Garrison Sells Interest In Agency To Former Employee

Homer Garrison has a partner. On Monday of this week papers were signed selling a one-half interest in Homer Garrison Motors to E. C. "Tebe" Caviness of Plainview.

Caviness will take over active management of the Littlefield Lincoln-Mercury agency so that Garrison can devote more of his time to his farming operations.

Caviness is a former employee of Garrison's. He joined the Plainview Lincoln-Mercury agency as a salesman in 1950 when Garrison was a partner in that agency. He remained with it after Garrison sold out and came to Littlefield.

Caviness has been one of the top four salesmen out of the hundreds in the Dallas district every year for the past three years. As such he has been one of the 102 Lincoln-Mercury salesmen in the U. S. each year to win membership in the Inner Circle and some fabulous trips, including one to Bermuda last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Caviness are Methodists. They have two boys, Eddie, 8, and Jimmy, 4. Mrs. Caviness and the boys will move to Littlefield as soon as housing arrangements are completed.

Tebe says Eddie declined to move until he found out for sure that there was a Cub Scout pack

Parade Forms At Highschool; To Move South on Phelps Ave.

Crops Damaged At HC, Olton, Fieldton; Farmers Replant

Moisture in varying amounts and form fell throughout the county late Sunday. The official report for Littlefield was .5 of an inch, bringing the total for the month to 3.34 and for the year to 5.31.

Hail caused considerable damage in the Fieldton, Olton and Hart Camp areas. According to County Agent Dave Eaton, most of the cotton must be replanted in the area where the hail fell. However, the portion of the county affected was limited.

Rain fell in spotted areas over the southern part of the county which, according to unofficial estimates, ranged from 1 inch to 2 inches.

"It's still too early to know just how much replanting will be done as the result of this month's rains," Eaton said Wednesday. "Cotton is coming up in many places where the farmers had thought it would be necessary to replant."

When Polio Strikes Families Should Notify Geo. White

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, of which George L. White is county chairman, has requested that any family in which a member is stricken by polio contact the chapter chairman.

White said, "If you have polio in your family notify me whether or not you have insurance coverage. We will contact the insurance company to find out the amount. The chapter needs records of all patients."

White said statistics show there is more polio in the state than ever before and Texas is second only to California in the number of cases recorded.

The Foundation has found that most of the problems concerning payment of bills, arise from a misunderstanding or misuse of hospital forms. State Representative Mike Hyre said in a letter to White, "I have found a lot of people who think of the National Foundation as a Santa Claus organization."

White said the Foundation feels that a new form now in use will bring about a closer contact between the chapter, the patients in the county and the hospital involved. This form necessitates the notification of the chapter chairman whenever polio strikes a family, in order to save confusion on whether the Foundation pays the bill, or if the care of the patient is going to be underwritten.

$40,900 Allocated By ASC For Listing Payments

June 1 Deadline On Applications

Lamb County farmers may share $40,900 in soil conservation payments, if they hurry. That's the sum which has been allotted to this county to pay for listing done after March 31 to prevent wind erosion.

The payment is 50 cents per acre and it must be claimed BEFORE June 1. Similar payments can be claimed for chiseling, but again it must have been done after March 31 and must have been for erosion control purposes. It too carries a June 1 deadline on applications. Applications must be made through the ASC office at Amherst.

ASC man Charlie Hill reports that this is part of an extra allocation made to a number of West Texas counties as a drought relief measure. He thinks it resulted from Governor Shivers' trip to Washington to tell of the plight of drought stricken West Texas.

Rev. Cox, Olton, Is Main Speaker For Memorial Day

Rev. J. Henry Cox, minister of the First Baptist church of Olton and chairman of the Lamb county chapter of American Red Cross, will be principal speaker at Memorial services at 3 p.m. Sunday in the new Memorial Park, according to Howard Weaver, commander of V.F.W. Post 587L. The Memorial services will be sponsored by the V.F.W. and the V.F.W. Auxiliary.

Participating with him will be Joe Foust, senior vice-commander, John Ramage, junior vice-commander, O. K. Yantis, officer of the day, and Merrel Gamble, chaplain. The Littlefield cemetery is due for a spring cleaning, according to Mrs. Harry Williams, chairman of the Littlefield Garden club's cemetery committee.

Mrs. Williams has requested that all persons owning lots in the local cemetery clean them up or before Friday in order to have all the lots clean before Memorial Day, Sunday.

She also asked that persons who are cleaning cemetery lots and who know that the lot next to theirs is owned by an out-of-town person make an effort to clean both.

Friday has been set by the Garden club as "Cemetery Clean-Up Day," and a representative of the club will be present all day to help or give information.

The cemetery clean-up is an annual project of the club.

John Alford; arrangements, C. A. Miller, chairman, J. E. Chisholm jr., and B. D. Garland jr. and tickets, Jim Mangum and Dr. Glen Burk, co-chairman, Douglas Howell and Arthur Duggan, jr.

The Sod House community's request will be accepted for the first dinner in 1954.

Lace Petticoat Easy to Make

DACRON LACE PETTICOAT . . . Easy to make at home

By Dorothy Roe
Women's Editor

The modern bride is making her trousseau lingerie of dacron lace, now available in the lovely traditional patterns of the old world, but measuring up to today's demands of was ability and hard wear.

A petticoat of dacron lace edged in nylon (net) ruffling is easy to make by directions worked out by local sewing center experts.

Dacron lace is available in 36-inch width. To calculate yardage needed, measure once and a half around the hem of the crinoline that will be worn underneath. Add one inch for seam allowance and five inches for a waistband.

Cut off a five-inch strip for the waistband and two strips 8 x 3 inches for placket facing. Sew up side seam of petticoat, leaving seven inches at top for placket. Bind this before gathering top of skirt. To make waistband, fold five-inch lace strip lengthwise, stitch ends and turn right side out.

Gather top of skirt to fit waist measurement. With right sides together and skirt front attached to belt front, stitch belt and skirt together, hand-stitching inside of belt section to fabric. Sew hooks and eyes on belt and placket.

Finally, trim bottom of petticoat to desired length, if necessary and stitch on ruffled nylon edging. Dacron thread is recommended.

