City's Building Boom Continues

Million Mark Passed

Littlefield's building boom continued last month at peak level with $58,350 in additional permits granted during September...

This brought the 1960 total to $1,075,401 for one of the best nine-months' record ever set here...

The September report was considerably under the previous month's record when $193,570 was filed. However, the September, 1960, record was far ahead of the same month's permits in 1959...

Nine new building intentions were filed during last month, the largest being for an $18,000 dwelling.

The 1960 record is running considerably ahead of 1959. Through September last year, $972,035 in building permits had been filed a completed with the present $1,075,401.

Permits issued during September included:

Billy Jo Odeg for frame addition to dwelling on Duncan Avenue for $1,300. Contractor, T. W. Parker.

Rayne Construction Co. for house at 12th and Twitchell for $16,000 to be built for Dr. Still.

Dillon Lumber Co. for dwelling on Crescent Drive in amount of $18,000. Contractor, same.

Ed Drager, contractor, for addition to house owned by Mrs. Georgia Elms, 1117 West 5th, for $900.

Wayne White of C&B Lumber Co., Lubbock, for addition to the J. C. Boies home, 608 East 16th, in amount of $1,500.

H. L. Atwood for addition to house at 1021 West 11th, in amount of $1,000. Contractor, self.

Weldon Putman for dwelling at 1309 West 13th in amount of $11,500. Contractor, self.

Weldon Putman for dwelling at 1210 Mockingbird Lane in amount of $8,250. Contractor, self.

Appeals Court To Hear Lamb County Cases

Two Lamb county cases, appealed from county court here, are to be heard by the Texas Criminal Appeals Court this week.

On hand in Austin to plead the cases are Curtis Wilkinson, county attorney, and Billy Hall, Littlefield attorney. Hall is the defense attorney.

Both cases are appeals from sentences handed down by county court jury here early this year for alleged liquor law violations.

In one case, a jury convicted Juan Balli, Lubbock, of liquor law violation and set his punishment at one year in prison and assessed a $1,000 fine. In another action, C. J. Hudson, Littlefield, was assessed a $500 fine on a liquor law conviction. Both cases were appealed.

Both cases were due to be argued Wednesday in Austin.

At the same time the Court of Criminal Appeals was to hand down decisions on two previous liquor law convictions.

Cleo Risby, Littlefield, was assessed a three-month jail sentence and a $500 fine, and Jessie May Collins, Sudan, drew a one-month's sentence and a $500 fine. The two cases were tried early this year.

Both cases were appealed and arguments were heard October 15. Wilkinson and Hall represent the state and the defendants respectively in these cases.

New 84 Road Cost Is Set At $723,000

Another step in the year-long program to convert U. S. 84 into a four-lane highway from the Hockley line to just east of Littlefield was taken this week when cost estimates were announced.

O. L. Crain, district engineer of the Texas Highway Department at Lubbock, released cost estimates for the eight-mile stretch. His office estimates the project will cost $723,000, and Crain said "work will begin on this project just as soon as final planning is completed and right-of-way secured."

The project is a part of the 1961 to '62 "consolidated highway program for Texas." The highway department's fiscal year began September 1, and the Lamb county road is one of the first in this area to be announced as approved for construction during the current fiscal year.

Earlier it had been announced here that appraisals had been completed and sent to Austin for approval. County Judge Pat Boone Jr., said Lamb County Commissioners are expected to offer the bonds for sale at public offering expected to be announced at the first November meeting, slated for November 7.

If all goes well, the bonds should be bought and paid for within 30 days and initial work on the highway widening project should get under way within a few weeks.

Light Frost Aids Crops; Yield Good

A hint of a frost last Sunday night that did little or no damage to any other vegetation, set cotton to bursting open its bolls this week with the result that cotton harvest reached peak production at least a week ahead of schedule.

Throughout the county, cotton strippers were plying the rows, while in other fields, thousands of men, women and children were stripping the cotton by the age-old hand method.

The scarcely perceptible Sunday night frost was all that was needed to cause cotton to shed its leaves Monday and Tuesday to put it into condition for the machine method of harvesting.

Although cotton is not expected to make quite as much as last year, production is running ahead of expectations. A late hail in the western and northwestern part of the county cut quality but may not have had as much effect on quantity as had first been feared.

L. D. Aten, ASC official here, said Wednesday, "There is no question that the hail, together with the October rains, may have cut production some, although now it appears that yield will not be substantially reduced by the adverse conditions."

"However, the grade of cotton in those areas is definitely lower than it would otherwise have been."

He said one farmer north of Littlefield reported his yield was running 1.4 bales to the acre, using the stripping machine, on irrigated land.

Aten, who earlier had seen a yield of 175,000 bales, says now that he believes the final figure will be around 160,000 bales, although other experts see a possible yield of as high as 175,000 to 187,000 bale yield. That estimate, (Continued on Page Four)

Bula Entry Rime Winner

Mrs. H. G. Thompson, Star Route, Bula, is the winner of the Leader's Third Ad Rime contest and will receive the $10 cash prize.

Mrs. Thompson, a farm wife, found the hidden slogan, "Every Comparison Proves Why Local Firms Serve Better." Her winning Ad Rime was "Local Merchants Are The Best. Sure, They're Better Than The Rest."

Mrs. Thompson also attached a rime she wrote concerning (Continued On Page Four)

Army's Fate Hangs On Drive's Success

"The future of the Littlefield Salvation Army headquarters may be decided with the success or failure of this fund raising drive," was the theme of Dick Sharkey's talk at the kickoff Tuesday morning.

Thirty-five workers were on hand to begin the drive for $7,200 needed to keep the Salvation Army in service for another year.

Sharkey, fund raising head of the Dallas Salvation Army headquarters reminded the group of the many services the local unit had given the past year, and although operating at a deficit it took care of the area's needs. He also emphasized the fact that Littlefield was the smallest town in the Army to support a unit, which serves this entire area of West Texas.

Drive chairman Thurman Jewell reminded the group that 90 per cent of the funds raised would stay in Littlefield and this area for services right here at home.

Advance guides head Bill Street reported that none of the funds would go to Sharkey, who is employed by the Army to help various communities with their fund raising drives.

The employe division of the drive is headed by John Clayton; the general solicitation by Joe Fenn and Wendell Tooley.

Jewell reported last Wednesday that response was good to the workers who contacted prospective donors.

Transient Painters Fleecing Local Home Owners, Wilkinson Warns

Transient painters and termite exterminators are fleecing unwary Littlefield residents, County Attorney Curtis Wilkinson said Wednesday.

"There is nothing criminal in most of the cases," Wilkinson said, "but the traveling painters especially are charging outrageous prices for their work - as high as $80 for painting a small house."

He said the system which they are using is simple: They canvass the area and get agreements to paint a house but do not mention a price. Then when the job is finished, they present a bill for an exorbitant amount, and if the property owner doesn't have that much money, they agree to write the bill to whatever amount the customer happens to have on hand.

He said there was nothing new in the procedure, but he warned home owners to be on the lookout for such painters, and if they do not know them, not to let them do the job.

can be grown here without a market risk. L. D. Aten, ASC official, said his office has received a complete report on the sugar beet industry, in which interest has increased greatly as a result of the cutting off of Cuban sugar supplies.

The report from the USDA says that sugar factories are expensive, running to around $20 million to install. The nearest sugar refineries for beets are in Colorado and so far areas already planted to sugar beets are reported to (Continued On Page Four)

He said a few years ago a similar racket was worked by termite exterminators, and others might be expected. "Demand identification," the county attorney urged, "and know who is doing the job. Also get a price before hand. If these precautions are observed, there would be fewer headaches caused by these transient painters and bug killers."

Wilkinson said it is "very difficult to trail these quickie artists since usually they paint only one or two houses in a town and then move on before customers can complain."

Workers will be out working the remainder of the week in an attempt to contact everyone.

Christian reminds those who have not been contacted and would like to contribute to contact him, Curtis Hall, Mayor Hoover or David Kilday.

Democrats Expected To Carry Lamb County

Lamb county ballot boxes will be hauled to the polls Friday, Charles D. Jones, county clerk said Wednesday, and popular sport around town was trying to figure out how those boxes will be filled when they are returned to the courthouse after next Tuesday's General Election.

Will the majority be filled with Democratic or Republican ballots?

Consensus of opinion was that Lamb county will go Democratic.

152 Absentee Votes Polled

With only two more days left in which to cast ballots by absentee, Lamb county voters who expect to be out of town next Tuesday had polled 152 votes up to noon Wednesday, a check of County Clerk Charles D. Jones' office revealed.

Votes by absentee will be accepted up until 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, Jones said.

District Head Of Rotary Tells Of Peace Aims

Rotary clubs in 116 countries are united in these difficult times of international tensions in an endeavor to promote understanding, good will and peace throughout the world.

That is the message Bruce M. Pember, Slaton, governor of district 573 of Rotary International, will bring to the Rotarians of Littlefield today, following a conference with local Rotary officials.

In addition to the activities of the more than 10,600 Rotary clubs within their own communities to promote this objective, Pember explained, Rotary International has awarded grants of more than $3.3 in the past 13 years through its program of student fellowships, which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own, as Rotary ambassadors of good will.

Since 1947, when this program was established, 1,322 Rotary Foundation Fellowships have been awarded to students in 67 countries for study in 45 countries, with grants averaging $2,500. Donald Kats, Amarillo, returned from Switzerland in September as District 573's latest Rotary Foundation Fellow - and brings Switzerland to Texas as he saw it.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for nearly 500,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or customs or languages or political and religious beliefs." The Rotary district governor emphasized.

