

Miss Ottis Renfro and Curtis Wheeler Wed at New Home

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Ottis Renfro, daughter of C. O. Renfro of Sudan, and Curtis Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wheeler of Lorenzo, which took place at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Wilmer Smith of New Home, Saturday, Dec. 21, with Dr. M. Norvel Young officiating.

Decorations were of gladioli, greenery and tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Ruth Strain, and Norma Lee White, soloist, offered wedding music. Candles were lighted by Peggy Smith, niece of the bridegroom, and Norma Lee White.

The bride wore a blue dressmaker suit and wore a corsage of white carnations and roses. Mrs. Jack Cleveland, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Wilmer Smith was best man.

Following the ceremony, a three-tiered wedding cake was served to wedding guests by Mrs. W. O. Lockwood, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. R. L. Marks.

The couple is at home in the Robertson community, following a wedding trip to San Antonio. The bride formerly worked at Lubbock Memorial hospital for three years and the bridegroom is a graduate of Texas Technological College and served three and one-half years in the Army.

Terracing Pays, says Lem Weaver

According to Lem Weaver, county agent, R. T. Black of the Spade community terraced his land in 1945. In a spring of 1946, Mr. Black sowed terraces to cane except one end of the last terrace, where Johnson was growing. There were 14 acres of cane and Mr. Black used 5 1/2 bushels of twine to harvest this field. The only terrace that broke during the fall rains was the 300 acres that he followed to rid the land of Johnson grass.

ed 76 bushels of wheat on eight and a half acres. He now has a stand of wheat in the terrace, although he did not plant the land.

There are several examples of handing terraces without growing tumbleweeds.

Fred Wilson terraced an eroded field in 1945 and sowed to crested wheat and rye. Although the terrace caught run water off from the other end of the field, the terrace did not wash out because of the grass that was growing on them. Although water ran over the top of each terrace, the soil did not erode.

J. H. Wells Supervises Construction of Drs. Woods and Armistead Building

Has Been Prominent As Builder Here For Past 22 Years

Responsible For Erection of Many of City's Better Bldgs.

J. H. Wells, who was in charge of the construction of the new Drs. Woods and Armistead building, is the Daddy of the business building industry in Littlefield, having been prominent as a contractor here since 1924, and to him goes the credit for most of Littlefield's better business buildings.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells came here from St. Francis, Cheyenne County, Kansas, 22 years ago last December, and since that time has seen many business buildings go up under his direction.

Supervises 3 Buildings

At the time the new Drs. Woods and Armistead building was started, Mr. Wells was supervising two other beautiful buildings, the Penny Building, which was constructed for Drs. Ira Woods and W. N. Orr; and the large structure, which is now housing the Littlefield Truck & Tractor Co. and the Littlefield Motor Company.

Builds Numerous Buildings

Among Littlefield's business structures, which have been built under Mrs. Wells' able supervision, besides the above mentioned, are: The First Methodist Church, Wayne Milk Company, Littlefield Hospital, Swimming Pool, the two Hall Buildings, Higginbotham - Bartlett Building, Dr. Max Wood building, REA building, Littlefield Hotel building, Eubanks Tire, Chisholm & Nail building, Firestone building, Crystal Ice, etc. Included in remodeling jobs Mr. Wells has supervised are: Piggly-Wiggly, Stone's building, First National Bank building, Little-Rutherford building, etc.

Besides directing the construction of many buildings in Littlefield Mr. Wells has also been active in the erection of business structures and school buildings outside this city. He has the distinction of building the first school building at Whiteface. He also supervised the erection of Fieldton school, and three brick buildings at Levelland.

Appreciates Patronage

In an interview Saturday Mr. Wells asked the Leader to thank all those business firms and individuals who have at any time extended him contracts on business buildings in this city, thereby placing confidence in him, and permitting Mr. Wells to take such a large part in the progress and building of Littlefield. Mr. Wells extends his sincere thanks and appreciation, to all his patrons, stating it is always a pleasure to him to have a part in the construction of a nice building, or the remodeling of structures, which all add to the growth and development of this city.

Amherst Legion Auxiliary to Stage '42' Party Monday

The regular meeting of the Amherst American Legion Auxiliary met Monday, January 13, at the Amherst Legion Hall.

Mrs. Harry Phelps, President, presided.

Mrs. Marvin Wagner gave a talk on Legislation.

Plans were made for a "42" party on Monday evening, January 27.

Members present were: Mesdames Earl Abbott, Pearl Abbott, L. A. Daniel, C. A. Duffy, Buck Elliott, Ed. Nicholson, Claud Coffey, Harry Phelps, and Marvin Wagner.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Clawson

Funeral services for Mrs. W. L. Clawson were held in the Methodist Church at Bula Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. L. W. Baker, pastor, in charge of the services.

Burial, under the direction of Hammons Funeral Home, was made in the Littlefield cemetery.

The deceased had been in ill health for a number of years, when she became worse Saturday night and was carried to the Amherst Hospital, where she passed away Sunday night at nine o'clock.

