W INTERPLANTING FOR KING COTTON SKIP-RO New Farming System Boosted

Skip-row interplanting, a 'must consider' farming idea, was outlined to a small group of farmers here Tuesday morning by Frank Moore, prominent plainview farmer, who spoke on behalf of the High Plains Research Founda-

Lamb County trustees of the Foundation were hosts at a coffee held in the Crescent House Restaurant at 9 a.m. Tuesday. The program served as the local start of a massive fund-raising campaign designed to put $2 million behind the Foundation's research program for the next five years.

Foundation trustees in seven Texas counties on the High Plains will direct the monthlong fund-raising effort. Staff members from the Foundation's headquarters at Halfway will assist them in dozens of meetings and conferences designed to bring the Foundation success story to the people.

The scope of the Foundation has more than doubled with the acquisition of 504 more acres, Glover told local farmers and businessmen Tuesday. The farm was purchased from J. Frank Triplett of Amarillo, who donated $25,00 toward the purchase of the land by lowering the price $50 per acre from its estimated value. It's lo-cated southwest of Halfway. The Foundation now has a total of 814 acres with which to work to put dollars into the pockets of High Plains farmers and agri-businessmen. Lamb trustees include Cephas Glover, Rip Elms, Jack Yarbrough, R.L. Byers Jr. and Jarvis Angley. All were pre-sent at the meeting. Moore and C.H. Janeway, special Foundation representative, were guests. Hale County Farmer, Moore left no doubt that he's a firm believer in skip-row interplanting. He says a farmer using this system can easily ting counties together would double his income in a three to five-year period.

to handle, although four-row equipment can be used readily. Moore uses 50 percent more planting seed than in normal solid-row planting. The grain sorghum--or soybeans or castorbeans--gives wind pro- 58 degrees. The high altitection to the cotton, and re- tude also gives us cool nights, duces hail damage by reducing wind volocity at the surface, Moore added that the blank

The fourth year, however, the counties' bookmobile is paid for and the $10,500 in the $14,-000 budget would be used for salaries and the counties take over full operation of the service.

Moore should know -- he's been a "field demonstrator" of this sytem for three years. The method has recently been named the Langford system of farming. Delbert Langford is the agronomist who has developed the system at the High Plains Research Foundation during six years of study.

"Frankly, this is all that's saved my hide, cottorfwise, the last three years," Moore told farmers here Tuesday. Working closely with Langford and the Foundation, Moore selected the system he felt best suited his operation, which was cotton and grain sorghum. Three years and several hundred acres later, Moore plans to plant all his cotton acreage the system next season. Moore planted grain sorghum in alternating rows at the same time he planted cotton to prevent wind damage from blowing sand. The pattern of planting can best be illustrated by using the letter C to represent cotton, Observance of "Public Schools Week" will continue in Littlefield and Lamb County today, but school is out Friday as teachers go to a district meeting in Lubbock.

Supt. Glenn Reeves invites Littlefield parents to visit schools today, if they haven't already taken advantage of the special occasion. Classrooms, especially in the primary and elementary buildings, were drawing a large number of visitors this week.

Businessmen and housewives substituted for teachers Tuesday morning in junior and sen-ior high school, allowing the teachers to attend a coffee in their honor at the Reddy Room. It was sponsored by the Junior-Senior High PTA.

Charles Jones, director of the substitute teacher project, reported 100 percent attendance by his fill-in teachers. The FTA Club honored LHS teachers with a coffee Wednesday morning.

Association Seeks Burial Information

Names and addresses of all persons with relatives buried in the Littlefield Cemetery are being sought by the Littlefield Cemetery Association in an improvement program underway for several months now.

The information is sought from persons with relatives in the 50-year-old cemetery, or from others knowing the whereabouts of persons away from here who have kin buried there, says Mrs. Cecil Testerman, Sudan, chairman of an information-finding committee.

