

HARVEST AT HALFWAY POINT

Yields, Prices Good On Lamb Grain Crop

Thousands of pounds of feed are flowing through Lamb County elevators this week, with 63 grain sorghum harvest swing.

Producers generally reported grainflow Sunday, Monday Tuesday with a slowing down Wednesday occasioned by a cool and shower clouds that pretty well burned off over county by noon.

Yields continue good in all parts of the county, and most week grain was of low-moisture content, 13 to 14 percent, elevator operators report. Moisture was reported in grain, cut a few days and in some grain with heavy weeds.

Price is ranging from $1.70 to $1.75, with one county buyer, at Sudan, at $1.80 per hundred.

The $1.75 price is limited to Littlefield, where most buyers went to this price last week and are holding it.

Outside of Littlefield--at Spade, Anton, Amherst and Sudan--Elevators are on $1.70 per hundred, the price at which most of them started the season, and the best market price in recent years here. Sudan has its feed lot source going to $1.80 for low moisture grain, the best price reported in a county survey Wednesday.

Elevator operators are agreed that about half of the crop was out up to Wednesday.

"Give us two more weeks of weather like the weekend, and this crop will be out of the fields into the hip pockets," one operator declared.

There was a steady stream of trucks over Lamb roads and highways from Sunday through Tuesday, running well into dark each day, as combines clipped through fields utilizing the ideal harvest weather.

Yields are reported good, ranging from 2,000 to 7,000 pounds over the county.

Lamb farmers have an estimated 210,000 to 220,000 acres in feed grain this year. Of this amount, a bonus of 29 cents per hundred will be paid on grain raised on 144,000 acres in the federal feed grain program. The 29-cent bonus is based on average yield for the acres in the program.

In addition, payments are being made on acres diverted from feed grain under the federal program. The two payments together will add up to about $3-million for county grain growers.

With this, the grain crop is expected to put about $15-million into the Lamb County farm income, the brightest figure in years for grain production.

In Littlefield, where the $1.75 grain price has been in effect a week, grain buyers were more optimistic Wednesday. Last week, the top market offers for the crop from elevators were around $1.73. This week it had reached $1.76 with some offers going to $1.78. These margins are not enough to bring elevators out, the operators say, but "are better than they were and indicate an encouraging trend."

MOUNTAINS OF GRAIN are pouring from Lamb county fields to grain elevators in a peak harvest period that rolled back to full speed last Friday. County roads are busy with heavy grain trucks shuttling from fields to elevator. This picture is of a county elevator pouring grain from twin spouts into storage heaps.

$3 Million In Grain Payments Underway

Harvest for $3-million in crop payments started Tuesday morning for Lamb County farmers and reached the 100 participants in the 1963 feed grain program.

$3-million will cover payments for acres diverted from feed grain by Lamb farmers, and a bonus payment of 29 cents per hundred pounds for grain grown by producers who are in the program. Payments are being made by the Lamb County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office.

Lamb county farmers have 144,000 acres planted under the federal program, out of an estimated 210,220,000 acres of 1963 grain.

About half of the $3-million will go for diverted acres, about half for bonus payments to farmers under the feed grain program, which is aimed at limiting grain acres, Lamar Aten, ASC office manager, said recently.

Both payments being put into one check for participating farmers.

Producers are being notified as their checks are ready. The first 100 were distributed at the ASC office Wednesday morning, 200 will be distributed on Thursday and 200 more on Friday. The checks are not being mailed but are to be picked up on notification.

The distribution job will go forward as fast as the ASC office gets payments ready, at the rate of 100 to 200 a day.

The $3-million is perhaps 20 percent of the estimated $15-million income to Lamb County farmers for the 1963 crop that is in full swing over the county.

PART I OF AN EXPLANATORY SERIES

Solution To Water Problem Vital

The city of Littlefield, home of almost 8,000 persons and trade center for a sizeable trade area, in this 50th year of its life faces a problem whose solution will bear heavily on the city's direction for the next 50 years.

The problem is water. It is not one that is peculiar to Littlefield, or new either. Perhaps a third or half of the cities in the southwest United States are in serious water studies in this year 1963.

The fact is that more water is being used each year, considerably more water, per individual resident. Whether a town is growing or not--and most are--the per capita use of water is booming, and promises to continue.

For example, Littlefield residents in 1955 used a total of 368,650,000 gallons of water. The city then was perhaps 500 to 700 persons smaller than it was in 1962.

But in 1962, the last complete record, the total water consumption was 516,643,000 gallons, an increase of 146,000,000 gallons.

The increase follows a fairly regular pattern. In 1962, the per-resident water use in Littlefield averaged 190.5 gallons a day. In 1963, use charts indicate it will reach 192.5 per person, and allowing for increase in population.

By 1970, the estimates are that it will reach 209 gallons per person a day, on a yearly average.

The use-per-capita is projected on a steady climb. This is not just in Littlefield, not at all. This is true in Van Nuys, Calif., and Van Buren, Ark. It is perhaps more marked in the southwest, on through California.

Why?

Some reasons are obvious. The standard of living is up--and this means more and more automatic washers, dishwashers, garbage disposals, and two baths or more for many homes.

Then there is air conditioning, an important item, and yard maintenance. A well-watered yard is a mark of good living, and water is increasingly poured on yards.

The other causes are without number. There are more automobiles per family and more car wash jobs, for example. Then, as a city grows its people work in new industries, and industries use water. The per capita use in many areas includes heavy use by industries.

The plain facts of water need are easy to prove by city hall records. Even projections leave little room for argument. They need one added item of clarification. The per capita yearly average is not the full statistic in water needs today.

The critical item is the PEAK daily demand; here is the rub. The peak daily demand for Littlefield just 60 days ago was 530 gallons per resident--and it would have been higher if the city water system could have delivered more water.