Having joined the Methodist Church at the age of eleven years, her faith had remained steady until death.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons and a daughter, Hughlon A. Clawson of San Diego, California, Ivan A. Clawson, Bula, and Mrs. J. D. Rowland, of Ocean-side, California; three sisters, Mrs. M. C. Phears, Jonesboro, Texas, Mrs. L. M. Farror, West Plains, Missouri, and Mrs. J. H. Clawson of Bula; and three grandchildren, Wilbert, Anita and Beverly Ann Clawson of Bula.

Fireboys Extinguish Blaze at Raymond Williams Home

The tenant house of Raymond Williams, in the colored section of town, was partially destroyed by fire Monday about 10 a. m., when it became ignited from some unidentified origin.

Through the efficiency of the Littlefield Fire Department the blaze was extinguished before any damage was done to the furniture.

Littlefield has an efficient department composed of conscientious citizens, and in the words of City Secretary W. G. Street, "If these boys have any break at all in a fire it never develops into a big one."

The following members comprise the Fire Department, headed by Bob Cox of the Cox Tin Shop as chief, and Eugene Johnson, assistant chief and secretary; and W. O. Yeary, treasurer, A. M. Dunigan, S. C. Hopping, W. D. Gilder, Erk Johnson, Sam Lambert, J. P. Ray, Alvin Roles, Jim Roles, W. A. Scott, L. E. Sinclair, Otis Smith, T. C. Teal, Roy Wade, Dodd Weatherly, W. F. Williamson, E. W. Yeary, L. M. Bryant and R. D. Beisel, who is temporarily out.

IS IMPROVING FOLLOWING MAJOR SURGERY

C. H. Morrow underwent major surgery Monday, January 13, at the Methodist Hospital, Houston, for ulcerated stomach. He is now reported to be able to be out of bed, and getting along nicely. It is not known when he will be able to come home, and again resume his duties at the

DAUGHTER BORN TO MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE DAVIS

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis at the Amherst Hospital Friday last. The infant weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces. Mr. Davis is Tax Assessor-Collector for Lamb County, and recently took office. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are now the parents of two children, both daughters.

Installation of WOW Officers

The joint installation of the Woodmen Circle and W. O. W. lodges held in the school cafeteria Wednesday night, January 15, was a great success.

Robert Kirk was master of ceremonies, and gave the welcome address. Mr. Geo. Hine made the response. Invocation was given by Roy J. Clark.

Distinguished guests were presented with the assistance of a mixed drill team of both lodges, under the instruction of Mrs. Lola E. Adkins and Allen McDonough, Mr. Max B. Hurt, Omaha, Nebr., National Treasurer of the W. O. W.; Laura E. Krebs, National Committee Woman and State manager of the Circle; Mr. George Hine, Abilene, State Manager of the W. O. W.; Marjorie Beisel, Lubbock, district manager of the Circle; Roy J. Clark, Brownwood; Nathan Theford, Mineral Wells, W. D. Chapman, Littlefield, district managers of the W. O. W.; Troy Howton district manager, of Abilene; Mr. J. H. Thompson, National Representative, Amarillo, and J. Q. Barns, Council Commander, of Amarillo.

Mrs. Tula B. Taylor was in charge of the evening's program. Mrs. Beisel presented the U. S. Flag, assisted by the team members. A solo, "If You Were the Only Boy in this World," was given by Mrs. Dean Morgan, accompanied by Imogene Humphries.

Install Woodman Circle Officers
The officers of the Woodman Circle were installed with Mrs. Krebs as installing officer, Mrs. Beisel as installing attendant and Mrs. W. P. Kirk as installing chaplain.

Mr. Hine paid tribute to the success that both lodges of Littlefield had made the past year. He also gave some interesting facts on the fraternalism of the community.

Catherine Bevel and Mrs. Tula Taylor sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," with Miss Humphries at the piano.

Mrs. Krebs Makes Address
Mrs. Krebs gave a wonderful talk and expressed her appreciation of having the opportunity to visit again in Littlefield.

Special Drill Given
A special drill was given by team members of the Circle. Officers of the W. O. W. lodge were installed with Mr. Hine as installing officer and Nathan Theford as installing escort.

The address by Mr. Hurt was the highlight of the evening. Mr. Hurt is a noted speaker and expertly expressed his views on the world at large and the fraternal deeds that the W. O. W. Circle have done since being organized.

A delicious supper was served buffet style to approximately 250 guests. A string band furnished music while supper was being served.

Special Meeting Called
Mrs. Krebs called a special meeting of members of the Circle Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Vera Drake at Springlake. Twenty-one members attended.

Mrs. Drake served a very delicious supper to guests and members.

Following a social hour, Mrs. Krebs gave instructions on the new Ritual for the Circle.

Miss Humphries gave several piano selections.

Everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Irvin St. Clair Honored at Shower

Mrs. Curtis Lee, Miss Joni Pearl Flowers and Miss Ramona Eagen were joint hostesses when they entertained a few friends Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 8:30 in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Lee, in the new Woods and Armistead building on XIT Drive, complimenting Mrs. Irvin St. Clair, formerly Miss Dorothy Perry, with a bridal shower.

