Payroll Taxes Hiked Oct. 1

The nation's taxpayers began to feel the first direct financial impact of the Korean war and the stepped-up defense program Sunday when a 20 percent increase in the withholding tax on salaries and wages went into effect.

Forty-five million Americans will be hit by the increase, which will take 15 percent of income remaining after personal exemptions and deductions instead of the 15 percent which has been taken since 1948.

The boost in individual income taxes provided for in the $4.7 billion tax bill recently passed by Congress applies to all income received in the last three months of 1950.

The higher taxes also will be levied on all 1951 income. There is a possibility that 1951 incomes will be hit by even higher levies.

since President Truman says the rearmament program should be on a pay-as-you-go basis and taxes should be the main instrument for curbing inflation.

For a married man with no children, the new withholding tax will run as follows, depending on the weekly wage:

$30 per week, $30;	$40 per week, $27.00;	$50 per week, $24.50;	$60 per week, $22.00;	$70 per week, $19.50;	$80 per week, $17.00;	$90 per week, $14.50;	$100 per week, $12.00;	$110 per week, $9.50;	$120 per week, $7.00;	$130 per week, $4.50;	$140 per week, $2.00;	$150 per week, $0.00.

New Levy Limited For a married man with children, the tax will follow for different weeks:

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS

Q—I live on a small farm that I tend whenever I'm not working in the city. Could I sign up for institutional on-farm training under the GI Bill to learn up-to-date methods of farming?

A—No. One requirement of the farm training law is that the veteran's farming duties, plus his classroom instruction, must occupy his full time.

Q—I had to sell my home—which I purchased with a GI loan—because my doctor ordered me to move to a dry climate, for reasons of health. Is it possible for me to get another GI loan to buy a house?

A—It is possible. The Housing Act of 1950 authorizes VA to restore the amount of loan guaranty entitlement used by a veteran to buy property which later had to be disposed of because of "compelling reasons devoid of fault on the part of the veteran." But you'll have to prove to VA the move was mandatory.

Q—My business has expanded to the point where I must train 50 new workers for bench assembly work. I'd like to train disabled veterans for the jobs, which are not demanding physically. How should I go about it?

A—Contact your nearest VA office. A representative of that office will assist you in setting up the training program, and in locating disabled veterans to train under Public Law 16.

Q—I am going on active duty in the Army, and I want to know whether I'll be able to apply for National Service Life Insurance.

A—Yes. When you enter service, you will be given the opportunity to take out up to $10,000 of NSLI.

MURDERER FIRST

A Short Story

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

INSPECTOR LEM DORSEY carefully arranged the three packs of paper matches on the table, leaving their flaps open. On the inside of each flap he wrote a name.

"Just so we'll remember who belongs to which," he smiled. The three men who stood about the table did not smile in return. Charles Seabrook, vice-president of the Pillsbury Metal Works, said impatiently: "I wish you'd explain what it's all about, Inspector. I have to get up to Traversack by dinner time tonight."

"What!" Inspector Dorsey opened his eyes in astonishment. "Thinking of a dinner engagement when your president's body is hardly cold after being murdered!"

"We're not sure that it was murder," Seabrook answered sourly. "Besides, what good can I do staying here?"

"Why, you might be the man who murdered him!" Seabrook snorted in disgust. He took out his watch, glanced at it, thrust it back into his pocket, sighed and regarded the inspector wearily. "Well, get on with it."

Kim Young, the metal company's bookkeeper, sat on the edge of a chair drumming on his knees with his fingers. He said now: "You've got to establish a motive before you can even think of pinning a murder charge on anyone, Inspector."

Dorsey shook his head. "I'll prove who killed him, and establish the motive later." "You can't do that! You can't just accuse a man of murder without knowing why he'd do it." This from Fen Bradley, the company's general manager. He was a small man, wiry, alert. He had a quick nervous habit of gesturing with his hands as he talked.

Inspector Lem smiled blandly. "Now, gentlemen, you're all excited. I must say none of you is very shrewd. Otherwise you'd understand that you've reached the state of mind into which I've been trying to get you for the last half-hour. Well, anyway, we'll get on with the business."

"Now, you all noticed that Mr. Pillsbury was found holding the gun in his left hand. You have all testified that he was right-handed. What does this indicate? First, it indicates that he did not commit suicide as at first we suspected. Second, it indicates that whoever murdered him wanted it to appear like suicide. And, third, it indicates that Mr. Pillsbury's slayer was left-handed himself. We can reasonably hazard that, in the excitement of the moment the killer placed the gun in Mr. Pillsbury's left hand because it was natural and instinctive for him to do so."

