LAMB COUNTY LEADER

FAIR EDITION

LITTLEFIELD, LAMB COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1937

WEEK

The carnival spirit today prevails over Littlefield. It is Fair Week and with the splendid cooperation given by Littlefield business firms it will no doubt prove to be the biggest event of the year for Littlefield and Lamb county. Fair Week in many ways is the happiest of the entire year. Friends meet again . . . Relatives have a reunion . . . Children come to town, and the barkers at the carnival recall to even the "old people" the days when they were younger, and too, enjoyed the County Fair in other towns.

Littlefield and her citizenry have thrown open her arms and give a cordial welcome to all visitors. Merchants have joined other merchants in welcoming the guests. The Fair Edition of this newspaper has been liberally patronized and in addition to the invitation extended to the people of this section of the state, special prices and bargains are being offered to those who wish to buy new fall merchandise.

Littlefield merchants are especially mindful of the needs of the people and have bought seasonable merchandise for this occasion and urge that advantage be taken of their offer of special sales.

Splendid entertainment features have been provided. A County Fair is not all fun and frolic but is educational. Exhibits from communities, and booths of merchants and business men go into the make-up of the Fair.

Come every day to the Fair. Bring the entire family. Bring your friends. Get the carnival spirit, and it will always be remembered as a red letter day in your life.

Welcome to the Lamb County Fair

Night Rodeo to be Big Feature of Fair

DAUGHERTY TO BE IN CHARGE OF THE ARENA

Big Prize Money Is Being Offered In Various Contests

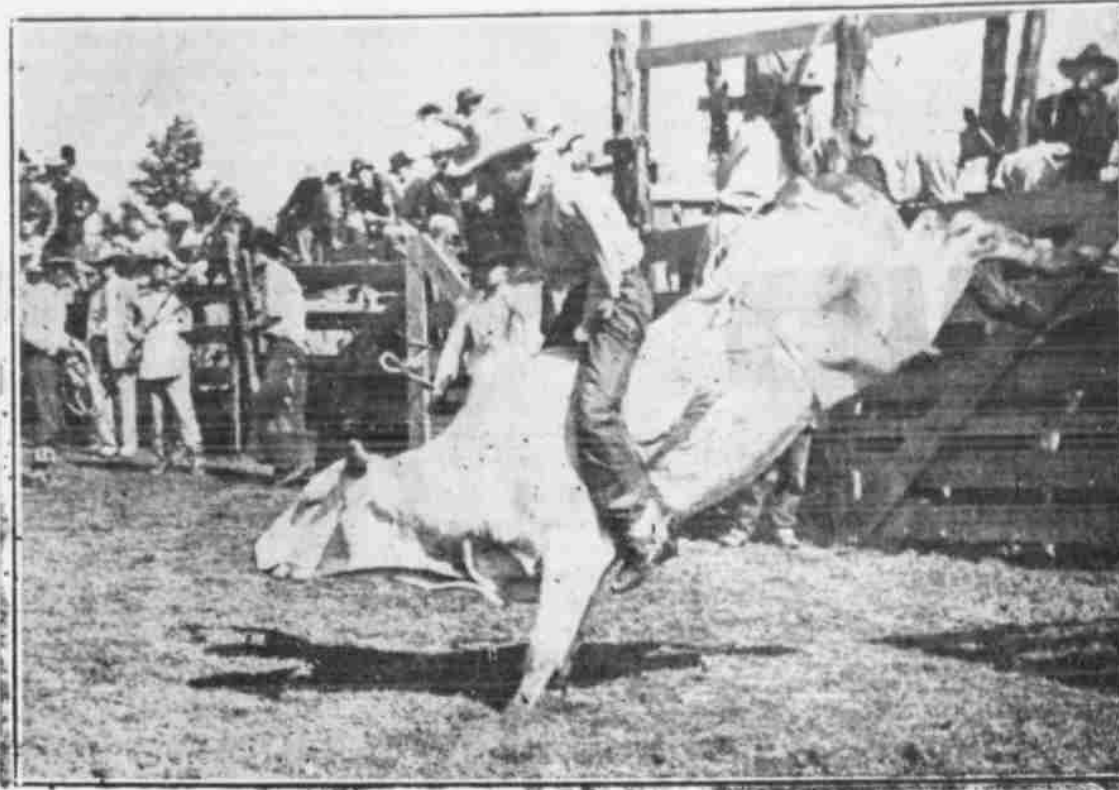

The first night rodeo ever staged in this part of Texas will be the answer to the people who are unable to attend during the day. The officers of the Lamb County Fair association are offering one night performance on Friday, September 24, under the bright lights on the baseball field, under the management of Curley Daugherty, well known in this section.

The rodeo pens are built and seats have been constructed on the south side of the baseball park for crowds that rodeo fans predict will overflow the present grandstand.

The climax of clean entertainment will be the educated horse, Cry Baby, owned by Tom Donaldson, of Hobbs, New Mexico. This feature will cost a large sum of money, but those promoting the rodeo feel this act alone will be worth the admission price. Not one trick, but many does Cry Baby have up his sleeve. The horse has been trained to go to the opposite side of the rodeo grounds and bring to the grandstand any wild cow that happens to be there. Col. Johnson of South Texas, who stages the Madison Square Gardens Rodeo every year declares no other horse in the United States can do this without a rider. Tom Donaldson claims little credit for the horse's unusual performance—it's just a smart horse.

The announcer of a rodeo can make or break the performance, and the rodeo committee has insured a fast performance that will be interesting to everyone by obtaining the services of Loyd Lea, known as the "Voice of the Rodeo." Mr. Lea finished rodeos for 25 years as a contestant and got his early training on his father's ranch in the Big Horn Mountain Country of Wyoming. Loyd maintains a fellow has to know the performers and the show to be able to make it interesting to the audience and his many contracts with New Mexico and Texas rodeos prove he has learned how to entertain. Five loud speakers make it possible for all to hear his running description of what is happening.

Curley Daugherty has just returned from a successful rodeo at Snyder where he entered the contests. Curley got his training in the arena as a contestant and is known 200 miles in every direction from his home town, Olton. His seven rodeos at Olton have had a large attendance and he promises a better show here than he has ever staged. Many performers have already signed up with him as they believe in his honesty and square dealing.

Judges and timekeepers are being secured by Don Harris, chairman of the rodeo committee. Pat Boone, Mayor of Littlefield will be one of the judges and attempts are being made to secure Sheriff Tom Standifer of Morton who is an old rodeo performer as one of the judges.

First prize money for steer riding is $25, for calf roping $30, for bulldogging $25, and for bronc riding $20. A $100 roping saddle goes to the best performer.

Entry fees are payable in advance and must be in by eleven o'clock each day.

For the Friday night's performance entries will close at 5:30 o'clock and the performance will begin at 7:30. All the shows are scheduled to run two hours only, thus calling for a fast performance of skill, thrills, and entertainment.

To Open Fair And Discuss Farm Problems With Farmers

The visit of Congressman George Mahon of Colorado, Texas, to the Lamb County Fair Thursday is both a pleasure and a business trip. In a conference at Lubbock recently, Mr. Mahon expressed a keen desire to study further the agricultural problems of West Texas so he would be able to ward off any discriminations that might creep in two Agricultural bills scheduled for enactment in the special session of Congress.

Mr. Mahon will arrive about eleven o'clock and remain for the McQuatters dinner Thursday night.