Trick, Treat UNICEF Drive Brings In $300

Two hundred Littlefield's children and adults were among the more than 2 million American youngsters who "trick or treated" for UNICEF on Halloween, Mrs. Alby Cockrell announced today.

They collected $295.55 in pennies, nickels and dimes to help UNICEF, and CROP, the United Nations Children's Fund, save young lives in over 100 countries and territories she said.

"The citizens of Littlefield can be proud," Mrs. Cockrell added. "For every dollar they have contributed, 20 children can be cured of yaws, a crippling tropical disease, five children can be treated for trachoma, an eye illness causing blindness, and 100 children can be protected from tuberculosis.

With only $1, she noted, "UNICEF can provide 500 large glasses of milk, enough DDT to protect eight people from malaria for a year or the sulphur tablets to treat a child with leprosy for three years."

Unsigned Paper Wins; Loses Bub Holt Wins Press Grid Poll

Someone lost $5 by not signing his name. The paper that came up in second place in last week's grid contest was unsigned and, therefore, disqualified although it had only three incorrect guesses—good enough for the $5 prize money.

First place went to Bub Holt, Star Route 2, Olton. Holt missed two games—the Amherst-Ropesville tilt and the TCU-Baylor battle but correctly forecast Pitt's upset of Syracuse plus some of the others that could be considered upsets.

Holt received $7.50 for his efforts. Second prize—after the disqualification—ended up in a three way tie and the score of the Littlefield-Dumas encounter was used to pick the winners.

The $5 for second place went to Ed McCannies, Littlefield, who had four misses and a predicted score of 21-14 Littlefield—10 points off the 29-16 score.

L. F. Hatla, Littlefield, was awarded the third place prize of $2.50 with four misses and a predicted score of 17-15, Littlefield, 13 points off.

Another poll appeared in Sunday's County Wide News. Since the Wildcats are having an open date Friday, the tie breaker this week is the Tech-Tulane game being played Saturday in Lubbock.

Rules for the contest remain the same as in previous weeks.

Women's Club Plans Party For Husbands

The annual party given by the Littlefield Woman's Club entertaining their husbands, will be Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church on the Levelland Highway.

The guest speaker will be the Honorable H. J. Blanchard, member of the House of Representatives, whose subject will be "Politics, Texas Style."

The program is one of the required federation programs for the year.

Girl Scout Troop Enjoys Party

The girls of scout troop 211 enjoyed a party Saturday evening, at the Girl Scout House.

The girls decorated the scout house earlier in the day with orange and black streamers, witches, cats, and pumpkins, and gave it a real halloween look.

The girls also made the invitations that they sent and the partner - programs that were used during the evening.

Several of the games played, required partners. The partner - programs were handed each boy and girl, and each made haste to get the name of his chosen partner before another fellow had an opportunity to get her "yes."

A walk through a spook house was part of the recreation, as was the game, Witches brew, when the lights momentarily went out and a spot light picked out the two people standing under the lucky spot, the witch stirring her cauldron. Carolyn Spencer and Linda Williams were the lucky two, and were given a prize.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a brown cloth and a centerpiece made with a pumpkin shell filled with pyraecantha and mums.

The following boys were present: David Bawcom, Mike Perkins, Weldon Gage, Carl Odum, John D. Nail, Rex Minyard, Lloyd Allen, Donald Birkelbach, Joe Hillen, Larry Hart, Stephen Brestrup, and Tommy Taylor.

Girls present were: Cindy Taylor, Sharon Bernethy, Linda Duncan, Trudie Grizzle, Susan Parker, Glenda McWilliams, Connie Keeling, Ann Wilson, Linda Wright, Sheryl Smith, Linda Williams, Patsy Martin, Ruth Ann Zoth and Carolyn Spencer.

New Recipe For An Old Favorite: Hawaiian Ribs Are Droolin' Good

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Like to pick a rib? Want to try an oriental flavor combination? Then take a lesson from Hawaiian cooks of Chinese descent. They have a way of serving spare ribs — crisp, brown and succulent — along with pineapple.

Reading about spare ribs coupled with pineapple in cook books originating in the Islands, made us drool. Try it at the combination did not disappoint us.

This dish is one even the newest cook can successfully prepare. It is pleasant to know that for it no years of experience are needed, no particular culinary skills.

Spare ribs are given an oven briefing while a sauce with pineapple syrup, honey, soy sauce, vinegar and ginger — bound with cornstarch — is made on the top of the range. Then the sauce is poured over the meat and the ribs complete their oven stay. A little loving basting once in a while produces a beautiful glaze. Shortly before the ribs finish cooking, pineapple rings go into their pan and to pick up of the sauce and heat.

We think rice the perfect accompaniment to these ribs — but we hope it is cooked in oriental style so each grain is separate, tender but firm. Our advice to new cooks is to use converted-rice and follow package directions to the letter. This type of rice is hard to ruin.

When we serve these ribs we like to put them on an electric platter so the last portions will keep piping hot while the first ones are being enjoyed. They are especially attractive because the pineapple rings show golden against the appetite-teasing brown of the pork. All the platter needs is a garnish of parsley to have it look as if it had stepped out of a color picture.

And one more tip: eating these ribs calls for having plenty of large soft paper napkins close at hand.

Syrup from pineapple into small saucepan. Add honey, soy sauce, vinegar and ginger; stir over low heat until honey becomes thin and ingredients blend.

Stir cornstarch and water together until smooth; add to honey mixture. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened and clear. Spoon sauce over lightly browned ribs. Bake uncovered, basting occasionally, for 1 hour or until ribs are tender and a rich brown. About 15 minutes before ribs are finished, add pineapple rings, spooning glaze over them. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: If ribs are small and lean, 15 minutes may be enough for the preliminary oven broiling, and there may be no fat in pan to pour off.

trading at home. The rime is as follows:

"Local merchants are the best. Sure they're better than the rest. Compared to others in the West they rate tops in every test. All who know them can attest there's no need for farther quest.

Buy at home, then sit and rest. Confident you've found the best. So by now you may have guessed.

We're delighted that we're blessed with these merchants that are best.

Very best in all the West."

Mrs. Thompson's entry will go into the $30 file... and the winning Ad Rime for the 25 week period will win this cash award.

Another big Ad Rime contest appears in this issue of the Leader. This week's Ad Rime line is "Shop With This Directory."

In order to win the $10 you must write a good Ad Rime for the guideline and also identify the hidden slogan in the business firms listed below.

Your clue for finding the hidden slogan is the fact that there is one word printed in each column in the advertisements. Hunt these words starting in the left hand corner of each column.

Use a plain post card or a separate sheet of paper for each entry. Write or print on it the correct hidden slogan (2) your Ad - Rime (rhyming with "guard-anteed"); (3) your name and address; (4) your occupation. All entries must be in the Lamb County Leader Office before 5 p. m. Monday November 7.

A new Ad - Rime contest will appear in each succeeding Thursday paper and the deadline will continue to be the following Monday. A $10 cash prize will be given each week.

You will have a lot of fun writing Ad - Rimes and we will get a big kick reading them. Remember that the best of the 25 weekly winners gets a $50 cash prize at the finish. Good Luck!

Sweet 'n Sticky Ribs With Pineapple

Ingredients: 4 to 4½ pounds (2 racks) fresh pork spare ribs (cut into 2-rib lengths); 1 can (1 pound and 14 ounces) sliced pineapple; ¼ cup honey; 2 tablespoons soy sauce; 4 teaspoons cider vinegar; ½ teaspoon ginger; 1 tablespoon cornstarch; 1 tablespoon cold water.

Method: Place ribs in one layer, meaty side up, in a large roasting pan in a very hot (450 degrees) oven for 30 minutes; pour off fat in pan. Meanwhile drain

Spade Youths Turn 'Spooks' Into CROP Trick Or Treat

SPADE — There was much "trick or treating" going on in Spade Monday night, but not all of it was for the usual candy and cookies. The young people of both the Methodist church and the Baptist Church went trick or treating for the Christian Rural Overseas Program which is usually known as CROP. The ones present divided up into groups and canvassed the community, asking for donations.

The group collected $16.50 to be sent overseas and distributed by church leaders where it is most needed.

Those young people attending were Lee Leonard, Babe Tomlinson, Martha Sue McQuatters, Richard Ramage, Sylvia Bailey, Barbara Brown, Frances Crump, Ernest Young, Milburn Keener.

Also Norma K. Singer, Charles Ramage, Kathy Bailey, Treva Matthews, Duane Nelson, Johnny Leonard, Oscar L. Tomlinson, H. W. Bradley, Gene Loman, Sandra Gray.

Also Dot Walters, Ethel Jean Tomlinson, Gene Cotton, Judy Bradley, and Vickie Boyles. When the group returned to the Methodist church they were served refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, and hot chocolate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Neel, Mrs. Robert Ramage, Mrs. Leon Leonard, and Rev. and Mrs. Cooper also were present. Mr. and Mrs. Neel are the sponsors of the MYF.

Mrs. R. D. Lolka visited in the home of her sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sladek last week.

Members of the Young Married People's Class of the Baptist Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caldwell for a Halloween social Monday night.

The group was led in several games and relays by Mrs. Tawana Hindman. Refreshments were served.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haire, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Heard, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tindal, Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Turner, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Hindman, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Crump attended services Sunday night in the First Baptist Church in Springlake. Rev. Milton Baldwin who is the cousin of Crump is the new pastor of that church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Foagley and children, Debbie and Sherill, Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reed and children visited in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Sunday.

Carl Reed and Carl Thompson went to Big Lake Tuesday to complete business on land which each of them have recently purchased.

