Registrants Can Only Be Deferred By Local Draft Board

No request for deferment of a Selective Service registrant from military training will be considered until his local board has sent a questionnaire to him, Gen. J. Watt Page, State Director of Selective Service, said this week. He also emphasized that a registrant can be deferred only by his local board and that no other group or person in the Selective Service System has jurisdiction until the local board has classified him.

Employers and dependents of prospective trainees who are submitting pleas for deferments in advance of the time when they come up for classification by their local boards, Director Page said, "are merely complicating the work of local boards without service to the interested parties".

Under Selective Service regulations, local boards must classify registrants according to their order numbers, he pointed out, and said that when the time comes for the classification of a registrant, he his employer, and his dependents must be given every opportunity to substantiate deferment claims. Any information submitted before a registrant receives his questionnaire from his local board, he added, probably would become obsolete and valueless.

Employers in doubt as to the likelihood of their employees being called for Selective Service training should communicate with Col. Dwight Horton or Major James B. Arthur, state advisors on occupational deferments at State Headquarters, Austin, who will give them all possible information, Page said.

Northeast of Littlefield

Ed Underwood of Dallas visited in the home of Mrs. W. T. Russel and family Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Cowen had as their week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Belcher and two sons of Hart Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillingham and daughter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nix, at their home in the Spade community.

A. M. Cowen and family and James Johnson and family spent Sunday with P. S. Cowen.

Leonard Matler, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Moore, spent Thursday afternoon visiting with them.

Bernice Cowen spent Saturday night and Sunday with Imogene Choate.

Mrs. Ronald Eddings is in Houston, at the bedside of her sister-in-law, who is seriously ill.

Last Saturday night the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gibson was the scene of a merry party.

The guests enjoyed the evening playing "42" and dominoes. At a late hour the hostess served doughnuts, bananas and candy to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Ice Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jarmon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillingham, and Fred Doran. Mary Francis Farley spent Friday night with Mrs. G. S. Cowen.

Margie Calvert, student at WTSC, Canyon, spent the past week end with homefolks.

Domino parties are the thing of the hour in our community. So on Friday night Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hill entertained a number of friends. After a most enjoyable evening the hostess served Anglofood cake and candy to the following couples; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cook; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dillingham; Mr. and Mrs. H. Collins; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jarmon; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hill, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gibson; and Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Graham. And who said the men folks can't play dominoes? Ask the ladies.

Last Friday the Calvert family spent the day in Lubbock, attending to business and visiting Mrs. Pearl Herman, who is Mrs. Calvert's mother.

A large number from this community attended the Lamb County Plateau Singing Convention in Littlefield Sunday. We feel proud to have one of our neighbors Mrs. Bruce Gibson, honored as Secretary of the Convention.

Home, Sweet Home

The word "home" has a lot of different meanings depending upon where we happen to be when we use it.

An American traveling in a foreign country speaks of "home" and means America.

A citizen of our state, visiting in a distant city in this country, refers to "home" and thinks of the section of the country in which he lives.

A resident of our town, when in a nearby town, speaks of home and means this particular community.

And finally, when one of us drops in on a neighbor, we mean the particular house in which we live when we refer to "home".

Home thus expands or contracts in the scope of its meaning in relation to our distance from it.

But all our homes—our nation, our state, our town and our dwelling—are included when we speak of the things most dear to us that we are willing to risk our lives to defend.

To most of us, the private home, which includes our family, is our first consideration. We want to protect our community, our state and our nation because the safety of our private home depends upon them.

In Germany and Russia the philosophy is quite opposite. There the nation is the first consideration—the private home and private individual are dedicated toward furthering the interests of the state—here the state is the servant and protector of the people.

To preserve that status is why we are so willing to defend the "land of the free and the HOME of the brave" against attack.

Tyrants At Home

There are little imitation Hitler's all over America.

Sometimes you find them in the uniform of a traffic cop who acts as if he'd enjoy nothing more than throwing you into a concentration camp for going 35 miles an hour.

Sometimes you find them in front of school rooms, bathing in the sadistic thrill of making boys and girls hate them and by punishing any pupils who permit their hatred to boil to the surface.

Often you find them holding political jobs and bossing their underlings like so many slaves.