George White, Owner, Assumes Yellowhouse Ranch Management

A seven-year lease on the Yellowhouse Ranch expired this month, according to George White, owner. White took over active management of the 23,000 acre ranch this week.

A. E. Smith of Tribune, Kansas, held the seven-year lease which expired May 1st. White gave up active management of the historic ranch 10 years ago when he joined the Marines. O. G. Hill of Hereford was given a three-year lease at that time.

Fred Salisbury of Clovis took over Saturday as foreman of the ranch.

No cattle will be put on the land until fall. White said Tuesday. Only a small amount of cattle has been on the ranch since last July when Smith moved his Whiteface herd to Montana due to the drought. White has posted no-trespassing signs on the property and warned Tuesday that trespassers will be prosecuted.

Gardening Hints . . .

Nothing has intrigued the gardener more in recent years than the magic possibilities of the use of hormones on plants. Actually there is nothing magic about them.

Hormones have been in common use by home and commercial gardeners for years. They are cheap, are available at most seed stores and are easily applied, even by the rank amateur.

One of the most common uses of hormones on vegetables is to induce fruit-set on tomatoes during hot weather, a major problem in West Texas.

Here tomato plants bloom profusely but the bloom dries up and drops off, leaving the plant bare. With the aid of a fruit-set hormone, the flower can be induced to remain on the plant and the fruit develop. Furthermore, the resulting fruit is either nearly or entirely seedless.

This is how you apply fruit-set hormone on tomatoes.

When the flower buds first open, spray the hormone solution directly into each of the flowers of the cluster. Do NOT spray the foliage (many of the commercial hormone preparations are merely dilute solutions of 2,4-D, the hormone weed killer, and will result in severe stunting or death of the plant).

One application per blossom cluster is adequate. Since only a very small volume of spray is used a common bathroom atomizer will make an adequate sprayer.

This time of year many syndicated dispatches in newspapers and garden columns in popular magazines are singing the praises of staking tomato plants and describing methods of procedure. As desirable as this practice may be in some areas of the United States, write it off your books for West Texas.

Tying tomato plants up on stakes is the surest way to reduce yields in this area. When plants are staked, it is necessary to prune away side branches and encourage only the main stem. This exposes the fruit to direct sunlight. In our climate, exposed fruit will sunburn making it unfit to eat.

Here, our job is to protect the fruit from sunburn. This is most successfully done by encouraging a good, heavy vine growth which will provide the necessary shade. Too, staked tomatoes are more subject to blossom end rot, one of the physiological diseases of tomatoes which become a serious problem in our area.

If you want more and better tomatoes allow your plants to vine naturally on the ground.

Pro vs. Duffer

By WALTER BURKEMO

(Written for AP Newsfeatures)

Clubs that bother the average golfer the most, I have found, are those he uses in his short game, such as the 9-iron or the wedge.

Average golfers usually find trouble in using these shots for chipping over sand traps and hitting the ball over water.

This is mostly a mental problem. The part time golfer develops a fear of water or sand traps. Because of this fear he tries to lift the ball over the hazards instead of swinging the club naturally to scoop the ball. Sometimes he stabs at the ball and fails to follow through.

Both are bad habits. Concentration, plus practice whenever possible, should do much to correct these faults.

My advice to the average golfer is to spend as much of his free time as he can during the week, either at a practice course or on a driving range. If he is unable to get out to a course, at least he might find time to go to a nearby driving range and hit 50 or 60 balls. If he can manage to get out to a range two or three times a week, he will be surprised at the results.

The results will show when he (or she) gets out Saturdays or Sundays for a regular game. Confidence will be increased and believe me, confidence plays a great deal in this game of golf.

My own most troublesome shots have been with fairway woods. I had a tendency to hit down on the ball, and consequently had a hard time getting it into the air.

I corrected this trouble by moving the ball slightly forward, that is, I changed my stance so that the ball was on a line just inside my left heel.

This makes you stay behind the ball, gives your swing more of an arc and sends the ball on a higher trajectory.

Incidentally, as a word of encouragement to average golfers, the average score of all golfers in this country, including the scores of the professionals, is 96 strokes per round.

E. J. Nugent, and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Wood were among the more than 5,000 buyers who attended the American Fashion Association's Fall and Back-to-school Market in Dallas, May 16-21.

The American Fashion Association, comprised of 500 salesmen, displayed more than 1,200 lines of women's and children's apparel at the Adolphus, Baker and Dallas Hotels.

Headlining the events of Market Week was the A.F.A. Breakfast Clinic Style Show, presented in the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel on Tuesday, May 18 and Wednesday, May 19. The theme of the shows, "Seven Labels For A Fall Future" emphasized fabrics with brushed on color, new bulk, new lengths in coats, washable fashions for school days, fashions in little accessory accents and the winsome ways of fashion in its late day mood. The fashions shown were from the Fall and Back-to-school lines shown at market. The sales story in each trend was told by Evelyn Lambert, fashion and sales promotion director for the clinic.

The next market week will be held in Dallas, August 15 - 20, and will feature Midwinter and Holiday Fashions.

Wake Up Appetites with Shrimp

By Cecil Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

FIRST IMPRESSION COUNT

If you want to get a party supper off to a good start, make your opening course a glamorous one.

You know how important it is to have the first act of a play arouse an audience's interest. Aim for the same effect when you invite guests to your house for a meal. Wake up their appetites, make them wonder what heavenly courses lie ahead!

This is party advice we try to abide by ourselves, and we want to tell you about our latest curtain-raiser. It's pictured here—Savory Buttered Shrimp.

We're enthusiastic about this hors d'oeuvre for special reasons. First, the shrimp and sauce may be prepared ahead and put in a container shaped out of double-duty weight aluminum foil. When guests arrive, the neat little "pan" of shrimp goes under the broiler for six minutes or so. When it is put on a tray and brought into the living room, the shrimp and piping hot and taste wonderful. The foil container becomes a conversation piece, for everyone is intrigued with this ingenious way of cooking and serving.

We like to put the shrimp on our coffee table, with a plate of French bread, lots of paper napkins and small forks. To spear the shrimp, we use tiny forks designed for snail-eating—but we brought from France—but oyster or salad forks are fine. Guests dunk small chunks of the bread into the sauce in the foil pan, then oh! and ah! at their first taste of it with the succulent shrimp. Eating out of the same container seems to make everyone feel right at home!

