VOL. 11 LITTLEFIELD, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1933 NO. 16

First actual retirement of cotton lands was underway in Lamb county Tuesday morning when a large number of farmers started plowing up a total of 93,500 acres of cotton in this county in connection with the federal cotton acreage reduction program.

Up until Wednesday at noon 1250 permits had been received by County Agent D. A. Adam to distribute among the 2245 Lamb county farmers who had signed agreements to plow up from 30 to 50 per cent of their growing cotton. It has been estimated by some of the leading state newspapers that Lamb county would receive $1,274,751.00 from the government as payment for the cotton lands retired. However, Mr. Adam stated that the estimate could be conservatively put at approximately $1,100,000.00.

Acceptance Blanks Expected
Mr. Adam said that sufficient permits should be received and all of the contracted acreage should be plowed up by the early part of next week.

The acceptance blanks are expected from Washington in the next day or two and the local committeemen will start work the first of next week, at the latest, inspecting the contracted lands for proof to furnish authorities at Washington.

The government has accepted all contracts in this county as passed on by the committeemen, Mr. Adam announced.

Planting Feed Crops
In many of the fields where cotton is being plowed up, farmers are planting higeria, cane, milo and sudan, Mr. Adam stated. A large part of these feeds will not mature. However, they will be used as pasture or for bundles.

Many of the farmers had already planted feed or peas between the cotton rows before permits were received to plow up their cotton.

The same local committeemen who inspected the land at the time contract was signed must make the in-

This Section Is Visited By Rain Sunday Evening

Littlefield and district were visited by a good rain Sunday evening about 5 o'clock, the total precipitation here measuring 62/100ths of an inch, while other parts reported from light showers to two inches of moisture.

The rain extended north to Olton, including Fieldton and Spade, where they report two inches of rain. However, some damage is reported to a strip of cotton about three miles north due to the blinding sandstorm that preceded the rain. Littlefield visitors in Hereford report a good rain all the way from that city to Littlefield. A light shower is reported at Enochs, while a mile this side and right into Littlefield a good rain was received. The territory west of Littlefield received a good rain, Sudan reporting an inch; Amherst half an inch. The moisture only extended about three miles east of Littlefield.

Farmers Urged To Use Leased Cotton Lands For Feed And Pasture Crops

Warning cotton farmers against plugging their cotton acres retired in the acreage reduction campaign into new and unusual and summer and fall crops, O. B. Martin, director of the Texas Extension Service, outlines a general four-fold plan for re-vamping farm systems to fit the new situation acreage reduction has forced upon Texas.

"The safest, surest and most profitable uses for this land have been demonstrated over and over again in almost every community in Texas," he says. "The Extension Service offers nothing startling and magical as a general guide to farmers at this time, but the same plan that has brought success to many farmers in the past and which is now a logical necessity."

"The first part of the next step ahead for Texas cotton farmers is using 25 acres of land, more or less, and with proper livestock and equipment making most of the family food and feed requirements at home. This is what saved us in the last three years and its continuation will make us money in the better years I think are ahead. The immediate need in Texas is for quick feed and pasture crops.

Live At Home Plan Suggested

"The second part of the step ahead is closely linked with the first. Living at home these last few years naturally gave surpluses of farm and home manufacture for sale. It meant extra farm income and it will continue to give extra income. The home pot sort of boiled over surpluses of hams and bacon and cheese and syrup and leather goods and the like, which could be sold.

"The third part of the step is to farm the remaining acres in cash and other crops for all they are worth. Good yields always pay better than poor ones and they always will. I believe the immediate future will see a premium paid for better use of land and more efficient farming.

"Finally, with home requirements taken care of, surplus acres offer the opportunity for feed production to sell through livestock. Texas has always needed a livestock balance to its cotton farming and the chance is now here to get it."

An attractive farm land menu of late feed crops to take the place of retired cotton acres and to make good what now appears to be a shortage of feed in Texas is suggested by E. A. Miller, agronomist in the Texas Extension Service. For plantings as late as the first of August he names the grain sorghums for grain and forage; sudan grass for grazing and hay; red top sorghum for hay or bundled forage; cowpeas for hay or grazing; millet for hay; and stock beets for succulent feed.

