to estimates, Joe adopted a $611,336.65 budget for 1959, about $11,000 more than they estimate the county will spend in 1958.

The budget is based on the same tax rate of this year, 95 cents per $100 assessed valuation, and a total assessed valuation of $25,597,011.

Total valuation is up $456,995 over that of last year.

Approval of the 1959 budget came at a public hearing and a regular meeting of the commis- sioner's court Monday.

Other action at the meeting saw the court purchase 10 Road Dis- trict No. 3 bonds, series 1941, from Municipal Securities Co. for $10,225.56, including interest.

Money for the bonds, which had a face value of $1,000 each, came from Sinking Fund No. 3, where a surplus had been built up.

Purchase of the bonds at this time meant a savings in interest estimated at more than $600.

Total receipts for 1959, as indicated in the budget, are expected to be $644,235.

The county expects to start the year with a balance of $690,595.64, making total resources for 1959 stand at $1,244,830.64.

With total expenditures for 1959 expected to be $611,336.65, the county would end 1959 with a balance of $633,493.99, an increase of $33,338.35 from the same time a year previous.

The 95-cent tax rate breaks down this way: jury fund, two cents; road and bridge fund, 19 cents; special road and bridge, 15 cents; general fund, 34 cents and permanent improvement fund, 25 cents; total, 95 cents.

Separate from the county tax rate are these road district taxes: road district 1-A, 80 cents; no. 3, 60 cents; no. 4, $1.00 and no. 6, 20 cents.

Jackets' Homecoming

Cats Journey To Kermit For Saturday Night Tilt

By ALEX DUGGAN
The Littlefield Wildcats will make the long trip to Kermit Saturday night to provide homecoming entertainment for the Kermit Yellowjackets. Coach Don Williams said, "Kermit has always been tough at homecoming. On top of that, they have the same type club as Brownfield, and you saw what happened there." "Kermit ought to have more speed than any team we have played so far. Two boys in the backfield provide speed and power - Pace, the speed, and Towns, the power." "A guard, Quimby, and a tackle named Jackson are their main- stay linemen," Williams said. So far this season, Kermit has played four games, losing three and winning one. The Yellowjackets defeated Hobbs in their first outing, but since then they have lost to Seminole, Lamesa and Colorado City. Kermit was open last week, another reason that Coach Williams thinks that the Jackets will be tough this week. The Wildcats will leave Littlefield at noon on Saturday from the court house in a chartered bus. Coach Williams ordered mud cleats for use in case the game is played in the rain or on a muddy field. Bo Roberts, who suffered an arm injury during the first game of the season, has been working out this week. However, Roberts will not play in the Kermit game. He and Jere Don Marsh, out with a rib injury, are the only two casualties. (Continued on Page 5)

Vernon Houk Selects 13, Wins Leader's Grid Game

Vernon R. Houk of Littlefield walked away with top honors in the Leader's weekly football contest last week, picking 13 of 15 games right. He had plenty of competition from two other contestants, however. Mrs. Donnie Howell of Littlefield wound up second with 13 right and Eugene Carter, also of Littlefield, was third, also with 13 right. Houk won the contest by pressing nearest the actual score of the Littlefield-Clovis tie-breaking game. Houk guessed Littlefield would win, 33-13. He was 14 points away from the correct score of 40-6. Mrs. Howell was 23 points away with a 24-13 guess and Carter finished third with a 19-12 guess, 27 points off. Only games missed by Houk were Slaton's win over Lockney and Plainview's victory over Amarillo. Mrs. Howell missed on Springlake's victory over Amherst and Meadow's win over Anton. Carter failed on the Plainview upset of Amarillo and Anton's loss to Meadow. Another contest is under way in today's Leader with the Littlefield-Kermit game featured as the tie breaker. Other top games include Borger vs. Plainview, Muleshoe vs. Olton, Spade vs. Nazareth, Meadow vs. Amherst and Sudan vs. Springlake.

DOWNTOWN PEP RALLY SET

Littlefield High School students will stage a mass pep rally Saturday in front of the courthouse as a send-off for the Wildcats, who meet Kermit there Saturday night in a non-district football game. Students are hoping for a good turnout of townspeople at the send-off. The event is scheduled at 11:45 a.m. The Wildcats will leave at noon from the court- house by chartered bus.

Lamb County Grand Jury Returns 11 Indictments

Joe Stark Indicted For Murder

Eleven indictments were returned here late Monday by a Lamb County grand jury, including one for murder against Joseph J. (Joe) Stark, 58-year-old Springlake man.

Also indicted were Alvin Mixon, 48-year-old Amherst farmer, and Lowell Wooten, 25-year-old Bainer Switch farmer, both on charges of assault with intent to murder.

Other indictments returned by the jury, according to County Attorney Curtis Wilkinson, were these:

Forgery—William Henry Cato, two indictments; one other man who is not in custody, two indictments.

Burglary—Arthur Ray Oglesby of Littlefield and one other man not in custody, one indictment.

Stark, charged in the fatal shooting of a Littlefield oilfield worker near Springlake Sept. 18, was jailed Tuesday and bond was set at $5,000. He was still being held Wednesday morning.

Mixon, who was charged in two indictments for assault with intent to murder, went free on bonds of $1,000 on each case. Mixon is accused of pulling a shotgun on W. A. and A. L. Humphreys, both of Amherst, in an incident which occurred Sept. 26 at an Amherst cafe.

Wooten, accused in a shooting in which his wife, Shirley, 23, was wounded on July 22, went free on a $3,000 bond. He was charged with assault with intent to murder in the incident, which occurred at his father's farm near Bainer Switch.

Drizzle Slows Harvest

Weather, Labor Problem Bothering Area Farmers

Area farmers were beset with a pair of old problems early this week as they sought to keep the 1958 cotton harvest rolling.

