Wildcats Will Meet Hornets At Sudan Thanksgiving Day

Game to Decide District 5A Championship

Both Teams Undeclared In Conference Play For This Season

The Littlefield Wildcats journey to Sudan Thursday to tangle with the very formidable Hornets in the game that will decide the District 5-A Championship. The battle will start at 2:30 p. m.

Both the Wildcats and Hornets are undefeated in a conference play this season and the winner will earn the right to enter the bi-district playoff with District 6. The Sudan club started slowly this season and made steady improvement each week until they rank with the best teams in these parts. They beat the powerful Levelland Lobos 7 to 0 and smashed the up and coming Olton Mustangs 36 to 6 last Friday.

The Wildcats have been crippled and sick for the past week or so with six starters out of the lineup in last Friday's Lubbock "B" game. But everyone seemed to be on the mend early this week. Barring new casualties the Wildcats should be near top strength for this all important tussle.

Sudan is preparing for one of the largest crowds ever to jam the Hornet gridiron to see this championship turkey day game.

These houses are all four rooms and bath, of frame construction. Joe Brandstatt is the chief carpenter on the job. He is being assisted by Emery Blum, R. O. Edwards and Joe Thompson. They are expected to be finished next week.

These houses will all be occupied by returning servicemen, it is reported.

Ten houses have been built in this location within the past few months.

Rev. Turner left Monday for Abilene to attend a school of evangelism two days, returning to Littlefield Wednesday.

Local Girl Hurt In Car Mishap

Billie Ruth Little, 14-years-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Little, suffered an internal injury and bruises Thursday afternoon when the car, owned by her father, and driven by her, turned over about 4:30 o'clock, as the result of a tire blow-out on the Spade highway. She was taken to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital, where her condition is reported better. She is expected to be released from the hospital today.

Also riding in the automobile at the time, but who escaped injury, were: Lee Jean McCary, Junior Bull, George Kirk and Charles Clark. They also went to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital for a checkup, but were found alright.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Brewer Sunday Afternoon

Passes Away Friday Here As Result of Heart Ailment

Mrs. M. W. (Mike) Brewer, Sr., 56, of Kemp, Texas, formerly of Littlefield, passed away at a local hospital, as the result of a heart ailment Friday night at 8:20 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer had lived in Littlefield for many years, but left here two years ago for Kemp, Texas, their former home, and where Mrs. Brewer was born and reared, and where she enjoyed better health. Mrs. Brewer had suffered from a heart ailment here, and it was for the benefit of her health that they moved to Kemp. After operating a grocery store for two years at Kemp, Mr. Brewer recently sold this business, and he and Mrs. Brewer came here on a trip to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Brewer, Jr. It was on this visit here that Mrs. Brewer became ill and was taken to the Littlefield Hospital, where she had been a patient for about a week.

The remains were taken overland by Hammons Funeral Home to Lubbock, and shipped from that point to Terrell, Texas, about 15 miles from Kemp. Funeral services were conducted at Kemp Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Donald Harris, former Littlefield pastor, and now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, Texas, officiating. Burial took place in Kemp Cemetery.

Besides her husband, and son, Mike Brewer, Jr., Mrs. Brewer is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Robert Ramage of Spade and Ida Jo Brewer at home.

Group Discusses Plans for Organizing ABC In Littlefield

A group of 17 business and professional men met with members of the American Business Club of Lubbock in a luncheon Tuesday noon at the First Methodist Church to discuss the possibilities of organizing the ABC in Littlefield.

Jimmie Wilson, president of the ABC in Lubbock, presided at the meeting, and L. C. Hewitt was named publicity chairman for the group here.

If enough interest is stimulated in the project, Mr. Hewitt said, another meeting will be called in the near future for the organization of a service club in Littlefield.

WESTERN UNION TO MOVE DOWNTOWN

J. B. Letts, district manager of the Western Union Telegraph, Denver, was in Littlefield Tuesday and Wednesday looking over locations for a downtown Western Union office. In an interview with a Leader reporter, he stated "We are going to move our office to a downtown location just as soon as we find a suitable place," and we are doing all we can to find a suitable location."

More Money Needed To Keep Pace With Outstanding Growth

The pattern for the development of Littlefield appears to have been drafted at a meeting of representative citizens, which was held at the First Methodist Church Tuesday night.

Outstanding features of the meeting were:

Approval of the proposed employment of a city manager;

Approval of the establishing of a municipal light and power plant at a time the City Commission deemed advisable for such a project;

Consideration of a proposal to increase the valuation of property for tax purposes.

The hearing of reports on the financial condition of the city, and the consideration of suggestions as to how best to increase revenue in order that needed and demanded improvements, the result of the rapid growth of Littlefield, may be carried out.