Except in Northwest Texas the grain sorghums have a good chance to make grain if planted by August first. In case of early frost they will provide good forage when harvested in bundles and cured in shock, or they can be put into silos. To save time, seed may be planted in cotton middles, even before cotton has been destroyed.

Sudan planted in 3-foot rows at the rate of 10 pounds of seed per acre is suggested. This also may be done before cotton is destroyed.

Red top sorghum may be planted

HAS PLAYED A MAJOR ROLE IN DEVELOPMENT OF THIS SECTION OF TEXAS

Senator Arthur P. Duggan announced Wednesday that he is a candidate for Congress from the new 19th Congressional district.

Mr. Duggan is now the senator from the 30th Senatorial district, of which Littlefield and Lamb county are a part.

The new 19th Congressional district is one of the three districts created at the last session of the legislature. It comprises the southern portion of the old 18th Congressional district, which has been served so long and so well by Congressman Marvin Jones.

25 Counties in District
There are 25 counties in the new 19th Congressional district. They are Lamb, Bailey, Hale, Floyd, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Haskell, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Scurry, Andrews, Martin, Howard and Mitchell.

Senator Duggan has spent his entire life in this section of Texas; has given liberally of his time in the development of West Texas; enjoys the respect and confidence of the people of West Texas, and has made an excellent record as a state senator.

Will Fight For This Section
Mr. Duggan's announcement of his candidacy for congressman from the new 19th Congressional district is typical of his zeal in the interests of this section of the state.

"I shall not expect to make a lot of speeches, sent out to the people at government expense, but I do expect to do a lot of hard work on the floor, in committees, and before departments, getting for the people of this district the things to which they are by right entitled," declared Mr. Duggan.

Discussing Mr. Roosevelt's program for general improved conditions, Mr. Duggan said:
"It would be my plan to support him whole heartedly in his efforts to return to normal conditions, to raise the price of farm products, and cut the costs of government. Taxes are still entirely too high."

Mr. Duggan's Announcement
In announcing as a candidate for Congress, Mr. Duggan issued the following statement:

"Having spent my life in this section of Texas I feel that I know its needs as well as any man could. In going to Congress I shall have but one desire and that is to serve. My work in the State Senate is an indication of the character of work I will do as a congressman. I shall not expect to make a lot of speeches, sent

COMMISSIONERS SEEK FUNDS FOR WATER PROJECT

Second Application Being Prepared; Will Not Raise Taxes

N. H. Roberts, civil engineer of Lubbock, is preparing a second application to the Public Works administration with hopes of securing a loan of from $27,000 to $35,000 to build additions and improvements to the Littlefield waterworks system.

Should the loan be granted, the proposed projects would be self-liquidating and no additional tax or increased rates would be necessary, it was announced. The new application will likely be filed by the first of August.

The first application made to the Reconstruction Finance corporation was for $27,000; however, it is likely that the project will necessitate a larger loan because of recent advances in equipment and materials.

W. G. Street, city secretary, announced that the commission was almost certain that the new plans would be accepted by the Public Works administration.

The present plans of the city commission is to purchase a well two miles north of the city, and to install equipment that would increase the city's water supply to 500 gallons per minute. The present supply is only 200 gallons per minute.

It is the opinion of the commission that the well under construction is capable of a larger increase than the 500 gallon estimate; however, to make further increase it would require buying more equipment than is planned at this time.

Prohibition Workers' Meeting Sunday Afternoon

A prohibition workers' meeting will be held at the First Methodist church, Amherst, Sunday afternoon at 3:30, when the dry forces will organize for the final drive in August. R. L. May, county chairman, will have charge of the meeting. All dry workers are urged to be present.