Vases of sweet peas decorated the entertaining suite and the lace covered dining table was centered in multi-colored sweet peas in crystal bowl. Miss Eagan presided at the table where coffee and cake were served to the following guests:

Mesdames W. F. Martin, Cecil Martin, Robt. Bigham, Paul Huatt, Wayne

Martin, Virgil Zoth, Delbert W. Bawcom, Malcomb Humphries, Minnie Kate Jones, Ruth Perry, Jane Nichols, Wm. J. Lee, Jimmie Walker, Vance Onstott, Misses Margaret Coffman, Louise Lee, Beckie Moore and Lela Mae Heard.

Dr. and Mrs. Birdsong are on a vacation in Fort Worth, Houston and Galveston.

Friends of Dink Cantrell will be glad to know that he was released from the Amherst hospital Thursday of last week. Several weeks ago he was injured in a collision with a train between Sudan and Amherst.

Miss Mary Lenore La Grange, from McMurry College, Abilene has been visiting her parents in Amherst.

Will it cost me more for the best automotive service?

That's a good question. And the answer is: less than for second or third best.

Why? It's really very reasonable and simple: experienced men with the right tools and genuine factory parts can do the job in less time . . . and so at less cost.

In addition, you get it done right — which saves later as well as now. And that's the way we service cars.

Farm Home Improvements

Electricity, running water and modern bathrooms are at the top of the list of improvements that farm families are making as materials become available.

Rural families who are planning to build new houses or remodel old ones may be helped by the experience of others who have completed home improvements, says Mrs. Bernice Clayton, home management specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension service. A recent survey by the U. S. Department of Agriculture showed that families who have done remodeling rated modern conveniences—lights, water, and bath—at the top of their improvement list. Almost all the families who remodeled made kitchen improvements. Insulation and central heat also ranked high as a popular improvement.

Many families put in more and bigger windows, and made arrangements for more storage space. More than half the families added bedroom closets, and a third of them included a closet for work clothes.

For the most part, planning was a family affair, with all members taking part. Ideas for improvements were found in magazines and trade publications, and from observing houses of neighbors. Local carpenters and plumbers also lent a hand, and some help in planning came from the Extension Service and other educational and service agencies. Half the families interviewed used some credit to finance their improvements.

In every case, expenses were cut down by family members doing part of the work, and by using some lumber from trees on the farm.

Better Sugar Supply

Texas homemakers can look with renewed hope toward an improved sugar supply.

Miss Gwendolyn Jones, feed preservation specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service calls the attention of housewives to a recent statement by Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson concerning possibilities of increase home sugar supplies:

"Barring unpredictable disasters, sugar will be available to increase rations in the United States by one five-pound consumer sugar stamp by April 1, 1947. . . . It is believed that the sugar supply will warrant further increases later in the year, but at this time it is too early to specify amounts."

A step toward better sugar supply was taken January 1, says Miss Jones, when a spare stamp for five pounds of sugar was made good by the OPA. The spare stamp will be valid until April 30.

Judging from reports from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, it is likely that the second consumer stamp for 1947 will be made good before the spare stamp expires, predicts Miss Jones. When this happens, the present ration of five pounds of sugar every four months will be increased.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dennis Observe Wedding Anniversary

Tuesday, January 7th, 1947, was a very memorable day for Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dennis of Olton, for on that day 50 years ago, in the year 1847, Mr. Robert E. Dennis and Miss Louise Elizabeth Hair, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. This happy event took place at Bulcher, Cook Co., Tex., from that date until the present time "Uncle Bob" and "Aunt Betty" have traveled the path of life hand in hand, up-hill and down-dale; both literally, and figuratively, the end of the journey, finds them located in their comfortable home in Olton, where they entertained their many friends Tuesday afternoon of last week.

Some one hundred guests registered in the Guest Book which was presided over by Mrs. Morris Womack.

From a beautifully arranged table, covered with a lace cloth and silver service centered with a 3-tiered wedding cake, flanked by tall golden candles, the guests were served hot tea, and coffee, with mints, by Mesdames E. R. Spain and L. S. Kennedy. On an adjoining table, were gifts to the honorees, which the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis lovingly presented to them as a small token of their love and appreciation, for the lives and influence, of this good couple. Besides the many who registered on this occasion and who were present to enjoy and celebrate this 50th anniversary, grandchildren:

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Dennis and sons, Robert, and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dennis, Olton; Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis and children Billy and Ruthie, Pasadena, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dennis and Children, Barbara and Clyde Jr. of Long Beach, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith and children, Charles David; Joe Bob and Nancy of Portales, N. M.