Funeral services were conducted for Mr. H. R. Perry Monday afternoon in Waco. Perry passed away at his place of residence, Waco Saturday night. He was the father of Mrs. Ted Hutchins of this community.

Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Burkie and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Butler and children were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lindell Hall Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Durham entertained Thursday night with a birthday party in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Joy Hammock. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durham and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Goertz, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Milligan of Cotten Center, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarty, and Mr. and Mrs. ete Hammock and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fichardson, Charla and Rocky visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Walden and boys, Dean and Brad Friday night.

Mrs. J. M. Thomas from Littlefield visited last week in the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Walden and boys, Dean and Brad had a Sunday dinner in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geilach and Freddie, Littlefield.

The young people of the Church of Christ had fellowship in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Van derwey after church Sunday night. Those attending were Larry Stanley, Royce and Joyce Stanley, Judy and Peggy Gregson, David Jones, John Jackson, Pat Sy Wood, Diane and Billie Cook, Evonne Stubblefield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durham, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Musick and children.

Mrs. T. T. Harrison of Lubbock visited in the home of Mrs. Marie Davis over the weekend.

With 5,670 poll tax receipts and exemptions issued, this year's balloting is expected to be exceptionally heavy, barring bad weather.

No exemptions are required in this county for those above 60 years of age, and county officials said this number can add 1,000 more votes to the county's total to bring the possible balloting strength to nearly 7,000.

be meeting the needs of those refineries.

However this area is believed by soil experts to be ideal for production of sugar beets. In fact, the entire South Plains area is said to offer ideal growing conditions for sugar beets with the program now centered in Castro, Deaf Smith and Farmer counties in West Texas.

Considerable talk of building a sugar refinery somewhere in West Texas has been heard, and if such a possibility materializes, the sugar beet industry definitely would expand with doubtless thousands of acres in Lamb county converted to that crop.

All meetings so far, however, have been of the talk - it - over type and no definite action has been taken. In any case, it is likely that a "fairly large" acreage will be planted to beets next season as the refineries seek more and more raw products to keep their plants humming, now that Cuban sugar is off the market.

duction earlier in the season had been by the Texas Employment Service here which saw a possible 187,000 bale yield. That estimate, however, was made before late rains and hails had cut production.

Meantime, harvest of grain sorghums is 80 to 90 per cent complete with yields running from 6,000 to 7,000 pounds to the acre on irrigated land. On non-irrigated land, the yield is around 2,000 pounds.

The county's two cash crops—cotton and grain sorghum—both are producing well, although cotton is not expected to reach last year's 183,000 - bale record.

can liberate the Treasury from the burden of an impossible open commitment and a continuous misinvestment in more and more grain without doing harm to the farm community and all those who serve it. This disengagement from faulty legislation requires common sense, a warm heart, and a cool head. It requires an honest, businesslike approach and due respect for the basic institutions on which the American economy stands or falls and for the true stature of the farm business with its more than $200 billion productive assets.

"We have out-produced the Soviets many times over and have all the benefits of our productivity, but we cannot borrow from them a compulsory production system of total production control, which involves the cartelization of agriculture and step by step the cartelization of all farm supply industries, without ruining our prosperous farming system. There are two ways of becoming Sovietized: The hot process by conquest or subversion is one, the cold process by voluntary gradual assimilation of their institutions.

"Unfortunately we have in our midst too many self-styled friends of the farmers who know exactly what is good for other people and are yearning to wield just enough power to prescribe from some office desk the recipe for the social medicine the people have to swallow and the orders as to what they have to do or not do. For my taste there is too much affluency in telling the farmers and their suppliers what to do and telling the consumers what not to spend their money on.

"If we fall for giving these people too much leeway, they will go at it and try to take the competitiveness out of our agriculture and with it its creative dynamism. If I were farming right now I would be tempted to say in these coming weeks every now and then a silent prayer: Good Lord, protect me from my friends. Against my enemies I can defend myself."

"One American farmer produces food for himself and 24 others. A Soviet farmer produces enough for himself and four others."

"Indeed, it is one of the truly unique achievements of the American people, that here on our farms is an environment of freedom and private enterprise they have won the ultimate victory for all nations on this earth in man's battle against the scarcity of food, against hunger and malnutrition, so much so that today any nation can produce an abundance of food, provided its people understand what it takes to do it and are willing to make the proper effort."

IN A STRAW vote at the Lions Club Wednesday the Republicans came out in the lead with 22, the Democrats 8, the Constitution Party 5 and the Prohibition Party 1.

Our predictions came through a little better last week, hitting on 11 of the 13 tries — including the TCU upset of Baylor.

With courage restored, here is our choice of this week's games:

Texas Tech - Tulane — The Green Wave from New Orleans drowned the Raiders 17 - 7 last year and the Techsians were hurt by it — they won't forget it this weekend. On the Tulane side of the ledger, Rice was hard pressed to eke out a 10 - 7 win earlier in the season over the Louisiana crew while the Owls handled Tech easily 30 - 6 last week.

But the Raiders are at home on Dad's Day celebration and should take Tulane in a hard struggle led by Holub and the sophomore sensations, Johnny Lovelace and Coolidge Hunt. Tech 21, Tulane 14.

Sudan - Farwell — This game will decide the champion of district 3-A. Sudan has the advantage of the home field and have a slightly better record at stake than Farwell. The Hornets have lost one out of eight while Farwell has dropped two from the same number. It looks like Sudan and Hank Brown will take this one and get ready for bi-district play. Sudan 28, Farwell 18.

A Horseman Remembers

Rockne Was A Master Psychologist

By GEORGE ESPEL
SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — No matter where he goes or what he does, the memory of Knute Rockne lingers with Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen.

Rockne died 29 years ago in a plane crash in Kansas.

Crowley, 57, who now lives in Scranton and is a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, recalls how quickly the news spread.

"I was head coach at Michigan State. I had just returned to my office that afternoon from a civic club luncheon in Lansing, Mich.

"Phones in my office and several adjacent offices in the field house all started ringing at once. The calls all were for me. They were friends phoning to tell me a plane had crashed and Rockne was reported aboard.

"I was deeply shocked. Rockne was so great because of his dynamic personality and inspirational leadership."

Crowley never tires of telling stories illustrating Rockne's dynamic personality.

"Rockne was a great dressing room psychologist," he says. "He was a great orator and a great actor. He could make his lips tremble and get a lump in his throat at the right time.

"He always had some trick to fool you. When you figured you were on to him, he'd come up with something entirely different and you'd go for it.

"I remember one Saturday when we were playing a tough Army team. Before the game Rock said Army was going to kick us off their schedule but he saw no reason why they should kick us off the field.

"He said that since this was our last game with them he wanted us to win badly. We did handily.

"The next day there was very little in the newspapers about our wonderful exploits. The big story was that Rockne had signed a new five-year pact with West Point officials.

"The agreement was signed 10 a. m. Saturday and Rock probably had it in his pocket when he gave us that pep talk.

"I remember my sophomore year in 1922. We had nine sophomores on the first team and we were playing Georgia Tech, which was favored by some 30 points.

They hadn't lost a home game in several years.

"Rock came in the dressing room with a bunch of telegrams in his right hand from prominent alumni giving encouragement. He probably sent them himself collect.

"But he didn't talk too much about those. Rather he called attention to one telegram in his left hand which he said was from his son, Billy who was critically ill in a South Bend hospital.

"Then he got the lump in his throat and he read the telegram.

"I want Daddy's team to win," it said.

"We took a physical beating and made something like 20 goal line stands but we won 13 - 3.

"When we returned to South Bend there were about 10,000 fans to greet us and right up front was Billy Rockne looking as healthy as one of those children in a milk ad. And most of us were basket cases.

"But the best bit of psychology came a few years after I had graduated in the late 20s.

"You remember Joe Byrne, a friend of Rock's who now is a Newark, N. J. insurance executive.

"Well, this was before Notre Dame's game against the famous Southern California point-a-minute team which usually scored 50 to 60 points a game.

"Rock and Byrne were walking from hotel to Soldiers Field in Chicago and Rock was telling Byrne he was very much worried. He had racked his brain to come up with something to give the Irish the emotional lift they needed to win.

"Byrne suggested Rockne tell the squad this was his last game because eastern alumni were after his scalp.

"That's what Rock told the boys and they all started crying. So did Byrne. Then Rock shouted: 'Go out and win.'

"Notre Dame won and later Byrne asked Rockne what he was going to tell the boys Monday.

"Rockne's answer was: 'I am resigning unless I get a letter of apology from the eastern alumni.'

Tech Frosh Try WTS 'B' Team On Neutral Field

College football moves to Plainview Thursday, November 10, when an undefeated West Texas State B team takes on a Tech freshman unit that has yet to lose.

The contest, under the sponsorship of the Plainview Kiwanis Club, will get underway at 7:30 p. m. in Plainview's Bulldog Stadium. Proceeds will go to Kiwanis civic work.

Highlight of the game for Littlefield fans will be the appearance of Ronnie McWilliams, six-foot, 195-pound tackle who is an ex-Wildcat performer.

Other boys on the Tech team include three former arch rivals of McWilliams, now turned teammates. They are the sharp-throwing Doug Cannon, end Don Burch and center Guy Davis.

Other boys on the two teams represent Petersburg, Idalou, Brownfield, Hereford, Lockney and Floydada.

Just as the switch from high school to college combines talents of Levelland and Littlefield players, it also is breaking up a beautiful combination. Robert Foster, quarterback for the 1959 Sundown Roughnecks, is playing for Tech.

A lad that ate up ground for the Roughnecks, David McInTuriff, is playing with WTS. These two lads will meet as opponents for the first time.

