No. 49

election for School Trustees of Lamb Co. To Be Held on April 5

An election has been called by Judge Simon D. Hay to be held in each Commissioners precinct No. 5, for the purpose of electing school trustees for Lamb county, one trustee from each precinct and one trustee at large. This is an election in which residents of both independent and school districts participate, according to a ruling made by the Attorney General.

Account of Section 8 of Chapter 101 of the General and Special Laws of the Fortieth Legislature, First Called Session, seeming to conflict with the provisions of Article 2676, R. S. 1925 of the First Called Session was referred to and submitted to the Attorney General for interpretation. The leading paragraph of this opinion is as follows:

"The effect of the county board from commissioner's precinct will be null and void by all of the voters residing in the precinct except those living in the precinct having exclusive control of their schools. And the trustee at large is elected by all of the qualified voters of all the school districts in the county except those residing in the precinct having assumed control of their schools. The Attorney General has arrived at this conclusion in the interpretation of the expression that the school trustees shall be elected by the voters of the districts under the supervision of the county trustee."

Gas Demonstrations at Housewives Using Stoves First Time

With the coming of gas to Littlefield, interest is high among the citizens in the change up of heating and cooking facilities, and especially are experienced in the culinary art. The new convenience, which is already accessible to many, and work is rapidly underway at the residences of those desiring gas.

An effort to assist those who are unacquainted with the use of gas, several of the local firms have added to their stock a complete line of both cook stoves and heaters, sponsoring cooking schools and demonstrations at their places of business the past two weeks. Extension stoves and in the art of cooking assisted the buying public, those who expected to make the change after gas is available.

Maxton Brother Hardware was the first firm in the city to extend this courtesy, holding a demonstration at their place of business. Along those who held like occasions at their places of business last week were: The West Texas Gas Company, Burleson & Company, Inc., and Messrs. Brothers and Higginbotham Company.

BURGLARS GET AUTO AND CASH FROM LEVELLAND

After looting the safe of the Santa Fe railway station Wednesday night of last week, at Levelland of $2.10 in cash, a burglar or burglars also broke into the South Plains Motor Co., also of that city and made escape with a new automobile, according to information received here yesterday by the local sheriff's department.

Entrance was gained to the station through a window and the knob of the safe was broken.

The stolen car is a 1930 model Chevrolet coupe, motor number 1481 036 and had a dealer's license. It is of tan color and has wire wheels.

Lfd Ball Team Is Now Organized: A Game With Sudan Sunday

A baseball meeting was held Wednesday evening of last week, at the Texas Utilities office with a representative number of players and fans present.

With Alex Delong presiding, the following officers were elected: Pat Boone, president; L. A. Ratliff, vice-president, and treasurer; Art Mueller Manager; Charley Murray, official scorer and Leonard Wright, assistant scorer.

A finance committee, consisting of Pat Boone, chairman, Alex Delong, Bill Yeary, R. E. McCaskill and H. C. Arnold was appointed. Funds are to be raised to liquidate any old accounts and the purchasing of new equipment necessary to give the team a sendoff for the new season.

A number of last years players and several new prospects have been engaged in workouts the past two weeks and a pre-season game is scheduled with Sudan for next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

No admission will be charged and local fans are invited to attend and give the boys the once over. This will not be considered a match game but will afford players an opportunity for a real work out. Other games of this kind will be arranged.

There is some possibility of having the famous House of David team here some time in May for an exhibition game. These long bearded players are nationally known and are at present playing in the South with many of the big league teams and colleges on their coast to coast tour.

Remember, weather permitting, a game at the Littlefield Park at 2:30 p. m. next Sunday March 23rd. Come out and enjoy yourself.

Announcement For Co. School Superintendent Made by Mrs. S. Rowe

I take this opportunity of announcing to the voters of Lamb County, that I am a candidate for nomination to the office of County School Superintendent of Lamb County, Texas.

I am a native Texan, being born and reared, and having spent my entire life in West Texas, and for the last 20 years have resided on the Plains. From actual experience I understand the life, conditions and the problems confronting the citizen of West Texas.

In regard to my qualifications, I have attended Simmons University at Abilene, Texas, have taken work in Texas Technological College at Lubbock, Texas, and hold a permanent First Grade certificate.

I began teaching in the year 1910, and among my other experiences as a teacher have served as principal of three rural schools, and have taught seven years in the Littlefield schools. I am familiar with the School Laws of Texas, and, from actual experience I am thoroughly familiar with all the work and problems of both rural schools and the large independent district of Lamb county. I have given more service to the schools of Lamb County, than any other teacher in the County except Professor H. B. Webb, of Olton.

As a reference in regard to my qualifications and ability as a teacher and my understanding of the school problems in general, I would refer all to the School Board and Professor B. M. Harrison, Superintendent of the Littlefield Independent School District, and to all patrons of said school, who have had children, coming under my personal supervision during the seven years of my service in the school.

I wish to say to the voters of this County that on account of my long experience in the schools of West Texas and Lamb County in particular I believe that I can give the citizens of Lamb County, better and more efficient service as their County Superintendent than any other person who will ask for election to this office.

If elected to this office I will discharge all the duties of such office, in such manner as I believe to be for the best interest of the schools and school children of Lamb county. I wish to thank all voters of the county for a careful consideration of my candidacy for this office, and all support given me for this office will be greatly appreciated.

MRS. SUSIE C. ROWE.

It's great to be a Texan!

ANYONE KNOW THEM?

The Leader has a letter from Mrs. John Rowe, who gives her address at 305 North Tyler, Amarillo, wanting to know the whereabouts of one W. R. Sharp and family, and asking that they write her at once.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the Sharp family will confer a favor upon Mrs. Rowe if they will so advise her.

Cade of Amarillo Out for Congressman Jones' Job

James O. Cade, Amarillo Attorney, has announced his candidacy for Congress to succeed Marvin Jones.

Cade is a member of the American Legion, and states he will support the Legion's legislative program, especially that in favor of disabled veterans and the proposed law of universal draft.

He declares his opposition to the tariff on oil as sponsored by Marvin Jones because the oil tariff would protect the major companies more than it would help the independents, and as in the case of all high tariffs, the farmers and laborers of the country would have to pay the bill in high priced gasoline, kerosene and oils.

Cade declares his support of anti-trust legislation especially that of regulating chain stores and other big corporations which are smothering the life out of the country. He says Marvin Jones' anti-chain store bill is absurd and probably unconstitutional.

JANES MEET POSTPONED

The meeting which was planned to be held at the Janes tabernacle Tuesday evening was postponed due to the illness of several of the citizens of that community.

Several representatives from the Chamber of Commerce had planned to attend, and will probably attend the meeting which will be held there Tuesday night of next week.

L. D. Rochelle Makes Announcement of Aims For Co. Superintendent

The Leader is authorized to announce the candidacy of L. D. Rochelle for the office of County School Superintendent of Lamb County subject to the action of the Democratic Party in the July Primaries.

Mr. Rochelle states he is well qualified for the office which will be automatically created by returns from the 1930 Federal census, having had several years experience in the rural schools of the state before coming to Lamb county, and having had three years work as science teacher in the Amherst high school and one year in the same position in the Littlefield High school.

He is a gentleman who believes in his chosen calling, and who will bring the enthusiasm of youth and the maturity of experience to the solving of problems which will confront the incumbent of the office.

Much depends upon the proper conduct of this important office to further the education of the children of the county, and the many friends of Mr. Rochelle believe he is better fitted to discharge the duties of the office than a man of less experience.

The influence and support of the forward looking, progressive citizens of the county is earnestly solicited by Mr. Rochelle, and his many friends in the county.

ARRANGE W. T. C. C. MEETING TO BE HELD AT ABILENE

J. E. T. Peters, secretary of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, has been selected to manage the 12th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to be held in Abilene, May 29, 30 and 31, according to announcement made by D. A. Badden, general manager of the regional organization.

Littlefield is already discussing the sending of a large delegation, headed by its municipal band to the Abilene meeting.

THE LIONS MEETING

The regular meeting of the Lion's club was held Friday at their noon luncheon in the basement of the First Baptist church.

Buddy Johnson was in charge of the program. Leonard Wright made an interesting talk on postal service, and a special quartette composed of Rev. R. B. Freeman, L. W. Jordan, C. C. Hammons and Buddy Johnson entertained with several songs.

2000 Attended Singing Convention at Lum's Chapel Sunday Mar. 16

Conceded to be one of the largest crowds ever assembled at a community gathering in Lamb County was that of the Lamb County unit of the Plateau Singing convention held at Lum's Chapel, six miles south of Littlefield, Sunday.

An estimate of 2,000 people were in attendance and the people of that community heralded unexcelled hospitality to the visitors.

The entire day was spent in singing and at the noon hour dinner was served by the women of that community, who had evidently been preparing several days in advance, judging from the large amount of food spread before the visitors. Women from Littlefield and adjoining communities assisted by taking well filled baskets.

Spurgeon Lang, of Earth, president of the Lamb County unit of the convention presided at the occasion.

Many special songs, quartettes and trios from over the county interspersed with the song service of the day added zest to the affair.

Stamps trio from Lubbock; a quartette from Morton, headed by Lonzo Reed; a quartette composed of girls from Baileboro; a quartette from Littlefield and many others furnished entertainment throughout the day.

John F. Taylor, of Clovis, N. M., president of the Plateau Singing convention was in attendance.

The next convention of the Lamb county unit will be held the third Sunday in September, at Sudan.

The ninth annual Plateau Singing Convention reputed to be the largest of its kind in the United States, will be held in the municipal auditorium at Lockney on June 14 and 15, according to Taylor.

Plans are being made to entertain 10,000 visitors from 25 counties of West Texas and New Mexico, besides a large number of people that come from surrounding states.

