

FARM LABOR SHORTAGE HITS COUNTY; 1000 NEEDED FOR THE COTTON HARVEST

Local Band Scores Hit in Dallas

Littlefield high school band members participated in the State Fair in Dallas last week as guests of the State Fair in Dallas. Directed by Don DeWitt, the high school band was one of the leading high school musical groups from all parts of the state to participate in the Musical Festival.

A feature of the festival was the 1500 band members in the twenty organizations in the Cotton Bowl Wednesday night, October 18.

Massed Bands in Concert
After executing their formations, the hundreds of young musicians joined in playing the "National Emblem March," by Bagley; "High School Cadets," by Sousa, and "Hosts of Freedom," by King.

At the conclusion of the program, the twenty bands joined in playing "The Star Spangled Banner" as the field lights were turned out and a director with a lighted baton led the 1500 players from the stands.

Wednesday morning the Littlefield band played a concert in the Fair Park Auditorium.

The only other band from this area invited to participate was that of the Plainview high school.

Pleased By Reception
The 86 high school musicians left Littlefield last Tuesday morning and returned Thursday night. Members of Mr. Hays' band were unanimous in praise for the reception accorded them in Dallas and at the Fair.

"It was a great experience and a great honor for us," Mr. Hays said. "We are proud to have been included in the list of the state's outstanding high school musical organizations."

In addition to its director, the band was accompanied by Mrs. Hays and two band member mothers, Mrs. V. E. Roberts and Mrs.

Troy Moss, who served as chaperones for the girl band members.

The organization will accompany the Littlefield championship football team to Morton tomorrow night for the October 27 conference game there. A between-halves performance is scheduled for the band in Morton.

Employment Office Telegraphs Appeal For More Workers

Lamb county needs 1000 cotton pickers—immediately!

This is the urgent message being telegraphed each morning from the offices of the Texas Employment Commission in Littlefield to the state central office.

"The need for farm labor to aid in the cotton harvest in the county is acute," Manager J. D. Jordan of the Littlefield office said.

"While the release of students through the readjustment of school hours and other measures being taken by school authorities in the various communities in the county will help, we still will have a place for many additional workers," he said.

Mr. Jordan said he hoped the continued requests to the state central employment offices would be effective in bringing many additional temporary workers into this area by the end of the week.

Deep, Dark Secret Binds H. S. Band

It's a deep, dark secret among members of the Littlefield high school band—or, at least, so Director Don Hays hopes.

Ballots designating the band sweetheart have been cast by the members and tabulated, but the results won't be announced until a week from Friday night.

The first inkling anyone outside the membership of the band itself is supposed to get of the identity of the favored girl will come between halves at the Littlefield-Tahoka game at the Wildcat Stadium Friday night, Nov. 3.

At that time the band sweetheart will be introduced for the first time.

Last Rites Friday For Mrs. Dewees

Mrs. Luella Florence Dewees, 92, passed away Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Shugart of one-half mile east of the Littlefield airport. She had been in ill health about a year.

Funeral services are scheduled to be held at 2 p. m. Friday at Dumont, Texas, 25 miles southwest of Paducah, old home place of the family. The remains will be taken overland by a Lubbock funeral home to Dumont, where services will be held in the First Methodist Church, and burial will take place in the Dumont cemetery.

Mrs. Dewees was born in Mississippi on October 26, 1856, and came to Texas in 1875. She was married to J. G. Dewees at Millwood, Texas, Collin County in 1882. To this union were born six children, five daughters and one son.

Mrs. Dewees was a Methodist all her life, and helped organize the Methodist Church in Haskell county 62 years ago.

Mr. Dewees passed away in 1936.

Surviving the deceased are two daughters and one son. They are: Mrs. Cora Shugart of Littlefield, Dock H. Dewees of Littlefield and Mrs. Myrtle Morris of Tucson, Ariz.

She was also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Cliff of Wills Point, Texas.