Other children, included Mr. and Mrs. Earl West and children; Mrs. Vera Paine and children; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paish and Mrs. David Dennis all of California were unable to be present.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Crabtree of Happy and Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Dixon and mother Green of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCormick of Running Water; Mrs. Audrey Perry of Detroit; Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Dock Brown of Halfway, Olton Enterprise

NAVY LAUNCHES RECRUITING DRIVE

The Navy has launched a huge recruiting program to staff its million man Reserve by July 1, 1947. All veterans of World War II, plus certain other men, are eligible for membership. It is now possible for men between the ages of 17 and 18½ and from 30 to 40 without prior military service, to become members of the new Naval Reserve (Inactive).

Included in the program are large allowances of equipment for training in air, lighter than air and submarine units, in addition to the usual surface and shore training. The new Reserve is divided in two forces. The Organized and the Volunteer both offer the civilian every possible chance to maintain a rate and to keep up to date on the changing equipment in the modern Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logan of Denver, Colo. left Tuesday of last week after spending two weeks in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Logan here.

Mrs. Duane Orr left Friday for her home at Corpus Christi, Texas, after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Staggers.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. 2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Six Persons Lynched During Year 1946

According to the records compiled in the Department of Records and Research of Huske Institute, there were 6 persons lynched during 1946.

This is 5 more than the number for 1945, 4 more than the number for the year 1944, 3 more than the number 3 for the year 1943, 1 more than the number 5 for the year 1942.

There were also 4 borderline cases which are not included in the total number of lynchings for 1946 because to date sufficient evidence concerning them has not been obtained.

There were at least 17 instances in which lynchings were prevented, 14 of them were by officers of the law and 3 were by persons not connected with the law. 16 of these instances were in the Southern States and 1 was in the Northern States. A total of 22 persons, 21 Negroes and 1 white person, were thus saved from death at the hands of mobs. All of the 6 persons lynched were Negroes. The offenses were: stealing a saddle, 1 (two other persons later confessed this crime); stabbing a man, 1; no charge, 3 (were in automobile with one of their victims); attempting to break into a house, 1, (jailed, but later released).

The States in which lynchings occurred and the number in each State are as follows: Mississippi, 1; Georgia, 4; Louisiana, 1.

HOUSING SOLVED

One solution to the current housing shortage has been found by Richard Taylor, 23-year-old war veteran who is a student at Texas Technological College. When he and his fiancée decided a three-month search for a furnished apartment was proving futile, Taylor arranged to move a house 110 miles from Hobbs, N. M., to Lubbock. The couple was married recently.

Veterans Planning To Marry Should Notify VA at Once

Mr. Veteran, are you planning on getting married any time soon? This may seem a bit personal, but if you are drawing subsistence for on-the-job training or for going to school, it would definitely be to your advantage to send to Veterans Administration region office at Lubbock an invitation to your wedding.

The VA will not send you a lot of wedding presents, but if your subsistence allowance is to be increased from $65 to $90 per month, beginning with the day you are married, it is necessary that the VA have prior notice that you intend to take unto yourself a wife.

If you wait until after you are married to notify the VA, and to request an increase in your subsistence to that of a married veteran, the VA is governed by law to commence your $90 subsistence from receipt of notification and cannot make the increase retroactive to date of your marriage.

So, if you are receiving VA educational benefits and plan to get married, let the VA know in advance by card or letter over your signature and indirectly following marriage send in a certified copy of the public record of your marriage, thus your increased subsistence will commence with the date of your marriage.

Remember, when writing the VA on any subject, be sure to give full name, address, service serial number and claim number.

Production of Cars to Increase Within Next Six Months

Pontiac Motor Division during 1947 will strive to meet the continuing barriers to full production with the same flexible foresight which enabled it to produce 137,640 cars during the 1946 model run.

It is the belief of General Manager Harry J. Klingler that during the first six months of 1947 it will be difficult for the industry to show a decided upturn in production. However, he feels there is an opportunity to increase output of motor cars—controlling factors being the same that have hampered production in recent months.

Hot and cold rolled and strip steel remains the most pressing need with Pontiac. The supply situation in regards to other steel types used in car production and other items such as coke and pig iron also have important bearing on '47 production.

The cast iron situation may at a later date be the controlling factor in the supply of 1947 models, Mr. Klingler believes.

Approaching Marriage of Miss Dorothy Newgent and Jack Garlington Announced at Tea

A high light of the social activities the past week, was the lovely tea given by Mrs. E. J. Newgent, Friday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Fowler, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., announcing the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Newgent, to Jack Garlington, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garlington, of Lubbock, which is scheduled to take place January 28.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with bouquets of yellow jonquils, snapdragons, and chrysanthemums, and on the coffee table yellow carnations floated on individual rice bowls.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Fowler, sister of Mr. Garlington; Miss Newgent; Mrs. Newgent, Mrs. J. O. Garlington, and Mrs. Ellis R. Forman, of Lubbock, who is the sister of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Wayne Martin presided at the beautiful white brocaded satin bride's book, and after registering, the guests were directed to the dining table by Mrs. James Penn and Mrs. Richard E. Smith of Lubbock, from which they were served coffee or frosted cakes, yellow mints and cakes decorated with a yellow rosebud, by Misses Ruth Griffin and Margaret Coffman, assisted by Miss Beckie Moore and Mrs. Minnie Kate Jones.