Officers of the organization say that the annual convention is the culmination of musical festivities that start with the 56 county conventions held in the 25 counties each year, which are attended by more than 100,000 people annually. The organization has as its aim the promoting of community welfare by providing a tri-annual meeting place for people from the different sections of this territory.

Counties embraced in the Plateau organization include Lamb, Terry, Cochran, Lubbock, Hockley, Farmer, Castro, Armstrong, Randall, Swisher, Bailey, Hale, Carson, Deaf Smith, Briscoe, Potter and Floyd in Texas, and Chaves, Eddy Quay, Roosevelt, Curry, De Baca, Lea and Union in New Mexico.

THIEVES TAKE GRAIN FROM THE J. A. WHITE FARM

J. A. White of West Muleshoe reported to the Sheriff's office Tuesday morning that about 100 bushels of he-gar had been stolen from his farm near Circleback.

The grain had been threshed and was piled near the field. Some party had driven in with a truck and helped themselves to this grain. Last reports were that no trace of the thieves could be found. It is said that the stealing of grain from the fields has become quite a habit in several sections of the country and when caught the guilty parties are given the full penalty of the law.—Sudan News.

Gaston Patterson Makes Announcement for Office of County Tax Collector

The Leader is this week authorized to make public announcement of the candidacy of Gaston Patterson for the office of Tax Collector of Lamb County, subject to the action of the voters as expressed in the coming Democratic primary.

Mr. Patterson states it is generally conceded that this office will be duly created following the taking of the 1930 census, and is, therefore, making his announcement that his name may be before the public and he have the opportunity of more intimately forming the acquaintance of the voters of this county.

Mr. Patterson is a native Texan, having been born and reared in Comanche county, where he lived until seven years ago, at which time he moved to Lamb county and has been a resident here ever since. He owns a farm in the northern part of the county.

He is a high school graduate and has had considerable business experience. For the past two years he has been employed in the Tax Collector's office of this county, and is entirely familiar with the duties of that office. He is a courteous, genial young man, highly respected in the community of his residence for his integrity, and has a wide acquaintance through out the county with the many citizens and property owners with whom it has been his providence to transact business during the past two years. He states he feels fully competent to handle the affairs of this important office and respectfully solicits the favorable attitude of the voters throughout the county.

HOME ECONOMICS II

Home Economics students in Littlefield high school have not only to make their own clothing but also have to select read-to-wear garments.

Friday, Miss Collins took her second year, Home Economics class to Cuenod's store where they selected a complete outfit suitable for the high school girl. The costume and all accessories could not cost more than $50 and was to be suitable for street or church wear now and later for school wear.

The class was unable to decide upon one costume, so two complete outfits were chosen with ten votes for one and nine for the other. These outfits were displayed in Cuenod's window last week end and received quite a bit of favorable comment from the people of the community.

One group chose a dark printed crepe ensemble with short coat of tan crepe, tan gloves, tan purse, tan heeled shoes, tan hose, and a hat with touches of red, yellow and green, and the outfit was $41.60. The other group chose a white and green ensemble with green hat and green purse, white gloves, low heeled shoes in egg shell color, with hose to match and underwear of flesh color. The cost of this complete costume and accessories was $36.60.

Chevrolet announces

A NEW

SERVICE POLICY

The Chevrolet Motor Company and its dealers are pleased to announce a new service policy—one of the most liberal ever offered on a low-priced automobile.

Put into force as a written agreement given to the purchaser by the Chevrolet dealer when the car is delivered—it offers the following provisions:

1 Every Chevrolet owner receives his car from the dealer in perfect condition—thoroughly lubricated, properly adjusted, and ready to operate efficiently from the first mile of ownership.

2 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection and adjustment of his car at the end of the first 500 miles of usage.

3 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free inspection of his car every 1000 miles thereafter, so long as the car is in operation.

4 Every Chevrolet owner is entitled to free replacement of any part which may prove defective in workmanship or material, within the terms of Chevrolet's standard warranty. This includes both parts and labor.

5 Provision number 4 will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States. As a result, the Chevrolet owner may travel to any part of the country, with assurance that the guarantee on materials and workmanship will remain in force.

This new policy constitutes proof of Chevrolet's high quality—for such liberal provisions could only be made in connection with a car built of fine materials to exacting standards of workmanship.

Back of this policy, and assuring its successful operation, is one of the most complete and efficient service organizations in the world.

There are more than 10,000 Authorized Chevrolet Dealer Service Stations in the United States alone. Each employs skilled mechanics thoroughly trained at Chevrolet Service Schools. Each has specially designed tools and machinery developed exclusively for Chevrolet service work. And each has on hand, at all times, an adequate stock of genuine Chevrolet replacement parts.

Chevrolet's flat-rate charges, including both parts and labor, are the lowest in the industry on many service operations!

In considering the purchase of a low-priced automobile, think what this service means—in terms of lasting satisfaction, as well as in increased economy.

New Business Coming To Sudan Each Week

Almost every week some new business is announced for Sudan, and it is the opinion of the ones who are looking here that Sudan is soon to be one of the very best cities on the South Plains. Last week a new variety store was opened for business, and the proprietor states that his volume of sales was considerable more than he anticipated, and that he had sold out many items of merchandise by the close of his first weeks business in the city. Speaking of the business outlook for Sudan this gentleman stated that he was entirely pleased in every way, and that he had been forced to order new goods by express in order to have some lines of merchandise for his usual Saturday crowds. Several other merchants report business to be on the increase, and it is the opinion of all with whom we have talked that as soon as farmers begin preparation for their crops that there will be a noticeable increase in all lines of business.

True, we have had a panic over the country, and in many portions of the agricultural section conditions are anything but satisfactory, but on the South Plains and especially in the Sudan district people generally are in a very good condition.—Sudan News.

C. C. Members Discuss Location of Creamery Here; Com. Is Named

The locating of a creamery in Littlefield was the principal subject of discussion at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon held Tuesday noon.

W. F. Craddock and A. B. Robinson of Ralls, were present and explained in detail the necessary steps toward such an organization. It was stated that 80,000 pounds of cream annually was sufficient to warrant the operation of a creamery, whereas it is said that more than 600,000 pounds of cream is shipped from this point each year.

The cost of a plant for this place would be about $9,000 for equipment and $6,000 for building, and such a plant, of the "A" grade would have an outfit of approximately 4,000 lbs. of butter. Bulgarian buttermilk and cottage cheese would be a side product.

There were several farmers present who took part in the discussion indicating their desire to become interested in taking stock in such an organization, as well as several business men who stated their desire to subscribe for stock.

Committees were appointed to enter more fully into the details of such an organization and to interview farmers and business men as to the amount of stock they desired.

AUTOS BEING TAXED

At a recent meeting of the city commission the Tax Assessor was instructed to assess automobiles together with other assessments of property.

This is the first time that automobiles have been listed for taxation in Lamb county, while other counties in the State have had automobiles listed among the property on the taxation list for several years.

Many dollars will be added to the resources of the county in the future by this means of added taxation.

Two Year's Wages as Price to Pay for Home Suggest as Correct

By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift

We have reached a period of the year when the thoughts of many are given to owning a home. To own one home is a good way to practice thrift for most persons. The problem, however, is one not easy of solution. The question with most prospective home owners is "How much can I afford to pay for my home?"

As in all other problems relating to individual or family administration, each case presents certain special aspects. Only broad, general suggestions can be offered. Manifestly, a young man whose prospects are for a continually rising income can afford to pay more for a home than a man, who through one circumstance or another can look into the future years with no assurance of greater earnings.

One of the most interesting contributions to this subject was made recently by Mr. Henry M. Stegman, writing in the Thrift Magazine. He points out that "Most homes are bought on partial payments. Here the need for caution is even greater than if all the money needed were in hand. The monthly installments are not all savings. Especially in the beginning, they will go chiefly toward meeting the interest. As the debt is gradually reduced, this factor will decline. But the initial bargain should be based as closely as possible on one hundred times the weekly wage."

One hundred times the weekly wage would be approximately two years wage which, Mr. Stegman concludes is a good basis for determining what one should pay for one's own home.

It must be borne in mind, however, that this is only a general formula—homes in or near large cities for example are more expensive than those purchased in small places. For this reason home ownership is out of the reach of many city workers whose only recourse is to go far into the suburbs and sometimes that is impracticable. We may feel, nevertheless, that with the vast multitudes of Americans, home ownership is an economic possibility. With most families it is a commendable type of thrift and at this period of the year should receive every encouragement.

Cleanliness may be next to godliness, but with three or four kids around the house its next to impossible.

South Plains Counties Take Action in Cotton Acreage Reduction

Cotton acreage reduction is the principal theme of discussion now days among most farmers and some business men, with the majority opinion ruling that it should be done. Several counties in the South Plains area have already taken organized and concerted steps toward reducing such acreage, while below the cap rock such action appears still more aggressive. Farmers who have been diversifying appear to be more ready to reduce their cotton acreage than the ones who are more strictly cotton farmers exclusively, the many of them have also joined the ranks and declared they will plant the rest of their usual acreage in other crops. The general reduction quoted is from one-third to one-half.

Bankers everywhere are encouraging the movement by offering farmers money to buy calves, cows, and hogs to those who make written declaration of their reduction intentions. In some instances, it is said, bankers are requiring written statements and sworn affidavits from farmers as to the acreage planted in 1929 in cotton, and what amount will be planted in 1930, after which desired loans are readily granted.

While the matter of acreage reduction in Lamb County has yet had no official action, many farmers have already declared their intention of reducing their cotton area and substituting other crops.

