Vol. 2.

Littlefield, Lamb County, Texas, July 3, 1924

No. 11

MISS BURKHALTER IS DEMONSTRATOR FOR LAMB COUNTY

Miss Bertie Lee Burkhalter, of Canyon has been appointed home demonstrator for Lamb county, according to a letter received by G. M. Shaw from Miss Mamie Hayden, district home demonstrator.

Commenting on the appointment of Miss Burkhalter, Miss Hayden says she comes highly recommended to the position as county demonstrator; that she has completed her home economics course and received the B. S. degree from the West Texas Teachers' College, resigning as assistant teacher in the Home Economics department at Canyon to enter the work in this county.

Miss Hayden feels very sure that her services in this county will be more than acceptable, and that she will so carry on the work that there will be no question as to its value and the desire that it shall be continued indefinitely.

Miss Burkhalter entered upon her duties July 1.

COWBOY'S PRAYER

Oh Lord, I've never lived where churches grow,

I love creation better as it stood
That day you finished it so long ago,
And looked upon your work and called it good.

I know that others find you in the light

That filters down through tinted window panes.

And yet I seem to feel you tonight
In this dim quiet starlight on the plains.

I thank you, Lord, that I am placed well;

That you have made my freedom so complete,

That I am no slave of whistle, clock, or bell.

Or weakened prisoner of wall or street.

Just let me live my life as I've begun,
And give me work that's open to the sky;

Make me a partner to the wind and sun,
And I won't ask a life that's soft or high,

Let me be easy on the man that's down;
And make me square and generous with all;

I'm careless sometimes, Lord, when I'm in town,
But never let them say I'm mean or small.

Make me as big and open as the plains,
As honest as the horse between my knees,

Clean as the wind that blows behind the rains,
Free as the hawk that circles down the breeze.

Forgive me, Lord, when I sometimes forget.

You understand the reasons that are hid,
You know the little things that gail and threat,

You know me better than my mother did.

Just keep an eye on all that's done and said,
Just right me sometimes when I turn aside,

And guide me on the long, dim trail ahead
That stretches upward toward the Great Divide.

—Charles B. Clark, Jr.

MCCASKILL WOULD INSTALL AN ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

R. E. McCaskill, of Electrawas in Littlefield last week investigating the outlook for establishing an electric light plant here.

After talking with a number of the leading citizens, he expressed himself as well pleased with the future prospects of the town, and stated he would take the matter under advisement.

It is understood that some legal matters relative to franchises are being investigated, after which Mr. McCaskill will make decision regarding the plant.

CO-OPERATIVE REPRESENTORS VISITED LAMB CO. LAST WEEK

W. D. Ramsey, president of the Grand Sorghum Association, with headquarters in Amarillo, and J. T. Billington, field representative of the Farm Bureau for Lamb, Castro, Palmer and Bailey counties, with headquarters at Herford, were here last week in the interests of their respective organizations.

These men stated that the co-operative idea of their institutions was rapidly spreading throughout West Texas, and that in Lamb county alone there were about 175 members of the Cotton Growers Association.

Mr. Billington expects soon to make his headquarters in Littlefield.

Y. L. RANCH TO HAVE 2 DAYS CELEBRATION JULY 4TH AND 5TH

A big celebration is planned to be held at the old headquarters of the Y. L. ranch, six miles northeast of Muleshoe, July 4 and 5.

It is destined to be one of the biggest celebrations ever held in this section of the country. There will be rough bronco riding, racing of various kinds, big barbecue at the noon hour and platform dancing in the evening. Also, plenty of good music for the occasion.

Everything will be on the free list and an attendance of 5,000 people is expected.

MISS LIVELY ELECTED AS TEACHER HOME ECONOMICS

Miss Patsey Lively, of Seymour has been elected by the Littlefield School Board to the position as teacher of the Home Economics Department. She has signified her acceptance by telegram, and the appointment has also been officially approved by Miss Jessie W. Harris, state director of home economics education.

Miss Lively is a graduate of C. I. A. holding the B. S. degree from that school. She comes to Littlefield highly recommended as an efficient teacher.