You also find them in business, shouting and ordering employees around and knowing that they can get away with it because most men and women will take a lot before they quit a job.

Recently we heard of a Hitler-Ribbentrop team in the form of a dog catcher and a Justice of the Peace in a small Ohio town. An unemployed farmer's wife, who has four sons in the United States Army, was late about paying a $1 dog license fee. She wrote letter of explanation, paid the dollar, but postponed paying another dollar penalty.

The county dog catcher didn't like her letter. He took her before the Justice of the Peace and she was sentenced to a fine and four days in jail. She had never been in jail before. She felt disgraced. She was afraid her sons would hear about it—her four sons who are busy serving their country.

While we're working on how to get rid of an international tyrant, let's also revolt against petty tyrants at home.

The SNOOPER SAYS...

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade Thursday night at the Littlefield hospital. The young man, who missed weighing eight pounds by one ounce, has been named William James, for both his great-grandfathers.

He will have the same initials as his great grandfather Wade.

Madelyn, who is three years old, and the only other child of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade, hasn't been allowed even to see her little brother, and she won't be for several weeks yet. The reason? She has the whooping cough!!!

Mr. Wade is rural mail carrier for Route 2, Littlefield, and he wanted Friday off. He was so proud of that only son.

I've been wondering — for the past three years now — where all those people go who spend Sunday afternoons driving and riding on main street and honking their horns.

I know where I'll go if it doesn't stop. But after that sentence, I realize these people have the privilege of driving on main street in Littlefield on Sunday afternoons—so you can look for me in the bug-house!

L. R. Sewell said he figured that Uncle Sam owed him on his income instead of Mr. Sewell having to pay income tax this year, after he had figured a few days and nights, trying to get all the questions answered.

After this discovery guess we'll be asking for a "half or a fourth of a piece of blackeyed pea pie" in local restaurants before long. "A new table delicacy has appeared in East Texas—blackeyed pea pie. Credit is given Mrs. Ed

Wilson, route 4, Athens, for discovering that pie made from black-eyed peas is delicious and the rival of pie made from sweet potatoes.

I copied this too—"One can always distinguish a city girl from a country girl. The city girl grabs her hat when the wind doth blow; the country girl her skirts." And when one has to hold her hat and skirts at the same time—task, task.

Twenty-four CCC camp enrollees recently purchased chandeliers for the Salvation Army chapel and the living room of the captain and lieutenant.

Several of these boys have been attending regular services at the local Salvation Army chapel, and to show their appreciation to the officials, and for the good they have received there, they installed these lights.

A brand new boat has just arrived at the Luce & Rogers firm, reminding me that fishing time is here again. The boat is a rowboat, but Mr. Luce plans to put a motor on it, too.

Effects of the war have reached West Texas, but people still are interested in the happenings at home—as evidenced by the huge crowds of people from far and near who thronged to Littlefield last week end for the FFA and 4-H Club show on Saturday and the Lamb County Singing Convention Sunday.

And in closing, Dan Waggoner once said: "Any man who doesn't like to look at a good cow, a pretty horse or a pretty woman, has something wrong with his head."

Be seeing you. MARGIE

Applications Under Triple A Program Due By Mar. 31

Extension Will Made Says Fred Rennels, Official

Applications for payment under the 1940 Agricultural Conservation Program must be signed and filed at the county offices by March 31, according to Fred Rennels, assistant administrator in charge of the AAA program, who has announced. The deadline applies to payments for soil-building and range-improvement work as well as regular payments under the conservation program, the AAA official said. The filing date is applicable all over the United States. To date, 361,628 applications for a total of $43,314,700 have been filed for payment in the state out of an anticipated 405,000 applications for $50,000,000 in payments under the conservation program, Rennels said. These payments brought to $71,405,4 the amount received by farmers and ranchmen for cooperation with the 1940 AAA program, he said. Estimates are that the total will reach $78,775,000. State of price adjustment payments on the major commodities follows: Wheat — 48,064 applications for $83,285 out of an anticipated $100 for $3,485,000. Cotton — 337,523 applications for $24,469,982 out of an anticipated $350,000 for $25,000,000. Rice — 647 applications for $9,087 out of an anticipated $800 for $290,000. Absolutely no extension will be made on the closing date, Rennels said.