First, drizzly weather set in Monday and Tuesday, leaving 29 of an inch of "misture" here and slowing down farm activity.

Then, the labor supply problem grew worse, and all sorts of talk started about farm workers' wages going up.

TEC Office Manager Ed Vaughn said the local office needs 8,000 to 9,000 workers to place on farms in Lamb County alone.

But he said any talk of the minimum wage for cotton workers going up is just "rumor" right now.

Some farmers complained that the local TEC office, Vaughn, in particular, had called for the minimum wage for domestics and Mexican Nationals to go up to $1.75 per hundredweight starting next Monday.

Vaughn, asked to comment of the complaint, said he "wouldn't

Kick-Off Oct. 22

Christian Named To Head C-C Membership Drive

Jack Christian, an old hand at helping out when there's civic work to be done, this week accepted the job of heading the Chamber of Commerce's annual membership campaign.

Christian, local Texas Company consignee, was named to the spot by C-C President Bob Manley.

The drive is scheduled to start Wednesday, Oct. 22, with the Chamber seeking "100 per cent participation," said President Manley.

Christian was busy early this week lining up his team of work- ers for the campaign.

The C-C's goal this year is to add 30 to 40 new members, sending total membership above the 200 mark.

Campaign workers will be aiming at a $13,825 budget for 1959. That amount is needed to carry out a full program of work for 1959, says President Manley.

The attraction of new industry is a big part of that program, said Manley, but other local improve- ments also will be emphasized.

Here are some of the other plans:

1. Better relations with farm- ers and more farmer partici- pation in the C-C. More farm din- ners in 1959. Additional vegetable markets in Lamb County. Assis- tance with the Lamb County Jun- ior Fat Stock Show and Soil Fer- tility Day.
2. More paving and parking areas. Work for sewage in the Flats. Four-lane highway #4 through Lamb County. Park beau- tification. Sponsor an annual event and parade.
3. An improved Christmas pro- gram. Back-door store openings for businesses on Phelps Avenue. A store-front modernization cam- paign and a shop-at-home cam- paign.
4. A traffic safety planning pro- gram.
5. Membership luncheons, Soil and Oil club activities. Monthly bulletins.

Says Littlefield's Master Planner..

Any paid-up member of the Farm Bureau with 51 per cent of his income directly from farming or ranching may vote at the convention. Any employee of a Farm Bureau organization or insurance company may not vote. Biggest single change to be vot- ed upon among the revisions in the by-laws is a proposal that officers be elected annually by the Board of Directors. Officers are now elected annually at the county convention. Other changes or additions have to with by-laws on mem- bership, directors, standing com- mittees, finances, amendments and annual meetings. The major part of the rapid growth in school population has occurred in 110 of Texas' 254 counties.

Homemade Food, Home-Town Papers Choices Of Servicemen Overseas

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The odds on choice for Christmas of servicemen overseas is—to be home. Short of that ideal gift, they've told American Red Cross field directors, they would like home to come to them—in the form of homemade food, family photos, recordings of family gatherings, home-town papers and, above all else, more mail.

The majority of the servicemen and women and their dependents queried in the annual survey said they could buy most of the traditional gift items in their post exchanges or ship stores. Many state that the best possible Christmas gift would be a promise from the folks at home to write regularly throughout the year. "A letter every week for the whole year is better than any single Christmas gift," they all said.

However, homemade food ranked high as a preferred gift. "Any food from home tastes so much better than what the mess halls or local bakeries can provide." The common complaint about receiving food from home was that it usually arrived badly broken up. The servicemen said that peanut butter cookies and similar items usually arrive in bits, no matter how well packed. All stressed the fact that the food—cookies, fruit cakes, brownies, homemade candy—should be able to stand up under rough handling in shipment, preferably wrapped in foil paper and packed in tins or air-tight jars.

Other favorite gifts were pictures of family groups, sweethearts and friends, especially snapshots of the family amidst Christmas decorations as a reminder of when the servicemen were home for the holidays and how it will be when they return. They emphasize the pictures should, of necessity, be small, billfold size, or in light sturdy frames.

Another way to send a touch of home to the servicemen overseas is through recordings of family members, friends and neighbors telling about what goes on at home. "There's nothing like hearing the voices of your family, and a recording can be replayed many times." All had one admonition—"Keep it cheerful!" Many servicemen asked for subscriptions to the home-town newspaper, preferably by air mail. "The papers carry lots of little local items which are interesting to read but which nobody thinks to write us about."

Other favorite means of keeping the servicemen overseas in touch and in step with life in the United States is through the latest books—"the selection of current books overseas usually is pretty poor;" subscriptions to magazines—"our newsstands get them late and run out early;" and the latest popular recordings, in 33 or 45 rpm—"the records available here are seldom up-to-date or by the most popular recording star back home." Even though most servicemen don't own a phonograph, they say they can play their own records at the Red Cross recreation centers or at service clubs.

American-style civilian clothing is always welcome to the American overseas. Service families with small children all emphasize the difficulty of finding suitable children's clothing—and toys and books—at many overseas stations. And service wives, WACs and nurses all would like to get good stockings and lingerie, preferably nylon, for Christmas, as these items also are in short supply at most overseas posts. Servicemen said they would like casual sport shirts, slacks and other non-military wearing apparel in the easy-to-wash synthetic fabrics.

A gift of money, the servicemen said, would of course enable them and their families to buy themselves something extra special for Christmas either in service stores or civilian shops. They stress that it should be in the form of postal money orders as American currency is difficult to exchange in many places and checks are either impossible to cash or require the payment of a fee.

On the undesirable list are such items as military-type clothing, cigarettes, watches, ties, cameras and sporting good, all of which can be purchased at most PX's, and at bargain prices.

