

JOE WELLS PUTS ON BIG BOND DRIVE

Joe H. Wells, well known Littlefield Contractor and businessman, has been listening in on Radio Station WHO, Des Moines, Iowa, advising who, where and how folks are buying War Bonds to help Uncle Sam, and Joe got a bright idea just how nice it would be for him to get some such advertising for Littlefield, and incidentally the big State of Texas.

He immediately started out listing his friends (on one of Clyde Liban's checks) who would like to buy a war bond, in order that he might get a group of checks for bonds, and get it broadcast over WHO, Des Moines.

In an interview with a Leader reporter Wednesday, Mr. Wells said: "Everybody wanted to buy bonds, I kept on going, and am going strong. I saw Pat Boone Friday at the Post Office, and asked him to help me take up the checks on the respects I had written down. Pat said he would be with me, but Tuesday he got a wire from his sister help her on an income matter, and left me."

Joe says he will get all the checks the mail Thursday noon so that will be broadcast Monday night 10:30 over WHO, Des Moines, 1040 on your radio dial.

If announcement of the Littlefield bond purchases is not made over WHO Monday night, then such announcement will be made on some subsequent night.

Bonds of a total value exceeding $11,000 had been purchased through Mr. Wells up to Wednesday night. Joe says that anyone who wants to use their credit on this sale of bonds can hear the Victory Band concert Thursday, March 18, without buying another bond.

SIGNING NEW FARM PLAN SHEETS IS NOW UNDERWAY IN COUNTY

Spade And Sudan Farmers Execute Forms Monday

Workers Producing As Many As 16 War Units Eligible For Deferment

The signing of new farm plan sheets for maximum war production of food, fibre, and feed got underway with individual farmers in the Spade and Sudan communities Monday of this week. The signing of the new plan sheets were started in all other communities on Wednesday and will continue through Friday.

Forty-five Community Committeesmen and other War Board Leaders are in charge of this sign-up.

That's the information E. C. Clayton, chairman of the Lamb County USDA War Board, gave to local county farmers this week.

Other information on the war production sheet will furnish the basis for locating and helping farmers who need special assistance in carrying out their war production programs for 1943, assisting the county USDA War Board in determining eligibility for rationed supplies, and locating farms on which there is labor and machinery that could be used on other farms.

At the same time war production plans will be outlined, farmers will also sign AAA farm plan sheets to assist them in obtaining production and in carrying out production practices for increased soil fertility.

Referring to draft classification, E. C. Clayton pointed out that farmers and farm workers producing as many as 16 war units during 1943 would be eligible for deferment under Selective Service regulations if they already were not deferred for other reasons. He pointed out that final action would be taken by the local Draft Board in (Continued on Back Page)

A very interesting and well attended Pork Production Course of 10 lessons will be concluded Tuesday, March 16. Nineteen have been enrolled for the course with an average attendance of 13 for the 10 lessons.

A similar course in increasing egg production will be started Tuesday, March 23, at 8:30 in the Vocational Agriculture Department. These courses are free and anyone interested are urged to attend. Folders containing the contents of each lesson will be given to the group at the conclusion of the course. Anyone interested is asked to contact R. L. King, agriculture teacher, or be at the first meeting.

for actual combat. Some, selected for specialized qualifications, will remain at the bombardier schools as instructors.

These newly commissioned bombardier officers have completed twelve weeks of schooling, covering the entire field of aerial bombardment. In ground school, they learned bombing theory, much of it so secret that classroom notes were burned. On special framework devices—the "highchair" trainers—they grew expert in the manipulation of the secret bomb sight. From the "green-curtain" of speedy bombing planes, they dropped approximately 200 bombs apiece, gained experience in combat missions.

Vaught's Resumes Milk Deliveries

Delivery of milk and cream was resumed by Vaught's Dairy Tuesday morning after a cessation of deliveries for several days.

In the interval the Vaught herd was tuberculin tested, and also tested for bangs, mastitis and other conditions which might affect the quality of milk.

"It has always been our aim to produce clean, wholesome milk, and we shall do so in the future," George Vaught, owner of the dairy, said in an announcement Wednesday. "We have had our herd tuberculin tested, and also tested for bangs and mastitis and other conditions which might affect the quality of our milk. And we have employed a veterinarian licensed by the State, and have cut from our herd all questionable cows, and have conformed to all state and local requirements for producing Grade 'A' milk. To further safeguard our customers we pasteurize."

Lamb County Goes Beyond Feb. Quota In War Bonds

Pat Boone, chairman of Lamb County War Bond Committee, announced the March quota for stamps and bonds at $47,400 for this county.