A Menace to Health

Why does a civilized world tolerate flies? A spider or other poisonous insect is attacked with relentless determination, but a fly can do a tap dance on the back of a man's neck or on the tip of his nose and the only result is a feeling of annoyance. Seldom does one stop to think that the fly is one of the most dangerous of insects, spreading disease germs with alarming rapidity. It does not seem to be beyond the realm of possibility to expect that in the due course of time the fly could be exterminated. Such an accomplishment could only come about, however, by the closest co-operation on the part of every man, woman and child. As a beginning we might look about and see what we can do, individually, to stop the breeding of flies in our vicinity.

Controlled Printing

The printing business is going to be no exception in the world of Federal controlled industry and a code of business ethics, schedules for material prices, labor, hours, advertising and job rates, is now being prepared by a committee appointed from a recent nation-wide meeting held in Chicago. Just how it is all going to turn out, like the innovations in other lines of industry, is and will be for some time a moot question.

Newspapermen, as a rule, spend more time in the interest and looking after the welfare of other folks' business than they do of their own. That is one of the functions of the business—not only to record actual news happenings, but to also offer suggestions to the public generally that will be of wide spread benefit to all.

Some of the commercial printing houses, being in business for purely selfish monetary reasons alone have taken more or less advantage of the public interest of newspapers in cutting and slashing prices on commercial printing, frequently to a point on some staple jobs where it is impossible for smaller concerns to meet the competition without a direct loss.

Now the Federal government proposes to step in and establish a scheduled rate of prices that will be fair to all printing establishments. It is hoped the plan will work out to the benefit of all concerned. Everyone is entitled to a reasonable profit on his labor. Printers have large investments in their business in proportion to the profits they obtain. They do not object to paying a reasonable profit on

Chevrolet Production For July Highest Since July 1929

With only 15 more days than one half of the year, production of new Chevrolet cars and trucks equalled the full twelve months' production of 1932, when car number 394,005 came off the assembly line at Flint, Mich. it was announced by W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of Chevrolet Motor Company.

By July 1 production so far this year had already reached the 358,741 mark, leaving only 35,264 to be completed and pass the twelve-month total of 1932. The rapid rate of manufacturing at the company's twenty plants is attested by the fact that these 35,264 units—more than the July total of last year were completed in only 15 working days.

On the basis of present schedules, July production this year will compare favorably with that of May and will be the best July since 1929.

Liquor Laws in Effect Before Prohibitions Will Return When 36 States Ratify Amendment

Should 36 states vote for the repeal of the 18th amendment, there are several old liquor control laws—buried by prohibition—that will be put into use again.

States such as Alabama, and Arkansas, although they favor repeal of the 18th amendment, who were dry before prohibition went into effect, will remain dry under their own state law should the 18th amendment be repealed unless they take steps to do away with their old laws prohibiting liquors.

Texas will vote on the 3.2 beer question August 26 at the same time they voice their say on the 18th amendment. However, as far as liquors, other than 3.2 beer, is concerned, this state will remain dry unless they do away with the Dean law.

Federal Laws Would Be Effective
The federal laws affecting liquor shipment and taxes that were in effect before prohibition would automatically go into effect if it were repealed since they have never been taken off the statute books.

Among them is the Webb-Kenyon law prohibiting the shipment of liquor from wet to dry states. Under this, the government cooperated with the states in its enforcement.

The old internal revenue law would again become operative if the amendment is repealed. James M. Doran, the commissioner of industrial alcohol, governing the manufacture, sale and distribution of that product and the distilled spirits law governing the manufacture, sale and distribution of liquor would be in force again if the 18th amendment were removed.

Penalties Still Hold
The laws providing penalties under the pre-prohibition period still are in effect and some of them have been used frequently to punish violators of the national prohibition act who could not be reached as easily under the Volstead act.

If prohibition were repealed, however, officials said they expected congress would enact new laws to meet changed conditions.

Meanwhile, liquor dealers have urged Doran and the treasury to authorize an increase in the amount of liquor that may be distilled now. Under the present regulations only about 1,000,000 gallons of liquor a year may be distilled for medicinal use but the consumption before 1919 averaged 130,000,000 gallons a year.