WTS had wins over Hardin-Simmons and McMurry, while Tech has conquered Arkansas and the Air Force. If Tech beats NTSC this week, both teams will enter the Thursday contest at Plainview undefeated.

Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. All seats will be general admission.

Leaders Collide In Tech-Tulane Tilt Saturday

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech's game here Saturday with Tulane will give fans a chance to compare the top runners of two major conferences.

Fullback Coolidge Hunt of Lubbock paces Southwest Conference runners for Tech, and halfback Tommy Mason of Lake Charles La., leads the Southeastern Conference for the Green Wave.

Mason holds an edge over Hunt. He has gained 409 yards on 68 carries for a 6-yard average, while Hunt, running 91 times for 381 yards, is averaging 4.2 yards.

Coach Andy Pliney's team is considered the best to represent Tulane in several years. An idea of the Green Wave's strength is provided by the comparative scores against Rice University. Rice was lucky to beat Tulane 10-7 but ran over Tech 30-6 last week.

Also Tulane has beaten California and William and Mary, tied Alabama and lost a pair of close ones to Georgia Tech and Mississippi. Texas Tech has posted wins over West Texas State and Southern Methodist, tied Texas A & M, lost to Texas, Texas Christian, Baylor and Rice.

In their only previous meetings, Tulane beat Texas Tech 27-0 in 1958 and 17-7 last year.

Johnny Lovelace, the big sophomore from Farwell, is due to start for the Red Raiders at quarterback, since senior Glen Emerson of Munday is still limping with a knee injury suffered before the SMU game.

Following the Dad's Day contest at 2 p. m. here Saturday, the Raiders will play Wyoming Nov. 12 and Arkansas Nov. 19, both also in Jones Stadium.

Queens Schedule Basketball Clinic

PLAINVIEW — Ten outstanding West Texas girls basketball teams will play five games at the 1960 Flying Queens Basketball Clinic in Plainview, Nov. 12, according to Harley J. Redin, Wayland Athletic Director.

Chosen to participate in this year's clinic have been Bula, Sundown, Claude, Slaton, Friona, Abernathy, White Deer, Hawley, Tullia and Muleshoe.

Beginning after the morning lectures on high school offense and defense, the first game between Tullia and Hawley will begin at 3 p. m. Other contests scheduled are: Claude and Sundown, 4:30 p. m.; Bula and Muleshoe, 6 p. m.; Abernathy and White Deer, 7:30 p. m.; and Friona and Slaton 9 p. m.

Morning registration, beginning at 8 a. m. on the Wayland campus, precedes the lectures, which will be brought by outstanding college and high school coaches.

The clinic will feature before the afternoon contests a scrimmage between the Hutcherson Flying Queens of Wayland, five-time National AAU Champions, and the Wayland Queen Bees. The Flying Queens open their season Nov. 18 - 19, playing Platt Business College of St. Joseph, Mo in Plainview.

Lincoln Center Champions Life

By W. G. ROGERS
 NEW YORK (AP) - "What difference," I asked John D. Rockefeller III, "will New York's Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts make to the people in Chicago and Salina and Kalamazoo?"

Rockefeller, president of the general committee, and dedicated to this general idea ever since his father hoped to move the Metropolitan Opera to Rockefeller Center, said it amounted, outside New York, to "encouragement of cultural activities in local fields."

"Here is one indication of it," he went on. "Recently I was asked to speak in Winston-Salem, N. C. They wanted to hear me for just one subject: News about Lincoln Center. It is a plan that matters directly to them."

"Cultural Heart"
 At the ground-breaking ceremonies in May, New York's Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson believed the Center would "become the cultural heart of our country," and New York Mayor Robert Wagner was even more optimistic: It would turn his city "truly into the cultural capital of the world."

It will certainly attract tourists the year round, not only in season for the scheduled activities of the six principal members of the Center but also for supplementary programs in air-conditioned halls that are the newest in architecture and the most conveniently and comfortably equipped and centrally located.

It will also attract attention not only in smaller American cities but in the capitals of Europe, and in Moscow. It promises to become the essential, tangible symbol of the intensity of American devotion to the higher things of life. When somebody accuses us of thinking of nothing but money, we can answer: "Lincoln Center proves you're wrong."

Covers 12 Acres
 Americans are having to think a great deal about money, and a great deal of money, too, in order to finance the 12-acre project that noses into Broadway at 6th and 6th streets. They have collected 47 million dollars, of which almost 28 million comes from 16 different foundations. Next year there will be an intensive campaign for public support.

Most expensive single building, as well as largest and most elaborate, will be the Metropolitan Opera House; original estimate of its cost was $24,500,000; runner-up is Philharmonic Hall, $8,500,000. But since those figures were computed, costs have risen; the Philharmonic Hall for instance will now run to $1,350,000 more, and presumably the Opera House in proportion.

What It Will Include
 The Center will include, besides the Metropolitan and the Philharmonic, the Juilliard School and dormitory, a repertory theater, a theater for the dance and operetta, and a library museum as an extension of the New York Public Library. Fordham University will face the Center; a shell for hand is planned, and also a high school of performing arts. There will be room for parking 750 cars underground; all the buildings can be reached by car underground, and on foot underground from the 60th St. and Broadway subway station.

Chief architect is the firm of Harrison and Abramovitz. Wallace K. Harrison is architect of the Opera House, and Max Abramovitz, of the Philharmonic Hall. Among consultants are Alvar Aalto of Finland and the Americans Marcel Breuer and Henry R. Shelpy.

Philharmonic Hall, which will seat 2,400, the maximum recommended by acoustical engineers, should be ready in 1961. First of all the buildings; construction has already started. The Metropolitan will seat 3,800.

In a recently issued progress report, Rockefeller noted, "In city after city, arts centers are flourishing, or are being planned and built. Lincoln Center is a part of this national movement; it is our city's and our nation's response to a present need."

The Center's president continued: "Lincoln Center conception has been a matter of faith, of faith in the performing arts, of faith in the need of the American people for faith in the ability of the arts to represent the important arts to all of us."

For the third time in took office, President Eisenhower signed a bill with press and reel cameras covering this. This one was the money allowed the Treasury interest rates on E and H bought since June 1, 1960 per cent.

Exposed ceilings of the beam construction saw labor and materials of building materials. Exposed wall of grain and texture.

You can seat more people small room by building a banquet seat along a wall.

community-wide appeal is based on the needs of half a dozen eminently worthy groups that operate for the benefit of the entire locality.

It's the European custom, and has been the Americans, to spread cultural buildings all over the map. The visitors to Paris, for instance, finds much of his pleasure there is due to the dispersion of the historic monuments, museums, opera houses and theaters he wants to enjoy.

They have been dispersed that way here in fact, but they had found it necessary to move. Some had their quarters sold out from under them, some had quarters inadequate for their purposes, some were crowded by the growing city.

The American music "conservatory" may prefer opera for sentimental reasons in the glamorous old house at 39th and Broadway. But for all its splendid traditions, its gold curtain and diamond horsehoe, it has not anywhere near enough backstage room, and can't dig down for more because it is blocked by a subway - put in years after the Met began functioning. Carnegie Hall's owners want to sell and get the financial return that 7th Ave. and 57th St. corner can collect better from offices than from orchestra.

Harvest Festival Features Politics, Spooks and Royalty

AMHERST — Politics, Halloween and royalty were combined in the Harvest Festival program Monday night under the direction of Mrs. Clois Tomes.

Charles Collins was "Chairman of the Amherstocratic Convention" and Billie R. Perkins was "clerk."

Cindy Crosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Crosby, was crowned queen and Doug Cummings, her escort, was crowned King. They are first graders.

Mrs. Clarence Black was chairman of the foods committee and Mrs. Laverne Nicholson was in charge of the spook parade, held at 6 o'clock.

Approximately $1,000 was the proceeds for the festival. Sponsored by the Amherst P-T-A. Mrs. Leroy Maxfield is president.

Mrs. R. C. Davis entertained with a party at 9:30 a. m. Saturday to celebrate her daughter JoAnn's third birthday.

Caps and whistles were favors and cake was the feature of the refreshments.

Those attending were Debbie, Pamela and Craig Holland, Beth Duffy, Charlotte Crawford, Cecilia, Susie and R. C. Davis, Jr.

Candidates for Harvest Queen sponsored by the P-T-A, were First grade, Cindy Crosby, escort Douglas Cummings; Second grade, Patty Ratliff, escort, Larry Edwards.

Third grade, Christi Batson, escort, Larry Black; fourth grade, Jeannie Fleming, escort, Royce McAdams, and sixth grade, Debbie Eady, escort Tommy Kelton.

Sixth grade, Faustine Greener, escort, Rocky Carpenter. Seventh grade, Judy Carter, escort Mickey Young, eighth grade, Nancy Carter, escort Stanley Simmons; ninth grade, Poni Kay Phillips, escort, Rocky Carpenter, Seventh grade, Gary Sherill; 11th grade, Carol Young, escort, James Breshers; 12th grade, Marilyn Nix, escort, Douglas McMillen.

Guests in the James Holland home are Rev. and Mrs. Weldon Langley and daughter, Ann, Beaumont. He is director of religious activities in the Baptist Hospital there. They with Mr. and Mrs. Holland will attend the Baptist General Convention of Texas held in Lubbock beginning Monday night.

A Monday guest of Mrs. Geo. Harmon was Mrs. Katherine Allred, Littlefield.

S. P. Bass, Hereford, was an Amherst visitor Saturday. His grandsons A. L. and Porter Nuttall are spending some time here, employed in the harvest. They are from South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Yarbrough were in Richardson several days, guests of their daughter, Mrs. Joe Simpson and family.