Water connections indicate that Littlefield has a population of approximately 6300. This growth, it was predicted, may increase to 10,000 in a surprisingly short time. Steps must now be taken to provide the municipal expansions and improvements necessary to care for the present and future growth.

Mayor A. C. Chesher and Commissioners Ellis Foust and Lon Campbell deemed it advisable to call the citizenship together in order that they could outline the financial position of the city, and receive suggestions as to best methods to pursue to take care of demands on the municipality.

The meeting was held jointly by the City of Littlefield and the Chamber of Commerce, in view of the fact that the functions of the City of Littlefield and the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce are so closely related.

REPORTS ON CITY'S FINANCES

Early in the meeting Mayor Chesher read a report on the finances of the City of Littlefield, which had been prepared by City Secretary W. G. Street.

The report showed that the total tax values, as per the 1945 roll, were $1,751,335; that the total taxes assessed in 1945 were $26,270.89; that required for bond services as per decree of Federal Court dated March 29, 1939, at $1.25 per $100 valuation, $21,991.87; that required for bond service as per ordinance dated June 3, 1945, at 15 cents per $100 valuation, $2,627.08; that the total for bond services amounted to $24,518.95, leaving a balance after reservations for bond service of $1,751.94.

The bonded debt of the City of Littlefield, according to report, was as follows:

Refunding bonds, series 1938, dated September 15, 1938, 4% interest, $280,000; water system revenue bonds dated August 15, 1934, 4% interest, $28,500; water works im-

"Lift Up A Standard For the People"

Far beyond the practices of good social principles, beyond the relief of the distressed the Salvation Army has a high office to fulfill. This is embodied in its slogan of service, "With Heart to God and Hand to Man." During World War II, members of this world-wide organization serving in 97 countries and colonies of the world, stretched out friendly hands to members of the Allied fighting forces 225,000,000. Sometimes it was with doughnuts and coffee, beds, items that brought comfort, sometimes just a word, a "God Bless You" as soldiers surged off to battle. On beachheads, in jungles, on desert isles, in the blackened wreckage of war, the Salvation Army was there, its officers and workers dedicated to their tasks of serving "With Heart to God and Hand to Man." Still serving abroad and still serving at home in all the important cities and towns of the United States, the Salvation

Army observed the 80th anniversary of its founding with an international celebration in Kansas City on Nov. 18. It is well to remember that this quasi-military organization is fundamentally a religious body with millions of followers throughout the world and that its high office is, in the words of the prophet Isaiah, to "Lift Up a Standard for the People." Its standard is for all classes, creeds and colors; a standard of conduct for the home; for business; for industry; for diplomacy; for government; a standard for everyone, everywhere, in every circumstance. Its standard-bearing thus has been and is a pillar of strength for the heart of the nation and the world.

co-chairman with Pat Boone in the County Victory Loan drive, and are on exhibit at the office of the Littlefield National Farm Loan Association.

These copies were sent here from the State Headquarters, War Finance Committee, U. S. Treasury, Dallas.

The copy of the Jap surrender document is on exhibit in the window of the above office, and the copy of the German surrender document, which is in book form, is also on display in this office, and all those interested are invited to visit this farm office and read the document. As there is only one copy of each of these documents available for each county, these are on display for each formation of the public. They will later be given to the public library, it is understood.

Industry NEEDS COTTONSEED LINTERS AND COTTON

To keep the wheels of industry turning, providing employment for millions of America's working men and women, there must be a constant yearly flow of Cotton and Cottonseed to mills, manufacturers and food processors of the Nation.

To supply industry with raw material to feed, clothe and shelter America and the world, more acreage and more yield per acre must be the goal of Cotton Farmers in their 1946 farm program.

Plan your program NOW for more Cotton and Cottonseed in 1946.

Clayton, coxswain of Amherst, has been awarded Presidential Citation, four stars, and a silver star, as well as an excellent recommendation from Admiral Sharpe for heroism in the Southwest.

returned to the States for repairs, and he got his first 23 days leave home, which he spent with his parents at Amherst. He reported back for duty, and was awarded 20 more days of leave.

During this leave Miss Wanda Modan Standifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Standifer of Littlefield, became his bride on November 25, 1944.