Missionary Baptist To Improve Church

The congregation of the Littlefield Missionary Baptist Church, XIX Drive and Eighth Sts., voted Sunday morning to redecorate the interior and exterior of the church and to start a fund for the purchasing of new pews for the auditorium.

Rev. Weldon B. Meers, pastor of the church, stated that work on the interior was expected to begin in the near future.

Work Starts On Church of Christ New Building

Work was begun Tuesday on the complete rebuilding of the Church of Christ edifice on LFD Drive.

Although some of the material will be utilized and some parts of the present church structure retained in the rebuilding, the completed structure will give the congregation virtually an entirely new place of worship, H. A. Colard, minister, said Wednesday.

The new edifice will provide a much larger auditorium with a seating capacity of about 700—approximately a 50 per cent increase. Seven additional classrooms will be added to bring the total to 16, Mr. Colard said.

The exterior of the new structure will be of buff brick with white asphalt tile roofing.

Estimated cost of the new church is $35,000. Allen Smith of Sudan is the contractor.

Community Chest Campaign Passes Half-Way Mark

The Littlefield Community Chest campaign had passed the half-way mark at noon Wednesday to its goal of $11,000, Clarence Lewis, treasurer, reported. The total Wednesday was $5,506.45.

The campaign will be continued with increased effort in order to reach the goal as quickly as possible, he said.

From now on it will be a difficult task and everyone who is approached must give all they possibly can if the goal is to be reached, Mr. Lewis warned.

If anyone is missed by solicitors he is urged to call Mr. Lewis at White Auto Store and a solicitor will call on him.

Night School Classes Are Planned For Migrants

Littlefield Supt. of Schools Joe Hutchinson said Wednesday an announcement in Dallas by William J. Rogers, regional director of the wage and hour division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, that a second session of school each day would be acceptable "if held during the normal school day, roughly between 7 a. m. and 5 p. m.," would cause no change in plans for evening classes in the Littlefield schools starting at 5 o'clock.

"We intend to continue with our plan for evening classes, starting next Monday, until we are notified officially that they do not meet the requirements of the department," Mr. Hutchinson said.

Starting next Monday, a night school will be operated in Littlefield for the benefit of migrant workers under 16, it was announced by Supt. of Schools Joe Hutchinson.

The announcement followed a special meeting of the Littlefield board of education in which the entire schools-farm labor problem was surveyed.

The plan for the establishment of night classes emerged at the only solution to the problem of providing educational facilities for the migratory students in this district.

Schools Now Over-Taxed
Already taxed to their capacity, the Littlefield schools can not accommodate the migratory students in the day time. Mr. Hutchinson

"Every classroom is filled to capacity—even in temporary buildings, and we do not have the time to construct additional facilities," he said.

In the emergency, the board decided the best solution to the problem was to make the school facilities available at night and to provide teachers for the migratory students in the special classes.

Classes 5 to 7
The night classes will be from 5 to 9 p. m. at Central school, the superintendent said.

He said he would have no means of estimating the number of children of migratory farm worker families would attend the 5 to 9 special classes.

LAMB RED CROSS CHAPTER ASKED TO FURNISH 25 CHRISTMAS PACKAGES

Mrs. L. M. Brandon, executive secretary of the American Red Cross, received a letter Friday from Headquarters at St. Louis, asking the Lamb County Chapter to furnish 25 Christmas packages for service men on the high seas at Christmas time.

These packages will cost approximately $2.50 each, and Mrs. Brandon is suggesting that some club or clubs volunteer to finance this project.

She will appreciate very much hearing from clubs willing to assist in the fulfilling this Red Cross request.

Bigger Tubing Being Installed at Hobgood No. 1

New two and a half inch tubing was being substituted Wednesday for the 2-inch tubing first placed in the Humble Oil & Refinery Co. No. 1 Hobgood discovery well east of Littlefield in Hockley county.

The appearance of a portable rig at the well gave rise to reports a derrick was under construction on the site of the projected offset well a short distance west of the discovery.