Nephew To J. T. Elms Passes Away At Gatesville

Funeral services for Clinton Elms, 37, held Tuesday, March 11. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, March 11, at the First Methodist church at Gatesville for Clinton Elms, 37, nephew of J. T. Elms of Littlefield, who died Monday morning, March 10. Interment was in the Gatesville cemetery. Mr. Elms had been ill with pneumonia at his home at Gatesville several days before his death. Survivors are the wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elms of Gatesville, and several cousins. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Elms, Mrs. J. C. Elms, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Elms and M. A. Elms, all of Littlefield left for Gatesville Monday afternoon, where they attended the final rites. They returned home Wednesday night.

Wendell Glen Holloman, baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ran Holloman of Morton, was taken home recently from a hospital in Lubbock where he had been treated several days for bronchial pneumonia. Texas ships 90 percent of the Bermuda onions raised in the United States. The seed costs $1.50 a pound.

Cotton order stamps, like the one reproduced here, will be issued to farmers cooperating in the new supplementary cotton program by reducing their cotton acreage this year. The stamps can be exchanged for cotton goods at retail stores.

LARGE NUMBERS ATTEND OPENING OF WOODS JEWELRY SATURDAY LAST

A new enterprise for Littlefield, the Woods Jewelry Store, was formally opened to the public Saturday in the former location of Dean's Jewelry, in the Yellowhouse Land building, with new stock of watches, diamonds and jewelry. In response to a cordial invitation extended by the owners, large numbers of friends and other citizens of Littlefield and trade territory visited the new store Saturday and viewed the beautiful new equipment and merchandise. For this splendid response and interest, Dr. and Mrs. Woods asked the Leader office Monday to extend their appreciation, and to state that their aim at all times will be to render special personal service in all jewelry needs, as well as the repair of watches and jewelry.

Furniture Enroute Here Destroyed By Fire Recently

Tuesday wasn't March 13, but it was an unlucky day for Mr. L. Moore, civilian employe of the war department, who is in command at the local CCC camp. Mr. Moore went to Mesquite, Texas Sunday, March 9, to move his wife and son and daughter to Littlefield. When they arrived back here the following Tuesday, they were notified that the truck on which their furniture was being moved, burned near Throckmorton, and completely destroyed all the household furnishings. He had rented an unfurnished house here, but had to cancel the lease, and rented a furnished apartment. The 7,500,000 4-H Club members in the United States produce yearly products having a market value of around $30,000,000.

AIR'S FREE so why not use it?

GETTING right down to it, one reason why you get as much as 10% to 15% more miles per gallon from a 1941 FIREBALL Buick with Compound Carburetion is that this engine is supplied with more air.

For it is a mixture of gasoline and air that gives you power.

A single carburetor, no matter how many jets it has, can handle only so much air.

But two carburetors that function as needed, as is the case in Compound Carburetion, can meet any fuel-supply need from low-speed to heavy-power use — and always provide a well-balanced mixture.

They can double the air supply as well as the gasoline feed — and that's something you can't do in any single-carburetor car.

So Compound Carburetion gets as much as 800 miles for the gas-cost of 700 in earlier Buicks of the same size.

It also provides a walloping big bank of reserve power, which means an up-and-at-'em lift and surge that's nothing short of thrilling to experience.

And you can have Compound Carburetion, you know, on any 1941 Buick — it's only a few dollars extra on the swell big SPECIAL pictured here, and standard equipment on all other models.

AAA Conservation Payments Set at 98c Per Acre

Farmers Are Urged To Study 1941 AAA Program

announced by Chairman of Lamb County A. C. A. Com. William E. Bentley, the farmers should pay close attention to the following items concerning the 1941 AAA program.

The Agricultural Conservation Payment on general crops for 1941 is set at $0.98 per acre under the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture. Just this 10 percent.

There will be a deduction in the Agricultural Conservation Payment for 1941 for failure to maintain practices under previous programs. Where the County Committee with the approval of the State Committee determines that the practices established under previous programs are not maintained in accordance with good farming practices in 1941, or the effectiveness of the building practice carried over from a previous program is not maintained in 1941 contrary to good farming practices, there shall be a deduction from payments which otherwise would be made with respect to the farm an amount equal to the amount which would be payable under the 1941 program for the same amount of such practices.