Clayton went back on the USS Swallow in December, and did heavy duty for four months as gunner on ship. In writing home he mentioned once that for 12 days and nights before their ship was sunk everyone on board got very little sleep or rest. He said they were "pretty busy." They were in the waters around Okinawa when a suicide Jap plane sunk the Swallow. Clayton escaped being injured, but the concussion blew his shoe and sock off one of his feet, and he never felt it. He and other survivors were in the water five hours (night time) before being rescued, and all the while American Jap planes were so thick. He said ships were all around them, but he wasn't afraid of drowning, but was uneasy about the falling bombs, and the water was very cold. Incidentally, a seaman who helped him aboard the rescued ship, said: "Okay, buddy, what part of Texas are you from," and when he said "Amherst," the other fellow said, "Well, I am from Levelland." He took him to his room, where he outfitted him in warm clothing. The Swallow was sunk April 23, 1945, and Seaman Clayton returned to the States and home on a 33 days leave May 25, six months to a day of his marriage. Following his leave he was sent to Bremerton, Wash., and received stateside duty after six weeks' stay there. He is now doing duty at East Port Orchard, Washington.

On November 1, he was notified that he had been awarded the Presidential Citation, four bronze stars and one silver star, and an excellent recommendation from Admiral Sharpe for his heroism, and that he had been promoted to the rank of coxswain in July last, for which he received a nice back pay check for same.

Coxswain Clayton has three other brothers in the service. However, two of them have recently received honorable discharges, and Sgt. Bobby Clayton is still in Mindano, Philippines, where he has spent 19 months overseas. He expects to return to the States sometime in the near future.

Mrs. Clayton is at home with her husband in Washington, and will remain with him till he gets his discharge, which he expects in early spring of 1946, when they will return to Littlefield, and Coxswain Clayton will be associated with Mr.

and Mrs. Standifer in the operation of their grocery store.

Wilson Clayton enlisted at Lubbock on Dec. 2, 1940, in the regular Army. He received his basic training at Ft. Sam Houston in the Anti-Tank Co., 23 Inf. Regiment of the 2nd Division. He remained in this company one year and seven months, during which time he rose to the rank of Sgt. He was one of 15 Texas men from his company sent on cadre to form a new division. He left the 2nd Division on July 2, 1942.

From Ft. Sam Houston he and his buddies went to Camp Swift for a month to await completion of the camp being built near Paris, Texas. He arrived at Camp Maxey August 15 and moved into the yet unfinished barracks. For the next 2 1/2 months the men worked as carpenters to finish the buildings and also made the furniture for their day room.

The 15th of September is a day never to be forgotten by the men and officers who were at Camp Maxey. This was the day they were waiting for the organizing and activation of the 102nd Infantry Division. There was a parade on the new parade ground these men had helped build. Here each Infantry Regiment, Artillery Battalion and all attached units received their colors as they paraded before Major General John B. Anderson. The first recruits began arriving on Nov. 25, 1942 and the men from the cadre started basic training for them. During the next year Clayton made staff sergeant.

Leaving Camp Maxey Sept. 15, 1943 the division made Louisiana maneuvers and was sent to Camp Swift in Nov. Soon after arriving here Clayton was sent to Ft. Bliss for 3 weeks for further instructions at the .50 caliber machine gun school. Clayton made technical sergeant while helping train new men who filled the division to battle strength. The final parade was held in Austin on Infantry Day before Major General Frank B. Keating. Clayton had his last furlough in May before moving to Ft. Dix, New Jersey for overseas duty. The division was at Ft. Dix from June until September during which time Clayton went to Philadelphia to run a subway train during the transportation strike.

Clayton landed in Cherbourg, France, on Sept. 24 and drove a truck on the Red Ball Highway carrying supplies to the front. He saw his first action in the Siegfried Line on Nov. 16. Clayton was awarded the bronze star medal for his part in blowing up an observation post which was directing heavy artillery and mortar fire on his platoon. During the drive across the Roer River he lost several men in his platoon. The division moved on through Germany taking Hanover, Krefeld, Koln at heavy losses in men. At the close of the war they had reached the Elbe River. During this drive across Germany, Clayton was made 1/Sgt. of the company.

Of the 15 anti-tank men sent to activate the division all returned home to Texas, arriving in Boston on the Lake Charles Victory on October 12. Clayton and buddies left the 102nd at Passau, Germany and was attached to the 16th Armored Division for return to the States. Clayton was wearing the American Defense Ribbon, ETO Ribbon with two campaign stars, Good Conduct Medal, the Combat Expert Infantry Badge and Bronze Star Medal. He received his honorable discharge October 23 at Ft. Sam Houston, and is now at his home near Amherst.

