Claunch, traveling Dale guard picked up one goal and a free shot while Leroy Fisher made a penalty toss good. Swanner, Smoky guard, sank a free shot.

Alguire played heady defensive ball, as did Scott, for the Firemen. Cape and Jonton saw plenty of Dale action.

When the opening whistle blows Friday afternoon at 4:30, Fieldton and Spring Lake cage fives will unleash their basketball thunderbolts on the Sudan Hi court in the first game of the first round of Lamb County's annual tournament, while six other county teams and a probable wealth of fans will look on wondering if Spring Lake can repeat its recent victory in the face of tourney competition.

An hour later, speedy Sudan and Olton quintets will lock horns in the second match. Sudan's "home floor" edge will be offset by Olton's slightly better record, which should make this one of the most questionable games of the first pairings.

At 8 p. m., Coach Barksdale's Wildcats and the husky Hart Camp five will engage in the third tilt. While the Cats are slightly favored, Hart Camp will come out fighting, realizing that a win over the tough Littlefield boys would make succeeding games seem a little easier.

Amherst and Spade will round out the evening's entertainment at 9 o'clock. While Amherst has dropped games to Spring Lake and Olton, a win over Spade would mean the elimination of what is thought to be one of the two fastest teams in the county.

Winners of the Fieldton-Spring Lake and Olton-Sudan games will play a semi-final game at 8 p. m. Saturday. Winners of the Littlefield-Hart Camp and Amherst-Spade games will meet in the other semi-final at 9 p. m. Saturday. Victors in these semi-final games will engage in a two-out-of-three series possible all games on the Sudan court, but likely one game on each team's home court, and the third game, if needed, on some agreed-upon floor.

Mr. Matthews of Anton will call all tourney games. Proceeds will go toward defraying Lamb County Interscholastic League meet expenses at Olton March 29 and 30. Admission to the games will be 10 and 20 cents.

Fans Nervous As Ex Five Noses Teachers In 21-20 Go Tuesday

Galleryites gripped their seats during Tuesday's final tilt when the Ex-Students barely edged out the Faculty, 21-20, in one of the League season's best entertainments to date.

Well scattered scoring found Teacher Hobbs, playing a sound traveling defensive game, at the top of the heap with eight points. Edwards, fast Ex forward, annexed five points while three of his mates, B. Howton, McCurry and Stevens each dropped two baskets into the netting. Duffey and Dorman found the hoop one time apiece.

Hanes, old steady Faculty goaster was good for three points, as was lanky Thaxton, center. Stansell and Jeffries each managed a brace of units while Layfield, speedy guard, was good for a free toss. Bryant picked up a point. Pass was smooth during his short stay on the floor.

The Yeager boys, G. and B. passed plenty and were defensively close. Jones worked hard on the Ex offense.

Hockley County Cage Tournament Will Get Under Way Tomorrow

Hockley County's annual basketball tourney will get underway at Levelland Friday and Saturday with A and B teams in the boys division competing. Girls division will be conducted the following Friday and Saturday. Twelve awards, including first second and third prizes in both classes, will be made.

MOTHER!

don't experiment with your Child's Cold

VICKS VAPORUB

Often, "mere colds" have serious consequences. It is dangerous to neglect a cold—equally dangerous to experiment with half-way measures. Feel safe! Use Vicks VapoRub—the proved external method of treating colds. No risks of constant internal "dosing", which so often upsets delicate digestions and lowers resistance when most needed.

DOUBLE DIRECT ACTION

Just rubbed on at bedtime, VapoRub fights a cold direct—two ways at once—by stimulation and inhalation. This combined poultice-vapor action loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion. Often by morning the worst of the cold is over.

PRESS CLUB BROADCASTS ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

IN MEMORY

In memory of our dear Jimmie, A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is still, A place made vacant in our home, Which never can be filled, Those footsteps we loved to hear coming.

That dear voice we loved to hear, That smiling little face we loved to see, Is all so silent and lone, Just how we miss our darling Jimmie No tongue can ever tell, No pen can ever write, But it would not be our saviour's will.

For us to call our Jimmie back again, He has gone through the golden gates To our beautiful home above, Where his troubles and his sorrow never begins.

He is now a little angel, In our heavenly home.

DRAMATIC CLUB ENJOYS PROGRAM

After the program, Strauss Atkinson's group number three started working on their program for next Tuesday, February 5, 1935.