ROGERS' "HANDY ANDY" ROLE UNUSUAL; ROBERT TAYLOR HAS ROMANTIC LEAD

WIT VS. RIOT: The fact that most of his previous pictures depended upon his inimitable talent for witty comment and repartee makes "Handy Andy" a departure for Will Rogers' films. Opening at the Ritz theatre and continuing through Sunday and Monday, it shows Will in a rousing farcical role full of comic action.

ROMANCING ROMEO: Brought back by popular demand for a second showing, "Handy Andy" offers to movie-goers a rare opportunity to see the screen's most popular lover in pre-star days in a picture as romantic and amusing today as when first released, Robert Taylor is featured in a romantic role opposite pretty Mary Carlisle in the cast supporting Rogers.

PHOTOPLAY TONIC, U. S. P.: Twentieth Century-Fox studio research experts lavished such sympathy upon the settings and background for Will Rogers' "Handy Andy" that pharmacists, both young and old, who view the sequences in Will's store will experience pleasant pangs of nostalgia. Such pangs are warmly welcomed in view of recent developments, making the corner druggist the latest "vanishing American."

APPREHEND TWO MEN ON SWINDLE CHECK CHARGES

Seven Checks Passed In One Afternoon, Police Here Report

The passing of worthless checks to the merchants of Littlefield is causing much concern to the City and County officers, who have asked the Leader to warn the businessmen of this city to be on their guard against this sort of offense.

Deputy Sam Hutson reports that seven Littlefield merchants in one day were swindled out of amounts from $5 to $7 in this manner. H. B. Davis and Bob Williams were apprehended by Deputy Hutson and Deputy E. B. Posey of Lubbock.

Davis is reported to have been fined $14 on each of five counts and Williams $14 on one count, before Justice of the Peace, Mike Brewer, Wednesday morning of last week.

Checks were signed by different initials, and becoming suspicious, the Littlefield merchants telephoned the First National Bank to find no money there under any of the names.

Deputy Hutson states that the worthless check passers approach the merchant, representing they are friends of prominent Littlefield citizens, inquiring as to how they are getting along, telling the merchant what a fine crop of cotton he (the "would be check passer") has, and he makes a small purchase, writing a check for larger amount than the purchase.

Some of the grocery items alleged to have been so secured were found in a Lubbock home and identified by local merchants.

Congressman Mahon Opens Lamb County Fair Today, Record Crowd Expected

The curtain is set for the first major fair for Lamb county. Two tents, 50x120, are rapidly filling with agricultural exhibits. It's the big tops for Littlefield this year.

All Under One Fence

Everything is under one fence this year. The carnival, the rodeo, commercial exhibits, agricultural exhibits, farm machinery, hamburger stands are all together on the southeast side of the baseball park. The main entrance is located between the two exhibit tents.

Many Reserving Space

All department superintendents are reporting much enthusiasm from exhibitors over the county. Communities and individuals are already reserving space before it is too late. W. H. Cunningham, general superintendent of the agricultural exhibits, is supervising the construction of booth spaces and reports all of them filled.

Exhibits Arranged

Merchants of Littlefield who have indicated they will exhibit in the commercial tent are Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber company, Hewitt Chevrolet Co., Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Co., Palace Theatre, Porcher Produce, Cicero-Smith Lumber Co., County Wide News, Cal Harvey Radio & Electric Shop, Stokes Drug Store, West Texas Gas Co., South Plains Creamery, Renfro Brothers Grocery, Peerless Pumps, Mayhew-Renfro Gin, Cameron Lumber Co., Littlefield Hatchery, Dave Hicks, Lamb County Leader, Garland & White, and Hall Motor company. Sherrod Brothers of Lubbock will have a refrigerator exhibit.

Is Advertising Medium

Other exhibitors are expected to reserve space and fair officials point out this is excellent manner to advertise.

Schools Dismissing

Several schools in the county are dismissing for school day, Thursday afternoon. All others are excusing those who care to attend during the afternoon and hear Congressman George Mahon make his address. The Littlefield schools will not close officially until 2:30 due to an arrangement with the State Department of Education on Bus Transportation. However, Superintendent Floyd Hemphill will grant permission to students desiring to hear the Congressman. All children will be admitted free to the fair grounds until 6:00 o'clock when the regular admission price of five and ten cents will be charged. Rodeo officials point out this does not admit the children to the rodeo grounds as the seating capacity is limited.

Get State-Wide Publicity

Almost state-wide publicity has been obtained for the fair and rodeo. The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Amarillo Daily News, Lubbock Morning Avalanche, and other newspapers have contributed generously with stories and pictures.

Radio Advertising Fair

One hour over station KFYO was devoted Sunday, September 19, to the Lamb County Fair and was sponsored by the Fair Association and the merchants of Littlefield.

Miss Kathryn Darby of Spade dedicated the first song to the Plateau Singing Convention held at Hart Camp. A radio furnished by Cal Harvey re-broadcasted Miss Darby's song to the 1,000 singers assembled in the Hart Camp gymnasium. Others on the program were Misses Gertrude Stanley and LaJuana McClure of Amherst, Winona Pardue, Laura Virginia Bills, and Ruby Nelle Cobb of Littlefield. J. C. Elms announced the program which was devoted to dedications to the towns of Lamb and surrounding counties. The progress of the section of the South Plains was described. Emphasis was placed on the rodeo feature of the Lamb county fair.

Poultry Exhibit

Frank Lehman, manager of the Littlefield Hatchery, argued at an early meeting of the board of directors, that a fair was not a fair without the crowning of White Leghorn roosters, and according to Mr. Lehman, there will be plenty crowing at this fair. Olton, Sudan, Littlefield and other communities of the county are sending splendid exhibits.

Jess Elms In Charge

Superintendent of the livestock departments are reporting numerous exhibits this year, specially is this true in the horse and mule division under Jess Elms.

Watchmen On Guard

Watchmen will be secured to see that none of the exhibits are lost and will be on duty all night. Exhibits of special value will be placed in show cases.

All in all, a pleasant surprise awaits the citizens of this section when they visit the second Lamb county fair to be held in Littlefield.

Wildcats To Clash With The Tahoka Bulldogs Friday

SQUAD AND COACH "THINK WE WILL WIN" BUT EXPECT A TOUGH GAME

With the spirit of "win or bust" Coach Sanders' Wildcats will go to Tahoka this afternoon for their first game of the season against the fast Tahoka eleven. The school boys are in splendid condition after five weeks of hard workouts and skull practice. However, the foe is reported to be a much better squad than the 1936 aggregation and the locals will probably have no easy time in bringing back the honors.

The Bulldogs dropped their first game last Friday by a score of 19 to 0 in a non-conference tilt. Today's meet is a conference game. The Bulldogs will average around 160 pounds which allows the Wildcats a good margin in weight.

Sanders has built his team around eight lettermen of no mean experience. J. Walker, a four-year man and Captain Lee, two-year man, have made an enviable record on the gridiron and will no doubt continue to "carry on" for the team. Other lettermen include Baize, an end, who is one of the "dreaded threats" on the squad; O. Walker and Graham, guards; L. Burleson, Henson and Elms. Tahoka has five lettermen in tomorrow's tilt.

Probable starting lineup will be for Littlefield: Gates Etter, end; O. Walker, guard; J. Walker, center; Bob Graham, right guard; Burleson and Evans, tackles; H. Baize, end; Captain Lee, quarterback; J. Elms, halfback; Henson, halfback; Burleson, fullback.

Coach Sanders and the squad are anxious to make "good" at this first game and fans are urged to go with the team to Tahoka tomorrow. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Next Friday on the home gridiron the Wildcats will clash with the Lubbock Cowhounds. This promises to be a fast game.

