Four petitions came to the city at once and were looking for other ways to get them.

That's what Regent's lists as synonyms. "Petition" is better stick to the word. Some of those don't sound right.

THEY'VE ALWAYS PLAYED TOGETHER, BUT NOW

A Boy And His Best Friends Must Part

By BILL TURNER
Little Max, 11, is losing his two best friends. It's going to be a hard pill for Little Max to swallow. His two best friends don't like it either. Each of the three is going his separate way . . . and not of his own choice.

For if they could stay together they would continue to be inseparable buddies, always ready to take care of each other . . . and always doing things that little boys dream up.

Max is a little boy in Sudan. His two best friends are "Rinnie," a shaggy Coille dog, and "Snip," a bay horse. The boy, the dog and the horse have played in the fields around Sudan together. They've rested together, eaten together, run together, but most of all, they have been together constantly.

Vote On Parking Meters, Civic Board To Be Asked

City commissioners are expected to be presented with two petitions tonight, both of which aim to let Littlefield voters decide on two different aspects of this city's future welfare.

One will call for an election to let voters say whether they favor the continuance of parking meters in Littlefield. The other will ask an election for a citizens' decision on whether a Board of Civic Development should be established.

One citizen told the News and Leader early this week that "approximately 500 people have signed their names to five separate petitions" on the parking meter question.

Each one of the five petitions calls for the same thing—a vote on parking meters.

"I have about 100 signatures on this one," the man said as he displayed the document. He said that plans are to present the petitions tonight.

In order for an election to be called on parking meters, 10 percent of the qualified voters in Littlefield must sign the petition. It was believed that 200 to 300 signatures of qualified voters on the petitions would be sufficient to call the election, although no figures on the total number of Littlefield voters were available at the City Secretary's office.

Meanwhile, industrial committee wrapped up final details early this week on a petition that asks a ballot on a Board of Civic Development. Some 56 names were signed on the document.

Primary purpose of a Board of Civic Development is to promote and advertise the advantages of the city.

The organization would be made up of approximately 15 leading civic workers who would serve rotating three-year terms. It would be financed by city revenue. State law allows up to 5c per $100 valuation to be allocated for this purpose.

The money would be used wholly for the promotion of the town, particularly to sell its advantages to industry. The board would serve on a non-profit basis.

Plans Underway For Area Soil Research Substation

Initial steps in a proposal to bring to the High Plains Texas Research Foundation substation will be made Tuesday night at eight o'clock in a meeting in the district courtroom at Muleshoe.

Foundation Director C. L. Lundell will be on hand to outline the proposal for a substation which would establish an experimental field to determine cropping systems necessary for maximum returns from the soil in this area.

Lundell will also talk on the program at Renner, Texas, where the research foundation headquarters are located.

Interested parties in the area are seeking to have a substation centrally located between Amarillo and Lubbock at the north and south end between Farwell and Plainview on the east and west.

One of the main purposes of the meeting at Muleshoe is to see if enough support can be rallied to have Lamb, Parmer, Bailey and Castro counties help support the substation. It is estimated that the cost of the substation would be $250,000 annually.

Men and farmers about Lamb County have been urged to attend the meeting.

Results obtained from research at Texas Research Foundation have shown that crop yields can be increased through the use of improved varieties, grown under proper fertilization and soil man-

Hearing Set July 31

Group Files Petition For Creation Of Water District

The Lamb County Water Association this week filed a petition for the creation of a county Water Control and Improvement district.

A hearing on the request is set for July 31 in the County Commissioners' court, V. T. Tanner, head of the association, said Tuesday night.

Tanner said that the court will decide at that time whether the district should be created.

If the court decides in favor of the district, a bond election would be called to purchase outright water rights on 24,000 acres in the Sandhills.

The amount of money which would be needed has been set at $800,000.

Tanner's organization is seeking to retain Sandhills water for Lamb County. Plans for the district were laid in April, when the organization felt that large cities in this area might attempt to purchase water rights in Lamb County.

If the district is created, voters living within the district's boundaries would ballot in the $800,000 bond election. Cost of water rights for the 24,000 acres will be approximately $31 per acre. It is estimated that this would cost about $12 per year per labor for the next 25 years.

Boundaries for the district are the county lines at the north and west and for the east is a line running north and south through Fieldton completely across the county. The south boundary line leaves out most of the dryland part of the county. The district's total acreage would be 423,000 acres.

What A Way To Wake A Wayfarer!

An Amherst man went to sleep at his steering wheel Saturday afternoon and woke up when he collided with another car on busy Highway 84. Highway patrolmen reported.