Guests last week in the Dave Black home were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Art Wilson and her sister's daughter, Mrs. Maggie Frazier, Albuquerque, N. M.

DINING ROOM: The dining table set up like a little island helps to separate living area. The pine hutch is against wall. Some window shades pull from one from bottom up.

Spun Circles Create Coziness Combined Living-Dining Room

BROWN living-dining room she decorated with handsome 18th Century wing chairs with quilted Indian print upholstery, a blend of blue greens and pomegranate to pale orange on a mistletoe green background. Hooked rugs pick up the fabric colors and are used with a cork patterned vinyl tile on the floor.

The dining area should not be sandwiched in "at blank walls" she stresses. "There are delightful murals and handsome wall papers available to perk up the dining area whether it is part of another room or whether dining is the main point of the room. Avoid static effects in the dining area."

Miss Flynn is a booster of window shades, now brought up to date in lovely colors and textures. On three windows which opened for ventilation, she hung the shades in the usual way at the top of the window. But on the other windows, which are stationary, she installed the shades at the window sill, so that nylon cords pull the shades up to any desired height. Each is held in place by a cleat at the side of the window. This bottom-up installation provides privacy while admitting light. She used window shades in Jonquil Yellow and muted tones of green.

This living-dining room was large apartment furnished in Early American style.

COTTON ON WHEELS—Much of Lamb county's cotton crop is going to market via the cotton stripper with some reports running as high as 1.4 bales to the acre. A slight freeze Sunday night hastened the opening of cotton and made conditions "just right" for harvest. Another picture is on Page 1. (STAFF PHOTO)

HAND PULLERS . . . are busy pulling cotton at the W. J. Foley farm just north of Littlefield. Foley reports that he has received no grades back since the rains came, but felt that the hand pulled cotton would bring better than 30c. (STAFF PHOTO)

SEE! THE GREATEST SHOW ON WORTH!

A new 2-Door Sedan joins the luxurious Impala. Door openings measure as much as 6 inches wider.

MEASURABLY NEW, IMMEASURABLY NICE! '61 CHEVY Open the door to a whole new measure of your money's worth! There's more entrance space in this '61 to make getting in and out easier. More rear foot room for the man in the middle. Seats that are as much as 14% higher—just right for sitting, just right for seeing. A tremendously spacious new kind of deep-well trunk that opens at bumper level for easy, short-lift loading. But look—there's actually less outer space, leaving extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering! Neat trick? Bless our ingenious designers and engineers. They've shaped spacious dimensions, proved performance, thrift and dependability into the most sensationally sensible car you could buy. It's waiting for you at your Chevrolet dealer's right now.

Biscayne 2-Door Sedan. That solid body by Fisher sensibly shaped clear back to its easier loading trunk. (The floor's recessed a full 7" to hold things that have never been inside a trunk before!)

9-Passenger Station Wagon. One of 6 easier loading Chevy wagons. All feature a new concealed compartment under the floor. And there are 4 new Chevy Corvair wagons, too.

- * Now! Big-car comfort at small-car prices *
- * '61 CHEVY BISCAYNE 6 *
- * the lowest priced full-sized Chevrolet! *
- * Who says you have to do without big-car style, space and comfort just because you may be on a budget? Look over our '61 Biscaynes—6 or V8. You get Chevrolet quality, performance, roominess, the works, at a price that's competitive with cars that give you a whole lot less! *

WANTED BY THE FBI

SMITH GERALD HUDSON

One of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives," Hudson is sought for his August 2, 1957, escape from the Pennsylvania State Penitentiary where he was serving a 10- to 20-year term for the brutal 1951 shotgun slaying of a Pennsylvania man. A Federal complaint charging Hudson with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for murder was issued on August 26, 1957, at Scranton, Pa.

Hudson is a white American, born at Rostover, Pa., on March 1, 1928. Approximately 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighing about 183 pounds, he has brown hair, blue eyes, a medium complexion, and a medium-stocky build. He has a 1 1/2-inch linear scar on the first joint of his left thumb, a 1/2-inch scar on the outer edge of his left eyebrow, and an appendectomy scar.

He has worked as a coal miner, farmer, laborer, and truckdriver and likes most sports, particularly swimming. Previously convicted of interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle, murder in the second degree, and involuntary manslaughter, he is regarded as belligerent and often violent when drinking to excess. He is considered armed and extremely dangerous and capable of killing without hesitation.

Anyone receiving information concerning the whereabouts of this fugitive should immediately notify the nearest FBI office, the telephone number of which can be found on the first page of local telephone directories.

Views From Pleasant Valley
by MRS. JHON WEST

PLEASANT VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allison, Kenneth Precure and Mrs. Gil Lamb of Muleshoe went to Littlefield last Wednesday afternoon to hear former Gov. Allan Shivers, speak. Harold Allison, a Pleasant Valley farmer, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. John West, Mrs. J. H. Angeley, Mrs. Floyd Wheeler, went to Lubbock last Friday where Mrs. Wheeler left by plane for her home in San Diego Calif., after an extended visit with her niece, and other relatives.

Mrs. Bonnie Haberer was confined to bed last week.

Mrs. B. J. West returned to her home in Hagerman, N. M. last Saturday after an extended visit with her nieces, Mrs. Oscar Allison and Mrs. Harold Allison.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Osborne and children of Lovington, N. M., spent the weekend with the Harold and Oscar Allisons.

Sherry Turner spent the weekend in Lubbock with her brothers, Allan and Royce Turner and their families.

Mrs. Bonnie Haberer substituted for the Math teacher at Springlake schools last Monday.

Spade Schools Hold Carnival

The annual Halloween carnival was held in the Spade school gymnasium Friday night. A large crowd attended the carnival and enjoyed the booths and shows and popcorn, and hot dogs that the students and the parents and teachers had prepared.

Each grade from the first to the last had a booth of its own. The first grade had atrampolene; the second, a fish pond; the third, a country store and also a horse-show throw; the fourth, a baseball throw; the fifth, a grab bag; the sixth, a special show, "The Land of Paradise," the seventh a basketball throw; the eighth, a men's style and fortune telling; the ninth, a wet sponge throw; the tenth, a spook house, the eleventh a shooting gallery; the twelfth, a cake walk.

The crowd seemed quite a surprised to see what lovely models some of the fathers made and quite a disappointment to see a "pair of Dice in the land of Paradise Show."

The proceeds from the carnival will be divided between the classes and the athletic fund to be used to best help the school.

New designs of wood schools in heavy timber construction have brought insurance rate reductions of up to 50 per cent in Florida, South Carolina, Alabama and Georgia.

Press Association Plans U.S. Bond Sale Campaign

Newspapers throughout the state will launch a Texas Press Association one-month promotion designed to help sell $2 million more in United States savings bonds in December. Forrest Weimhold, contest chairman for TPA, said that the campaign is designed to call attention to the "many improvements made in series E and H savings bonds in the past seven months."

Weimhold explained that the goal of $2 million additional purchases in the state will be for the month of December. In December 1959, Texans bought $13,482,290. The goal for December, 1960, is a minimum of $15,482,290. This would call for an increase of at least 15 per cent in each local community.

The TPA promotion is scheduled for November, 1960. Weimhold pointed out that the greatest effect of the promotion should be felt in December. This will be measured in the sales report for the month of December released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas around January 12, 1961.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Many a deer may survive the Texas hunting season because the hunter died first.

According to the State Health Department, there were 181 accidental deaths in Texas, attributed to firearms in 1958. Last year the number increased to 198.

November is the month when hunting starts in earnest. Normally sane men will start blasting away at one another, on deer leases, or contrive intricate methods of suicide such as climbing over barbed-wire fences with their rifles off safety.

Firearms are not the only threat. Health officials point out that a good many hunters slip and fall over precipices, while gazing off into the distance. Others never get to the lease because they combine a few warming drinks with a fast drive through the pre-dawn chill.

Texas Game and Fish Commission offers these rules for hunting safety:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.
2. Always unload and take down guns carried into home or camp.
3. Keep guns clean and be sure to have the right size ammunition.
4. Carry gun so you can control the muzzle, even if you fall.
5. Be sure of your target before you fire.
6. Avoid all horseplay.
7. Keep guns out of reach of children.
8. Never climb a tree or jump a ditch while carrying a gun.
9. Never shoot at a flat surface.
10. Take no alcoholic drinks before or during shooting.

Insurance Hike Asked — A 2.6 per cent increase in workmen's compensation insurance rates has been recommended to the State Board of Insurance.

State Insurance department statisticians said that the rate increase was needed because of the increased cost of individual claims, rather than an increase in the number of claims.

It would up by $3,000,000 a year the $112,000,000 a year paid by Texas employers for on-the-job insurance of workers.

Crop Dusting Damage Upheld — A landowner is liable for damages caused to neighboring farms by crop dusting activities, the State Supreme Court ruled.

Defendant in the case was the Pitchfork Land and Cattle Company which was sued by a group of King County landowners. Suit also was brought against the aerial spraying firm hired by the land company.

Pitchfork Company contended that the spraying firm was solely responsible for any damages, but the high court held the land company responsible too.

Water Pollution Ruling — In another case involving landowner rights, the Austin court of Civil Appeals upheld a lower court decision awarding damages from salt water pollution.

A Runnel's county woman, owner of a 150-acre farm, claimed her fresh water supply had been polluted by salt water discarded by a drilling firm during oil exploration efforts.

District court found the drilling firm negligent in not having sealed the pits in which it discarded the salt water. It awarded the landowner $3,000 in damages.

Pickle Named to TEC — J. J. (Jake) Pickle, Austin public relations man, has been appointed by Gov. Pierce Daniel, to succeed Maurice Acers as employer representative on the Texas Employment Commission.