Judge L. R. Crockett Outlines Road Program For Year

County Judge Outlines Plan To Start October First

The proposed road construction plan has been worked out by County Judge L. R. Crockett for the consideration and support of the Commission on Road Construction and County Planning Board, for the period beginning October 1, 1938, and ending October 1, 1939, as follows:

Complete project from Amherst to Highway No. 51 at Herndon and from there to Fieldton on Highway No. 51 improvement where state will take over and build road from Highway No. 7 to the end of Oklahoma Avenue and on North to Fieldton and from Fieldton North to Highway No. 28 near Olton.

Improve road from Hockley to line North to Spade and from Spade North to Harts Camp and on to Olton, connecting with Highway No. 28.

Improve road from Olton North to Carzo County line near Hart.

Improve road from Spade to Hale County line.

Improve road East from Fieldton to Harts Camp and from there to Hale County line.

Cooperate with the city of Olton in getting hard-surfaced road from Highway No. 28 to Court House.

Improve road from Highway No. 28 to Cemetery.

Make plans to improve and maintain all School Bus and Mail Routes and any other important lateral roads leading to and from school houses, churches, community centers and homes. It will of course be impossible with the available funds at the time to build and maintain all roads in the county, so in order to serve the majority of the people and tax payers it is imperative that we service the most traveled lateral roads in order to take care of the traffic in a more efficient manner.

The people of Lamb County are asked to cooperate in a plan of this kind and if there is any criticism of the above plan or any adjustment the people wish to make in carrying out, taking from or changing the plan in any manner that notice should be given to the Commission on Road Construction or County Planning Board within a reasonable time so that the proposed plan may be changed as nearly as possible to meet with the approval of all.

EXTENSION SPECIALISTS CONTINUE DRIVE TOWARD COTTON IMPROVEMENT

The series of meetings recently held in 41 South Texas counties in the interest of improving the quality of Texas cotton will be extended to cover all of the principal cotton producing counties in the state, according to E. A. Miller, agronomist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Miller, accompanied by Roy F. Saunders of the Bureau of Plant Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, and F. E. Lichte, Extension Service cotton gin specialist, is at present holding meetings in 38 West and Northwest Texas counties. Farmers, ginners, oil millers, compress managers, cotton buyers, bankers, editors, vocational agriculture teachers, and other interested persons are invited to attend the meetings.

"The quality of Texas cotton has deteriorated to the point where short cotton is hard to sell and many spinners, in placing their orders for cotton, specify that no cotton from Texas and Oklahoma be included in the sale," Miller said. "Our exports of cotton are still on the down-grade and according to authorities on the subject, it is necessary for us to improve our quality to meet the increased competition of foreign countries."

"The Extension Service has the responsibility of doing everything possible to correct this situation which so vitally concerns the welfare of the state. A large part of our cash farm revenue is derived from cotton," he continued.

SILVER PLAQUE TO BE AWARDED WINNERS OF STATE FARM AWARD

A banquet will be held at the Methodist Church, Littlefield, Thursday evening, September 23, at 7 o'clock honoring the R. B. McQuatters family, who are winners of the State Master Award.

A beautiful silver plaque will be awarded the McQuatters family at the banquet. A gold pin will also be awarded to Pauline Nix, 4-H Club Gold Star Winner.

The Publisher of the Leader, Morley B. Drake, and Mrs. Drake have been extended an invitation to be present at the banquet.

Deputy Sam Hutson attended court as a witness in the case, as did also a number of Sudan citizens, including W. H. Lyle, Bob Doss, Vast Terry, and Doc Partell.

Sheriff And Deputy Returns Prisoner From Near Tahoka

He was returned from Tahoka by Sheriff Mrs. F. A. Loyd and Deputy Sam Hutson to Olton, where he appeared before Judge Kennedy; bond set at $1000; and is being held in jail pending the February term of court.

WILL ROGERS SHRINE OF SUN DEDICATED

Cowboys Have Own Manner Of Memorializing Him

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., Sept. 21.—Dedication of the Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun to the everlasting memory of Will Rogers took place at 11 a. m. (MST) Sept. 6 on Cheyenne mountain. The feudal castle spire of native granite pierces the heavens high up on the backbone of America where the celestial spirit of Will Rogers reaches the humility of mankind in the sanctuary conceived and built by Spencer Penrose, Colorado Springs sportsman.

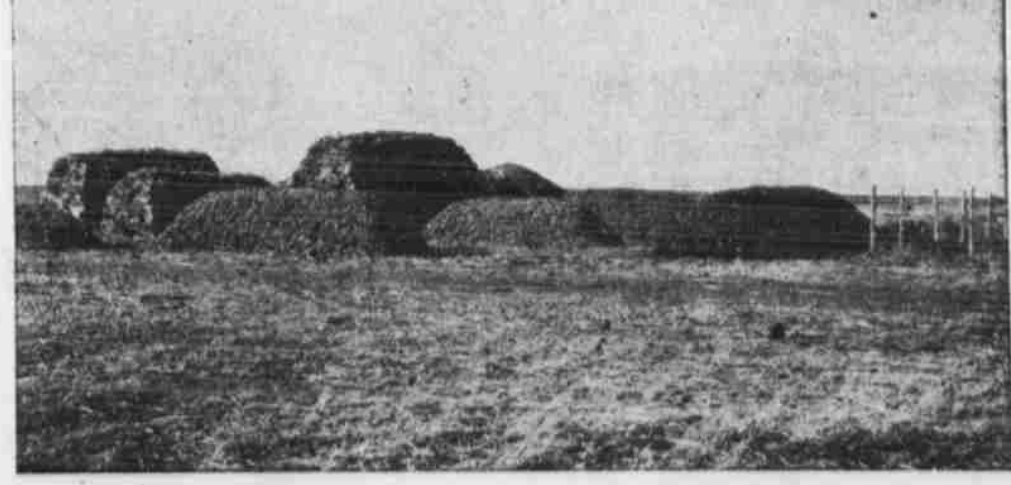

As the chimes and vibraharp in the "singing tower" or the shrine played "Empty Saddle", a saddled, but riderless horse led a procession of statesmen, actors, aviators, cowboys, Indians, and other friends up the swithback road on the face of Cheyenne mountain. When the procession approached the tower at the "end of the trail", the Men of the West' NBC quartet, sang "Old Faithful", the favorite of Will Rogers and the song that was rendered at his funeral.

U. S. Senator Ed C. Johnson of Colorado introduced Thurston J. Davies, president of Colorado College, whose brief eulogy dedicated the shrine.

With the singing tower accompaniment, the cowboy quartet sang "Home on the Range," as the magnificent oversize bust of Mr. Rogers was unveiled on its granite pedestal just outside the memorial. With a smile twitching at his lips, and his hair partly over his right eye, Will Rogers looks off to the southwest—across the plains that roll off into his native Oklahoma. This unveiling privileges goes to three of Mr. Rogers' kin: former senator W. M. Gulager of Muskogee, a cousin; Gunter Lane, Okla., a nephew who looks almost exactly like Will Rogers, and Mrs. Lasca Luckett, niece who has been hostess at the shrine this summer.

Christening of the memorial done by Fred Lookout, son of Chief Lookout of the Osage tribe in Oklahoma. The Lookouts were close friends of Mr. Rogers, who was

LOWRIMORE-IRVIN ANNOUNCE THEY ARE READY FOR COTTON SEASON

Local Ginners Make Extensive Improvements On Plant; All Modern Equipment Is Added This Season

An announcement of much importance to the farmers in this section of the country is made this week by Lowrimore and Irvin, ginners, wherein it is stated that considerable improvements have been made to their ginning plant here.