A. V. Dalrymple, chief of the prohibition bureau, urged additional liquor manufacture after learning the results in Alabama and Arkansas.

Proclamation Required
The repeal of the Eighteenth amendment would become effective when 36 states have ratified the 21st amendment but the government would not formally announce the result until the secretary of state proclaimed that the necessary number of states have accepted the amendment.

Large Percentage Diphtheria Cases In Children Under Ten

Dr. H. N. Barnett, director, Bureau of Child Hygiene, State Department of Health, in a statement today, urged all parents to have their children immunized against diphtheria. Each child six months old or over should have this preventative treatment now as it takes some time for immunity to develop after the last inoculation.

In the use of toxoid we have an agent that will give passive immunity to this disease; still 812 persons died last year in Texas from diphtheria. Two thirds of all cases occur before the tenth year and approximately eighty per cent of the deaths from this disease occur between the ages one to five years. Our young children are therefore in danger of contracting the disease and dying from it.

It is a treacherous disease. The first symptoms are so indefinite that the mother can easily overlook their presence. It is necessary even for the physician to look closely for the signs of diphtheria in order to discover them as the child does not necessarily complain of pain in the throat. Take your children to your family physician and have them protected against diphtheria.

Road Program to Give Jobs to 18,000 Texans

Direct employment for more than 18,000 men will be provided when the $24,000,000 federal aid program gets under way in Texas, government officials closely allied with the program have estimated.

It has also been estimated that employment relief in the matter of indirect work provided by the highway improvement likely will effect between 40,000 and 50,000 people.

4-H CLUB news

To Have State 4-H Hall
Massachusetts 4-H club members are putting up a state club building on the campus of the State College at Amherst to be used exclusively by themselves, and they are paying for every nickel of it themselves and doing a lot of the building and outfitting. It was all brought about by a heavy rain. The downpour nearly flooded out the 4-H delegation to the state camp several years ago. It was the opening day, too, but instead of dampening the fervor of club folks for their state camp it only made them determined to forestall any such happening again as soon as they could do it.

Under the guidance of State Club Leader, "Uncle George" Farley plans were set going which have finally guaranteed erection of the state building, the first of its kind in the country. Supporting Farley strongly in the plan is President Hugh P. Baker of the college.

In January 1929 the call went out to the nearly 18,000 club members in the state for help. Since then nickels, dimes and dollars have been rolling in. A country club gave $50, the largest sum received. Total to date is $2,000. That's not much as building jobs are figured, but it's a fortune the way these Yankee club folks have worked it out.

All this time the nickles have been jingling in the club folks have been telling their friends among building and material people about the new hall. Soon they had all kinds of help. Bernhard Dirks of Greenfield is contributing the plan for the building and landscaping. Harry Fitts of Shutesbury is supplying the stone for the fireplace and foundation. A mason is offering his services for half pay. Students are doing the surveying. Thirty older club members are helping in digging the foundation. Some have had handicraft experience. Girls will make the drapes and other fittings. Altogether it's a great state wide building bee. What can't be done properly will be done temporarily.

A 30 by 50 main hall will be a feature with a fireplace at one end and a stage at the other. There will be all the necessary adjuncts for a club. One side of the building faces south overlooking Holyoke range and Connecticut Valley. One opening is to an old fashioned formal garden. Here boys and girls will play and sing and dream dreams of how they can be useful in the world.

Praise Given Those Aiding In Acreage Reduction Campaign

"It was the splendid work of the 4600 local committeemen and the help of thousands of interested citizens that put Texas over the top in the recent cotton acreage reduction campaign with a grand total of 4,190,298 acres offered for retirement," commented O. B. Martin, director of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service at the close of the campaign.

"Too much praise cannot be given the community and county committeemen," he stated. "These committeemen were really agents of the government and they were responsible for dispensing millions of dollars of tax money. They conducted themselves as honorable trustees should," Mr. Martin declared.

"Another feature that is remarkable is the fact that Texas farmers did not go wild in their estimates of yields but were conscientious on the whole. The average of all estimates was right in line with past state yields and current crop prospects," Mr. Martin continued.

