SPUR'S BACKFIELD STARTERS

COTTON FARMS IN LAMB COUNTY ARE BIGGER AND FEWER

The small-tract cotton farmer is almost an extinct specie here in Lamb county, where big, and still bigger cotton farms have become the rule rather than the exception, in a ten-year movement which has reduced the actual number of individually owned or operated farms by a third.
 This was brought to light here last week, when PMA officials started working on allotments for Lamb county farmers, and it was discovered that a total of only 223 acres of small one, five, and ten acre tracts were necessary to be provided for in a quota assignment of more than 190,000 acres.
 These 223 acres of small allotments, which will be divided among approximately 30 or 40 individuals, make up the difference between the 189,830 announced acreage allotment made by County Agent David Eaton last week, and the now announced figure of 190,153 acres, which is the quota basis, which Lamb county farmers will vote upon accepting on December 15.

When the board of directors of the local Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday morning, several important matters were discussed, including the lighting of the business section of the city for Christmas.
C. of C. to Raise Funds
 The Chamber agreed to raise the money to take care of the cost of decorating the city. The Jaycees have agreed to do the work of putting up the lights.
 Pat Mann, secretary of the chamber, said that most of the business firms have promised to decorate their store fronts, for Christmas, and decorations will be put up immediately after Thanksgiving Day.
Two Official Holidays
 Retail merchants committee reported that there will be two official holidays, Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, and Monday, December 26th, at which time most of the stores will be closed, as well as the banks, schools, and postoffice.

Thanksgiving Day - 1949

By the President of the United States
A PROCLAMATION

In accordance with our cherished custom, let us pause for one day in this autumnal season and offer prayers to the Divine Giver of our bounty.
 We are grateful for the plentiful harvests of our fields, for the abundance of goods produced by our industries, and for the abundance of spiritual blessings which enrich our lives.
 We are thankful that our resources enable us to aid the peoples of other countries in the furtherance of economic well-being and security.
 We deeply appreciate the strength of our democratic institutions and the preservation of those ideals of liberty and justice which form the basis of national stability and international peace.
 We demand more than the wisdom of men can provide. We look to the hearts of all good men and true for a realization of the Psalmist's prayer: "There is no king saved by the multitude of men: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength."
 We are grateful for these benefactions, may we add to our prayers for a plea for divine guidance of the leaders of our nation and the leaders of all other nations in their efforts to secure peace and freedom for all men.
 We, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, having in mind the Joint Congressional Resolution of December 26, 1941, which made the fourth Thursday in November a legal holiday, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 24, 1949, as Thanksgiving Day, and I urge all citizens to observe the day with reverence. Let us, on the appointed day, in our homes and in our accustomed places of worship, give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings which have signalized our lot as a nation, and ask for the gift of wisdom in our striving for a better life.
 Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused this Proclamation to be signed at the City of Washington, this tenth day of November 1949, at the nineteenth hundred and forty-ninth and of the one hundred and ninth year of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fourth.
 HARRY S. TRUMAN
 JAMES E. WEBB, Acting Secretary of State.

 Bill Clayton, about 45, Springlake farmer, was stricken with a heart attack at 10 a. m. Wednesday of last week, and has been seriously ill and a patient at the Payne-Shotwell hospital. He was under the oxygen tent for several days, but is now reported much improved.
 Members of his family were notified of his serious condition, and visiting his bedside have been his wife; his son, Billy Wayne Jr., student of A. & M. college, Bryan, Texas, who arrived home soon after his father's illness; a daughter, Anna, student of Wayland college; and another son, Don, at home.
 This is reported to be the first such attack.

Four Local Men Recognized By Public Service Co.

Littlefield was well represented at the service awards dinner for the Plains division of the Southwestern Public Service company, held last week at Plainview.
 Four local employees received pins and scrolls for periods of service ranging from five to 15 years. They were members of a group of 95 Plains division employees of the company, issued and published last week, first ever held in the division.
 Top awards for the local group went to Hardy R. Shelby, Littlefield manager. Mr. Shelby received a 15-year pin. His total service is actually 19 years, but, for this first occasion, the awards were given in 5-year groups for actual employment completed. Mr. Shelby will be eligible for a 20-year award next year.
 Everett G. Alexander, assistant manager, brought home a 10-year award.

GIN REPORT...

Littlefield's four gins reported a total of 12,644 bales ginned up to Tuesday night of this week.
 A survey of the gins in the county is made on Wednesday, and due to the fact that the Leader went to press one day early, it was impossible to give the ginnings for the entire county this week.

Carter McKemy of the Presbyterian church will preside at the service. Other pastors taking part are Rev. Lee Hemphill, Rev. T. M. Minnis and Lt. Hall of the Salvation Army.
 There will be a special song service, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.
 There will be special Thanksgiving day services at other churches throughout the day.

11 1/2 MILLION DOLLARS DEPOSITED WITH FIVE BANKS IN LAMB COUNTY

Lamb county citizens have a lot of money to be thankful for, along with their other bountiful blessings a perusal of the financial statements of the five banks of the county, issued and published last week, proves beyond the shadow of any doubt.
 Total resources of the five banks at Littlefield, Amherst, Oton, and Sudan, are listed at $11,574,801, and approximately $11,000,000 of this amount represents deposits to the credit of individual citizens and business firms.
 The two Littlefield banks have in their custody just a trifle more than half the total.
 With countless thousands of pounds of grain laying on the ground and still unsold; with more than half of this year's cotton crop still unsold, or completed through the loan machinery of the government, the next bank call is almost certain to show a big increase around the first of the year. It could easily top the $15,000,000 mark for an all-time high, before the income tax starts its annual March inroad.
 The totals reported for the four towns in the county which have banking facilities are as follows:
 Littlefield ----- $ 6,552,297.48
 Amherst ----- 2,530,157.97
 Oton ----- 1,382,110.23
 Sudan ----- 1,099,913.23
TOTAL ----- $11,574,801.93

Local Church Raising Funds Erect New Auditorium

Drive Church of Christ is campaigning for funds for a new auditorium last Sunday, when a volunteer of $1,400 was given.
 Harrell A. Collard, pastor, said that it is the purpose of the church to raise about $10,000 for the cost of the new building, letting the contract, and that they hope to have this amount raised by the first of the year. Just how much money will be involved in building the new auditorium is not ready for publication, Mr. Collard said.
 The proposed plans call for a building 64 feet wide by 120 feet long, with a seating capacity of 700 people. Construction will be of white brick with glass brick windows. Features of the new building will include a general church office, a preacher's study; a glass enclosed nursery, with a public address system, and a robing room on each side of the baptistry. The plans also call for a baptistry to be elevated six feet from the floor, where all pulpit furniture will remain on the rostrum during baptismal services.
 An automatic cooling and heating system will also be installed in the new proposed building.
 Mr. Collard said that the present building is not adequate to care for the present membership, and that church membership is steadily increasing.
 The present minister has been with the local church since August of last year, but he previously served as pastor of Littlefield Drive Church of Christ, in 1941. He did evangelistic work in the northwest, including Montana and Colorado, and also worked in one of the larger churches in California, located at Glendale. However, he came here from San Antonio, where he did evangelistic work.