All new cleaners and extractors have been added which will be an assurance that the best possible turnout and staple will be had from cotton ginned there this season. A new cotton house with a capacity of 160 bales has been erected and this will enable the farmers to receive a better and more convenient service.

All new steel machinery has been installed. This is the most modern equipment made for ginning plants.

The owners have gone to considerable additional expense this season in preparing their cotton gin to give the patrons the best possible service.

An invitation is extended to the general public to visit this plant at any time during the season. They also announce that the plan is now ready to receive any cotton brought to them.

C. E. Byrne Brings First Bale Of Cotton To Spade

C. E. Byrne of four miles north, and one west of Spade community, brought the first bale of 1937 cotton to Spade. The C. E. Dean Anton gin ginned the cotton, which brought 15 cents a pound, or $61.50 for the bale.

S. Replin Building Modern Duplex Here

The building will be 46 feet wide by 30 feet long. It is expected to be completed about September 25. Cicero Smith Lumber company are providing the materials.

This is a needed addition to residential property in Littlefield as it is estimated that about fifty more homes are needed here now to take care of the growth of the city.

Tune Foreign Radio Programs Easier Than Domestics

It is a commonplace to say that radio surmounts all physical barriers to penetrate into far-off places and that it shrinks the size of the world by bringing it all within the compass of a single home radio receiving set. Yet short-wave radio enthusiasts know that until recently a certain amount of skill in tuning and adjustment was a prerequisite to bringing in the distant, low-powered foreign programs. Now comes the news from Mr. Gariand of the Garland-White company, of the development by RCA Victor of new all-wave radio receivers that actually make it easier to tune these foreign short-wave stations than it is to tune for your favorite domestic radio stations.

"How this almost superhuman feat of engineering was accomplished in the RCA laboratories at Camden, N. J., is far too technical a subject to explain here," said Mr. Gariand, "but its effect in terms of performance can be simply described in a few words. The engineers redesigned the electrical circuits within the radio set in such a way as to literally spread out and multiply by fifty times the space which a distant foreign station occupies on the tuning dial. Anyone who has tried to tune in foreign stations knows that they have hitherto been so closely spaced on the dial that hardly a feather-touch on the tuning knob was sufficient to detune the station or run into another one."

A remarkable "overscan" dial, unlike anything ever seen before in radio, has been designated to take advantage of the new circuit development. This dial has been incorporated on all of the new RCA Victor 13-tube and 16-tube models. The four most important short-wave entertainment bands are spread across the full length of a 9 1/2-inch dial in a straight line. For instance, in ordinary radio sets, the entire popular 25-meter band, which is crowded with well-known foreign stations, occupies scarcely 1-2 inch on the dial. On the "overscan" dial this band is spread out over the full 9 1/2 inches. The same holds true for the 49-, 31- and 19-meter bands. The stations are plainly marked by name so that it is in fact easier to tune in foreign stations than it is to tune in domestic stations.

Ranking with the development of the new short-wave tuning circuits is another great advance applied to domestic broadcasting — and that is automatic electric tuning, according to Mr. Gariand. You merely push a button and any one of eight pre-selected stations is instantly and precisely tuned in. The average radio listener rarely listens regularly to more than four or five stations, but with electric tuning he can set the automatic mechanism to bring in eight different stations at the touch of a button. The pre-setting is simple and the mechanism fool-proof against tampering. It's the modern counterpart of the famed old Aladdin's lamp. For additional convenience the same RCA Victor engineers have duplicated the push buttons on a handy little control box to provide "arm-chair" control, from an easy chair.

The foregoing and many other remarkable features which bring the radio art to a new high of progress are included in a complete new series of no less than thirty-nine RCA Victor instruments which have been

THIS IS US COMING BACK FROM OUR HONEYMOON

Mr. Frank Phillips, President, Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Dear Sir:

It all started when I got something in my eye while we were riding with the top down.

It hurt and I cried and Harold — that's my husband — flared up and called me a cry-baby.

Oh, he's usually a dear. But our engine was overheating and puffing steam like a peanut roaster. And such knocking, you never heard in all your life.

Well, I was practically frantic with my eyes. I rubbed my good eye. I pulled the lid of my bad eye three times. I really tried everything. But no use.

Suddenly, off all the marvelous things that happen — right there, practically in the wilds of Wisconsin, we saw a gas station. Harold drove in, saw a gas station. Harold drove in, glassed on the brakes, and yells to the man, "What have you got for cinders in the eye?"

As polite as could be, the man answered, "There's a big, well-lighted mirror in our rest room. Wash and water and clean towels." And with that, he started cleaning the fussy spots off our windshield.

In a jiffy I had the black speck out, and what a relief! Harold felt so bad about being seen to the man that he bought some gasoline. By the way, he forgot to say it was a Phillips 66 station and that's the reason I am writing to you.

Well, you never saw such a change in a car. It ran like mad. Cool as an ice-facial and as quiet as the girl who gives it to you. The actor purred and Harold grinned and says, "She sure runs okay-dokay on Phillips 66. Wonder where that Poly gas has been all my life!"

From then on, he was all smiles the whole trip. Every time we needed gas, we'd wait till we saw a 66 shield.

To make a long story short, from the time we started using Phillips 66 gasoline and motor oil, we had a perfectly marvelous trip.

In fact, we had such a swell honeymoon with Phillips 66 that I felt I simply had to tell someone — and I thought you were president of the company since you are president of you and you could thank that polite young man up in Wisconsin for starting us using Phillips gas and oil.

It certainly saved us money. And who knows, it may even have saved my husband some alimony! But seriously, we were certainly are going to use Phillips 66 — and nothing else — from now on.

Yours very truly,
(Mrs) June

Better cooking results is one of the most important reasons for buying any range. It is the BIG reason why we recommend a Westinghouse Electric Range. While you are away, it cooks a complete meal to a perfect goodness that the family will rave about. For example, shrinkage of meat is practically eliminated as the healthful juices are cooked IN and NOT evaporated. The golden brown cakes, pies, and biscuits are always a treat to the eye and the appetite. So, for goodness sake, cook with a Westinghouse Electric Range.

PENTHOUSE MURDER

by Caleb Johnson

NINTH INSTALLMENT

...A card game is in progress in Elmer Henderson's penthouse in a New York skyscraper. The players are: Henderson, Frazier, Flaherty, Martin Frazier, Doane, Max Michaelis, and Archie Williams, a stockbroker.

...waiting for Stephen Henderson. When he fails to appear, Henderson calls the informant who is out with a girl. Henderson and Henderson are both interested in Lydia Lane, the famous actress, but Archie Williams reveals that she is engaged to marry him.

...leaves the party early when Henderson fails to appear. A short time later he telephones Inspector Frazier with the frantic news that he has found Fitzgerald and Miss Lane in Lydia Lane's penthouse apartment.

...Flaherty and the medical examiner reach the apartment, they find that Miss Lane is still alive. They rushed to a hospital where transfusions and care promise to save her.

...circumstantial evidence points to Doane as the murderer, but when the murder gun is carefully planted in the chimney-out in the basement.

...Lane's French maid, Adele, has been overheard threatening to shoot Fitzgerald if he does not stop annoying her. The janitor reports that Mademoiselle works in a night club on Broadway and that she had talked to him in the basement on the night of the murder.

...medical examination reveals that Miss Lane had been given a hypodermic injection of a hypnotic drug before being shot, and that Fitzgerald's body also shows the mark of a hypodermic needle on his leg.

...think you can clear him, Dan."