Horace Woodward, the Amherst man, drove his 1956 sedan across the road and crashed into a 1947 model auto driven by Otis T. Jones of Tucumcari, N.M.

Neither man was injured, but estimates of damages to the two cars were from $200 to $300 each.

Woodward, driving east on 84 near Littlefield Cemetery, ran into the right rear portion of Jones' car as Jones, driving west, attempted to dodge Woodward's straying auto. The right front part of Woodward's car was damaged.

Circulation Of Highway Petition Gets Underway

Circulation of a petition asking for an election to be called for a vote on widening of at least nine miles of Highway 84 was underway Wednesday.

I. D. Onstead, chamber of commerce highway committee chairman, said Wednesday that the petition will probably be presented to the County Commissioners' court on Monday.

The petition calls for a $275,000 bond election within Road District 1-A of Lamb County (which includes Littlefield and Spade, but excludes Fieldton, Olton, Amherst and Sudan.)

A hearing will be called by the commissioner's court if the petition is found to have sufficient and valid names. Fifty valid signatures are required.

Copies of the petition began circulating after a meeting Tuesday afternoon in which citizens discussed proposed routes of the highway through Littlefield.

At the present time, right-of-way is being sought for nine miles of Highway 84 from the east county line to a point two miles east of Littlefield. However, it was learned Tuesday that, if right-of-way is obtained for the first nine miles, the State Highway Department may be able to start work on the highway through Littlefield within a year's time.

City officials talked with S. C. McCarty, district engineer for the state highway department in Lubbock, Monday. McCarty was asked to make a study of traffic conditions in Littlefield for purposes of determining the route of 84 when it does become a four-lane highway.

The city feels it is impractical to route a four-lane, divided highway on 84's present course, because 180 feet of additional right-of-way would be necessary there.

However, McCarty told city officials that the present 84 may be widened (as Highway 51 is to be widened) within the city if right-of-way is purchased for a route around the city. The Highway Commission feels that all interests will be best served if a four-lane, divided highway is routed around Littlefield. McCarty told the group. Proposed routes of the highway around Littlefield will be studied by the department to establish the best possible routing.

LOOKING OVER PROPOSED ROUTES of Highway 84 as it would look if it were to bypass Littlefield are, left to right, Guy McCraw, city manager; I. D. Onstead, chamber of commerce highway committee chairman; and J. D. McShan of Radio Station KWOW. (SEE STORY FOR DETAILS)

International Union Sunday School Lessons

Son of God
Lesson for July 8, 1956

ONE thing the Christian church has believed from the beginning: Jesus is divine. Now the Bible never says that in those words. A more vivid and personal way of expressing it is the Bible way. There he is called Son of God. Theologians have written volumes on top of volumes to explain what it means to call Jesus the Son of God, and some of these volumes are pretty hard to understand. It is important to look into the Bible itself and see what is said there. The letter to the Hebrews (one of those nine letters at the end of the New Testament), in the very first sentence, gives Jesus the title of Son; but does not finish the sentence before beginning to explain a little what is meant by this.

God Speaks by a Son
The first thing we are told here is that God, who has been speaking to men for thousands of years in various ways, has at last spoken to us by a Son. Jesus Christ is God's answer to man's questions, he is the answer to man's call for help, he is God calling to us. Men have long wished the sky were not so silent. They wish they could read the inscrutable mind of the most high God. Well, God has spoken, he has given us his last and best Word. And this Word is not in the form of a textbook, not in the form of an answer-book for all the riddles of existence. God's message to man is not a creed, however good it may be. His message is in a Person, a Life. We want to know what God thinks. We wish he would say something. Well, God has said . . . and what he says is Jesus Christ.

Through Him, the World
The line that divides all things that exist into two different kinds of things, the first and most important line, is not the line dividing spirit from matter. The real dividing-line is that which runs between Creator and Created, or to put it in another way, the line between God and everything else that is. When you take time to think about it, you can see that only God can be on the creator-side of creation. God alone, of all that exists, is because he is and not because something or somebody else made him be. Every man must say to himself, "If it were not for such and such a person, or such and such an event, I would not be here." But God could not truly say a thing like that. He does not depend on something or some one else for his very existence, as we do. It is by his good will that we are in the universe at all; it is by his will that the universe is here for us to be in. Now the letter to the Hebrews declares that Christ is God's active agent in creation. In the simple words of the writer, we read that through the Son, God created the world. No wonder the early church soon saw that this puts Jesus on the God-side of that line dividing Creator from Created. This is part of what we mean when we say that Jesus Christ is divine.