Water is a summertime problem, June through August or September. Few supply problems show up in November or December.

And the solution to municipal water needs--there is the rawest rub of all, and this is not limited to any one geographical area.

For Littlefield, the water supply answer has three major parts. They are:

Distribution. The getting of water to the user's meter at pressure enough to supply his demand. This includes having enough elevated water storage to create gravity pressure, and the pipeline system to flow water to all areas of town. A 2-inch main will carry just so much water, and if a lot of people along it have many open taps the pressure drops and drops. This needs but little explanation in Littlefield, where a chronic complaint has been of not enough pressure to make shower baths squirt or lawn sprinklers spin.

Transmission. The business of getting water from its source to the distribution system. This has been a city problem, but one that could be cured relatively easy from the present source. Transmission also includes ground storage tanks, to maintain a reserve that will keep pipelines full to the elevated tank.

Then, Supply. The largest long range problem of the three. This, simply, is having enough water to fill the transmission

Man Wins One Of Cash Prizes

Three entrants picked 20 out of 100 games in the Littlefield football contest last week. Edges went to the tie-breaker to determine the first, second and third-place cash prizes.

Holt of Springlake claimed the top prize of $7.50 by nearest the total score of 100 in the Littlefield-Seminole game. All of the winners were the 14-point total record that game.

Clayton III and Vergil drew honorable mention, missing five games in the game which threw most of the "loss" included a 10-0 victory over Borger, led over Dimmitt, Phillip Pampa, Stinnett over on, and Texas Tech's win in Washington State.

City Selects Fire Truck

Littlefield City Council Tuesday afternoon voted to accept a bid from the Fire Appliance Co. of Texas for a new fire truck.

The council, in a joint meeting with the executive committee of the fire department, discussed three bids submitted for the truck and equipment department. Upon recommendation of the fire department committee, the council awarded the bid to the Wichita Falls company.

The bid was $6,450. The truck will be a 1-ton model with a 250-gallon water tank, a 450-gallon storage tank. The new truck will answer all rural fire alarms.

The bid accepted was not the lowest of the three submitted, but the council took the committee's recommendation on the truck and equipment department. The special session to order the bids was held at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Man Escape Poisonous Gas

Two Amarillo men, almost overcome by cyanide gas, Tuesday were released from Medtronic Hospital here Wednesday after being treated and checked overnight.

Five Injured In Mishaps

Three persons were hospitalized in a 3-car accident in the city Tuesday afternoon, and two others went to the hospital following a truck turnover on the Bula highway Monday afternoon.

None of the five were believed seriously injured.

The three-car collision Tuesday about 1:21 p.m. occurred on US-84 west inside the city limits. Involved were cars driven by Alice Tillman of Littlefield, Joe Rivas of Sudan, and H. L. Irvin of Lubbock.

Irvin was taken to Medical Arts Hospital for treatment and remained there Wednesday.

Two passengers in the Tillman car--Darlene Rogers of Littlefield and Evelyn Spencer of Lubbock--were also taken to Medical Arts.

Investigating Patrolman James Cox said the Tillman car stopped to make a left turn; the Rivas car stopped behind her, and the Irvin car hit the rear of the Rivas car, causing heavy damage to all three vehicles.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Eidson of Littlefield were taken to Littlefield Hospital for treatment after their grain truck overturned near Bull Lake. They sustained severe bruises but no broken bones according to a hospital report.

The Eidsons were reportedly traveling east on the Bula highway when the truck hit some tires lying on the pavement, causing the vehicle to overturn. The tires were put on the highway for a paving company to move a catapillar tractor across the road. The company reported a flagman was on duty.

The other city accidents were recorded without injuries. At 7:10 a.m. Wednesday, a pickup driven by John C. Duncan of Littlefield was in collision with a car driven by Edward W. Vanostrand of Littlefield. Damage was estimated at $75 and $200 respectively. The collision was at the intersection of 21st and Farwell.

Last Saturday at 7:55 p.m., cars driven by Jessie D. Willson and Willie J. Conley, both of Littlefield, collided at Griffin near Elm St. Damage was light.

DISCUSS COTTON PROMOTION--The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce executive committee discussed the possibility of a special "cotton week" during a meeting Tuesday morning. Left to right: Gene Garrison, Chamber manager; Troy Armes, C of C president; Earl Lewis, Hockley County farmer; Gene Yeager, Levelland C of C manager; and Lowell D. ## State Seeks Abandoned Dividends From Co-Ops Five Lamb County cooperatives are being sued by the State for abandoned dividends which are subject to the Texas Escheat Law.

The cooperatives were served with citations this week, the action being the first step in legal moves required under the escheat law. Under the new Escheat Law, the state must file suit to obtain the abandoned property. The defendants have until Nov. 4 to file an answer.

The suit describes the property as follows:

"$109.58 in cash held by Lamb County Electric Cooperative, Inc.; $418.65 in cash representing patron dividends held by Farmers Cooperative Association of Springlake; $778.55 in cash representing dividend checks held by Olson Coop Gin; $140.87 in cash held by The Farmers Cooperative Association of Sudan; $1309.98 in cash representing dividend checks held by Hart Camp Cooperative Gin."

Special Cotton Week Proposed

A special cotton promotion week was discussed when the executive committee of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday morning in the council room at City Hall.

After discussing the matter with a National Cotton Council representative and two Levelland men interested in area-wide promotion, the committee voted to recommend the project to directors.

The motion was to recommend as complete a program as possible be planned in the short time before the week is held. The National Cotton Council normally designates a week in May as "Cotton Week", but people of this area are more conscious of the fiber during the fall, or harvest season, it was pointed out by several Chamber members.