BOY BREAKS ARM TWICE
 Homer James, young son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. James, of seven miles west of town, has had the misfortune of breaking his left arm twice lately. Easter Sunday he broke it when wrestling with another boy. The bone was set and knit rapidly, and apparently was all right, when about a month ago he was riding a calf and it threw him, breaking the same arm again. A local physician, who put it in a cast, and has been treating it, reports it getting along fine, but says it will be necessary to keep it in the cast for sometime yet.

IN ANSWER TO A LADY'S LETTER
 A lady writes to say that she does not understand why an 8-cylinder car does not cost more to run than a car with fewer cylinders. She refers to my statement that our Ford V-8 develops more power on a gallon of gas than any car we have made.
 The use of 8-cylinders does not mean the addition of two or four extra fuel consumers. It is not, for example, a 4-cylinder engine multiplied by two. Our 8-cylinder engine takes the fuel supply of an ordinary 4-cylinder engine and divides it eight ways. And why?
 By reducing four larger explosions into eight smaller ones, we get engine smoothness and quietness. Eight-cylinders indicate the way the gas is used, not the amount. It is just the difference between going upstairs in four long jumps or in eight ordinary steps.
 Two things use up gas—bad engine design and useless car weight. Besides having an engine that gets a high percentage of power out of the fuel, the Ford V-8 has a light, strong body and chassis so that no power is wasted in moving excess weight.
 The only extravagance about the new Ford V-8 engine is in the building of it. The extravagance is ours—the economy is yours.
 The whole question of car economy needs clearing up. An economical car gives economy all round. Price, operation, upkeep, all play their part. If what you save on gas you lose elsewhere, that is not economy. As to upkeep, our dealers say that in recent years the improved quality of Ford cars has cut down their repair business 50 per cent. As to price with quality,—judge for yourself.
 As to economy, here is the record of a stock car three weeks out of shop in Oklahoma:
 On a run of 10,054 miles at the rate of 1,000 miles a day—the Ford V-8 gave 18.8 miles per gallon of gas. Not a drop of water was added to the radiator. The oil was changed once in 1,000 miles.
 That should answer a lot of questions.

"RACE NIGHT" New Screen Feature, To Be Unusual Attraction At The Palace

Film fans will literally be "off to the races" Friday and Saturday night when the Palace Theatre stages the first of a series of "Race Nights" since racing has been legalized in Texas.

"Race Night" is described by the management as a thrilling and fascinating new type of entertainment in which the audience takes an active part.

Just how the audience takes a part in the proceedings is being kept a secret by the management, but it is understood that this contest, for it is all of that, carries all the thrills of a Latonia, a Caliente, or a Kentucky Derby.

Everyone attending the theatre on "Race Nights" will be requested to hold their theatre ticket stubs until the races are over. "These stubs may be valuable and if they are thrown away or lost before the end of the performance, the holder will be the loser," the management announced.

According to the management, "Race Nights" is the most unusual novelty of the screen. This feature has many months in the making and is now sweeping the country like wildfire. Its presentation Friday and Saturday nights at the Palace Theatre will mark its first offering in this territory.

Roy Heard Writes His Experiences To Home Folks

Roy Heard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Heard of this city, who has been employed in connection with the reforestation program, stationed at Davis, Oklahoma, for the past two months, recently wrote home giving some of his experiences. Thinking this letter might be of interest to Mr. Heard's friends, we are here with publishing it in full:

"I received your letter several days ago, surely was glad to hear from home.

I sure enjoyed the 4th. Out of the 200 at this camp, there was only about 25 here, the others went home. Most of the men in this company are from Dallas. I would have liked to come home, but it was too far for just one day; we enjoyed the day a lot anyway. We had fried chicken twice on Sunday, ice cream on Monday and steak on the 4th, and no work at all.

This surely is a pretty place here. We are camped on the banks of Honey Creek, which empties into the Washita river about one mile from here. Honey Creek is a spring fed creek and the water is as clear as a crystal. Two of the boys went fishing this evening and caught 2 catfish, weighing about one pound each.