RECEIVES HONORABLE DISCHARGE

Jack Neely Clayton volunteered and entered the service May 2, 1942. He received three weeks of training at Great Lakes, Ill. Then was sent to Port Hueneme, Calif., when he got a five days leave home, which he spent with his wife and other relatives here in Amherst. Then he was sent overseas, where he spent many months in the New Hebrides as machinist mate with the Seabees. His bunch of men were the second bunch to land on the Solomon Islands after 18 months of service there, Jack came back to the States on December 12, 1943. He got a 30 day leave home and seen his oldest son, who was 13 months old for the first time. Incidentally, Jack came over on the USS Whorton, the ship that Admiral Bird went to the North Pole on. After doing nine months duty in the States, Jack was sent to Kodiak, Alaska, doing 13 months duty there. Then back to Seattle, Wash., then to San Pedro where he received his honorable discharge on November 2. Jack has a medal of Good Conduct. He arrived home here in Amherst November 8, when he seen his second son, then seven months old, for the first time, when he took his baby in his arms, he said very wistfully, "I did so wish I could of seen them when they were little babies." Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clayton of Amherst.

Sends Dedication Program on Chapel

Sgt. Gerald L. Lakey of the Air Corps, and stationed at Tolosa, Leyte Philippines, recently wrote Rev. C. Frank York, sending him a dedication program on the dedication of the headquarters chapel of the Thirtieth Air Force.

Included in the letter by Sgt. Lakey is the following:

"The scene on the front of the program is the chapel, itself, complete with all the trees. It is built mostly of native bamboo straw, etc. It will seat a large number, about the same as your church there, and most all the time it is about full. In the little building on the extreme left of the picture there is a large brass bell, which rings before each service. The bell used to be in an old Spanish church built before the United States took over the Philippines. The old church was wrecked by the Japs and the Filipinos gave us the bell. It even has a shell hole in it that you can stick your arm through.

"I have a great admiration for the people here. They have taken a lot in the past four years and think they have stood up well under it. I would hate to think what the people there would be like if they had received the same treatment. A majority of the Filipinos are of the christian faith and they are extremely religious. A number of them come to our chapel each Sunday. As the Japanese were against our type of religion most all the churches here were destroyed, and the Filipinos are a very poor people. Though they have more money now than they ever had in their lives it won't buy very much. An ice cream cone costs about fifty cents American money.

"I don't know what the papers there in the States say about the trials of General Yamashita, but the Army paper here isn't concerned at all, and some of the evidence against him is pretty terrible. I am glad our Army has nothing like that to answer for. Some of the things told are so terrible that the press and the public are excluded from the trial."

Sgt. Lakey has been overseas three months. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lakey.

His brother, "Sport" Lakey has been a prisoner of the Japs for three and a half years. The local Red Cross office in an endeavor to find trace of his whereabouts wired the provost marshal general recently, but the only message they received was to the effect that his name had not been released as liberated.

The guy who invented the rolling pin must have been an optimist.

Beneath This Happy Symbol

Say "Thanksgiving" to any man, woman or child in the U. S. A. and they'll think of turkey cranberries and other little solid, satisfying things. It's been that way for more years than any of us can remember. And maybe it's just as well this year that we go on having these old familiar symbols — because somehow what we truly feel in our hearts on this greatest of all Thanksgiving cannot be expressed or pictured.

But every dear, delightful moment of the old American ritual will be terribly precious to us this year because there is not one of us who will not remember that it might not have been. That had it not been for the Grace of Almighty God and the sacrifices of free men it would not have been.

Beneath the jollity of this Thanksgiving there swells a hymn of gratitude. Thankful to Him who has watched over us, let us resolve to carry on the great task in Peace for which our bravest gave their lives in war. Let us resolve to follow in their footsteps, lighted and guided by their stars.

INVESTIGATED LUBBOCK PLANT

A report was received from a special committee of citizens who investigated the operation of the municipal light and power plant at Lubbock.

The report of this committee was that the Lubbock plant had made money consistently; that Lubbock tax valuations were higher, but that the city tax rate had ranged from .50 to $1.15.

E. A. Bills, in a general discussion of the finances of the city, both at the present time and in the future, said that the citizens had already approved the issuance of $275,000 in revenue bonds for a light plant; that the general tax money cannot be touched in connection with a light plant; that there were two ways to increase the revenue of the city, the raising of tax valuations and the building of a municipal light plant; that an exhaustive survey showed that municipal light plants made money.

Several speakers reported that in towns in which municipal plants are located that the municipal plant provides from 70 to 75 per cent of the consumption of electricity.

T. J. Green, city manager of Spur, gave a report on the municipal light plant in that city. He reported that the plant had been in operation since 1928, and that it had paid a profit every year and that city departments were serviced with electricity at reduced rates. The plant is worth $150,000, and has an indebtedness of $20,000.

Mayor Chesher reported that he had proposed to the Southwestern Public Service Co., that the utility sell the City of Littlefield electricity and the city retail it, but that the company had not yet replied to his proposal. Such a plan would eliminate the building of a municipal light plant.