At the same time Mr. Boone stated that the figures so far for February indicated that this county would go above its quota for the past month, reporting the following figures:

For the period from Feb. 1 to 8: $23,456.25 in War Bonds sold;
For the week from Feb. 8 to 15: $12,056.25; and from Feb. 15 to 23: $15,571.25, making a total for the three weeks of February $51,093.75. Since the quota for Lamb County for February was $42,400, bonds have been sold during the first three weeks of the month in the

Splendid Program Assured By Sudan Band And Chorus

The monthly Victory Concert to boost the sale of war bonds and stamps will be staged in the Littlefield High School Auditorium Thursday night, March 18, opening at 8:30 o'clock.

A special feature of the evening's entertainment will be the presentation of the program by the Sudan High School Band and Chorus, with W. F. Findley, Director, in charge. Inasmuch as Mr. Findley is recognized as having superior talent in his line of work, the fact that he and his band will be present assures all those who attend an evening of excellent entertainment.

Another special feature will be the awarding of a War Bond at the Concert. Pat Boone, County Chairman, and who in a large measure is responsible for the splendid success of Lamb County in raising above her quota in the sale of war bonds and stamps, is again donating a War Bond to be given away at this concert. Great credit is also due Mrs. J. D. Armistead, who has been in charge of the programs heretofore, and who has been giving considerable time to the project, and to a number of others over the County who have unstintingly given their time and money to the effort.

Open Letter From Mrs. Lyle Brandon

"Dear Friends,

"I want to urge you to come to the surgical room to work. We are needing more help here very much. I feel sure if you could understand how very important this work is you would surely come.

"A lady working this week told of a boy who has been decorated for bravery and sent home on furlough from the battle zone to Kerrville, Texas, who said the convalescent boys in the hospitals at the front as soon as they were able to sit up in wheel chairs, if they had both arms and hands left (and he stressed the fact that there were plenty that didn't have), boards were put across their chairs and they made surgical dressings until they were so tired they could hardly sit up.

"These boys know by experience how important is this work.

Expansion Program Is Underway At South Plains Creamery

With approximately three quarters of a million pounds of butter manufactured in 1943 at the South Plains Creamery, the Littlefield institution is looking forward to an increase in production this year.

Producing Blue Willow and Peace Gold butter, the South Plains Creamery has enjoyed a steady annual increase in volume since the establishing of the business in October, 1921.

The South Plains Creamery provides a large and favorable market for cream, one of the important "cash crops" of a large percentage of farms.

Extensive improvements are being carried out at the creamery, including the installation of additional equipment.

The South Plains Creamery is under the management of Hugo (Bob) Peterson, who came to the business six months after it was established.

Paul Jensen is chief butter maker and plant superintendent. He came here about six months ago from Hereford after spending many years in various branches of the creamery business.

First plans made for this year... Female Weakness... This meeting will be held jointly with the Auxiliary Unit and the local Post.

These men, despite shortage of help in their organizations, are giving liberal donations and their time to the Red Cross, and all courtesies extended to them will be much appreciated.

Mr. Arnold announced that there will not be a canvass of the rural sections in the Littlefield area, and farmers are urged to bring in their donations to C. O. These booths will be located in the Post Office, in the First National Bank, and on Phelps Avenue in the business section.

Since the establishing of the South Plains Creamery in October, 1933, there has been a steady annual increase in the volume of butter manufactured, the total for 1942 being approximately three quarters of a million pounds.

Flight Officer Werner W. Birkelback is now stationed at Ardmore, Okla. He was graduated from Sergeant to Flight officer at Stuttgart, Ark. His mother, Mrs. B. D. Birkelback, and Miss Dorothy Timian visited with him during the time of the graduation that took place February 17. O. K. Yantis, Jr. of the Army Air Forces, who has been stationed on the island of Puerto Rico for sometime, was recently promoted to sergeant, Mrs. Yantis reported this week.

Mrs. S. G. Underwood received a letter Friday from her son, Pvt. John Underwood, who is somewhere in North Africa. The letter was dated February 14, and stated that he was well and safe, and now weighed 200 pounds.

A recent letter from Cpl. Harold Pollard of Camp Gordon Johnston, Fla., and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pollard of Enochs, Texas, states that it really gets cold in Florida. Last week, he writes, "the temperature dropped to 23 degrees and it seemed like zero in Texas."

Cpl. Pollard has been in service since August 28, 1942. He is a battery clerk attached to the Coast Artillery anti-aircraft.

He receives the Lamb County Leader regularly, and says it ranks next to a furlough in importance to him.

Cpl. Pollard is a graduate of Littlefield High School with the class of 1938. He was a farmer when inducted into the armed forces.