Here's the recipe for this very special broiled shrimp appetizer.

SAVORY BUTTERED SHRIMP

Ingredients: 1 pound shrimp (fresh or frozen), 2 cups boiling water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 small clove garlic (Peeled and finely minced), 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, parsley sprigs.

Method: If shrimp is fresh, rinse in cold water and drain. Cover with boiling water; add salt. Bring to a boil and simmer one minute for medium-size shrimp, 1 1/2 minutes for larger shrimp. Drain and cool just long enough to permit handling; remove shells and black veins. If frozen uncooked shrimp in their shells are used, defrost enough to permit separating before giving them the above treatment. Form a pan large enough to hold shrimp from two thicknesses of double-duty aluminum foil. To do so, turn up edges of foil 1 inch all around and mitre the corners; double edge by turning down half way to make neat rim. Place shrimp in foil container. Melt butter and stir in garlic, parsley and lemon juice; pour over shrimp. Make sure all shrimp are coated with mixture. Place foil container on broiler pan. Have broiler pre-heated and broil shrimp quickly and lightly. Stir and turn after a few minutes, so as to brown both sides. This will take from 5 to 8 minutes. Transfer the container with the shrimp to a serving tray, garnish with parsley sprigs. Serve piping hot with French bread for dunking in the butter sauce. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Surprise Party Fetes Scout Leaders Thursday

Mrs. Robert Gronewald was the most surprised person of all when she planned a surprise farewell for Mrs. Joel Thomson as a tribute from Girl Scout Troop No. 19 at their last meeting of the year, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Gronewald and Mrs. Albert Miller planned the party and when the girls came to what they thought would be a routine meeting, they found it was instead a tea party. Mrs. Thomson was presented with a place setting of her china and Mrs. Miller then presented Mrs. Gronewald, the assistant leader, with a decorated plate.

Other mothers present for the meeting were Mrs. B. L. Wheeler, Mrs. Stacy Hart and Mrs. K. Houk. Girl Scouts present were Maybelle Ayers, Stacy Claudette Hart, Linda Clark, Betty Sue Thomson, Marilyn Wheeler, Marilyn Douglass, Marilyn Penn, Margene Miller, Charlotte Jones, Glenda Pettiet, Martha Green, Carlotta Evans and Janette McAmis.

Cookies and cupcakes and green punch from a crystal punch bowl were served to the girls and guests.

Hogs were unable to gain on the opening session of the week at Ft. Worth as several thousand more hogs were reported around the major market circle. Largest numbers, as usual, were at Corn Belt points.

Top at Fort Worth was $27, sows at $20 to $23.

Hog prices eased lower at all points after midweek of the previous week. This occurrence followed development of consumer resistance to pork prices. A week ago pork loin prices were reported the highest on some markets in the East to several years. This brought about the break at midweek that left swine prices at low ebb starting off this week.

Miss Mayes Faces Thirteenth Bull After Trading Bassoon For Sword

San Angelo — A blond San Angelo girl has swapped her bassoon for a matador's sword.

Patricia Hayes, 22, is as good with the sword and cape now as she was two years ago when she studied music at North Texas State college in Denton and played with symphony orchestras in San Angelo, Tyler and El Paso.

She was fascinated when she saw her first bullfight, in Ciudad Acuna just across the Rio Grande from Del Rio, Tex.

"The matadors and other toreros were like graceful ballet dancers, and I was moved deeply by the stirring music of 'La Virgen de la Macarena,' the bullfighters' anthem," she said.

So she read every book about bullfighting she could find especially Ernest Hemingway's "Death in the Afternoon."

She tried her hand in the bull ring for the first time early last year by facing fighting calves on a ranch near San Luis Potosi in Mexico. Raul Munoz, secretary to a famous matador, Luis Procuna, saw her though she had what it takes to be bullfighter.

Miss Haes has classic, sensitive features and she's graceful on her feet.

Munoz introduced her to Procuna. He gave her pointers while she trained under Carlos Suarez, a Mexican instructor.

Last Oct. 23 she made her professional debut at Cortazar, where she was awarded the ears of the bull for her skillful performance.

Since then she has stayed busy in the bull ring.

Her 13th appearance was in the ring at Ciudad Acuna, where she saw her first fight.

Hometown fans from San Angelo and members of her family from

"Be sure and keep it on—wife's taking a shower."

Texas and Tennessee—her father, John H. Hayes, now lives in Nashville—flocked to see her.

It was another big day for Patricia. She performed so well the crowd awarded her an ear of the bull.

Let's Talk Livestock

By TED GOULD

FORT WORTH — A definite trend to early Summer cattle marketing has developed in recent weeks, and on Monday the evidence of this situation was very clear. Cowmen are culling their herds earlier than usual in all of Texas' major cow country.

The day's cattle and calves numbered about 8,000, the biggest day's offering since last November. The run included the smallest supply of grainfed beef this year, and the percentage of aged cows and bulls in the run was the largest since last fall.

The cows came from all major cow-and-calf operating areas. Typical were the $14.50 down from Charles H. Featherston of Wichita Falls, these cows of his Jefferson County, Oklahoma ranch near Ardmore and Loco, north of Red River. Dozens of loads and smaller lots of aged cows came from the valleys of the Brazos, the Navasota, the Trinity and the Sabine Rivers as well as the country drained by the Colorado. The principal cow sections of North and North West Texas also were represented, but in somewhat smaller numbers than the others on Monday.

Cowmen have several reasons for the early marketing of culled cows and bulls. First, they feel that prices early may be better than those later in the year. Second, they feel that it will help their grass to get those old cows and dry cows and bulls off early. Their grass will build better sod and produce more seed and if Summer rains help it along, the ravages of the drouth will be wiped out sooner if they are lightly stocked. Third, many of them have larger than usual numbers of young cows and heifers coming along and need the grass for them.

On Monday, drylot grain fed steers and yearlings of good and choice kinds were fully steady. Grassy heifers and yearlings, especially the plainer kinds, 50c. to $1 lower. Cows were mostly 50c. off, some fat cows off more. Bulls steady to 50c. lower.

Strictly good and choice slaughter calves steady, others weak to 50c. lower. Choice stockers scarce and mostly steady. Plainer stockers around $1 lower, some common kinds off more.