Petitions To Build New Courthouse Are Reported Circulating

Petitions are reported to be in circulation in Earth, Sudan, and some other parts of the county, requesting the county commissioners to call an election for the voting of bonds to construct a new courthouse and jail.
 Various reports are in circulation concerning the petitions, but it is apparent that they have not been given very wide distribution.
 Prominent citizens of Earth and Sudan reported that they had not even heard about the petitions until advised by the Leader that such documents were reported in circulation.
 County Judge Otha Dent said that he did not know about the reported petitions.

REPORT CARDS TO BE ISSUED NEXT WEEK

Littlefield High school students and Central School students are busy this week taking six weeks' examinations. Report cards will be issued to students next Wednesday afternoon.

Child Asleep In Car Fatally Burned; 2 Other Children Escape

Robert Wayne Herrell, 18-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Herrell, of Littlefield, was critically burned about 2 p. m. Thursday, as he lay asleep in the family automobile, where members of the Herrell family were picking cotton, at the Nichols farm, two miles west of Amherst.
 The cause of the fire was unknown, but it was thought possibly some defect in the automobile wiring may have caused the blaze.
Picking Cotton
 According to members of the family, Mrs. Herrell and her three children, J. R., aged 4; Larry, aged 3; and Robert Wayne, accompanied by Mr. Herrell's mother, Mrs. L. D. Herrell, two daughters, Nora and Vera Mae, and grand-daughter, Dorsey Mae, all of Littlefield, went to the Nichols farm Thursday morning.
3 In Car at Time of Fire
 In the automobile with Robert Wayne at the time of the tragedy were his brother, J. R., and his cousin, Dorsey Mae, who is seven years of age. The car was ablaze before Mrs. Herrell or her mother-in-law were aware of the fire. The other two children escaped unharmed. A Negro man went into the blazing car and brought the burned child out. He was taken to the South Plains Cooperative hospital at Amherst, and was found to be seriously burned from his head to his waist. He passed away about 10 o'clock Thursday night.
 Father of the deceased child is employed by the City of Littlefield. Surviving are the parents, and two brothers, J. R., and Larry.
Last Rites Saturday
 Funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Littlefield Missionary Baptist church, with Rev. Weldon Mears.

CATS AND SPUR BULLDOGS TO PLAY FOR BI-DISTRICT CROWN

Locals Will Be Evenly Weighed; For Turkey Game

Littlefield's Wildcats tangle with the Spur Bulldogs here Thanksgiving afternoon for the bi-district championship of Districts 4-A and 3-A.

The game is scheduled at Seely stadium, and kick-off time is set at 2:30 sharp.

Over 5,000 fans are expected to jam Seely stadium for this great classic. All tickets have been sold and additional bleachers will be set up to help accommodate the big crowd expected.

Officials from both schools met in Lubbock Sunday afternoon, to determine where the game should be played. Coach Jay Fikes flipped the coin and Coach Sam Hawke called "heads."

The coin hit the table, bounced on the floor and turned up tails. Thus Littlefield won their first toss since 1944, when Ben Lyman called the coin right and brought Merkel here for the regional championship game.

Officials for the game will be Paul Featheringilt, referee; Marlin Hayhurst, umpire; L. L. Judd, head linesman, and Floyd Read, field judge.

Play-by-play broadcasts of the contest will be aired by radio station KSEL, Lubbock, and KVOW, Littlefield.

Thursday's winner will move into the regional Class A round against the winner of Saturday's Lefors-Phillips game at Phillips.

The Cats and their opponents will be about even in weight for this contest, the local team enjoying only a six-pound overall weight advantage. Billy Frank Davis is scheduled to start at right guard instead of Floyd Pinkerton, and Arland Wesley will start at right tackle instead of John Fowler. Both Pinkerton and Fowler are injured and not scheduled to start although they will see quite a lot of action.

After dropping their first two games, 19 to 6 to Haskell and 26-0 to Hamlin, the Spur Bulldogs settled down to win seven of eight conference games. Spur lost only to Paducah, 19-12, in district play. Spur has scored 203 points in ten games, and gave up 126. Littlefield has amassed 351 points to 47 for their opponents in the same number of games.

Spur is spearheaded by Dean Watson, 180-pound smashing fullback, and C. Blair, 140-pound tailback, who can run the 100-yard dash in 16 flat. Charles Byrd, 180-pound center, alternates with Watson at the fullback slot.

Among our many gift selections for the ladies, we'd like for you to see our fine quality Hand Bags by Coruette. All new shapes and sizes fashioned from genuine leather and suedes, only $5.00 plus 20% tax. See these at the Louise Dress Shop in Littlefield. 36-1tc

Olton Plays Host To Meadow

Charles Askew, Wildcat tailback, goes around left end for two yards and the first Littlefield touchdown in last Friday's game against the Slaton Tigers. Tommy Bailes (44), is out in front leading interference for Askew but the shifty little tailback went over untouched. The Wildcats won the game and the District 4-A championship by a score of 47 to 0.

Hale Center - Anton Wind Up 3-B Play Owls Win 41 - 7

Hale Center's Owls rolled over the Anton Bulldogs with an impressive 41-7 score Friday night before several fans attending the annual Anton homecoming game.

The game wound up District 3-B conference activities for both the schools.

Hale Center's Jerry Johnson proved himself once more a master quarterback and passer in the tilt. Anton's star defensive player was Donald Stone, center, while Kenneth Sudduth was the Bulldogs' best potential ground gainer in Friday night's game.

Hale Center intercepted two passes and recovered two costly fumbles. The Owls scored twice in the first quarter, twice in the third and twice in the fourth. Anton's score came in the second quarter.

Wildcats Win District 4-A Title; Defeats Slaton 47-0

Littlefield's big rolling Wildcats won the District 4-A Championship Friday afternoon with a 47-0 victory over the Slaton Tigers in a game played at Jones stadium in Lubbock, before an estimated 4,500 sun-drenched fans.