Acers' term expires Nov. 21, but he will remain in office, at the governor's request, until Jan. 1, 1961.

Pickle has had a background role in the state's major political events of the past decade. He was the State Democratic Committee for four years, has worked at one time as Governor Daniel's press secretary, and as Governor Shivers' executive secretary.

Acers, an attorney, FBI agent, was appointed by Governor Shivers as Shivers' executive secretary of the governor's office.

Club Rules Bar — After listening to a report at a hearing on regulations of private State Liquor Commission to re-study the rules which may be made some changes.

Administrator Calson Jr., indicated the rules would probably be the same.

Representatives of clubs called some of the rules unreasonable, claiming a club to be three years old before liquor selling permit would be issued. They would workable guidelines.

Short Shorts — The Civil Appeals court of the Social Security for the benefit of State Securities Board that state permits to offer $21,621.54 were issued in September of 1959. It is an issue of $1,000,000 over security in August and September of 1959. The $3,835,400 in security was issued for September. The Criminal Appeals decision in which was fined $300 for a dry area because of the case the state tried to prove that the scene of the event... county.

Deficit in the revenue fund was in two weeks, many in-the-red figure for James. State Department will open Nov. 9 and 10 in construction work ways. Low bids an total of $1,200,000.

I BELIEVE that all forms of business and labor should operate under anti-monopoly laws. No one group should be provided special protection by the government. Labor and management should have the right to bargain without government interference.

I BELIEVE in order to protect our system of freedom we must not only be strong in the military but also strong in our belief in the American Way of Life. Our enemies from within are complacency, centralization of government and individual irresponsibility.

I BELIEVE that people in government should realize that the American taxpayer's money does not grow on trees; therefore, economy and thrift should be exercised in all areas of government.

For example, the Texas Department of Criminal Justice can deny mailing to one who promotes crimes through the use of it. In 1957, the post office the "obscene" mail through.

The same is true of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. Yet neither the state nor the federal government has any power to prevent material which is obscene. At a hearing, the "obscene" mail may deny that it is obscene, and it may be mailed.

Because the Constitution tests our free press, it is in the long run it is to try a wrongdoer. Courts are slow to get one from sending out upon a finding by a jury who may abuse the law.

So a court may not be the office's finding that a scene. For example, the office recently forbade to mail out a letter to a federal court office after the judge of the novel's whole theme. SUDAN NEWS by Mrs. Evelyn Scott

Muleshoe Man Selected Sudan Ex-Student Prexy

Jack Lenderson, Muleshoe, was named president of the Ex-student organization of Sudan schools at the annual reunion staged Saturday evening in the school cafeteria.

Other officers elected included Hoyt Robertson, vice president; Lucy Kent, secretary.

Approximately 175 were present for the event honoring the classes of 1932 and 33.

Those attending from the class of 32 included Jimmie DeLoach, Edward Lubbock; Alvin Webb, Littlefield; Mrs. Burrell Wingo, Muleshoe; Murrell May.

From the class of '33 were Mary Luttrell Skate, Amarillo; Waymon Gordon, Sudan; Eldon Nichols, Sudan; Edgar White, Sudan; Charley Carruth, Andrews; Doyle Baccus, Littlefield; Frances Brewster Rone; Olan Roark; Ethel Beale.

A musical program was presented by the Everett George trio of Lubbock. During the recognition services Willard Dykes of Boise, Idaho was recognized as coming the greatest distance.

Other activities of the evening included a supper served by the band parents organization.

Ronald Bellamy of the senior class was guest speaker last week to members of the eighth grade class of Mrs. Edgar Chance, when he spoke and showed films on the United Nations.

Ronald gave interesting information he secured while making a three weeks tour last summer. The talk was in observance of United Nations Week.

The home of Mrs. Edward Gaston was the scene for a bridge luncheon last Thursday when Mrs. Adrian Martin served as co-hostess.

Guests present for the occasion included Mmes. W. E. Hancock, Tom King, W. V. Terry, Ray Wood, Johnny Thomason, W. O. Eddins, F. M. Smith, Glenn Gatewood, E. E. Crow, Bob Drake, Kenneth Burgess, E. C. Minyard, R. S. Gatewood, J. W. Miller, Frank Lane, Wayne Whiteaker.

The J. T. Lybrands, Grand Prairie, former Sudan residents, visited friends in Sudan Sunday.

Mrs. Marvin Tollett and son and Miss Esther James were in Midland over the weekend to visit in the home of the Ray Shufers. Making the trip with them and also visiting relatives was

Senior Selected As Whitharral Football Queen

WHITHARRAL — Ann Sexton, high school senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sexton, was crowned football queen Friday evening at the half-time activities of the Whitharral - Meadow game here. Whitharral won 20-12.

The pep squad formed an "X" for the exes then returned to a lane through which the candidates entered. The candidates, Miss Sexton, Miss Marvalynne Durham, a junior, Miss Peggy Dickerson, sophomore and Miss Laverne Smart, freshman, entered the field from the southwest corner in a convertible driven by Supt. J. W. Bowman.

They were met in front of the pep squad by senior boys of the team who escorted them to the center of the field; Charles Denny escorted Miss Sexton; Milton Marrow, Miss Durham; Don Stafford, Miss Dickerson; Ronnie Bryant, Miss Smart.

Terry Sires crowned Miss Sexton queen and presented her with a dozen red roses. After a ride around the field the queen was escorted to her chair on the sidelines where she and her attendant reigned for the evening.

Safflower Tests At High Plains Show Promise

Seven varieties of safflower were tested at the High Plains Research Foundation during 1960 in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The yields ranged from 285.12 to 589.19 pounds of seed per acre. The high yield was produced by the N-4651 variety.

These varieties were planted on March 19. Each received two irrigations of 2 inches on April 6 and May 20. There were 20.42 inches of rainfall during the growing period. A fertilizer application at the

The one '61 car built to back up a long-term warranty

Ford led the way with the one car beautifully built to take care of itself . . . and you

On September 29, Ford Dealers set an industry trend—were first to extend their 1961 car warranty from the conventional 4,000 miles or 3 months to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first.

Why? Because Ford built the one car to support such confidence. Ford for 1961 is the one car beautifully built to take care of itself!

The '61 Ford was designed and built to the more exacting standards necessary to offer an extended warranty. Ask to see this warranty at your dealer's.

It is significant that Ford has so many take-care-of-itself features not found in other cars, regardless of price. These new Ford features are a triumph of exhaustive research, fine engineering, and quality construction that give you the most reliable Ford ever built. Drive a '61 Ford soon.

HERE'S HOW THE '61 FORD TAKES CARE OF ITSELF
Lubricates itself—You'll normally go 30,000 miles without changing lubrications. Then a quick, inexpensive Ford Dealer lube job (which costs about $4.00*) will get you set for another 30,000 miles.

LIPSTICK LOGIC

As Cuba's crisis comes to a boil, we Americans are shoeing in our custom-made shoes. Normally preoccupied with cars and calories, kitchen conveniences and clothes, we tend to look the other way when something unpleasant shows up on the world front.

But this time Mr. K. is cutting his brew right in our doorway. Now everyone wonders anxiously what to do. While Cuba's boiling pot may explode within its own boundaries before it reaches us, the dangers of its spreading to other Latin countries is a thing we must face.

There's hardly a person but would be willing to help with our southern neighbors if he knew exactly what his job should be. If someone in authority would say: "Mr. C, sign up 20 leading citizens for a Spanish course — quick — and get to work on Latin American relations in your own hometown." "Mrs. B., you've traveled a lot; why don't you compile a guide to good manners for American tourists in other lands?"

But democracy isn't run that way. Nor is it possible for one person, however wise, to know the abilities and talents of 177 million Americans so he can tell each just how best to serve in crisis.

Threats to our much-loved freedom have been rare in the past; so rare, in fact, that we can hardly believe anyone wants to hurt us. Because we feel friendly toward other countries, our compliance has been understandable. But warned as we are now, we had best wake up before it's too late.

Panic is no solution in any crisis. But panic comes from not recognizing our problems. If each of us begins at once to do what we can, within the circle of our own environment, it will help preserve the freedom we love.

Halloween Party Highlights Witch

AMHERST — Members of the seventh grade were entertained with a Halloween party in the C. A. Duffy Jr.'s barn Saturday night. It was decorated for Halloween.

"A trail of horror" and fortune telling by "Madame La Zonga," and games featured the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stagner and Mr. and Mrs. Duffy formed the committee for the party.

Witches' brew and other refreshments were served in keeping with Halloween.

Grade school principal H. R. Harvey and several other parents beside the committee attended.

The Kelson Doty family, Lubbock, visited Sunday in the home of his mother, Mrs. Homer Doty.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewain Farrish and daughter, Midland, visited during the weekend in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Parrish and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Woolver.

On September 6, 1947, a V-2 rocket was successfully launched from the aircraft carrier MIDWAY. This was the first shipboard firing of a V-2.

On September 7, 1776, the first submarine, the AMERICAN TURBINE, was used by the British ship EAGLE in New York Harbor with a "time bomb." An explosion resulted but no serious damage was done.

The ricksha used in the Orient today was invented by Jonathan Gable, a U. S. Marine who visited Japan with Perry in 1854.

Do You Really Understand The Bible

Many people maintain that the Bible is so simple that anyone can understand it. Yet today the Bible is divided into conflicting opinions as to what it means.

How would you interpret the following passage from the Bible: "I say to thee, thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matthew XVI, 18ff). "For, behold, the generations shall call Me blessed." (Luke I, 48). "Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John XX, 23). "He who believes and is baptized shall be saved." (Mark XVI, 16).