Reflection and Stamp
Another part of what we mean is expressed in those two words "reflection" and "stamp." The old Greeks had a story about a creature called a Gorgon, with snakes for hair, so horrible that the very sight of her turned the beholder to stone. Only when a brave man thought of going up to her, not looking directly at her but into a mirror, was any one able to enter her presence and live. In quite the opposite way, God is not too horrible, but too holy, for mere men to gaze at. We too need a mirror to reflect the unbearable glory of God; Christ is that reflection. He is likewise the "stamp" of God's nature. He is as it were God's signature, his handwriting, his personal seal.

"Therefore . . . Closer Attention"
The divinity of Christ, of which these sentences in Hebrew are only a few of the New Testament testimonies, was never thought of, in those clear early days of the church, as a mere doctrine in a book. It meant and means something intensely practical. If Jesus is really divine, then, we cannot just take him or leave him. If he is God's Son he is no more optional than God is. Deciding for or against him is the most important decision in life. What he tells and teaches is not "one man's opinion," it is not even the voice of genius; it is the Voice of God.

After Months Of Work . . . Salvation Army Receives Shiny New Station Wagon

One of the happiest groups of people in Littlefield met last week. It was the Salvation Army Advisory Board. The members had come together to hear a report by the chairman of the Board, Harold Clement, that a new station wagon for the local Army post was on its way to Littlefield.

For many months the Board has dreamed of the day when this new wagon would be a reality. Local citizens had contributed half the cost of the new wagon, and the other half was loaned by Divisional Headquarters in Dallas. Troy Armes Chevrolet Co. was low bidder, and the purchase was made from that firm.

Among other business transacted by the Board was the election of Charles D. Jones as vice-chairman, succeeding Doug Poe, and the selection of Boyd Roberts as fund campaign chairman. Roberts was chairman last year when the largest goal in the history of the local post was raised.

Mrs. Sam Williams was also elected a member of the Board. Lt. Rolan Chambless reported on his recent two-week stay at Camp Hoblitzelle, the Salvation Army camp near Midlothian. Chambless was a counselor for two camps of boys, each lasting seven days. The camp property is valued at $450,000. It is located on a 300 acre converted dairy farm. Children from all over Texas attend the camp. All kinds of sports are participated in, including swimming. There is a chapel on the grounds, a natural lake, and cabins to house about 70 youngsters at each camp. Lt. Chambless also taught Bible classes for boys from 8 to 11 years of age, and directed recreation. Mrs. Chambless is to serve as counselor for girls camps in July. Most of the youngsters who attend the camp are underprivileged. A highlight is the weight check given at the beginning and ending of the 7 day period. Lt. Chambless reported that boys gained an average of 5 to 10 pounds.

Attending the Board meeting were Members Harold Clements, Roberts, Jones, Mrs. Dennis Jones, Mrs. J. M. Farmer, C. A. Miller, Harry Vanderpool, Lt. and Mrs. Rolan Chambless, and a

New Council For Girl Scouts

Organization of a new Girl Scout Council which will serve nine South Plains counties got underway last month with the first meetings of the eight committees which will work out the plans for the operation of the council. There were approximately sixty representatives from eighteen towns in the area in which girls now have the privilege of participating in Girl Scouting through organized troops.

With the organization of the purposed council more and better scouting will be made available over these nine counties. In towns where the activities have been carried on through lone troops with willing, but sometimes inexperienced and untrained leaders, there will be available professional help and a training program which will enrich the lives and experience of all of those participating in the activities, from Brownies to leaders.

There will be an expanded program of recruiting and training adult personnel which will, in turn, allow more girls to participate in the program. In the towns where councils have been operating, the scouts and adults will profit from working with the other council towns and will have access to the additional training and facilities provided by the council.

Expanded facilities will include camps which will be for the use of the entire council area. Both troop and day camps will be provided for the girls, thereby widening the scope of activities for many girls on the South Plains.

All committees which participated in this meeting were well into their plan of work by the end of their meeting and all were looking forward to January 1, 1957, as a goal for chartering this new council. Attending from Littlefield were Mrs. Arthur K. Hunt, Mrs. Leonard McNeese and Mrs. Buster Owens, Jr.

Mrs. Martin Develops Unique Picture Hobby

A unique art in Tapestry and Sequins is proving to be not only an enjoyable pastime for Mrs. Irene Martin of Sudan, but a profitable one as well.

A registered nurse, Mrs. Martin has always been used to keeping busy and began the hobby to pass the time off following the last of a series of bone operations she has undergone as the result of an injury suffered in a fall three years ago which left her a semi-invalid.

