Tom Anderson, President and Publisher of Farm and Ranch magazine, will be the featured speaker at the annual Littlefield Chamber of Commerce banquet.

The banquet will be held in the Littlefield Sports Arena Friday, Jan. 15, at 7:30 p.m. It was announced this week by Gene Garrison, manager of the Chamber. Tickets for the affair are being printed and will

A dream of many years was realized when Anderson bought "The Arkansas Farmer" in 1947. Success with this publication came in a few short years with his leadership. In 1953 he established "The Mississippi Farmer."

Following the successful operation of these two publications, Anderson established "The Georgia Farmer" in January, 1956. "The Alabama Farmer" in January 1961 and the "Arkansas Poultry News" in January 1961.

Late in 1953, he became the Editor - in - Chief, Publisher and half-owner of "Farm and Ranch" magazine, which covers the states from Maryland to California. The combined circulation of his publications is more than 1.3 million.

Anderson's "Straight Talk" editorial page is the most-quoted, most-reprinted in the farm field. More than 400 newspapers and a number of magazines have requested permission to reproduce "Straight Talk" each month.

Each year readers request many thousands of reprints of "Straight Talk" to mail to

TOWN and COUNTRY by Wendell Tooley

PLENTY of cake is always appreciated at our house . . . and cake always tastes just a little better with a lavish topping of some sort . . . in fact I like about a half inch layer on any chocolate cake . . . (my dentist has probably already suspected this).

Lamb County business men have experienced plenty of cake along with bread and butter business this past year and it looks like there'll be plenty cake . . . or luxury spending along with purchase of the necessities this coming year.

Any time there's a big construction project it naturally brings more buying public to an area . . . It brings some "topping" to the already good business. Certainly the extra business that construction workers create is appreciated by everyone.

Construction workers are usually renters of small houses or apartments . . . (the ones on small jobs probably rent trailer spots) . . . but that's just the beginning of the EXTRA BUSINESS they create in their area of work . . . they buy food they buy clothing, automobiles, and many other items.

Construction begins this Spring of the fourth unit of Southwestern Public Service's plant X in Lamb County and it will consequently bring much "topping" to the already good Company officials say a big portion of the $117,000,000 expansion program will go to the Lamb County project. This company is already possibly the largest tax payer in the county, and its present force of plant workers will be added to the fourth unit goes to production of electrical power.

Lamb County citizens are appreciative of plant X. The millions of dollars brought to the county, for families it has needed and its potential for the development of this area. More industries such as Lamb County line wouldn't have to worry about mail storm or crop failure might come to thought. Well, a little work (a little) and a whole lot of work and sweat and body and we know economy that's based on production.

Winter Youth Retreat Held By Baptist

The Earth Is The Lord's" was the theme of the second annual Winter Youth Retreat held by the Young People of the First Baptist Church, December 26 through 30, at Littlefield Lodge located on the Assembly Grounds of the Southern Baptist Convention at Glorieta, N. M.

The special topic for each service was taken from Psalm 24: 1, 2: "The Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein." Each session was opened with a dramatic theme presentation in scripture, song, and narration. The theme for Tuesday evening was an introduction to the general theme, Jim Nelson served as reader; Judy and Linda Dale were the singers for the theme presentations; and Janey Blackmon brought the narrations. Each session was opened with a verse of the song "For the Beauty of the Earth," presented by the Misses Dales, with Melva Lynn Ross accompanying them at the organ.

Opening Tuesday's session, Miss Blackmon gave a beautiful and dramatic narration on "The Creation" in which she brought out the two great facts that God is the Creator of all things, and that He is still in control. Concluding, she pointed out that the ultimate climax of His plan for all creation was the sending of His Son, Jesus Christ: to be the Savior of the world. Emphasizing her words, Janell Jensen sang, "For God So Loved the World."

The message for the evening, brought by Rev. Robert D. Longshore, was on the subject, "In Him Is Life," taken from John 1:4. "In Him was life and the life was the light of men." Following the message, Janice Burks brought the prayer calendar for the day. Each day this portion of the program was entitled "Ascending into the hill of the Lord," also taken from Psalm 24: "Who shall ascend to the hill of the Lord? . . . He that hath clean hands and a pure heart."

Neal Walker, chorister, was in charge of all music. The theme song was "To God Be the Glory," and this opened each song service.

Following the song service, Rev. Longshore spoke again on the subject "For the Love of God," taken from the words of the opening song in the theme presentation: "For the love which from our birth over and around us lies." His text was "The love of Christ constraineth me." (1 Cor. 5:14) Each session was closed with the little chorus, "I Have Decided," sung by the entire group as they stood with clasped hands before the flickering firelight as a song of dedication.