Catholics recognize the complete Bible as the Word of God. BIG CHANGE to modern, clean ELECTRIC COOKING!

Yes, I made the big change to electric cooking and it's easy to see why. Now my pots and pans stay shiny bright even after my meals have been cooked. And the cleanliness is just one of the advantages of cooking electrically, it's fast and economical too!

So you see, it wasn't a Republican administration in 1931 and 1932, even with a Republican serving as president.

Mr. Rayburn has had much to say over the last 20 years about 5-cent cotton under the Hoover administration. Let's see what the record says.

In 1930, the last year this country had a Republican House and Senate and President, cotton sold in Whitewright the first week in September at 19 1/2 cents per pound, and cottonseed at $27 per ton, according to the record as published in The Sun.

In September, 1931, six months after the Republicans lost control of Congress, cotton sold at Whitewright at 62 cents a pound and cottonseed at $10 per ton.

In September, 1932, still under the Democratic - controlled Congress, cotton sold in Whitewright at 7 cents per pound and cottonseed at $10.50 per ton.

In 1933 the Democrats also took over the Presidency.

On Sept. 7, 1939, six years after Roosevelt became President and gave the nation the New Deal, Whitewright had ginned 2,085 bales of cotton, and buyers were paying 8 1/4 cents per pound for cotton and $16 per ton for seed. The Sun of that date quoted other farm product prices in Whitewright as follows: Corn, 50 cents per bushel, and oats, 35 cents per bushel.

So eight years after the Republicans lost control of Congress and six years after a Democrat became President, cotton and cottonseed prices in Whitewright were less than they were the last year under a full Republican administration, 1930.

All of which leads up to the fact that in spite of all the New Deal could do after six years, it took World War II to restore prosperity and it took the Korean War and preparations for World War III to maintain it.

If Mr. Rayburn or anybody else tells you otherwise, he is only trying to fool you. If this war and preparations for war go on indefinitely, this false prosperity will also go on indefinitely.

And that is the real present economic status of Texas and the rest of the nation: A false prosperity paid for with the blood and sacrifices of our fighting men and a mortgage on the earnings of this and future generations.

Thank You,
Local farmer's wife

Dear Editor:

Having been a lay member of Baptist churches in several parts of Texas during the past 25 years, I am convinced that most Baptists believe in Democracy. Why should we allow a few "spokesmen" to inject our good name into partisan politics?

We Baptists are not Anti-Catholic and should call attention to the really legitimate issue - separation of Church and State.

Senator Kennedy at Houston repeated his clear-cut stand "for" separation of Church and State. Have we any right to expect him to pressure his church leaders to agree with him? Would we ask Mr. Nixon to get the Quakers to sign pledges to bear arms since many of them have been conscientious objectors in past wars?

Ambassador Lodge believes in federal aid to parochial schools. Shall we ignore this clear breach of the separation of Church and State principle found in our Constitution? Mr. Nixon's "vague, evasive and ambiguous" telegram to the Texas Baptist Standard leaves us in doubt as to whether he has "any real convictions" in this vital area and he has not disclaimed Ambassador Lodge's rather startling statements.

In his 25 years of patriotic service to Texas and the United States, Senator Johnson has demonstrated repeatedly his belief in separation of Church and State. His democratic plan to assist worthy students to get individual loans for their college expenses is clearly constitutional.

We Baptists must not let our churches be embroiled in this campaign and it is only fair that every messenger to the Texas Baptist General Convention in Lubbock October 31 - November 2 should consult with his fellow church members before he commits us on any "political" questions. We jeopardize our tax-exempt status if we allow political minded persons to entangle us in their activities. We want no part of the "hate" groups which are bringing out ugly Anti-Catholic and "soft on Communism" tracts. We Baptists must make our position clear - may all of our consciences be clear as we pray "Thy will be done."

H. K. Shackelford,
Rt. 3, Austin.

The State's three top elective officials, Governor Price Daniel, Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey and Attorney General Will Wilson, this week urged a vote for Constitutional Amendment No. 4 on the November 8th ballot.

In a joint statement, the three officials stressed the importance of Amendment No. 4 which will help eliminate loan shark operations in Texas.

In outlining background of the important amendment, Governor Daniel said, "The Legislative Council, after numerous public hearings and exhaustive study, recommended to the 56th Legislature a resolution submitting to the vote of the people Constitutional Amendment No. 4, vesting in the Legislature the right to regulate small loans in Texas. It was adopted by an overwhelming vote."

"Based upon these facts and actions, I urge support of Constitutional Amendment No. 4."

Lieutenant Governor Ramsey urged passage of Amendment No. 4 "because loan sharks are a blot on the fair name of Texas." He pointed out, "We are called the Loan Shark State because of the lack of adequate small loan laws which allows loan sharks to roam free."

Lieutenant Governor Ramsey said that adoption of Constitutional Amendment No. 4 will make it possible for the Legislature to pass laws to "oust loan sharks from Texas."

Attorney General Wilson noted that "loan sharks are exploiting our working people and hurting the entire state." He warned that effective law enforcement against shady operations of loan sharks will only be possible if Amendment No. 4 is adopted by the people on the November 8th ballot.

"I hope every Texan will vote on Nov. 4," Wilson said.

The state officials pointed out that Constitutional Amendment No. 4 is non-partisan and has the overwhelming support of business, civic, labor, farm and trade organizations throughout the state and deserves the support of every voter on November 8th.

THE CHRISTMAS season is upon us — smack upon us, in fact, and that means it's time to start thinking about Christmas gifts here at the first sign of frost on the pumpkin. The Christmas shopping season nowadays starts two days after Labor Day and lasts until a week before Christmas. They've jazzed up the "shop early" slogan so much nowadays that Christmas is all over a week before it actually gets here, and the store that does not start putting out its Christmas merchandise at the same time it puts away its bathing suits and portable wading pools is obsolete.

Of course, I am so old I can remember when the Christmas shopping season started on December 20, and never was there even a suggestion of Christmas before Thanksgiving day. But all that's changed now. Christmas begins the day after Labor Day.

AND THE special Christmas catalogues start arriving earlier each year. I guess pretty soon they'll start putting them out at the Fourth of July picnics.

Already I've seen several Christmas catalogues. One such catalogue that landed on my desk last week is the catalogue that made the national TV news network with its "his" and "her" airplanes. Put out by Dallas' most famous store, the "Christmas Book," as it's called, shows full color pictures of the "his" and "her" models. Apparently the book came out early so folks could start saving their change now to put into such gifts.

"His" airplane is rather expensive — $189,000, to be exact. But hers can be bought for a mere $27,000. Of course that's fly start thinking about Christmas away" cost so you gotta add the gifts here at the first sign of cost to get from wherever you frost on the pumpkin. Colorful Brochure Presents Texas' Tourist Attractions

AUSTIN —The release of a full-color, 32-page travel brochure on the State of Texas was announced today by the Texas Highway Department.

D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, said the new brochure is specifically designed for free distribution to attract out-of-state tourists. First of its kind ever published in Texas, it is intended to serve as a showcase of Texas' scenic, historic, recreational and cultural attractions.

Greer described the colorful brochure, which covers the entire state geographically, as "another milestone in the travel promotion program conducted by the Highway Department."

He said the next step in this program is the submission of a media advertising budget to the Texas Legislature, which meets in January. The Highway Department has asked, with the concurrence of the Texas Development Board, for an appropriation of $300,000 a year for the next two years to advertise the tourist attractions of Texas.

"The media advertising program," Greer said, "is a necessity to halt the appalling downward trend of the Texas tourist industry. The amount we will ask for media advertising ($300,000 a year) is the minimum required to slow up her rapid decline in tourist revenue which Texas now faces."

Greer reviewed the progress made in establishing a tourist promotion program in Texas. He noted that in the past Texas had been unable to compete for tourists by advertising because it was prohibited by the state constitution. A constitutional amendment was approved by popular vote in 1958 allowing the advertisement of the state's tourist resources.

The Texas Legislature in 1959 set up the legal machinery authorizing state media advertising and delegating the responsibility for this program to the Texas Highway Department. Senate Bill 152 stated that funds for media advertising must come from the General Fund, but no money was made available in 1959 for what you're going to give the little woman and vice-versa.

I could list a number of other items but I gotta quit writing this column and get busy with my order. Now which one of those furs do you suppose the missus you better begin to think about?

to go that high, the catalogue of this Dallas firm can sell you little sapphire earrings for a marked-down price of $18,750. There's a right cozy little ruby eclip that they are letting folks have for only $16,500, or you can get the little woman a diamond bracelet for only $19,500.

But the number that really got me was a little "empress chinchilla at home" coat. It's built along rather skimpy lines — without sleeves and with a low neckline.

APPARENTLY this little number is just something to wear around the house on chilly mornings when the little woman forgets to chop enough wood for the stove.

Because this is the sort of thing that the housewife wears over her lounging pajamas. Just think how handy it would be for the irrigation farmer's wife. When the farmer had to go to town early some morning and did not have time to set the winter wheat sprinklers before he left, the little woman could slip into this little "empress chinchilla at home" outfit and go out and move the pipes and sprinklers into place without having first to put her on overalls.

It's light weight as chinchilla always is, and it wouldn't be bulky while she's heaving the pipes around. After all this little abbreviated coat is only $7,900, including tax.

OF COURSE if you want to get your wife something fairly nifty and more dressy in the way of furs, there are two pages of them. There's a nice little ranch mink from Denmark about which the books says: "The coat is all news; it's less than dress length, its low pockets gracefully curved neckline." And it's yours to put under the Christmas tree for only $3,750. A steal isn't it?