Star of Stars

Olga Strashun, 17, of Cincinnati, O., is the greatest girl athlete in her state. She is champion in swimming, hockey, tennis, shooting, basketball and sprinting. She also does fancy dancing and is editor of her college paper.

A LETTER WITH A HOLE IS ALTO MAN'S SIGNATURE

What is claimed to be the world's shortest signature is used by a citizen of the town of Pollock, in Angelina county.

The possessor of the signature is Bee Hole, and his signature, a "B" followed by a hole in the paper, made with a pen or pencil, spells Bee Hole. That signature passes at all banks and elsewhere, when on a check and presented.

Hole is a farmer and raises cattle and hogs. He brands them with his full name, his brand being B O.

YEP, IT'S GONNA BE A GEE-LORIOUS FOURTH

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

The addition of Vocational Agriculture to the Littlefield high school curriculum last year was not an occasion for a great deal of rejoicing on the part of anyone. Some considered it a fake, others were only lukewarm toward it, while the boys themselves had to be persuaded to take up the work. It was a new thing and like all new things in a community, it took slowly. Now the work is thoroughly established, all the boys who took agriculture this year are anxious for it another year.

With this in view, the School Board has decided to have Prof. E. D. Parnell devote his full time to the teaching of agriculture next year.

It is hoped that 40 or 50 boys will enrol in this work next year, and if the enquiries concerning the work are any indication, there should be at least that many.

Vocational Agriculture is no experiment. It has proven a success, and the boys are highly enthusiastic over it. It has taught the boys the value of good live stock, and an intelligent way of selecting them. It has taught them the scientific way of feeding live stock that makes the best gains at the cheapest cost. It has proven to the boys that "book larnin" in agriculture pays and they want more of it, even to the extent of going to college. It has taught them many more things but these are sufficient to show the value of such training. Surely such a course should have the support of the whole community.

NOT JUST A DAY

Are we to spend another Independence day recognizing only the symbol of the fire cracker and listening to the vapors of our ever present political opportunist, or are we to sense the deeper message of the day of all days in this land of opportunity?

There seem to still be plenty of people who do not know the difference between July the fourth and Henry the eighth. The day is brushed aside as one of the milestones in our national journey at which we must halt because it is the custom. The blasé New Yorker thinks of it as a bore—the same old story. There must be the usual explosion, and the customary public addresses, any one of which would answer year after year without any change in thought or wording. The Westerner must have his rodeo, all night platform dances, etc. Children everywhere must shoot off fire-works and drink red lemonade, while Mothers worry the day through for the safety of their young, and Fathers get no more significance out of the day than attending a baseball game.

Will the time come when men on this almost sacred day will rededicate themselves to the service of Independence; to a determination to play their part in the shaping of the destinies of America; to put steam behind the natural and God-given desire for Independence; that kind of Independence which means freedom in politics, religion and life, with breadth of vision and a regard for the rights of others?

Liberty, Independence and Freedom, like Justice, Mercy and Love are not simply qualities to be catalogued and filed away for future reference. They are living, breathing things—part of the life of yesterday, and of today, and of tomorrow. It is that part of life most worth preserving. Unless we translate the qualities of which we boast into actualities then our vapors are as tinkling cymbals meaningless before the world. As was recently said,—what the country most needs is a Paul Revere.

Miss Angie Poindexter, of Kossow former school mate of Mrs. G. M. Shaw, also, Mrs. Dr. Wagoner, of Lubbock, are this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shaw.

J. H. Canthen, of Lampasas, representing several big Boston wool buying concerns, is here this week negotiating with local growers for the purchase of their stocks.

Miss Lillian Kelly, of Rule, Texas is visiting her school friend Miss Nell Ruth Earnest.

JUNE RAINFALL

Farmers throughout this vicinity are rejoicing over the visit of Jupiter Pluvius Sunday night. While the cotton was doing fine on the accumulated ground moisture, yet there were some feed crops that were beginning to need rain somewhat.

The precipitation was general throughout Lamb county, the Government rain gage recording .47 inches of water. This makes a total of 1.35 of rainfall for the month of June.