"Now, it appears that all we have to do is find a left-handed man among those who were with Mr. Pillsbury this afternoon. You three have admitted—under questioning—to have dropped in at his office. Now, if one of you three were left-handed. . . . But, draw close here gentlemen. I want you to study these three packs of paper matches. I want you to tell me if any one is different from the rest."

Inspector Dorsey made a slight motion with his hand. As if unable to resist the three men drew close to the table and stared down at the three paper folders. Inspector Dorsey watched them closely. When their heads were bent he shot a quick, sharp glance at Officer Moriarty, who stood on guard near the door. Moriarty's nod was ever so slight, but the muscles beneath his blue uniform grew tense. One hand dropped carelessly to the butt of his service gun.

"Look the same to me," Bradley said, straightening. "Say, listen, inspector, what kind of a game is this?"

"How do they appear to you, Mr. Seabrook?" Dorsey asked, turning to the vice-president.

Seabrook shrugged. "Sorry, I guess I was thinking of something else. Might be a difference, but I can't see it."

"And you, Mr. Young?" The bookkeeper gestured nervously. "There's more matches used from one pack than there is from the others," he offered.

"Precisely. And if you will note, the matches that have been used were taken from the left-hand side of the pack. Only a left-handed man would take them from that side first. He holds the pack in his right hand and tears off the matches nearest him with his left. That's natural. We could prove it more definitely by examining a dozen or more packs. But we can feel reasonably sure by examining the other two that are here. Please note, the remaining pair have the matches torn off from the right side, indicating that their users were right-handed."

"Now, we note the name on the left-hand pack. We see that is—Ah, Mr. Young, you're wasting your time trying to draw that gun. Officer Moriarty has his out already and it is aimed directly at your head."

Kim Young whirled with a savage oath. He might have suspected that Dorsey was bluffing. But Dorsey wasn't. Officer Moriarty's gun was pointed directly and in a very business like fashion at his head. He was bright enough to see the folly of trying to beat a trained weapon to the draw. He quit, with a sort of groaning sigh.

Inspector Dorsey sucked in his breath. He had hoped to avoid gunplay, and was glad Young had shown some intelligence.

"I doubt," he remarked dryly, "if we'll have much trouble in establishing the motive—now that we have the killer."

Building Will Be Completed Within Thirty Days Time

Workers this week began what may be a seven day per week, eleven hour per day schedule in an effort to rush to completion a new $50,000 grain elevator and warehouse at Olton in time for harvesting of the current crop.

G. L. Simmons of Frederick, Okla., construction supervisor for the Rex Kee Grain company which is building the elevator, said last week that completion of the entire plant within 30 days is the goal set by the workers.

The plant, to be constructed of concrete and steel, consists of two warehouses separated by an elevator. Workmen are concentrating primarily on completion of one of the warehouses so that it may be used to store the first grain from the harvest. The elevator and the second storage grainery will then be finished.

Simmons said that his contract with Kee calls for the completion of everything within 30 days.

AIR ROTC GETS NEW INSTRUCTOR

Staff Sergeant Harvey R. Doane is now on duty with the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps at Texas Technological College. He replaces Staff Sergeant Donald P. Wilcy.

Doane, who was transferred to Lubbock from Tinker Air Force Base at Oklahoma City, will instruct in Air Force Armament.

However, an extension because of weather conditions is possible, he said.

Rains held off work on the project last week so that excavation for the structure was not begun until Wednesday. Simmons said that he hopes to have a big portion of this work done by the end of the week and begin pouring foundation for scales and the warehouses by Saturday.

Approval of the elevator as a government loan storage warehouse was rushed through Federal channels recently so that construction could be started in time for the finished project to catch the most of what is expected to be a bumper grain crop.

Better Buy Buick!

PERHAPS you've noticed that there seem to be a lot of these brawny beauties running around on America's highways—and it isn't just that boldly gleaming forefront that spreads this impression.

It isn't just the fact that folks who own a Buick get such a bang out of it that they do a lot of driving.

Back of all this is another fact. It's a fact that contains a broad hint to anyone who'd like to know what's what in motorcar buys. 1950 Buicks are breaking all past popularity records, as registered in sales.

So we suggest that you do some personal investigating.

Find out, for example, how masterful you feel, with Fireball power purring away the miles, at a polite touch of your toe on the gas treadle.

Find out how the jolts and jars seem to disappear, when you have big soft coil springs on all four wheels, and fat low-pressure tires on wide Safety-Ride rims.

Then there's Dynaflo Drive* which Buick owners vote the biggest automotive hit that has come along in years.