"KONJOLA ENDED MY LONG SEARCH FOR NEW HEALTH"
Again New and Different Medicine Wins When All Else Tried Meant Failure

MRS. MAUDE HOLLAND

Profit by the experience of those who, to their everlasting joy, find their faith in Konjola, and were freed from the miseries of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel troubles, and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. Take the case of Mrs. Maude Holland, 25th and Lamine street, Sedalia, Mo. Think of her joy when she said: "Konjola ended my long search for new health, and I recommend Konjola with all my heart and soul. For twelve years I suffered principally from kidney trouble, and then my stomach and my nerves were affected. My nerves were jerky; I had terrible bilious attacks, my hands and feet were swollen, my back pained at spots appeared before my eyes. I sought in vain for relief, and the outlook was dark indeed.
"At last I decided to give Konjola a trial, and that was the wisest decision of my life, for Konjola, in just three weeks, rid me of every one of my ills. I am as a new person, full of new life and vitality. To me Konjola is simply wonderful."
Konjola is sold in Littlefield at Sadlers drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. Adv.

Big State Texas Gains 25,000 Acres of Land By Court Decision

Texas already by far the largest state in the Union gained approximately 25,000 acres, or 44.6 square miles more land from Oklahoma last Monday when the United States Supreme Court approved the location of the new boundary line running between the two states as surveyed and marked by Samuel S. Gannett.

The Eastern Boundary of the Texas Panhandle, which the supreme Court decided should be along the 100 Meridian, was found by Commissioner Gannett, to have been erroneously located by the Jones Brown Clark survey in 1859-60, 4,040 feet on Texas Territory at its Southern end on Red River and 880 feet at its northern end at the northeast corner of Texas.

Oklahoma, since its admission into the union as a state, has exercised jurisdiction over this strip of land, which now passes to Texas.

Five Counties Share in Land Gained
Austin, March 17.—Under a law passed by the legislature last month the area of land along the 10th Meridian given to Texas by the Supreme Court decision will become a part of Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Collingsworth and Childress counties in the Panhandle.

It is directed that the land should not be subject to sale or other disposition until such time as the legislature might provide.

The commissioner of the general land office was directed to ascertain the number of acres, its probable value per acre, the nature and value of improvements thereon, the nature of the occupancy and the length of time of same by those who were occupying it under any claim of title.

Attorney general R. L. Bobbitt announced Texas would do everything under the law to protect the vested rights of those holding title to the land.

COLLEGE NEWS

The prospects for the coming year are exceedingly bright according to President R. F. Duckworth and Business Manager R. O. Conner who have returned from a 10 days trip to various points south. Many new students are expressing desires to attend the college next year.

New baseball equipment has been purchased, and the students have been practicing as regular as the weather conditions would permit, under the direction of J. B. Posey.

The High School Joy Makers club entertained with an Irish program last Friday night, and all enjoyed contests and games after the program. The Phi Beta club will entertain with a miscellaneous program next Friday night.

E. S. Jelley, a Missionary from India, addressed the college assembly last Wednesday morning and his talk was very interesting and inspirational to all. In addition to giving something of the life, conditions and customs of the different people of India, he stressed the need of the Bible. He emphasized the lack of the valuation placed upon life by the heathen, who because of the lack of conscience or disregard of the natural laws, was willing to poison his neighbor to get him out of the way. He compared the influence of the Bible on civilization in our own country to the lack of the Christian influence in the heathen countries, and emphasized our responsibility in spreading the Gospel.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE WORK

Interscholastic League activities are frequently questioned by some people as not worth while. We have no fight to make on this person as this is a democratic country and we are each entitled to our own beliefs.

Honest criticisms are worth while and are essential to democracy if a sympathetic understanding is to be reached between the members of a democratic society and without this sympathetic understanding the richest heritage of our civilization can never be enjoyed.

New conditions demand new methods. Change is written across the horizon of each new morn. The principles underlying and directing the methods of the school room two decades ago are now outgrown. They are like a garment that has been thrown into some dark corner of the attic where tattered and moth eaten it becomes covered with dust and is forgotten.

No longer does the teacher drive her pupils to their tasks as if they were animals to be put through their antics each day lest something be lost, but rather she leads them into pastures of self expression. The spirit of democracy pervades the atmosphere. The needs of the pupils now become the laws of the school. Training for citizenship is no paramount.

The Interscholastic League was organized for this very purpose, the meeting of the needs of the modern child. In these contests the individuality of the boy or girl is brought out far better that it can be brought out in the school room.

The boy or girl is taught to rely up on himself as well as to recognize the rights of his opponents. What better qualifications can the youth of today possess, and what better assurance of success can a boy or girl have than these qualifications? The future leaders of America will possess these qualifications. Then why not back the interscholastic League and give our boys and girls the opportunity our democracy is offering them?—R. L. Neely.

"CERTAIN RICH MEN"

Three rich men have done in these panic days what rich men are not supposed to do. At some risk of a moment they have come to the aid of poorer men. Mr. Rockefeller did it by announcing at a crucial moment of selling that he was buying stock; Mr. Rosenwald did it by guaranteeing the margin accounts of all his employees; Mr. Ford did it seeking a flip for general business by announcing a cut in the price of his automobiles. From each of these acts the man responsible will take certain advantages. That is fair enough. The point is that "certain rich men" showed that they also have a public conscience which their radical foes axiomatically deny them.—New York Evening Post.

Most people think that it is easy to sell anything; they have never tried to get a prospect put his name on the dotted line.

Maybe alimony was invented so that a married woman could make something out of her husband.

LET'S BRIGHTEN UP

Like death and taxes, spring clean up time is something we can't get away from. And if every citizen of Littlefield realized the value of it all the dread it carries with it would vanish. But the trouble is there are too many procrastinators in this and every other community; too many who keep putting it off until hot weather arrives, and then ignoring it altogether.

There is no better protection against disease and epidemic than a thorough clean town. There is nothing that shape of health and comfort as a house that is clean inside and out, and premises surrounding it that are free from disease breeding rubbish and filth. Paint and whitewash and lime and soap and water are cheaper than doctor's bills.

Instead of postponing it this year why not, regardless of whether your neighbor has started or not, begin your own housecleaning now. It can be gotten out of the way before your time is needed for other things and while every member of the family feels like "doing something" after winter months spent largely around the fire. Never mind about the other fellow. Set him an example. Get at your cleaning now and watch how your neighbors will fall in line. Don't stop with cleaning the inside of the house; clean up the premises, too. It is a debt you owe the town you live in—it is protection against sickness, and possible death, that you can't get in any other way.

A STATE-WIDE NEED

Wonder if it has ever occurred to our state officials that one of the quickest methods of securing "farm relief" would be through greater attention to our secondary, or side-roads?

A lot of money has been spent in recent years on main-traveled roads. Today we've a pretty fair system. But there are hundreds of farm families, living back off of these main lines, entitled to relief. County officials do the best they can with the money at hand, but in the aggregate that is mighty little. What is needed is a state wide campaign that will bring the side-road farmers closer to market and the consumer closer to his products.

If money can be found for main roads it certainly ought to be found for the others. They don't have to be paved; in most cases they don't need widening. But they do need to be surfaced to the point where they can be traversed quickly and economically the whole year round.

It's a big job, but if tackled as a state wide proposition we can get it done. And the sooner our legislature considers it the better.

About the only sign of success that a lot of people can recognize is the $ sign.

FIRES IN HOMES

A large percentage of deaths from fires occur in homes. This is hard to understand in progressive America, where so many advantages are in easy reach of every household. All homes can be made comparatively safe against fire and loss of life can be greatly reduced. The possibilities of improvement are almost endless.

We've noticed that most people around Littlefield pay too much attention to uncommon, but spectacular, accidents and too little to the common and ordinary risks of life. They read accounts of airplane accidents, train collisions, earthquakes and various other sorts of sensational news and draw great and deep conclusions from them. But they show little interest in such a common thing as fire, although it takes more life and consumes more wealth than any other single calamity.

There is no good reason for this. Any family that will take proper precautions against ordinary risks will find the chance of disaster greatly lessened.

Scientists say many animals laugh. Why shouldn't they—they don't have any installments to meet.

NO SUBSTITUTE

Calvin Coolidge found himself in a bad fix recently when he arrived in New Orleans. He started to bed and found he had forgotten to bring along a nightshirt.

Any Littlefield man who ever did the same thing can offer Cal deep sympathy. They got the distinguished visitor a pair of pajamas, but he refused them, and would probably have been sitting up yet if some one had not tendered the loan of a nightshirt.

Cal belongs to that generation that had its habits pretty well fixed before strangling, suffocating pajamas were introduced. He knows, like a lot of us, there's something about the freedom of a nightshirt, pajamas do not possess.

Next to sleeping "raw", which isn't being done in the best circles a night shirt affords the greatest comfort of all.

Those who have refused to bow to the dictates of fashion, and who still refuse to recognize pajamas as a substitute for nightshirts, certainly hope that never again does Mr. Coolidge meet with such a calamity as that one which befell him in New Orleans.

After David killed Goliath that time we suppose somebody asked him to endorse some kind of shaving cream or cigarettes.

Have your printing done at home.

HAVE NEW EQUIPMENT

The Littlefield Auto Co. have installed about $2,000 worth of new machinery, tools and other equipment in their garage to take care of increasing mechanical business.

C. E. Campbell, recently of Electric, is in charge of that department.

What a TRACTOR

Fits Every Power Job

NOT only greater utility but faster, better work and easier handling—this briefly is what the new Case Model "CC" Tractor offers you.

You can plant or cultivate two or four rows at a time... pull two or three fourteen inch plows... operate a 22x36 thresher with all attachments... in fact, you can do all drawbar, belt and power take-off work within this capacity. So well and compactly is the tractor designed that it is only slightly heavier than two good horses. Three forward speeds enable you to travel as best suits your field work.