All Littlefield backs got into the scoring column with the exception of wingback Steven Brock. Tommy Bailes counted 14 points, Frank Gage 12 points, Charles Askew, seven points, Floyd Goff, six points, Gene Renfro, six points, and Donald Crossley ran two of the extra points over.

Charles Askew ran around left end for four yards late in the first quarter to start the scoring; Gene Renfro's try for the point failed. Midway during the second quarter, Frank Gage ran for another touchdown from two yards out, after big runs by Gene Renfro and Tommy Bailes ran the extra point over. Gage also ran for 39 yards for another touchdown a few minutes later after Slaton had been forced to punt. Bailes plunged for the extra point and made it 20 to 0 at the half-time.

Bands Are Colorful After the intermission, during which the Wildcat and Tiger bands put on a colorful show, Littlefield took up right where they left off. On the third play from scrimmage a pass thrown by Slaton's Cecil Bybee was batted into the air by Renfro and caught by End Floyd Goff, who sprinted 25 yards to score. Askew ran the extra point. 'Cats Drive 88 Yards to Score The next Wildcat score came on an 88-yard drive, after the 'Cats had stopped Slaton's deepest penetration of the game. Bailes and Askew alternated in moving it to the two yard stripe, and from there, Bailes plunged it over. Crossley made the extra point on a quarterback sneak, boosting the count to 34-0. After a pass interception by Steven Brock, Bailes ran 60 yards for another touchdown, with Crossley again running the extra point. Littlefield started punting on first downs to keep the score down. Substitutes who turned in good performances for the 'Cats were Billy Cowan, Jackie McCandless, Bill Gray, Bob Attaway and Teddy Brewster. Several others turned in a good game for the locals. Gene Renfro scored the last touchdown on a 40-yard jaunt in the final period. Billy Cowan was stopped when he attempted to run the extra point over. The Wildcats big, fast charging line really proved the difference and kept Slaton penned-in all day.

Nelson Baby Dismissed From Hospital

Little William Earl Nelson, one-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, was able to be dismissed from the Littlefield hospital Saturday. The little fellow, who was born by Caesarian section, had been kept under an oxygen tent since birth, until about ten days ago, when he was gradually kept out for a few minutes at a time. However, he has steadily grown stronger, and it is believed that he will overcome his physical weaknesses.

PARDON THE INTRUSION . . . In the second quarter of a game between the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds, Wally Dreyer of the Giants leaps in the air to snag a pass behind the goal line, but New York's Noah Mullins knocks the ball down. The Giants scored an upset and won, 35-28. It was one of the hardest fought games in the 25-year rivalry of the two teams.

Thomas E. Ernest, supervisor of Lamb county schools, and William Brune, supervisor of Littlefield school system, plan to attend the Texas county school supervisors' meeting, to be held in Fort Worth, Friday.

A program has been planned to include a panel discussion on "Supervisors at work in Texas," says Mrs. L. J. Timmerman, chairman of Texas county school supervisors' association.

Several supervisors will give high lights of the supervisory program in their respective counties.

Mrs. Theresa Carrell, director of Elementary Education, state department of education, will participate in the discussion. Dr. L. D. Haskew, dean of college of education, University of Texas, will serve as the consultant.

"This meeting should be both helpful and interesting," says Mr. Ernest, especially to those who are involved in supervision problems.

Recruiting Officer At Local Postoffice

"The Marine Corps wants top men and women for recruits and would prefer younger men and women so that they may give more service to the corps," M/Sgt. Burnette non-commissioned recruit chief of the Lubbock area, said in Levelland, Tuesday.

M/Sgt. Burnette, in summarizing his mission here, said the corp was seeking men and women who wished to make a career of Marine work.

"We are a proud outfit," the recruiter said, "and intend to stay that way and can't if we enlist a bunch of misfits. We can afford to be choosy because of limited recruiting quotas."

The Marines' recruiting quota was cut approximately 40 per cent October 1, Burnette said, and requirements for enlistment have been increased and made more rigid.

In order for a man to enlist in the Corps he must be between the ages of 17 and 28 years, pass a thorough physical and mental examination and be accepted by the Dallas headquarters. Women must be between 20 and 30 years of age, unmarried, high school graduates and without dependents.

"The Marine Corps is pretty well a handpicked outfit and we intend to keep it that way," M/Sgt. Burnette said.

"We want men and women who want to make a career of the corps. A man can join the outfit now at 17, retire at 37 years of age after 20 years of service still a young man," the sergeant said.

The service with Marines offers practically every type of training plus correspondence courses that can be taken with the object being either completion of high school education or accumulation of college degrees.

Sergeant Burnette's office is located in the Post Office building in Lubbock, where he keeps office hours from 8 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. weekdays except Tuesday and Thursdays and from 8 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Saturdays.

M/Sgt. Burnette will be in the Post Office, Littlefield, first and third Tuesdays of each month from 9 to 11:30 a. m.

Clyde Edmonds Gets His Buck

Clyde Edmonds was one of two students out of a group of 20 who got his deer, while on a hunting trip north of Deming, N. M., last week.

The hunting party included 20 students from N. M. M. I. at Roswell, which was a pack trip taking the group several miles out of civilization.

The 11-point buck was the first deer ever shot by young Edmonds—and to say he is proud of his achievement is needless. He has sent the head and antlers home for mounting—the deer meat will arrive a little later.

Young Edmonds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edmonds and is a third year student at the institute. He spent the weekend here with his parents.

Donnie Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stewart, South Westside avenue, was dismissed from the Amherst hospital the first of the week, after receiving medical treatment for several days.

STAFFORD D. SHIPLEY —LOCAL YOUTH, LIKES ARMY ● ELIGIBLE FOR O. C. S.

Ret. Stafford D. Shipley, now taking basic training at Fort Ord, California, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Shipley, 212 East 14th street, Littlefield, graduate of the class of 1949 of the Littlefield high school, writes to T/Sgt. Gerald F. Cutshall, local U. S. Army and Air Force Recruiting sergeant, as follows:

Dear Sergeant Cutshall:

Well you asked me to write so here it is—plain and clear. I think that anyone who can qualify for the Army is crazy if they don't come in. I was never as happy in my life, of course I miss my girl and my folks.

If anyone wants to know about Fort Ord, California, tell them this—There is a one million dollar soldiers club here where you have every recreation imaginable; there are four movies, one swimming pool, a service club, bowling alley, and post exchanges. Tell them that the barracks are nice and the whole camp is beautiful. If they want tradition it is here. I am in Co. B, 8th Infantry; this outfit has been here a long time. They fought in the Mexican war and lots of others. You are seven miles from Monterey, a swell town, fifteen miles from Salinas and ninety miles from San Francisco. I qualified for Officers Candidate School and I feel that I will be here in the Army for twenty years. Tell them it may concern, if they are not positive of what they want, to come in, unassigned, because I filed out my papers at Amarillo for Field Artillery, now I will have to go to Field Artillery while awaiting OCS appointment.