The servicemen and women asked that families and friends use air mail for all letters and Christmas cards. They believe many persons in the States think that an APO or FPO address automatically guarantees a letter will be sent air mail with just a four-cent stamp, which is not the case. They are insistent that the folks at home put seven cents on the envelope and mark it "Air Mail" because it takes surface mail up to 40 days to reach such far away places as Turkey, Korea and Formosa.

Finally, and importantly, the Post Office and Defense Department advise that Christmas parcels should be mailed between November 1 and November 20 for delivery by surface mail—ship—to servicemen overseas, and by December 10 for delivery by air mail. They urge that persons in this country should keep in mind that the farther away from the U.S. the serviceman is stationed, the earlier the parcels should be mailed to insure delivery to him before Christmas.

PETROLEUM—basic to the needs of our time

Oil and natural gas have powered most of the great technological advances of modern times; petroleum hydrocarbons have transformed the dreams of inventors into the realities of engineers . . . Today, in the United States, oil and natural gas provide about 75% of the country's energy requirements; and large quantities of oil, available for production beyond immediate need, are necessary to the national security.

An obvious example is the gasoline that powers our automobiles; another is the diesel fuel burned by post-war railway engines. But do not overlook electric power plants, the airplane, whether jet or propeller driven, factory power plants, farm mechanization, and the revolution since World War II in home heating devices. Oil provides the energy that moves the trucks, airplanes, ships and tanks of our Armed Forces.

But petroleum as a source of energy is only part of the story. In the past two decades, the petrochemicals have supplied the country with a vigorous new industry: already most of our rubber is made from petrochemicals . . . the ubiquitous plastics derive from petroleum products . . . paraxylene, a petrochemical, is the raw material for one of the most useful of the new fabrics. In this area, wonders never cease; the petrochemicals contribute more each year to the efficiency, comfort, and convenience of modern living.

Thus, oil's progress has made other progress possible all along the front of American industry . . . Petroleum is the American resource that is basic to the needs of our time . . . that is essential to our national security.

The Humble Company, established in 1917, has developed with the industry.

Humble's exploration activities extend from Florida around the rim of the country to California, Oregon and Washington, and beyond to the new State of Alaska . . . The Company is a leader in the production of oil and gas in the United States . . . Humble Pipe Line Company is a public carrier transporting not only Humble's oil but that of many other companies and independent producers to Gulf Coast terminals . . . Baytown refinery is one of the nation's great manufacturing plants . . . And Humble is a marketer in the Southwest, supplying the needs of motorists in modern service stations.

The Humble Company believes strongly in research, maintains two outstanding research facilities, and annually budgets considerable sums for this activity . . . Humble research has made substantial contributions to the discovery, production, and utilization of petroleum.

Uncelibrated Day

Lesson for October 19, 1958

THE DAYS we celebrate are milestones, turning-points. They are days marking a line between Before and After. A birthday, a wedding day, a Declaration of Independence, these are days worth celebrating. So the church does right in celebrating, as we do, various important events connected with the life of Jesus. Not all churches observe all these days, but over wide areas of Christendom they are celebrated by many congregations. Dr. Foreman to Mary the Virgin, the birth of Jesus, the presentation in the temple when he was 40 days old, his crucifixion, his resurrection, his ascension. But his baptismal day is uncelebrated, that day when he, then about 30 years of age, was baptized by his cousin John.

A Decisive Day

It seems all the stranger that the church should not celebrate this day, because it was such a turning-point in the life of Jesus. On the one hand, this was the day before which Jesus was a private citizen, a carpenter, a home-town man, but never again. This was the day after which Jesus was the dedicated Teacher, the mysterious Messiah, as never before. This was the line between Jesus' private and his public life. On the other hand, on the day of his baptism and from that day forward, Jesus was endowed with the Holy Spirit as never before. Whether you take the story of the dove literally or as a symbol, it is clear that John, who had a keen spiritual eye, realized that this was the day the Spirit came, an event as definite as the setting of a dove on a man's shoulder. Immediately after this great day we read in one gospel the Spirit "led" Jesus. For another gospel writer the word is not "lead" but "drive". Why should the church not celebrate that high day?

Embarassing Baptism

The reason for the church's peculiar silence about this great day is perhaps that we are embarrassed by one thing that took place then: Jesus was baptized! This baptism of John's was distinctly understood to be a baptism "of repentance, for the remission [forgiveness] of sins." But what sins did Jesus commit? How could he need forgiveness? The church finds it easy to understand the Spirit's coming; the Voice from Heaven may be harder to understand, but it "fits" what we believe. But the baptism does not appear to fit. It looks as if either Jesus was a sinner after all, and confessed his sins in being baptized; or else he was making people believe he had sinned—which of course would be a sin in itself. This is indeed a puzzle, but we may be able to find an answer. Let us be bold enough to rule out three possibilities at once. Jesus was not baptized in order to have his own sins forgiven. The church is surely right in affirming that Jesus lived without blemish, the one perfect man in history. Jesus was not baptized to fulfill the Old Testament law; for no law in the various codes of the Old Testament requires all men to be baptized. "Fulfilling all righteousness" is not the same thing as obeying a specific law. Further, Jesus was not baptized as if he were playing a part, encouraging others to do as he did. A perfectly healthy mother will sometimes encourage a timid child to take medicine by first taking some herself. Is Jesus our considerate Elder Brother who takes a "cure" he does not need, in order to coax us to take it because we do need it?