Voters Split on Poll Tax Issue

COMBINES ON THE MOVE—Lamb County's feed grain harvest is in full swing, and ones like this one on the E. C. Hardman farm in the Spade community are now commonplace. With good weather, the harvest may be completed in about two weeks, giving a big boost to the area economy.

Lamb County could be divided on a Texas constitutional amendment that will be voted on in November and that would abolish the $1.75 poll tax that state residents pay annually to qualify to vote, a Lamb County Leader survey indicates this week.

Residents under 60 years, that is. Above this age the poll tax does not apply, although over-60 persons must register if they live in towns of above 10,000 population, but there is no charge for registration.

Twenty-five persons were asked this question: Will you vote to abolish the poll tax in November's election? The question included the explanation that names would not be used.

The result was 8 in favor of abolishing the tax, 8 for keeping it, and 9 undecided. Here's what some of the people had to say about it:

A COUNTY OFFICIAL: "I have always been in favor of doing away with this tax, and will vote that way."

His vote may be "scrubbed" by another COUNTY OFFICIAL: "I think anyone should be willing to pay to vote, and I will vote to keep it that way. Also, this is about the only tax that some people pay."

A LITTLEFIELD BUSINESSMAN: "I will go for abolishing it, although I certainly don't agree with threats to use voting blocs if a lot more people are enabled to vote through abolishment of the poll tax."

A BOOKKEEPER: "I will vote to abolish the tax, as I do not feel you should be required to pay before you can vote."

AN ATTORNEY: "I will vote to repeal it, because a person should not have to pay to exercise the right to vote. Although it is a small sum, it probably keeps some people from voting. Every citizen should have the right to vote. I even think it should be mandatory."

A BANKER: "I have mixed emotions on the matter. In reality, I think the tax should be abolished but, as a practical matter, I hate to see it done. No citizen should be required to pay for the right to vote, but I wonder if this will open the door to unconcerned citizens who use no judgement in casting a ballot."

A BUSINESSMAN: "Personally, I don't think the poll tax is a bad thing. It serves to stir up interest in advance of an election, and I think certain requirements are necessary if we are to have intelligent voting."

AN INSURANCE MAN: "I voted for doing away with the poll tax in the primary last year, but I may vote against it this time. Things have happened that indicate it would be easy for bloc voting to be carried out without the poll tax."

A FARM HOUSEWIFE: "I want to keep the poll tax. I think if you want to vote enough, you'll pay it."

A CITY HOUSEWIFE: "I will vote to repeal it. The main reason is to get more citizens to vote. The more people we have to voice their opinions, the better things will be."

A GINNER: "I will vote to keep the poll tax. Most of it goes to schools, and if people are not interested in something like this that goes for a good cause, they are not interested in their country anyway."

A REAL ESTATE MAN: "I think the poll tax should be repealed. . . . people are entitled to a free vote."

A HOUSEWIFE: "I'm in favor of abolishing the tax. Property owners should have the right to vote in city elections without paying another tax."

A CITY OFFICIAL: "I'll vote against the amendment. I think we need some kind of voter registration, and the poll tax is as good as any."

A PROFESSIONAL MAN: "I'm in favor of keeping the poll tax, but it looks as though we might as well abolish it due to the federal picture. Apparently we would have to have separate ballots if a federal election were involved."

A BUSINESSMAN: "I'm not really opposed to the poll tax, but I think it is unconstitutional. I formerly lived in a state where there is no poll tax. If they approve a 25 cent registration fee, I think it is just as wrong as a poll tax."

Threads of the long-standing argument over the poll tax run through the opinions. Some leading reasons for abolishment include:

- (1) A referendum of Texas voters in 1962 favored abolishment of the tax;
- (2) The right to vote should not be priced;
- (3) The federal government is going to open federal elections to everyone and this could require two ballots, two sets of judges, and create a mess at the voting box;
- (4) Only five states still have the tax, and voting is apparently done properly in the other 45 states.

Those against argue: (1) the right to set its election requirements was given to the states in the original United States constitution, and Texas has a right to run its elections as her people please; (2) Texas derives some needed tax income from polls, and will have to find a source to replace this loss; (3) if it is worth voting at all for citizens, the $1.75 will not keep responsible voters away from the polls; (4) it is the only tax that many people pay, and these usually are people who receive the biggest benefits from government.

Official opinions on the abolishment are divided. Gov. John Connally has spoken out strongly in favor of doing away with the tax.

Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake, on the other hand, voted against the amendment when it went through the legislature and has been outspoken against doing away with the tax.

Texas voters were asked on primary ballots by both Republicans and Democrats in 1962 if they favored elimination of the tax. They did, but not by a very large margin.

Since then, the federal government has pushed almost through its new constitutional amendment to allow everyone to vote in elections for federal officers—congressmen, U. S. Senators and President—and only two states need to approve the amendment before it becomes valid. U. S. constitutional amendments usually are acted on by state legislatures,

County Column

Johnny E. Tisdale, a Littlefieldman for the Federal Insurance Corp., will attend a training meeting for several days starting Sept. 30 in Ft. Worth.

The Littlefield High School took a second place in the state of bands to open the Littlefield-South Plains Fair in Rock Monday. Bands from Moore, Denver City, Hale and Wilson were judged best of 29 area marching bands.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson in Denver, Colo., attended a John Deere promotional meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones of Littlefield attended the showing of the 1964 Cadillac in Dallas the weekend, and are enthusiastic over the new car. They returned by way of Waco to visit their son and family, and Mrs. Jodie Jones.

It's the Law in TEXAS

Thousands of school children are now trooping back to school throughout Texas. Many of them will be transported by school buses. Most people are careful when approaching a school which may be standing between the road or school to pick up school children or allow them to get on.

