LITTLEFIELD'S MONTHLY PAYROLL GAINS

NRA PROGRAM BRINGS WORK SURVEY SHOWS

Gain of $4,600 Monthly in Payroll, Dr. Woods Announces

The most outstanding accomplishment of the NRA program in Littlefield is the fact that large numbers of additional men have been given whole or part time employment.

In fact the results obtained through the NRA program have been so great as to even surprise those who are its closest touch with accomplishments. A partial survey of the benefits derived by Littlefield through the NRA has been completed by Dr. Ira E. Woods, general in charge of the NRA program in this city.

Dr. Woods announced Wednesday that, through increased employment under the NRA, Littlefield's payroll has been increased $4,600 per month. Dr. Woods stated that the increase will be much greater with the next two or three weeks on account of the increased fall activity in this city and section.

At a meeting Monday evening over one hundred volunteer workers were present, and the final plans for the campaign to enlist every business concern and private individual under the Blue Eagle were completed.

In the drive, which was carried out Tuesday under the NRA organization of Littlefield, of which Dr. Ira E. Woods, is General, with this particular division of the work being under the direction of Mayor L. R. Crockett, who is in charge of Manpower, every residence and business house in Littlefield was visited.

Dr. Woods reports almost 100% cooperation in the NRA program, saying that there were 107 questionnaires signed by Employers and 556 Consumers cards. He said the check revealed that there were 184 unemployed in the city, and that 42 had secured full time employment and 14 part time employment since the NRA came into force.

The volunteer workers in the NRA campaign wish to express their appreciation to the public for the splendid cooperation and for the courtesies extended them when making the drive Tuesday.

MRS. S. C. LOYD, HIGHLY ESTEEMED RESIDENT, DIES

Great Numbers Pay Last Respect at Local And Afton Services

The entire citizenship was shocked and grieved to learn of the very sudden death of Mrs. S. C. Loyd, one of Littlefield's most respected residents, one who was loved by all who knew her.

She died very suddenly about 6:45 Wednesday evening of last week, August 23rd.

Mrs. L. F. Killough, a neighbor, was out of the city on a vacation and Mrs. Loyd had kindly offered to assist in taking care of her chickens and cow during her absence. Miss Stella Loyd, her daughter, was with her mother five minutes before her death, having helped her feed the livestock and Mrs. Loyd had remained to milk the cow while her daughter had returned home. Miss Stella had just reached home when she received a telephone message from another neighbor saying, "your mother must have fallen and hurt herself as she is lying on the ground." Upon rushing over to the Killough home Miss Stella found that her mother had died.

Mrs. Loyd who is also the mother of Mrs. J. M. Stokes of this city, had been in ill health for some time, but had been as well as usual that day and had not complained.

The First Baptist Church, where funeral services were conducted at 9 A. M. Friday, August 25th, was crowded with her friends who had gathered to pay their last tribute to the deceased. Rev. Joe F. Grizzle, pastor, officiated. The choir led by I. W. Jordan sang "Safe in the arms of Jesus" the quartet sang "Where we'll never grow old," and Mr. Jordan sang as a solo, "When you come to the end of the way." The immense array of floral offerings from friends were placed on and around the casket by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The pallbearers were, Messrs. J. T. Street, Pat H. Boone, C. O. Stone, C. E. Willis, M. M. Brittain and J. O. Garlington.

The remains were carried to her old home at Afton by Pryor Hammons of the Hammons Funeral Home, where a service was conducted at (Continued on Back Page)

HE LIKES LITTLEFIELD --- AND WE LIKE HIM

Mr. Witt was accompanied to Littlefield by Weldon Johnson of Leveland, county attorney for Hockley county.

The lieutenant governor, who has a reputation of long standing as a friend of West Texas, visited the Leader office.

In conversation with the editor of this newspaper, Mr. Witt said that he was visiting Littlefield for the first time, but that this was not his first trip to the Plains.

The lieutenant governor spoke in the highest terms of Littlefield and surrounding section, and from his conversation it was very evident that he will come back to the "Pulse of the Plains" at the first opportunity which is presented.

Legion Backing NRA

(Contributed Editorial) National Commander Louis Johnson's "battle orders" to the more than 10,000 American Legion Posts reach a wider cross section of American thought than is generally realized.

The makeup of the individual post is usually inclusive of every type of citizen who was called to arms in 1917-18. There are successful business men, a good many sergeants and corporals of industrial life, and a heavy reinforcement of buck privates. Even where legion members disagree with politics adopted, they remain members. No post can boast a 100 per cent working membership, just as no other organized group can do so. Most groups are "ram-rodged" by the faithful few who attend all or most meetings. But any action taken can be attributed even if vaguely to majority thought.