Galvary Began There

No; no to all these theories of the why of Jesus' baptism. The real reason lies deeper. This was the day (so far as we know) Galvary began. Jesus became known in his lifetime as the "friend of sinners" and afterwards and ever since, he has been called the savior of sinners. The Bible shows us that he did this by becoming one of us, identifying himself with us, even the worst of us, so that as St. Paul says, "he who knew no sin was made sin—for us." Jesus publicly, dramatically, decisively, by his baptism declared and declares that he sides with the repentant sinner, always, rather with those who in their own eyes need no repentance.

To: Bobby's Church School Teacher
From: Bobby's Parents

'You're O.K.'

That's the highest praise in our Bobby's vocabulary! You must be as busy as we are . . . keeping house, raising a family, meeting all the challenges of parenthood. Yet you volunteered to teach a dozen boisterous boys the great truths of Christianity. You sacrifice hours every week . . . in preparation, in prayer, in patience. But, because you are part of the Church—the one institution which lives to serve God and man—we have taken you for granted. We'll be at worship next Sunday. Bobby wants us there. And seeing what the Church means to him, we want the same spiritual foundation for our own lives. Thank you! We marvel at all you have done for Bobby without our help and example. How much more we will accomplish together . . . Bobby's parents, Bobby's teacher, and OUR God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Texas Jaycees Search For Year's Farmer

The Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual search for the year's "outstanding young farmer" is now underway, and Jaycees over the state are urging communities to nominate local farmers between 21 and 35 years of age who they feel deserve special recognition.

Any Texas farmer within the proper age limit is eligible for the "outstanding young farmer" title, and any community group can sponsor any young man of their choice for the honor. Basis for judging in the state-wide contest will be progress in farming, soil and natural resources conservation practices and personal efforts toward community betterment.

From community nominees, a panel of judges will select the Outstanding Young Farmer next February. The winner will be guest of honor at a state Jaycee-sponsored banquet and will receive an all-expense trip to the National Awards Program in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, next April, where the nation's four top young farmers of 1958 will be selected. The national program is sponsored by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce and the American Petroleum Institute Committee on Agriculture.

Outstanding Young Texas Farmer for 1957 was Johnnie E. Stefa of Caldwell, a cattle, dairy, cotton and grain farmer.

Further information on the young farmer contest can be obtained by contacting any local Junior Chamber of Commerce office or by writing to Joe Smetana, chairman agriculture committee, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Perry-Brooks Building, Austin.

Sudan - Springlake Tilt Tops Area Grid Slate

By ALEX DUGGAN

Four area teams hit the district trail this week, and one more will resume district action after taking a week off for an out-of-district foe. Three teams are taking this week off.

In the big game of the week Sudan and Springlake will collide at Springlake in a District 3A contest. Although neither team is predicted to win the district, the game will feature a contest between two teams that are rebuilding and are at about the same stage.

Both teams won two non-district games while losing four others. Probably the team with the breaks will come out ahead, but from their last week's showing against Frenship, Sudan will be a six-point favorite.

Olton, another team in the midst of rebuilding, will square off against Muleshoe at Muleshoe this Friday night. Muleshoe has been blanked the last two weeks, once by class B, Friona. Both teams fell to Dimmitt by three touchdowns. This game will be a toss-up.

The Amherst Bulldogs will collide with District 3B favorite Meadow this Friday. Meadow outlasted Anton last week. Amherst will battle the stronger team every second, but Meadow will still be a two-touchdown favorite. Spade will tangle with Nazareth this week at Nazareth. In the first game of the season, the two teams tied 13-13. Although Nazareth has defeated tough Bula since then; this game will be rated even.

The other three teams, Anton, Whitharral and Bula will rest this week in anticipation of tough district games next week.

Last week Anton's Bulldogs under Coach Dave Smith, without the services of speedy halfback Ronnie Biffle, sidelined by an appendectomy, fell to Meadow by two touchdowns at Meadow. This was the second defeat of the year for the Bulldogs at the hands of a Class B school.

Whitharral, sparked by the scoring punch of Billy Theiford, racked up 20-6, last Friday. After taking this week off, the Panthers will journey to Whiteface for their first District 3B contest.

Bula, who has seen its perfect record first smashed, then dented further, during the last two weeks, will take a week off to think things over before starting the second round of the six-man district against Three Way.

Team To Play Clovis B; Meet Estacado Tonight

The game will be at Clovis at 7:30.

The frosh under Coach Harmon will slam into Estacado of Plainview at Plainview tonight at 7:30.

Since the frosh lost to the big Plainview team by a score of 30-0 in an earlier game, Harmon figures that his bunch will hit the air a lot.

Captains for the freshmen this week will be Guard Frank Sliton and End Mike Steffy.

Last week, the frosh won their first game of the season, defeating Dimmitt, 8-0.

POLICE JAIL 14

HERE TOMORROW! THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED CARS

These Fords you've got to try! Far left is the new Thunderbird... center, the new Custom 300 Tudor Sedan... and above, the 9-passenger Country Sedan.

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL for beautiful proportions—by the Comité Français de l'Élégance at the Brussels World's Fair

Styled, powered and priced for today's driving! There never was a Ford like this before! Its classic new design was awarded the Gold Medal of the Comité Français de l'Élégance at the Brussels World's Fair! With new Thunderbird flavor in each lively line and tastefully new interiors, these 59 Fords are beautifully proportioned for elegant driving.

Power, performance and economy are served up in new proportions, too. All standard Ford engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gasoline at regular prices. You save up to 5 cents on each gallon! There's a new aluminum muffler that normally will last twice as long as conventional mufflers used on other cars... full-flow oil filtration that lets you change oil at 4000 miles instead of the 1000 often recommended... new Tyrex cord tires for greater economy and safety... a brilliant new Diamond Lustre Baked Enamel Finish that's so durable you won't have to wax it ever... and two new economy power-transmission teams that will bring you savings automatically. That's why we say, for '59, Ford is truly a masterpiece of underpricing!