It is easy to change the spacing of the rear wheels from narrow to wide tread—and back again if you wish. Two foot brakes on the differential independent of the steering, give you better control of the tractor along crooked rows, on side slopes, and over rough ground.

Power lift controlled by a foot lever raises or lowers gangs quickly. The controls are handy. You can sit down, stand up or change about as you choose... there is every advantage to make your work a pleasure.

Surely, you want to know more about this new tractor. Come in at your convenience.

Fraleley Knocked Johnson Out in Third on Monday Night; Prelim's Good

Lee Fraleley scored a knockout in the third round of a fast boxing bout with Jack Johnson, San Angelo, held in the skating rink here last Monday night. The go was scheduled for eight rounds and the fighting was fast and furious from the first gong sound, each man went to his knees once under the blows of his antagonist, but was quickly up again. Johnson was knocked down eight times the last time taking the count—and then some. The fight was featured by very few clinches and plenty of real hard hitting, it being an uppercut to the solar plexus that laid the challenger on his back for the count.

In the preliminaries Dean Thornton won the decision over young Johnson in a three round light weight match which was not lacking in excitement for a single round.

Jack Wheat won decision over "Pinky," negro in a 6-round go.

Fraleley will fight Owens here again in about a month.

INSURANCE IN THE MOVIES

Insurance investigators, who up on the Hollywood film film of October 24, discovered some very interesting facts.

As an illustration of how insurance plays a vital part in modern entertainment along with our favorite former, the investigators found the value of the negatives was $100,000. One little roll that could be used in a vest pocket cost $200.00. A film weighing about 50 pounds cost almost $3,000,000 up to the top of the fire and was not quite salvaged.

Part of the valuable "insurance" of a new feature talkie was lost and it was a question as to whether any of it could be salvaged.

No wonder insurance is the basis of credit in industry—where dare venture expenditures without it.

Don't let the mail order men deceive you!

AVERY JACK RABBIT CULTIVATOR

Two Levers instead of Three
An AVERY PLUS Feature

The Avery Jack Rabbit Cultivator has won a mighty name as a worker. It does a wonderful job. But the thing everyone praises especially is the perfect balance and the ease of control.

All cultivators are not easy to control. But the Avery Jack Rabbit is smooth as silk—free and easy. Why? Because Avery designers and inventors found a way—by study and experiment—to control a cultivator with one lever less and to make the control easier. This saves 25% of the time of the operator, also 25% of the labor. It means a man can manipulate the cultivator 25% faster and 25% longer without tiring.

It is a big aid to more work and better work—an Avery Plus Feature—something more for your money—due to the Avery ideals of implement service.

Avery Plus Features Increase Your Profits

Avery Plus Features save both time and money. That is why an Avery Plus Implement is the cheapest implement any man can own. We are local "headquarters." Call upon us for any information desired.

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water

Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of a limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Borozone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Borozone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Borozone costs 30 cents, 60 cents, $1.20 and $1.50; Borozone Powder, 30 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at Stokes-Alexander Drug Company

AGRICULTURE NOTES

By D. A. ADAM
 Lamb County Farm Agent

Lamb County Baby Beef club boys made a fine record on the 28 head of calves fed out during the winter. These calves were sold on the market at Fort Worth, and brought an average of 12c per pound, bringing in a net total of $2106.40, and consumed an average of one ton of heads to the calf, and with the average price of heads at $16.00 per ton they consumed $448.00 of heads at market price. But when this head stuff was put through these calves it returned $649 an increase of $210.20 for the 28 tons consumed. These calves cost $54.27 per head, this price including interest, making a total investment of $1457.20. So here we come to the same old story—market your feed stuff through live stock on foot.

Culling demonstrations have been held on the J. M. Hartness and P. W. Penner farms during the past week. A terracing demonstration has been completed on the B. J. McGee farm at Anton.

Robt. L. May, a dairy demonstrator cooperating with the county agent, had two cows in his herd that produced over 50 pounds of butter fat during the month of January, and the lowest cow produced 23 pounds according to figures that were obtained through the cow test by mail association.

R. E. McQuatters, Littlefield, has imported a fine, Gamboe Knight bred bull for his dairy herd, and this individual will go into a bull circle in the near future.

Begin now for your control of the poultry parasites, mites, blue bugs, etc. Paint your houses with some good disinfectant, such as creosote dip, carbolinum, and use some good disinfectant to destroy breeding places of stick-tight fleas.

Those farmers in the county wanting certified grain sorghum seed for their this years crop can place their order with the county agent, and he will order it for you or he will assist you in any way getting the seed that you want.

EVERY HOME AND BUSINESS HOUSE IN LFD IS FILLED

"If a 'full town' is any indication of prosperity," remarked a Littlefield citizen this week, "then this town ought to be quite prosperous."

A survey of the business district reveals that every building is occupied with a business of some kind, and reports are to the effect that never a week goes by but some prospective business man fails to locate here because he cannot get building accommodations for his proposed business.

The same condition is true regarding residences. Every resident house in Littlefield is filled, and there are several families stopping at rooming houses watching with eagle eyes for the first vacancy, also several men engaged in business who have not yet brought their families here because they can get no accommodations for them.

It is commonly agreed that Littlefield might have several hundred more population now if homes were available.

EASTERN STAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the O. E. S. Chapter was held Friday night, March 14th with an excellent attendance.

Initiatory degrees were conferred upon Mr. and Mrs. Pryor Hammons. Mr. G. G. Hazel, presided by courtesy as Worthy Patron, and gave the work in a very impressive manner. The beauty of the work was further enhanced by the lovely solos of the chapter soloist, Mrs. T. Wade Potter. Two visitors Mrs. G. G. Hazel and Rev. Joe Grizzle were present. Mrs. Pat Boone was hostess to the chapter at the social hour which followed the formal closing of the chapter.

The O. E. S. is at work on an emblematic quilt which will be auctioned off at an early date.

The chapter is giving a St. Patrick's party in the dining room of the Masonic hall, March 17th, the proceeds to be used for equipping the Masonic dining room. This is open to the public.

S. S. CLASS GROWING

There were 13 girls in attendance at the Fidelas class of the First Baptist Sunday School Sunday. Our class is growing but we want more to come. We feel that we should have 20 or 25 enrolled in our class.

We had an interesting talk Sunday on the fulfillment of the prophesy concerning the fall of Ninevah. Next Sunday we shall hear a talk on the Prophecy of Isaiah concerning Christ and it's fulfillment.

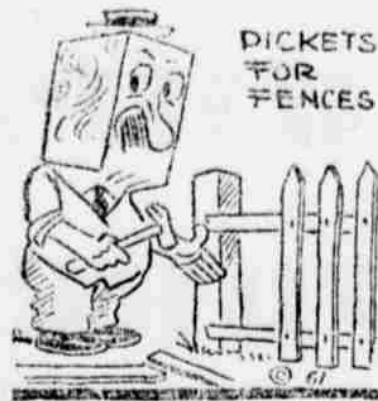

Let us all be present at 9:45 at the First Baptist church and bring some one with us.—Reporter.

DICKETS FOR FENCES

LOSS

Loss of cattle or crops is often the result of neglecting to repair fencing properly.

You can't afford to run the risk of loss this year and for the small cost of appropriate fencing materials you can have sturdy, strong fences that will afford the utmost in complete protection.

"The purpose of the trip is to further promote the dairy industry in Lamb County", says J. W. Hale, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. "It takes two things to make a perfect dairy condition, first cheap feed, second, high producing cows. We have an abundance of cheap feed, now to create a desire for high producing cows to place Lamb County first in the industry of Texas," further states Hale.

Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at Stokes-Alexander Drug Company

COMPARE VALUES BEFORE YOU BUY AN AUTOMOBILE

Low charges for distribution of the new Ford save you at least $50 to $75 in addition to the many savings in making the car

THESE are days when every dollar counts. The period of reckless spending is over. People are going back to the good old-fashioned principles of thrift and economy. Value is again being carefully considered.

Nowhere is this more important than in the selection of an automobile. For the purchase of a car represents a considerable investment. It should not be decided on hurriedly, but only after analyzing every important factor that concerns cost, value and performance. The time to do this is before buying—not afterward when it is too late.

ON THE basis of cost, performance and the actual comparative worth of every part, the new Ford is a value far above the price you pay. It is made of better materials and with greater care and accuracy because of the recognized efficiency and economy of Ford manufacturing methods.

The value of these methods is known and understood by millions of people. It is not generally realized, however, that these same principles of efficiency and economy are applied also to every step in the distribution of the Ford car. The low cost of selling, financing time payments, etc., means a direct saving to you of at least $50 to $75 in addition to the money saved by Ford economies in making the car. Here are three reasons why this is so.

(1) The Ford dealer does business on a smaller margin of profit because of the greater number of cars he sells. His discount or commission is the lowest of any automobile dealer. The difference in your favor, ranging from 25% to nearly 50%, comes right off the price you pay for the car.

(2) The Ford charges for financing are low.

(3) No expensive extra equipment is needed when you buy a Ford. The car leaves the factory ready for use. The f.o.b. price includes a Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield and an extra steel-spoke wheel, in addition to four Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers and fully enclosed four-wheel brakes. Any accessories you may wish for your individual taste are sold considerably below the usual prices. None of these charges for selling, financing or accessories is marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on a used car.

Get all the facts, therefore, before you buy and figure out just what you are getting for your automobile dollars. Go beyond the f.o.b. price and find out how much more you pay the dealer than the dealer pays at the factory. Analyze the used-car allowance. Compare all charges—item for item—value for value.