FAVOR VALUATION INCREASE

While no vote was taken on the matter of increasing the valuation of property, in order to provide additional tax revenue, various speakers appeared to be in favor of such a step.

A board of equalization was suggested in order to have all property assessed properly and equitably under a higher valuation. It also was proposed to employ an expert in such matters to cooperate with a board of equalization. It was proposed that the board of equalization consist of Clint Griffin, J. C. Hilbun, J. W. Keithley, J. O. Garlington and Dr. C. E. Payne.

J. H. Lee, president of the First National Bank, said that if the valuation of property was increased the bond holders might be willing to unfreeze a certain amount of the taxes they are now taking, thereby placing the city in an easier financial position to carry out needed projects.

Mayor Chesher announced that G. M. Shaw had been appointed public relations manager for the City Commission.

County Commissioner Ross reported that, after some delay because of shortage of materials, that construction of the new hangar at the Littlefield airport will be completed at an early date. He also said that immediate action will be taken in connection with the proposal to establish a permanent fair grounds at the college property.

Postmaster W. D. T. Storey reported that "city delivery is on the way over."

J. O. Garlington, president of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, presided for part of the meeting, and Ernest Cundiff, secretary, gave a report on the activities of the organization. He reported that the organization was entirely free of debt, that it owned $800 in war bonds, and was working on a variety of important projects, including a municipal lake on Blackwater Draw.

The directorate of the Chamber of Commerce was increased to 21 members with the election of 12 new members Tuesday night. The new members are:

Pat Boone, Lowell Short, Dr. Ira E. Woods, A. C. Chesher, J. C. Hilbun, L. C. Hewitt, W. B. Little, H. J. Lee, Buster Owens, Roy Byers, Mancil Hall, and Dr. C. E. Payne.

Two former employees, Fred Harrell and O. K. Yantis, Jr., have returned to the Pharris Gulf Service station on West Highway 7, Paul Pharris, owner and operator announced this week. Mr. Yantis was in the Army Air Forces four years, and spent sometime in Puerto Rico, and Mr. Harrell has just been discharged from the Navy, after three and one-half years in the South Pacific.

SIDELIGHTS FROM WASHINGTON

By CONG. GEO. MAHON

Shall the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, all our fighting forces, be merged under one single unified command by an act of Congress? That question has not reached the show-down stage, but hearings on the subject are now being held by a congressional committee.

Last week, following the testimony of General Jimmie Doolittle before the committee in which he accused opponents of the idea of being hypocritical, Secretary of Navy Forrestal wrote a letter of protest to Secretary of War Patterson, bringing out into the open the intense jealousy which exists between certain members of the Army and Navy high command. The Army favors the merger; the Navy high command, generally speaking, opposes it. The prevailing thought in Washington is that the majority of the people favor the merger.

It is admitted that good arguments can be offered on both sides of the question. Advocates of the idea, contend that we will gain more by unification of the services than we stand to lose. There is no doubt but that closer cooperation among the services in the future would be in the public interest. The merger should not obliterate the identity of the various branches, and we should not lose the wholesome traditions of the fighting forces.

The Prime Minister of Great Britain, Mr. Clement Attlee, successor to Winston Churchill, addressed a joint session of Congress on November 13. In doing so, he was following in the footsteps of Winston Churchill who just three weeks after Pearl Harbor addressed the Senate, and who in May, 1943, addressed a joint session of the House and Senate.

LAMB COUNTY LEADER

The South Plains Greatest Weekly Newspaper

Littlefield, Texas, Thursday, November 22, 1945

The procedure was typical of the procedure usually followed at joint sessions of Congress. Perhaps the details would be of interest.

The meeting was held in the House of Representatives because of the greater availability of seats. Members of the House took their seats in the rear and central sections, leaving all the front seats for the senators and official guests. Just prior to the convening of the joint session, the senators, led by Senator McKellar, president pro tem of the Senate, marched in and took the seats reserved for them, Senator McKellar occupying the platform with Speaker Sam Rayburn.

Then came the diplomatic group led by Lord Halifax, British ambassador. Next to enter the chamber were members of the President's cabinet. Seven of the 10 were present for the occasion. Mr. McKenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada, was next to enter. The doorkeeper of the House announced Mr. King to the session and escorted him to his seat, the doorkeeper having gone through the same ceremony for the groups which had previously entered.

The doorkeeper then announced Prime Minister Attlee of Great Britain, and a committee of the House and Senate escorted Mr. Attlee to the speaker's platform. Mr. Attlee shook hands with Speaker Rayburn and Senator McKellar, and having been introduced by Mr. Rayburn in one sentence, began his 30-minute speech. Then in line with the usual custom, he shook hands again with the Speaker of the House and the president of the Senate and was escorted from the chamber, not having sat down during the entire procedure. He was followed in reverse order by the official guests. The speaker then tapped his gavel and adjourned the joint session.