About 300 yards down the creek is Cedavale. It is a store, American Legion dance hall, and some tourist cabins, also a very good swimming pool, about one fourth of a mile up the creek is Blue Pool, a free pool, it is a good pool also. About one half

New Gas Tax Brings State Large Revenue

In a recent statement, State Comptroller Sheppard announced that his force, in their war against "blended" motor fuel, has increased gas tax payments from the East Texas production area at the rate of $2,000,000 a year, and predicted that his war against blending over the entire state would raise the total saving to more than $4,000,000 per annum.

Comparative figures received from the Texas Good Roads association show the relative importance of the new state revenue as compared with other sources of revenue.

In 1932 the total inheritance tax in the state amounted to $617,935; cigarette tax was $3,420,645; poll tax, $1,553,707; and total occupation and gross receipts for last year amounted to $1,713,748.

Senator Woodul To Seek Office Of Lieut. Governor

State Senator Walter Woodul of Houston, in a recent letter to the Leader announced that he would make the race for Lieutenant Governor next year.

Senator Woodul is not only one of the most popular men in the upper house in Austin, but is one of Houston's leading lawyers as well as a prominent civic worker.

The Senator stated in his letter that it was too early to start an active campaign, but he was confident that he would make the race.

Liberty county farmers who sprayed tomatoes with 2 to 4 pounds of arsenate of lead per 50 gallons of water, and picked off and carried out of the field the fruit infested with worms, had good crops this spring, says the county agent. Those who did not follow suggestions harvested about half a crop in most cases.

PANHANDLE-WIDE BARBECUE BEING SPONSORED HONORING MARVIN JONES, AND OTHER STATE LEGISLATORS

Women of the Panhandle at Amarillo Monday, July 24, so it has been decided to have a big Panhandle party at the fair grounds," he said.

Mayor Ross Rogers will introduce the other honored guests, Senator Clint Small, Senator Arthur Duggan of Littlefield, Representatives H. K. Stanfield, B. L. Rogers of Farnsworth, John Puryear of Wellington, A. B. Tarwater of Plainview and Bob Alexander of Childress.

"By closing the ceremony at 9 o'clock those who come from farthest points of the district will have time to motor home," said Mr. Hawk.

"The address will be delivered from the arena in the livestock building.

There will be a reception committee of 100 men and women for the News-Globe sponsored party. Those who will serve on the committee will be announced soon.

"I believe this Panhandle-wide party to pay homage to Congressman Jones and the other legislators will be one of the largest ever held in Amarillo," Mr. Hawk predicted.

Marvin Jones holds a position of much influence in Washington and he always is on the alert in the best interests of the Panhandle. It's our opportunity to hand a few bouquets to the living. Let's all turn out and honor the men who look after our interests in Washington and Austin."

During his recent absence from Hereford, Holman was farm editor of the Amarillo Daily News.

Holman had been confined to his bed for the greater part of the time since returning to Hereford early this year. His wife, formerly Miss Ann Hill of Houston, survives him.

It is more than the combined month's sale in the county of the two nearest other makes.

Veteran Panhandle Newspaper Man Dies

Seth B. Holman, 51, veteran newspaper man, Chamber of Commerce secretary and farm extension worker, died at his home at Hereford last Thursday morning. Funeral services were held at Hereford Friday afternoon.

He was editor and owner of the Hereford Brand, which he had published since 1917 except for an absence of three years chiefly spent in efforts to regain his health.

Holman, born at Weimar, was graduated from Texas A. & M. College with honors at the age of 21, entered the service of the Rock Island Railroad for a time, then became a member of the old Fort Worth Star's staff.

He moved to Hereford as Chamber of Commerce secretary in 1909, except for one year in a similar position at Comanche, the remainder of his life was spent in the upbuilding of the Panhandle. He organized the Board of City Development in Amarillo in 1912 and started the first highway improvement program in that area.

During his recent absence from Hereford, Holman was farm editor of the Amarillo Daily News.