"Well, you've never let me down. I'll take a chance on your say-so. Then let me have a word with the house physician, before we start," said Michaelis. "Doctor," he asked, as the medical man came in, "you observed the symptoms which Miss Lane exhibits when she recovered consciousness after her blood transfusion?"

"Do you know of any drug, which could be administered in a small dose, hypodermically, which would produce a profound sleep for a period of five or six hours and cause the after-symptoms such as you observed?"

"Yes, Hyoscin might do it if the patient were especially susceptible."

"That's what is used in the so-called 'twilight sleep,' is it not?"

"Precisely. It induces a profound sleep which does not amount to unconsciousness but leaves the patient afterwards without any memory of what occurred while under its influence."

The trio had got into the Inspector's car and started for the Highgate building before Martin Frazier spoke.

"I've been trying to puzzle out what you're driving at, Max," the Assistant District Attorney said. "You've got an idea the girl was doped, haven't you?"

"Something like that," Michaelis agreed.

"And that she had Archie Doane's phone number and those words from her play so firmly fixed in her subconscious mind that she called him without knowing that she was doing it?"

"Here, that doesn't tally with the phone company's record of no calls," interposed Inspector Flaherty.

"They've been known to make mistakes," observed Frazier. "Max has something up his sleeve. He'll tell us when he gets good and ready. Meantime I'm trying to figure it out."

"What about thought transference? Telepathy? You think she might have got her call across to him that way?"

"No, I won't stand for that," said Dan Flaherty. "There may be something in telepathy, but you can't prove it by the police nor to a jury. Let me give a guess at what Max is driving at. Will you tell me if I get your theory right, Max?"

"Perhaps," replied Michaelis, smiling.

"Well, then it would work this way," the Inspector went on. "The Lane dame could have taken that gun from the studio. We haven't given much thought to that. Say she was afraid of Fitz—that's reasonable. He might have threatened her, if she took Archie instead of him."

"Now, there's been cases where nuts have gone around with hypodermics jabbing girls on the street. We sent a dope up for that last year. Now one of them bumps into her, see?"

In his eagerness Dan Flaherty was lapsing back into the vernacular of his native Ninth Ward.

"No use asking why; there ain't no reason in what any nut like that does. Anyway, she's all doped up when she gets into her apartment. Thinks a pin stuck into her, and there's a pin in her dress—probably picked up in the taxi. Her maid goes out and she lies down and goes to sleep. I've heard of this twilight sleep. They know what's going on but they can't remember any of it afterwards, see?"

"Now, she's dead to the world, but she isn't. Get me? Fitz comes along an' she lets him in. They get into a scrap an' she pulls the gun on him. He grabs for it an' it goes off and gets her in the arm, in the tussle. The gun drops an' she grabs it an' lets him have it through the heart."

"Then she drops the gun down the chimney, drags Fitz over to try to put him on the couch, finds she can't lift him an' then gets faint from her own wound an' flops where we found her. How's that, Max?"

"A good theory if it wasn't for the snow, Dan," smiled Max Michaelis. "You musn't leave the snow out of your calculations. The persons who planned and committed this crime overlooked the snow. If the gun was dropped down the chimney it was done before the snow fell."

"Fitz might have lingered alive for hours," suggested Frazier.

"With a bullet through his heart? You heard what the Medical Examiner said," objected Dan Flaherty. But Max Michaelis smiled in assent.

"You're getting warm, Martin," he said. "That would explain why there were no tracks in the snow."

"Fitz could have done it!" exclaimed Frazier.

"What? Dropped the gun down the chimney after he was rough the heart?" demanded Inspector incredulously.

"Doped the girl, I mean," explained Frazier. "That what you wanted to ask Henderson, Max? If he saw Fitz when they got out of the taxi? I'd almost forgotten it."

SENATOR NELSON IS SPEAKER AT LITTLEFIELD FARMERS COOPERATIVE GIN ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAY

Large Crowd Hears Talk On Cooperation, Legislator Also Talks On Tax Problems Before Special Session

Senator G. H. Nelson was honor speaker at the entertainment sponsored by the Littlefield Farmers Cooperative Gin Saturday afternoon at the gin yard.

Senator Nelson chose as his subject "Cooperation", and after explaining several points of the national farm program, stating that he had no connection with it, urged his audience to individually or through the representatives of a collective group, find out something about the effects of the law proposed to be enacted before they gave their endorsement to it.

In speaking of the cooperative gin movement itself, Senator Nelson took the position that the farmer has the right to put into marketable condition any product that he might grow, stating that cotton is not in a marketable state when it is picked and that in order to sell it, it must be ginned, thus Senator Nelson's contention was that they should not be censured for encroaching on private industry, adding further "The doctor, lawyer, merchant and men of other walks of life, invest their money in corporation stock for the purpose of making their money make more money for them. The farmers in building a cooperative gin and investing their money in that manner have simply chosen that source to make their dollars work more efficiently."

Senator Nelson spoke on the tax problems that are confronting the Legislature when it convenes on September 27, stating that the State has a deficit of about 15 million dollars, and the Legislature is going to need a little cooperation from the people to have it paid.

He stated to his audience that there were two things his mother taught him when a little boy that he had never forgotten: one was that "he who dances must pay the fiddler," and second—"that you can't get something for nothing," adding that "the people of this state cannot make demands for appropriations from their legislature without expecting to have a bill to pay. In my travels over the district, I have come to the conclusion that these larger number of people want the larger number of people want some taxes raised, but they want the other fellow to pay it. I would like to see an organization of people in this state cooperating to hold down costs of State Government, in order that I would not have such a painful task to perform by taxing the people."

C. H. Hutto acted as master of ceremonies, and conducted two amateur contests, which proved outstanding.

The entertainment opened with musical entertainment and parade through downtown to Farmers Co-op. Gin, following which the contests and address of Senator Nelson followed.

ularly in school, having no criminal records, boys physically fit to perform a normal day's work, and who have need of the training that they will receive. They must be from families in which there is insufficient income for a normal standard of living. The boys enrolled will receive a salary of $30.00 per month, of which amount $25.00 will be allotted to the dependents. The enrollment of 800 boys from these 35 counties means an income of $24,000 monthly, of which amount $20,000 will go to the support of dependents. If the 800 boys enrolled remain in camp as long as they are permitted to, which is two years, the total wages of these boys would be $576,000, of which $480,000 would go to needy families.

The pay that these boys receive is less than half of the actual benefits that are derived. Food, lodging, clothing, and medical treatment will increase the benefits received to between $60.00 and $75.00 per month each. Based upon $75.00 per month, this enrollment has a potential benefit of $1,440,000 that can be received by the residents of the 35 counties in these two districts.

CCC ENROLLMENT TO TAKE PLACE NEXT MONTH

Quota is 800 For 35 Counties in Panhandle

Notice has just been received of a CCC enrollment to take place in October. The quota given for the Texas Relief Commission, Districts 16 & 17, comprised of 39 counties in the Panhandle, is 800. These enrollees will be selected from families receiving assistance through the Works Progress Administration, Resettlement Administration, Surplus Commodities Corporation, City County, or local charitable institutions. In addition to being from families with a relief status, a fairly large percent will be selected from families not receiving relief but in which there is an insufficient income for a normal standard of living. This is the first time in over two years that the selecting agents have been allowed to accept applications from boys whose families are not actually receiving relief. This enrollment presents an opportunity to these families to supplement their insufficient income and at the same time to give the boys of these families an opportunity for training that will be of great benefit to themselves for future life.