Mr. Attlee lacked the showmanship and eloquence of Winston Churchill, but his frankness was well received. He made a plea for a better understanding of his Labor Party Government and for international cooperation.

Mrs. Mitchell Sisson Resigns; Succeeded By H. C. Pumphrey, Jr.

Mrs. Mitchell Sisson, who has been connected with the Lamb County Electric Cooperative for the past seven years, has resigned her position here and accepted a secretarial post with the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company at Lubbock. Her husband, Cpl. Sisson, returned home recently from 3 1/2 years in the service and 34 months overseas in the European theater of operations with an armoured division. He was awarded seven battle stars, and other service ribbons for combat service in Africa, Sicily, England, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. He received his honorable discharge October 17, and on returning home, accepted a position as parts man for the Dickinson Motor Company, Lubbock.

During last week Mrs. Sisson drove to and from Littlefield to Lubbock, taking care of her duties here; starting at her new position in Lubbock Monday of this week.

She is being succeeded at the Lamb County Electric Cooperative here by a very able young returned veteran, H. C. Pumphrey, Jr., who has been connected with the office of Tax Assessor-Collector since returning home recently. Although the Cooperative office here regret losing the services of Mrs. Sisson, they feel fortunate in securing the services of a successor as highly recommended as Mr. Pumphrey.

1946 PIG GOAL 52,000,000 HEAD

A 1946 spring pig goal of 52,000,000 head and an average support price for good to choice butcher hogs of $12 per hundred pounds (Chicago basis) has been announced by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Effective dates of the support price program are October 1, 1946 to September 30, 1947, according to

C. B. Hodges of Texas Production and Marketing Administration. Seasonal variations are being applied for the first time to hog prices, meaning the $12 average Chicago price will vary according to normal seasonal changes. This price ranges from $10.75 in December, 1946 to $13.25 in September, 1947, Hodges said.

The present support price of $13 per hundred, Chicago, with no seasonal variation, was announced May 21, 1945, to be effective until September 1, 1946 and now is extended to September 30, 1946, he continued.

Next year's average support price of $12 at Chicago will reflect at least 90 per cent of parity to farmers as provided by the Steagall amendment.

In arriving at the new support price, the average difference between U. S. average farm prices for all hogs and average Chicago market prices for barrow and gilt butcher hogs have been added to present 90 per cent of parity price, the addition now including allowance for sows. Heretofore, sows have been reflected in farm prices but not in Chicago prices, Hodges explained. Parity for hogs September 15 was $12.60 and 90 per cent of parity for the same date was $11.34.

Acute Housing Conditions at Separation Centers

NEW ORLEANS—A warning that an acute shortage of hotel accommodations and housing facilities exists at all Navy Separation Centers was issued to relatives of servicemen who are contemplating joining their Navy husbands, sweethearts, and sons and daughters at these discharge points.
 Already overcrowded conditions in the localities of the separation centers has made it necessary for Navy housing officials to issue an appeal to the relatives of servicemen and women to avoid further confusion by delaying their planned reunions with their loved ones until the veterans are discharged and return to their homes.

The influx of the World War II veterans to the separation centers, already swarming with Navy personnel stationed at these facilities, has created a critical shortage of rooms.
 Housing authorities explained that the appeal to the relatives and friends of the service people is made in hope of avoiding further hardships. Hundreds of families and friends of the veterans are arriving daily at the separation centers only to find it impossible to find housing accommodations.
 Compliance with this request, it was pointed out, also will help relieve the rail and bus transportation problem and thus make it possible for more servicemen to be transferred to the separation centers for discharge.

Occupation Sidelights

From Japan come occupation sidelights reported by Marine Corps correspondents:

It used to be a big day for the Sinwa Bank in Sasebo, Japan, when the mining concerns nearby withdrew the huge sum, to them, of 500,000 yen.

The Marines are teaching the bank that such an item was really small potatoes. All sorts of bank records were broken when the Fifth Marine Division pay officer withdrew some money.

He withdrew 6,500,000 yen, the equivalent of about $450,000.

The propaganda tales told to Japanese soldiers about the ferocity of Marines seemed to have preceded the Marines into Japan.

Fifth Division artillerymen were installing lights in a building at Kawatana on Kyushu one day. The natives were helping them. One of them turned to Marine Corporal George J. Byrnes, 24, of 1120 East Main Street, Waterbury, Conn., and asked him in halting English what armed service he was in.

"The Marines," answered Byrnes. Within two minutes, every native had fled the building.