She began her work a few weeks ago at the suggestion of a brother who thought it would be something to enjoy doing while recuperating from the operation.

Before her injury she had worked as a nurse in a number of hospitals since graduating in 1925 from the Harris Memorial hospital in Fort Worth. Finding the sequin pictures fascinating work and encouraged by her friends, and her sister, Mrs. R. S. Gatewood, with whom she makes her home in Sudan, Mrs. Martin is now making the pictures for sale.

She blends her own colors and works out designs to correspond with the designs already on the material.

She thinks her most beautiful and elaborate picture is a Persian Rose pattern on hand-printed material secured for her in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania by her sister, Mrs. Gatewood, who incidentally, can't resist giving Mrs. Martin a hand with the "pin punching" on some of the prints.

Each sequin is attached to the tapestry-covered board with pins and beads, which must be sewn to the material and also used in the colorful designs. When the sequin and bead work is completed, the prints are then placed in glassed frames.

Plans Underway --

(Continued from Page 1) In addition, research which has shown that the agricultural economy of Texas can be strengthened considerably through the use of new crops in diversified systems of farming.

Research at Renner during the past twelve years has been directed toward improvement of the soil and existing crops, and the development of new crops. Improved varieties of corn, notably TRF 3 and TRF 9, have increased yields under droughty growing conditions. Research with forage crops has already resulted in better farming systems utilizing grasses and legumes in rotation with cash crops.

The development of new crops is an important phase of the overall research program. Through the work at Renner, sesame, one of the world's oldest crops, was improved and adapted for cultivation in Texas. Since the first variety was released from Texas Research Foundation in 1953, sesame has rapidly gained importance as a crop. New strains being developed in the breeding program should further strengthen the agricultural economy of Texas as well as the Southwest as a whole.

The search for new and better crops has revealed the great potential of one of Texas native weeds, sunflowers. The development of new sunflower hybrids has resulted in production of high yields of good quality seed which can be used for oil, or livestock and poultry feed.

While research accomplishments at the foundation are largely benefitting the immediate North Texas area, considerable benefits also could be extended to other areas throughout the state.

Here Are Tips To Save On Your Tractor Fuel Bill

COLLEGE STATION (Special) — Savings of 10 percent or more in fuel bills can be made by most farm tractor operators if they give attention to proper fuel storage and fuel system adjustments, says W. L. Ulrich, extension agricultural engineer.

Evaporation during the hot summer months takes a toll of fuel in storage. Partially filled tanks exposed to the sun may lose three to four percent of their contents within a month. Shaded tanks lose one percent or less. Over a period of three months unshaded tanks may lose up to 15 percent but those in the shade only 6 percent.

Painting storage tanks with aluminum or white paint will aid in cutting evaporation losses, says the engineer, because the light colors reflect the sunlight. Too, he adds, a small storage tank filled every two weeks will cut down the storage period and the losses from evaporation which climb with long storage.

The farm tractor which is serviced regularly and kept in top operating condition is also the most economical to operate from the standpoint of fuel consumption, says Ulrich. He recommends a daily check of the air cleaner, all hose and fuel line connections and carburetor. Most of this checking can be done at a glance but in case a difference is noted in the amount of fuel consumed, then, he says, it's time to make a more detailed inspection for locating the trouble.

It must be remembered, points out Ulrich, that approximately 40 percent of the operating costs of a farm tractor goes for fuel. If this bill can be cut by 10 percent or more, the difference will help out the cost of producing a crop and take a little slack out of the price-cost squeeze.

LUIS MARTINEZ

Schnabel-Martinez In Tag Match With Tokyo Joe - Orton

Positively the top tag-team battle ever carded in the Littlefield area has been booked for next Saturday night by wrestling promoter John Ussery for the Littlefield Sports Arena. The match grows somewhat from last week's blood-splattered fracas in which popular young Luis Martinez finally subdued Tokyo Joe, the Japanese Karate and judo expert.

This week's main event is a tag team match featuring the four participants in last week's double main-event. Martinez has allied this week with brawny Hans Schnabel as his partner to do battle against Tokyo Joe and Big Bob Orton. With four of the finest in the profession in the ring together, it should whet the appetite of the most ardent wrestling enthusiast.

Fans who missed last Saturday's bloody fracas missed probably the greatest battle ever staged locally or in any ring for that matter. Martinez, Joe and referee Johnny Ussery were all bleeding freely from open wounds in their foreheads at the conclusion when Schnabel leaped into the ring to break up the battle after it had obviously gotten out of hand. Schnabel dealt Joe some deadly licks that left the Japanese all but unconscious and Martinez leaped on top for the pin in the deciding fall.