Certainly co-operation in the NRA by the entire group will extend widely through industrial and trade ranks. Of especial value can be the educational efforts of the Legionnaires in explaining what the administration is trying to accomplish and in urging patience until the effort can attain full swing.

Composed of average citizens, the legion represents no unanimity of thought on any important issue. Probably many of its members do not accept the NRA plan as their own. But like those in the Nation who also disagree with its tenets, the fine spirit is to support the President and seek by unanimous action to make the NRA work.

The local post of the American Legion voted at its last meeting to support and co-operate with the NRA program and in response to the National commander's orders has gone in action.

Dog Was Gone, Dog Is Home, Some Dog!

Bronc is home again! And from all accounts he's a "dog gone" good dog.

When Bronc was a young fellow, about eight months old, he disappeared, chain and all.

Two years later . . . that was a few days ago . . . Bronc came home again.

Bronc announced his return home by planting his front feet square in the middle of his master's back. That took place very unexpectedly on Phelps avenue.

His master, H. P. (Red) Denton, was the most surprised man hereabouts.

Bronc, a police dog, has grown and matured very considerably since he left home. But "Red" knew him by a scar on his left fore foot.

Member NRA

We Do Our Part

Back at Work

It is estimated that already between two million and three million people have been put back to work by the NRA program, taken off the unemployment lists and back into productive jobs. This means that a billion dollars, conservatively, has been added to the purchasing power of the people of the country. The movement, we are assured, is only beginning. These circumstances should convince those timid souls who are afraid it won't work that it will work unless people like themselves break it down.

Ultimately the entire business of the United States will be operated on the codes. This is the aim and it will be attained or the plan will be a failure. Three important elements are involved—the elimination of child labor, the shortening of hours of work, and a higher wage scale. The wage scale which was in vogue before the effort began to raise wages and give more employment was impossible from the standpoint of furnishing an adequate income with which to rear a family, and those few who did have an adequate income for the necessities of modern civilization were being dragged down gradually by those who had not.

It takes no statistician to demonstrate that every decrease of unemployment—every man put back to work—brings us closer to the end of the depression, for every man who is earning a living indirectly contributes by what he buys to the employment of others, and so the wheels of commerce will turn faster and faster until the great depression becomes merely a memory.

The rapidity with which we reach the desired goal depends on the promptness with which industry generally comes into the fold. Floyd County Hesperian.

Spend and Save Now

A recent Dun and Bradstreet report accentuated a fact of the utmost importance:

For a number of months business recovery has continued without recession and present signs do not indicate that any recession will occur in the near future.

In other words, we are not having a "rise in depression" now. We are actually throwing off depression. The wise property owner will do well to think that over. It means that the country is through with bargain prices for commodities and services; that the terrific over-supply of goods and labor isn't going to last much longer. It means higher prices. It means that if we put off fixing our houses and business property or rebuilding the tottering garage for another few months, we are going to pay a lot more for what we get.

Yes, it's time to build, to improve, to repair. It will put money in your pocket, save valuable property from going to pieces—and demonstrate your faith in the maxim that Investment and Employment are cheaper and better than Charity.

Should Feel Proud

We should feel proud of our Congressman, Marvin Jones, for he is working night and day for the farmers of the United States. He is doing everything in his power for West Texas farmers and for the betterment of his own district. He is a big man in Washington, and is called upon for assistance in every act that pertains to agriculture. He is a clear thinking, hard working man, and when the world has fully recovered from the depression it will owe him more than it can ever repay.—Quitque Post.

EIGHT YEARS AGO IN LITTLEFIELD

(Exerpts from Lamb Co. Leader)

A. R. Lee, who recently sold his Lubbock Truck line to Mr. J. C. Hall, has moved to Littlefield this week and will sell Oliver and Moline implements for Messrs. Duncan & Pennington of Amherst. This firm expects a number of cars of farming implements to be at Littlefield in a few days and have employed Mr. Lee to look after their interests there.

A. R. Lee with his family moved here this week from Amherst and will have the management of the firm.

C. J. Duggan is going to give away a Ford car next Monday, which is Trades Day in Littlefield. The proceeds will go towards paying for a piano at the high school building.

W. R. Oats, well known to several Littlefield citizens was here the first of the week and closed a lease for property located just opposite the Littlefield gin, where he will maintain a public weighing yard during the cotton season.

Mrs. Ellen E. Singer, born Feb. 24th, 1867, in Clayborn, Mississippi, passed away Wednesday morning at five o'clock, at the family home here.