The dining table, covered with a white linen cloth, hand embroidered in dragon's lace, was centered with a very unique arrangement of moss, a tree-like plant and miniature Japanese figures on a reflector, creating a typical Japanese garden scene, and the oriental suggestion was further carried out in the small scroll tied in yellow ribbon, which when opened, revealed the names "Dorothy and Jack" written in Japanese style, with the date of the wedding.

MRS. WAYNE WILKINSON

The marriage of Miss Fay Cloud and Wayne Wilkinson took place January 11 at the East Side Church of Christ, Lubbock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cloud of Monroe, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Wilkinson of Sudan. The couple are at home at Lubbock.

Newt Harkey, and Roy Gattis and the bride-elect, Miss Dorothy Newgent.

Out-of-town guests were Mesdames Ellie Forman, J. O. Garlington, Hugh Bryer, Edgar Pace, Roy Gamble, Chas. H. Baron, and Mrs. Richard E. Smith, all of Lubbock.

Miss Dorothy Newgent Honoree at Breakfast

Mrs. Robt. Badger was hostess in her home Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock with an informal breakfast honoring Miss Dorothy Newgent, bride-elect of Jack Garlington.

The table was covered with a white cut work linen cloth and centered with a bowl of sweetpeas. She was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Wayne Martin.

Those present were Mesdames J. O. Garlington, Ivan Fowler, Ellis R. Forman of Lubbock, Minnie Kate Jones, and Misses LaVerne Hayhurst, Margaret Coffman and Ruth Griffin.

Mrs. Spencer McCartie Honored at Bridal Shower Friday

Mrs. Spencer McCartie, formerly Miss Maxine Lindley, was honored with a bridal shower Friday evening between the hours of 7 and 9, when Mesdames Viggo Peterson, E. J. Packwood, Henry Banks, T. A. Henson, W. E. Heathman, W. E. Owens and Acree Barton jointly entertained in the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Peterson on 11th St.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with yellow roses, Iris and Acasia. And on the white linen covered dining table, yellow jonquils in crystal bowl stood beside tall white candles in crystal holders.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Peterson, T. A. Henson, Mrs. McCartie and Mrs. D. C. Lindley and were registered in the beautiful bride's book by Mrs. W. E. Owens.

Miss Helen Heathman presided at the dining table where spiced tea, with nutbread butter sandwiches and mixed candies were served to the following: Mesdames Spencer McCartie, D. C. Lindley, Maude Street, Joe Hutchinson, Sybil Morehead, E. E. Joiner, Lee Hemphill, W. O. Hampton, Paul Vance, Charles Heathman, Tel McClarty, J. R. Coen, Pat Boone, Pete Parrack, Andy McGee, Lon Smith, Prior Hammonds, Norman Renfro, Paul Vance, Flemming, R. G. Wilson, Sr., and R. G. Wilson, Jr., both of Springlake; Misses Helen Heathman and Freda Lindley.

A large group of friends sent gifts who were unable to attend due to the inclement weather.

contributed the balance of $18.14 to make up the expenses.

In an interview with Mr. Wesley Monday he said:

"If the citizenship of Littlefield want a boys' club here, they will have to get behind the project and cooperate; otherwise, nothing can be done. Boys are asking me daily on the streets—"Are we going to have a club like that?" If the people want a boys club in Littlefield, and will write their willingness to cooperate either to Mayor Chesher or to the Jaycees, Lions or Rotary Clubs, we will put on a campaign to raise the funds, otherwise nothing can be done."

Residents providing accommodation for the Maverick Club boys while here were Mayor Chesher, 6 boys; T. G. Shaw, 2 boys; Joe Walters, 2 boys; Elvis Hestand, 2 boys; D. L. Whitson, 2.

The Jayceettes provided and prepared supper for the boys at the school Cafeteria Friday night; and Mrs. E. E. Wesley and Mrs. D. L. Whitson served supper Saturday night at the Wesley home.

The sponsors of the shows wish to extend thanks and their appreciation to those who provided accommodation for the boys while here, and also to those who provided and served the food. This courtesy is much appreciated.

Mrs. Furman Grant Honored at Lovely Bridal Shower

Mrs. Furman Grant, formerly Miss Robbie Bigham, was the recipient of one of the loveliest bridal showers of the season, when a group of matrons, Mesdames Clyde Hilbun, C. O. Stone, A. L. Hood, Enlow Smith and W. D. T. Story jointly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hilbun at 222 East 11th Street Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride, having been born in Littlefield, entered primary school here, continuing throughout her high school graduation, and her continued education on through her degree in college, gave background to an interesting history of her life from which Mrs. Story wrote and was dramatized for entertainment at her bridal shower.

After the arrival of all the guests, Mrs. Story introduced the playlet in paying high tribute to the honoree who has grown from infancy to a lovely wife.

The first scene was presented by Mrs. Virgil Zoth, who entered from the stairway, dressed in sheer white gown and negligee, carrying a doll in her arms, was symbolic of the "infant Robby." As she passed through the entertaining room Mrs. L. B. McLain, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Wade on the accordion, sang "Rock-a-Bye Baby."