Try to impress that if you qualify for school you will get it, that is if you can pass the entrance test they give you during basic training, you will be qualified for school. Also impress the fact that they get a partial pay after a week here. There is no need to bring a lot of money to get by on.

We go on the firing range Friday and then we will start firing the carbine then the cal. 30 machine gun. I will write you how I do on the range. There is no excuse for making a poor score after all the training they give you with the different weapons. All is very interesting. You said the mess hall would be a little crowded. It was, until last week when we opened a second mess hall and now there are 256 men divided into two mess halls. I really like the Army. Sixty percent of those people are from Texas, all but three men in our cadre are from Texas. My platoon sergeant is from Borger.

A funny thing happened here, though: Harold Johnson's serial number is 18347171 and my serial number is 18347172; how this happened, I don't know. Well, I will close for I have a 3-day pass, and am off to Monterey.

Four Local Men—

The awards were presented by J. G. Ausman, of Amarillo, vice president of the Southwestern Public Service company. Mr. Ausman was introduced by J. M. Collins, division manager, and master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Ausman told the group that employees with their 'know how' was the biggest asset the company held. He said that in this period of growth, with many new employees, they were being depended upon to teach the new employees to keep up the company's service standard.

This is the first year that Southwestern Public Service company has had a service award system. Four hundred fifty-three, about one quarter of the number now employed by the company, will receive awards at the inaugural dinners being held throughout the system. The combined service of this group is 6183 years.

Mechanical Pickers—

Out in the smaller communities of the county, however, the thinning of the ranks of cotton pickers was decidedly more noticeable.

And another thing all too apparent was the fact, that large numbers of cotton fields which a week or two before had been populated by human cotton pickers, were now habitated by only a mechanical picker towed by a chugging tractor. If the tractor wasn't chugging away you were probably looking over a field of completely stripped stalks, and several huge piles of fluffy cotton bolls piled at one end of the field or the other, awaiting transportation to a gin, where already anywhere from 50 to 200 loads are waiting their turn.

Not only are there hundreds of mechanical pickers, but also there are quite a number of mechanical loaders—machines that pick the piled cotton up into their maw, and in a matter of minutes and odd seconds, load the waiting trailer, faster than could a half dozen shovelers, equipped so to speak, with the latest model hand shovels.

If you thought that the mechanization of the cotton farm was going to be a slow, leisureously process, you were simply thinking wrong. Almost overnight, figuratively it has happened and is now a reality.

Shortage of Machines

Actually, there would be many more than the 650 mechanical pickers working here, but dealers simply could not get nearly so many as they wanted from the manufacturers.

Actually many of the new owners paid sharply above list prices for the machines they bought, as out-of-towners brought them in, hearing of the demand, and sold them at a sweet premium price.

Average Machine Costs $1000

The average cotton picker in the county probably represent an investment of $1,000. Some paid more, some less. But many farmers claim their investment is actually nil and nothing. "It paid for itself on the first 25 or 30 bales it gathered," because they were paying $30 to $40 per bale to hire it picked by hand.

What are the operating costs of these pickers? Here again reports differ and are at variance. But some farmers state that the cost is as low as $1.50 per bale, while others estimate double that figure. Speed of operation is one controlling factor. Some machines if crowded, will cover 18-20 acres in a long day. Other farmers try to operate at half that speed, or even less, and think it pays, through more complete, and cleaner gathering.

Practically all are agreed that it is a two-man job, and state that a $20 bill will pay the two men, with $4 or $5 more to keep up the machine, and supply the tractor with gas and oil.

Some of these machines are with careful handling, delivering an even cleaner grade of cotton than was the hand-picked, some farmers report, and most are unanimous in saying that the machine gathered product is at least the equal of the average hand-picked gin offerings.

A half dozen high-priced pickers are operating in this area, but so far as known, none of these is working in this county. This is a new type of machine, made by McCormick-Deering, but was designed primarily for use on longer staple varieties.

It was reported doing a very satisfactory job, however, in the Muleshoe area, on a field of Northern Star variety. The machine will not come into widespread use here however, unless the selling price can be sharply reduced. It now sells for around $6100, unmounted.

Whatever its trademark, whatever the price, mechanical cotton picking has invaded the South Plains to stay, and the day of vast hordes of transient pickers jamming our streets and stores each weekend, is probably a thing of the past.

Of course some of them will be with us for a long time to come, will be back again next year, and the years after.

But as our farmers learn more about defoliation and more about mechanical pickers and more about proper varieties for the picker—well after all, it's a mechanical age.

Child Burned—

pastor, officiating.

Interment, in charge of Hammons Funeral Home, took place in the Littlefield cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Benny Harris, Rex Harris, Harold Harris, and Lenton Smith.

Out-of-town relatives here for funeral services were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Johnson and Rebern Greer of Anadarko, Okla.; Gus Greer, Rudolph Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Greer, Mrs. Jack Harris and family, Mrs. B. H. Killum, Mrs. J. C. Harris and daughters, Lilly Jo, Wanda Lou and Bennie, Mrs. Harry Sump, all of Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Harris, and Harrell Harris, all of Sulphur Springs, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bloodworth and three children of San Angelo.

DEFOLIATING THE NEWS

STATION LCL REPORTING DIRECT FROM THE COTTON BOLL

JUDGE OTHA DENT MAY BE FALLING SHORT IN THE NUMBER OF CUSTOMERS HE IS GETTING these late weeks, who want to plunk down a few bucks, just for the privilege of letting them say "I Do", since the pure food and drug act has been extended in Texas to also take in folks wishing to get married, but the business of hearing liquor and bootlegging cases goes on as usual. They're telling a story on the Court which may or may not be true, but here it is: "A colored boy, accused of illegal possession of liquor, who was caught with the goods on him, was being given trial, with the confiscated liquor sitting on the table and labeled "exhibit A", as the trial got underway. This boy might have had a guilty conscience, but he also had a smart lawyer. During the course of the trial, he was asked, "did you ever see this liquor before?" "No, sah," he answered. The case levelled out, and finally the verdict came, "not guilty". The colored boy's countenance broke into a slow grin, as he walked up to the table, picked up the bottle, and started for the door. "Hey, said the Court, that liquor isn't yours—you just testified that you had never seen it before." "That's the whole truth and nothin' but," said the "not guilty" culprit, " 'cause it was in a box, but nobody asked me nuthin' about that." "Next case", said the Judge, and never mind that. He'll be back!"