Holman had been confined to his bed for the greater part of the time since returning to Hereford early this year. His wife, formerly Miss Ann Hill of Houston, survives him.

STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!

—neither strong enough, nor safe enough, nor quiet enough for the body of a quality car like CHEVROLET

There is only one type of body construction which Chevrolet will permit on the chassis of the cars it builds: That's the type which every test—and every experiment—and every experience has proved to be the safest, strongest, and best. Not steel alone, because steel alone is not enough. But a Fisher body of steel reinforced by hardwood! The same kind of construction used on practically all the highest-priced cars in America.

Chevrolet well knows that steel alone has one distinct advantage: it's cheaper. Steel also is strong—up to a certain point. BUT—beyond that point, steel alone will bend and crumple under severe stress or shock. It takes the strength and supporting solidity of a hardwood reinforcement to give you the full protection and full satisfaction you want in a motor car body today.

If you're thinking of buying a new low-priced car, better watch this matter of bodies, and watch it carefully. Insist on steel reinforced by hardwood! Fortunately, the only low-priced car with this preferred type of body is also the only car with a proven valve-in-head six; with Fisher Ventilation; Cushion-Balanced Power; a Starterator. That car is Chevrolet—America's most economical automobile.

out to the people at government expense, but I do expect to do a lot of hard work on the floor, in committees and before departments getting for the people of this district the things to which they are by right entitled. Beautiful speeches are nice to listen to on the fourth of July or on memorial occasions, but they do not take the place of hard work in the Legislature or Congress any more than they would in the cotton patch. My value to the people of this district is due to my desire and ability to get on the job and stay there until results are obtained.

"The homes of our people constitute the foundation on which the safety and security of our government rests. They form the basis for civilization itself. In my judgment it is more important for the government to save the homes of this nation than the big corporations. We know that untold millions of dollars of our tax money are going to protect and save big business. The recent Congress passed laws, we were told, to save our homes. The administration of these laws, as well as the $200,000,000 'Commissioners Loan Fund' were placed with the Federal Land Bank. Through low values and appraisals placed on the lands of West Texas by the Federal Land Bank appraisers the purposes of the law are being defeated. The long time and low interest rates promised the people, through such loans, are being denied them because the amounts of loans offered are not sufficient to cover existing encumbrances. Unless this can be changed, and a square deal given our people, there will be many foreclosures soon and many homes lost.

"I have personally been to see the officials of the Federal Land Bank at Houston recently and have made a trip all the way to Washington protesting the unfairness being done our people and asking for justice. I am going to stay on this job as a citizen and a Legislator until we get recognition.

"An example of the present situation is this:

"The Federal Department of Agriculture is now paying the farmers of Lamb county $17 per acre lease for plowing up cotton, based on an average yield of 239 pounds of lint cotton over a period of five years. The Federal Land Bank appraisers value the same lands at from $20 to $25 per acre and recommend loans of only $10 to $12.50. Down in the black land sections of the state the average lease being paid is from $9 to $11 per acre based on from 132 pounds to 159 pounds of lint cotton per acre, and the same appraisers value the black lands at $105 per acre and loan them $50. We, out in West Texas, produce more cotton per acre and get more lease money, but the old prejudice against West Texas exists and we are not getting a square deal. That is just one thing I desire to work for.

"At the proper time I will announce a definite platform.

"This will include a land grant from the United States for the Texas Technological College.

"At this time it is sufficient to say that I am in hearty accord with President Roosevelt's program. It would be my plan to support him wholeheartedly in his efforts to return normal conditions, to raise the price of farm products and cut costs of government. Taxes are still entirely too high.

"In the race for the State Senate last year, my merits, and demerits, were pretty thoroughly discussed. The voters of this district know me and the things I stand for. My race will be free of mudslinging as it was last year. I appreciate clean living and clean politics and expect to so conduct myself.

"As a Congressman I would dedicate myself to the service of Texas, and particularly West Texas, and know that no man could or would work harder than I for a square deal for our people.

"Your Vote and influence earnestly solicited."