Pvt. Efton Graham of the Army Air Force left Wednesday morning for St. Louis, Mo., after a week's visit with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Graham. Pvt. Graham attended school at Sheppard Field, before being sent to Jefferson Barracks, Calif., where he attended school a month. He had been in St. Louis a week when his furlough was granted.

J. W. Bandy, Jr., of the U. S. Navy recently wrote his sister, Miss Margaret Bandy, from San Juan, Puerto Rico. About his trip south he wrote, "I got your letter while I was still in the States, at Miami, Fla. At last I am beginning to see part of this old world outside of the U.S.A. But I haven't seen anything yet that looks as good to me as West Texas! . . . I liked Miami, though. . . . All of the islands I have seen so far have been awful rugged looking. You know, mountains, etc. But they are not as pretty as the snow-capped 'Rockies' in New Mexico and Colorado. . . . This place here is not so good. Oh, it could be a lot worse, and we will probably see worse. The town is not very large, however it looks like a large city when you approach it from the sea. The streets are just wide enough for two cars to pass, and the sidewalks just about wide enough for two people. There are not very many white people here, most all Spaniards and Negroes. . . . We wear our whites all the time except during working hours. I kinda hate that because it means more washing . . . but if we wore blues we would melt down, so I don't know which is the worse. . . ."

JERSEY TWINS BORN

A set of twin calves arrived at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Cowan of near Amherst recently. The mother of the calves, one heifer and one steer, is a young Jersey cow. The calves are both a good size, according to Mrs. Cowan.

Mother Of Local Teacher Passes Away Sunday

Miss Lee McGlothlin, teacher of mathematics in the local high school, was called to Carlton, Texas, last week due to the serious illness of her mother.

A message was received by Supt. Hemphill to the effect that her mother, Mrs. E. M. McGlothlin, had passed away last afternoon. Funeral services were conducted, and interment took place at Lamkin, Texas, Monday noon.

Miss McGlothlin has been a member of the local school faculty the past two months. It is known when she will return to her duties here.

Your Red Cross Is In Action!

—Working To Build Up What War Tears Down

Transformed into relief supplies, medicines and trained supervisors, your Red Cross dollars will follow in the wake of battle, taking with them aid and comfort.

Thanks to your contributions and many others like them, twenty millions of war victims have been helped by the American Red Cross in Europe, Africa and Asia, since the war began. . . . To the bombed-out Britons, to Russian war orphans and wounded homeless, as to the stricken Chinese, the wretched Greeks and Poles wandering throughout the Middle East, the Red Cross has been their symbol of life and hope.

Think how many lives your dollars have already saved—and how much still depends on you! What a splendid satisfaction is yours, to be relieving the distress of friendless people engulfed by gigantic forces which they are too weak to resist!

Give more to the Red Cross this year—give double if you can.

Awarded Distinguished-

This award was made in recognition of his fellow American airmen, his country, his home and to you.

"Your son was decorated for extraordinary achievement while participating as pilot in aerial flight of his courageous, fearless service to his combat organization, flights in the Southwest Pacific Area from October 14 to November 30, 1942.

"He took part in more than 50 missions, dropping supplies and transporting troops over territory that was continually patrolled by enemy fighter aircraft. Often landings were made on fields which were only a few miles from Japanese bases. These operations aided considerably in the recent successes in this theatre.

"Almost every hour of every day your son, and the sons of other American mothers, are doing just such things as that here in the Southwest Pacific.

"Theirs is a very real and very tangible contribution to victory and to peace.

"I would like to tell you how genuinely proud I am to have men such as your son in my command, and how gratified I am to know that young Americans with such courage and resourcefulness are fighting our country's battle against the aggressor nations.

"You, Mrs. Vaughter, have every reason to share that pride and gratification."

"D. C.," as he was called by his many friends, enlisted in the Air Corps at Clovis, N. M., June 9, 1941. He had attended Clovis High School during his senior year, working for his uncle, W. H. Vaughter, in the tailoring business, after school hours; and following his graduation from the Clovis High School, he was employed in the Advertising Department of the Clovis Journal during 1940-1941, and also in the same capacity later for the Tucumcari News.

He received his primary training at Kelly Field, San Antonio; basic instruction at Cuero, and Perin Field, Sherman, Texas; and advanced training at Ellington Field, Houston, where he was graduated, and received his wings July 3, 1942, leaving for overseas service from a California point on September 1 last. He has been in combat service in Hawaii, Australia, and New Guinea.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Vaughter, received a letter from him Friday last dated February 12 from "Somewhere in New Guinea," stating he "was still working hard and having fun"; and asking his parents to buy for him with money he had sent them War Bonds in the value of $200.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughter have just reason to be proud of their son, who not only is contributing his "all out effort" for democracy on the battlefield, but is also helping to buy the machinery to fight with.