WHEN you do this you will have a new appreciation of what the Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers are doing to keep down the cost of Ford cars. You will also know why it is possible to put so much real value into the new Ford and still retain the low price. The money you pay goes for value in the car. It is not wasted in excessive costs in manufacturing or selling.

HIGH SCHOOL COLLEGE DEBATE

Evening, March 17, in the auditorium there was a debate between the Littlefield and the Littlefield col-

The High School team discussed the affirmative side of the question, while the college team discussed the negative.

Three lawyers, E. A. Bills, G. G. Hazel and E. S. Rowe judged the debate and rendered a unanimous decision in favor of the affirmative.

Friday morning the two high school teams, a boys team and a girl's team will meet Olton at Sudan in debate on this same question.

The High School wishes to take this means of expressing its appreciation for the cooperation given by the college in preparing the high school for the county interscholastic league meet.

An Unpleasant Subject
All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 35 cents per bottle from Stokes-Alexander Drug Company

Eastern Star Give School Day Party on St. Patrick Night in Masonic Hall

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season was the party given in the Masonic Dining room with the Eastern Star Chapter as hostess last Monday night.

"School Days" was carried out in the costumes and refreshments. Mrs. A. H. McGavock, of Olton, dressed in a green print bloomer dress, with green socks and a straw hat won the prize for the most typical school girl. T. S. Sales in overalls and a straw hat was awarded the prize of best dressed school boy. These prizes were baskets of Easter eggs.

Many games were played. Possibly the one enjoyed most of all was the "Barn Yard" game where the boys after "cackling" to represent a hen, found much to their surprise, they had laid an egg.

When time came to eat the school lunch partners were obtained by matching shamrocks and then lunch sacks were passed containing sandwiches and lolly pops, accompanied by a cup of green lemonade.

After eating lunch Jake Hopping sang "Piccolo Pete" and "Down By the Winiger Works." Roy Blessing gave his very delightful number "Sadie Green the Man from New Orleans" These numbers followed by a general sing-song including "My Wild Irish Rose" "School Days", and "The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You."

The following Masons, Eastern Stars and visitors were present Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McGavock, Mrs. Roy Burrus, Misses Mirty and Faye Bartlett of Olton; B. C. Workman of Plainview, Mrs. D. J. Jordan of Houston, Mrs. D. R. Reed of Dallas, Mrs. Armon Logan of Lubbock, Mrs. Bessie Baze Tuttle of Enid, Okla., Chas. A. ENTER CONTEST AT LUBBOCK

Three teams will be entered in the Vocational Agricultural Judging Contest at Lubbock, March 24 by the Littlefield High School. These teams will take part in Dairy Judging, Plant Production Judging and Poultry Judging. The boys have been working pretty hard training for these events and it is expected that they will make a fair showing.

The contest will probably have more teams present than ever before, and competition will be keen. A boy who wins in this contest will deserve much credit, for it will represent a very worthy achievement on his part, and a great amount of preparation and study.

Those entering Dairy judging are Melvin Ross, Herbert Pierce, Royce Beebe and Edgar Purvis. The poultry team consists of Dumas Haynes, Durwood Henderson, Welty Thedford and Morris Pierce. Plant production team is August Clark, James Walden, H. B. Hutson and Jack Garmes.

TELEPHONE PROGRESS

The work of the telephone in aiding the social and industrial progress of the world cannot be estimated.

The United States has 19,500,000 telephones and the number is increasing at the rate of 800,000 annually. Each year the American people send more than 26,000,000,000 messages.

We can at a reasonable cost, speak to many great foreign cities. Only 15 per cent of the world's telephones are unconnected with the American system. In a fraction of a second a voice by telephone travels to a listener across continents and oceans.

International civilization owes the telephone a great debt.

Don't worry too much about the starving chinese and the struggling Russian peasants; there are matters for your attention in Texas.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Hoover Makes Move to Avert Collapse of Arms Conference.

IN AN effort to avert the collapse of the arms conference, or failure to reach a five-power agreement to reduce armaments, threatened by the attitude of France, President Hoover has sent new instructions to the American delegation.

The President is said to have offered alternative proposals designed to make a five-power agreement possible, if not for actual reduction of naval strength for at least placing a limit near present figures.

It is understood that he suggests concessions on the part of the United States and Great Britain which would make it easier for Japan, France and Italy to agree.

The collapse of the conference was threatened when Foreign Minister Briand had announced his withdrawal because the United States, backed by Great Britain, had flatly refused to accede to the demands of France for a security pact as a condition of their consenting to any reduction in naval armament.

Later Mr. Briand relented and announced that he would remain with the conference, and that he still had hopes of reaching an agreement.

The break with France came at a private meeting between Prime Minister MacDonald, Secretary of State Stimson and Foreign Minister Briand of France. Mr. MacDonald demanded that Briand produce his real figures. Mr. Briand replied, tartly:

"I have no figures. I came over here to get a pact. If you want figures you must talk to Premier Tardieu. I am finished."

Mr. Briand demanded point blank of the British prime minister and the United States secretary of state why they are suspicious of France's naval requirements and why they refuse to permit her to maintain adequate sea power for self-defense, but accept Italy's demand for parity in silence.

"I don't think that it is fair to ask France to produce all of her figures and make out her case," he said. "We are willing to discuss every point without being asked. But there is another country at the conference occupying the same status as France, but she is left alone and says nothing beyond demanding parity with us—making no justification of her claims."

The Japanese delegation indicated that the absence of France from further negotiations, which automatically disposes of Italy also, will prevent Japan from proceeding in detail toward any extensive reduction of armaments, because her strength is contingent upon the naval forces of the European powers.

However, it is practically assured that Great Britain and the United States will write a treaty. If the other powers refuse to come in Uncle Sam and John Bull will sign it alone.

SECRETARY OF LABOR J. J. DAVIS has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator for Pennsylvania. Mr. Davis' announcement came after he had been informed that William S. Vare had withdrawn from the senate race and would throw him his support. Mr. Davis denied that he intended to withdraw from the cabinet to make the race.

THE great importance of teaching civic responsibility to the youth of today, along with the ability to read and write, was stressed by President Hoover in a short address at a dinner given by the Boy Scouts of America.

Four hundred business and professional men, gathered in Washington to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement and to launch a big expansion program, listened while the President spoke of the necessity for training the boys of impressionable age in the duties and obligations of citizenship, "if the country is to continue as a successful democracy."

Mr. Hoover spoke in the highest terms of the Boy Scout movement, asserting that it is one of the most valuable educational and training forces for democracy in the nation. The President also praised the leaders of the Boy Scouts for offering the boy of today an opportunity for real adventure and of directing his interests toward "constructive joy" instead of "destructive glee."

MAHATMA GANDHI, Indian leader and mystic, is conducting a campaign for civil disobedience against British rule in India. Demonstrations have been held in various parts of the country, but they have been orderly. Gandhi defies the British government to arrest him and warned his followers that they must be prepared "for the worst, even death, in plans for defiance of the salt tax." Production of salt in defiance of the government monopoly is the first disobedience step of the Indian program.

The British authorities are taking every precaution to prevent trouble.

IMMEDIATE appropriation of more than $173,000,000 for multiple government projects was voted by the senate in passing the first deficiency bill.

Of this sum $100,000,000 is for the farm board, giving that newly established government organization a total of $250,000,000 of the $500,000,000 authorized for its revolving fund by congress. The additional fund was approved without opposition.

A NEW financial and diplomatic era dawned for Germany and Europe when the reichstag, following the plea of Chancellor Mueller, voted to accept the Young plan, which provides for the final liquidation of Germany's war debts.

In his address in the reichstag Chancellor Mueller hailed the expected liberation of the Rhineland, its recovery of sovereignty and control of finances, railroads and taxes. "We no longer will depend on decisions of the uncontrolled and uncontrollable office in the hands of foreigners as was the case under the Dawes plan," he said.

WITH the body of William Howard Taft resting beneath the newly turned sod in Arlington cemetery, the affection which he bore for Mrs. Taft, his three children, and Yale university was attested when his will was opened.

To "my dear wife, Helen H. Taft," the final testament of the former President left virtually his entire estate. Filed for probate, it disclosed no valuation.

Yale university, where Taft spent many of the happiest years of his busy life, first as an undergraduate, and then as the Kent professor of law from 1913 until 1921, when he rose to the chief justiceship, received the largest single sum mentioned in his will—$10,000. It will be added to the principal of the alumni university fund and credited to his own class, that of 1878.

To his three children, Robert A., and Charles P. Taft, and Mrs. Helen Taft Manning, the former chief justice left some of his most prized possessions—his papers, manuscripts, correspondence, addresses, and copyrights. They are to be used as the recipients think best, after consultation with Mrs. Taft.

A COMMITTEE of the New York County Lawyers association, after a two-year study of the question, decided by a six to one vote to challenge the Eighteenth amendment as a defiance of the Tenth amendment to the Constitution. The committee also voted to submit their contentions to the Supreme court for a test ruling.

The Tenth amendment reads: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution nor prohibited by it to the states are reserved to the states, respectively, or to the people."

The fact that the Eighteenth amendment conflicts vitally with the older Tenth amendment has never been presented to the Supreme court for a ruling.

THREE states—New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio—are to spend more than a billion dollars this year for construction and maintenance of state, county, and municipal public works, according to figures assembled by Secretary of Commerce Robert P. Lamont. Gov. John S. Fisher of Pennsylvania has just reported to Secretary Lamont that the total for that state is estimated at $305,988,118. The total for New York state is $475,275,442, while that for Ohio is $223,225,000.

"On the basis of complete reports from more than two-thirds of the states covering all types of public construction and maintenance to be carried out in 1930, together with reports from federal departments and commissions and public utility companies," said Secretary Lamont, "prompt decisive action in speeding up this year's $7,000,000,000 program of construction work of these types seems well established."