For failure to prevent wind erosion there shall be a deduction of $1.00 per acre for each acre of cropland in the farm which exceeds the total payment (not for the farm) which is due to serious wind and water erosion and on which approved practices for the prevention of wind and water erosion are not in 1941.

For failure to carry out erosion control measures no payment shall be made to any person with respect to any farm which such person owns or operates in a county if the county committee determines that such person has been negligent and careless in his farm operations by failing to carry out approved erosion control measures on land under his control to the extent that any part of such land has become an erosion hazard to other land in the community in which the farm is located.

gloves, plowlines, stockings, and any other cotton products.

5. Q. May cotton stamps be used to buy second-hand clothes or renovated mattresses?

A. No. Cotton stamps may be used to buy only new products which are made entirely of cotton.

6. Q. Will persons using cotton stamps get the same cotton products as persons who pay cash?

A. Yes and at the same price.

7. Q. May retail merchants give change to customers using cotton stamps?

A. No.

8. Q. Since merchants cannot give change and since cotton stamps are printed only in 25-cent denominations, what is done when the price of the cotton goods purchased does not come out exactly to 25 cents, 50 cents, or some other multiple of 25?

A. Suppose the purchase price is 60 cents. (1) The customer could give two cotton stamps representing 50 cents to the merchant and pay the additional 10 cents in cash, or (2) the purchase could give the merchant three cotton order stamps representing 75 cents and buy some other cotton goods product that costs 15 cents, or (3) the customer could give three cotton order stamps representing 75 cents to the merchant and receive from the merchant a credit slip for 15 cents which he could use later for the purchase of cotton goods at the same store.

9. Q. Will retail stores accept cotton stamps that have been taken out of the stamp book?

A. No. Cotton stamps must be taken out of the stamp books at the time the purchase is made—except when sent with an order for cotton products to a store qualified to accept cotton order stamps by mail.

10. Q. May anyone other than the person to whom the cotton stamps are issued use them?

A. The person to whom the stamps are issued signs his name on the stamp book. Then, only the person to whom the stamps are issued or a member of his family may take the book to the retail store and exchange the stamps for cotton products. If the retail merchant or clerk does not know the person who brings in the book, he is required to have the person identify himself.

11. Q. May cotton stamps be sold or traded?

A. No. They can be used only by the person or families to whom they are issued. Any person or any retail merchant who misuses the cotton order stamps will be subject to penalties imposed by Federal law.

12. Q. May cotton stamps be used to pay outstanding bills or accounts? Or may the cotton stamps be used in connection with a "lay-away plan" or other installment buying?

A. No.

13. Q. May cotton stamp books be left with the retail merchant, or signed over to a merchant or landlord?

A. No. Stamp books must be kept by the person to whom they are issued for his use as he sees fit in connection with the exchange of stamps for cotton goods.

14. Q. Can cotton stamps be used to repay advances made against the crop, the landlord's share of the crop or other indebtedness? A. No.

15. Q. Must the entire amount of stamps be used at any one time?

A. No. One stamp or all stamps may be used at any one time, or over a period of time, until the total amount of stamps have been exchanged for cotton goods.

16. Q. How can retail stores be designated to receive cotton stamps from farmers, in exchange for cotton goods?

A. Retailers handling cotton goods who wish to share in this new business should file with the nearest Surplus Marketing Administration office a statement of intention to take part in the program and to observe the regulations under which it operates. (Experience under the Food and Cotton Stamp Plan shows that practically all retailers cooperate willingly in surplus removal programs of the Department of Agriculture.)

17. Q. What is meant by this "new business"?

A. The 25 million dollars worth of cotton stamps which farmers can earn under the Supplementary Cotton Program will be placed as an "order" in regular channels of trade. From 75,000 to 100,000 bales of cotton will be required in making the cotton goods to fill this order. The larger share of each dollar spent for cotton goods, however, goes to employ labor and to pay other costs in the manufacture, transportation, handling, and selling of cotton products. The program, therefore, will benefit not only the farmers, but labor and industry as well.