'Unloaded' Gun Dangerous Killer

AUSTIN — It is not necessarily the itchy-fingered hunter in the field who mistakenly kills someone.

The "unloaded" gun home is an even more killer, according to a report by the Texas Safety Association. In Texas, for example, half of the accidental fatalities occur in the home. Recent figures reveal that total firearms fatalities occurred in the home were hunting-accident victims. For increased safety, it recommends that ALL guns be unloaded as though they were until it is proved that they are not; never aim in the direction of another person; put away unloaded and locked ammunition in a safe other safe place — especially there are small children home.

ABOVE IS THE ALL NEW 1959 Victoria Sedan Ford. The 1959 Fords go on display here at Hall Motor Co. Ford's tasteful styling theme in 1959 is a result of consumer demand for elegance and dignity, as opposed to gaudiness or extremism. In the background is the prominent landmark at the Brussels World's Fair.

Hall Motors To Provide Free Parking City For Showing Of Ford For '59

Hall Motor Company of Littlefield bought all the parking in Littlefield for Friday, to be more convenient for people to look over the new cars at its leisure.

One feature of the showing is free refreshments and soft drinks, said Mancel Hall.

The 1959 Ford car is new in design and new in style," T. O. Ford Motor Co. vice-president said. "The 1959 styling is a good taste, a result of the demand for more elegant dignity in automotive design as opposed to gaudiness and extremism," he added.

Attention to Ford engines that have been engineered for greater economy, Ford offers quality construction and a new, automatic transmission with fewer parts than in 1958, he said.

Changes of body sheet metal in 1959 Ford has been made to reflect the good taste of the new car. America's most successfully styled car, the Ford's crisp, fault lines and the Ford a formal and the impression of a heavier car without the weight of bulk," Wright added.

The 1959 styling earned the Ford the noted fashion authority, the Comité Français de la Mode, which, for the first time, bestowed a gold medal on an American car at the close of the international exposition.

The 1959 Ford engines offer economy and performance in all standard ranges, 30 to 40 m.p.g., which can result in a savings of one dollar a tank in part by a slight horsepower reduction. Mr. Wright said every 1959 Ford is "quality-designed," a term Ford engineers use to define the emphasis placed on quality in the basic design of the car, starting from the drawing board stage. The result is a simplified design where possible, elimination of unnecessary parts as in the case of the new transmission, and more durable parts, such as Ford's new extended-life muffler and Diamond Lustre finish, an enamel that requires no waxing for the lifetime of the car.

Supporting the "quality design" program is a "quality built" philosophy, that centers on Ford's recently-dedicated Quality Control Center at Allen Park, Mich., where 1959 models were assembled on a pilot line months before introduction to be sure that each part met all engineering specifications and assembly requirements.

The 1959 Ford line includes 17 models ranging from the Custom 300's, which are six inches longer than in 1958, through the six station wagon models, to the Fairlane and Fairlane 500's. Station wagon length has been increased more than five inches; cargo area is eight inches longer, and cargo space is 11 cubic feet more than in last year's models. All 1959 Fords will be on a 118-inch wheelbase and will have an over-all length of 208 inches.

Windshield area has been increased 280 square inches, or 29 per cent, over 1958 Ford models.

With its refined engines, Ford combines efficiency, durability is introducing a new version of the 1959 Fordomatic, a two-speed automatic transmission, has eliminated the need for 105 parts, which, with the use of aluminum for the transmission case and bell housing, has reduced the total Fordomatic transmission weight by 50 pounds, or 22.8 per cent.

Ford's four modern engines combine efficiency, durability and economy with the added customer savings resulting from quick and easy servicing. The full-flow oil filter, standard equipment on all 1959 engines, permits Ford to recommend an oil change only every 4,000 miles, resulting in further savings to the customer.

In addition to the new Fordomatic and Ford's proven three-speed synchromesh manual transmission, Ford offers an improved version of the dual-range Cruise-O-Matic, combining overdrive economy with automatic transmission convenience. For the ultimate in economy, the three-speed manual transmission also can be obtained with overdrive.

A new, Ford-designed Equal-Lock differential, providing positive traction when driving under conditions of poor footing, such as ice, snow or mud, is available as optional equipment.

Ford is introducing a new version of the MagicAire heater which provides instantaneous temperature response and even control. The new heater mixes hot and cold fresh air by mechanical dampers instead of modulating the water temperature in the heater core, thus maintaining a constant temperature even when car speed is changed.

The 1959 Ford aluminum muffler is designed to last twice as long as conventional types. It is standard on all models. Use of aluminum-coated walls and heads to resist corrosion, a double-thick inner shell, and an asbestos wrapping between the inner and outer casings results in a slower condensation rate, less corrosion and, consequently, longer muffler life.

A new foot-operated parking brake, affording more convenience and knee room for the driver, is released with an easy-to-operate tip-down handle.

Ford's Master-Guide power steering has been improved to reduce the power required to operate the pump by as much as 37 1/2 per cent, thereby reducing the drag on the engine.

Robert Horton To Replace Bond At Prison Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE—The old saying "The Show Must Go On" was never truer than when Robert Horton, co-star of the popular TV series "Wagon Train" agreed to replace Actor Ward Bond here at the October 19 performance of the 27th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo.

Bond was forced to cancel his scheduled personal appearance on the advice of his physician, who declared "Under no circumstances can I permit Bond to travel to Huntsville."

When Horton, who plays the role of Flint McCullough, scout of the television series, heard of the cancellation, he readily informed prison officials, "I'll be happy to appear at the Rodeo to help this worthy cause which in turn aids the inmates' welfare program."