Grammar School Playground Ball

The Grammar School boys' and girls' teams from Spade were visitors to the teams at Littlefield Friday afternoon. The Littlefield girls' squad consists of 25 girls who are working to make a strong team for Littlefield. All these girls participated in the game with this beginning line-up:

Eloise Sharpe, Catcher; Mollie Carter, Pitcher; Pauline James, First Base; Minnie Lee Wallace, Short Stop; Lorene Allen, Second Base; Norene Allen, Short Stop; Geneva Bostick, Third Base; Christine Carpenter, Left Field; Ruby Hassler, Centerfield; Ruth Legg, Right Field. Minnie Lee Wallace, Eloise Sharp, and Lorene Allen ran in three scores each for Littlefield and Nova Wood, Gale Etter, Norene Allen, Mollie Carter, Ruby Hassler and Geneva Bostick ran in two scores each.

Home runs were made by Lorene Allen, bringing in four scores, Christine Carpenter, bringing in three scores and Mollie Carter bringing in two scores.

With Carpenter in field and Allen on second all flies were handled well and Allen between second and third bases had most ground balls in control.

Spade played a good game and showed good sportsmanship through out the game which made them winners even though they lost 19-27.

BOYS'

Littlefield vs. Spade in Playground Ball

Spade 15 — Littlefield 9. The players for Littlefield were C. Glover, pitcher; Bishop, firstbase; Boone, first short stop; Blessing second base; McCarty, second short stop; Bradley third base; McKnight, right field; J. Holder, center field; Lamb, left field; Melton, substitutes were McNeil, Walraven, Yeats, Smith.

The Littlefield boys made a 9 inning rally to save 6 scores but the lads from Spade put a stop to it before it became dangerous.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF HIGH SCHOOL

Students of Littlefield High School have been pushing forward for several years. The strongest argument that can be offered for this is the great progress which is visible. "The L. H. S. Band," "The Blee Club," "The Press Club," "The F. F. A.," "The Dramatic Club" and the other clubs which measure the student under direction of the many. The present body is evidently a step toward another goal, that of self-government. The question has been asked, "Why don't we have student self-government?" The answer is a question presents itself, "Are we ready?"

It is my firm belief that and must be better prepared present. We have not yet reached that degree of self-control and behavior that is necessary for student self-government. This is evident by visible and behavior of the student which makes its appearance.

Perhaps one of the first steps in the direction of student self-government is our ability to study without made to do so. Is a teacher in the study hall? I feel every thoughtful student will answer in the affirmative. Then we are ready and prepared for self-government?

LAMB COUNTY WILL NEED MORE HOGS
By R. LEE GIBSON

Lamb County, the richest agricultural county in Texas, is soon to face a shortage of breeding hogs and probably will face a shortage of new hogs next winter. No farm should be without one or two hogs. The hog will eat, grow and make gains on more kinds of feed than any other animal. He will make the most efficient use of his feed than any other meat animal. There are very few farms but what can and should produce enough pork for their own table. Good hams, sausage and bacon is the best food to lean back against in the winter time. Hogs are needed to eat chicken scraps and by products from other livestock. Hogs and cows are good partners. The hog provides marketable products at any time of the year. Better hogs are needed in Lamb County, and better care should be given them. At present, survey shows that it takes 12 pounds of grain to make one pound of pork in this section. Around 6 pounds should be the average for this.

When we feed our hogs, we also feed millions of lice and worms, which absorb the nutritive value from the feed and starve the hogs.

SWEET CLOVER
By JIMMIE WEEDLE

Sweet clover has several names, such as Bokhara Clover, Melilotis Clover, Siberian Clover, Bee Clover, Honey Clover, and Galy-Gumbles Clover. It is called Melilotis in the South. It is a native of Temperate Europe and Asia. And is now grown much in the United States and Canada. The seedlings appear in the early Spring under natural conditions and grow very slowly the first year. The second year, the roots have gone down far enough to withstand drought and freezing, and it grows much faster. It puts out about two weeks before. Alfalfa, and blooms and makes seeds the second year. As the pods of seed mature, the leaves begin to drop off. Every part of the plant contains a bitter substance that has a vanilla like odor. The plant dies soon after seeding.