With all this, there's room, and comfort, and road-hugging heft combined with a light and willing response to your hand on the wheel—and prices that start down with the sixes.

Seems like almost everyone wants to own one of these Buicks—and most people can. How about you? Isn't it a smart idea to see your Buick dealer now and get your name on his list?

Only BUICK has Dynaflo— and with it goes HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Sundown Ranked As Strong Threat For 1950-5-B Gridiron Crown

The Sundown Roughnecks boast one of the most experienced Class B football squads on the South Plains.

Six Roughnecks are returning for their fourth year, and five have lettered one season. A twelfth member of the 33-man squad is looking for his third monogram.

The backfield is the only young spot on the team. There, Sundown has veteran Troy Kink back for his fourth season as the man-under slot in the backfield. But the experienced 156-pound senior is flanked by two sophomores and one freshman in the starting four-some.

Line Is in Good Shape

Coach Tonnie Smethers is well-stocked in the line. He has a two-year man, Charles Bagley, at center. This is Bagley's junior year, and the 153-pounder looks like he's headed for his best season.

With two years experience, he has the background that most of the pivot men in the loop lack.

Mann, Carter At Tackles

Another sophomore, Charles Mann, and veteran Rex Carter are Smethers' choices at the two tackle slots. Mann is a 148-pounder, and Carter tips the scales at 185 pounds. Carter, a senior, has lettered three seasons.

Ends Bill Waygood and Herbert Whalin, each one-year lettermen, get the nod over a Roscoe Duckworth and Roy Odolvan for the two starting posts. Waygood is a 156-pounder. He is also a second-year man.

Smethers will have little to worry about at his two guard positions. In Dickie Smith and Rex Holland, Sundown has two of the most experienced guards in the district. Each has lettered three years and is a senior. Smith weighs 155 pounds, and Holland toes in at only 128 pounds, one of the lightest players on the squad.

This is Smethers second year at Sundown. He was assistant last year. The Southwestern University graduate has Herbert Row as his assistant.

This is Row's initial season with the Roughnecks. He was at Lampasas last year.

Local B-Team to Contest Plainview Tonight There

Plainview B-team, accompanied by their Coach Banks, journeyed to Littlefield last Thursday night, for a tilt with the local B-team.

The score was 42-12 in favor of the local boys.

According to reports a number of the Plainview linemen were injured, for whom substitutes were called, and so the team was not up to par.

The Littlefield B-team will go to Plainview tonight (Thursday) for a return game, which will start at 7:30 at Bulldog Stadium.

They will be accompanied by Coach Patterson.

The probable starting lineup of the Littlefield B-team will be:

- LE—Joe Burrows.
- LT—Garland Thornton.
- LG—Don Nickels.
- C—Jeff Brantley.
- RG—Leroy Williams.
- RT—John Perry.
- RE—Bill Brantley.
- QB—R. L. Rhoten.
- TB—Boyd Meers.
- F. B. Jackie Beckner.
- WB—Don Wilson.

Reports indicate that Plainview have excellent B-team and have won most of the games played by them. They are playing AA football, while the local boys play Class A.

Dimmitt Looms As Strong Contender For 3-B Crown

Sudan's Hornets, pre-season choice to cop the District 3-B football crown, will have their hands full, for Dimmitt and Olton are keeping pace with the highly-touted Hornets.

Dimmitt rolled to its fourth straight victory last week with a 54-0 victory over Farwell. The lopsided victory boosted Dimmitt's season scoring total to 129 points in four games. Its opponents have scored a combined total of six points.

The Hornets lost prestige last week when they barely squeezed out a 13-12 win over Class A Canyon. It was the closest game of the season for the Sudan squad, which has scored 86 points in four games.

Olton kept one notch behind the leaders by upsetting District 4-B's pride, New Deal, 12-7. It was the first loss of the season for the Lions, who had won three consecutive games and had allowed the opposition only six points before last week's upset.

Farwell Tests Sudan

Springlake bounced Boys Ranch 26-7 for its third win in four starts.

Priona, 34-12 loser to Hereford in a non-conference tussle last week, visits Dimmitt, and Farwell is at Sudan in the district's two conference games this week.

Top game of the week involving a District 3-B team probably will be at Meadow, where Olton plays in the role of underdog. Meadow currently is undefeated in District 5-B season play, and is tied for the loop lead with Seagraves. Each has won two loop games.

Springlake draws its first open date.

year when approximately 3,050,000 acres planted in cotton produced 1,644,000 bales in 20 counties of the area.

Controls put into effect this year were chiefly responsible for reducing the acreage to about 1,430,000 and a crop now forecast at 800,000 to 900,000 bales.