H. H. Coffield, Rockdale, chairman of the Texas Board of Corrections, says, "There are plenty of good reserved seats available at $2.40 and $4.40 each."

"They may be had by writing Prison Ticket Office, Huntsville, Texas, enclosing check or money order."

Distinction and Beauty in COMPLETELY RESTYLED CHEVY

CHEVROLET again offers the popular Bel Air series in 1959 and it will be shown today at Armes Chevrolet Co. in Littlefield. This model maintains its reputation for stylish interiors and appointments, with increased passenger room and additional visibility in new compound curved windshields and larger rear windows. New grille and lowered headlamps accent the front end. Both two-door and four-door sedans incorporate the venturesome new design features.

Completely Re-Styled 1959 Chevrolet Goes On Display Today In Littlefield

A complete styling transformation along with more safety, comfort and performance, was announced this week for the 1959 Chevrolet passenger car line. The cars, which will be displayed at Armes Chevrolet Co. in Littlefield today represent one of the most imaginative designs ever to come from the automobile industry. In shape, and in detail, the new styling reflects the influence of a space-conscious age. Lines sweep rearward in a virtually level plane. Tops are flatter and visibility is dramatically increased. Appreciably lower the overall appearance of fleetness is further conveyed by an adroitly sculptured front end. At the rear, horizontal wings branch out from the center of the deck in a simulation of mobility that might have been conceived on the sands of Cape Canaveral.

While the unusual appearance will draw instant admiration, Chevrolet has not neglected other phases of engineering in its bid to continue the sales popularity registered by the company in 1958. Here are some of the 1959 mechanical highlights:

A new six-cylinder engine, named the Hi-Thrift because of added economy through re-design in valving and carburetion, gives up to 10 per cent more mileage, plus more usable horsepower at normal driving speeds.

Fundamental improvements in coil spring suspension, incorporating specialized controls. Refinements in the optional Level Air suspension to acquire softer, quieter operation.

Larger braking surfaces, benefiting further by flanged drums and 27 per cent more lining area provide surer stops, longer life. Tires improved for durability and reduced in rolling resistance through newly developed cords, which run cooler, offer a softer ride and last longer.

A Turboglide transmission of advanced design. One of two automatic transmissions in the 1959 line, the quality of Turboglide has been raised to a new peak.

Easier steering and the inclusion of a second, shock-resistant universal joint. A radiator increased in cooling area. A simplified, more productive electrical system.

In addition to a bold, fresh design, Chevrolet bodies for 1959 excel in comfort and structural unity. An impressive increase in passenger room is exemplified by almost five inches more width in the live and one-half ft. front seat. With 20 per cent greater capacity, the trunk has been increased up to 32 cubic feet. Still another example of general compactness can be found in station wagons. The cargo space has been lengthened to almost eight feet.

Sevens have been reduced in height one inch; sport models two inches. Through lower body configurations and a new roof configuration, the advantage has been accomplished without sacrifice, and in some cases an actual gain. In headroom, station wagons are now no higher than the four-ft., eight-in. sedans. Front tread of the car has been broadened 1.5 inches; the rear tread 5 inch. Wheelbase is 119 inches and the overall length 216.9 inches.

Worthy of particular attention in the new bodies is the introduction of a new acrylic lacquer, a nine-step metal finishing process that adds depth to color and remarkable luster longevity. Under experiment for several years, the new acrylic body surfaces will not require polishing for as much as three years in normal climates.

YOU'LL LOVE FUTURA TOO!

The Impala line, which won wide acclaim in 1958, has been broadened to include a new 4-door sedan and a 4-door hardtop, in addition to the sport coupe and the convertible.

The Bel Air series is offered in 2- and 4-door sedans.

The Biscayne series, offered in 2- and 4-door sedans and a utility sedan, takes over the lowest price niche formerly occupied by the Delray, now discontinued.

The station wagon series includes 2- and 4-door Brookwoods, a new 4-door Parkwood, a 9-passenger Kingswood and the sumptuous 4-door Nomad. The third seat in the 9-passenger Kingswood faces the rear and may be folded flush with the floor.

All the station wagons feature a rear window which lowers into the tailgate. Also of interest, when the tailgate is open the cargo area in all station wagons is extended to 10 feet.

The two-passenger Corvette sport car, also refined and improved, rounds out the 1959 Chevrolet passenger car line.

Extraordinary visibility characterizes the entire line. Glass now extends higher into roofs and curves farther inward at corners of the body super-structure. Narrow pillars, as well, encourage the feeling of airiness. Typical of increased vision safety is the 4-door sedan. The windshield alone gets 604.7 square inches of glass more than its last year's counterpart and total glass area is 1189.5 square inches more than in 1958 sedan models. The overall visibility area has been increased up to 50 per cent.

Among other outstanding styling features of the 1959 models:

Twin headlamps have been lowered seven inches and are located at the extremities of the grille.

Air intakes, which are coupled with parking and turn lamps inside an anodized aluminum border, are above the headlamps.

The bumper is higher and the extension of rounded sheet metal below it provides a finished, tailored look.

Tail-lights, located under the wing spread of the rear quarter panels, are of an elongated teardrop design.

The concealed fuel filler cap is now centered below the "V" of the wings, behind the license plate.

Exclusive exterior and interior treatment gives individuality to each series. For example, the Impalas abound in rich fabrics and trim. Some of the fine car touches in the Impala are deep-pile carpeting on closed models, paddle-type door release, twin-contact horn ring, and extra-long front arm-rests on all sport models. The roof extends beyond the rear window on the sport sedan.

THIS WEEK In Washington With CLINTON DAVIDSON

A man Republican party chiefs wanted fired only three months ago, Ezra Taft Benson, this week is being quietly groomed for entry into the 1960 presidential race.