Sweet clover is adapted to Southern Canada and all over the United States, and grows wild along the Railroads and highways in this territory. It will grow on any kind of soil and does especially well where there is an abundance of lime. Sweet Clover offers possibilities of becoming one of the pasture plants of this territory. As it is very nutritious and withstands the drought well. Seeding may be done in the spring at the rate of 20 to 30 pounds to the acre. Many other seed are hard and will not germinate until the second year if they are not scarified. Clover has its chief use as a pasture, but may be used for hay and silage. One acre well seeded will carry twenty hogs through the season. Cows will not eat it at first, but soon learn to like it, and do well on it. However, it will bloat them, sometimes.

REGISTERED POLAN CHINA PIGS
By Douglas Glazener

The Littlefield vocational agriculture boys have bought some Registered Poland China pigs from Clovis. We secured these pigs last Saturday. They are doing fine. Five boys got gilts, and others are to get them as soon as they are available out of this herd. The boys getting them are Doyle Glazener, Jack James, R. Lee Gibson, Wesley Reznick and Jimmie Weedel. The pigs weigh from 25 to 35 pounds, and are free from lice, mange and worms. These boys are planning a swine show next fall and hope by that time to have more hogs of this type, owned by members of the class.

Due to high prices of grain and the Government Corn Hog Program, hogs are becoming scarce, and it is hoped that by next fall prices will be very attractive for breeding stuff.

TURKEYS FOR LAYING

The selection of turkey hens for laying is just as important as the selection and culling of chicken hens. Turkeys for layers are selected on size, vigor and body shape. The pullets lay better than year old hens and seem to produce just as thrifty poults. Due to feed scarcity and improper feeding good setting eggs will be scarce and sell at premium.

DEHORNING CALVES
By John D. Smith

The time to dehorn calves is when they are from five to seven days old. This is done by clipping the hair from an area about the size of a nickel around the button or small horn. Smear vaseline around the clipped area to prevent burning of the surrounding skin, wrap the caustic stick in paper to protect the fingers and moisten the clipped area with water and rub with a stick of caustic pottash until it becomes white and the skin gets very thin. This will completely eliminate the horn. When this treatment is given, the calf should be kept out of the rain, because the caustic pottash will wash down into the eyes and injure them. The horns are generally considered useless and sooner or later must be removed. If we wait until the animal is older, they will have to be cut or sawed off.

THE DAIRY COW

The dairy cow is the most economical producer of the most perfect food. She is the only animal that produces several times her own weight in food each year, and then still live to do it over again. Experiments at the Ohio Station showed that a good dairy cow will produce as much in her lifetime as seven steers. It was also found that a cow producing 18,000 pounds of milk per year produced more human food than is contained in the complete carcass of four steers weighing 1250 pounds each. The dairy cow converts into milk much farm feed such as grass and roughage which has no market value, and would otherwise be wasted.

HOGS WILL BE HIGHER
By Jack James

The spring pig crop in Texas will be the smallest on record. There will be only 97,000 to farrow as compared to 124,000 last spring which is a 22 per cent decrease. This is a 47 percent decrease in the 1933 spring crop when 182,000 farrowed. Our fall and spring pig crop in 1935 will be 17 percent smaller than the small crop of last year. There will be 48 per cent less pigs farrowed this year in the United States than last year. This will be the smallest pig crop in 36 years.

The corn-hog ratio is also the lowest ever recorded. This is due chiefly to high feed prices. Hogs should go up sharply between now and spring and if a normal feed crop is made should be high at this time next year.

Hog prices go in cycles reaching a peak about every 56 months. However in recent years this peak has been somewhat closer together. Most economists predict the highest prices on hogs that the present generation has seen.

TREE SHELTER BELT HAS BEEN EXTENDED
By Edwin Bedford

A decision to extend the tree shelter belt about 80 miles South and west of Littlefield is welcome news to this area. It was originally planned to stop it near Amarillo. It will extend east and west 100 miles and north and south from Canada to beyond Lamesa. This belt should increase the rainfall several inches annually. Trees will be planted every mile on three rows to the planting. Farmers will be paid to care for the trees. The program should start at once and will last ten years. The government is now planting the trees in nurseries and will later transplant them.

The F. F. A. Chapter welcomes Edwin Bedford to the group. He is moving in here from near Fort Worth.

R. Lee Gibson now has 5 Poland China gilts he is planning to keep them for brood sows. The vocational Agriculture class has been grading cotton and studying the marketing of cotton. They have been studying the spot cotton market and the future market.