However, we have already had some very bad accidents this year because a child or motorist, or both, were careless at that very time. Most Texans are aware of the fact that requires a driver to stop to a complete stop when striking from the rear a school bus which has stopped to pick up or discharge school children. After stopping immediately behind the bus, he is allowed by law to proceed at a speed "which is prudent, not exceeding ten (10) miles per hour, and with due regard for the safety of such children."

What many persons do not realize is that the same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus. While anyone is interested in protecting their children, unthinking motorists of this simple safety law in this case can lead to a fine up to $200 even when an accident occurs. Following an accident in which some child is injured or killed, the penalties are naturally much more serious.

When it comes to overtaking or passing moving vehicles, the rule of ordinary common sense will generally keep a driver within the law. For instance, when passing a car it is only common sense to proceed on the right side of the road before turning back to the right side of the highway. Also, any driver should realize the danger of passing his speed while another is attempting to pass him.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions. Of course, you may pass on the right in a few specific instances, such as when

WHAT'S THE NAME IN?

Smiths Lead In New Phone Book

There's a new non-fiction best-seller booklet out for Littlefield and Lamb county, that will be read with interest for the next 12 months.

It is more a reference work, and it is the new telephone directory for General Telephone Company. This year's model has a pale blue cover, in contrast to the canary yellow one that just went out of style. The new book was especially welcome to information operators who answer most calls just before its issuance, fewer calls the weeks just after the new book comes out.

As in most cities the country over, the name Smith predominates in the Littlefield section of the GenTel book for 1963. There are 26 Smiths compared with 19 listings for Jones, 18 each for Williams and Davis and 16 for Johnson.

There are 12 each for Hall, Hill and Walker and 11 for Jackson.

The Smiths really command in Olton, with 20 listings for the popular name in five pages of the new book, compared with the 26 for Littlefield in 16 pages. Carson is a popular Olton name, followed by Miller and Dennis. Whittarral lists one lone Smith, F. L., but three each of Williams and Polk. Williams lead in Sudan, with seven listings compared with four for Jones and two for Smith.

Spade has just one Smith, Robert R., but five Ramages. Fieldton has four Johnsons, one Smith, L. A., while Amherst puts the Smiths back in the lead with six, but tied with the Brantleys.

The least number of alphabetical listings? "Z's" and "Q's," the "Q's" represented entirely by three listings of Qualls in the whole book, the "Z's" by three Zoths and a Zachary.

But it's not the number of names, information operators usually point out, but the number for the name. It probably is in your new book, and the harried information operator can extend her coffee break for a couple minutes for a few days.

Suspect In Jail Here

Robert Soliz, 26, of Morton is being held in the Lamb County jail on an armed robbery charge in connection with a hold-up at the Zoth Mobil Station Friday morning.

Soliz was apprehended by Morton authorities, where a bond of $5,000 was set. He was then released to the Lamb County Sheriff's office to face the armed robbery charge.

Cordell Cole, who identified Soliz as the holdup man, said $44 was taken at gunpoint from the station early Friday morning. A bent time taken in the robbery helped in the arrest of the suspect.

Bob Baladen paid a fine and court costs of $20.50 on a check law violation in county court, and one man was fined $65.50, including costs, for speeding. Deputies also reported that Raymond Garza was charged with simple assault in JP Court at Sudan.

Two minor thefts and one case of vandalism was being investigated by city police. Phil Cloyd of 1108 W. 8th, reported someone stole his toolbox early Saturday. He valued the tools at $150. Hancock Station reported some boys had stolen 3 quarts of oil Sunday. Juan Trejo of 1116 Freeman reported someone entered his house Monday afternoon and damaged some furniture.

Attending the meeting Tuesday were Mrs. Linnie Campbell, Olton, who is the president; Mrs. Lola Sanders, Springlake, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Marie Smith, Spade, last vice-president and program chairman; and Olen Mahaffey, Littlefield, 2nd vice-president.

and approval by two more legislatures is expected in January.

That could mean that Texas residents may be able to vote in federal races next year without a poll tax, even if the Texas amendment fails of passage.

One factor against passage of the poll tax passage is that most of the people eligible to vote in November paid a poll tax for the privilege, and may just favor its payment.

This is an "off" election year, one in which no county, state or federal officials is elected and poll tax payments usually are smaller than for active election years, as 1964 will be when a President will be on the ballot.

Many of the people who last year may have voted in favor of abolishment, in the state referendum, may not be eligible voters this year.

In Lamb county, however, 4,150 poll taxes were paid for 1963, an almost normal number. But the November 6 election is only on four amendments to the constitution and these have not drawn large votes in the past.

The poll tax is a more personal issue than most amendments, however. Right now it looks like the people who do vote will have definite ideas. And it may be the last time they have to pay for the privilege.

If the tax is abolished, in its stead Texas voters will be required to register for elections, at a fee of 25 cents.

Tech Takes On Longhorns

Texas Tech, with a surprise win under its belt, resumes the underdog role against the University of Texas in Austin Saturday night.

University of Texas, defending Southwest Conference champion, returns 28 lettermen from the team that trounced the Red Raiders 34-0 in Lubbock last year.

Still, there's a hint of things to come for Coach J. T. King's Red Raiders. They overcame by a 16-7 score the Washington State University Cougars in Lubbock last Saturday night.

Texas Tech will have the support of a large delegation from its student body and other South Plains-Panhandle fans. It's the official student trip, and Dean Killion's band will perform.

Following the clash in Austin the Red Raiders take up a home stand with three consecutive Southwest Conference games in Jones Stadium. The Raiders will be hosts to Texas A&M Oct. 5, Texas Christian Oct. 12, and Baylor Oct. 19. All are night games.

A crowd of 31,500 saw the opening victory.

JOE GRUMP

Canadian In Debut At Arena

Alex Perez, an old-time favorite, makes his return to the local wrestling scene at Littlefield Sports Arena Saturday night as he clashes with Treach Phillips in the opening event at 8:30 p.m.