18. Q. How does the retailer receive payment for the face value of the stamps he accepts in exchange for merchandise?

A. Retailers may file proper claims for payment, supported by cards on each of which are posted $10 worth of cotton stamps, direct with offices of the Surplus Marketing Administration (names and places of which will be made public). Wholesalers with whom retailers are accustomed to do business, or banks cooperating in the program, may also act as agents for retailers in presenting such claims to the Surplus Marketing Administration. (Experience under the Food and Cotton Stamp Plan shows that payments normally are made within two to five days after claims are presented.

Bankers throughout the country, where the food and cotton stamp plans are in operation, have agreed unanimously to act as agents in presenting the stamps for payment. Their full cooperation has meant much to the success of the program.)

19. Q. How may a producer who wishes to participate in the Supplementary Cotton Program obtain additional information about the program?

A. By seeing or writing his county form or home demonstration agent or his local AAA committeeman.

Following is the third of a series of three articles concerning the Supplementary Cotton Program for 1941:

Men and farmers alike benefit under the supplementary cotton program. The retail merchant from whom the farmer will purchase the goods, it will mean additional business. For the farmer and his family, it will mean more clothes and other cotton material.

Every cotton farmer in Lamb County who cooperated in the supplementary cotton program by reducing his cotton acreage enough to benefit from an additional $1.00 in the purchase of cotton goods, Aubrey W. Bingham, county administrative officer, points out the last of the question and answer series this week, the AAA program discusses how to use cotton stamps.

After the cotton farmer has received his cotton stamps for voluntarily reducing cotton acreage under the Supplementary Cotton Program, what can he do with them?

He can use them in any clothing store or mail order house to purchase new products made in the United States and made from cotton fiber produced in the United States. Bindings, buttons and other fasteners and buttons will not be considered in determining whether such commodities are made entirely of cotton.

How will he know whether a store is cooperating in the program?

By asking within the store whether the merchant cooperates. Experiences of the Department of Agriculture with a similar program, the Cotton Stamp Plan, shows that nearly every retailer which sells cotton goods cooperates. Most cooperating retailers will display signs announcing their acceptance of cotton stamps.

Can purchases be made by mail?

Stores which qualify under the Surplus Marketing Administration regulations will be authorized to accept cotton stamps on purchases by mail, in addition to purchases in person. Authority to receive cotton stamps on over-the-counter purchases.

What are some of the cotton products that can be bought with cotton stamps?

Cotton piece goods, dresses, sheets, pants, overalls, children's and infants' clothes, undergarments, blankets, work-

BIRTHRATE . . . decline
For years statisticians have been trying to get us excited about this country's declining birthrate. They have predicted that unless something is done about it the United States will some day be about as populated as the North Pole.

But with most of us, such theories go in one ear and out the other. In fact, when we go for an automobile ride on a nice Sunday afternoon we think that there are entirely too many people in America.

Ever since this country was taken away from the Indians the population has increased every year. It will continue to do so for a few more years—and then the decline will begin.

After studying the figures on it I can see why there is reason for alarm—particularly in the cities. The most recent figures show that if present birth and death rates continue in the cities, the urban population will decline 24 per cent in one generation, beginning right now. If continued for 100 years, a city which now has a population of 100,000 would then have a population of around 25,000 unless people migrated from rural sections.

In the rural sections the birthrate has declined over 10 percent in 10 years, but it is still great enough to supply both city and country with population increases for a few more years. After that comes the decline—unless, by that time, the city folks revert to normal child-raising or invent a population producing machine.

FARMING . . . sport
Looking into the future is fun, even if you look at it through the eyes of a fake fortune-teller. But it's most thrilling to me to look at it through the eyes of a smart scientist who really holds some of the keys which will open the doors to the years ahead.

Dr. Francis J. Curtis of the Monsanto Chemical Company is such a scientist—and he did some predicting the other day that will make most farmers want to live as long as Methuselah, if necessary, just to get a glimpse of the world he pictures.

For in the future, says Dr. Curtis, farming, as we know it today, will be a sport rather than labor—a sport like hunting and fishing, rowing and other such activities that we now go in for for fun but used to pursue because our existence depended upon them.