Fat Spring lambs lost 50 c. to $1 at Fort Worth Monday and shorn lambs were around $1 lower. Older sheep sold about in line with last week's dose. Breeding ewes were finding good outlets when they were suitable aged and had quality.

Reports late last week from the Eastern Seaboard told of sizable supplies of lamb that was rather poor condition and had to be sold under distress conditions there. There was also some talk that quantities of lamb there would few days to a week or more. Usual outlets were clogged.

This situation might last from a few days to a week or more. Use

GARDENING HINTS

By Dr. George Elle
Professor of Horticulture
Texas Tech

Successive plantings at short intervals is the key to a continuous supply of fresh ingredients for summer salads and fresh vegetables for the table.

A small plot of radishes planted now will mature in less than a month and will be ready soon after the early-planted crop is used up. A few planted every two weeks until late July will supply fresh radishes throughout the summer months. This is worthwhile and takes only a few minutes and a very few seeds.

Garden cress, a member of the mustard green family, is little known in this area, although it is a valuable asset to summer salads. It seldom is found on the market, but occasionally a near relative, water cress, is available.

The home gardener can have this "something different" on the menu of that special dinner or party by planting cress about three weeks ahead of the event. The crop is at its best shortly after reaching maturity.

Reconciliation In Christ

By Tommy Williams, Minister

"Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear." (Isaiah 59:1-2).

These were words from God to a disobedient and backsliding people. They give the reason for separation from God. Sin separates men from God now as it did then. For this reason, any person who has allowed himself to be thus separated from God needs to be reconciled to him.

Reconciliation is a restoration of friendship after estrangement. God has made a Sweet corn also may be planted at two week intervals until about July 1. The crop planted around April 1 should be ready about June 1st, but it will produce ears for the table only over the short period of one week. By making new plantings, the corn season will be extended to after Sept. 1.

Later plantings of corn are more subject to corn ear worm than those made earlier in the season. More and more seedsmen are stocking a solution of DD one per cent in mineral oil, which should be applied to the silk immediately after it begins to disengage. Several drops are applied to the silk of each ear, letting the solution run down the silk and penetrate around the tip to kill the worm larva.

merciful arrangement whereby men in sin may be reconciled to him. This reconciliation is in Jesus Christ and through his death. "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto himself . . ." (2 Corinthians 5:19). "For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life" (Romans 5:10).

The means of entrance into Christ is set forth in these words: "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:26-27).

Second plantings of the crop seeded in March and April (and radishes, onions, and some of the greens group) should not be made during the hot months, may be made later. Some require cool weather to do the best. Second plantings of cool season vegetables may be made in late July.

Leafy crops will do better if the plantings are not made until the middle of August. This results in maturity in September and October when the nights are cool and the quality of the vegetables will be highest.

At Texas Tech, however, we have been pleasantly surprised with excellent yields and quality from August 1 plantings of cucumbers and snap beans.

Those leftover boiled potatoes will taste delicious if you dice them into a skillet with some bacon fat, add some diced onion and fry until golden brown, shaking the pan occasionally. Add salt and fresh-ground pepper, if necessary. Serve with a sprinkling of minced parsley or finely chopped green pepper.

STAGGS (right) took time off from his day and night remodeling work to pose with his jewelry department manager Gene Pratt. They are both proud of the new store and particularly of the new glass front installed and 500 square feet of space added. (Photo by Taylor Studio)

MODELED STAGGS DRUG WILL OPEN THURSDAY WITH HUGE SALE

Stagg's Service Drug is scheduled for a grand opening morning after being virtually closed for ten days remodeling. The store has been remade both inside and with a new glass front installed and 500 square feet of space added.

There have been some changes offered too. Biggest addition of a new enlarged department complete with own manager. Gene Pratt has been in the watch department of Findley's for the past seven years, in charge of this department.

Pharmacy has been remodeled. But perhaps most noticeable change is a new fountain, which has been installed along the wall between booths so that waitresses have no steps in taking and serving order.

Number of booths has been increased and a grill added so that customers can be served.

Brings Nickel Coffee. Stagg says he gave away coffee after the first day it has rained so much that he has decided to put coffee back to a cup permanently.

A noticeable change is the addition of a large self-service freezer in the front. It is stocked exclusively with meats and Bell is playing a prominent role in the promotion of the new opening.

The star TV show, Singing Cowboy Huddle, will be at the store Saturday, entertaining away balloons and to the youngsters.

Opening is being celebrated with a storewide sale (see ad section of the News) which will balance the week. The double Gun Brothers will be given during the sale.

Stagg has owned this store for the last year when he bought it from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stagg. The store had been owned by the Walters family.

It was established in 1928. It came to Littlefield from 1950 and was assistant of Roden Drug until he had his own store. He is a graduate of Oklahoma University of Pharmacy.

Members of the Stagg's include Mrs. Edna Hanks, Mrs. Black Z. I. Smith, and Gaston Shaw.

World Champion From Italy Meets Cowboy Carlson

World Champion Baron Michle Leone of Italy comes to the Littlefield Sports Arena Saturday night to show how and why he deserves the title.

It is a non-title, non-conference international contest that Leone will wage against Cowboy Orv Carlson of Montana.

They go for two best falls of three or to a one-hour time limit in a match that should produce some of the best and most interesting wrestling seen here in a long time.

Baron Leone is a throw-back to the elite of Italy. He wears his curly black hair down to his shoulders; he trains steadfastly, never drinks or smokes, and refuses to occupy the same dressing room with athletes who do those things.

Lou Palcio

He weighs in the neighborhood of 196 pounds, but he was able to beat Danny McShain, the colorful, powerful, strutting king of junior heavyweights last year and he has protected his title since then. He is vicious in the ring, will stop at nothing to gain his point and a victory. His main method of attack is a reverse head-lock which becomes a "neck-breaker." He wins most of his falls with that stratagem.

Cowboy Carlson also has his "headlocks," his most impressive and deadly being a "bulldogging" smash wherein he takes an ordinary headlock then proceeds to smash the opponent down head first rather than backward. It works well for Carlson, former rodeo performer in many national events.

The Leone-Carlson match is last on the program of two main events. In the first section of the

The girls are from seven to nine years of age. They will meet once a month at the Legion Hall.