When the Marines first landed at Sasebo, the Japanese youngsters gave them their version of an American hand salute. Then they learned that such a salute was often rewarded with candy. Now the children have combined the salute and a silent request for candy. They salute, then bring their hand down from the forehead, the motion winding up in an outstretched hand.

Fishing isn't a sport in Japan. Marines on occupation duty see ragged tots fishing in Sasebo's dirty streams with little bamboo poles that would bend under a minnow. They are casting for the remnants of Japan's fish supply.

When they see a Marine, they smile. They seem to think that the Americans will bring the big fish back to Sasebo.

Japs Closed Pilot Schools Last January

Instructor Reveals Nips Had More Aviators Than Planes

By S/SGT. DON BRAMAN (Marine Corps Correspondent) YOKOSUKA, Japan (Delayed) — Because military authorities expected an invasion of the Tokyo area before the end of this year, the Japanese air force abandoned its pilot-training program last January, seven months before the war actually ended.

This seeming paradox was revealed by Hajimo Onishi, a former student of New York University and for the past two years a test pilot at this naval air base and experimental station within 30 miles of the Japanese capital.

HAD NEARLY 11,000 PILOTS
 "The Japanese air force had nearly 11,000 pilots," Onishi said, "enough for all the planes we had left, 7,000, including trainers. Conservation of fuel was important, and we thought it more necessary to save gasoline for actual operational flights and for the final defense than to expend it training new flyers."

"There were so many rules for saving gasoline that we were not allowed to fly twin-engined planes as

One Gold Star Is Removed

DENTON, TEX.—One gold star has been removed from the "killed in action" list at North Texas State College.

Marine Cpl. James (Jimmy) Gee, son of Mrs. James Gee of Frisco, returned to his alma mater after three and a half years in 25 Japanese prison camps to cross out the gold star that had been placed on the college list when he was reported "presumed dead" a year after he had been torpedoed on the first and ill-fated USS Houston.

Gee was liberated in August and recently returned to the States.

Aboard the USS Houston when the ship was sunk in the Java Sea battle March 1, 1942, Gee was one of only 356 survivors rescued of the 1001 passengers and personnel on board the ship.

He was picked up by the Japanese, he related, and for the next three and a half years, never hearing from home or his parents, he was moved from one prison camp to another, through Burma, Java, Singapore and Thailand.

"We helped build a railroad through Burma," he said. "We built a dry dock at Singapore and then we were taken to Japan proper to dig coal."

"I think my football training at North Texas State helped me come out in as good a condition as I did," Gee said, "as I was in pretty good physical condition, and there were many times while in prison camp that I looked back over my football training days, and was grateful."

One hundred and one gold stars remain on the list.

Matt Kimes, Outlaw Charged with Part In Bank Robbery

Matthew (Matt) Kimes, notorious Oklahoma outlaw, and Olaf Alvin (Chick) Rogers, 39, were charged in the criminal division of the U. S. District Court at Fort Worth Friday with participation in the Sept. 5 robbery of the First State Bank of Morton when $17,700 was taken.
Percy Wyly, agent in charge of the FBI office at Dallas, said that both men are still at liberty. Oliver Morton, 38, also charged in the robbery, is held in the federal ward of the Dallas County jail, and Fred Pair, 58, Cochran County farmer and former Dickens County deputy sheriff, is under a charge of aiding and harboring the bandits.
Kimes, who has a record of bank robbery in Oklahoma and Arkansas, was at one time leader of a gang which included Ray Terrill, Ed Davis and Jack Whitehead. In 1928 Kimes was given two life terms in prison for the slaying of two Oklahoma policemen.
Wyly said officials of the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester told him that Kimes was given a leave of absence, without guard, on July 25, 1945. The prison officials told Wyly they had not heard from Kimes since that date.

Kimes is five feet, seven inches tall, weighs 175 pounds, has chestnut hair and gray eyes and is a native of Arkansas. Rogers is the same height, weighs 120 pounds, has black hair and blue eyes, is a native of Oklahoma and has worked as a barber and laborer.
At time of the robbery, two armed men entered the bank, while a third bandit waited outside in an automobile which, it was ascertained, had been stolen the day before at Lubbock.
The two armed men herded customers and employees into the vault, scooped up the $17,700 and fled. Their auto was found later that day, abandoned near Bledsoe.
FBI agents, Cochran County officers and Texas Rangers subsequently recovered $997 in $1 bills that had been buried in a jar on a ranch near Bledsoe.
OKLAHOMA CITY—Matt Kimes, who is being sought on a warrant alleging complicity in the $17,000 robbery of a Morton, Texas, bank, was freed from the state penitentiary two months ago on a leave of absence. He was serving two life terms for slaying officers during bank robberies.