There's a nice little wrap around Russian sable that would keep the missus' neck from getting cold on chilly mornings. It's only $1,695. Or there's a slightly skimpier chinchilla for only $1,500.

Of course if you don't want to spend a lot, this Dallas Christmas book offers a little gold lipstick holder with a watch built in. That is only $225. Or you can get her a gold pen-pencil set for $35. Or a little pocket lighter that has a watch built in for only $225.

OF COURSE there are a lot of cheaper items in the book, too. The little hackabout sport shirt for a man for only $27.50, but it all goes to show you that it's getting close to Christmas and furs do you suppose the missus you better begin to think about?

THE PICTURE shows the man and lasts until a week before Christmas. They've jazzed up the "shop early" slogan so much nowadays that Christmas is all over a week before it actually gets here, and the store that does not start putting out its Christmas merchandise at the same time it puts away its bathing suits and portable wading pools is obsolete.

Of course, I am so old I can remember when the Christmas shopping season started on December 20, and never was there even a suggestion of Christmas before Thanksgiving day. But all that's changed now. Christmas begins the day after Labor Day.

AND THE special Christmas catalogues start arriving earlier each year. I guess pretty soon they'll start putting them out at the Fourth of July picnics.

Already I've seen several Christmas catalogues. One such catalogue that landed on my desk last week is the catalogue that made the national TV news network with its "his" and "her" airplanes. Sandhills Philosopher

Elections Will Find Leader But Won't Solve Debates

Editor's Note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has his mind on the election, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: With the election only a few days away, naturally there's a lot of talk about it up and down the streets in town and out here in the country too.

A bunch of us were talking politics yesterday afternoon and one of my neighbors said he'd be glad when the election is over and done with as he'd had enough of all this debating and arguing. "Tears the country up too much," he said. "Be glad when we get a new President elected and we can settle back down to normal. Maybe all this criticizing and fussing back and forth will stop."

He's right in a way, but not altogether. I'll admit the campaign does unsettle things, brings out all the prejudices in other people's minds, messes up your television schedule, etc., and I have a notion that whoever gets elected, the country will fall in line behind him and give him a chance. But it's not going to put an end to debating.

I never have found a President who was 100 per cent satisfactory with me and I don't expect to, as there's no chance I'll ever have the job.

As a general policy, finding fault with the President of the United States, while not any easy many women prefer him.

Is it thrift, business of a sense of taste that many women prefer him.

Explaining the contents of the new travel brochure, he said it depicts all parts of the state in illustrations and color pictures. Topic covered include:

Texas' romantic and tumultuous history and examples of Texas folklore and legend.

Recreational opportunities for the vacationer, ranging from hunting and fishing to water sports on Texas lakes and on the Gulf Coast, camping, picnicking, and horseback riding in State Parks.

Safety information including highway speed limits and explanation of highway regulatory signs, information on fishing and hunting license requirements for vacationers, and an outline of house-trailer regulations.

The back cover shows an example of the free travel information services offered to travelers by the seven Tourist Bureaus operated by the Highway Department at key entry points scattered around the state's borders.

Taylor said that due to the anticipated large demand for the new travel brochure, the Highway Department will be unable to furnish it in quantity. However, requests for quantities of the brochure can be referred to the publisher and purchases made at the same price at which the brochures are available to the Highway Department, he added.

FOUR CYLINDERS TO SAVE GAS!

THE NEW SWEET RUNNING TROPHY 4 ENGINE

FROM PONTIAC PERFORMANCE SPECIALISTS!

The new Trophy 4 engine puts real performance in the Tempest and cuts gasoline bills to boot. This new baby is eager to move out for safe passing. Holds the going pace on any expressway. Breezes up steep hills in high gear. This new 195 cubic inch displacement, 45° inclined, short stroke, 4 cylinder engine has a wide range of h.p. ratings. With single-barrel carburetor and stick shift: 110 h.p. (regular gas) or 120 h.p. (premium gas). With the same carburetor and extra cost automatic shift: 130 h.p. (regular gas) or 140 h.p. (premium gas). Want still more? Order the 4-barrel carburetor with the automatic and jump the output to 155 h.p. (Or buy the 155 h.p. aluminum V-8 option.)

Rear axle drive and transmission are combined (a trans-axle). Flexible shaft from front engine delivers smooth, quiet power. Perfect 50-50 balance gives a flat, level ride that no other new-size car can touch. Rides like the big ones! An equal load on every wheel. Steering is light and easy! Better braking and improved traction in snow, sand or mud! Independent suspension at all wheels. Swing axles keep Tempest on an even keel over bumps, ruts, dips and holes! 112" wheelbase. Long enough for a cradled ride—short enough to handle like a sports car. Big 15" wheels. Good road clearance. Long tire life. (13" compact tires turn at least 4900 more times to go 100 miles.) Seats six men. The big transmission hump is gone. The middle man can stretch out size 12 brogans! Wide-Track, too! The track is up to 3 inches wider than most compacts. Less lean. Less sway. Better cornering. Pontiac dealers have it—and they have it now! A four-door sedan... a station wagon... a full line-up of accessories. Try the Tempest out for an hour—you'll want in for keeps! It's priced with the compacts!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's hard for grownups to grasp what it means to be a child today!

We grew up yesterday. The planes and radios which had startled our parents were commonplace to us. Television and jets we could take in stride. But Space! Who among us expected to live in a Buck Rogers era?

Yet to our youngsters nothing seems more natural than man's invasion of the universe. Everything that went before was preparation. We are ready to blast off. And the man who will establish our first colony on Mars is probably training for his mission in a sixth grade classroom . . .

Was there ever a time when religious, moral and spiritual development were more essential to our youth? The Truth man will cherish on Earth, and carry with him among the stars, is being taught every Sunday in our churches. Is your child . . . and the home in which he is growing up . . . FIT FOR THE AGE?

About Your Health

Since the hospital licensure program of the Texas State Department of Health became effective last January, 692 temporary licenses have been issued to hospitals in Texas, pending surveys for minimum requirements.

Over 34,000 beds are dispersed among the nearly 700 hospitals licensed to date — approximately one hospital bed for every 257 persons in Texas.

The national average of hospitals accredited by the American Hospital Association is 9.1 beds per 1,000 population, or about one bed for 110 persons.

The Texas figures do not include state or federally operated hospitals or institutions, which automatically excludes veterans hospitals. However, it does include special clinics for maternity cases, eye, ear, nose and throat, cancer and other specific disease or conditions.

Harris County leads the parade in keeping with its large population with 49 hospitals and 5,021 beds. Dallas County is second with 38 hospitals and 3,897 beds.

At the other end of the scale, 22 counties have no hospitals serving the population within the county and four cities have hospitals (or clinics) with only one bed.

Probably the oldest established hospital still in operation today, not including a couple of institutional clinics — is the St. Mary's Infirmary in Galveston, established in 1866.

The largest hospital in the State is the Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas with 934 beds and an accompanying budget in excess of 7 million.

The average admissions in hospitals according to the American Hospital Association is 122 per 1,000 population for short-term hospitals.

Voluntary short-term hospitals — the average hospital net average total expense of $31.16 per patient day. This amount includes equipment and salaries.

To operate the average hospital it takes about 112 people — nurses, doctors, orderlies, cooks, custodians, and administration — to service 100 patients. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

Wayland 'Heirs' Program Set

PLAINVIEW — Recognition of students following in the family tradition of attending Wayland Baptist College will be given at the Proud Heirs' Dinner scheduled for November 4 at Wayland. Eighty-six students whose mothers, fathers, sisters or brothers have previously attended Wayland have been invited to the dinner given by the Board of Directors and officers of the Association of Former Students of Wayland Baptist College.

Invitations have been issued to Carl Mason Boone, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Boone of Littlefield. Rev. Boone was also a student at Wayland College.

The annual affair will be held in Heritage Room of Van Howling Memorial Library at 6 p. m. Walter Lassiter, executive secretary of the association of former students has planned the event and will serve as master of ceremonies. Music will be provided by the King's Men, male quartet of Wayland students.

Officers of the Association of Former Students include Harold Reese, Plainview, president and Rev. Carlos McLeod, Hillburn Drive Baptist Church, Dallas, vice-president.

Members of the Board of Directors are Fred Garrison, Reese, Plainview; Rev. Tommie Allen, Hale Center; Dr. Neil Record, Tulla; Cecil Roenfeldt, Houston; and John Hodges, Dallas.

The Proud Heirs' Dinner is one of the two annual events sponsored by the Association of Former Students.

of Littlefield at 1 a. m. Sunday. Nine other persons were injured. She lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bailey, Anton.

Bad weather slowed cotton harvest last week with the 13 gins in the county reporting a total of 8,006 bales for the season. The previous week, gins turned out 1,614 bales.

Former County Agent Andy Adam was due to leave Fort Worth hospital today. He lost an arm in an automobile accident near his new home, Graham, last week.

Headline: "Sidewalks are the Biggest Thing the WPA Can Bring to Littlefield, Let's Get Them."

Annual Poppy Day is slated for next Saturday, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. A total of 1,000 poppies is expected to be sold.

Spade gins announced a total of 675 bales of cotton has been turned out for the year so far.

"Gus Shaw has just struck his stride over in the dry goods department of Jeffries Mercantile Co. . . In the last few days he has moved every pair of shoes, and every item in the store. . . has had the blue pencil. . . and in its place has appeared a brand new price tag for the store's first participation in Dollar Day Sales."

Ritz Theater this weekend is showing "Steamboat Around the Bend" with Will Rogers and Irvin S. Cobb.

A new drug store opened recently in Littlefield with Daniel Bryan as owner and pharmacist.