Joe was aroused to no end and while actually making no threats himself, Promotor Ussery decided it would be a wonderful opportunity to bring the four into the ring together since Joe now has a grudge to settle with both Martinez and Schnabel and because Orton, when approached by the idea quickly consented to be Joe's partner.

Orton was quick to accept Joe as his partner, saying he felt Joe was one of the most capable hands in the ring today and his knowledge of judo and karate wrestling makes him a constant threat to permanently cripple his opponent.

Orton remained unbeaten in the Littlefield ring when Schnabel was disqualified for throwing him over the top rope in last week's opener. Schnabel bellowed long and loud that Orton had jumped over the top rope but all to no avail, thus adding spice to this week's tag battle as Schnabel is possibly still peeved at Orton for a possible "wrong-doing."

Two top warm-up affairs will precede the main event this week and each should merely kindle the fire for a blazing finale when the four step in together.

Schnabel will enter the ring against Joe in a one fall or 20 minute time limit opener and Martinez will test Orton in the second event of the evening, also carded for one fall or 20 minutes.

All in all, it promises to be one of the liveliest evenings of wrestling ever witnessed on the local scene.

Admission prices for the matches are $1.50 for ringside seats, $1.00 general admission and 50 cents for children. The matches start at 8:45 p. m. at the Littlefield area located on the Clovis highway.

Ted Williams has been averaging one home run per nine trips to the plate last season.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

SHOULD LAWYERS REPRESENT CRIMINAL DEFENDANTS?
 One of the cardinal principles of American law is that a man is considered innocent until proven guilty by proper legal proceedings. Practically everyone pays lip service to this ideal, but many fail to realize that the right to be represented by counsel is a logical and essential corollary of that theory of justice. There is a good deal of criticism of attorneys representing defendants in criminal cases. Much of this criticism is unjust.

Should lawyers defend in court persons whom they know or have good reason to believe are guilty of the crimes charged against them? A recent scientific sampling of the attitude of the public in Texas toward lawyers and law problems shows that more than half of all persons interviewed thought it was wrong for a lawyer to defend such a person.

Such an attitude is rather startling to thinking citizens and members of the Bar. Surely the guiltiest criminal has a right to a fair trial by the law of the land. Such a trial he cannot have without a competent attorney to see that a fair jury is selected and that only lawful evidence is introduced against him.

With reference to this feeling on the part of a sizeable portion of the public, a certain District Judge who tries many criminal cases, and who served eighteen years as a prosecuting attorney before his election to the Bench, recently offered the following comments:
 "The result of this survey is no surprise to me, in that during my eighteen years of prosecuting, this feeling has been made known to me by hundreds of persons."
 "The feeling on the part of the general public in this regard is brought about to a great extent by the sincere efforts on the part of the defense counsel to see that his client receives the benefit of every legal safeguard to which he is entitled. These legal maneuvers are often misunderstood by the layman as an unethical effort to defeat justice, by delay of the trial and by taking advantage of certain defenses that to the layman appear to be trivial technicalities.

"Attorneys are the only ones who can correct the erroneous feeling of the general public regarding the defense of one who appears to be guilty as charged. We attorneys should emphatically state to the inquiring person that it is one of the cardinal rights of the individual in a democratic society to be considered innocent until his guilt is established beyond a reasonable doubt by legal and competent evidence."
 "The public must be brought to the realization that all who are charged with crime are entitled to the expert counsel and aid of an attorney, and that the sworn duty of such attorney is to see that each protective legal right, to which the accused is entitled, is afforded him."
 Now and then a lawyer will overstep the bounds of his duty in defending those charged with crime. When that happens, the legal profession is even more indignant than the public generally, and appropriate disciplinary proceedings are instituted where warranted.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law).

The largest opening day crowd in major league history was the 73,163 at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium in 1948. The Indians played the Browns.
 Michigan State's second baseman George Smith won the Big Ten batting championship with a .485 average and the team title with a .408 mark.

THE LAND OF THE FREE

One of the first landmarks the European traveler sees as he approaches this country is Bartholdi's famous Statue of Liberty.

The artist here has deftly drawn a broken chain across the background of freedom's holy light, signifying that oppression and human slavery cannot exist in a land of free people.

But freedom involves much more than an unshackled body and the possession of civil and political rights. One may possess all these and still be a slave to his own weaknesses.

True freedom encompasses the mind and soul of man as well as his body and his political relations. Men are enslaved by vicious habits, by their ignorance, prejudice, selfishness and hate.