Gas in Filibuster

Lieut.-Gov. Toupin of Rhode Island sat in the presiding chair of the State Senate 49 continuous hours in the effort to break a filibuster which had lasted since Jan. 1, and finally brought to a head when the Senate chamber was gassed, nearly causing the death of two senators.

DOUBLE HEALER BALL GAME LAST SUNDAY

The Amherst Americans played the Littlefield Boosters last Sunday the Boosters winning by the close score of 7-6.

Porter and Beisel, Pate and Stone furnished the battery for the Boosters, while White and White handled the destinies of the Americans.

Another game was also played between the Littlefield Diamonds and the Rogers Regulars, the New Mexico loods mopping up on the Littlefielders in a score of 15-5.

Littlefield will play a return game with the Rogers team at Rogers on August 3d, the time of their annual celebration.

Worldly Advice

A famous bishop had the trick of pronouncing "o" like "u" thus: "I am fond of hot coffee," according to Pett Ridge, who has written "A Story Teller Forty Years in London." Once he was giving advice to a working girls' club, and impressed on the members the necessity for arranging full occupation of their spare time. "Above all, girls," he said earnestly, "try by all means available, to cultivate a hobby!"—From the Argonaut.

WESTWARD HO! THE STAR OF EMPIRE TAKES ITS WAY

That western development moves fastly is clearly shown by the opening of new enterprises even in places several miles removed from the railroad towns.

Baileyboro, where only two and a half years ago there was not a single farm house within ten miles, now there are hundreds of fine farms and good schools, in fact, all the necessary attributes contributing to a high civic life.

Only a few days ago the contract was let for a new and modern four stand cotton gin. This plant, when finished, will be as complete and efficient as any to be found elsewhere in the State.

Baileyboro is also soon to have telephone connections with the rest of the country, and the construction a $30,000 school building will begin soon.

Bailey county, south of the Sand Hills, will pass into the hands of farmers, and the wonderful progress now being made will continue with added impetus caused by the fine rains recently received in that territory which mean much to the thousands of acres of fine crops growing in that vicinity.

TEXAS

Oh it's good to live in Texas,
Where men live by the plan,
It matters not your breeding
So long as you're a man—
A man among your neighbors
Without a creed or caste,
There in the rough together
Build friendships that will last:
Oh, they care not what you are,
So long as you are square,
In Texas, mighty Texas!
The land beyond compare.

Oh, it's good to live in Texas,
The land of sweet romance,
Where the cowboy, still a feature,
Rides his paint horse to the dance,
Where the girls are fairer, sweeter,
And they have no silly pride
But laugh at old tradition,
Mount their ponies, now, astride;
Oh they live and love in Texas
In a way that is meant
Texas, mighty Texas!
Sweet land of sentiment.

Oh, it's good to live in Texas
Where the soil produces more
Where the cotton grows abundant
Where the corn is to the fore;
Where the orange and grapefruit
And vegetables are
More succulent and luscious
And sweeter, yes, by far,
Where the soil and climate blend,
Assuring perfect health,
Texas, mighty Texas!
The land of greater wealth.

Oh, it's good to live in Texas
And sniff the balmy air,
To wallow in the sunshine,
To work and do my share,
To grow up in an empire,
Where the bigness of the whole
Is an everlasting challenge
To a man who has a soul,
To just let old Texas take me
And mould a man of worth,
Texas, mighty Texas!
The best land on the earth.
—Jamie Heron.

Nothing wastes energy like swatting the fly before the cause of its presence has been removed.

Now days lots of people talk about the weather, but no one seems to be doing anything about it.

A friend is the fellow who is on the spot, ready to do your bidding when you need him. How many friends are you blessed with?

Even in 1924 there were some candidates who had to call for help in taking the necessary steps to get their name on the ticket.

The sap in some of our presidential timber is not all in the trunk, as proven by the Cleveland and New York conventions.

One of the remarkable facts about heavy demand is that this country has never been face to face with a shortage of chewing gum.

Not since 1918 has there been so much general interest in the cotton crop. The demand for the fleecy staple and indications of high prices is largely responsible for it.