As recently as last July many of the top Republicans in Washington labeled Benson a failure as Secretary of Agriculture and too big a liability to carry into the 1958 election campaign.

Why this sudden reversal? What has happened to change the quiet-spoken church official from Utah into a political hero almost overnight? He is, beyond doubt, one of the quickest political comeback records.

There are several reasons given, but the most plausible are that (1) the farm revolt against him has quieted down; (2) he is popular with many city voters, and (3) he is a good speaker and campaigner.

Benson has been one of the most controversial men in President Eisenhower's Cabinet. He has taken without flinching criticism that would have discouraged many men. He has shown independence in his principles.

Farm Program
The Administration program which features freedom for farmers from government price and production controls has been more popular with consumers than with farmers for that matter, with

Despite lower prices now is 5 per cent year ago although 1952. Released figures show farm income so far has been 19 per cent higher the same months of 1957.

Let's in the past years Benson learned from a recent farm bill that a farm bill is a democratic measure, but that a bill which is claimed will result in food prices.

A Taft Man
Benson was a close political supporter of Robert A. Taft's campaign. His middle name, Taft, by name, it is reported. Taft recommended student Eisenhower.

The quiet campaign Benson for President backed by many of his Taft supporters. The what is generally known as "conservative" wing of the publican party.

Although Benson is staunch supporter of Eisenhower, he has not been closely identified with the power-Republican party. He, however, for the re-election of Eisenhower in 1956.

Benson is a rising vining campaigner, close of Congress is making three and four week in support of his program and Republican candidates, and have in the past let him.

The Of Food Supplements Big 'Confidence Game'

The sale of food supplements constitutes "one of the most lucrative confidence games in history." Thus Joseph N. Bell in Today's Health, the American Medical Association's magazine of general circulation, some 50,000 door-to-door salesmen are selling these supplements, according to the Food and Drug Administration, sales, coupled with those of other distributors, come to $500 million a year, and 10 million Americans are victims. And the list of wares is long—a survey made by the American Dietetic Association turned up some 200 "ads and fantasies" now in circulation.

These supplements are represented as sure-cures for Bell cites one case, which drew a guilty verdict in court, where the seller claimed his supplement was effective treatment for 22 ailments—cancer, diabetes and sclerosis among them.

These supplements come in various forms—pills, pellets, etc. They contain, Bell says, vitamins and minerals not obtainable in any reasonable diet. Then, an additional "mysterious ingredient" is generally claimed. This, he says, is usually nothing more than combinations of ordinary vegetables and plants.

These supplements are expensive. Bell tells of a young woman with four hungry pre-school children with no food money and no money. But she had a bottle of supplement bought for almost $20.

These supplements are also expensive in a much more important way than money—health. The president-elect of the American Medical Association says: "The damage caused by house-to-house hokum is great. This is particularly true when patients with diabetes, the nerves, blood, liver, kidneys, heart, or digestive system neglect proper medical treatment in the hope they can cure in a capsule..."

The salesmen of these supplements have an assortment of arguments. They tell prospective customers, for instance, that most disease is due to improper diet; that certain types of cooking utensils are harmful to foods; that certain types of cooking removes nutritional values, and so on. All such claims have been exhaustively investigated and have been disproved.

These salesmen end his revealing article with this paragraph: "Proponents of food by industry and by law is excellent, and the available at your local grocery store are not only at hand and flavorsome but are also completely adequate to meet all of your nutritional needs. Eat sensibly, eat intelligently economically—and for goodness sake eat FOOD."

Usually, the American Medical Association's Bureau of Investigation has a rule of thumb for spotting quacks. Bell says a "medical expert" uses a special or "secret" formula he claims can cure diseases. If he guarantees a cure. If he advertises or uses case histories and testimonials to promote his cure. If he clamors constantly for investigation and recognition. If he claims medical persecution or are afraid of his competition. If he says that surgery, x-rays, or drugs will cause more harm than good.

Root Opinions

COLLO, PA., News-Record: "Action to increase social security payments by 7 percent probably will be a small gift to recipients, and one should not look a gift horse in the mouth—only this doesn't happen to be a gift horse. That is emphasized by the announced intention of taking another fourth percent of the grab taken from worker's pay—a similar amount being charged to the employer."

BRANTON, GEORGIA, CLIPPER: "The auto industry is thinking of using lightweight aluminum engines. Only some smart fellow could devise a good, lightweight engine."

ANBERRY, MO., HEADLIGHT: "It's not necessarily a fingered hunter in the field who mistakenly kills a deer. The 'unloaded' gun in the home is an even more dangerous killer, according to the National Safety Council."

ARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, CURRENT-ARGUS: "It is for the American people to take another serious look at the Social Security Act. Security is an important factor in the lives of most people. It becomes increasingly important as they approach retirement age. Security at the expense of initiative is another matter."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.—More dust is being stirred up over issues than over candidates, in the build-up to the General Election, Nov. 4.

Texans will vote on nine proposed amendments to the Constitution. One of them, providing for annual sessions and salaries in the Legislature, is the subject of hot debate.

A condensed outline of the amendments and arguments being presented for and against follows: (Numbers correspond to the order in which amendments will appear on the ballot.)

1. Would provide for annual sessions of the Legislature. Odd-year sessions would be devoted to all matters, as before, and even-year sessions would attend to budgeting and emergency matters. Legislators would receive an annual salary of $7,500 (instead of $25 a day for a 120-day session) and an unspecified amount for "expenses of office."

PRO: Supporters say annual sessions will allow more time for consideration of important matters. State financial planning could be done for one year at a time. No more having to "guesstimate" financial needs for two years ahead. Better pay would be a step toward attracting the best qualified persons to lawmaking. Such influential and hard-working groups as the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce are pushing this amendment.