The theme for Wednesday was "The Fullness Thereof." The program stressed the full life in Christ. Mrs. Ralph Nelson opened the Wednesday morning session with a Bible Study period, entitled on the program, "Standing in His Holy Place," again taken from Psalm 24: "Who shall stand in His Holy Place? He that hath clean hands and a pure heart." She discussed two questions taken from the Book of Job: "If a man die, shall he live again?" and "What profit have we, if we pray unto Him?"

The theme presentation featured the second verse of the theme song: "For the Wonder of Each Hour." A girl's trio, composed of Misses Judy and Linda Dale and Miss Jensen, sang, "It Took a Miracle." The narration by Miss Blackmon was "God's Gift of Life," in which she stressed the importance of using God's wondrous gift in the best way possible. Miss Patricia Locker led the group, "Ascending into the hill of the Lord," through the prayer calendar. Following the song service, the girl's trio sang "I Surrender All" introducing Rev. Longshore's message, "The Surrendered Life," taken from 11 Cor. 8:5: "First they gave themselves to the Lord."

Wednesday afternoon was spent in parlor games, ice skating, and a general enjoyment of the beautiful snow-covered vistas of Glorieta. The evening session was opened with the theme presentation, after which Neal Walker sang, "I'd rather Have Jesus." Following the song service, Rev. Longshore brought the message, "Stars of Light," again taken from the opening song of the service: "For the wonder of each hour . . . of the day and of the night . . . hill and vale, and tree and flower . . . sun and moon and stars of light." His text was Dan. 12:3: "They that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever."

Thursday was spent in Santa Fe. In the afternoon groups visited the museum, the palace of the governors, numerous cathedrals, and other historic points of the old city. Another group went to Espanola Valley where they visited some of the people there and many of the historic sites, including Sanctuario, one of the oldest of all the Spanish missions in this area.

On Thursday evening the theme presentation was entitled, "The World and They that Dwell Therein." The song introducing the session was, "For the Joy of Human Love." During the opening, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Walker sang, "What a Wonderful Savior." Miss Blackmon narrated an especially effective story: "We Have Found Him" based on the Christmas story, concerning the shepherds' visit to the Nativity scene. She concluded with the victorious tidings "We Have Found Him! Then how can we be silent about so great a discovery? We cannot but speak the thing which we have seen and heard! We have found Him! The Word! The Messiah! The Son of the Living God! The King of Israel! The Lamb which taketh away the sins of the world!" Concluding her beautiful narration, a quartette composed of Misses Judy and Linda Dale, Mr. Walker, and Jim Nelson, sang "No One Ever Cared for Me Like Jesus!"

Linda Walthall led the group "Into the Hill of the Lord," in prayer. Following the song service the quartette sang "Love Divine" introducing Rev. Longshore's message for the evening, "For the Joy of Human Love," taken from John 15:10, 12: "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my Father's love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in His love." Concluding the evening's program, the Misses Dales sang "Christ for the Whole Wide World," as an introduction to a period of Mission Study led by Jane Dunagin, Mission Study Chairman for the Young Women's Auxiliary of the church. During the past three months the YWA has been taking a vicarious tour of the European countries. The final stop had been planned for presentation at Glorieta since it was a visit to Spain, and certainly no other place in the United States could offer a more authentic picture of Old Spain than the Santa Fe area. Miss Dunagin introduced Marcia Sullins who played the part of Francisca Lopez, hostess to the group during their tour of Spain. During a question and answer period, she told of conditions in her coun-

Penn Point

By D. H. P.

1962, 1962, 1962... thought I would get in a little practice writing 1962 inasmuch as we will be using this figure throughout this year. About this time each year and running until around March, we all try to keep this the same year as last, at least when we write the year. Many checks and other documents will bear the date January 27, 1961, almost automatically. But friends and neighbors, this is 1962, and for the next 361 days will remain the same.

thought of burning $1 million ... she thought of burning a dollar bill is frustrating enough. Regardless of whether you are a Texas University fan or not, you will have to take your hat off to Darrell Royal and his Longhorns. They did a marvelous job in defeating a strong, keyed-up Mississippi team in the Cotton Bowl game Monday. I think it is a fitting climax for Royal and the Longhorn's season.

1962 promises to be another good year throughout the world. Chances are either the U. S. or Russia will send a man to the moon or maybe even Mars. Lamb County will have another 200,000 plus cotton crop. Price Daniel will be defeated for governor of Texas. The rift between Russia and Red China will become larger and larger. Castro and his Red regime will be overthrown. John Kennedy will keep pushing until the Federal Aid to Education Bill becomes law. Unemployment will decrease (if the lazy people are made to work instead of live off the taxes of those who work). Prices will rise slightly throughout the year. Incomes will also rise. These are just a few Penn predictions for the year 1962. If by any stretch of the imagination, any of them become reality, it will just be sheer luck... but this doesn't mean we won't try to take some credit.