The second match of the night sees popular Dale Lewis taking on Joe Grump in the first main event. Grump, a big Canadian from the wilds of Northern Canada, makes his first appearance in the local arena.

The opener is a 1-fall, 20-minute time limit match, while Lewis and Grump meet in one-hour limit, best 2 of 3 falls.

The top main event of the evening will pit popular Lewis Martinez against Tokyo Tom, the karate expert. Martinez is meeting Tom for the first time.

The starting time has been changed for the fall and winter season, the matches beginning at 8:30 instead of 8:45.

SPEEDY'S SCOREBOOK

By Speedy Nieman

The Littlefield Wildcats have an open date this week, and according to scouting reports on Denver City, the local gridders will need the time to prepare for the Class AA "Big Red" team.

The Wildcats host the tough Mustangs in Wildcat Stadium Oct. 4 in a non-district battle. Littlefield lost a 21-6 tilt to the Mustangs last year, and it was Denver City's closest margin of victory until they reached the playoffs.

Coach John Howle gave a brief report on Denver City during the Quarterback Club meet Tuesday, with some films on the junior varsity scheduled for showing.

Thanks to a 138-yard effort against Seminole, Grover Pigrum moved to the front as Littlefield's leading rusher in the first three games. Pigrum has chalked up 181 yards on 40 trips for a fine 4.5 average. Junior Hodge, who was held out of offensive action at Seminole due to a bruised shoulder, is next with 112 yards on just 19 trips. He sports the best gain per carry with a 5.9 figure.

Larry Coffman is third in rushing with 91 yards and also leads the pass receiving department with 3 catches for 36 yards. Ray McKinney has done all the passing, hitting 8 of 19 for 125 yards and three scores. A bright spot for the passer is the fact that none of his aeriels have been intercepted.

The Texas Tech Red Raiders appeared real sharp in the opening game against Washington State Saturday night. It's the best looking Raider team we've seen since 1953 when the Raiders went to the Gator Bowl and walloped Auburn.

Tech may not be too successful in the Southwest Conference race, but it appears they'll be interesting to watch. That's more than you could say for them last season.

After some poor prognostications the first two weeks of the grid season, the Scorebook's predictions hit a respectable plateau last week. We hit 13 of 16, including correct guesses on all southwest college games but one--our alma mater's victory Washington State.

However, as strong as our ties to Tech, we can't see the Raiders upsetting Texas this week. On the local scene, the Wildcats are idle this week, so here's how area games look to us:

Littlefield Junior Varsity over Roosevelt, Dumas by Artesia, Guymon, Okla. over Perryton, Amarillo to top Plainview, Denver City over Levelland, Phillips by Frederik,

WHITHARRAL

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tipton and Sue and Diane Ussery visited in Amherst Sunday afternoon.

Charles Lamb, Ed Johnson, Rafe Rodgers, George Wade, Jr., Don Reding and Robert Strickland spent Sunday night and Monday in Austin attending the state school board meeting.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Haley Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brown and baby of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Baisden have sold their farm to Doss and D. W. Maner and will move their home to Littlefield in the near future.

Sammy Pair was released Monday from the South Plains Hospital, Levelland, following an injury to his neck which he received in the Whitharral-Bovina haligame Friday evening in Bovina.

Okla., Sudan to top Sundown, Olton over Hale Center, Springlake to romp past New Deal, Wilson to top Anton, Amherst to edge Bovina, Meadow by Whitharral, Brownfield by Andrews, Clovis over Muleshoe, Farwell to beat Morton, Dalhart to top Dimmitt.

On the college level--Texas over Texas Tech, Rice to edge LSU, Michigan over SMU, Baylor by Houston, Arkansas to tip Missouri, Florida State to edge TCU, Ohio State over Texas A&M, and West Texas over East Texas.

POWDER PUFF BOWL FRIDAY

Junior High, Frosh Teams Play Tonight

Powder Puff Rosters Listed

The annual skirmish between the junior and senior girls, other wise known as the "Powder Puff Bowl" is scheduled Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Wildcat Stadium.

The flag football contest, an annual event sponsored by the Student Council, will have admission prices of 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

Coach Ray McKinney and his senior assistants have named a starting lineup for the senior girls. The probable starters: ends Diane Phillips and Janelle Jensen, tackles Dianne Cook and Virginia Penn, guards Jena Sharp and Darla Neuenschwander, center Barbara Huffman, quarterback Dontece Reast, blocking back Carol Nickelson, fullback Brenda Perdue, halfback Linda Hodge, Maise Naylor, Bonnie Richey and Vivian Lowery round out the squad.

Junior Coaches Larry Coffman, Ronald Sitton and John Dick Carl--all claiming the juniors will gain a victory this year--named the following probable starters:

Ends Karen Thaxton and Judy Penn, tackles Billy Cook and Janice Koller, guards Judy Foley and Roxey Armstrong, center Sandra Smith, quarterback Christy Pressley, halfbacks Cleo Harrell and Jean Martin, and fullback Judy Brantley. Other juniors are Kathie Armistead, Janet Blackwell, Brenda Broadus, Jody Bryson, Jonnie Weathers, Marilyn Hill, Linda Hutto, Joann Rhodes, Lora Smith, Sheryl Smith, Pat Steed, Jonell Tatum, Betty Taylor, Charlene Walthall, Janice Wood and Kathy Woody.

Cheerleaders have also been named for the grid classic. Leading the yells for the senior girls will be Bob Badger, Junior Torres and Dwayne Houk. The good-looking junior cheerleaders are Burr Heathman, Mike Greer, Jimmy Farmer and Haynes Melton.