IN VIEW of the issue raised by senate radicals in opposing the nomination of Charles Evans Hughes for chief justice, it is likely that unless President Hoover names a man of known liberal tendencies to succeed the late Associate Justice Edward Terry Sanford there will be another long-drawn out fight in the senate.

LEGISLATION to place the power industry under the controlling hand of the federal government is now before congress, sponsored by Senator Couzens of Michigan, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee.

The bill is the second to follow months of inquiry into and discussion of activities of the giant power industry and its relations with the federal trade and power commissions.

Couzens, a Republican, is the author also of another bill, to reorganize the power commission, and was confident of getting both the reorganization and the regulatory proposals before the senate this session.

THE army engineers are ready to proceed with $35,000,000 of flood control construction along the main stem of the Mississippi river as soon as congress makes the money available.

Selecting work not involved in the controversy over the merits of the Jadwin plan, the engineers have virtually completed all plans and specifications and their field forces are ready to go to work after the pending appropriation bill is passed.

Coincident with this announcement, Secretary Hurley made known that condemnation proceedings will be brought immediately to obtain levee and roadway rights across railroad and state highway lines in the Bonnet Carre floodway in Louisiana. (© 1930, Western Newspaper Union.)

A "Whiskers" Come-back?

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

ARE whiskers about to stage a come-back as a companion piece to bustles, also reported to be staging a come-back, this should bring about a revival of the pottery industry by stimulating trade in mustache cups. —AUXVASSE (Mo.) Review.

The first superficial thought. Do our newspapers accurately reflect contemporary American life? Consider, then, two newspaper items. One reads as follows:

Apocryphal rumor that whiskers are about to do a come-back as a companion piece to bustles, also reported to be staging a come-back, this should bring about a revival of the pottery industry by stimulating trade in mustache cups. —AUXVASSE (Mo.) Review.

The other goes into the subject more exhaustively and says: Taffeta and ruffles have been worn before, and still there was no wide outbreak of whiskers. We had the long skirt for a while, too, and few whiskers returned. But it will be a surprising and an unhistoric thing if we can have black mitts for evening and billowy skirts that sweep the ground and these coy puff sleeves and lace bonnets and now long-skirted bathing suits, even—and never a burn-side to go with them. The wax models in the windows of shop and shoppe alike cry out for bearded company. A woman in such apparel not only needs an escort to the soiree; she needs a doughty blade with whiskers. Therefore, he will appear, and the motion picture doctor will no longer be alone in his Van Dyke.

There are portents, political and musical. A Paris dispatch informs us that "the present French cabinet, which consists of 22 ministers and sub-ministers, shows not a single shaven member," and in addition, four chief representatives at the London parley brought mustaches, while the fifth has a beard. Locally, every one is aware of Chief Justice Hughes, Mr. J. Ham Lewis, Louis Graves, Doctor Britton of the New York botanical garden and Ernest Boyd, critic incarnadine, and finally several tenors have appeared in those mustaches which we associate with bartenders. Inevitably we must return to our mutton chops if the spring fashions continue back toward 1850. The short bodice, the sprigged frock, the chignon and the genteel black glove look alike with no protective whiskers above them, yet here they are. And when whiskers come back, mark your grandfather's words, so will chaperons. —New York Herald Tribune.

There you have it—from both the rural and the metropolitan press, representing both the country and the city! However true it may be that the safety-razor-using, smooth-faced American appears to be in the majority today, is it beyond belief that he may choose to return to the be-whiskered glory of the past? History shows that the facial adornment of the ruler of a nation usually sets the hirsute styles of the citizens of that nation. Now, of course, in a democracy such as ours the citizens are not likely to imitate the example of their President as are the subjects of a monarchy to follow the mode set by their king or emperor.

But the fact remains that during most of our history Americans have in general followed the style in regard to whiskers or no whiskers as set by our Presidents, although that may have been only a coincidence. Our early Presidents from Washington down to and including Buchanan were all smooth-faced and most Americans of their times were, too. Abraham Lincoln was the first President with a full beard and during his administration the golden age of whiskers began. Not the least of the elements which made the Civil war so picturesque were the magnificent mustaches, beards and sideburns which adorned the generals and statesmen, both Union and Confederate, during that period. A Civil war general, or even a colonel, a major or a captain without whiskers—well, the picture simply isn't complete, that's all!

Lincoln's successor, Andrew Johnson, was smooth-shaven, it is true, but his successors more than made up for his deficiency in carrying on the tradition. With the inauguration of

Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm

Grant, whiskers came definitely into their own and for the next thirty years they were much in evidence in both the White House and the Capitol. Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Harrison all wore full beards. Arthur wore a mustache and sideburns and Cleveland wore a mustache. McKinley's smooth-shaven face marked the end of the bearded era, but Roosevelt and Taft symbolized a sort of a hang-over with their mustaches.

The present smooth-shaven era began with Woodrow Wilson and has continued through the administrations of Harding and Coolidge down to the election of Hoover. Now that we have had nearly twenty years of smooth-shaven Presidents is the pendulum about to swing back again, and give us another bearded President to set the style for his fellow-Americans?

Look at the portraits of the be-whiskered notables shown above and pick out your own style. The full, flowing "chest-protector" beard worn by Edwin M. Stanton, secretary of war in Lincoln's cabinet, is not only typical of the style most popular in the American golden age of whiskers but it is one of the oldest styles. As will be seen by data presented later in this article, it goes back to very ancient times. If, however, it would overtax the patience of the average American to wait for the growth of such a luxuriant crop, the hairy collar style, with the ostrich plume effect, as exemplified by Horace Greeley, the great editor, might be less trouble to cultivate.

Many Americans may not remember the services of the gallant Gen. Ambrose Everett Burnside during the Civil war, but they are not likely to forget what he contributed to American facial adornment. They are sometimes referred to as "mutton chop whiskers," thereby depriving the general of credit which properly belongs to him. For, as everybody knows, the right name for them is obtained by reversing the name of the man who made them popular and calling them "sideburns." Similarly, his imperial—and ill-fated—majesty, Napoleon III, made popular in France the combination of sharp-pointed mustache and lower-lip whiskers, or "goatee," which goes by the name of "imperial." It is doubtful if the average American would care for this "foreign invention"—preferring one of the "made-in-America" brands—any more than he would care for the sharply up-turned mustache of the ex-kaiser of Germany. One fault of the latter type—at least, there is a tradition to this effect—is that it requires too much attention, such as putting it in a cloth framework at night so that it will not sag, droop or otherwise lose its perky uprightness.

The United States, however, is not the only country in which there are signs of a whiskers come-back. From France comes word that a well-known arbiter of styles on the Parisian boulevards has started a campaign for the return of the beard which he regards as the "outward sign of a mature mind." Thus is another historical cycle completed, for in early times the beard was considered by all nations as a sign of strength and manhood, carefully cherished and almost regarded as sacred. More than that, its removal was considered a particularly degrading form of punishment. In the second book of Samuel in the Old Testament is related the story of the servants which King David sent to Hanun, ruler of the Ammonites, to comfort him for the death of his father. Their reception is described as follows:

Napoleon III

And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out and to overthrow it?

Wherefore Hanun took David's servants and shaved off the one-half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed; and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

Among the Moslems the beard was also held in great respect and the strongest oath that a Mohammedan could utter was, "By the beard of the Prophet!" People of this religious belief took great care of their beards, habitually carrying combs to comb it and keep it in order. It was their custom to do this after prayers, while still on their knees, and if any hairs fell out they immediately picked them up and preserved them for burial with their owners. They also dyed their beards, usually red, not only because dye of that color was easily obtainable, but because it was nearly like the golden yellow, the color recommended by Mohammed, who hated black, the color which the Persians dyed their beards.

In France and Spain the wearing of beards followed the styles set by the monarchs of those countries. The beard was commonly worn in France until the time of Louis XII, who, being young and beardless, set a new style and the fashion changed. In Spain the loyal Spanish courtiers removed their beards when Philip V, who was unable to grow a beard, came to the throne.

In Russia Peter the Great issued a royal edict compelling his subjects to shave or pay a tax on their beards in proportion to the rank of the wearer. Henry VIII of England attempted a similar tax in England, but found it difficult to enforce the law and later gave it up. As a result the reigns of Elizabeth and James I were characterized by the wildest extravagance in beard growing with some men clipping their beards into as many formal shapes as the old-fashioned box hedges. Under the reign of Charles I the Van Dyke beard, named for the famous painter, became popular, only to be followed by a smooth-faced era during the Eighteenth century and down to the days of "our dear queen," Victoria, whose royal consort and whose son, later Edward VII, brought back the pointed beard as one of the glories of the Mid-Victorian days.

RASPUTIN'S DAUGHTER NOW CABARET DANCER

Ekes Out Meager Living in Montmartre, France.

Paris, France.—The daughter of the monk Rasputin, who wielded powerful influence over the czarina of Russia, Mme. Marie Solovieva-Rasputin, earns a meager living as a cabaret dancer in Montmartre.

Since she came to France with many thousands of other Russians after the Red revolution, the daughter of Rasputin has experienced many vicissitudes and has worked in many humble stations in order to support herself and her two children.

"I consider myself lucky in being able to dance in the fashionable night resorts in the bright-light district of Paris, where thousands of Americans come to amuse themselves," Mme. Solovieva-Rasputin said.

In Taxi Smashup. "I have been dogged by the same sinister influence which fate seemed to exercise over my father, because I was recently involved in a taxi smash and was unable to work for a time, and it was only because of gifts from charitable people that I and my two daughters, seven and five years old, have been able to exist."

The daughter of the Russian monk is intensely religious. At night, after the bright lights of Montmartre are dimmed, she goes to her room and prays before the ikon, which is one of the few legacies she possesses from her father.