Candidates used to go about the county handing out cigars to the voters, but since the women have the ballot they must now load their pockets with candy and chewing gum.

Any physician will tell one that the healthiest home is the home that has the fewest flies. The same rule applies to towns and cities, for they are but the collection of numerous homes. The way to make this town a healthy town is to keep every home healthy.

It is indeed fortunate that we never frame any platforms to have hanging on the walls to haunt us at election time.

The season has arrived when the friend you meet on the streets greets you by saying, "Well, is it hot enuf to suit you. Yet, we are always thankful we live on the South Plains instead of down in East Texas.

Getting business is one thing and holding it is quite another. The persistent advertiser in his home paper is the one who succeeds most in getting and holding business. When business becomes slack the good business man always increases his advertising. It may cost more to get business during the dull periods, but it is always worth it.

Abit a piece per day per child seems like pretty cheap transportation. How the School Board did it, we don't propose to even guess. The fellow who would kick on a dime and two pennies per day to bring his child to school and take it back home again, considering the vast difference between the centralized school and the country affair, must be a tight wad indeed.

The Wheat Crop

The South Plains country is this year enjoying one of the best wheat crops in its history. While the acreage has been cut down somewhat over last year, yet the per acre yield is far above the average, many fields producing 30 to 40 bushels per acre.

Just now the price of wheat is hovering around the dollar mark, and will probably drop to 85 cents when the first market dumping begins, but this winter the price will, in all probability, go to $1.40 per bushel on the local markets.

The Leader last fall predicted a fine wheat crop for this year and urged the farmers of this county to plant liberally. Those who did so will be rewarded, for there is little doubt but the price will be attractive within the next 90 days.

The 10 or 12 million bushels of wheat that West Texas raised this year will be of considerable value to its farmers.

Politics vs. Candidates

It is an old saying, "Politics sometimes make strange bed fellows." Incidentally, these bed fellows sometimes make strange politics, for as the time of election draws near very often questions of more or less import creep into politics, tho they have no business there.

Very often people in casting their ballots do not stop to consider just why they vote for a certain candidate. They do not always deliberate carefully why they vote for a certain man, whether it is through prejudice against an opponent, through personal preference, or through good judgment in selecting the one whom they think is best fitted to perform the duties of that particular office.

When the political elimination comes off in the primary, July 26th, there will be some who will consider it an opportunity to "take a swat" at some enemy, either personal or political. Others will go to the polls just to help out a friend; but there are always some who will lay aside everything that is "irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent," as the lawyer says, and will vote for the best interests of the county, as they see it.

Perhaps never before in the history of Lamb county is it so important that the right kind of officers be elected, as this year. With the large influx of population, the rapid material development that is constantly going on, the various strides of advancement in numerous ways, the demand for new and needed expenditures—all these require men of character and ability to properly handle the county's money and business affairs. Every voter owes it to himself, his family, his county and his state to weigh well the needs of his community and make careful selection of the men for whom he shall vote in July.

TRANSPORTATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN HAS COST 12 CENTS

Twelve and one half cents per day was the cost of transporting the children to and from the Littlefield schools last year, according to statistics just compiled by Clerk W. G. Street, of the School Board.

The total cost of child transportation last year was $6,187.50, covering a period of nine months time. As the school district owns no equipment, the carrying was done entirely by hired busses and drivers.

At the last meeting of the Board Messrs. Pat Boone, F. A. Butler and W. A. Gray were appointed as a committee to work out details and make arrangements for the transportation of the coming year.

Since the scholastic population has largely increased, it is estimated that approximately $8,500 will have to be set aside for this purpose for the year 1924-25.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Donaldson are the proud parents of a baby girl, born July 1st.

THICK SOUP MAY BE MAIN WINTER DISH

Department of Agriculture Tells How to Make It.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The French would call it a "potage," and make a supper of it; the Scotch would use barley rather than the other starchy vegetables mentioned, and call it "cockleekie;" the Armenians would doubtless select rice for the chief filling element; while the Italians would choose spaghetti and several other vegetables and have "mine-strome" soup. The United States Department of Agriculture tells how to make it in an American way.