As Mrs. Story continued to read, little Kay Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, dressed in a full skirt and sweater, with hair platted, skipped in school girl fashion with a book in her arms to the strains of "School Days." The teacher was portrayed by Miss Edith Lynch, a teacher at Amherst, who was a college friend of Mrs. Grant.

The scene changes again as Mrs. McLain sang "My Wild Irish Rose" and Miss Johnnie Pearl Flowers appeared, dressed in clothes befitting a high school girl.

Representing the college girl, Miss Margaret Coffman entered wearing a chic tailored suit, and carried a cosmetic bag in her hand, while Mrs. McLain sang "Bollo-Bolla."

Leading up to the present, the story is climaxed with the appearance of Miss Johnnie Pearl Flowers again, wearing a lovely white moire taffeted formal dress, with the flowing veil while the soloist sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life."

Refreshments of tuna fish sandwiches and Philadelphia sandwiches with spiced tea was served to sixty guests and a number sent gifts who were unable to attend.

Son Is Born to Mr. Curtis Heard at Belen, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Heard of Belen, N. M., are the parents of a son born recently, weighing six and a half pounds. The infant has been named "Paul Wayne."

This is the second child born to Mr. and Mrs. Heard, the first a boy, Roger, passed away in 1944.

Mrs. Heard and son are doing nicely.

WHAT CAUSES LONG DISTANCE TRAFFIC JAMS

When more long distance calls are placed than our switchboards and lines can accommodate at one time, a traffic jam is the result. You can help relieve this jam by waiting until circuits are clear. An important part of the telephone industry's expansion program is an increase in long distance facilities. This can be completed only when material becomes available. Meanwhile, we ask your continued co-operation.

Drs. Woods, Armistead Offer Complete Lens Prescription Laboratory

Have As Modern Equipment As Found
In Large Cities

South Plains Area
Fortunate in Having
These Facilities

In their new office, Drs. Woods and Armistead have added the necessary equipment to completely grind and carry prescriptions through the entire process in their own modern laboratory. This will be particularly good news to those of us who are actually dependent upon glasses (and do not have a spare pair) or those of us who would be greatly handicapped if we had to go without them for several days while waiting to have a broken lens duplicated. Also, those people who live some distance from Littlefield and do not wish to make two long driving trips—one to have their eyes examined and the other to come back for their glasses a week or so later. Now, with this complete lens laboratory as a part of their new offices, Drs. Woods and Armistead will be in a position to give those of us who need it much faster and better service since the prescriptions will be compiled here in Littlefield rather than sent away to some distant city as has

Practising Optometry
in Littlefield For Past Fifteen Years

DR. IRA E. WOODS

Dr. Ira E. Woods, senior member of the firm of Drs. Woods and Armistead, has been practicing optometry in Littlefield since 1931, when he came here from Graham, Texas.

Dr. Woods had been practicing his profession at Graham and Olney nine years previous to coming to Littlefield.

Practising Here Since 1931
He is a graduate of Graham High School, and from South Bend College of Optics, South Bend, Ind., in 1919. He was also graduated from Needles Institute of Chicago, Ill., in 1921. Coming to Littlefield in 1931, he practiced alone until 1940, when he and Dr. Armistead formed a partnership.

Drs. Woods and Armistead's Beautiful New Home

This two story building, recently completed by Drs. Woods and Armistead at LFD Drive and South Twitchell st., Littlefield, is an interesting and attractive structure of buff brick and tile construction, with glass block trim.

J. H. Wells, prominent Littlefield contractor, was superintendent of construction.

Drs. Woods and Armistead will have the formal opening of their new, large offices Saturday, January 25, when open house will be observed from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M. The Littlefield optometrists extend a cordial invitation to the people of Littlefield, Lamb county, and the South Plains, to be their guests on that occasion.

Appointment System Saves Patients' Time

For the convenience of their patients only, Drs. Woods and Armistead use the appointment system. It is a system designed to save time for the patient and in no manner adds to the convenience of the doctor. It simply eliminates the necessity of a long wait for the patient in many instances. This does not mean that patients who do not have appointments will not be seen promptly but those who do make appointments will experience a shorter delay in being seen.

Now that the war is over and Dr. Armistead is back with the firm, and additional competent assistance is available, it is unusual for any patient to experience other than a short delay at any time whether they come with or without an appointment.

Dollar bills in circulation have a average lifetime of only 7 months.

Those Little Extra Services Are Pleasingly Extended by Littlefield Optometrists

An outstanding feature of the Optometric practice of Drs. Woods and Armistead has always been their special interest and attention to those little extra services which add so much to the benefit which their patients receive. Keeping their glasses tightened, cleaned, straightened, and adjusted properly seem relatively un-important but mean so very much to the comfort and visual welfare of the patient. No matter how thorough or accurate a visual analysis the Optometrist makes, full comfort and benefit can not be obtained unless the glasses are kept properly adjusted and aligned before the patient's eyes. It is just as important for the glasses to be in correct position before the eyes after they have been worn several months as it is the first day they are worn.