The current program in-volves the entire cemetery, that includes two sites incorporated into the 40-acre layout, Mrs. Testerman points out.

Information may be sent to the Cemetery Association, Box 511, Littlefield, or Lenton Smith, Littlefield,

The Cemetery Association will have a meeting Tuesday night, March 10, at the Reddy Room in Littlefield. Time is 7:30.

She takes an interest in anything that will benefit her community. Working hard on the Lamb County Historical Survey Committee is just one of the things that keeps this spry mother busy.

She was appointed to the publicity committee of this organization by Judge Pat Boone. The committee was appointed to preserve historical points of value in the county.

Although this energetic personality is program chairman of the Junior-Senior High PTA, she still finds time to enjoy sewing. She just begin to learn to sew and plans to do quite a bit of sewing for her five grandchildren.

Recently she started collecting antiques. She had salvaged many things which belonged to her mother, the late Mrs. W.E. Bird. Other things she picks up in second hand shops and from various friends.

Among the antiques which she has gathered is a churn which belonged to her mother, the late Mrs. W.E. Bird of Spade. The churn was in her mother's possession when the family moved to Lamb County 40 years

Chevelle balanced performance is best!

Passing, cornering, threading through traffic, sudden stops - Chevelle excels all around! Chevrolet's new surprise package has what it takes to meet any driving challenge: Six or V8 engines, hefty brakes, Full Coll suspension-and a trim size that makes the most of them!

We didn't just cook up a batch of en-gines for Chevelle and call it performance. You can get performance aplenty -standard 120-hp Six or 195-hp V8 for starters-and optional at extra cost there's a 155-hp Six, a 220-hp V8, even a new 327-cu.-in. V8! But Chevelle's performance means more.

Size, for instance. Chevelle's a foot shorter than the big cars. And the space Chevelle saves in size comes off the ends, not the middle. So it rides like you want a car to ride-comfortably-on a 115To give you the most out of this e-gine performance and riding comfort. Chevelle lets you choose Powerglide, 4-speed manual* or 3-speed manual transmission transmission.

And knowing it would strike the right note with a lot of different people, we gave Chevelle 11 models—in three series Knowing how people like the custom touch, we wrote out a long list of extra-cost options. What's keeping you from a test drive? Cer-tainly not your

The Littlefield Wildcat track | events get underway at 1 p.m. The sprint relay team turned in a pleasant surprise, clocking a 44.6-second quarter mile while placing sixth in the strong 4A-3A field at Fort Stockton. Kermit won the 440-relay with a sparkling 42.6 time, finishing ahead of several 4A schools. The Wildcats picked up their other points on a 6th-place finish by Richard Funk in the pole vault. Funk cleared 12 feet, as did Larry Wood, and won 6th because he had fewer misses. Kermit's sensational Gary Hobson vaulted 13-8 to set a new record at the meet.

Larry Schovajsa, Ronald Sitton, Larry Coffman and Grover Pigrum made up the sprint re-lay foursome.

Littlefield's mile relay team turned in a 3:33,7 while finishing second in one of the heats. The time was not fast enough to place, however, Abilene Cooper set a new record by clocking a 3:22.1 in the event.

Schovajsa, Sitton, Larry Wood and Pigrum were mem-bers of the mile relay unit. Schovajsa started with a 53.4 quarter; Sitton was clocked in 53.7; Wood turned the lap in 53.5, and Pigrum anchored with 53.1.

Schovajsa also ran in the open 440 and had a 53.0 flat time. Marty Mayer of Kermit won this event with a brilliant 49.2 time. Junior Hodge failed to place with a 10.6 in the century and with a broad jump of 18-9, Willie Johnson was out of the running with a 5:01 time in the mile, and Allen Veach was timed in 5:35. Manuel Davila showed promise with a 2:07 in the 880 yard dash. Steve Brandt came in with a 2:17 clocking. Coach Davis will probably have his team entered in more events this week at the Brownfield meet.