When unexpected company comes, and you want a quick salad to add to your menu, open a can of snap beans and marinate them in French dressing. Serve the beans on salad greens with some of the dressing in which they were marinated. Strips of canned pimiento make a pretty garnish for this salad.

double feature, Dory Funk, the Southwest States individual champion, tangles with Leon Palacio, a handsome, likeable Mexican athlete from San Antonio. They go for two out of three falls or one hour, same as the top event. Funk and Carlson are partners in tag team wrestling, came close to winning the title again last week and, in fact, did win the falls but not the title. A disqualification against Roy Shire and Bobby Wallace gave Funk and Carlson the match, but a title can not be lost on a disqualification, according to Texas boxing and wrestling rules.

FIELDTON — A miscellaneous shower was given last Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. R. W. Stanfield, in honor of Miss Myrtle Muller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Muller, who will become the bride, in June, of Richard Altman of San Bernardino, Calif.

The color scheme was green and yellow, which was carried out in the refreshments of punch and Hi-Ho crackers spread with cream cheese and served from a lace cloth over yellow. Punch was poured by Mrs. Dick McCown. Mrs. Sherman Rushing presided at the register.

A year ago, the man you see in the picture above had no idea that he would be taking title to a new Cadillac car in 1954.

He had planned, almost as a matter of habit, to purchase the product of another motor car manufacturer—a make which he had owned and driven for many years.

But then he made a truly wonderful and surprising discovery!

He learned, much to his delight and amazement, that the lowest-priced Cadillac would actually cost him less than the model of the car he had originally intended to buy.

He discovered, too, that a Cadillac will travel farther on a gallon of gasoline... and that its cost of maintenance and upkeep is actually more modest.

And then he found out that a Cadillac traditionally returns a greater share of its original cost at resale than any other automobile built in America.

And so he decided to economize—and make the move to Cadillac!

And what a happy, happy man he is as he takes the keys, slips behind the wheel, and starts off on his first wonderful journey.

It's a great personal thrill to sit in the driver's seat—here where the world's most distinguished motorists sit—and find yourself a subject of admiration wherever you travel.

And, if there is anything as rewarding as owning a Cadillac, it's driving a Cadillac. The car rides so smoothly and quietly and effortlessly, and holds you in such buoyant comfort, that an hour behind its wheel is an hour of relaxation.

In short, a Cadillac makes a man feel good. It's a lift to his spirit... a rest for his body... and a compliment to his person.

Why not come in and see for yourself? You'll be welcome at any time.

Texas Mother of The Year

Mrs. Rolla C. Vestal of White Wright, mother of 14 children, was named by the American Mothers Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation as Texas Mother of 1954. Thirteen of Mrs. Vestal's children have received college degrees and 11 have attended Baylor University.

A woman who lives in Washington, D. C., was back in her hometown last week.

"I can't get over it," she said in amazement. "In Washington, we talk about nothing but world conditions, what with the newspapers, radio and T.V., we have Indochina, or the hydrogen bomb, or the Army-McCarthy affair morning, noon and night. At home, at luncheons and teas, we never think of anything else! Down here I feel as if I were on another planet. . . Nobody ever mentions any of them!"

We feel a little ashamed that the charges are partially true. The women of our town still talk clothes and children and menus, once in awhile a book (fiction, of course), the church, the spouse's job. And yet most of us are uncomfortably aware of the chaotic times in which we live.

As for the McCarthy-Army feud, is it distance that makes it seem two equally patriotic factions, at odds over the means for saving our country rather than the end? And could it be that both have lost sight of the lode star because of the clouds?

Probably the truth is that we're still playing omelet down here. Up there, we sometimes wonder if they aren't playing "chicken little." Only this time, of course, the sky may be falling.

Simply being calm, without purpose, is about as stupid as getting nervous and tense without coming through it to some good results. The minister said it for us the other day. Aren't there a lot of us who think we're good Christians, he asked, getting like atheists by losing sight of God? Without Him, whether calm or worried, we aren't going to work this thing out.

Install Amherst WSCS Officers

AMHERST—Sunday night during the church service Rev. Davis L. Egert installed the officers for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church. They are President, Mrs. I. N. Griffing; Vice-president, Mrs. Melvyn Dutton; Recording secretary, Mrs. Bill Workman; Treasurer, Mrs. Oby Blanchard; Promotional secretary, Mrs. David Harmon; Missionary Education Secretary, Mrs. D. L. Egert; Christian Social Relations Secretary, Mrs. Daris May.

And Local Church activities secretary, Mrs. H. L. Messamore; Gregson; Youth Work Secretary, Mrs. W. P. Holland Jr.; Children's Secretary, Mrs. Joe Porter; Missionary Personnel Secretary, Mrs. Charles Hinds; Spiritual Life Secretary, Mrs. Mat Nix, Jr.; Literature and Publications Secretary, Mrs. Bill Elms; Sunday Work Secretary, Mrs. Doris Williams; Status of Women Secretary, Mrs. Leroy Maxfield; Federation Program Chairman, Mrs. John Nix.

You can make your own melba toast, so popular among weight-watchers. Use bread that's several days old and cut it into very thin slices. Spread it out on an ungreased baking sheet and put it into a slow oven until it is light brown. Turn the slices over, during the baking, to insure even browning.

LYMAN'S

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

By Mary Lee Taylor

Strawberry Pie

1 envelope un-flavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1 quart fresh strawberries, washed and hulled
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
9-inch baked pastry shell

2 Tablespoons melted butter or margarine
1 Tablespoon lemon juice
Few grains salt
1 cup powdered sugar
1/2 cup ice cold Evaporated Milk

Soften gelatin in cold water in a 2-cup bowl. Crush half of the strawberries in a saucepan with a fork or pastry blender. Cut rest of berries in half and add to crushed berries along with sugar and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Heat just to boiling. Remove from heat and add softened gelatin. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Pour into pastry shell. Chill while making topping. Mix butter, lemon juice, few grains salt and the powdered sugar. Put ice cold milk into a quart bowl and whip with cold rotary beater by hand, or with electric beater at high speed until stiff. Beat in powdered sugar mixture, about 1/4 at a time. Do not overbeat. Put around edge of pie. Chill about 2 hours.