Chief H. W. Harris, recruiter in charge of the Lubbock District for the U. S. Navy, was in Littlefield Monday in the interest of enlisting men for the Navy, and women for the Waves and Spars. Chief Harris said, "If a woman has a husband in the Navy, she is eligible for the Spars, and every woman who enlists in the Waves or Spars releases a man for combat service. Besides the satisfaction of serving her country, every woman who enlists is taught a life vocation." Chief Harris left a few application blanks at the Leader office, which are available to any woman interested in enlisting in this service. Beginning at an early date Chief Harris will be here each Thursday for the purpose of interviewing applicants, and explaining the service. A native Texan, Chief Harris

New Farm Machinery Rations

Certificates from county farm machinery rationing committees will be necessary for purchase of one-row, horse-drawn riding cultivators, B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA War Board, announced this week. County quotas now are being established and this type of machinery will be handled similarly to other quota items. Texas farmers also were advised that the Department of Agriculture no longer will control distribution by manufacturers of garden planters and of two-row or larger horse-drawn riding cultivators. Purchase certificates, needed to buy rationed farm machinery and equipment, are issued by county farm rationing committees on approximately 75 types of farm machinery.

Santa Fe Reports on its first year of war operation

Crowded Trains Our passenger traffic volume was up 102 per cent last year as compared with 1941. Gasoline rationing, in our territory, will increase that volume even more this year.

The Santa Fe must handle this additional load with its present passenger cars, as no more cars will be built during the war.

Late Trains In these days of unprecedented passenger volume it is not always possible to maintain schedules with on-time regularity... and since military trains have the right-of-way over everything else, they often cause our regular passenger trains to be delayed.

At many stations along the line, mail and express are heavier than in normal times—and take longer to load. This is another reason why trains are delayed.

Car Shortage Special troop trains are becoming almost routine on the Santa Fe. In just one case, we moved an entire division from one camp—and it took 55 complete trains to handle the men and equipment.

We must also keep our passenger cars in constant service to handle the increased traffic all over the line. For this reason, we cannot always concentrate extra cars at any one point.

Freight Cars Due to the submarine menace and the diversion of freighters to other services, almost all of the intercoastal freight tonnage formerly handled by ships through the Panama Canal was hauled by the railroads in 1942.

This brought about an unusually heavy demand for Santa Fe freight cars... increased considerably the average length of haul... and occasionally caused delays in delivering empty cars at some loading points. It also indicates Santa Fe has many busy months ahead.

Keep 'Em Rollin'! Please remember there's only one thing we want to do more than keep trains on time and supply cars as promised—and that's keep troops and war freight on their wartime schedule. And we know that's the way you want it!

MOTHERS ARE HELPING "THE BOYS" WIN WAR

A Tribute To An American Mother

We recently had the privilege and pleasure of spending 10 days in the home of a woman 70 years of age. But that is not an advanced age when the passing years rest lightly, the bloom of youth is vividly apparent, and when looking forward to many more years of joyful living is a daily habit.

A beautiful French girl, this woman was wed by an Englishman who adored her. They established their home in a Southwest city, children were born to the union, and the father was successful in the contracting and lumber business. The mother devoted her time to her home and her children.

The parents were particularly zealous that each child should have a satisfactory education in order that they might be respected, successful citizens.

Down through the years this woman has been loyal to her God and her church.

The young couple who located in the Southwest city and happily made their contribution to the development of that town, built their home in what was then very much the open spaces. A pretty hedge enclosed the home, located on a corner, and not far away were the barn and sheds, the family driving horses and the children's ponies.

The father has passed on; the mother occupies her home and is a gracious hostess. She recalls the early life of this Southwest city. Her eyes twinkle merrily as she tells with what care she selected her gown in order that she would be appropriately attired in the receiving line for a reception for Teddy Roosevelt.

All the foregoing is but a prelude to telling of a new honor, a new joy . . . and a sadness, too . . . that has come into the life of this lovely pioneer woman, for she is making an outstanding contribution to the war effort. A son and seven grandsons are serving with the colors. The photographs of most of these men rest on the grand piano in the spacious living room. Comfortably seated in the living room or at some convenient desk this pioneer woman writes them letters, passing on to them bits of information in which they are particularly interested.

She is proud of her family's contribution to the war effort . . . proud of her country . . . proud of her home . . . and she believes that no sacrifice is too great in assuring for this country a land in which other mothers and fathers down through the years may enjoy happy homes, surrounded by their families.