Adjust Patient's Glasses

It is almost impossible under modern living conditions to avoid little bumps and strains which over a period of time cause a persons glasses to become badly out of adjustment. The service of keeping their patients glasses adjusted over a reasonable length of time is considered highly important by Drs. Woods and Armistead and the original fee includes a payment for this service. It is not a free service—nothing of any value can be given free, however it is rendered as frequently as necessary without any additional charge to the patient.

A little girl's acknowledgement of a Christmas present: "Thank you for your nice present. I have always wanted a pin cushion, although not very much."

Communications System Has Been Installed

Another special feature of the Drs. Woods and Armistead building is the inter-communication system installed, which enables each room to be in personal contact with each other room.

This "Convers-o-Call" is a two-way talking system, and was installed by the National Inter-Communicating Systems.

Great Time Saver
In case of fire, all rooms may be called at one time, or any one room, or combination of rooms.

It offers the very latest equipment of its kind, and is a great time saver to the doctors and personnel.

"Remember, an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Look after your eyes for everybody's sake; train them so that you may be able to see all the beauty in the world and be able to help those who do not live in the light you love."

A Case of Nerves

Everyone of us is a nervous case. I don't mean by this that all of us are jittery or on the verge of a breakdown. Simply that we are all nervous because we have nerves. If we were not nervous we could not feel, hear, smell, taste or see. When we say that we have five senses we simply say that we have nerves—nerves that enable us to "sense" the world, as we say.

There are actually animals that have no nerves and hence no senses. The amoeba is an example—a single cell. When it wants to eat, the amoeba simply wraps itself around its food. No sense is involved. The action is purely physical. Higher animals are composed of billions and billions of cells. Some cells form muscle, some nerves, some hearts, some kidneys, some lungs. Why this complexity? Because one cell simply can't eat, feel, hear, smell and see, grow hair, run, play the piano, and speak. To make a higher animal, nature divided up the work to be done among many different kinds of cells, each with its own function.

But this involves central control. And what does the controlling? The brain, of course. All the nerves we have lead to the brain.

Scientists do not like the word "senses." They prefer the word "receptors"—receiving organs. It is a good word. It conjures up a picture of nerves picking up messages from the outer world and sending them to the brain.

A Universe in A Grain of Sand

A white beach stretches before you. Hundreds of millions of grains of sand. And each grain is a little world of its own. Look at one such grain through a microscope. It is a jagged, rough world, with mountains and valleys. Germs can hide in the valleys or perch on the peaks . . . and do. Millions of these germs can live on that infinitesimal world.

These grains of sand are what the chemists call silica. An eighth of the earth's crust is composed of silica. It is about the commonest stuff known. It glows in the sun, in the distant stars. With its aid, mere sand, science has been able to find why the sun shines and that germs are the cause of many diseases. We know about the little world that is a grain of sand because we look at it with transformed sand. By this I mean glass. All the spectacles, all the lenses of microscopes, telescopes, all the ways we have of aiding the eye to see big distant stars and microscopic germs are made of sand—this silica.

It would be a mistake to suppose that to make lenses for spectacles, microscopes and telescopes all we have to do is to gather sand from any beach and melt it. Window glass can be made that way, and so can common glass utensils. But not the lenses of spectacles and fine optical instruments like range finders that enable a battleship to hurl shells at another just visible on the horizon; binoculars that enable us to follow our favorite horse in a race; spectroscopes that split up light into its many hues; or periscopes that enable submarines to fire torpedoes under water accurately.

Only small part of the sand or silica in the world will do for the lens maker. The best is found in a small area of Pennsylvania and West Virginia—sand that was once the bed of an ocean several hundred thousand years ago. That choice sand or silica has to be melted in a pot with soda or potash and lime, lead or zinc, to 2,600 degrees Fahrenheit.

But that is not the whole story. The glass must be shaped. And unless it is shaped it cannot bend light—bring it to a focus so that the eye can see the invisible or magnify a star, or watch horses on the track. It is the most delicate job in the world—this shaping of a lens. Skilled men must grind it so that its curve does not vary more than a millionth of an inch. A little more, a little less, and scores of disease germs, millions of stars would not have been discovered. Light must be bent in just the right way to be focussed.

Unless that special kind of sand or silica had been found, unless skills had been developed which made it possible to shape glass so that it could be bent with mathematical accuracy, we would hardly know more about life than Columbus did. No photography, no science of astronomy, or optics no knowledge of bacteria, no way of projecting a motion picture on a screen, no spectacles to renew the world of knowledge and beauty for countless millions; in short, very little of what we call "science."

The Little Tube That Sees

Soon you will be able to buy a radio set that you can slip into your pocket, and all because the demands of war made it necessary to invent a radio tube not much bigger than an acorn.

This little tube is the vital element of what the army calls a "proximity fuse." That is a technical term for something really simple. "Proximity," as we know means "near to." The proximity fuse was secretly developed during the war to make anti-aircraft guns more effective. Before it was devised anti-aircraft gunners had to calculate the range of an enemy bomber, the temperature, the barometric pressure, the velocity of the wind and then fire a shell which contained a time-fuse that exploded the charge at the calculated instant.