One out of ten

ONE lone potato out of ten... THAT'S ALL GOD ASKS. From ancient times men have realized their obligation to God and His church by giving a tenth of their increase. TITHING IS GOD'S INVITATION TO FORM A PARTNERSHIP WITH THE ONLY CORPORATION THAT CAN'T GO BROKE. Salvation cost God His only Son... what has it cost you? "The tenth is Holy unto the Lord," Lev. 27:32. "Those who withhold more than is right will come to poverty," Prov. 11:24

Rate Traders

The telephone company has some sharp horse traders. We have learned that it is a lot easier to get the rate raises than if they ask some outlandish increase and then promise.

Their requests get more outlandish as they go along. The last two requests they made at Littlefield were the ones dared to go, but their request at Amherst made the ones around here look puny.

This "horse trader" system is not designed to inspire confidence in what they say, but what do they care about confidence as long as they get the money? No one trusts the figures, but the company doesn't insist on them. They take half of what the figures say they should have. And this is far above what our common sense tells us is fair.

When we have no practical way of finding out what their revenues for any one exchange really are. We know very much that they really know either, but they hand out a bunch of figures which they claim are scientifically determined and our city commissions feel helpless to do anything but compromise with them.

Eventually one of three things must happen. (1) Government must learn to restrain its appetite. (2) We must create a governing body that can and will find out what the costs really are, or ought to be. (3) We must provide for public ownership and operation of the telephone system.

These are listed in what I consider to be the order of priority. (1) is much to be preferred, but we have little chance to expect it to happen. (2) creates another opportunity for graft and bigotry, but it would give us effective regulation and could be graft-free if we chose good men to do the regulating. (3) is the last resort. Government monopoly is in my opinion, both dangerous and inefficient, but it is preferable to unrestrained private monopoly. And since the companies are themselves victims of monopoly labor, it would be the only way out in this case.

Some of the utility companies realize the importance of maintaining the confidence of their captive customers. But other same attitudes like one telephone spokesman expressed when he said, "The cream is just as loud on a little as a big one." So the ask outlandish increases, settle for what they can get and leave their customers feeling robbed but helpless.

That may be good business this year, but in the long run it is likely to destroy them. We are eventually going to do something about it.

Highlights And Sidelights From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex. — Texas' fast-flying governor returned from a vacation in Alabama, spent a few days in the state, and planned off to Korea, where he and other state executives will make an inspection tour at the invitation of President Eisenhower.

While in the capital, Governor Shivers was very busy doing these things:

Answering charges of disloyalty to the Democratic Party by saying that when he supported Mr. Eisenhower for president in 1952 he was really fighting to preserve the principles of the party of Jefferson and Jackson because he wants the Texas party and the national party to return to those principles in unity.

Announcing that the campaign manager in his race for re-election will be State Senator Otis Lock of Lufkin, and that campaign headquarters in Austin would be opened right away.

Answering Stephen A. Mitchell, Democratic National chairman who said that he would deal with the Texas Democratic Advisory Council, rather than the state democratic executive committee. Shivers told Mitchell: "I strongly suspect that your statement is an announcement of your entry into the Texas governor's race. I welcome that challenge."

Saying that Texas and other states would need years to work out compliance with the non-segregation rule.

Promising that as long as he is governor, there will be no state sales tax or income tax.

Naming Weldon Hart, chairman of the Texas Employment Commission, as chairman of the newly-created Governor's Economic Advisory Commission.

Announcing that John VanCronkhite, his former aide under attack in an insurance court case, is not in his present re-election campaign.

LLOYDS CLOSED

After a nine-day hearing in 98th District Court here, Judge Charles O. Betts granted a temporary injunction, asked by the attorney general's department, forbidding the Lloyd's of North America Insurance Co. from doing business in Texas.

At one time, VanCronkhite was employed as public relations counsel for the company, he testified during the hearing.

INSURANCE MUDDLE

Garland A. Smith, chairman of the state insurance commission, pledged the greatest possible protection to holders of policies issued by companies doing business in Texas.

Smith emphasized that state insurance laws are sound fundamentally, but that some changes are necessary. He said some new laws will have to be passed, and that they probably will be, at the next session of the Legislature.

Attorney General John Ben Shepard said he would appear before an El Paso County grand jury June 4 with evidence of possible criminal violations of Texas insurance laws.

At El Paso and other Texas cities, Sheppard has filed suits against insurance companies, forcing them into receivership. Charges have been that the companies were created through fraud and were insolvent.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

Attorney General Sheppard advocates a law requiring publication of all financial reports on all government levels.

Sheppard also opposed secret sessions of governmental bodies, saying, "There is no place on an open door for a sign saying closed meeting or executive session."

What has happened in Duval County, Sheppard declared, "can happen anywhere, and will, unless the lesson is told, and retold."

TV IN EDUCATION

J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education, has appointed a 56-member group, authorized by the Legislature, to study the role of television in education. S. Mortimer Brown, El Paso school superintendent, is chairman of the body.

ALLOWANCES UP

Texas oil allowables for June will be 3,010,515 barrels, the Railroad Commission decided. That is an increase from the May figure.

RESORT LODGES

Progress was being made in plans to construct four resort lodges, each to cost about $1 million, at Inks Lake near Burnet, Eisenhower Park on Texoma, Lake Whitney, and Texarkana Reservoir in Cass County.

This is a project of the State Parks Board. The money for building the lodges would come from revenue bonds. Private operators would lease the lodges and run them.

WESTS AND DRIES

Texas Rangers are investigating trouble between the wets and dries at Bandera.

Rev. Joe R. Townsend, Baptist minister in that West Texas resort and ranch town, moved for a dry election after saying that he had been thrown through a plate glass window.

Refunds Coming

Employers of Texas are going to get refunds amounting to several million dollars from the Texas Employment Commission.

A decision of the Supreme Court in a case concerning Todd Shipyard Corporation is responsible for the refunds. Todd maintained that its unemployment tax rate was too high and would have been lower if the corporation had been notified by TEC of all claims made by former Todd workers.

In And Out
 About as many Texans went into the armed services as came out in April, says Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state selective service director.

Reserves To Meet

Texas Department of the Reserve Officers Association will hold an annual convention and service conference here May 28-29, when high ranking officers of all branches of the services from Washington will attend, along with an expected 200 state reserve officers.