Tom Anderson, publisher of the Farm and Ranch magazine, is going to be the speaker at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet here on January 19. I don't think the Chamber could have found a better man to speak to a group of West Texans than Anderson. I would like to quote a paragraph from "The American Mercury" magazine about Anderson. "Tom Anderson has become one of the most articulate Patriots of the Republic. His highly intelligent Farm and Ranch magazine, published in Nashville, Tennessee, should be carefully read by every farmer in our land who does not want to be brainwashed, beguiled, federalized, or played under. His is not just a Voice of the Rural South, but, we think, the true Voice of Rural America." That what they said and being an ardent fan of Anderson's column "Straight Talk", I will have to agree. Personally, I think it will be a highlight of the year to hear this man.

The 1962 first baby arrived at 12:05 a.m. Monday morning. The baby girl, Patricia Ann, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman T. Goodwin, Jr. of Littlefield. Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin and to their daughter.

Money, proverbially described as the root of all evil, is actually non-poisonous and non-toxic... after it's been burned... according to some scientists of an insurance company. The experts refer to the dry flaky dust which remains after our worn-out legal tender is reduced to ashes in the furnaces of our federal reserve banks. Concerned whether employees assigned to this unsavory task were endangering their health, bank officials in Boston supplies the company laboratory with $1 million (in the form of charred grey ashes) for analysis. The company's finding conducted as part of a protection in-depth program: "The only effect the ashes can produce is acute frustration." Yep, I'll bet we would all be just a little frustrated at the

From Your Chamber Office

By Kenneth Reast Your Retiring President A STATEMENT TO THE MEMBERSHIP:

1961 was a year of progress as far as the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce is concerned. This was only possible because more individuals like yourself put more time, ideas, and money into your local economic organization than ever before. To each one of you who participated in this effort, I extend my sincere thanks.

Last year we received some insight into what can be done when a representative number of people are willing to do what is essential to improve Littlefield. We established our goals and then many of us pooled our resources to bring those wishes toward fulfillment; without membership participation none of our projects would have been completed.

This community has -- within itself -- most of the resources needed to ensure balanced community development, and proper mobilization of these resources under the right kind of leadership can help the community solve its own problems. This self-help program proceeds from strength -- the strength of local wealth, the strength of local taxpayers and the strength of local leadership. Other towns are growing and Littlefield can do just what these other cities are doing. We can give new, fresh, effective leadership in community development through our Chamber of Commerce.

Remember, this is an individual matter, not a let George do it approach. Really, it's not -- What will the town do? but What will you do? There is much to be done; as a matter of fact, we have merely scratched the surface. I urge every progressive minded citizen of Littlefield to join with me in pledging our support to Kenneth Ware, President for 1962.

AT SUDAN Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Callhan and children of De Ridder, La., have been here visiting relatives including the late Olds, Lewis Fields, I. W. Olds, Hershell Olds, and Kaye Lynns.

Mr. and Mrs. Milam Field and family were holiday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fields.

NOTE TO MY (ex-friends) who saw me driving that brand new Cutlass convertible all day Wednesday: the auto was loaned to me by Jones Motor so that I could experience its mighty power, sleek looks... and I strongly suspect in hopes that I'd get the new car fever!

These auto dealers will do almost anything to sell a new car and the plan of passing out new demonstrators for driving a day or two is a good way to show John Q. Public how they will perform.

Boys, a new convertible will really turn the women's heads. I saw two turn and look as I drove by and they were just getting ready to go into one of these stores with a gigantic clearance sale on... now that's really pulling a woman away from her first interest... a good clearance sale!

Note to wife: However, as soon as these two women recognized me, they quickly turned back to their bargain hunt!

The first baby contest is always exciting... even when you wife isn't in the race. The doctors get a lot of fun out of calling back and forth to each other to see if a first baby has been delivered.

If we were expecting a baby about new year's time, think I'd be wishing for it just before the new year so that I could count on a $600 deduction for the old year.

Old Reuel Nash over at Plainview became the father of twins about thirty minutes before midnight in 1957... that's getting $1200 allowance with the Internal Revenue in a hurry!

TAXES

Dunn's office also is making ready to start another kind of tax collection - automobile license fees. Sale of 1962 automobile license plates is to start February 1 and must be bought by April 1.

However, new cars sold before April 1 or cars registering in the state for the first time must have a 1961 license.

"I thought you ministers took care of the dead," he wisecracked.

"We do," answered the parson, "but first we get in touch with their relatives."

"City Hall," said the switchboard operator. There was no answer for a minute, then a rather nervous female voice asked, "Is this really City Hall?"

"That's right, madam," said the operator. "With whom do you wish to speak?"

There was an embarrassed silence. Then the female voice said softly, "I guess nobody, I just found this number in my husband's pocket..."

A skunk once challenged a lion to combat. The lion promptly declined.

"Why," said the skunk. "Are you afraid?"

"Yes," admitted the lion, "for you would only gain fame by having the honor to fight a lion, while for months everyone who met me would know that I had been in the company of a skunk."