The Wildcat varsity takes a rest from the football wars this week, but there'll still be plenty of grid action in Littlefield. Three games are on tap in Wildcat Stadium this evening, beginning at 5 p.m. when the junior high teams tangle with Morton. The 7th grade game opens the action, followed by the 8th grade contest.

The LHS freshmen are scheduled to take on Estacado of Plainview at 7 p.m., immediately following the 8th grade battle.

Friday night's action includes a "Powder Puff" football contest between the junior and senior girls at LHS, while the junior varsity travels to Lubbock for a game with Roosevelt High School. The latter game will be played at Chapman Field, beginning at 8 p.m.

The Powder Puff Bowl battle is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday in Wildcat Stadium. The junior class will be seeking its second victory in this annual event sponsored by the Student Council.

Quail Hunt Open To Area Shooters

The first 200 quail hunters to contact the Parks and Wildlife Department District Office in Lubbock by telephone or in person between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Sept. 30 may participate in an Oct. 5 and 6 quail hunt on the Matador Wildlife Management Area near Paducah.

The Oct. 5 and 6 hunts were recommended by biologists so additional research information on quail food habits, parasites, and hunting pressure could be gathered during early fall.

Hunting parties, composed of no more than 4 hunters, may apply for hunting through one man, providing the spokesman can give the name and address of each hunter in his party.

The Lubbock District Office, 1626-50th St., (telephone SH 4-6847) will accept 200 applications on a first-come-first-serve basis on Sept. 30 only.

opened with triumphs at last week, and will be scheduled for a repeat tonight. The grade won by 12-8 last week, while the 8th rolled up a margin.

The freshmen will be after their second win in a week after taking a 44-14 win at Coronado of Plainview week. The junior varsity seeks its first victory, absorbing a 36-0 defeat at the hands of Monterey Lancers two weeks ago.

Newest model makes its bow—
Chevrolet's Chevelle Malibu SS Coupe

Newest member of the growing Chevrolet passenger car family is the Chevelle. Although 16 inches shorter and 2 1/2 inches narrower than comparable Chevrolet models, the Chevelle offers virtually all the interior roominess and smooth fine car feel of a full-size luxury car. The Chevelle Malibu SS Sport Coupe (shown above) is one of 11 Chevelle models which will be in dealerships beginning September 26. The Chevelle is offered in the Malibu, Malibu SS and 300 Series.

Chevrolet Introduces 43
New Models Here Today

Chevrolet -- virtually certain of setting an all-time sales mark in 1963 -- intends to continue this success in 1964 by offering the widest choice of automobiles in its history.

Introduced at Armes Chevrolet in Littlefield today will be 43 new models in five distinct sizes. This is 10 more models than Chevrolet offered for 1963 and the greatest number the division has ever offered in a single year.

Included will be the industry's only all-new car for 1964 -- the Chevelle. This much discussed combination of beauty, quality, performance and distinction is sized between the regular Chevrolet and Chevy II.

All Chevrolet's five lines of 1964 cars have styling and engineering improvements which -- teamed with the increase in models and options -- allow the customer to tailor a car to his particular requirements as never before. Following are the highlights of the five members of Chevrolet's 1964 "family":

REGULAR CHEVROLETS -- Extensive new styling is evident in the regular Chevrolet line, again stressing the big car luxury which has made it so popular.

A Super Sport series featuring bucket seats and special interior and exterior appointments in both a convertible and sport coupe has been added for 1964, bringing the total models of regular Chevrolets to 15 in four series.

Although over-all dimensions are the same as in 1963, the regular Chevrolet has a longer, wider look created by new flowing side lines and a smooth, broader styling of front and rear ends.

Crisp, distinctive exterior moldings and interior appointments distinguish between the Super Sport, Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne series.

CHEVELLE -- Chevrolet's new automobile line for 1964 embodies a distinctive styling and will be offered in 11 models in three series -- the top-of-the-line Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300.

Quality and vehicle width are stressed in the front end design which makes use of dual headlights and horizontal grille bars. Side treatment is clean and a peak line which carries throughout the car gives a look of length.

CHEVY II -- In its third year on the market, the Chevy II continues its popular blend of small car handling, roominess, economy and good taste in a total of 6 models in two series -- the Nova and the 100 series.

The basic styling personality of the Chevy II is continued in 1964, but there is added beauty through refinements in the grille, side moldings, emblems and hub caps and more luxurious interiors.

A V8 engine will be offered for the first time as an extra-cost option on all models. With the V8, which will be Chevrolet's 283 cubic inch 195 horsepower model, the customer may choose either standard three-speed, optional four-speed or Powerglide transmissions.

Two six-cylinder engines at 120 and 155 horsepower will be available in all Chevy II models. The economical four-cylinder-90 horsepower engine will continue to be available in the two and four-door sedans of the 100 series.

CORVAIR -- Entering its fifth year, the Corvair will continue its important place in the Chevrolet lineup by appealing to a group of buyers who like something sportier and less conventional in a small car.

A Monza Spyder series comprised of a top-of-the-line convertible and club coupe is added for 1964, bringing the total models to seven in four series -- the Monza Spyder, Monza, 700 and 500 series, plus two Greenbrier Sports Wagons.

CORVETTE -- America's only sports car -- fresh from its most successful year in 1963 -- continues the famed design of its two Sting Ray models, the convertible and the sport coupe for 1964.

Offering broader appeals to more kinds of buyers, the 1964 Corvette combines the driving and handling enjoyment of a genuine sports car with the luxury and convenience most fine car owners want.

Landsdown In Fighter Squadron

Loyd M. Landsdown, chief aviation structural mechanic, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Landsdown of 812 East Seventh St., Littlefield, is serving with Fighter Squadron 33, which recently returned from seven months in the Mediterranean aboard the nuclear powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise, Fighter Squadron 33 is the winner of the 1963 Chief of Naval Operation's "Aviation Safety Award" for day fighter squadrons. It operates as a unit of Carrier Air Group Six, assigned to the Enterprise.