 THIS IS THAT HAPPY TIME OF YEAR, WHEN OUR YOUNG SWAIN DON'T HAVE TO SWEAT one particular kind of blood. They haven't got a worry in the world, that their favorite girl friend, is likely to throw them over for a more handsome male, or even a full back. She's just like glue, and flavored with honey — and it's a cinch she's going to stay that way — at least until after Christmas. *****

 JUST WHEN WE WERE ABOUT TO ASK, (HAVING NOT HEARD OF HIM SINCE THE ELECTION) "what's become of Henry Wallace", along comes a national magazine with the information that Henry has been neglecting his politics a bit, while he who gave us hi-bred corn, has been fooling around his chicken farm, and come up with a hi-bred hen, reportedly capable of doubling her egg output on the same amount of hi-bred kernels of corn. Of course, if she doubles the number of eggs, she also potentially doubles the fowl population, so after all, maybe the government will find a market for some of that grain that is busting out the sides of all the grain storage in the country. If it will work with a chick, it will work with a Turk, and if Henry will just quit associatin' with them Communists a little longer and take up with a few cows it's just possible that with production doubled there, too, we may be able to afford a good steak, two or three years hence. *****

 THAT FORMATION OF BIG PLANES THAT FLEW OVER LITTLEFIELD AND OTHER CITIES and towns on the South Plains Armistice Day, made a beautiful sight, even as the wind blew as a gale. Not since war days, when day and night formations from Lubbock and other bases in the surrounding area were a regular occurrence, has such a formation of planes been seen and heard here. And one of these big air wagons would make three of the little fellows which were over us then. Those boys riding and piloting those planes, to all appearances down here, could have been having the time of their lives, and sailing along as smoothly as a boat on a lake of glass. But, to take the word of a Littlefield boy, who wore a naval aviator's uniform all through

Assistant Employed At Western Union

Mrs. Willie Fay Alford, Littlefield resident, is assisting Miss Pauline Young, local Western Union Telegraph company manager, during the fall rush of business. Mrs. Alford is a former employee of the Western Union.

Members of the Whitharral First Baptist church, voted to build a new church auditorium, at a called church conference held last Sunday, November 13th.

Last night at the Wednesday night prayer service, a similar conference was called by the pastor, when a financial committee and a her husband's brother, J. H. Patton work out the details of the new building program. The group also voted on what kind of structure—either brick or stucco—were to be used in the new church building.

The church has a resident membership of 231 members. Rev. C. J. Coffman is pastor. He has filled the pulpit for the past 35 weeks, and during that time, there have been 40 baptisms. Several additions have also been made by letter. Rev. Coffman is a former Bailey county resident, but he was doing mission work in Oregon when he received a call to the Whitharral church. He succeeds Rev. H. G. Verner, who is now pastor of the Petersburg Baptist church.

Make Report Of October Rainfall

As announced by James G. Simons, assistant county agent, boys with rain gauges reported the following amounts of rain in Lamb county for October:

Earth, 1.44 inches; Springlake, .50 inches; Spade, .30 inches; Sudan, .70 inches; and Amherst, .65 inches.

County average for October was .55 inches.

The 37-year average for the first ten months was 17.63 inches and the county average for the first ten months of 1949 is 21.72 inches.

October, 1949, was a dry month in comparison to the 37-year average because October of 29 years in the last 37 years has exceeded the average for October, 1949.

IN OUR IMAGE — Houston Harte, West Texas Publisher, Produces Illustrated Bible Volume

Houston Harte, newspaper man, did a job of copy reading on the Holy Bible and came forth with a book entitled "In Our Image" which probably will be the most widely studied volume ever produced by a West Texan.

Harte, publisher of the San Angelo Standard-Times, conceived the idea of the book several years ago when he became worried about the lack of interest in Bible reading. His own children said they "could find nothing in the Bible."

Four years ago he was able to sell the Oxford University Press on the idea, and now the book, with 52 color drawings by Guy Rowe, has been published.

"My first approach to Bible reading had been the selection of 52 Old Testament narratives, editing them down to a point where they could become a satisfactory feature for the rather dull church page printed in our own and other newspapers," Harte said. "The more I considered the feature the more I came to believe the illustrations required color. This gave me the picture book idea. The outstanding current symbolic portrait seemed to me to be the frontispiece of Time Magazine. I interested Guy Rowe, one of the Time cover artists, in painting the portraits."

That simple is the story behind "In Our Image," but not about the men who made it possible.

Born in Missouri

Although born in Missouri, and a graduate of the School of Journalism, University of Missouri, Houston Harte has been a West Texan for nearly thirty years.

Prior to World War I, Harte operated a weekly newspaper in his own home town, Booneville, Mo. After serving as an Army captain, he came to San Angelo and purchased the San Angelo Standard. In 1928 he added a morning edition of the newspaper, The Times. Together they now serve 35,000 subscribers in 30 West Texas counties.

Harte also has been active in commercial development of West Texas. During the early 20's he was a prime mover in salvaging the old KCM&O railroad, which soon after became an important instrument in the development of West Texas as an oil source.

He also participated in the development of the Sunset Motor lines, and helped to develop newspapers in Corpus Christi, Marshall, Denison, Paris and Abilene. He organized the San Angelo Kiwanis club, and installed the first paid executive of the Boy Scout movement in San Angelo. He has been president of the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

On a national scale Harte has been vice president and a director of the Associated Press.

He was married in 1921 to Isabel McCutcheon and has two sons, Ed, a Dartmouth graduate now on the staff of the Kansas City Star, and Houston Harte, Jr., now an undergraduate at Washington and Lee University. The artist, Guy Rowe (who signs his paintings "Giro") was not a man of religion. Beginning with his boyhood in Salt Lake City, his formal schooling was limited; he worked in mines, as a cowhand, mechanic, a bill collector, an acrobat and a lumberjack.

Attended Night Classes

He became a vaudeville performer, drawing chalk portraits of people in the audience.

Finally in 1913 he was able to attend night classes at the Detroit School of Fine Arts. Next came employment as a commercial artist by an advertising agency, but always his major interest was portraiture. Soon he had been discovered by Time and by several prominent public figures who sat for him.

He developed variations of two ancient methods of painting, one involving the use of grease as a base and the other using wax. The first was devised by the cave dwellers in connection with the animal paintings which decorated their homes. Wax was used by the Egyptians and Greeks in portraits of the deceased which were painted on coffin lids to identify the remains for posterity.