New Building

Dedicated here was a new South Texas district headquarters building for the Internal Revenue Department.

Present for the ceremony was T. Coleman Andrews, commissioner of internal revenue.

Most of the five-story building will be occupied by the Austin district of the internal revenue department.

More Vegetables

There will be a 20 percent increase in acreage planted to commercial vegetables planted in Texas this year, according to a forecast of the Crop Reporting Board of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Panther Warnings

Sheriff T. O. Lang of Austin has issued frequent warnings to Capitol City residents that a panther large enough to leave a print like a man is roaming the rugged Bee Cave area west of the city.

One housewife in the hill section reported hearing two panthers screaming, one on each side of her home, about a mile west of the Bee Cave road. Several citizens in the area report seeing the animal.

Burglar Trap

Austin police will be able to get the jump on burglars here, very soon now, thanks to a new piece of equipment devised by a local detective agency.

The secret is a quiet alarm that tips off the police via a panel in the Police and Courts Building. It replaces the jangling alarm bell so often found inside of buildings. The new silent alarm has no bells, switches or wires that are visible.

L. G. Phares, organizer and first director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, invented the new device. He has operated his own detective agency here since 1941.

Shivers Names Advisor

Dr. Henry A. Holle, state health officer, and Earl Cabell of Dallas, president of the Texas Manufacturing Association, have been added to the Governor's Advisory Commission, a recently appointed commission composed of some 25 members.

John M. Griffith, Taylor banker and president of the Texas Bankers Association, has been appointed to replace T. Neill Greer, past president.

Herschel E. Nix, San Antonio, replaces E. L. Powell, president of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, on the same committee.

"Rose Marie" Is First Big Musical In Cinemascope

The weekend's big screen attraction at the Palace Theatre is "Rose Marie," M-G-M's first Cinemascope musical, starring Ann Blyth, Howard Keel, Fernando Lamas, Bert Lahr, and Marjorie Main.

Here is a picture which literally has EVERYTHING — color, action, romance, laughter, breathtaking settings filmed in the Canadian Rockies and in California's High Sierras, and the Rudolf Friml songs beloved throughout the world.

Its triangular romance of a French-Canadian girl of the woods, a fur trapper and a Canadian mountie lends itself brilliantly to the new Cinemascope medium. The vast panoramas of the snow-capped mountain ranges, glaciers, pine forests, lakes, streams and waterfalls are presented with a majestic grandeur and sweep never seen in an outdoor motion picture before, with stereophonic sound highlighting not only the lovely Friml melodies but also such vivid scenes as those of the hard-riding mounties on the gallop the thrill episodes of the chase of a runaway horse and the kill of an attacking puma, and the spectacular Totem Dance, a spectacle of primitive savagery involving hundreds of Indians dancing to drums

'Peter Pan' Turns Out To Be Disney's Funniest Fantasy

Mark up as Walt Disney's most humorous fantasy "Peter Pan," the all-cartoon Technicolor version of J. M. Barrie's celebrated play distributed by RKO Radio.

Without minimizing the heart-touching sentiment and nostalgic emotions which have kept the play's enchantment fresh through three generations, Disney has filled his screen version with humor.

The comedy, springing naturally out of the behavior and escapades of Peter and Wendy and all the visitors to and inhabitants of Never Land ranges from the innocent drooleries of childhood to broad farce and the boisterous hilarities of violent action, when virtue triumphs over villainy. Almost every scene is fully packed with fun, from the time Peter pilots the Darling children to the magical isle on their fabulous adventure with pirates, Indians, mermaids, lost boys, an incredible crocodile and the sundry sprites and pixies led by Tinker Bell.

This is a rousing tale of adventure, as Disney relates it with his finest animation art and his best storytelling manner. With laughter as his shield, no small youngster will cringe at the villainies of Captain Hook or the bluster of the Indian Chief. And the rest of the family will all the more relish the adult appeal of one of the world's most treasured tales.

It is Disney at his best in every film. From wit to tender humor, it is all keyed to attract the guileless heart of youth which, as Barrie said and Disney agrees, experiences very little of consequence after the age of twelve.

The music matches the mirth of Disney's "Peter Pan" in a score of liking appeal.

Mrs. Frank Robinson and Mrs. C. Wayne Bryan took Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Robinson to Dallas last weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are the parents of Frank Robinson and had been visiting here for the past three weeks.

Dollar Has A Dollar Value In Europe

By Lisa Paulsen

For anyone visiting Europe this summer, the land where a dollar still has a dollar's value, here are a few tips on what to expect in prices—from an observer who is an old hand at trying to get something for nearly nothing.

In general, European prices run about one-third of those found in the U.S. The most expensive places are France, Switzerland and Belgium — the cheapest being Spain and Austria. Paris is no longer a city where tourist dollars command great value. A modest lunch costing fifty or sixty cents "in the old days" now runs well above a dollar.

The very cheapest acceptable hotel in this country will cost $1.50. Of course, anybody who wishes to travel "in style" will search out a hotel on the Champs Elysees, or l'Opera. But for the average American who doesn't come to Europe every year, sections like Montmartre, Bd. St. Michel or Montparnasse are rather economical and interesting.

In Italy it is almost impossible to predetermine the prices. In general, these people can spot an American long before a word is spoken. They can tell by the way you walk, dress, and by the expression on your face. In other countries it is sometimes possible to "escape" being American — and thus escape paying American prices. With just a little searching a hotel for $1.25 can be had. A restaurant meal will cost about the same price if you take the trouble to inquire about a modest place for somebody in your hotel. In Italy when one orders a steak there is a disappointment coming if he expects potatoes and a vegetable. Here you get exactly no more than you order — although not vice versa. Even the amount of bread you use is listed on the check.

When asking for water, be careful that the waiter doesn't bring a bottle of mineral solution from somebody's expensive springs and have the cap off before you can raise an objection. Some restaurant owners, as well as hotel managers, cab drivers, etc., figure that you are loaded with dollar bills and that they are completely justified in taking any measure to improve their usually difficult economic position — and unfortunately at your expense. This charming attitude now exists at an all time high in France.

Germany and Scandinavia, with Denmark being the cheapest, offer some very economical prices.