The raising of food, Dr. Curtis predicts, will gradually pass into a factory stage where there will be no guess work, mostly machine labor, no worry about the size or quantity of frost and positive knowledge about what each seed will produce. Labor will be confined to controlling farm machines, working hours will be short, health foods will be so abundant that sickness will be a disgrace and all sorts of new entertainments will be devised to occupy the long hours of leisure which the farmers will enjoy.

It sounds like a bed of roses for the farmer. And the interesting thing about it is that Dr. Curtis isn't just dreaming. He's basing his predictions on the expected results of problems which scientists are now striving to solve.

AUTOMOBILES . . . defense
Some patriotic-meaning Americans, who want to see the defense program go ahead at top rate speed have suggested that automobile manufacturers stop making cars for private use altogether and concentrate on planes, trucks, tanks and tractors.

If it would speed up defense, the majority of people would agree to such a program even though it would mean great personal sacrifice. But actually any such plan would be an irreparable mistake.

The automobile industry is one of the main pillars of today's economic system. Last year its sales totaled over $5,000,000. If this business suddenly stopped even temporarily, it would disrupt the lives of millions of people—including the large force of newly employed defense workers—who are dependent upon a reliable automobile to get to work.

Transportation, and that means mostly automobile transportation, is now the third most important item on the Average American's spending list. It is out-ranked only by expenditures for food and shelter.

When an industry is that important to us we should make every effort to keep it operating normally. It would be ridiculously shortsighted to disrupt our leading means of transportation as part of a plan to strengthen our defenses.

MODELS . . . changes
It looks as if there may be no new modern models of automobiles for 1942. To turn out a new model requires new machine tools and dies. Machine tools and dies are the big problem in defense production. They are difficult and slow to make workmen skilled in making them are scarce and the demand for them in defense industries is greater than can possibly be supplied.

BURIED IN MORTON
Arlin Ray, five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Pierce of Wellington, died about 2:30 p. m. Tuesday afternoon, March 11, and was taken to Morton for services. Burial was in the cemetery.

HAS PNEUMONIA
James Dwight Melton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Melton of Wellington, is in the Lubbock Sanitarium suffering from pneumonia and infection.

Ellis Foust bought two of the beef calves from the boys and a lamb, in the auction ring at the show.

whiteface beef calf in the show here Saturday, or—rather Herman entered the calf for Garland, as Garland is too young to be a member of the 4-H Club.

Any way—Garland's calf placed eighth at the show.

And he sings, too!—Garland, we mean!

"GREASED" GILT WINS

FOURTH PLACE IN SHOW

Kendrick Williams, Littlefield, FFA member, had a "slick and shiny" gilt at the show here Saturday.

He spent Saturday morning greasing the pig with 10-weight lube oil, which, he believed, helped him to win fourth place in the breeding gilt division.

HEIFER EXHIBITED RAISED ON BOTTLE

One dairy heifer entered in the Stock Show here Saturday has never been fed milk!

Eldon Trotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Trotter of near Littlefield, entered his five-months old black pole dairy heifer in the show, and it won third prize in the dairy heifer division.

And Eldon didn't forget his calf's bottle, either, when he brought her to town. She takes her "security feed" from the bottle. Eldon also feeds his heifer mixed feed.

The calf was an orphan when Eldon bought her.

He is a member of the Littlefield 4-H Club.

"MUCH IMPROVEMENT" SAID W. H. FRAZIER

W. H. Frazier of McKinney, former vocational agriculture teacher in the Littlefield high school, "kept his promise to his boys" and returned to Littlefield to attend the second annual Stock Show Saturday.

Mr. Frazier helped to "ram-rod" the show last year, and he was highly complimentary towards the improvements of the show, this year, over the first one.

He was very glad to learn that the boys had been taking more interest in the exhibiting of their animals, and the quality of the animals far exceeded that of the first year.

Only nine calves in all divisions were entered last year, while 27 were exhibited in the show Saturday.

OLTON LIONS NOW IN HOG BUSINESS

The Olton Lions Club is in the hog business!

Members of the Lions Club are co-operating with FFA boys and 4-H Club members, and helping them to raise better pigs.

Last year the club purchased six gilts, and gave them to boys to raise. The boys will give a gilt at weaning age, back to the club, who will in turn, pass them on to other boys.