Painted in Reverse

Rowe combined both media. He modernized the old processes by the introduction of acetate sheets as the base to which he applied his grease-wax medium. Actually he painted on the reverse side. From the standpoint of appearance, the process gives a translucent and intense color quality which is peculiar to the technique.

When Oxford University Press first queried Rowe, he confessed to an appalling unfamiliarity with the Good Book. Now the prospect of exploring the Biblical text for character clues intrigued him and he took the job.

Months of research and a half did nothing else. He spent reading and rereading the testament. Then he began search for people who him to be the physical of the Biblical char-

In a side-street cafe in New York City, he encountered a man who reminded him of turning to the restaurant day at noon he found man again. For three days Rowe continued to visit studying every line and his subject's face. Now they speak to each other.

Mrs. Rowe did a vast research on background implements, etc., and missions to the botanical zoo, and the library to torical accuracy in her highly detailed paintings.

Ministers helped His son assisted in the and offered pointed and criticism of the process.

And while "In Our Image" is primarily the work of Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, they also had assistance from a group of clergymen. Oxford was member of the group consisted of the Rev. Dr. Allen, a professor (Lutheran); the Rev. Dr. LeRoy (Methodist); the Rev. Dr. Moore (United Presbyterian); the Rev. Dr. Cuthbert (Episcopal); each individual for a 50 stories in the Old Testament that seemed to him most interesting. As a result, twenty-six of these that Mr. Harte retained the exact words of the Bible, eliminating only those which interrupted the narrative. The work in the new volume is a masterpiece.

Priced at $10.00, the name itself is the 26th verse of the chapter of Genesis. To the reader, the stories are their familiar names and the location of the scene which they are taken. For example, is a famous Bible story, but only the Bible states that his story of Comedy is found in the Book of Job.

The forward to the Kent Cooper, executive of the Associated Press and friend of Mr. Harte's. The Rowe paintings, the original measure of 21", have been reduced from pages that are 9" by 11".

Plates for the book were printed in England. The original printing of the book sells for $10.00. (Reprinted from West Texas Chamber of Commerce.)

MORE THAN $25,000 SUBSCRIBED BY BAPTIST MEMBERSHIP BEFORE COMPLETION OF BUILDING

Littlefield Baptists, and church supporters, subscribed more than $25,000 additional cash last Sunday in a voluntary movement to insure the completion of the Educational building of the Baptist church now under construction. Lee Hemphill was smiling his thanks and on Monday morning, when he told this news more than the $25,000, which he had announced necessary to be raised now, if the upper rooms were to be provided, had already been watched with pleasure for several weeks by the church membership.

But the rapid erection and near-completion of the four walls also made necessary an immediate decision from the membership. The had to immediately decide whether the walls shall be built on upwards to provide a second story for additional, admittedly needed classrooms, or whether in the interest of economy, the church should forego providing the additional class rooms at this time. An additional $25,000 was needed to be provided, if the additional class rooms on the second floor are to be incorporated in the building, and decision date was last Sunday.

Mail Letter to Membership
An open letter was sent to all of the membership during last week, apprising them of the situation, and an effort to be made at that time to raise the needed extra money, by volunteer subscription. Actually, only $10,000 additional was needed, because $15,000 of the needed $25,000 had already been pledged to the pastor, Rev. Lee Hemphill. It can now be announced that the additional class rooms will be incorporated in the church edifice now under construction, and is expected to cost when completed about $150,000. Financing of the main auditorium and a decision to start erection of the present structure is financially provided for or its completion.

Auditorium To Cost $100,000
The main auditorium, still in the planning stage is expected to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000, and will bring the total investment in the church buildings to approximately $250,000.

The letter mailed to membership this week stated that $85,000 was on hand. If the additional $10,000 was pledged last Sunday, and an additional $5,000 can be pledged for February and March by the membership, and with $15,000 already pledged for December and January, the pledging of a similar amount by the membership, will have made full provision for the $150,000 needed for completion of the educational building.

During the closing months of the war, the church started in a campaign to finance the building of a new church home, when materials would become available. That fund has steadily grown each month, with never less than $1,000 added to it each month, more often, much more. But as the fund became larger, building costs accelerated at an even more rapid pace. Originally planned to cost in the neighborhood of $100,000, it is now found, to the dismay of some, that the amount necessary has more than doubled.

But there has been no let-up and no discouragement on the part of the planners. The proof of that came Sunday, when the several-year-old "Thousand Dollar First Sunday Day" was replaced by a more than $25,000 Sunday.

The big Sunday subscription however, is only the start of the financing campaign. To carry the educational building through to full completion, will require an additional $40,000. The church membership believes that this goal can easily be attained.

In December and January they plan to provide $15,000 in both months, and $5,000 in both February and March. Since thousand dollar Sundays were inaugurated more than four years ago, the fund had grown to an amount exceeding $80,000, which provided the nucleus for the new building.

There seems little doubt now that the planners and workers will have their reward next year, in the completion of the entire $250,000 edifice—with not one cent of debt outstanding.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER WANTS TO ORGANIZE ASSOCIATION TO DOUBT THE RUSSIAN POLITICIANS

Editor's note: The Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake comes up with a novel idea this week, which may be worth considering.

Dear editor:

For weeks now, in fact for several years, ever since Russia stopped needin our help any more in the form of airplanes and trucks and tanks and food, I been readin about the claims of the Russians, their threats, braggin, etc. For example, I a s t week I noticed where Vislinsky says the atomic weapon has been available to Russia since 1947. That is about like me sayin the mechanical cotton picker has been available to me since 1900. It was

If I'd only had sense enough to make one. A bale an acre off my farm is also available, but I ain't got around to makin it yet.

The point is, I don't know whether Russia has the atomic bomb or not, don't much care, suppose she has, and if she hasn't will before long, but Russia makes so many statements and they get such serious treatment in this country that it's getting monotonous. Russia knows what's goin on in this country because we ain't got any secrets, but nobody outside of Russia and few inside knows what's goin on there, and what they say for publication ain't any more reliable than what I tell my wife when I want to get to town on wash day.

Therefore, I am figurin on organizin an association to question everything that Russia says. If she says she has a supply of atom bombs, I'll doubt it; if she says she

Ceramics Studio Opened On Levelland Highway

A school of ceramics was opened in Littlefield Monday morning by Mrs. Elton Hawk, Mrs. W. B. Little and Frances Stephen, located on the Levelland highway in the Bar-to Ramsey building 715 Hall ave., formerly occupied as a hardware store by Mr. Ramsey.