However, soon after announcement came that he was being sought, the state pardon and parole office issued a statement saying the leave of absence had been revoked a week ago. The revocation, the board said, was filed with the secretary of state with a notation "withhold from the press" because Kimes' whereabouts were unknown at the time.
The leave was granted Kimes to secure evidence to present to the board to support his plea for executive clemency.
Kimes asked a pardon, saying he had learned his lesson.
He had served 18 years on the two life terms when he was granted the leave, which originally was set for six months.
He was convicted of killing Police Chief W. J. McAnally during a triple bank robbery at Beggs, Okla., and for the murder of Sheriff Perry Chuculate of Sequoyah County, during a bank holdup at Covington, Okla. Both were killed in 1927.

New Type of Cotton Testing Machine Developed at Tech

LUBBOCK—A new type of cotton testing machine developed in the laboratory which may prove invaluable to the cotton manufacturing industry has been announced by George W. Pfeifferberger, who is in charge of research work for the Chicopee Manufacturing Company in the spinning laboratories of the textile department of Texas Technological College.
The new machine, it is explained, which will test cotton for fineness in 20 minutes whereas the process heretofore has required four hours, is inexpensive and can be operated by relatively inexperienced hands.
Pfeifferberger said the government had become interested in the machine for its own laboratories. The new process will be called the "Texas Tech Cotton Testing Method." Texas Tech was selected out of 15 colleges by the Chicopee Manufacturing company for research work because of the excellent equipment available and the cooperation of Tech college officials.
"Farmers of this section have been cautioned to death about growing longer staple cotton," Pfeifferberger says. He is of the opinion that there is little use in the farmer growing longer staple as long as cotton is marketed on the basis of spinning quality.

FAMOUS DEER HUNTER CELEBRATES GOLDEN HUNTING ANNIVERSARY AT SAME SPOT — THE OLD 7 RANCH

ABILENE, Tex.—Golden wedding anniversary—phoeeey! Anybody can stay married 50 years, is the belief of Judge E. N. Kirby of Abilene, but when a fellow celebrates his golden hunting anniversary at the same spot, that is news!

Judge Kirby, 80 years of age November 19, the same date the deer season opened in the Davis Mountains. He celebrated both dates by his 50th consecutive hunt on the same ranch, seeking his annual buck. He will also admit he has killed many more than 50 deer the past 50 years as when he first started hunting there was no bag limit in Texas.

Mayor of this city for 12 consecutive years and the donor of the city park bearing his name, Judge Kirby has never found a substitute for deer hunting. He is noted as the "horse-and-buggy-attorney." It was this method of transportation which gained him fame as a lawyer and a jurist.

He made his 50th trek to the Old 7 Ranch, founded by the colorful

Beaux McCutcheon. McCutcheon's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duncan, still operate the historic spread made famous by its use of the same brand, a 7, by all the children. The figure 7 is placed on varied portions of the animal's hide to indicate which one of the children owns it. The Old 7 Ranch is also noted as being one of the best deer locations in the Southwest.

Adjoining this ranch and hunting spa is the Uncle Bill Kingston Ranch. Kingston and Kirby are constant hunting cronies and were together again this year. The nearest town to this reunion-hunting ground is Toyahvale in Jeff Davis County, 14 miles northeast of the McDonald Observatory.

Also accompanying the noted jurist on his golden anniversary hunt was his son, W. H. Kirby, Hale Center farmer and rancher. The son is equally well known over Texas, having served with the illustrious Texas Rangers and assisted fellow rangers in quelling Berger riots when that town was at its hey-day during the oil boom.

A daughter, Mrs. J. H. Ferrel, Fort Worth, may also hunt with her father. She is rated one of the best hunters in the nation. "A deer shooter supreme" is what other nimrods say about Mrs. Ferrel's ability with a rifle.

Born in Georgia, the Abilene attorney came to Texas in 1831 and settled in Abilene in 1892. He has five children, all of whom have become expert hunters through their father's guidance. Next year the 80-year-old nimrod hopes to stage a family shooting reunion on the Old 7 Ranch "just to see if anyone of the kids can out-shoot their dad."

During the war years Judge Kirby had a little trouble getting enough gasoline to make his annual hunt, what with gas rationing and tire shortages. But his friends on the rationing board came to the rescue. The board members decided the natives of the Davis Mountain region should have their last wills and testaments examined regularly. They did not know a better attorney for the job, so recommended Kirby.

Judge Kirby reports the wills were in excellent order and very few legal matters needed attention. He also reported a successful hunt and a big buck for each trip.

In his spare time, when not hunting, Judge Kirby continues his practice of law in Abilene. His clients claim the attorney will still be hunting 20 years from now if deer are still plentiful on the Old 7.