Edwin Huckabee, Jr., of the Olton FFA, won first place with his breeding gilt in the show Saturday. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Huckabee, who reside eight miles southwest of Olton.

Another gilt from the Olton club was exhibited by Donald Spain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Spain. This animal did not place in the show.

Truett Sides is vocational agriculture teacher at Olton.

Double Quintuples Plus For Mollie

Mollie, two-year old female dog, owned by Tom Brock, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brock, shocked her owner and all the neighbors recently, when she gave birth to 11 puppies.

Mollie is a part German police and Sheppard dog. Her mother was a registered Sheppard dog, who was a watchdog at the docks at Houston, where Mr. and Mrs. Brock and children lived previous to moving to Plainview, from where they came to Littlefield.

Her father was a fine German Police dog—living in Houston or thereabouts . . . and, all in all, Tom thinks Mollie plenty smart!

Recently Mollie left home, and was gone all day and all night. The next morning she returned to the home of her owner, and going up to Mrs. Brock she all but told her "to come with me and see my puppies!"

Understanding dog language like you do if you are a dog lover—Mrs. Brock followed Mollie to a neighbors house, underneath which she proudly displayed 11 fine puppies.

Some of them are dark brown like the mother dog, while some resemble the father dog—a large black German Police dog—and we can tell you his name and who owns him if you want to know . . .

But the puppies are real cute, and needless to say some of them are for sale, for at the present time

Tom likes to take care of them in the Brock home—and his mother says, "They just won't be here too long!"

"Better Service"—

(Continued from page 1) the candidate who realizes the importance of this big first period. You still have 4 days to get out and pile up first period votes. And, if you do that, you need fear no competition. But you cannot do this, wishing you knew where and how to go after subscriptions, and all that sort of stuff. Weakness and indecision will avail nothing—but on the other hand it is the golden opportunity for wise contestants to put themselves where their worries are over so far as their standings in the race for the big prizes are concerned.

Credits will decide the winners of the Leader contest, and as this is the time when credits count the most, you are losing an opportunity of a lifetime if you do not get your share of them. Get going at top speed! You will enjoy the exhilaration, and thrills which go with the forging to the front in a good natured, nevertheless keen rivalry, with a great reward of $500 at the finish. When one considers the fact that all it takes to win is all of your spare time, then the answer should be—you'll devote all your spare time during the next 4 days. You can be a winner—then why not get busy and be one?

Singing Convention Is Well Attended

Sunday was another red letter day for Littlefield, as more than 1,000 people from a radius of 150 miles gathered at the local high school auditorium for the Lamb County Plateau Singing Convention. And—the weather was fine! Three quartets from Lubbock, the Lubbock Quartet, Stevens Quartet, and the Pickering family, and quartets from Ropes, Berger, Memphis, Levelland, and singers from House New Mexico, were on the program. Leaders attended from all adjoining counties. Mayor Homer Hall welcomed the visitors and Judge Lee Thompson of Farwell gave the response. A loud speaker made it possible for the crowd who "jammed" the auditorium to hear the entire program. Littlefield people provided lunch for out-of-town visitors. The next Lamb County Plateau Singing Convention will be held the third Sunday in September, it was announced.

Mrs. Jannie Phelps of Lubbock was in Littlefield on business Monday.

British Raid Nazi-Held Norse Isle

This photo, released by the British Admiralty shows British marines watching the burning of oil tanks during the spectacular raid on the Nazi-held Lofoten Islands off the Norwegian coast. Two hundred and fifteen German prisoners were taken, 11 Nazi ships sunk and a number of Norwegians were rescued.

Blue Law Blues for Delaware

Delaware turned back the clock 200 years when the Attorney General decided to enforce "to the limit" the Blue Laws passed in 1740. He chose this course to bring the situation to a head when the 1941 legislature failed to pass a bill repealing the statute and permitting the towns to regulate their own Sabbaths. Here a number of Wilmington citizens are being booked for "violations."

Fox Roundup Pays Real Dividends

Here workers are closing in on a herd of silver foxes in a hurly-burly of wild confusion, during a fox roundup at the huge Nieman range in the wilds of Upper Michigan. This fox range is one of the largest in the country and it is estimated that this year's pelts will net a million and a quarter dollars in the fur pelt market.