Religion is the mother of freedom, and the Church has been its chief and most constant exponent. Jesus said, "The truth shall make you free," and the truth is embodied in the Holy Scriptures.

No chains can fetter the soul of the man who dwells in the light of God's freedom.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Politicians are waving their banners. Party leaders seek to rally their cohorts. But right now Texans are far more concerned about water.

Farm and city dwellers alike are hard hit. Years of drought have added up. Sizzling summer temperatures, unabated since the last of May, have finished off crop prospects for 1956 in many areas.

Few expect relief before the end of summer. Most despaired some time ago of rains that would "really break" the drought.

In Austin and elsewhere attention focused on the often-bitter scrambles for dwindling streamflows. Prolonged and frequently heated testimony has been heard by the State Board of Water Engineers on water rights from the proposed Canyon Dam in South Central Texas.

San Antonio sought permission to take 100,000 acres of water annually from the dam. It is the only way, said San Antonio officials, that the city can meet its future water needs.

Guadalupe Blanco River Authority strenuously opposed the request. Joined by citizens of some 20 small towns in the area GBRA contended that the city allocation would not leave enough for downstream users, nor enough to operate a hydro-electric plant.

Testimony is expected to continue for several weeks. Ultimate decision probably will set a precedent for future controversies.

Farther South, the Rio Grande reached its lowest point since it stopped flowing completely in 1953. Falcon Dam was shut down, and a watermaster was appointed to ration the dwindling supply among Valley cities.

Legislators making up the state water resources committee came out with an idea for the future. They proposed a $100,000,000 Texas Water Development Fund. Controversy over whether to finance water conservation by an ad-valorem or water-use tax defeated the program last session.

This new approach of financing through bonds would by-pass the difficulty, said proponents. But it would take a long time. First, legislative action; then a constitutional amendment by the people.

Meanwhile farmers are leaving their parched fields and looking for work in town to support their families.

LABOR UNIONS ARE ACTIVE
—Members of Texas' labor unions are working hard to place Liberals in control of state and party offices. And, a politically-confident tone prevailed among some 1,000 delegates at the State Federation of Labor convention, here.

Union labor leaders, who played a mighty important part in ousting the conservatives from control of the Democratic party, have openly announced that they will campaign to: 1. Elect Ralph Yarborough governor; 2. Elect legislators friendly to labor; 3. Defeat Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey; 4. Gain control of the state Democratic convention in September; and 5. Elect Liberals to the State Democratic Committee.

LABOR LAW DECISION PENDING
Texas' right-to-work law now awaits Supreme Court ruling, possibly July 11.

Opponents and backers of the law clashed sharply in final arguments before the court. Union attorneys declared that the Texas case parallels a Nebraska suit in which the U. S. Supreme Court recently voided that state's right-to-work law in the railway industry. Railroad attorneys objected strenuously. They declared the Texas case presents much broader issues.

Said Atty. Gen. John Ben Shappard, in behalf of the Texas law,

"The issue before this court is the right of any Texas citizen to work in his chosen occupation without being forced to give allegiance to any organization which might be against his personal beliefs."

NEW HIGHWAY POLICY
An important new step in state policy has been announced by the Texas Highway Commission, for administering the new federal highway aid program.

If and when the state provides it more money, the commission will begin to assume part of the heavy cost of right-of-way—now borne wholly by cities and counties. This for highways of the primary state system not included in the new federal interstate system.

CAPITOL AREA TO BE DOUBLED
Plans for a vastly expanded, 25-square-block Capitol area have been unveiled by the State Building Commission.

Originally the commission had outlined plans for extending the grounds northward two full blocks to 15th street. This would provide space for the new office building and state court building, due to be started sometime next fall.

In adopting the official Capitol master plan, the commission designated future Capitol area all the way to 19th street and pinpointed locations of two more future office buildings.

LOCAL OPTION ELECTION VOIDED

A local option liquor election is not legal if held in an area less than an entire justice precinct.

By this ruling the Third Court of Civil Appeals made "wet" a large section of Austin which had been "dry" for 21 years. It cast doubt on similarly held elections over the state.

The decision is subject to review by the Supreme Court.

RETAIL SALES UP AGAIN

By early June Texas retail trade had bounced back from its spring slump. But it failed to match the 1955 average. Sales rose 11 per cent from April to May. Durable goods were up 13 per cent. But for the year as a whole, they are still substantially behind. Reason given by analysts is overproducing and overselling by many automobile and appliance makers last year.