Eligibility requirements for this enrollment are as follows: Boys between the ages of 17 and 23 inclusive, single, unemployed, not reg-

Officers Return Man Charged For Check Swindling

Sheriff Mrs. F. A. Loyd and Deputy Sheriff Sam Hutson returned last week from Chickasha, Okla., with a man giving his name as Jack O'Leary, who was indicted at last term of court by Grand Jury at Olton, on a charge of swindling by worthless check for $288.00.

The check was alleged to have been given to a Lamb County farmer for grain, but never paid.

The prisoner was returned to Littlefield, but made bond in the sum of $500, and was released awaiting the February term of court.

SANTA FE ISSUE NEW FOLDER ON AGRICULTURAL, INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES

The Santa Fe Railway has issued a new folder on the agricultural and industrial resources, history and development of the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas. The folder is illustrated with prosperous farm and city scenes, and will be widely distributed among prospective settlers and investors, states M. C. Burton, general freight and passenger agent.

"The Panhandle and South Plains area," says the booklet in way of introduction, "is a new empire of over 40,000 square miles. Fully 70 per cent of the land is adapted to cultivation. —Fifty years ago cattle men began to find their way into the Panhandle and South Plains—not until about 1900 did settlers begin to try to make a living from the soil.

"The coming of the railroads—opened the door for development. What has happened since 1900 borders on the miraculous. Land that stockmen had considered valuable for grazing and nothing more has proven wonderfully productive under the plow—agriculture has become an important industry and has built the little cow towns into modern cities.

"The Santa Fe built its Southern Kansas Line into Panhandle City in 1887—and points with pride to the development that has taken place along its lines. It planned and built a net-work of lines over Northwest Texas and connected the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Coast.—The Panhandle and South Plains have been placed by the Santa Fe in a peculiar advantageous position as to markets."

The thirty-two Santa Fe served counties described in the booklet are Sherman, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hemphill, Roberts, Hutchinson, Moore, Potter, Carson, Gray, Wheeler, Randall, Deaf Smith, Castro, Parmer, Bailey, Lamb, Hockley, Cochran, Terry, Gaines, Dawson, Lynn, Garza, Curry, Lubbock, Crosby, Floyd, Hale, Swisher, and Yoakum.

Towns receiving special mention are Amarillo, Lubbock, Plainview, Canadian, Snyder, Hereford, Canyon, Slaton, Post, Floydada, Tulia, Lamesa, Lockney, Ralls, Pampa, Miami, Crosbyton, Higgins, Spearman, Perryton, Booker, Panhandle, Farwell, Brownfield, Tahoka, Happy, Kress, Hale Center, Abernathy, Glazier, White Deer, Friona, Sen-graves, Follett, Muleshoe, Littlefield, Lorenzo, Idalou, Sudan, Amherst, Levelland, Meadow, O'Donnel, Anton, Bledsoe, Ropes, Stratford, Dumas, Morse, Allison and Mobeetie.

Concerning Lamb County and Littlefield, the booklet says Littlefield is located in Lamb County on the Gulf-Pacific trunk of the Santa Fe Railway. It is in the center of a very fertile district of the well-known Yellow House pasture which is now being opened for settlers. There is a grain elevator, a cotton seed oil mill, six cotton gins, churches, fine public schools, good stores and a bank. Population about 4,000.

GATES OF PANHANDLE SOUTH PLAINS FAIR TO SWING OPEN MONDAY, SEPT. 27

LUBBOCK, SEPT. 19 — Final preparations are being made for the Panhandle South Plains Fair, and according to schedule the gates will swing wide Monday morning, September 27th, unfolding to the people of this section the accomplishments of over a quarter of a century on the South Plains.

With the additional exhibit space that has already been added to the huge Agriculture Building, almost every county on the South Plains will be on parade. The Livestock Building likewise will offer one of the best exhibitions of its kind ever to be shown in this section. The Industrial Building packed to overflowing with commercial exhibits, the implement and farm machinery exhibits, the Women's Building and the large Boy Scout exhibit, all lend toward making the 24th annual exposition the best ever to be presented.

Growers present decided on a warehouse and authorized the selection of a building for housing seed, the directors to handle the details. It was also decided to secure a state charter.

Other producers present were: J. W. Hammock, Sudan; J. L. Bowling, Littlefield; W. H. Cunningham, Littlefield; C. W. Smiley, Littlefield and A. H. Howell, Bula.

W. A. Goeth, Abernathy, a state inspector for the department of agriculture, sat with the men and advised on many matters. Question of a price for seed was discussed and figures agreed upon. They are slightly lower than last year.

It was also decided to arrange for one or two breeders to go into South Texas late this month to contact wholesale seed men and arrange for representation as jobbers.

the nation's foremost "big top" organizations; and scores of other attractions, fair visitors should plan to spend several days at the exposition this year.

Local Dairy Shows Splendid Growth In 12 Years

Small Herd First Served Customers When Vaught Began Selling Milk To Littlefield Folk; Modern Plant Now

Invites Public To Visit Plant During Fair

On Highway No. 7, about two miles west of the city limits is located one of the beauty spots of the county. It is the Vaught Dairy, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. George Vaught, who have been in the dairy business in Littlefield for the past twelve years.

Had Only 3 Cows

This modern dairy plant began its service to this community with only three cows, but they were the best that could be had and now after more than a decade the herd has grown to thirty-six head that would be a credit to any dairy plant in the state.

Plant Is Modern

When one visits the Vaught Dairy a surprise is in store for them in the fact that Mr. Vaught has only the most modern equipment obtainable. His cooling system is equal to that of a much larger plant and is of the latest improvement. A regulated temperature is maintained at all times and the place is spotlessly clean. The bottling machine is the latest type and is always used under the most sanitary conditions.

Pasteurized Milk

The Vaughts take great pride in their Grade A Pasteurized milk that has won quite a reputation in this immediate section for its exceptional quality. This machine is one of the best and has meant much to the growth of the Vaught Dairy. The local CCC camp is supplied daily with this product.

Visitors Always Welcome

Visitors to the plant are always given a cordial welcome. One is first attracted to the place by the landscaping in front of the home. This work is recent and when finished will be a beauty spot. Driveways are walled with rock and in front had been left space for a large lilly pond. To the side will be a garden for colored flowers of many varieties. To the rear of the flower space will be a rose garden. Walks will be made to convenient points in the yard and already a splendid start of grass, which the owners are justly proud of.

The Vaught's Dairy is one business that Littlefield can be proud of and the Vaughts are proud that they are citizens of Littlefield.

Plan For Goodwill Tours To Advertise The Panhandle Fair

Plans for a series of goodwill tours to publicize the Panhandle-South Plains Fair September 27, through October 3, have been completed and announced by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

The first trip was scheduled for Thursday last, and included Slaton, Southland, Post, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Seminole, Seagraves, Brownfield, Meadow, and Ropesville.

Second of the good will journeys took place Sept. 21, and included Abernathy, Hale Center, Plainview, Lockney, Floydada, Matador, Roaring Springs, Dickens, Spur, Crosbyton, Ralls, Lorenzo and Idalou.

The third tentative, is set for Sept. 23, and the probable itinerary will be: Shallowater, Anton, Littlefield, Amherst, Sudan, Muleshoe, Clovis, Enochs, Morton, Leveland and Smyer.

IMPROVING PROPERTY

Iturbi and Sister on Ford Hour

PLAYING together for the first time on the air, Jose and Amparo Iturbi, shown above, will be heard at two piano on the Ford Sunday Evening Hour September 19, over the Columbia network. Amparo, who came to this country last Spring, gave her first recital in Barcelona when she was fifteen years old and made a number of European concert tours with Jose after the latter had established himself.