Lamb Farmers Will Discuss Important Issues At Session

Similar Meetings To Be Held In Other Counties And States

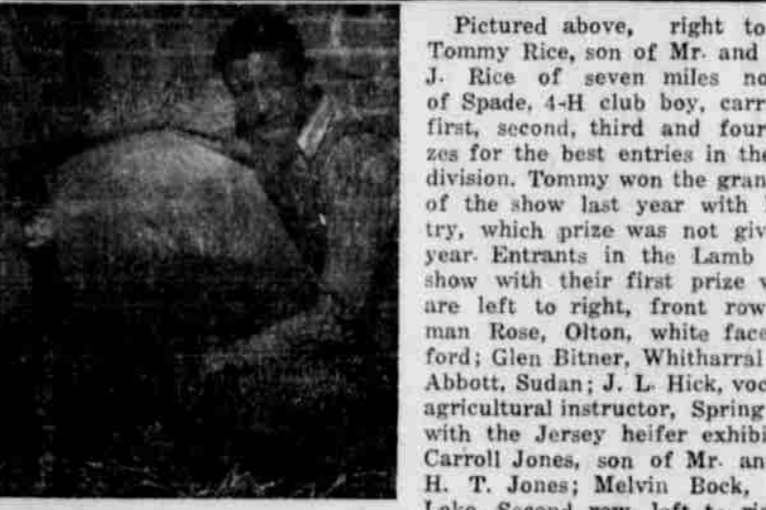

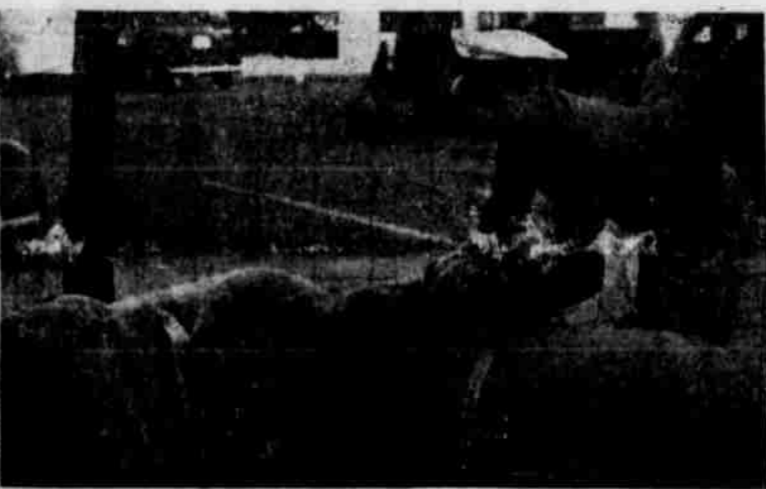

A county wide meeting of all farmers of Lamb County is being called at the Littlefield High School auditorium Monday night, March 24, at 8 o'clock.

In announcing this meeting, V. F. Jones, County Agent stated: "This meeting is being called by a group of Lamb County farmers who feels that farmers are now facing important farm problems that will require a strong agricultural organization to work for a more prosperous farm program in the county, state and nation. The serious war conditions have made it necessary for the farmers to band together for their own protection. Industry and labor are organized and receiving their demands. The farmers must organize to solve their problems."

"Some of the problems that the farmers can solve by acting as a unit are: a higher loan on cotton, reduced freight rates, farm storage, truck load limits, tax problems, and many other similar problems, that affect the income of the farmers. Farmers must work together if they are to receive their share of the nation's income."

Similar meetings are being held in other counties and states.

He plays in the Olton high school band.

The whiteface beef heifer owned by M. D. Jr., won first place in that division at the Stock Show Saturday.

Saturday, March 7, the Sudan FFA boys staged a stock show at Sudan, and, since March 1 was the date scheduled for the Littlefield annual band clinic, M. D. Jr., worried the whole week previous, how he was to participate in both affairs.

But he made it! He rushed his calf to Sudan Saturday morning and won a prize in the judging. . . left his Dad there to keep an eye on the calf until permitted to take it home. . . and M. D. Jr., came to Littlefield for the clinic, and was in the band parade in the afternoon!