SHORT SNORTS — State recovery of veterans land funds was increased to $1,299,418 after an Austin district court rendered a judgment for $45,000 against J. Paul Little of Crystal City. Little has been loser in four suits totaling $179,000. Two more are pending . . . Texas' share of federal highway building funds will be tripled by the new aid bill which has just received final congressional approval . . . Gov. Allan Shivers is urging the nation's governors to work for legislation to prevent federal law from superseding state laws . . . Trial of Francisco Caenz Jr., former Duval County treasurer, on federal income tax evasion charges was postponed by the U. S. Court at Austin, to July 9 . . . An all-time high bid for mineral leases on state land was received by the University of Texas when Stanolind Oil Company bid a bonus of $4,250,000 on 3,840 acres of Peecos County land. This was in addition to royalty. Total bonus payments on University leases at the June awards reached $16,437,254.

Sandhills Philosopher . . .

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnsongrass farm will get nowhere with his idea this week, but does he ever?)

Dear editor:
I never have worried about the privileges other people have so long as mine are holding up, but when a privilege comes along that doesn't cost anything and other people are entitled to, I'm in favor of scattering it around.

What I'm leading up to is the privilege Congressmen and other Washington officials have of being misquoted.

You take a bigshot Washington official, he can rear back and make a statement to the newspaper reporters, and they can notify their papers, and when it comes out in print and sounds a whole lot different and worse in the light of sober after-thought, the bigshot can correct himself by saying he was misquoted.

Some people criticize them for this, saying they're trying to crawfish out, but I don't hold to that at all. What I'd like to see is a more universal use of this idea.

Take a man who's stood an inbank about as long as he can and makes a remark to his wife along this line, and peace and harmony are destroyed. The next day, especially if it had the desired result and the in-law took off for home, he could write him saying he was misquoted, that his statement had been taken out of context, as they say in Washington.

Or say I get a letter from the bank saying my note is due. If I could get around the situation by saying July 1, I meant to say I'd pay it back October 1, and the bank would correct the error, I'd feel like I was getting treatment equal to a Congressman and his boners.

The man who has never put his foot in his mouth hasn't shown up around here yet, and this misquoting angle is the handiest answer I've ever seen to the problem.

Any time you don't agree with anything I write in The Leader blame yourself for misquoting me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Good Public Relations Help

There is no professional organization in existence that is not better for a carefully prepared and consistently ed out job in public relations.

That has just been demonstrated anew, and quite forcefully by a campaign carried on by the Texas Optometric Association, through its institutional advertising in newspapers, and television.

The TOA a year ago started such a campaign under the leadership of Dr. Grady Jolly and vice chairmanship of Dr. L. Hambrick, both of Abilene. In their report submitted Sunday the committee found it to be "the most efficient to reach the people," and declared it "is time that professional associations recognize the import of their influence in aiding the people."

These professional groups, we might add, include doctors, engineers, dentists and many others besides optometrists. The word "advertising" has always been a sort of bug with them, and most such groups have strict "ethical" against it—quite wisely, insofar as individuals are concerned.

But the Texas optometrists approached it from an institutional viewpoint, presenting in well-written, excellently laid out and attractively balanced newspaper ads the story of the important part good eyesight plays in the life of the individual of the nation. Supplemental material appeared on the radio and television. There was no commercial ballyhoo; the central theme was information and guidance.

More Texans have been informed about visual care than before," the report says.

"I think this approach to professional association problems going to set a pattern over the nation, especially in the netry profession," Dr. Jolly declared.

Previously the group hospital and health care organization had demonstrated the effectiveness of this kind of institutional advertising throughout the country. The Texas metric Association is to be congratulated on breaking ground in the vital field of public relations.

DOWN MEMORY LANE

(Compiled from the files of the Lamb County Leader, July 3, 1924)

County Commissioners grant petition for city incorporation. Petition recites there are 270 qualified voters who are within the city of Littlefield and that the city now has 515 inhabitants. A commission form of government consisting of a mayor and 2 commissioners is asked for.

All teachers elected to positions in the Littlefield schools accepted their positions.

Transportation of school children to and from the Littlefield schools last year was twelve and one half cents per day, according to statistics compiled by clerk W. G. Street, of the Board. The total cost of child transportation last year was $6,187.50 for nine months. As the school district owns no buses, the carrying was done entirely by hired busses drivers.

America—He Loves You!

Maybe he thought of it first in the cornfields of Iowa or Illinois or Indiana.

Maybe along a Mississippi delta or in a street canyon of New York or Boston or Philadelphia.

Maybe it came to him on a pony's back in Oklahoma or New Mexico—or on the sun-hot seat of a combine in Kansas or Nebraska.

Wherever he may have been when the thought came to him is of little consequence.