However, the actual yield last year and the anticipated production this year maintained the South Plains record of producing more cotton than any area of comparable size in the world.

Both figures represent slightly more than 10 percent of the entire United States crop. The seemingly conservative expectation is that the lifting of controls should increase this ratio substantially and enhance the position of this area as the world's most important cotton producing region.

Anton Bulldogs Defeat Buffaloes

The Anton Bulldogs scored four times in three quarters at Anton Friday night to down the Petersburg Buffaloes 24-14 in a District 4-B game.

A crowd of about 500 watched the Bulldog's fancier running and passing plays pay off in needed points as the two teams slugged it out even on first downs, racking up 15 plays.

Coach Horace Byerley's Anton team finished its scoring parade before the Buffaloes managed to push a touchdown across. The first counter came in the opening period when Kenneth Suddith went over from inside the ten after a sustained drive downfield. In the second quarter the Bulldogs scored again with Joe Bob Garner plunging for the tally after a pass from quarterback Don Stone to Ed Swanson had again placed the ball inside the 10.

Two long passes, Stone to Swanson on the 40, and Stone to Suddith inside the 20 accounted for the other two touchdowns in the third period.

In the fourth quarter, setting up the first marker on a fake kick, which carried the ball from their own 45 yard line to the Anton 11, Kenneth Meadows carried the ball over from there. The Buffaloes, coached by Joe King climaxed a sustained drive from the 40 with Paul Main going over for the score near the end of the period.

INCREASE ON BANK OR SAVINGS INSURANCE INCREASED TO $10,000

... against such losses. At the same time it was important that people develop renewed confidence in banks and savings outfits. So in 1933 Congress passed a law setting up the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) to insure people's bank deposits. And in 1934 it created the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation (FSLIC) to insure accounts in savings and loan associations. Since 1933 the FDIC has had to help 410 insured banks which failed or were failing. And it has handed out $360,000,000 to depositors whose money, without this insurance, would have been lost. Takes Over Assets The FIMC has recovered, or will recover, all but $26,000,000 of this money. How. Once it stepped in, it could take over the assets of the failing banks and so, in time, recover most of the insurance money it put out. FSLIC has had to bail out seven loan associations since 1934. It paid out $6,706,000 in insurance on 7,700 accounts and will lose only $310,000. But neither the FDIC nor FSLIC is out any money. That's because all the insured banks and associations have to pay FDIC and FSLIC for the insurance. They pay 1-12 of one per cent on the average amount of deposits or accounts during the year. The FDIC now has a surplus of $1,200,000,000. The FSLIC has $90,000,000 in surplus and reserves. The amount of deposits in insured banks now is around $154,000,000,000, representing 104,000,000 accounts. All but about 2,000,000 of them will be completely covered by the FDIC insurance. The 2,000,000 are mostly big corporations and insurance companies. (Part of their deposits, of course, will be insured: up to the first $10,000 in each bank.) Nearly 8,000,000 people have $11,000,000,000 in accounts in savings and loan associations covered by FSLIC insurance.

They're Truckin' on Down—

There might be a national champion in the picture above. The three Texans are competing for U. S. truck driving honors at a New York "roadeo." They are state champions, selected in competition at Dallas September 9. In the big town are (left to right) Frank M. Pannell, Dallas, straight truck winner; X. Z. Ballard, Houston, single axle trailer champion; and Wade W. Haynes, Fort Worth, first in tandem trailer class.

MULESHOE CAFE ROBBED THURSDAY

The Muleshoe Cafe Thursday morning was minus a cash register, which was removed from the premises sometime the night previous. Bill Collins, the proprietor, said about $25 was in the register when the cafe closed for the night. The burglar entered the cafe through a rear window. So far as was learned, nothing else was taken.

New incorporations formed in Texas during August totaled 393 with a capitalization of $5,434,000, reports from the Secretary of State to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research showed.

L. H. Williams Buy Boyd Rea Variety Store, Anton
A business deal was made this week in which L. H. Williams purchased the Boyd Rea Variety and Hardware Store in Anton. Mr. Rea buying the Williams residence on West Elwood Blvd. The stock was invoiced this week and Mr. Williams will open in the immediate future. In addition to the stock usually carried by the store in the past, a line of Women's Ready-to-Wear will be stocked along with other items of dry goods. Mr. Williams is no stranger in Anton, and he has a host of friends which is a good background for any kind of a venture. We wish the new management much success. Mrs. Rea, who has been managing the store, is a general favorite with many Anton people, her many deeds of kindness has made her a host of friends.