She had been a member of the Missionary Baptist Church since childhood. Before her marriage to A. R. Singer she was Miss Ellen Crow of Terrell, Texas, since she has resided in Roosevelt, Okla., having moved to Littlefield only six months ago.

Funeral services were held from the late residence of the deceased, conducted by Rev. W. B. Phipps, and interment in the local cemetery.

H. S. Goertz returned last week from a visit to his old home at Hillsboro, Kansas. He was accompanied home by F. T. Goosen.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Graham and children of Thorndale were prospecting in Littlefield this week. They liked it so well that they purchased a tract of land in Broad Acres. Mr. Graham is an attorney and may move here later.

The Duggan family had a family reunion at Anton last Sunday. All the family, including the mother, Mrs. Media Duggan, 75 years old, five sons and a daughter were present. One son in California was unable to be there for the occasion.

W. H. Gardner, is having a duplex apartment erected this week, which will be occupied by teachers of the local schools.

Weak Battery Is Cause of Many Motor Troubles

"Oftentimes a car that acts 'jumpy' . . . is hard to start or lacks pep in acceleration may be suffering from battery weakness," said Carl Smith, proprietor of the Littlefield Battery & Electric, Willard Battery dealer in Littlefield.

"Many motorists forget that the battery and the electrical system is the heart of an automobile. When the car begins to act up they begin looking for trouble in the motor and overlook the important but inconspicuous battery down under the floor boards.

"We have had many a case come into our station, in which the car owner thought he had something seriously wrong with his motor . . . and had put off repairs because he couldn't afford them. In reality all he needed was a recharge and a few inexpensive repairs to his storage battery to bring his car back to normal."

Mr. Smith believes that under present economic conditions many Littlefield motorists will appreciate having this brought to their attention.

"We make a Willard 'Service-test' and battery diagnosis available without cost to motorists," adds Mr. Smith, "regardless of make of battery. We are hoping many car-owners in this vicinity will take advantage of this service."

Governor Ferguson Suggests Long-time Loans on Cotton

President Roosevelt has been requested by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson to ask the federal reserve board to authorize long-time loans on cotton as a means of keeping the staple off an unprofitable market.

She suggested that the reserve board ask member banks to "at once announce that loans of 90 percent of the value of cotton will be made for 12 months at five per cent on all spot cotton offered and for the farmer to present his compress receipt and get the money."

"To enforce this request you can announce that if the federal reserve banks will not make the loans that the government will issue currency now authorized and make the loan and take at least half the crop off the market," the governor's telegram stated.

"This will leave the cotton in the hands of the farmer and by a year's reduction next year the price can be stabilized and ruin of the cotton planter can be averted."

Federal Plan Made To Reduce 1934 Cotton Acreage

A plan to limit cotton acreage to 25,000,000 in 1934 is ready for the approval of Secretary Wallace and President Roosevelt, and will be announced soon after September 1.

One of its important features would assure a parity price to the cotton farmer on about half his average production during the last five years. It is to be put into effect under a modification of the domestic allotment plan.

Parity Price Explained

The parity price for cotton is the figure at which it must sell to bring the purchasing power it had from 1909 to 1914. Present farm prices are about five cents below parity.

Some details of the long-time program for the staple upon which the agricultural south depends remain to be worked out, but officials expect its principles to stand. The plan is to be announced September 1 or shortly thereafter.

As in this year's emergency reduction campaign, which took more than 10,000,000 acres out of production, the farmer would receive cash rentals on the land he turned to other purposes or let remain idle.

Used For Other Crops

The cash payments would be based on the average value of the acres but probably would not be the full figure since he could use the land to grow food or pasture crops.

A suggestion that the payments range from $3 to $11 an acre is under consideration.

If the grower's parity allotment—based on that portion of his production consumed in this country over the average period chosen—brought the parity price, the government would pay him the rent agreed upon and no more. In the event, however, the average price did not reach parity, the farmer would be paid the difference between the rental he received and the parity price.

Leader Employees On Schedule of 40 Hours Weekly

As one feature of the Lamb County Leader's co-operation in the NRA program, all employees in the mechanical department are working 40 hours per week—the number of hours which are allowed workmen in printing and publishing establishments.

The publishing of a newspaper and the placing of the publication in the hands of subscribers on schedule time each week calls for specially trained mechanical workmen and the arranging of their hours so that all work may be accomplished efficiently.

From time to time night work is necessary, but all Leader mechanical department employees are on schedules which restrict their weekly employment to not more than 40 hours.

General Rains Fall Over South Plains

With skies still overcast, the weather has been very unsettled in Littlefield and vicinity for the past several days. Rain fell in this city and sections surrounding Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday night.

