

Willkie Off To Deliver Acceptance

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 15 (AP)—Wendell L. Willkie will fly late today to Indiana where, in his acceptance address Saturday, he is expected to disclose for the first time his views on military conscription.

The republican nominee was scheduled to arrive in Indianapolis at about 8 p. m. (CST) tonight, and he will motor to Rushville, Ind., the home town of Mrs. Willkie.

The acceptance address Willkie will deliver Saturday at Elwood,

Ind., his own home town, probably will cover the general range of campaign issues, as well as conscription. He gave the address a last minute going over yesterday and sent it to the printer.

On the eve of his departure from his vacation hotel, Willkie renewed his demand that the democratic national committee return funds paid for advertising in party campaign books and suggested creation of "an impartial board" to enforce election laws.

The nominee said at his press conference he believed the question of "machine political control" would be a major one in the presidential campaign. Then, in response to questions, he named foreign policy and national defense as the two top issues.

Aid to Great Britain short of war and a demand for a revitalization of defense were understood to be among the candidate's approaches to those two questions.

BRITAIN REPLACES APPEAL FOR U. S. DESTROYERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today the British were repeating "every week" urgent appeals for permission to buy old United States destroyers.

At a press conference, the treasury chief declared the question of destroyers first came up "several months ago" and had been pressed ever since.

He was asked whether the British had discussed such methods of paying for the destroyers as trading British islands in the western hemisphere, but replied that "I'm not going into that."

TEA TIME TASTIES

Nothing is more refreshing on a long, hot summer afternoon than a cool, frosty glass of iced tea. There are ideal foods to go with tea on any occasion—for parties, when tea is the welcomed drink; or for a gathering of young folks; or for the men; in fact, for any time when refreshments are in order.

One of the new drinks that has zoomed into popularity is ski-ball. Here's the recipe:

Ski-Ball

1 1-2 teaspoons sugar.
1 thick slice lemon stuck with 12 to 18 cloves.
1 cinnamon muddler.
Hot, black tea.
Place sugar, lemon and the muddler in a ski-ball or Russian glass (both have handles); pour over this the strong, hot fragrant black tea and serve at once.

And now for some of the food companions to good tea. If you ever had the notion that the masculine half of the human race considers tea a stinky drink, forget it. Break up on the business man of today when he's having lunch, or when he's taking a little "time out" in the afternoon, and you'll find him enjoying tea. And for Mr. America, something good to go with tea would be—

Hot Malted Cheese Sandwich

Spread over two slices of freshly buttered toast some chopped American cheese. Sprinkle with paprika. Criss-cross with four slices of bacon, place under broiler until golden brown and serve very hot.

When young people meet, refreshments are often served informally from a buffet. Tea fits in here, too, and here is an unusual delicacy that will go with such a drink. It's called—

Madeline

2 cups almond paste
2 cups icing sugar
2 cups butter
1 cup flour
10 eggs
1 lemon rind shredded
Cream half the butter and half the sugar. Mix the other half sugar with almond paste and five eggs. Whip other five eggs into creamed butter and sugar. Add rind. Combine mixtures. Fold in lightly into molds, and put molds into ice box until butter has formed stiff lining. Dust lightly with flour. Fill molds with batter and bake in moderate oven until almond-brown.

Simple cookies are always the ideal accompaniment to tea. Here are two good recipes:

Dale Cookies

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup nuts (chopped)
1 small pkg. dates
1 teaspoon flavoring
Beat eggs, add sugar, sift flour and baking powder together, add to eggs; stir in nuts and dates; add flavoring. Bake in greased shallow pan 20 minutes. While still warm, cut in strips and roll in powdered sugar.

Russian Ranks

1 cup butter
2 cups light brown sugar
3 eggs
2 tablespoons cream
4 1-2 cups flour
2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup dates (chopped)
1 cup nuts (chopped)
1-4 teaspoon salt
Cream butter, add sugar; add eggs, cream, dates and nuts; add dry ingredients sifted together. Chill dough. Pinch off on cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven 12 minutes.

RABBITS VS. SNAKE

AUSTIN, Aug. 15 (AP)—The game department offers from its stranger than fiction division the story of two rabbits that fought a snake. And it has the word of Ode Morris and Elbert Stewart of Comanche to prove it.

The men, employed at the city pumping station, saw a snake suddenly grab a one-third grown cotton tail but the reptile evidently didn't figure on papa and mama cotton tail who jumped on the snake and forced it to release their offspring.

Mexico Faces New Crisis In Politics

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 15 (AP)—Gunfire and publication today of government charges of "rebellion" against leaders of the political party of General Juan Almazan, independent presidential claimant, heightened tension in Mexico's bitter political situation.

One woman was killed and seven wounded in a shooting last night.

Congressional candidates of the faction headed by Almazan and by General Manuel Avila Camacho, the administration favorite, prepared preliminary sessions late today to organize for opening of congress Sept. 1.

The pro-administration present congress, in another move aimed at breaking down Almazan's claim to the presidency—a claim disputed by Camacho—called on Attorney General Jenaro Vasquez to prosecute Almazan for "subversive activity" for a speech he made in Havana, Cuba, this week.

Broadcasting by radio to Mexico, he told his followers again he would take office as president Dec. 1.

Vasquez announced he had delivered to the federal district court evidence gathered in an investigation the congress asked on charges of "rebellion" by Almazan's followers.

Vasquez said his office had found it "desirable to put into movement immediately criminal action" against the group.

It may be true that the world will beat a path to the door of an individual with a better mouse trap, but it is certain that the world would more readily use a paved road than beat its own path.

Our Need For Roads

Years ago when a wagon or buggy was the mode of transportation, this indirection worked no great hardship, for a horse could be pointed across a prairie and a creek, and, if needs be, one could beat his own path with little loss of time.

NO SCHOOLHOUSE
PHELPS, Okla., Aug. 15 (UP)—Everything's set for school to start here next Monday . . . Except there isn't any schoolhouse.
The community decided to build a new one-room school house as the old one was torn down.
Then the board ran up against some technicalities and no work has been done yet.
The school board is shopping for a front porch to use temporarily.