While in the Mediterranean, members of the squadron visited Spain, Greece, Italy, France and Lebanon. Between deployments, the squadron is based at the Naval Air Stations, Oceana, Virginia.

After a number of contacts they came to the full council with recommendations, and a full council session decided on an Amarillo firm, McMorries and Associates, headed by Bill McMorries, a native Plains farm boy and a combination lawyer and civil engineer. The McMorries firm has made similar studies for a number of Plains cities. McMorries agreed at the outset that final, firm answers on water supply were rarely possible, that there was room for difference of opinion among hydrologists on underground water supply, and its replenishment.

McMorries report opened with the distribution system, the part nearest the customer. It included pressure measurements at taps all over town, a study of the maze of pipes by which water moves over the city. They found some areas where water was available at all times, in slow flow, and others where it became just a trickle at critical hours.

The assessment of the distribution system and a plan to bring it up to meet the needs was the initial part of the engineer's report. It will be covered in the next article on the Littlefield water system in the Leader and News.

(EDITOR'S NOTE---Several articles will be required to cover the Littlefield water situation. You are invited to watch for them.)

WATER

These three things are the structural background for the Water Problem, with capital letters. It is a Problem that has been viewed regularly by city councils and mayors for 30 years in Littlefield, since the first elementary municipal water system was established in 1924, and the home backyard water wells began disappearing.

A few months back Mayor Bill Armistead and the city council set out to survey the city's water needs. To get at the answer, they started with assessing the problem.

To do this, they sought out water engineers. A two-man committee of Councilmen H. C. Randall and Paul McCormick contacted a number of firms, talked with other cities about how they had met this problem.

Today...Jet-smooth Luxury '64 CHEVROLET

'64 Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan—one of 15 Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolets.

Chevrolet was luxurious before, but you should see it now. With smart new styling, the '64 Chevrolet looks even longer (but isn't). There's even a whole new series this year—the Impala Super Sports—with front bucket seats as standard equipment. (The new Impalas and Bel-Airs are more luxurious, too. Even the lowest priced Biscaynes have new foam-cushioned seats front and rear and are fully carpeted.) Of course, you expect more than just luxury from Chevrolet. A choice of 16 power teams, for instance—a 6 and six V8's up to 425 hp (optional at extra cost). And quieter transmissions. Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension. Flush-and-dry rocker panels. Delco-tron generator, self-adjusting brakes and other low-upkeep features. If you've ever wondered how luxurious Chevrolet could get—with all the extra-cost options there are to choose from—that's entirely up to you.

Take your first look at the first CHEVELLE!

CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

New Chevelle Malibu Super Sport Coupe—one of 11 models in three great series.

You've never seen anything like this totally new line of cars before. Chevelle is new in everything but Chevrolet quality. Chevelle is a good foot shorter than the big cars, so it parks easily. Yet the interior of its Body by Fisher gives you a generous supply of passenger and luggage room. The ride is surprisingly smooth with a rugged coil spring at all four wheels. And not so surprisingly for Chevrolet, the new Chevelle offers a choice of engines ranging from an economical 120-hp 6 to a 220-hp

V8 (optional at extra cost). Choose the Chevelle you like best from the three series—the Malibu Super Sport, the Malibu and the 300 Series, eleven models in all—at your Chevrolet dealer's. (This good-looking Malibu Super Sport maybe?)

Hearing Test Set In School

Screening tests on hearing were started in the Littlefield schools Tuesday by Mrs. Joyce Oliver, school nurse.

The purpose of the screening tests is to detect students who are having hearing problems and to refer them to a physician for treatment and correction.

The hearing tests are to be conducted in grades 2, 3, 5, 7, and 10. Also included will be students who have had trouble on tests in previous years, new students, and those referred to the nurse by parents and teachers.

Mrs. Oliver offers the following criteria for parents and teachers in selecting children for the hearing tests:

(1) Turning of the head to one side, especially if associated with a slight strained motion of learning forward;

(2) cupping the hand behind the ear;

(3) failure to give attention;

(4) ear drainage;

(5) cotton in ears;

(6) skin signs in ear areas;

(7) picking or pulling at ears.

The nurse also pointed out the following statistical information: approximately 1 out of every 20 school children suffers from impairment of hearing; that many children who are considered "backward or slow" in school may be suffering from loss of hearing; that sometimes neither the children, the parents, or the teacher are aware of the reason the child is having difficulties.

Grandson of Anton Couple Is Good Will Ambassador

Carl Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Moore, Lubbock, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Teague, Anton, returned home in Lubbock Sept. after having spent the past year and a half months in Sweden as a good will ambassador of the American Field Service exchange programs.

He came from Sweden to New York and flew home from there. He was met at the Lubbock Airport by a large delegation of friends and relatives, led by Dr. Melvin Ratheal, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, where Carl is a member. Similarities in culture, rather than differences, provided a continuing series of surprises to him. They are like the people of our door," said Carl.

The young people wanted to know more about the emotional aspects involved, he added, especially since the manner in which American news is displayed in the European press seems to have fostered the impression that "riots are exploding all over the United States."

stay, Moore lived with a host family, the Allen Lundahls, in a rural community near Helsingborg, a city of 80,000 in southwest Sweden.

His counterpart, or "brother," in the Lundahl family, Mats, also 17, plays the trombone and piano as does Carl.

"We had several jam sessions and recorded our music on tape," Carl said.

Swedish youth prefer traditional jazz and pop tunes, playing American records in the original without translating the lyrics (which is the custom in many countries) since language is no problem. The teaching of English begins early, usually in the fifth grade, and most 14-year-olds can converse easily.