One of the world's outstanding pianists, Jose is largely self-taught, although he did attend the Paris Conservatory for a short time on a scholarship he received from Valentin music lovers. He has been in America since 1929 and during the past summer conducted the Philadelphia Orchestra at Robin Hood Dell. Incidentally, in addition to playing with Amparo, he will conduct the entire program.

COTTON AND COTTONSEED SHOW LESS DECLINE THAN OTHER FARM PRODUCTS

With more abundant supplies, prices of many farm crops are lower this fall than a year ago or than last spring, analysis of Government and market reports reveals. On the other hand, prices of livestock and their products are generally higher, making livestock feeding especially profitable at this time.

On August 15 this year, says the Department of Agriculture, the index of all farm product prices was 2 points lower than a month ago and 1 point under a year ago. Prices of two leading Southern crops—cotton and cottonseed—showed less decline than several other farm products, dropping only 16 points against 20 points decline for all grains and 22 points for fruit. Prices of meat animals and animal products, however, rose from July to August.

Price Is In Products
Cottonseed is an example of a major crop whose value has been cut by lower prices of its products. Due to decreases of 25 to 45 per cent in prices of cottonseed meal, hulls, oil and linters—the products which determine the value of the seed, itself—the value of the cottonseed is less than a year ago. As a result of this reduction in products' prices, cottonseed has dropped in value along with corn, wheat, oats, fruits and many other crops.

In addition to reduced prices of products, the low quality of some seed has been a factor in limiting its value in many localities. Chemical analyses show cottonseed to be 40 to 60 pounds, or more, lower in oil in certain areas than the average for the Cotton Belt as a whole. This, alone, may cut the value of seed by several dollars per ton.

How reduced product values may decrease the value of cottonseed is clearly shown by the following table, listing a range of decreases in the value of the products from a ton of seed this year compared with last year. Local figures may vary from these, depending upon daily changes in prices and local variation in the quality of seed, but the figures quoted give an accurate picture of the causes for reduced seed values.

RANGE OF DECREASES IN THE VALUE OF PRODUCTS FROM A TON OF COTTONSEED FROM 1936 TO 1937

Cottonseed Meal	—$4.65 to $6.51
Hulls	—$.55 to $1.10
Linters	—$1.40 to $3.50
TOTALS	—$12.20 to $18.88

Feed Costs Reduced

On the other hand, cotton growers who sell their seed, or exchange it, and obtain meal and hulls for considerably less than a year ago. In many cases, the cotton grower can eliminate entirely any difference between the money value of his seed this year and last if he uses the products from the seed. For example, if a ton of seed last year purchased a ton of meal, and a ton of seed this year will purchase a ton of meal, the farmer who uses meal obtains the same feeding value as a year ago. In fact, because of higher livestock prices, he probably will receive a higher return from his seed than a year ago.

Cottonseed Meal Cheaper
Cottonseed meal not only is cheaper than a year ago, but also is relatively cheaper than most other feedstuffs of similar feeding value. By using cottonseed meal to supplement and replace part of the higher-priced farm grains in livestock rations, Southern cotton growers and ranchmen can take advantage of present favorable livestock markets.

Livestock prices are well above a year ago, which should encourage increased livestock feeding throughout the South, where cheap feed is available. Prices of beef cattle are approximately 36 per cent above a year ago, of hogs 10 per cent higher and of lambs 8 per cent higher.

The low cost of meal and hulls this year, compared to the relative high value of beef, mutton and pork, makes it possible for Southern farmers to use meal and hulls and get higher returns from a ton of seed exchanged for meal and hulls than could be realized from a ton of seed last year—even though seed sells for less on the market this year. Intelligent use of the products of cottonseed will put money in the pockets of Southern farmers.

FALL FESTIVAL TO BE STAGED AT PAN AMERICAN EXPOSITION

Dallas, Sept. 21.—With six weeks to go before the Texas and Pan American Exposition closes, the management has planned a Fall Festival, "45 days of fun, frolic and sports."

Six week-ends of entertainment are carded for the Fall Festival, with an array of new amusements for week days.

Outstanding among the events planned is a free personal appearance of Arkansas' prime ambassador and radio and screen comedian, Bob Burns, on Saturday and Sunday, September 25 and 26.

Both free shows of Bob Burns are slated for the Cotton Bowl.

A fall automobile show where 1938 models of all motor cars will be displayed is on the calendar of events. High school and college football games, 18 of them, offer an unusual program. Amateur Radio Station Operated by J. C. Elms to be Installed at Fair Grounds to Transmit Greetings

To Be Located in Cal. Havey Booth Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Amateur radio station W5ERU, operated by J. C. Elms, Cashier of the First National bank of Littlefield, was first licensed to operate in Erick, Oklahoma in December 1934, and was moved to Littlefield in July 1935, soon thereafter the station was licensed to operate in Littlefield.

Amateur radio is quite fascinating, in that the operators of the forty-seven thousand stations in the United States are permitted to handle messages within the bounds of the United States and its Island possessions. These messages must be confined to that of a friendly nature, such as birthday greetings, congratulatory messages, Easter greetings, Christmas greetings, and any other messages of a friendly nature, so long as it is not of commercial classification, and these messages may be sent free of charge, the operator not being allowed to charge for them.

All licensed amateur stations are licensed by the Federal Communications Commission, and are under the direct supervision of that Commission at all times.

The Littlefield Station is of moderate power, and has mail acknowledgement from every state in the U. S. of having heard and communicated with the operator, and mail acknowledgements from Germany and Russia has also been received, the acknowledgements from the foreign countries state the day and hour the station was heard in that country.

During the Lamb county fair the station will be on exhibit at the fair grounds, in the booth to be occupied by Co. Harvey Radio & Electric company, and for the benefit of those who care to send messages a box in which to deposit your messages will be placed in a convenient place, and the station will if possible, be in operation for two hours night for the purpose of transmitting messages that

BOY SCOUT WORK IN LITTLEFIELD IS SHOWING DECIDED IMPROVEMENT

Over $14,000,000 Received By Texas Unemployment Commn.

Austin, Sept. 21.—Past the fourteen million mark soared the "Jobless Fund" of Texas employees September 1.

Orville S. Carpenter, Director of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, announced that $14,010,000.10 had been received by the Commission from 11,900 employers on the wages of 750,000 employees. This represents an accumulated fund for the ten months the Commission has been in existence. An estimated additional $6,000,000.00 will be collected by 1938 at which time benefit payments to qualified employees will become payable.

The unemployment Trust Fund is deposited in the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas and is invested in government owned or guaranteed securities, to be held in trust for benefit payments.

might be deposited in the box.

W5ERU is affiliated with the United States Army, having received an official appointment as an Army amateur radio station, and the operator is also a member of the Naval Reserve Operators, and serves regularly in both branches of the service.

Mr. Elms states that each time he communicates with a station that he receives a card by mail, and these cards will be on display at the Lamb County Fair.

Legion And Rotary Club Sponsor Troops Nos. 25 And 26

There has been a decided improvement in Boy Scout work in Littlefield during the past year. Troops 25 and 26, sponsored by the American Legion and the Rotary club have been organized and administered during the past year in such a way that every citizen in the community should feel proud of the progress made.

The South Plains Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America is supported by about 35 towns and communities over which it has supervision in the matter of Scout activities. Two very efficient Scout Executives work with and supervise the Scouting activities in this area council. Littlefield citizens contribute $35.00 monthly to help support this worthy organization. The return in training received by our boys of the Scout age is worth many times more than the small amount of money spent.