The total rainfall in Littlefield for August was 3.78 inches, according to the report of L. C. Cawthorn, official weather recorder, the moisture falling as follows:

- Aug. 1: 43-100ths of an inch. 17: 25-100ths 19: 5-100ths 23: 1 and 22-100ths inches 24: 9-100ths 25: 70-100ths 27: 1 and 4-100ths inches.

The rains of the past week have been regarded as the most general received this year. In some areas from three to five inches of moisture were received.

From east, south, west and north came reports of rain, and the drouth which has gripped some sections this summer is believed to be ended.

Cities and communities in this section reporting good rains include Amherst, Sudan, Muleshoe, Bula, Enoch, Whitharral, Levelland, Lehman, Bledsoe, Brownfield, Seagraves, Fieldton, Spade, Oilton and Earth.

The moisture will do much to bring along the early planted feed that is maturing rapidly with heads forming and now beginning to ripen.

Considerable building and repairing is going on in and around Amherst as a result of President Roosevelt's "New Deal."

Recent new homes built and under construction remodeling and improving around the farms and city property show the following:

O. L. Williams, 6 miles west, 5-room residence; C. A. Duffy, city, 2 rooms and improving; several homes added new roofs; C. V. Harmon started new 7-room residence last week, which will be modern in every respect when completed; T. I. Batson has had one room and bath built; J. W. Sturuss of Roswell will build a new 5-room residence on the 6-acre tract just north of the D. L. Britt home; A. W. Messamore making extensive improvements; G. A. Beach adding bath, painting and other improvements; Horner Hall making considerable improvements; J. U. Cone adding another room and improving to his residence near the depot. A number of other are figuring on building or improving within a short while.

The Amherst Independent School District will receive $2.00 per student who are transported beyond the 2 mile limit, instead of $1.00 originally received. This was made possible recently by Amherst obtaining 20 sections of land from Sudan and Olton School Districts, bringing the Amherst district up to 100 sections as required by law in order to get the $2.00 per student aid. The district previously had only 80 sections.

Miss Beatrice Abernathy, who underwent an appendicitis operation Monday morning of last week, is doing nicely.

Mrs. Albert E. Boyd, Jr., and Miss Alma Jones both of Amherst were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones, of this city, Sunday morning, August 20th, by Rev. John E. Evans, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city.

The bride has attended high school here for the past three years, and is very popular among the younger set.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Boyd, Sr. also of this city.

Following a wedding trip to Burdoso the couple returned to Amherst to make their home.

"Stranger's Return" Will Be Shown at Palace Theatre

Notable in brilliancy of performance and sheer pictorial beauty, "The Stranger's Return," filmed from the new Phil Stong novel of rural life, will be shown at the Palace Theatre Saturday Midnight, Sunday and Monday, with Lionel Barrymore and Miriam Hopkins co-starred in the leading roles.

Directed by King Vidor, the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture achieves masterful sweep in dramatic power against a farm background that lends realism to the gripping story action. Written by the author of "State Fair," the film transcends the glory of his earlier work in simple, genuine, human interest.

85-year-old farmer who refused until his house is in order. Bader delivers the most compelling characterization of his career. McKins, seen as his city-bred daughter, is superb in her interpretation of a role exacting in its smooth flow of the story. The interesting treatment of his subject ed almost entirely out-of-focus picture captures the earthiness of farm and gives to the screen most dimensional view of a side domain where drama is in the wheat fields.

Franchot Tone, rapidly coming to the front as a new romantic carries the love theme with McKins and proves a valuable addition to the cast. Stuart Erwin as a bucolic character of both and sympathy. Irene Hervey in the part of the young farm and the splendid cast includes Bondi, Grant Mitchell, Tad Alexander and Aileen Carlyle.

Man Found Dead Is Identified As Frank Robinson

Thursday last Sheriff Len Irvin and Constable Sam Hutson went to Berger and identified the body of a man found about six miles from that city as that of Frank Robinson, aged about 55 years, who lived in Littlefield up until about three weeks ago, when he left in search of work. A bottle is said to have been beside the man when found.

The officers went to Berger in response to a telephone message received by R. H. Morse of this city, (for whom Robinson had been employed previous to leaving Littlefield) advising Mr. Morse that a handbag bearing his name had been found beside the body. Mr. Morse had given the deceased a bag on which was printed his name on leaving Littlefield.

Mrs. Loyd—

2:30 Friday afternoon by Rev. A. P. Stokes at the Afton Baptist Church. Residents and friends of long standing had gathered to pay their last respects to one of the oldest citizens and pioneers of that country. Her body was laid to rest between those of her husband and mother in the Afton cemetery.