The proximity fuse does away with much of this calculating. It contains a little radio transmitter, in other words a radio station much like the one over which people speak. It also contains a radio receiver, much like the one which makes it possible for you to listen. What happens? The shell is fired. It travels toward the target. Waves are sent out by the little transmitter in the shell-part of the proximity fuse. They are reflected by the target as from a mirror.

The reflected waves are picked up or seen by the little radio receiver in the fuse. When the waves are strong enough or bright enough, as we say, the shell explodes at the proper distance and at the proper moment.

During the war this anti-aircraft shell with its little radio sender and receiver saved Great Britain from the German V-1 jet-propelled bombs. On one occasion it brought down over a hundred out of 141 of these buzz bombs. The fuses were used in every theatre of war.

There are half a dozen tubes in a proximity fuse, but mounted in rubber cups embedded in wax they can be dropped from a ten-story building without breaking.

The proximity fuse drives home the importance of eyes, in war and peace. Gunners could not always see what they were firing at during the war. And sometimes the target was a mere speck in the sky. So this marvellous little glass tube had to be invented to rush up through the air and see all that was necessary.

Eyes were important in war, and now, in peacetime, they have a big job too.

Good eyesight means efficiency and success in the office and factory. It means the full enjoyment of sports, social occasions, and leisure hours.

So don't take chances with the only eyes you will ever have.

Have them examined regularly. You have only one pair of eyes to last you a lifetime—so treat them fairly, and you will be rewarded by a lifetime of prosperous, happy seeing.

To reach a port, we must sail, sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it, but we must sail, and not drift, nor lie at anchor.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Energy will do anything that can be done in this world, and no talents, no circumstances, no opportunities will make a man without it.—Goethe.

Slow winds also bring the ship to harbor.—Swedish Proverb.

Only those who have the patience to do simple things perfectly ever acquire the skill to do difficult things easily.—Schiller.

Comfortable Reception Room

A half circle in shape, and specially designed, furnished and lighted, the reception room at the new offices of Drs. Woods and Armistead offers an interesting study in those special features of construction, equipment and arrangement which add up to comfort and relaxation.

Decorated in a soft cream tone, with light tan floor, and with indirect fluorescent lighting, the room is very comfortably and pleasingly furnished. Cream leather upholstered chairs with matching tables and other items in furnishings are the central features.

At one side of this room is the receptionist's desk, and corridors leading to the offices of Drs. Woods and Armistead.

Ass't Technician With Drs. Woods And Armistead

BILLY GRANT
Billy Grant, Assistant to Mr. Lance, is a senior high school student who has been in training as a laboratory technician for the past two years with the Drs. Woods and Armistead concern.

Why Does A Horse Turn Its Head?

In approaching a horse from the front why does it look you straight in the eye until you are three or four feet from it, then turn its head and look at you with one eye?

Because horse eyes are not suited for close binocular vision, say the Better Vision Institute. The lens in the eye of a horse is relatively large, and the ciliary muscle is weak, unable to bring about accommodation of the lenses for near and far vision. Also, the eye muscles are unable to converge the two eyes for close focusing. Accordingly, the horse sees objects at a distance binocularly, (with two eyes), but must use one eye for focusing objects close by.

To overcome the lack of flexibility of the lens, the retina of a horse's eye slants from the visual axis, like a tilted egg. The principle of this arrangement is similar to that seen in slanting a camera in photographing a tall building so as to get near and far points into focus on the plate. Because of this slanting of the retina in the back of the eye it is believed that a horse, by raising and lowering its head, can focus on objects over a considerable distance.

"See if you can laugh that off," said the fat man's wife as she wired a button on his vest!

Superintends Construction

J. H. Wells, prominent Littlefield contractor, was superintendent of construction of the Drs. Wood and Armistead building, with E. S. Billings, also of this city, as carpenter-foreman.

To Mr. Wells goes the credit of building many of the best business buildings in Littlefield. He has been prominent as a contractor in this city since 1924.

The plumbing and electrical contractor was R. V. Armstrong, while Leon Stansell was in charge of the painting.

Lollis and Jackson and Morgan Bros. were the contractors for the cement work.

Supplying materials were Cameron & Company, Higginbotham-Bartlett Company, Builders & Supply and Morrow Lumber Company.

The doors for the building were made by the Builders Supply, while the windows were made by Lubbock Woodworking Co.

The Brick & Tile Company, Lubbock, furnished the glass blocks for the building, and laid the asphalt tile floor covering on both upper and lower floors.

The Lubbock Steel Works furnished the steel for building the stairway, beams, etc.

Martin Lydick Sheet Metal Works, Lubbock, installed the heating and ventilation systems; and the Chisholm Floral & Nursery carried out the landscaping of the grounds at the new building.

Drs. Woods and Armistead purchased the optical equipment from American Optical Company, Dallas.