For those who want to economize and who are bound in the other direction, Spain is the country for stretching dollars. It is possible to manage on two dollars a day — while a couple of years ago $1.25 would have been enough. Next year it will probably be even higher. For $15 one can ride about 300 miles on the Spanish railway so that a complete tour of Spain would be, by far, the most economical visit one could make in Europe. And if anyone wants to go off of the beaten track, a ride to the Canary Islands costs $15 by boat.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Reid were her sisters, Mrs. W. A. Hancock, Mrs. Rex McGill, and Mrs. J. D. Gentry, all of Grand Prairie. Also visiting the Reids, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wingo, were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Box of Jacksboro. Mrs. Box is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Reid.

Defense Digest Presents Tornado Safety Rules

The Texas Defense Digest, official publication of Texas Defense and Disaster Relief headquarters, has released a set of tornado safety rules. The article, says, "Tornadoes have struck at all times of the year in Texas, but the tornado season is generally considered to be from March to June."

Safety rules released by the publication are:

1. The best universal protection is a cave or underground excavation. When time permits, go to a tornado cellar, cave or underground excavation with an air outlet. Any of these should be kept fit for use, meaning free from water, gas or debris, and preferably equipped with pick and shovel.

2. If you are in open country: Move at right angles to the tornado's path. Tornadoes usually move ahead at about 25 to 40 miles per hour.

3. If in a city or town: Stay away from windows. In homes, the southwest corner of the lowest floor or the basement offers the greatest safety. People living in brick or stone houses should seek other shelter, preferably in a storm cellar or the basement of a frame house. Electricity and fuel lines should be shut off. Windows on the north and east sides of the house may also be opened to help reduce building damage. Standing against the inside wall on a lower floor of an office building offers some protection.

4. If in schools: Stay inside, away from windows, and near an inside wall on the lower floor. Auditoriums and gymnasiums should be avoided under all circumstances. If in rural area schools, children and teachers should be removed to a ravine or ditch if a storm shelter is not available.

5. In factories and industrial plants: A lookout should be posted immediately upon receiving a tornado warning, and he should keep safety officials advised of the tornado's approach. Advance preparation should be made for shutting off electrical circuits and fuel lines if the tornado approaches the plant. Workers should be moved to sections of the plant offering the greatest protection.

6. Keep calm! It doesn't help to get excited. Even though a warning is issued, chances of a tornado striking one's home or location are very slight.

7. Keep tuned to your radio station for latest tornado advisory information. Do not call the Weather Bureau, except to report a tornado.

AT THE PALACE

FHA Being Streamlined More Local Authority

Measures to speed up and further improve Farmers Home Administration services to farmers have recently been developed in Washington under the direction of Secretary Benson, T. T. Perkins, State Director at Dallas, said today.

Perkins had just returned from a meeting at Oklahoma City where the new steps to decentralize and streamline agency operations were explained by Washington officials. State Field Representatives attended the meeting.

In accordance with Secretary Benson's policy of placing more control of agricultural programs in local hands, many of the decisions formerly made in state offices will now be made in the counties. County Supervisors, the employ-farmers, will have final approval on a larger number of loans and will have more authority in working with other creditors and in taking steps to help borrowers solve their financial and farming problems.

Greater use will be made of state and county committees. New state committees, to be appointed in the near future, will be called upon frequently to review agency operations and make sure they are efficiently serving local needs. County committees will be relied upon to an even greater extent than in the past to help adapt national policies to local needs.

Services of other public and private organizations will be used to the maximum extent possible. County home demonstration agents will help Farmers Home Administration borrowers with their family living problems. Every possible step will be taken to make sure that no government funds are advanced when private or cooperative credit is available to meet the needs. Lenders will be urged to supply funds for insured farm ownership loans.

State Directors and their staffs are being urged to increase their efficiency by eliminating every unnecessary step and doing a perfect job the first time.

Measures already taken by the agency to render better service at less cost include the reorganization of the national, area finance, and state offices which resulted in a savings of more than $1,500,000. A duplicate set of files on 60,000 real estate loans has been eliminated as well as all of the work formerly performed by state offices in reporting borrowers progress.

A number of additional improvements were discussed at the meetings that will place more authority in the hands of county supervisors make the programs easier to operate, and enable the agency to serve more farmers than in the past. Most of these revisions are already in the hands of field employees and will soon be in full effect.

To expedite real estate loan making the engineering and appraisal services of the agency will be placed in county offices, closer to the farmers to be served. Engineer-appraisers were formerly stationed in state offices.

Practically all property insurance matters have been transferred from state to county offices. The agency's emergency loan program was stressed at the meetings. State Directors and their staffs were told to move into an area whenever a drought or a flood strikes and when the crisis has passed to move out again as quickly as possible.

None of the basic policies under which the agency operates are being changed. The same amount of emphasis is placed on helping farmers obtain adequate land and systems of farming, and adopt proper farm and home management practices.

Q — I understand that I'm allowed to suspend Korean GI Bill training for 12 straight months after my starting cut-off date. What happens if circumstances arise that force me to suspend for longer than 12 months? Will I be able to get back in training afterwards?

LAFF-A-DAY

"You know that water hole that always gives me so much trouble . . .?"

As we put supper on the table the other night, the doorbell rang. There stood a smiling acquaintance, offering us a tempting-looking cake his wife had just baked.

"We're on a diet," he explained. "She's got to keep her hand in." It was as good as it was pretty — delicately browned coconut and pineapple rings, topping a cake that was as light as a whisper. Certainly it was a skill one wouldn't want to lose.

We'll never cease to marvel at the wide variety of "specialties" to which people turn their talents:

We have a neighbor who could take a day lily, a tumbleweed and a couple of dandelions, and come out with a graceful flower arrangement.

We once knew a man who specialized in a backhand tennis stroke; won tournaments with it, too. Seems his opponents would shoot balls to his backhand, trying to throw him off balance; so he just made a specialty of a backhand that would win.

Not long ago, we visited the studio of a sculptress and observed with delight how she had made cold, hard stone come alive in the form of the kneeling figure of a woman. "It's the back interest," she said; "you look at sculpture all around. Get a natural back line and you get motion into stone."

Specialties vary all the way from card tricks to helping people get along from growing perfect dahlias to ironing shirts. While books might be written about the many different motives for developing such a skill, that's not the point. For all of us, the important thing is that we care enough to want to excel in something.