Mrs. S. C. Loyd whose maiden name was Miss Cyrena Brown was born Nov. 13th 1866, in the state of Mississippi, and came to Texas with her parents when 12 years old. She had been a member of the Baptist Church since childhood, having joined when 13 years of age. On Dec. 17, 1884 she married S. C. Loyd, and this union was blessed by seven children, four daughters and three sons all of whom are now living.

Her husband departed this life Jan. 11, 1909, at Afton, Texas. Mrs. Loyd came to Littlefield in August 1926, where she has since made her home.

Mrs. Loyd is survived by four daughters, Mrs. J. M. Stokes and Miss Stella Loyd of this city, Mrs. J. W. Hilton of Afton, Texas, and Mrs. J. W. Lanier of Floydada, Texas; and three sons, F. A. Loyd of Amherst, C. T. Loyd of Exeter, New Hamp., and J. E. Loyd of Corpus Christ, Texas. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ella Angel of Canyon, Texas, and Mrs. Sallie Abernathy of Hollis, Okla.

All of her children except C. T. Loyd of New Hampshire attended the funeral. Also attending the services were Mrs. Ella Angel, and daughter, Irene, of Canyon, and E. G. Alexander of Plainview, Texas.

Since Mrs. Loyd passed away just at sunset the following poem is dedicated to her memory.

"Is it not a comforting fancy,
This sunset thought of mine,
That always the gates of Heaven
Swing open at the day's decline—
That those whose work is ended,
From our earthly woes and ills
May pass to the peace and gladness
That crown the beautiful hills?"

And while I sat there dreaming
Of that gateway in the west,
Out weary one went homeward
To a long and endless rest—
Went in through the sunset gateway
To the city paved with gold,
To dwell in the hills of heaven
With the Master in His fold."

Wheat Reduction Meeting Is Held

Forty County Agricultural leaders met at Plainview Thursday and Friday to hear explained the government's proposed wheat acreage allotment plan by a representative of the federal grain division at Washington and extension service officials.

The session which was held in the Hilton Hotel, closed Friday after distribution of supplies to all agents, including special emergency agents, as well as those on the regular staff.

Plan Discussed

Opening at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, the agents discussed the plan until well after the noon hour.

W. B. Allin of Washington, with the wheat division, was the principal speaker Friday morning. He outlined operation of the Wheat Production Control association for each producing county.

A county organization committee of from seven to nine members to be named to assist in formation of the group. Educational meetings of wheat farmers will be held in each community and the plan will be explained. Farmers who indicate intentions of joining will be notified of a meeting to be held by growers, when a community committee is to be elected.

Chairman to be Named

One man is to be designated as chairman or president of the community board and he will be a director of the county association. All men are to be named by ballot, the highest number of votes deciding the election.

President of the county group will be chairman of the county allotment committee. Two other men will be named on the executive committee. A treasurer is to be named, to serve without pay, but who is to furnish bond. A secretary also is to be selected, who is to receive compensation, if the county board so decides.

A budget of probable expenses to take care of inspection of wheat land, office expense, postage, etc., is to be made by the county committee and approved by the state director. This expense is to be borne by farmers who enter the plan and deducted from the spring allotment to wheat farmers. This budget will be based on a probable estimate of one to three cents, depending on what the county group decides upon.

Mr. Allin answered many questions concerning operations of the plan. Previously questions on allotment and acreage estimates were asked of speakers.

Director O. B. Martin and his assistant, H. H. Williamson, state agent, alternated in presiding. They were assisted by S. C. Evans and John R. Edmonds, district agents.

Carl H. Robinson, senior statistician of the bureau of estimates of the U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington, discussed county acreage figures and other matters. E. M. Regenbrecht, extension swine specialist; R. O. Miller, agronomist, and A. L. Smith, beef cattle specialist, also spoke along other phases of the work.

A number of South Plains agents were present, including D. A. Adams, Lamb county; O. L. Tumlinson, Lubbock county; W. T. Magee, Hockley county; Glen Blackman, Crosby county emergency agent; V. S. Payne, Floyd county emergency agent; W. W. Evans, Hale county; J. B. Waide, jr., emergency agent, Bailey county; C. B. Martin, Swisher county; W. D. T. Storey, Littlefield, emergency agent for Briscoe county; Grady J. Lane, Dickens county agent; Wayne Thomas, Castro county and Alex Bateman, Plainview, an emergency agent.

Other men present included: P. C. Bennett, Potter county agent; J. Frank Ford, Oldham county agent; Ralph Thomas, Gray county agent; A. C.