This woman is a real American mother. We bow in respect to her . . . we are happy at the privilege of writing this tribute . . . and we hope that she lives to be 100 years and more . . . and that we may have the joy of being in her company often.

Yes, her coffee is excellent, her buttered toast a pretty golden brown, her bacon sweet and crisp . . . and she doesn't break an egg when she turns it over. She's a real American mother!

U. S.-Built Staff Car First in Benghazi

With the capture of Benghazi, after the whirlwind drive across the deserts of western Egypt into Libya, the United Nations' troops quickly established military control. Here the vanguard hands over the city to officers who arrived in a Chevrolet staff car. Note camouflage netting rolled up on top of the car. Military insignia on the car, kangaroo and boomerang on front fender would indicate that the officers were of the Australian forces.

Spade School Principal To Leave For Military Service

V. R. Jackson, principal of Spade High School, is being inducted into the service Friday, March 12, and Mrs. Roddy R. Wright, member of the High School faculty of Spade for the past four years, has been promoted to principal.

Mrs. Hamilton of Spade community has been elected teacher.

The Juniors of Spade school presented a play "Everybody's Crazy," Friday, February 26, which drew a large attendance.

Beatrice H. D. Club Meets February 25

The Lum's Chapel "Beatrice" H. D. Club met Thursday, February 25, with Mrs. R. L. Tisdale, with Mrs. Tisdale and Mrs. R. E. Watson acting as joint hostesses.

After the usual opening exercises roll call and business session, the club program was presented with Miss Beatrice McCurdy giving a very instructive demonstration on the care and cleaning of our sewing machines. Since our machines are very essential, and also very hard to replace, we must take good care of them. One way is to put them where dust and dirt will not harm them.

Those who attended the meeting and enjoyed the refreshments were: Madames H. Spraberry, O. L. Baisden, Hershel Barker, J. T. Brown, Cecil Gipson, Emzy Hobbs, Jack James, Doss Maner, Cecil Martin, Edgar Purvis, Burl Rogers, Bill Steffey, J. V. Tynes, R. E. Tisdale, E. F. Dolle, Miss McCurdy, Miss Katherine Evans, and the hostesses, Mrs. R. L. Tisdale and Mrs. R. E. Watson.

The club members are all working and cooperating better this year than before, and thus the programs are more interesting as well as instructive and useful to all those who attend. There are two meetings a month now, and new members and visitors are urged to take part.

Last Rites Are Held For Father Of Mrs. B. H. Hunt Of Spade

Milton Young Dinges, 89, father of Mrs. B. H. Hunt of Spade community, passed away at his home at Dale, Texas, about 7:40 a. m. Sunday, February 14, as a result of neuritis, from which he had been suffering since October last.

Funeral services were conducted at the grave in the Bunton Cemetery Monday, February 15, at 4 p. m., with Rev. John Threadgill and Rev. Melvin Riddles officiating. Attending the services from Spade were Mrs. Hunt and her daughter, Mary Vesta Hunt, who returned home February 27.

Mr. Dinges was born January 1, 1854, at Sparta, Tenn.; was united in marriage to Miss Mary Jane Hutson in 1877. Mr. and Mrs. Dinges made their home in White County, Tennessee, until they moved to Texas in 1880. He became a member of the Methodist Church during young manhood.

To Mr. and Mrs. Dinges were born eight children, four sons and four daughters, all of whom survive. The daughters are: Mrs. Hunt of Spade; Mrs. Nora Clingsmith of Dale, Texas; Mrs. C. M. Nolen of Georgetown, Texas; and Mrs. R. C. Strawn of Dale, Texas. The sons are: W. E., M. E. and B. T. Ginges of Dale, Texas; and M. D. Dinges of Houston.

His wife preceded him in death December 31, 1933.

He is also survived by 24 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Colored Library Being Planned

Plans are underway to organize a public library for the colored population according to the announcement made by Miss Lula Hubbard, librarian of the City Library.

At first the citizens of this city are asked to donate books for the colored children, and later adult books will be added.

Miss Hubbard stated that $4.94 had been donated to this worthy cause already, and asks that as many citizens as possible either bring a book in good condition, or 40 cents to the Littlefield Public Library, which money or books will go towards the colored library.

left. He was amazed when I rolled over and tried to get up. The force of the bullet had stunned me. Dazedly, I wondered why I pulled that little Bible out of my pocket and in utter muteness looked at the ugly hole in the cover. It had ripped through Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, on through the Pentateuch, on through the other books, Samuel, Kings, Chronicles, and kept going. Where do you think it stopped? In the middle of Psalm 91, pointing like a finger at these verses, 'A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.'