Enrollment for the school began Monday morning, and continued throughout the day. Students may enroll anytime during the week.

A free nursery located in the studio will be open for the convenience of mothers with small children, which will be under the supervision of Mrs. Burks.

The ten-lesson course for both beginners and advanced students is $12.50.

Mrs. Little announced that the work room will be open at all times to those who have had courses in ceramics, and there will be no charge made to those who desire to use it.

The new owners are desirous of having a name for the studio, and wish to share the privilege of selecting a name with the public. The instructors are offering a free course to the person who submits the most appropriate name. Entries must be mailed or brought to the school by December 1.

The studio has been completely redecorated. The walls are of a pale green tone. Display window boxes hold attractive pieces of completed ceramics. The main work room has a floor space 20 by 40 feet. Greenware is displayed in show cases in the work room.

Mrs. Little and Mrs. Hawk have operated a similar school, on a much smaller scale in Levelland for the past three months. Mr. Stephen is a new partner in the firm. His home was formerly at Dublin. He is a graduate of Oklahoma university, and has a degree in sculpture and ceramics, and has had two years training with the American Academy of Art in Chicago.

Can Anyone Give Less Than THANKS?

Can anyone living in this greatest country in the world be less than thankful on this day for the blessings of Providence? As for us, we have special reasons for giving thanks. We are thankful that we are pharmacists... Thankful that we are privileged to practice our profession in this community. We are thankful for old friendships—and for many new ones made during the past year. And above all, we are thankful that in our way we may have contributed something to the health and happiness of the individual and of the community.

ain't got none, I'll doubt it; if she says she's had a good rain, I'll doubt it; if she says she wants peace, I'll doubt it; if she says she wants war, I'll doubt it, but not quite as much.

I will expect you newspaper editors to cooperate by puttin quotation marks around everything that Russia says, includin headlines.

As far as I'm concerned, Russia is now like the character which every town has one of, the man who has talked so much and so long and so unreliably that nobody pays any attention to him any more. If I was a big newspaper editor, I'd reserve a section of the paper for printin the news out of Russia, with a editor's note that anybody who believes it is welcome to, but I don't. What a Russian politician says may be entertaining, but it ought to be segregated.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Thrown By Recruiting Sergeant of Cavalry Horse, "Daddled Up" To Stay Put In Army

Years ago a recruiting sergeant was enlisting in... Today Captain Jennings B. Smith is Recruiting Officer for the 25th Infantry Division in Japan. He still remembers those first few days and especially the bitter disappointment that he suffered. That is why he has tried to prepare himself to be able to sell the Army—not with any promises that he cannot keep, but sound advice about the many advantages that the Army has to offer.

His preparation for Recruiting started in 1937 when he was assigned to the Recruiting Service as an enlisted man. Then, while stationed at New Orleans, La., and Charlotte, N. C., he got to know the problems that faced the enlisted recruiter.

The war interrupted his recruiting training but did get him promoted to warrant officer junior grade. He was later sent to officers candidate school where he came out a second lieutenant.

In a way the war helped mold his background as a recruiter. His biggest selling points is TRAVEL! In his 20 years in the Army, Capt. Smith has seen both sides of the world. He has been in five different foreign countries, some more than

Lutheran Church News

The Family Worship Hour, a devotional program heard over KVOW every Tuesday morning at 10:15 a. m., is designed for all who want to have within their homes a family-worship centered in Christ. The recordings are made in the studio of NBC with the speakers and choir first properly auditioned. Sponsors of the Family Worship Hour are a few Christ-loving men and women who incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois for non-profit corporations. Wherever the Family Worship Hour is heard it is favorably received. For example station KNEB in Nebraska comments: "We can run that transcription (Family Worship Hour) as our first number in the morning and close the day with the same transcription. It is fine." Those who enjoy these Christ centered devotions for the homes of the world may be interested in knowing that KPAN in Hereford carries this program every Friday at 4:45 p. m., and every Sunday at 4:30 p. m.

once. He has been stationed in 16 different states, and altogether has made 35 changes of station, which includes crossing our own country three times.

Whenever he is appointed recruiting officer there are two other jobs he likes to get for he believes that they go hand in hand with recruiting. They are insurance and savings, two of the biggest benefits available to the soldier.

"If I can show them that while in the Army they can save money; take care of their loved ones by proper utilization of available government life insurance facilities; show them how the Army training program is designed to make them efficient soldiers capable of defending the United States, her possessions, and her ideals; and also show them how their dreams of travel can also be realized, then I am doing justice to the enlistee and re-enlistee and also the Army."

The true story as related above was revealed here today by T/Sgt. Grald F. Cutshall, NCO in charge of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting station, 310 West 5th street, in Littlefield.

Your Best Interest . . . My Best Interest . . . and the City's Best Interest

YOUR OWN CITY COMMISSION WILL SET THE POOLING BASIS FOR THE CITY OF LITTLEFIELD

What pooling basis will yield the Individual Citizen, the City of Littlefield and Me the best return? Check the following calculations for your answer:

ROYALTY PAYABLE ON ONE WELL UNDER SIXTY BARRELS A DAY ALLOWABLE:

On sixty barrels a day allowable, one well would bring 1800 barrels per month. The one-eighth royalty would be 225 barrels at a price of $2.60 a barrel, or, the sum of $585.00 per month.

A. ROYALTY ON ONE LOT IN A TWENTY ACRE POOLING TRACT:

One lot is 0.172 of an acre or approximately one-sixth of an acre. One lot is 1/120th of twenty acres.

1/120th of $585.00 is $4.87.—

Royalty on ONE LOT in TWENTY ACRE TRACT would be $4.87 per month.

B. ROYALTY ON ONE LOT IN A TWELVE LOT BLOCK

One lot would be 1/12th of the twelve lot Block.

1/12th of $585.00 is $48.75.

Royalty on ONE LOT in TWELVE LOT BLOCK would be $48.75 per month.

C. ROYALTY ON ONE LOT IN A ONE LOT DRILLING BLOCK

Royalty on ONE LOT IN ONE DRILLING BLOCK would be one-eighth royalty. One-eighth royalty would be $585.00 per month on ONE LOT.

D. THE CITY OF LITTLEFIELD WOULD REAP IN TAXES AND PROXIMATELY $1000.00 PER YEAR ON A WELL.

NOTE:

The above and foregoing are approximate calculations, and do not take into account the usual deduction as to Federal Taxes which will reduce the amount payable under royalty provision. Calculation is also based on the proposition that the well will run its full allowable of sixty barrels per day.