However, nothing yet has been done on the offset except the selection of the site and so far as could be learned no drilling contract yet has been signed.

The new larger tubing is being installed to permit the pumping of a larger volume of fluid from the well, which has been yielding about 75 barrels of fluid a day, of which about 60 per cent is oil.

New 1200-Line Board Put in Telephone Use

The Littlefield district now is being served by the new 1200-line board installed by the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co. in its remodeled home at the corner of Fourth street and XIT drive.

The switchover to the new board was made Wednesday night. It is double the capacity of the board supplanted.

G. D. Shelley, district manager, said Wednesday afternoon that persons who had been waiting for telephone service will get their telephones within a few days now.

Future applications for telephone service will be filled with out delay, he said.

The new telephone directories for Littlefield and other nearby communities were scheduled to go into the mail this afternoon, Mr. Shelley said.

The telephone company plans to hold an open house as soon as the work at the new building is completed, Mr. Shelley said.

The date for the open house will be announced later.

Lions Club Talks Minstrel Show

About 40 members and four guests were present Wednesday noon at the regular meeting of the Littlefield Lions club. President Douglas Howell presided.

The scene of the luncheon this week was shifted from the American Legion building to the Starr Driveway.

The idea of staging a minstrel show some time later this fall was the principal topic of discussion but no action on the proposal was taken at the Wednesday meeting.

According to Mr. Reese there was the largest attendance of formulators and manufacturers of veterinary and insecticide products ever to gather in such a meeting.

Dr. Johnston of Texas A. & M. and Dr. Ratliff of Kerrville experimental station were among those who attended the gathering.

The Olton Mustangs will be hosts to the Whiteface Antelopes at the Homecoming. The game will start at 7 o'clock.

The queen is to be selected from five girls who entered the finals in the queen contest. No announcement of the queen's identity was to be made before the game.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following contribution, from J. Risor Camryn of Seattle, Wash., is addressed to the conductor of this column. It refers to a picture of a sleigh similar to a "cutter" which was passed off as a picture of a bobsled in illustration of an item from Mrs. James Montgomery of Blackwell, Okla., recalling when folks would hitch old Dobbin to a bobsled to go to a neighbor's for the evening. Mr. Camryn's item is properly illustrated (we hope).

From J. Risor Camryn of Seattle, Wash.: Your artist should be coached on his drawings by some real old-timer like me, Mr. Old Timer! His sleigh is not a bobsled. If the shafts were placed differently (attached to the body, not the runners, and offset), it would be what was called a "cutter." The cutter with its offset runners allowed the runners to slide in fresh snow not cut up by wheeled vehicles. Bobsleds were fundamentally a regular farm wagon with four short runners made to fit the axles instead the wheels. The wagon boxes, filled with straw and young folks, off for a ride in the moonlit and snow-plated countryside, all made an institution. It was the forerunner of today's hay ride parties. Incidentally, your artist has the sleighbells around the horse's mid-section. They usually were around the horse's neck, where they got more shaking up.

Monday and see how many appear," he said.

The same general plan for night classes was incorporated in action taken Monday night by the Olton school board.

Same Plan Elsewhere
There also, special night classes will be operated for migratory students. The classes, from 5 to 9 p. m., opened there Wednesday.
The same plan now is in operation in the Snyder, Roby, Rotan and Roscoe districts. According to officials of the state board of education, the plan meets requirements of the law.

In Spade and art Camp schools will close at noon in order that students may aid in the cotton harvest in the afternoons, and in Fieldton and Springlake the schools will be vacationed the entire day for a period of two weeks or more, depending on the harvest progress.

No special arrangements to meet the problem have been taken as yet in Amherst and Sudan districts.

Planning Home Grounds

The best time for planting shrubs and trees isn't far away and plenty of planning should be done beforehand. Adequate planning, says Sadie Hatfield, specialist in homestead improvement for the Texas A. and M. College extension service, will enable the home owners to derive the most from the plans made. Comfort, convenience and beauty are the three things to work for when the home grounds planting is done.