"Sis, when I read that verse it raised me three feet off the ground. I did not know there was such a verse in the Bible. I'd been reading mostly in the New Testament. I read the rest of that chapter—the first part of that ripped apart. In utter humility I said, 'Thank you, precious God,' and felt like a little boy that had escaped the mouth of an enemy of prey.

"When I got my buddy back to the post, he said 'Lute (he calls me Lute), I've had enough. This convinces me. Come on—I want to get right with God starting right now.' He wouldn't let them tend his wounds. He said, 'Nothing matters now but this.' He stayed on his knees sixteen hours with three wounds. His body became numb, he couldn't move it. But he wouldn't give up. When the Lord finally came in he moved. That soldier went crazy for God. He jumped over chairs (I mean boxes). He jumped over bunks. He even ran outside and shouted to the whole camp.

"... I could go on, but I am so tired, so weary, but in all so happy to see them coming to God one by one. So tell them to pray, atone for sin, and keep praying. And when you send things to your boys, send Bibles. They want Bibles! Your loving brother, Lieutenant . . ."

HOW TO "SPEND" POINTS

If the 48-point-per-person allotment is used evenly, by weeks, the rate of spending in each period by families or from two to eight persons works out in 12-point multiples. For two in the family, spend 24 points per shopping period; for three, 36 points; four, 48; and so on.

NEWSPAPERS PRAISED

Commending the press, Prentiss M. Brown, OPA Administrator, in a letter to Arthur T. Robb, editor of Editor and Publisher Magazine, said: "No finer single service in the interest of the American public has been performed during this war than the splendid handling by the nation's press of the OPA processed foods rationing program."

CEILING PRICES ON PORK AFTER APRIL 1

On April 1, 1943, ceiling prices will be fixed on all retail sales of fresh and processed pork. The United States is divided into 11 zones, in each of which the pork prices will vary for different classes of retail stores. Prices in OPA Maximum Price Regulation 336 take the place of all previous ceiling prices.

On and after April 1, a retailer may sell only: (1) pork cuts given dollars and cents prices under OPA 336, and (2) pork products whose prices are fixed under General Maximum Price Regulation, including—pork sausage, canned pork, pork variety meats or offal (including temple meat cutlets, brains, chitterlings, liver, plucks, kidneys, tongues, lips, snouts, ears, hearts, cheek and head meat, stomach wash and meat and heads), and quick frozen cuts which are delivered to the retailer in individual packages in which he sells them. Ceiling prices on pork must be posted in each store beginning April 1, and, upon request, the retailer must give a customer a receipt showing the date, name and address of retailer, name and weight of each pork cut sold, and the price paid for it.

NO CLOTHES RATIONING

Elmer Davis, director of the Office of War Information, after consultation with WPB Chairman Donald Nelson and OPA Chairman Prentiss Brown, stated that no rationing of clothes is in present prospect. There is no shortage of clothing now, nor of the textiles out of which clothes are made.

COTTON SUPPLIES

There are large supplies of short-staple, low-grade cotton on hand, says the Department of Agriculture, but relatively small supplies of the higher grades and longer staples of upland cotton. Total upland cotton supply for the current season is slightly larger than last year, but demand will probably be larger. "Upland" cotton includes more than 99 per cent of United States cotton production.

LOWER EGG PRICES

Fixed mark-ups which retailers will use to establish their maximum prices on sales of eggs to the housewife have been set by OPA. The mark-up is figured over the retailer's costs. This action will lower prices this spring somewhat under those established by the temporary freeze of October, 1942.

DRIVE AGAINST MEAT BLACK MARKETS

An extensive and vigorous enforcement drive against meat black-markets has resulted in 420 individuals and firms being indicted, arrested, enjoined or sued for treble damages. Of these, 160 are being prosecuted criminally and the remainder by civil process. Meat cases filed recently in the Dallas OPA region total more than 125.

NAVY SEEKS WOMEN RESERVISTS

The Navy Department is seeking approximately 5,000 women with experience in a variety of medical and dental fields for service with the Hospital Corps. Procurement and recruiting offices have been asked to enlist 500 women a month for the next eight months in order to provide replacement for many of the male Hospital Corps personnel stationed at Navy medical activities on shore.

STOCKINGS SALVAGED

Since the beginning of the stocking salvage campaign three months ago, 12,522,540 pairs of silk and nylon stockings have been salvaged by the women of America for war use. In the third month period, which ended February 15, 253,969 pounds of hosiery were collected in stocking salvage depots of thousands of retail stores. This is an increase of 81.4 per cent over the first months collection figure, bringing the total up to 626,127 pounds.