CHILDREN SLAIN IN BRONZE AGE FOUND

Bones Dug Up in Jericho Prove Early Sacrifice.

Jericho, Palestine.—The practice of child-sacrifice on the site of Jericho in the Bronze age was revealed by inspection of the latest excavations made here under direction of the British archeologist, Prof. Walter Garstang.

The expedition has discovered that the earlier city had the largest wall and that the city began to decline and lose population, making necessary the building of smaller and more easily protected walls in later centuries.

The biblical version is that Joshua was instructed to have his priests march around the wall seven days, blowing trumpets and then, on the seventh day, all the people shouted with a great shout and the wall fell flat and they marched in.

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

COULD HARDLY DO HER WORK

Strengthened by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mission, Tex.—"I have used a good deal of your medicine and always find it gives wonderful help. I was feeling so weak and miserable that I had to be down very often and I could hardly do my housework. I read in the paper how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped other women who were in the same condition so I said I will try it for myself. I am very much better now and I recommend this medicine and will answer letters from women asking about it."

Action Without Harm Whenever Constipated

Here's a way to be rid of constipation and its ill-effects—a way that works quickly, effectively, but gently. A candy Cascares at night—by next morning you're feeling fine! Breath is sweetened; tongue cleared; biliousness, headache, dizziness go away. Repeat the treatment two or three nights to get the working water out of your system. See how appetite and energy return; how digestion improves.

The action of Cascares is sure, complete, helpful to everyone. They are made from cascaris, which doctors agree actually strengthens heart muscles. All drug stores have the 10c boxes.

JESUS TEACHING AND HEALING

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 15:22-28:12.
(Print Matthew 15:21-23.)
GOLDEN TEXT—Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find;
knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Kindness to a Stranger.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Kindness to a Stranger.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOP-IC—Faith that Wins.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC—Faith Tested and Triumphant.

The material embraced in this section of Scripture is too abundant to attempt to cover in one lesson, therefore selection should be made in keeping with the lesson topic.

I. Without Honor in One's Own Country (13:54-58).

Jesus shared the common fate of men—unacknowledged in His own country. Even His own brothers did not believe on Him till after His resurrection (John 7:3-8; cf. Acts 1:14).
Familiarity has a paralyzing effect, and at times breeds contempt. Because of unbelief only a limited work could be done there.

II. Jesus Healing the Multitude (14:13, 14).

1. He retired to the desert (v. 13).
The news of the cruel death of John the Baptist brought grief to the Master's heart, and He withdrew to a place of quietness to commune with His Father. The best thing to do in time of sorrow is to flee into the presence of God. Jesus accepted John's death as typical of His own.

2. Followed by the people (v. 13).
He could not be concealed. The people's interest was such that they followed Him on foot. Where Jesus is, the multitude gathers.

3. Jesus healing the sick (v. 14).

Although the rulers had broken with Him, He did not abandon His work. He continued to preach and work for the good of those who would hear. Though desperate and hopeless cases were brought to Him, nothing was found too hard for Him. The people's great need excited His sympathy. He is just the same today.

III. Jesus Healing the Daughter of the Woman at Canaan (Matt. 15:21- 28).

The first twenty-one verses of this chapter should be considered in connection with this topic. The force of the lesson can only be seen in contrast with the failure of the people. Verses 1-20 represent the apostasy of Israel and her rejection of the Savior. In sharp contrast, we see in the healing of this woman, salvation typically going forth to the Gentiles.

1. The mother's awful distress (vv. 21, 22).

Her daughter was grievously vexed with a devil. The sufferings of the mother were perhaps as intense as those of the child. This Gentile woman had doubtless heard of the fame of Jesus. His power to heal had come to her notice and many times she longed for Him to come her way that her daughter might be healed. Now that He was in her neighborhood she came straightway to Him. Let parents be encouraged to bring their children to Jesus, even though they be demon-possessed.

2. The woman's fervent appeal for help (vv. 22-25).

She fell at His feet and pled for mercy. She besought Him to cast the devil out. Her appeal may be considered as a model prayer.

(1) She was sincere and earnest.
(2) The prayer was brief and definite.
(3) It was personal and humble. (4)
It was believing and persistent.

3. The woman's faith rewarded (vv. 26-28).

(1) The Lord's apparent refusal
(v. 23). He answered her not a word.
The reason for His silence was that He was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. This woman was a stranger to the Covenant people. Her appeal was on the wrong basis. She addressed Him as the Son of David, which only a child of the kingdom had a right to do. She must come in the right way. (2) The woman's quick response (vv. 25-27). As soon as she perceived the difficulty, she worshiped Him as Lord and cried for help. While only the Israelite could approach Him as the Son of David, all could come to Him and own Him as Lord. She willingly took her place as a Gentile "dog," recognizing that salvation is of the Jews. (3) The glorious issue of her faith (v. 28). She received more than she asked. Her daughter was healed at once and the instruction
she received was worth much to her.
She goes down in history with the Savior's commendation of her faith.

Life Needs a Good Pattern

Remember how swiftly the shuttle flies and how a broken thread may mar the fabric. Remember that without a good pattern, all weaving is to no purpose; take much thought, therefore, as to the pattern of a good life and be greatly instructed by that life which is the exemplar for us all.—

ANYTHING YOU WANT IN HATS; LACY-KNIT TUCK-IN LATEST

NO ONE need complain this season of not being able to find a becoming hat. The shops are full of 'em!

You can see from the models in the picture that hats are—well, just anything you want them to be. Brimmed or unbrimmed, of lacy straw, of the new and immensely popular glossy smooth-as-linen straws, of jutting ribbon, or perhaps flaunting polka dots, for polka dots have become the plaything of the milliner this season—yes, spring millinery dares to be just that versatile.

Perhaps there is no item which quite so intrigues the feminine eye in millinery openings now taking place, as that of the new lace straws. The story of these lacy straws is a fascinating tale of many chapters, beginning with touches of openwork straws in connection with other straws. The program includes also charming little dance caps or berets of straw lace, leading on and on through a maze of lace straw effects, one brim widening more than another, climaxing with huge diaphanous and most flattering capellines—the latter a picturesque feature in sight for summer.

The first hat in this group bespeaks
the graceful lines which the new lacy straws are assuming.

By way of contrast, attention is called to the smart hat just below which is one of the very glossy black panamaque types. The bow at the back is made of a pasted feather banding. One sees these little feather novelties positioned on quite a few of the new spring straws.

Belted ribbon! How often are we hearing of the belting-ribbon hat. The idea is to have the hat of belting ribbon to match the frock in color, or at least to show a color relation. Perfectly

VARIETY OF MILLINERY

models work the voguish linen-like exotic straws in conjunction with be-gugging lace straws. In some instances the edge of the brim of a panamaque, or bako, or ballumbi straw, or a kindred type, is finished with a narrow color-matched lace straw border.

Another becoming type is the hat whose crown of smooth straw is brimmed with a flare of lace straw, accenting an extremely openwork pattern. Hats of this character are exceedingly effective in black or navy.

The Lacy-Knit Tuck-In.

Here is something really new and very swagger—the sleeveless lacy-knit tuck-in. In the way of an early spring sports blouse, there's nothing smarter.
For that matter, things knitted of every description have moved to the very front of the style stage. Wherefore, with women who are fashion-wise, it is a foregone conclusion that a collection of knitted costumes must be included in every up-to-the-moment spring wardrobe.

The new knitted modes are masterpieces considered from the standpoint of coloring, design and construction.
In fact, one has to look more than once to be really sure that this dress or that, this ensemble or that, is really knitted, for in this season's models there is not a style detail lacking, such as, for instance, bolero effects, cape-lets, flared and plaited skirts. In fact, all the intriguing fashion items which

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE SPRING OUTFIT

charming with the sprightly print frocks are close-fitting types made of belting ribbon, of which the little toque in the oval is a pleasing exponent.

And now we came to the subject of polka dots. It seems that milliners are making a feature of polka dot effects. Sometimes the dots are cut out of felt and pasted on the hat, then again they are handpainted or embroidered, or else, as is the case with the hat and scarf set in the picture, the chapeau and accessory details are fashioned of polka dot silk or a kindred fabric.

In selecting the new spring hat,
keep in mind the importance of bright blues, also navy. The trend in costume is decidedly toward all-blue ensembles. As a consequence milliners are showing most beguiling dark or bright blue hats to complement coats and frocks in the same tones.

Many of these smart-looking new

Finds Youth's Fountain!

"JUST one thing has contributed more than anything else in my life toward making me the radiantly happy woman I am today," writes
Mrs. Walter Ruel, of Glenbrook, Conn. "If this was selling at ten dollars a bottle instead of the few cents it costs, I would scrape the money together, and I don't mean maybe!"

"I guess a good many others feel the same way, judging by the number of people I know who swear by this 'Fountain of Youth.'"

Millions of people all over the world have discovered this simple secret, which is nothing but giving our bodies the internal lubrication that they need, as much as any machine. After you have taken Nujol for a few days, and have proved to yourself how it brightens your whole life, you will wonder how so simple a treatment can make such a great change in your health and your happiness. The reason is this:

Regularly as clock work, Nujol clears out of our bodies those poisons (we all have them) which slow us up, make us headachy, low in our minds.

Colorless and tasteless as pure water, Nujol cannot hurt you, no matter how long you take it. It is not a medicine. It contains no drugs.

It forms no habit. It is non-fattening.

Try Nujol yourself and see how much better you feel. Get a bottle in its sealed package at any drug store and be sure it's trademarked
"Nujol." It costs but a few cents—and it makes you feel like a million dollars! Start taking Nujol this very night!