Scouting teaches boys to realize their responsibilities as citizens as well as to profitably use their leisure time in happy enjoyment. A Scout learns to be clean in mind as well as body. He is courteous to his elders, helpful to his friends and neighbors, efficient to his employer, cooperative with his teachers, and congenial with all with whom he comes in contact. A community which fails to contribute to and encourage its Boy Scout organizations is missing a splendid opportunity to invest in an admirable citizenship building agency.

'Thin Ice' Gay Magnificent Musical, Stars Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power

A gay and magnificent musical that skims in shimmering delight along with silvery Alpine slopes, snow-drenched with dazzling spectacle and exciting beauty, heart-warming with riotous fun and young romance, brings Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power together, as you wanted them to be, thrilling, as you knew they'd be, in the Twentieth Century Fox picture, "Thin Ice," which will be featured at the Palace Theatre Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday.

Topping all her triumphs of "One in a Million," Miss Henie is more radiantly exciting than ever as she displays new beauty, new daring and new breath-taking thrills.

A delightful romance of mistaken identity affording many hilariously funny situations, "Thin Ice" concerns the romance of a beautiful skating star who falls in love with a man she believes to be a reporter, but who, in reality, is a Prince.

Sonja has come to a hamlet in the Swiss Alps to accept a position as a skating instructor at a magnificent hotel. Prince Rudolph also arrives with Alan Hale and Maurice Cass, each heading a rival contingent, to settle a neutrality pact. He feigns illness in the hope that the continual bickering between Hale and Cass will lead to a quicker signing of the pact.

Having escaped through the back door of the hotel, Tyrone goes to the village inn and registers as a reporter. Then he goes out to ski and meets Sonja. Their first meeting is only casual, but when villagers see Sonja entering a royal car that night with George Givot, whom they believe to be the Prince, the news quickly spreads that she is being favored by Tyrone.

The agents of the two foreign countries also believe the rumor and attempt to win Sonja to their side, and through her get to Tyrone. She refuses, but when one of them dangles a huge offer before her ne'er-do-well uncle, Raymond Walburn, he accepts.

In the meantime, the romance continues to grow, with Sonja still unmindful of the rumor circulating through the village. The agents discover they have been tricked by Walburn and through sympathy for each other, become fast friends. With these matters complicating the situation, the arrival of the Prince Minister (Sig Rumann) opens the way to a happy conclusion.

Three elaborate skating numbers with hundreds of gorgeous girls in sensational ice-revels in the dazzling winter wonderlands of the Swiss Alps, intersperse the romantic story. In these numbers, Miss Henie executes many skating routines more difficult than any ever before attempted on ice. Weeks of intense practice were necessary in order to perfectly execute the routines.

Arthur Treacher, Raymond Walburn and Joan Davis head the important supporting cast, which also includes Sig Rumann, Alan Hale, Leah Ray, Melville Cooper, Maurice Cass, and George Givot.

Darryl F. Zanuck, Twentieth Century-Fox production chief, selected Sidney Lanfield to direct with Raymond Griffith as associate producer. Boris Ingster and Milton Sperling wrote the screen play from a story by Attila Orbok. Lew Pollack and Sidney D. Mitchell composed the music and lyrics for three of the picture's song hits "My Secret Love Affair," "Over Night" and "My Swiss Hilly Billy." Music and lyrics for "I'm Olga From the Volga" were composed by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel. The dances were staged by Harry Losee.

Automobile Parts Are Being Taken From Parked Cars

Large Number To Be Enrolled In Conservation Corps

The 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program will be more successful than the 1936 program, George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, predicted at College Station after a meeting of the committee.

The state AAA office has received 239,084 applications for entry in the current program, within a hundred of the number received in 1936, Slaughter said. The fact that farmers are more familiar with the program than they were last year leads him to believe that a greater number will comply with the terms under which grants are made.

Of the more than 239,000 farmers who filled out work sheets in 1936, some 198,000 fulfilled provisions of the program. These farmers diverted 4,338,000 acres from soil-depleting crops to soil-building uses, and employed soil-building practices, such as terracing, on an additional 4,901,891 acres.

The state office has suspended 52,560 work sheets and returned them to the counties for correction. All except 402 have been corrected and returned to College Station, Slaughter said.

Work sheets have been sent to 123 counties for final adjustments, according to Slaughter, and some 60 additional counties will have their quotas released within the next few days.

More than 18,000 applications for appraisal under the range conservation feature of the program are in the state office, Slaughter said. These applications cover in excess of 62 million acres. Range supervisors are checking range improving practices completed by ranchmen in 173 counties.

Notice to Farmers!

We take this method of announcing to you that we are now ready and prepared to render you first class, up-to-date service in the ginning business.

We would have been glad to have visited you and discussed with you in person your ginning problems, but as we are not politicians and have not had the time to make a house to house canvass, and solicit your business in person, as we have devoted our entire time to improving, repairing and renewing our plant, which we think is much more important in giving you the service you have a right to expect than to spend our time in taking your time telling you where you should gin your cotton.

We have spent considerable time and money putting our plant in first class shape and do not hesitate in saying, we believe we can give you as good service as you can get anywhere. We have tried to select men with ginning experience, capable, willing and anxious to assist us in giving you service.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to you who assisted us in any way with your business the past season, and will endeavor to give you better service this season, and to you whom we did not have the pleasure of meeting and serving, we will appreciate very much you giving us a trial, assuring you of our earnest efforts to give you the best service, a square deal and courteous treatment, and will try to prove ourselves worthy of your every consideration.

Selected To With Lubbock Officials hundred farmers traveled roads through a drenching rain to attend the one variety cotton meeting at Amherst, Thursday, September 23. A. E. Miller and F. E. Lichte of the Extension Service, College Station, discussed with the farmers the seriousness of the cotton situation and told them how it could be remedied by selecting a good variety of cotton and growing it on a community wide basis.

A committee of seven farmers was selected to confer with officials of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock, regarding a cotton variety for the county.

Mrs. Ted Rozak and children, son, Donald, Ted Rozak and daughter Sandra Lou arrived in Littlefield Sunday morning from Chicago, Ill., to visit in the home of J. H. Lucas for several days.

the judges and commissioners of the cotton growing counties of West Texas at an early date. In the meantime contact is being made with Congressman George Mahon, and other representatives and Senators, to arrange that they be present at the meeting. The date and meeting place will be announced later. It is generally conceded that some thing must be done and quick if the farmers are to receive a fair price for their cotton.

EXHIBITS TO BE AT NEW YORK, SAN FRANCISCO

Planning Board Chose Alamo As Illustrating Spirit Of Texas

Austin, Tex., Sept 21—The thrilling story of Texas will be carried to New York and San Francisco world's fairs in sound and color films if the Legislature adopts plans of the Texas Planning Board. The cost of the exhibits at both fairs will not exceed $225,000.

The sound and color film, depicting the industrial, agricultural, recreational, cultural and economic life of the state, would be shown in an air conditioned replica of the Alamo.

The planners discarded the old type of fair and exposition exhibit as being too costly and wholly inadequate to show the 50,000,000 visitors expected at New York, and the 20,000,000 the San Francisco fairmen expect to attend the Golden Gate International Exposition, just what Texas is today.

The Board chose the historic Alamo as best illustrating the spirit of Texas. Plans for each replica were drawn up by Adams & Adams, San Francisco architects who helped to design the Hall of State at Dallas. Plans submitted by the architects call for an exact replica of the Alamo at New York and a smaller replica at San Francisco.