AID LUMBER PRODUCTION

To stimulate production of lumber and other forest products required for war and essential civilian needs, WPB has set up a program to (1) locate and transport labor, (2) obtain greater employment of women in the industry, (3) locate stumpage for existing operations and put operators in touch with owners of merchantable forest products, (4) present draft deferment needs of logging and milling operatives before local selective service boards, (5) present the needs of logging and milling operators before local ration boards, (6) present factual data when establishment or modification of ceiling prices is necessary.

SOFT WHEAT FLOUR PRICES UP

Prices of soft wheat flour sold by eastern, southern, and midwestern millers and blenders were raised approximately 8 per cent by the OPA, because of increasing cost of wheat. Ceiling prices will be placed on soft wheat east of the Rocky Mountains, to prevent further price rises in soft wheat flour.

"A Night To Remember" With Loretta Young To Be Featured At Palace Theatre This Week End

Something new in laughter is assured Palace Theatre audiences when Columbia's merry, mirth-filled murder mystery, "A Night To Remember," opens Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday. Loretta Young and Brian Aherne are co-starring in the gay new comedy which recounts their giddy goings-on in Greenwich Village where, between kisses, they hunt killers!

Loretta and Aherne are seen in "A Night To Remember" as a young married couple who move to a basement apartment on the appropriately-named Gay Street, in Greenwich Village, that world-famous haunt of delightful people. As Jeff and Nancy Troy, seeking "atmosphere for Jeff's latest novel, the co-stars find it—in their new home, a basement apartment which once was a speakeasy; and in their own backyard, which one morning harbors a corpse!

The neighbors provide their share of the excitement, as do the police who want to know "Who drowned a man in Nancy's bathtub?" Jeff, under suspicion himself, provides a question of his own: "Who killed who with a horseshoe—for good luck?" And Nancy, no slouch at parlor quiz games, wants to know the answer to her own little problem: "What kind of clue was Jeff hunting in another girl's arms?"

skillfull, calculating strategy, Helen maneuvers the marriage of Katherine and Albert, so that they can all leave the next day with the troupe on a cross-country tour.

Helen's next move is to get Katherine into the act, and this she does by calmly and methodically fomenting a quarrel between Runkel and Collins, the two partners.

With indescribable energy and driving force Helen succeeds in securing a key spot for Katherine in a Broadway revue.

Katherine's fresh, unspoiled charm coupled with real talent, lead her from one success to another, and when she becomes the top musical comedy sensation, Helen, ever avid for more, angles for the leading role in a dramatic play.

Katherine's gradual realization that she is merely an automaton in the hands of her ambitious sister fill her with intense hatred for this way of life, and she is determined to change it.

"Hard Way" Story Of Sister Love Opens At Ritz

"The Hard Way," starring Ida Lupino, Dennis Morgan and Joan Leslie will make its debut at the Ritz Theatre Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday.

Ida Lupino portrays the role of Helen Chernen, with Joan Leslie playing the innocent and talented young sister Katherine.

Pitted against them are Dennis Morgan and Jack Carson, cast as the vaudeville team of Runkel and Collins, whose lives are intimately linked with those of the sisters.

The dull and sordid mining town of Greenhill, Pa., has left its mark on Helen Chernen, and she is determined that her young sister shall not suffer the same fate.

Albert Runkel, simple, lovable partner of the small-time troupe of Runkel and Collins, plays into her hands when he expresses keen admiration for Katherine. Through

MADE IN JAPAN

Your Gas Ration Book is a Gift from Hirohito!

As clearly as if the words "MADE IN JAPAN" were printed on your Gasoline Ration Book, you know that the Japs are responsible for the rationing of your tire mileage.

When the Tokyo toughs seized the Netherlands East Indies and Malaya, our chief sources of supply of raw rubber immediately disappeared.

That is why your driving had to be drastically cut down. Not to save gasoline, which is plentiful in this area; but to save rubber, which is short all over the country. And rubber must be saved . . . or we risk losing the war.

The plain, patriotic fact is that rationing gasoline is the simple, direct way to accomplish the sincerely avowed purpose of Rubber Administrator Jeffers: "To keep automobiles on the road, not to take them off."

Gasoline rationing and the U. S. synthetic rubber program are both dedicated to supplying the rubber for the combat needs of our boys from Guadalcanal to Gafsa, as well as for essential transportation here at home.

Phillips is proud that its resources, experience, and long peacetime research have qualified it for an important role in the wartime synthetic rubber program. To this vital job, and to the needed production of 100 octane aviation motor fuel, we are wholeheartedly giving our best efforts twenty-four hours a day.