Thick soup, which may be served as the main dish at luncheon or supper, may be prepared from the neck, rib ends, shanks and other bony parts of the carcass.

Place meat and bones together in a kettle, using water sufficient to cover. Season with salt and two or three cloves and peppercorns. Let simmer until the meat can be easily separated from the bones, then pour through a colander. Set the strained broth aside to cool in order that the fat may be removed easily. Carefully free the meat from the bones and chop it fine. After removing the excess fat from the broth return the latter to the kettle and add any desired combination of chopped carrots, onion, celery turnips, and potatoes which have been previously cooked together either in a little water or in a steam-

SKIM MILK IS GOOD FOR CALF FEEDING

Skim milk is the most satisfactory substitute for whole milk in calf feeding. Feeding directly from the separator saves labor and makes calf raising a comparatively simple matter. Skim milk calves make a vigorous, sturdy growth of body and frame. The butterfat in whole milk supplies energy and not protein and oil meal need not be substituted for it when skim milk is fed. Corn, oats and other grains will supply the energy.

If the calves are taught to eat some legume hay such as clover or alfalfa at an early age, by the time they are three weeks old the skim milk may be gradually substituted for the whole milk at the rate of one to two pounds a day until the change is made.

A safe rule for feeding skim milk is one pound for every eight pounds live weight. This should be increased as the calf grows, up to the point where 15 pounds is fed daily. This amount need not be increased unless there is an abundance of skim milk available, as grain and hay may generally be used to better advantage. It is a good plan to feed skim milk until the calves are six months of age if possible, and in some cases even up to one year.

Freshly soured skim milk may be fed safely to calves over six weeks old but it must not be dehydrated.

Irregular amounts of skim milk may cause digestive troubles so it is safest to weigh the milk at each feeding, both as a preventive of over-feeding and to assure a uniform amount at each feeding.

Over-feeding causes more trouble than under-feeding. The belief that skim milk is thin or lacks in food value is responsible for feeding more than is necessary.

A uniform temperature should be maintained for all feedings. Body temperature is the right warmth for skim milk fed to young calves. Calves that are over six months old may have the skim milk cold in warm weather but care should be taken to have the temperature uniform at each feeding.

Separator foam should be removed. In trying to drink foamy milk, calves often suck in large quantities of air which causes them to bloat.

Preparing Soup for Winter Day.

er above the soup kettle; also previously cooked rice, barley, macaroni, or spaghetti may be added if desired. Reheat the soup, add the chopped meat, and serve hot. If dumplings are liked, these may be cooked in the soup just before the meat is added. After the dumplings are done, add the meat. It has already been cooked and will not be improved by further cooking.

Dough prepared as for baking powder biscuit may be rolled out about half an inch thick, cut with a small cutter, and cooked for ten minutes on the top of the boiling soup. The kettle should be kept covered during the entire time of cooking the dumplings.

Salad Dressing Recipe

Where Oil Is Disliked

A good salad dressing for those who do not like oil can be made from sour cream, according to the following recipe furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture.

- 1/2 teaspoonful mustard
- 1/2 teaspoonful salt
- 1/2 teaspoonful paprika
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cupful vinegar
- 1 cupful sour cream

Beat the egg until very light, add the other ingredients, and cook in a double boiler, stirring constantly until thickened. Remove from the fire and beat well. If this dressing is cooked properly, it will have, when cool, a thick, smooth consistency. If it is overcooked, so that there is a tendency to separate, it should be strained before cooling.

Homemade Flavoring Is

Delicious in Custards

A homemade flavoring which is not new but which is cheap and always delicious is caramel. Its more frequent use is recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture. It may be used successfully in custards, ice creams, and many other desserts.

To make caramel flavoring, place one cupful of sugar in an iron saucepan. Heat it until well browned, stirring constantly even after the dish has been taken from the fire and until the danger of burning in the hot dish is past. Before the mixture hardens add one-fourth cupful of hot water and cook the mixture until it is about the consistency of thick sirup. Bottle and save for use when needed.

Would Gain Either Way.