"Mats speaks terrific English," Carl said, adding that his "foster father" also spoke good conversational English, but that Mrs. Lundahl was not so fluent in the language.

Under the American Field Service Program every effort is made to "match" families of visiting students and hosts in family background, ages of children, business background and other factors. Lundahl, for example, is in a business (wholesale grain) similar to that of Carl's father who is manager of Burriss Mill.

Helsingborg and other cities Moore visited in tours over the country were "very American" in appearance, Carl noted. Industrialization, patterned after American business methods, is growing rapidly in Sweden, which formerly exported much of its youth, is now providing career opportunities for them at home.

Plans are in the hopper to expand the school system along lines of American schools, Carl was told. Under the traditional system, only those who could pass stiff examinations at the end of elementary and junior high school were permitted to continue an academic education. Others branched off into vocational and trade schools.

Carl, who did not get back to Lubbock until after fall classes were well underway, has been studying overtime to catch up with his classmates.

Even so, he is glad that his schedule is not as complicated as the course of study prescribed in Swedish schools.

Lengthy Schedule Swedish students enroll for as many as 15 courses per term, attending different classes each day for varying lengths of time, Monday through Saturday morning. A typical course of study might include as many as three languages, literature and history courses, mathematics and several of the sciences.

For this reason, the lengthy schedule sheets, Mats informed him, were kept handy for ready

Wreck Victim In VA Hosp.

Rudolph Vrabel, of Littlefield, who was seriously injured in a car accident the last part of May, is reported to be getting along nicely.

He is in the VA Hospital in Temple, and word was received last week that he is able to be in a wheel chair some.

The accident happened near Burnett, where his car hit an abutment of a bridge. He spent two weeks in a Burnett hospital before being transferred to Temple.

reference, especially during the opening weeks of each term, lest a student find himself in the wrong class.

"There was one appealing feature, however," Carl observed. "No homework was assigned for Monday classes."

Elementary Parents Visit

PARENTS WERE INTERESTED visitors at a Littlefield elementary school back-to-school night Tuesday, when teachers explained the courses of study, teaching materials, and year's plans for their students. Mrs. Mary Davis, left, second grade teacher, chats with mothers, Mrs. O. C. McBride and Mrs. Gene Bartley, right. Parents were welcomed by teachers and by Principal Paul I. Jones, and 535 visitors registered.

Refreshments of coffee, cokes, and doughnuts were served in the dining room by members of the executive committee. Mrs. Dave Weaver, vice president was chairman of the refreshment committee.

There will be a PTA Leadership Procedure Course taught at the Amherst School Wednesday, Oct. 2, beginning at 8:45 a.m. All officers are urged to take the course and other interested members are invited to take it.

new luxury styling to match its total performance gives right, new look to the lineup of Ford cars for 1964. The selling Ford Galaxie 500 Series offers three distinctive roof lines including the 4-door sedan (top photo). Five lines and four transmissions are offered including the Cruise-O-Matic Dual Range three-speed automatic transmission now available with all engines up to 390 cubic inches displacement.

The full Ford Galaxie line for 1964 includes 16 models with 4-door sedans, hardtops, convertibles and station wagons (bottom photo). The completely restyled cars will appear in Ford dealer showrooms September 27.

total performance in a completely restyled package, with distinctive new roof lines and a roomier interior, key-features of the Ford for 1964.

All models are designed to shine an exterior look of luxury with still more luxury engineering features that have made the 1964 Ford our best seller," said E. Laux, Ford Division general marketing manager.

Ford's are up in sales 28 percent over a year ago and account for better than one out of every two cars we sell," Laux noted. "We believe we are proving that buyers of low-cost cars respond to the experience we call 'total performance'."

The quality and luxury look of the completely restyled Ford is keynoted by a 3-dimensional, horizontal bar grille, widely-spaced dual headlamps, a full-depth and full wrap-around bumper give the cars a firmer, wider and more masculine front end appearance.

In terms of weight, the 1964 Ford compares favorably with the medium-priced field. Added weight is all "muscle" -- in deeper rocker panel and in a redesigned floor pan for a more solid, longer-lasting body; in the frame for greater durability; and in a luxury car suspension to reduce road shock and noise.

Reliability and ride improvements are only part of the total performance features designed and built into the Ford 1964. All engines have long-lasting main bearings and oil distribution for longer engine life.

The Cruise-O-Matic Dual Range three-speed transmission will be available for the first time with all engines except the Thunderbird High Performance 427. Added to the year or 36,000 mile major lubrication interval pioneered by the Ford last year are new extended-life headlamps and a longer-life battery.

Stuart Anderson and Elaine McLendon, representing the 4-H Clubs of Texas, beam their approval as the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, represented by Charles A. Meyer, Vice President of Sears, Roebuck and Co., Southwestern Territory, presents a special $10,000 grant to the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation to further leadership training among the youth and volunteer adult leaders of the 4-H Clubs. Receiving the grant on behalf of the Texas 4-H Youth Development is G. T. Johnson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation. The grant honors Mr. Johnson a former Regional Director of the Sears Foundation, who, since his retirement, has been devoting a great deal of time to programs interested in developing the young people of Texas for future leadership in their state.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation has sponsored the 4-H Club movement throughout the United States for many years and has an annual grant in its budget for the programs of the 4-H Clubs in Texas of over $35,000. According to Mr. Johnson, this continuing support of the 4-H Club program by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation has been a major factor in the program's growth over many years.

The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.

YOUR PROGRESS!

That's why we like this picture, in the same way that we do that of cotton harvesters moving through white fields and cotton bales stacked high.

These things are the heart of our business, too! It is the business, and the pleasure, of this bank to serve the farmers of Lamb County in every way that a good bank should!

If we are not serving YOU now, we'll appreciate the opportunity to!