CON: Equally outspoken are the opponents who say it would cause needless expense when money is already short. More time in session means more chances to spend money. Proposed salary still is not enough to attract top-notch talent, but "expenses of office" could open the door to "fat catting" with public funds. Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo is the recognized spokesman for the "antis" which include some other lawmakers and other groups.

2. Would allow counties to extend participation in their retirement, disability and death compensation plans to elective officials of the county and precinct. Present arrangement covers only appointive officials and employees of the county.

PRO: It is a permissive law. No county has to do it unless the voters say so. It would give elective officials the same privilege as appointees, be an attraction to office.

CON: It sets no requirements for length of service. An official might serve one term—or less—and receive benefits.

3. Would allow the County Commissioners Court to fill vacancies in the office of County Judge and Justices of the Peace only until the next general election. Presently such appointments are for the remainder of the unexpired term, up to four years.

PRO: It would give voters the right to choose their own replacement to office as soon as possible.

CON: Since campaigns are so costly, there would be less incentive to run for the office for only a two-year term.

4. Would provide for automatic resignation of a district, county and precinct officials who announce for any other public office more than one year before the end of his term in office.

PRO: I would keep officials on the job rather than out campaigning for some other office.

CON: It would discriminate against district, county and precinct officials since other officials

DOWN MEMORY LANE

(Taken from the files of Lamb County Leader, Oct. 16, 1958)

An allotment of $103,000 to build 210 miles of REA lines was awarded the Lamb County Electric Cooperative, Inc., last Thursday by rural electrification administration in Washington, D. C. O. K. Woodal, superintendent announced.

Charles Heathman, who is a junior student at Baylor University, Waco, sang with the A Capello Choir from the college, at Austin last weekend.

More moisture than this section has experienced in years have recently fallen in Littlefield and over the entire South Plains.

U. S. senators, state senators, railroad commissioners and others with more than two-year terms—can run for another office in mid-term!

5. Would allow Home Rule cities to extend terms of their elective and appointive officials from two years to four years.

PRO: It is permissive; each city can make its own decision. Two-year terms hardly allow an official time to get a program started before he has to get out and run again.

CON: Elections every two years give voters more control, build up citizen interest in government.

6. Would provide pensions, not to exceed $80 a month, for retired Texas Rangers and widows of Rangers who retired before the 1947 State Employees Retirement System was established. Money would come from the Confederate Pension Fund.

PRO: Since funds are available, it would put no extra burden on taxpayers. Protective dating clause would prevent marrying for pensions.

CON: It would allow ex-Rangers to receive pensions for as little as two years' service and with no payments on their part, a more generous arrangement than is provided for other state employees.

7. Would allow Legislature to appropriate money for advertising the advantages of Texas in nationally-circulated publications. Use of the name or picture of any living state official would be prohibited, and public funds have to be matched by private funds.

PRO: Texas is one of only three states without a state program to attract tourists and industry. Proponents say it would pay for itself many times by bringing new money into the state.

CON: This should be handled by the businesses who would benefit through their trade associations, chambers of commerce, etc.

8. Would allow the Legislature to appropriate money to pay for medical care for people who receive old age assistance, aid to the blind and aid to dependent children.

PRO: It would provide help for people whose small monthly checks cannot possibly cover medical emergencies. Since payments would be made only to the vendor (doctor, hospital or what not), the money could be used only for its intended purpose.

CON: It would cost the state an estimated $3,000,000, with no limit on how much it could drain from the Treasury. It would mean double taxation for cities and counties already providing medical care for their needy.

9. Would allow the Legislature to authorize creation of hospital districts in Amarillo, Wichita County and Jefferson County.

PRO: It is permissive. People in the affected areas could decide what they want to do with it.

CON: Proposed amendment is long (1,000 words), detailed and so complicated that few voters can even understand it. If such provisions are needed, they should be made in statutes rather than by adding to our already-rough Constitution.

ROUGH ROAD AHEAD—Latest reports by the State Tax Study Commission list several possible new tax sources the Legislature could turn to for additional revenue.

They include (1) new selective sales taxes, (2) a general retail sales tax, (3) a personal income tax, (4) a "value-added" tax levied on difference between selling price and cost to seller, (5) a gross income and receipts tax on business and (6) a corporation net income tax.

Sandhills Philosopher He's Figured Out Plan To Save On Foreign Aid

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has an odd idea for cutting down on foreign aid, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor: Every once in a while I read in the paper where some visiting delegation from a foreign country is coming to this country to inspect farms and ranches. As I have discovered right here is where this country makes a big mistake.

That is, there's nothing wrong in having the delegations visit over here, but where this country slips up is in showing them the wrong farms.

What happens? Somebody in Washington lines up the best farms in the country, hires an air-conditioned bus, and whisks the visitors from one good farm to another, the kind of farms where all the machinery is brand new, the livestock all rolling fat, the fences painted white, lawns mowed like a country estate, etc.

Well, there are a lot of good farms in this country, but psychologically we couldn't do worse than to show them off to visitors from foreign countries. It gives the wrong impression.

What happens is that they see all these fine farmsteads, find out what new tractors cost, etc., and they go back home and report America is so prosperous it ought to be good for twice the size of the loan they got from us last year.

I believe I could have this country millions of dollars in foreign aid if it's send a few foreign delegations by my Johnson grass farm out here. After a trip over my place, trying to open and shut my sagging gates, looking at my equipment and checking up on my yields, most delegations would shake their heads, pull themselves together, and flee back home before this country started asking theirs for foreign aid.

I guess it's all right to put your best foot forward, but once it's while it doesn't hurt to let visitors in on the fact you've got an other foot too.

The next time a foreign delegation shows up in this country, send em out here. It'll save the country money.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.