For you and for us, winning the war comes first. Patriotic drivers have as willingly accepted the restrictions on buying gasoline as we have on selling it. And we confidently promise you that when victory comes, today's concentration on petroleum research will bring you almost undreamed of improvement in the Phillips 66 gasoline which will power your car and the Phillips rubber on which it will roll.

James Ware, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ware, who is now serving in the Army Air Force, is stationed at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls. James was a member of the Air Corps Reserve, and attended Schreiner's Military Institute at Kerrville, before being called into the air force.

Mrs. Vernie V. Wright received the letter printed below from Mary Harford, in England. Her son, Maj. Tilden P. Wright, has been staying in the Harford home. The letter describes life in England at this time, and is believed to be of interest to the Leader's many readers.

"England—Feb. 5.

"Dear Mrs. Wright: "T. P. has asked me to write to you and send this calendar. He saw it in our next door neighbor's house and thought you would like the pictures, especially as it is almost impossible to get picture postcards anymore in England.

"T. P. arrived at our house with his hand in plaster, and three days later developed a horrible cold and cough, so we parked him severely in bed and he soon recovered. He went off to some work in another part of England just before Christmas, which was very sad, as we did not have him with us for the general festivities. However, he flew in a few days ago, persuaded me to unpack him. We spread his things all over the room and he went off to dinner at the mess. He returned two hours later to say he had been ordered away again and please would I pack him, as he was going in the morning. My mother was in bed with the flu. We had two W.A.A.F.S. in the house (W.A.A.F.S. are Airwomen) so I was a spot busy! However, we celebrated the reunion by congregating in mother's room (she was well on the way to recovery) and opening a bottle of champagne. As my mother is practically a teetotaler it gives you some idea of how pleased we were to see him again. He went off leaving a mass of instructions, one being to write to you and tell you all the news.

"At the beginning of the war my brother went straight into the army and the maid left so mother and I were left alone for quite a while. Then we had three sets of evacuees. The first came from a very poor part of London and were dirty to say the least of it! The second lot had a very badly bomb shocked child, but were quite nice. The third had been blitzed out of their home in Hull and we had them for about a year. The husband was a sergeant in the army and we had his wife and two little girls. They were a great success, and helped a lot. The sergeant then went abroad and his family returned to their home, which had by that time had a roof put back. We then had a terrible family for a short while, but luckily your people arrived and saved the situation, as they have all been most terribly kind and we have had grand fun. T. P. is the seventh installment, as you might say. So we live a fairly hectic existence! I work in an Aircraft Factory. I drove a van for them for just over a year, but have had to give that up and go indoors as the cold made me ill. We were often driving ten hours and sometimes longer. It was very trying in the black out, but we had tremendous fun. I was very sorry I had to stop. However, I have now gone on to inspection and I think it will prove very interesting. I do hope after this war we shall be able to come and see all our American friends that we have made. It is such a pity that so many of them are seeing England at a time when things are difficult, and don't look their best, and transport difficulties make it almost impossible to go places and see things. However, we manage very well, considering all things. I sometimes think Hitler would be very irritated if he could see what a good time a lot of us still manage to have, and what good things we still get, even if we do have to scheme for them.

"I do hope Pat and Chip are well. I feel we know them really well, as T. P. is always talking about them and his bedroom is full of all the photos that have arrived.

"I must stop now, as it is nearly midnight and the rest of the household are well on their way to bed.

"Yours very sincerely,

"MARY HARFORD."

"N. B. The calendar she mentions sending, is a calendar for the year 1942, but is a lovely thing to me. Scenes of Scotland. Due to the shortage of paper, they mention, they have printed it on both sides. With its Lochs, Shires, Glens, pastoral scenes, view of lofty Devlin, historic Glencoe and bonny Dundee, you may be sure is all interesting to me. There are winter scenes, spring, summer, fall; and the bare crags of mountains, wild seaside, lovely coves and landing places, pastures where cows are grazing, flocks of sheep. You would hardly think one little calendar could contain so many interesting pictures," Mrs. Wright said.

Delbert Mouser of Spade left February 24 for Sheppard Field, Texas. He enlisted December 4, and was put in the Air Corp Reserve. His wife is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Chamberlain. She plans to join her husband sometime later.

Pvt. Leonard Mouser, who has been stationed at Sheppard Field since January 11, has recently been transferred to Scott Field, Illinois, where he is being trained in radio operations.

Lieut. Crawford H. Bates, who has been transferred from "Somewhere in Australia" to "Somewhere down under," writes friends here to the effect that he is "where there is plenty of action; has been in the hospital with a bad case of Dingle Fever caused by mosquitos; would like to be in Texas to enjoy some cold weather, have never been so warm in my life, and it does not seem to be doing me any good either. Hope to see good old Texas again and soon."
