McCanlies Calls Tie, Wins Press Contest

Ed McCanlies of Littlefield must have had his crystal ball shined brightly last week, at least bright enough to win the weekly Littlefield Press football contest.

But just winning the contest isn't all, McCanlies called the Seminole - Levelland ball game a draw . . . and it was a 0 - 0 tie, McCanlies wasn't alone in his prediction of a tie game between these two powerful teams as L. F. Hatla of Littlefield picked them to play ev-

Another tie game was on the contest sheet, but no one picked it. Crosbyton and Tahoka ended their game all knotted.

Kenneth Watson of Springlake took second money and Don He-vern of Amherst was third, Hatla tied with these two at seven misses, but was way off on the Brownfield - Littlefield tie breaker game.

McCanlies missed six contests including the Brownfield-Littlefield, Crosbyton - Tahoka, Petersburg - Abernathy, Bula-Patton Springs, Spur - Roscoe and Ralls - O'Donnell tilts,

Watson picked Brownfield to win, but missed the tie between Levelland and Seminole and the Tulsa - Hardin Simmons games in addition to what McCanlies Hevern missed the two ties, the New Mexico - New Mexico State, Bula - Patton Springs, Spur - Roscoe, Ralls-O'Donnell and Dimmitt - Lockney games.

Checks will be mailed to this week's winners.
Deadline for this week's entries is Friday at I p.m.

and high winds struck areas in the northern portion of Lamb County late Saturday evening leaving several acres of cotton stripped of most vegetation.

The storm struck the area between 3 and 5 p.m. Saturday leaving in its wake downpours of from three to five inches in and around Olton. A twister like wind hit a barn and other out-buildings on the Willie Green farm about six miles northeast of Olton.

The barn was scattered over a wide area and trees near the Green home were twisted and broken.

L. H. Carson, who lives near Green and was in the Green's cellar when the storm hit, reported that "we didn't see it and so we don't know that it was a twister, but it sure ripped up

Only about $1400 was collected at the Littlefield station to help pay for the vaccine and other expenses involved in giving the innoculations. Dr. Stafford said this was just barely enough to pay for the first dose and equal amounts would have to be received at the two other clinics scheduled for later this fall. Reports from other towns showed receipts were good.

Dr. Stafford listed those from Littlefield who helped with the clinic as the Jaycee Ettes, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, nurses from both hospitals, Chamber of Commerce, radio station, newspaper, school, local pharmacists, a local grocer, and many others who carried on a telephone campaign. "Without everyone's help, the polio clinic could not have suc-ceeded." Dr. Stafford continued, "and again I want to thank everyone who had anything to do with the clinics throughout the area."

A Changing World

by Rev. Jack Ellzey

Rev. Jack Ellzey

"We live in a changing world." This is not a new or an original statement, but it is a true one. Communication, transportation, housing, businesses, and almost every kind of culture form is changed from what it was a few years ago.

As people the world over strive for better lives for themselves and their children, changes occur in the different national systems which threaten the cherished values, institutions and lands of one another. Even our modes and forms of worship change, and many people are deeply frustrated or live in despair because of all this.

We wish we could quickly resolve personal and world crisis in our flavor or retreat into an impenatrable island secure between the seas. Some among us are even so foolish, selfish and unchristian as to suggest we annihilate everybody besides us and those who agree with us; forgetting we don't always agree among ourselves. But, truly Christian people come to realize we are not the

the Gospel, lessens our anxiety and strengthens us for our responsibility as children of God, who is sovereign over the world and history.

more redemptive power than most of us realize. Should we not then rededicate ourselves in Christian faith to express the hope that as we deal with the facts of personlife, under God, we may work out our frustrations and make more effective our contributions toward a home, community and world of increased justice, freedom and peace?

> Be Thou our guide while life And our eternal home."

God. We recognize and accept a press a Christian hope; a hope vidual and for the world, for we believe Christ has overcome the world. True, part of our hope is beyond history but we also believe God moves in history, in the lives of people here and now. Because we believe God is in the process here, we see the possibility of something new and more promising, even in such

The Christian gospel brings us the "good news" of God who is Lord of all and who is "Love." This love He revealed through His Son whom He sent as the Savior of the world, with a mission "to preach good news to the poor . . . to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the ac-ceptable year of the Lord." When school time arrived in the fall he decided on farming and marriage instead of col-

Along with his farming for a few years, Cox did custom cotton spraying and combining where he managed to save enough money to buy some land.

Cox has a keen outlook on life as a farmer and says that in farming, "you are a free moral agent to do as you choose. You are free to work and reap or do nothing and reap nothing."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their prayers, sympathy, flowers - the delicious food to the ones who sat up longlong hours at night and stood by at all times. To Dr. Stafford and each nurse at Littlefield Hospital who were so kind and patient.