Doctor Garth, a witty physician of the court of Queen Anne, had prescribed a nauseous dose for the great warrior, the duke of Marlborough. When the duke objected to following the directions, the sharp-tongued Duchess Sarah broke in by saying, "I'll be hanged if it does not cure you." "There, my lord," interposed Garth, "you had better swallow it; you will gain either way."

CO. COMMISSIONERS GRANT PETITION FOR CITY INCORPORATION

A petition asking for incorporation of the Town of Littlefield was circulated last week to receive the necessary ten per cent of qualified voter's signatures, and within less than an hour three times the required number were secured, only one citizen refusing to sign.

The petition was laid before the Commissioners Court last Monday and the election ordered for July—

The petition recites that there are 270 qualified voters who are actual qualified residents within the City of Littlefield, and that the city now contains 515 inhabitants, according to a census recently taken.

A commission form of government consisting of a mayor and two commissions is asked for.

The territory to be incorporated in the City of Littlefield is as follows:

"Beginning in Lamb county, Texas, at the southeast corner of League 664 thence west with the south line of said league to the southwest corner of Labor No. 24; thence north with the labor line to the northeast corner of Labor 14; thence east with the labor line to the northeast corner of Labor No. 11, in the east line of said league; thence south with the league line to the place of beginning."

According to these specifications the corporate limits of the proposed city would embrace 12 labors of land.

PERFECT DOUBLE RAINBOW GREET'S EARLY RISERS

Those who chanced to be early risers Wednesday morning enjoyed a rare treat in viewing the rainbow in the southwest part of the heavens, following the light shower of rain.

In fact, it was a double bow, both perfect in formation and both reaching from horizon to horizon. In the primary bow all the prismatic colors stood out in perfect clearness and brilliancy. Many old timers on the Plains declared it was the most perfect specimen they had ever seen.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION

RELATING TO GRANTING OF CONFEDERATE PENSIONS

Senate Joint Resolution No. 10
Proposing an amendment to Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas to provide that the Legislature may grant pensions to Confederate soldiers, sailors and their widows, who have been citizens of Texas since prior to January 1, 1910, providing that all soldiers, sailors and their widows eligible under the provisions hereof shall be entitled to be placed upon the rolls and participate in the pension fund created hereunder; levying a tax of seven ($0.07) cents on the one hundred ($100.00) dollars valuation of property in this State for the payment of such pension, providing that the Legislature may reduce the rate of pension for such purposes, fixing the time for the election to be held on such amendment and making an appropriation to pay the expenses thereof.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. Section 51 of Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 51. The Legislature shall have no power to make any grant or authorize the making of any grant of public money to any individual, association of individuals, municipal or other corporations whatsoever, provided, however, the Legislature may grant aid to indigent or disabled Confederate soldiers and sailors, who came to Texas prior to January 1, 1910, and to their widows, in indigent circumstances and who have been bona fide residents of this State since January 1, 1910, and who were married to such soldiers or sailors prior to January 1, 1910, and to indigent and disabled soldiers who under the special laws of the State of Texas during the war between the States served in organizations for the protection of the frontier against Indian raiders or Mexican marauders and to indigent and disabled soldiers of the militia of the State of Texas who were in active service during the war between the States and to the widows and such soldiers who are in indigent circumstances and who were married to such soldiers prior to January 1, 1910, provided that the word "widow" in the preceding lines of this Section shall not apply to women born since the year 1861, and all soldiers and sailors and widows of soldiers and sailors eligible under the above conditions shall be entitled to be placed upon the pension rolls and participate in the distribution of the pension fund of the State under any existing law or laws hereafter passed by the Legislature, and also to grant aid for the establishing and maintenance of a home for said soldiers and sailors, their wives and widows and women who aided in the Confederacy under such regulations and limitations as may be provided by law, provided the Legislature may provide for husband and wife to remain together, in the home. There is hereby levied in addition to all other taxes heretofore permitted by the Constitution of Texas a State ad valorem tax on property of seven ($0.07) cents on the one hundred ($100) dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate herein levied, and provided further that the provision of this Section shall not be construed so as to prevent the grant of aid in cases of public calamity.

Sec. 2.