Now, it has been said that the City of Littlefield must be pooled on a twenty acre basis or no well will be drilled. In answer to this I say that if all unleased lots and acreage within my acreage lines in the City of Littlefield, Texas are turned to me exclusively, I will take all the same at $10.00 per lot or $35.00 per acre paying you in cash on delivery of lease. FURTHER, if you will hold all unleased lots and acreage and deliver to me I will not only take same at the above price but will put you down a well to production, or the Ellenberger, provided one-fourth the royalty on all leased acreage in the City is donated me by placing same in escrow with the Security State Bank to be delivered to me by the Bank on a well being drilled to production or to the Ellenberger.

When you look at your donation of one-fourth the Royalty, remember that before the same is delivered me, I will have already spent ten dollars per lot on approximately 2000 lots, around $20,000 in cash in your City, and will be out an additional $100,000, or better, on the drilling of the well to production or to the Ellenberger.

I AM FOR DRILLING AS MANY WELLS AS YOUR COMMISSION WILL ALLOW -- IT WILL MAKE ALL OF US SOME MONEY IF WE HIT
THIS ENTIRE PROPOSITION IS WHOLLY DEPENDENT ON THE CITY COMMISSION STAYING WITH US AND LEAVING THE TOWN WIDE OPEN FOR OPERATION.

Very truly yours,

F. D. PRINCE

needle, madam. If not, you're back in business again. It's the woman so that after only twelve static hemlines, she's another change? Even another change for a year, she'll welcome yet more from the fashion calls for another siege with the hemline. But verily, the gods have spoken. It's up again for the lower boundary of women's clothes. Whether we like it or not, they're on the rise. The dictum has come from style deities at home and abroad. Our immediate conclusion is that there is never any rest or peace for those who run their lives according to the fashion magazines. Truly, the authorities don't seem to agree on precisely one distance from terra firma. Fath says a certain number of inches, Dior and others say something else. It looks like one great co-operative conspiracy to keep the situation confused and cloudy.

There are two segments of the population who are exuberant about this latest turn in human events; namely, gallant members of the Little Below the Knee Club, and—you guessed it—the men.

For both groups the sudden decision to raise hemline is a moral victory. The crusading LBK girls of 1947 firmly are realizing their goal. The frustrated, outraged gentlemen say that 1949, the year that the Russians got the bomb, has been brightened somewhat by the improvement in the over-all landscape. Always lovers of art, they've been clamoring for the change ever since the "new look" eliminated "cheese-cake" as a part of local scenery.

We are not presuming to argue the merits or demerits of the prescribed new hemline. Probably, the twelve to fourteen inches decision puts the hem of skirts at a more becoming location. It's a cinch, that as far as comfort and convenience are concerned (two factors never considered too much in matters of fashion), the new length is a blessing. Once again women can walk instead of stumble.

But we still protest with unlady-like expletives this lowering of the boom of the just-above-the-angle hemline. We maintain that surely the hems we struggled over two years ago should have been allowed to cool off before they got ripped out and returned to their old station.

With every stitch we rip and every stitch we put in, you can bet that we'll be muttering: "We've been double-crossed!"

Defoliating the News-

[continued from page one] the war days, it isn't that way at all. "The boys hanging onto those sticks up there to keep those planes in formation in this wind, are straining every muscle, and they'd be wringing wet even if it was zero", he remarked as they sight, even as the wind blew as we are sure it was, we couldn't fail to detect a note of sadness in his voice. Lots of those boys in "evilians" for months or years, the sight of the big air wagons over head, makes them homesick.

READ IN A DOWNSTATE PAPER THE OTHER DAY, WHERE "A HALF DOZEN BALES OF COTTON went up in smoke", which was that particular writer's way of telling his readers that fire had destroyed a half dozen bales of cotton. But the demon fire, which also hits out in this section, too, during cotton ginning season, isn't the only cotton killer. We've also had our share of cotton going up in smoke, but now comes the story of a farmer over in the southwest section of the county who saw several of his freshly picked bales go up in dust. The cotton was stacked on the ground as with gins overcrowded it just had no place else to go. Did you ever watch one of those lazy little whirlwinds that sweep over the Plains coming from seemingly nowhere, and apparently going to the same place. Well, one of those things came up from nowhere, deliberately whirled over his pile of cotton—also under it, and to make it short, it just simply was trouble of making the trips to the gin. And if boys and girls living in Mars was happening to a new cotton shirt those unmentionables they waitin' for.

Anton Lions Club Will Sponsor Community House

Anton Lions Club will sponsor a community house for that city. A committee, consisting of Ed Hart, Alvin Crews, Cragg Darden and Glenn Jones, was appointed as a steering committee to direct the campaign for funds.

The first plan to raise money is the auction sale with Col. Frank Matthews as auctioneer. This sale is to be conducted along a different line to the sales of former years. This year the emphasis will be placed on the sale of new merchandise, and business firms will be solicited to give the Lions articles at cost, and the Lions will try to make a profit off the sale.

Plan Number Two which is now in full swing, is the Cotton Plan. Individual farmers are urged to donate 500 or more pounds of seed cotton. Gainers have agreed to gin the cotton free. This is expected to bring in thousands of dollars. Seven farmers have promised to give at least 500 pounds.

The cotton is to be piled on a vacant block on Main street, and when the drive is over the cotton will be ginned and sold.

There are four women's clubs in Anton and all these clubs need a suitable place for their meetings. These clubs are being solicited to join in this campaign. This is not a drive to raise money to send the money so far from home that it would take a dollar to get a dime there, but it is one for a community project. The Anton Lions have never yee failed. They have sponsored some very fine community projects, and they face this drive with confidence.

directs the recreation for each club. Eugene Young, Amherst 4-H club, and Verlie Gregson, Spade 4-H club, are co-chairmen of the recreational organization.

There are 379 boys enrolled in 4-H club work in Lamb county. This enrollment is divided as follows: Amherst, 71; Fieldton, 14; Hart Camp, 13; Littlefield, 50; Olton, 79; Spade, 54; Springlake, 61; and Sudan, 37.

The boys have various things as their 4-H projects. Swine is the leader in the projects with field crops, second; beef cattle, third; poultry, fourth; gardens, fifth; dairy cattle, sixth; and then such other projects as rabbits, sheep, and special crops.

The Lamb County 4-H clubs will have several judging and demonstration teams entered in the 4-H district and state contests in 1950. These teams will be: entomology, field crops, wool and mohair, rifle, livestock, poultry, tractor maintenance, and dairy feeds.

There are several outstanding boys enrolled in 4-H work in this county and a very good year of 4-H work is expected from all the boys.