Have Kidneys Examined By Your Doctor

Take Salts to Wash Kidneys if Back Pains You or Bladder
Bothers

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to get it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you suffer with a dull misery in the loin region, sharp pains in the back, sick headache, dizziness, your tongue is coated, and if the weather is bad you have muscle twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels are sore and irritated, obliging
you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys, flush out the body's urinous waste, four ounces of Jad Salts from any drug store; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may be set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and citrus juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush out the kidneys; also neutralize the acids in the system they no longer irritate, thus often preventing bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

How Dallas Mother Keeps Children Well

When a person can depend on the medicine to keep herself and her family free from the effects of constipation for more than ten years, what more can you expect?
Mrs. H. A. Lawson, who lives at 25 Terrace Drive in Dallas, says Sature's Remedy hasn't failed us for ten years since I first started using it for myself and children. I give these little tablets the credit for keeping us healthy all these years.

Results like that are what make Sature's Remedy (NR Tablets) so popular. More than three million tablets are used a day. Any druggist will tell you to use them if you suffer from biliousness, sick headache, indigestion, rheumatic aches and lack of energy. The cost is only 25c.

Any COLD

That cold may lead to something serious, if neglected.
The time to do something for it is now. Don't wait until it develops into bronchitis. Take two or three tablets of Bayer Aspirin as soon as you feel a cold coming on. Or as soon as possible after it starts.
Bayer Aspirin will head off or relieve the aching and feverish feeling—will stop the headache. And if your throat is affected, dissolve two or three tablets in a quarter-glassful of warm water, and gargle. This quickly soothes a sore throat and reduces inflammation and infection. Read proven directions for neuralgia,

That Kind Hangs On and On

Literature First
Young Lady—You know I am writing a book now entitled, "How I Raised My First-Born."

Mrs. Guyer—Oh, I never do! Give me a line full of clothes every time, my dear.

The Change
Old Friend—Well, I'm certainly glad to see that your great wealth hasn't changed you.
Millionaire—Well, it has changed me in one thing. I'm now "eccentric" where I used to be impolite, and "delightfully sarcastic" where I used to be rude.

A Great Druggist's One Fault
Two druggists were talking about one of their confreres who had died.
"He was a great druggist," said one.
"He was," admitted the other, "but don't you think he made his chicken salad a little too salty?"

Just So Happened
"How did you come to quarrel with your friend?"
"He threw a glass of beer at me, then a bottle—I threw the bottle back and soon we found ourselves quarreling."

Masterpieces
"I saw some genuine homespun things at Jones' house last night."
"How interesting! What were they?"
"Spider webs."

In a Rut
"Why is it you wish to leave after being in this position for over 30 years?"
"I suppose, sir, because I've always been careful about not getting into a rut."

A SLIPPERY CUSTOMER
First Fish—"I hear Mr. Eel, who is wanted by the lobster cops, is still at large."
Second Fish—"Yes, they thought they had him several times, but he slipped through their hands."

A Profitable Far
The Customer—I understand your hobby is coin collecting. Have you a large collection?
The Walter—Fairly satisfactory, sir. Mostly quarters and halves.

Tree Planting
Nine of the thirty-four states co-operating with the federal government in the distribution of forest planting stock under the reforestation provisions of the Clarke-McNary law, distributed 96 per cent of the total. For the year 1927 the total distribution was 55,020,929 trees. Leaders in reforestation are Pennsylvania and New York, which distributed 65 per cent of the total number of trees distributed by the co-operating states New York's total being 23,302,000 and Pennsylvania 14,500,000. The third largest distribution was made by Massachusetts with 3,515,037; the fourth by Ohio with 2,572,000; the fifth by Vermont with 2,088,000; the sixth by New Hampshire with 1,984,084; the seventh by Wisconsin with 1,904,900; the eighth by Connecticut with 1,348,000, and the ninth by New Jersey with 1,172,500.

Census Shows U. S. Growth
In the first census in 1790 the population was only 3,929,214. In 1920 the enumeration showed there were 105,710,620 inhabitants in the United States. In 1910 the total was 91,972,299, making an increase for the decade from 1910 to 1920 of 13,738,324. If, as has been estimated, the total for the continental United States during the coming census passes the 120,000,000 mark, the increase for this decade will be slightly greater.—Washington Star

ROUND WORMS IN SWINE HARMFUL

Injury Is Often So Great Pigs Never Recover.

The common round worms of swine are known as Ascaris Linthroides. They are commonly spoken of among veterinarians and parasitologists as Ascarids, but most some producers speak of them as round worms of swine.

The large round worms of swine attain a length of as much as 12 inches. The average size ranges from 6 to 12 inches and these worms are about one-quarter inch in diameter. They are pinkish in color.

When young pigs are very heavily infested with round worms the larvae (small worms) which find their way to the lungs in large numbers and in a condition of maturity. This is a form of pneumonia and is often severe enough to stain the pigs to such an extent they never recover properly afterwards. Many of those pigs will linger for several weeks after severe round worm infestation and then their death or being killed, if the lungs are examined, much evidence of the invasion of the larvae stage of the round worm will be found. The injury is so great with many young pigs that they never entirely recover.

As the worm eggs hatch out in the intestinal tract of the pig, the small larvae are taken up by the blood stream where they go to the liver and then to the lungs where they remain long enough to set up an inflammation which is often severe enough to develop into pneumonia. After a short stay in the lungs, the larvae travel up the trachea or windpipe and are re-swallowed and then after finding their way to the intestines of the pig, develop into full size worms. This requires about two and one-half months.

It is estimated that a full-grown female round worm in the intestines of the hog may produce as many as 850,000,000 eggs. From this it is evident how great the contamination of bug yards and quarters must be after a number of worm-infested pigs have been kept in them for several weeks.

The eggs of the round worms are very resistant to weather conditions and to many chemicals. It is not known just how long the eggs will remain alive, but it is safe to conclude that the majority of worm eggs will remain alive for more than one year under ordinary farm conditions. Round worm eggs are resistant to many chemicals. This is due to the fact that they are enclosed in a tough gelatinous membrane or capsule. In order to destroy these round worm eggs, it is necessary to use some caustic material which will dissolve this membrane covering. The best product that we know of for this purpose is concentrated lye which should be used in boiling water—one pound to every ten gallons of boiling water. This solution will destroy practically all round worm or other worm eggs with which it comes in contact.

The scale of life becomes a frown when the rhyolite is bare.

Oklahoma Girl Strong as Boy

"Louise Alice was fretful, nervous and all run-down from whooping cough," says Mrs. F. J. Kolar, 1730 West 22nd St., Oklahoma City, Okla. "The little I could force her to eat wouldn't ever digest. She became underweight, sallow and weak. "Then I decided to try California Fig Syrup, and the results surprised me. Her bowels started working immediately, and in little or no time she was eating as she got to be a part of the table, always asking us to pass things. Her weight increased, her color improved and she began to romp and play again like other children. Now she's the picture of health, and strong as a boy."

Pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable California Fig Syrup acts surely and quickly to cleanse your child's stomach and bowels of the souring waste that is keeping her half-sick, bilious, sallow, feverish, listless, weak and puny. But it's more than a laxative. It tones and strengthens the stomach and bowels so these organs continue to act normally of their own accord.

Over four million bottles used a year shows its popularity. Ask for it by the full name, "California Fig Syrup," so you'll get the genuine endorsed by physicians for 50 years.

The devil tempts us not; 'tis we tempt him, beseeching his skill with opportunity.—George Eliot.

Feed Separately Ewes With Twins or Triplets

Ewes with twins or triplets really need more feed than a ewe with a single lamb and if you can go to the trouble of feeding them separately you will find it a great help in making twins as good as singles. Give these twin and triplet raisers all the grain they will clean up in a few minutes, twice daily, and all the clover or alfalfa they want. Also these twin and triplet lambs need a creep and special feed more than single lambs. A good creep feed for young lambs is first bran and oil meal mixed, then add ground oats, then ground corn. In a short time they will eat whole oats but one must grind the corn for a long time. Creep feed lambs go to market earlier, grade higher, weigh more and worry their mothers less. They will pay a mighty good price for the grain they eat.

Hogging Off Crops

For ten years, peas and corn have been grown for hogging-off at the Edgeley substation, North Dakota. The cash returns per acre from the peas ranged from $18.95 to $82.92; corn, $20 to $82.94. In four years, returns from peas were not great enough to show a profit; in the other six years the profit ranged from $1.99 to $20.28 per acre. The daily gain per hog on peas was from .55 to 1.33 pounds; on corn, 1.23 to 1.7 pounds. In five years peas produced more pork than corn.

Animals for Breeding

Proper feeding is very important, but it is by no means the only thing for the farmer to consider. Breeding is at least of equal importance with feeding. It is a well recognized fact among breeders of registered live stock and feeders of experience. Judging from the small percentage of pure-bred stock we have in this country, however, it is but fair to assume that the majority of live stock producers do not appreciate the value of improved blood for breeding purposes.

Best oil cheapest in home, says factory sup't.

"The last thing we'd try to economize on," says the superintendent of a large eastern factory, "is lubricating oil. By using cheap oil we could save hundreds of dollars each year—but it would cost us thousands of dollars for repairs, replacements and lessened efficiency of equipment."

The same is true in the home. If all housewives knew what factory men know about lubrication, few of them would use anything but 3-in-One Oil for their expensive sewing machines, vacuum cleaners, electric fans, lawn mowers, washers, and other household devices. 3-in-One, a blend of mineral, vegetable and animal oils, is the best oil for household use, for it cleans and protects as well as lubricates.

Ask for the old reliable 3-in-One oil at good drug, grocery, hardware, department and general stores; in 15c and 25c sizes. For your protection, look for the trade mark "3-in-One" printed in Red on every package.