BETTER LIVESTOCK
By Bobby Pierce

Better livestock means better homes, better living, better people and a better country. Good livestock must be well fed and good crops must be grown to feed them. Better soil must be had if we grow better crops. This means better care of land and better farming.

Good livestock must have good shelter, but not expensive shelter. Better livestock means better fences to keep them at home to keep them from injuring themselves and mixing with other stock. Better livestock means more profit and more profit is what most people want. Millionaires are the only persons who can afford scrub livestock and they do not use them. A man who can make a million has more sense than to use a scrub. So why should we people who are not worth so much money waste our time and effort with scrubs. Where good livestock are grown there are beautiful clean homes and happy people.

Where good livestock are grown, the boys and girls take more interest, they are happier, there will be something for them to own. They will learn things that will be valuable to them in later life. Better livestock means better citizens. When we improve our livestock we will be better citizens.

New Deal To Be Topic Of Extempore Speech

The New Deal is the chosen subject for extemporaneous speakers in Interscholastic League speech contests this year, according to A. L. Baker, Amherst, director of this branch of the League in Lamb County.

Involving a study of the administration's steps to combat the depression, raise wages, raise prices of farm products, and at the same time, extend credit and relieve unemployment, this subject gives students the exhilaration of a sport as well as an opportunity for developing skill in making public addresses.

Topics under the general head will be furnished for use in county, district, regional and state meets. Government publications, newspaper discussions and magazine articles will be used as source material.

Subscription rates on the Lamb County Leader in Lamb and adjoining counties reduced to 75 cents per year for a short period only.

ing festival ever planned in Texas. Of the approximate 5,500 scholastics in Lamb County, this county should be fairly well represented at the Centennial, declared County Superintendent F. O. Boles this week.

Several of the districts began training of children in these old songs last fall. Musical instruction by use of phonographs and records, to assure an identical tempo and key on all songs, has been started in several of the districts, although records will probably not be used in the Littlefield district, said Supt. A. B. Sanders.

We Think—

ilar sensation to that said coffee and soup.

We don't say that they haven't anything down in San Antonio, Dallas, Austin, Fort Worth, or any of those other villages that warm the above mentioned cockles. Of course, don't take our word for that. We just met a couple of men who had cousins in those towns and friends of the cousins told the cousins.

San Antonio is a real nice little city of 250,000 or thereabouts. They say that town has horse races, dog races, tall buildings, Breckenridge Park, the Alamo, in fact, pick your dessert; it's all there.

Down Austin way they have the State Capitol, Senator Duggan and Representative Tarwater, and a few other folks interested in making laws for the general good of the order.

Senator Duggan is about the busiest man in the Senate. They are saying a lot of good things about our senator; in fact, they say he doesn't know when to stop working.

Representative Tarwater is a busy man, too; does his full measure of service, and then some.

We had a real live notion to send in word to Governor Jimmie that one of the boys from the country wanted to see him. But Jimmie is a busy man. Everybody wants to see him, and we didn't think that he would get any special thrill out of meeting us, so we wandered up to the Senate and the House.

Austin is a busy place these days; in fact, it seems that all Texas had moved on to Austin in the great battle to get over what they want—everything from a job to legislation.

Dallas and Fort Worth are about like San Antonio; real nice little villages.

We've been in the above mentioned seaport towns on numerous occasions; in fact, we have lived in one or two of them, but we thought we should tell the folks where we have been recent like.

And, by the way, tune in on the Universal Mills radio programs. You'll like the way Alice Joy sings. We heard Alice sing at the Fort Worth Rotary Club last Friday. She's a great girl that Alice.

That's all for this time.

P. T. A. TO WEDNESDAY

The local P. T. A. will meet Wednesday afternoon, February 13 at the High School Auditorium, with Mrs. W. D. T. Storey as leader.

The study course and topic will be "Teacher and his Work."

All parents are urged to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Bellomy returned Monday night from their bridal trip to San Antonio, Texas and Monterrey, Mexico.

P. W. Walker Hurt As Car Hits Road Grader

P. W. Walker, local grain dealer, was released Wednesday morning from treatment at Lubbock Sanitarium for injuries received last Saturday when his Ford coupe struck a road grader on a Highway 7 detour two miles west of Yellow House Switch.

Mr. Walker, enroute to Lubbock, struck the grader when his lights failed to penetrate the early darkness, he said. Four stitches were taken in his lip. His insistent honking summoned a farmer who carried him to Lubbock in another car. The Walker auto was badly damaged.