But the thought itself is of the essence: This is America—the land of freedom and opportunity—where a boy can grow up to be his own man.

And so on this anniversary of American Independence, we greet and congratulate him—the man of commerce, the lawyer, the physician, the rancher, the banker, the actor, the politician, the statesman—the self-made man of accomplishment in every line of human endeavor.

We know him well—and along with our congratulations on his success, we should like to register our sense of gratitude.

For such are the owners of Cadillacs—the men whose approval made the "Standard of the World" so famous everywhere.

It is a rare privilege to know these men—to sell them their cars—and to render them the type of service they so richly deserve.

We feel it is appropriate to acknowledge it, most gratefully, on this occasion when Americans do honor to their great nation and its unparalleled freedom of personal opportunity.

Wheat Vote To Decide Vital Queries

How wheat farmers vote in the July 20 referendum on wheat marketing quotas will actually affect only two parts of the 1957 wheat program, according to R. G. Shrauner, Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Whether or not quotas are approved, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the crop, the chairman declared.

The two points at issue is the vote are (1) whether marketing quotas shall be in effect, with penalties on "excess" wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) not in compliance with the acreage allotment and (2) the level of price support available to those who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

If quotas are approved by at least two-thirds of those who vote in the referendum, the quotas and penalties for excess production will be in effect, and price support on the crop will be available at a level between 75 and 90 percent of parity to those who comply with the farm wheat allotments.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove the quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no penalties for excess production, and the available price support will drop to 50 percent of parity, as provided by law. Whether or not quotas are in effect, acreage allotments remain in effect for wheat crop.

Chairman Shrauner said that wheat marketing quotas and acreage allotments open in commercial wheat states including Texas. Since they affect only those growers commercial area who have more than 15 acres of wheat harvest as grain on a 1957, these growers are ones eligible to vote in referendum.

1/2 cup Pet Evapo-rated milk
1 Lb. 13-oz. can

Chill milk in ice tray until almost frozen around the edges. Drain pears and measure syrup. If necessary, add enough water to syrup to make 1 cup. Heat syrup to boiling. Remove from heat and add gelatin. Stir until gelatin dissolves. Cool. Whip ice-cold milk in cold quart bowl with rotary beater or an electric beater at high speed, until stiff. Then beat in 1/2 cup cooled gelatin. Put whipped mixture into pan about 6 x 10 inches. Chill until firm. Let rest of gelatin stand at room temperature. Says USDA Scientist

Amino Triazole Provides Better Cotton Defoliant

COLLEGE STATION (Special) — The promising cotton defoliant, amino triazole, should be used more extensively by long growers this year say agricultural scientists of the U.S. Department of Agriculture in a report to Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist.

Studies of defoliant mixtures incorporating amino triazole are indicating that the amount of other defoliant in the mixture can be considerably reduced when incorporated with 0.75 pounds per acre of amino triazole.

This continues to be the recommended treatment for 1956. However, trials last summer showed that 8 gallons amino triazole per acre would increase the percent of defoliation achieved over that from amino triazole alone. Scientists believe economical, effective dosage lies somewhere between 3 gallons and 3 1/2 to 4 gallons.

Amino triazole as a defoliant, removes the leaves for easier boll picking and has trashy harvests, and a regrowth inhibitor, prevents new plant growth after defoliation and before harvest is completed. When used in combination with other defoliants, addition of amino triazole at the rate of .75 pound per acre allows reduction of other defoliant by half the dosage normally required when used alone.

In cooperative studies between USDA's agricultural research service and the state experiment stations serving the Mid-South Cotton Belt, scientists found that amino triazole, used alone as a defoliant at a 1-pound-per-acre rate, caused only about 70 percent defoliation. When the dosage was tripled, about 80 percent defoliation resulted. Thus, a rather small defoliation response was obtained with a large increase in the amount of chemical used. Scientists, therefore, recommend no less than three times the rate, to obtain similar results. Tests of the amino triazole to prevent regrowth during the season have shown no results during the year. Generally, the rate of application, growth control, and other factors apply to at least one of the controls.

Little Johnny Kittrell of Hart had the misfortune of falling off a tractor while plowing and was injured. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dink Kittrell, formerly of the Springlake community. The older Kittrell boy was injured in a tractor accident a few months ago. Johnny is not critically injured.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. George had as their guests over the weekend Mrs. Hattie George of California, Mrs. Edna Sharp of Snyder, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Ed George of Silverton, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stansell had as Sunday dinner guests, their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson of Olton. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stansell and Beth and Mr. and Mrs. Carson drove into Plainview for an evening of entertainment.