Now is a good time to plan for the shade trees that are needed around the home and farmstead. Perhaps a tree is needed to shade the west porch from the hot summer sun or maybe on the east side is needed for the morning shade. Make a note, says Miss Hatfield, of the places where trees are needed or better drive a stake into the ground at each place. The stakes will serve as reminders and also as guides when the actual planting is done this winter.

Miss Hatfield suggests visits to the home of families who have well-planned home grounds. She says such visits will materially aid the families that are searching for information on landscaping and suggest that county extension agents can furnish the names of families that have conducted homestead improvement demonstrations.

When homestead improvement plans are made, the owner should remember that the home grounds naturally fall into three divisions: the public area, which is the front lawn; the service area, where necessary conveniences such as clothesline and the garbage can are located and the private area, which is commonly referred to as the outdoor living room. The proper arrangement of the three areas, adds Miss Hatfield, generally improves the convenience and comfort of the home as well as the appearance.

In conclusion Miss Hatfield says that unless the landscaping plans designed for your particular homestead improve its comfort, convenience and beauty, the plans need revision.

Safety Better---

The Texas Safety Council, in cooperation with the State highway patrol and other agencies, is sponsoring the establishment of drivers training programs in many of the high schools in the state.

These students are taught proper driver habits at the outset, before they have developed driver habits that are dangerous both to themselves and other motorists.

Such a program applied on a state-wide scale should in time reduce substantially the tragic confusion that makes death traps of our streets and highways.

The establishment of the driver training courses has been an outgrowth of the widespread criticism of reckless teen-age drivers.

The problem of the teen age driver is indeed extremely serious and has been the subject of much discussion in safety circles, in the schools and in the press.

But perhaps the real answer, as does the answer to so many other questions relating to juveniles, lies in the home.

It is up to the parents to spend a little more time training their children to be careful, to be good citizens both behind the wheel of a motor car and elsewhere even if it means a curtailment of their own pleasures and social activities.

The parents owe this much to society and the community in which they live.

And the parents should bear in mind no child should be expected to drive more carefully than mother and dad.

The motor car death rate is appalling. Exercise of proper driving care both by teen-agers and adults would save many lives.

And remember, the life that is saved may be your own!

No Sales Tax Wanted

Senator Johnson of Colorado has warned the nation to be prepared for higher taxes.

The Coloradoan says when Congress meets again this fall the passage of an excess profits tax bill and the imposition of higher corporation and individual income taxes is a virtual certainty.

That is to be expected. A war is a costly proposition and the costs of rearming Europe against Red aggression are tremendous. The bills must be paid some way and increased taxation is the only answer.

The ominous note in Senator Johnson's statement was the suggestion Congress might consider the enactment of a general sales tax.

This is something that should be avoided at all costs.

A sales tax hits hardest those in the lowest income field. A sales tax would mean depriving a great many people of the actual necessities of life.

A man who can pay $100 for a suit of clothes wouldn't be hurt much by paying $1 additional in the form of a sales tax.

But the family man of low income, who must count his nickels before going to the grocery store to buy his family food would be dealt a tragic blow.

Texas long has recognized this fact and has refused to levy such a tax.

The government now is spending millions of dollars providing necessary food through schools and other agencies for undernourished children.

It should do nothing to add to the number of children receiving insufficient food. That's what the sales tax would do.

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER WANTS GOVERNMENT - TRAINED GERMS TO FIGHT OFF ALL HIS CROP PESTS

Dear editor:

I was out here yesterday watching autumn unfold, this is the time of the year when a man's energies are supposed to start surging up and he's supposed to make the chips fly, but I learned long ago to enjoy the seasons with out being victimized by em, a thinkin man ought to be able to think in the fall the same as in the winter, and I was doing that yesterday when a copy of a newspaper floated down out of the air on a gust of wind, thought at first it was only leaves fallin but there's a difference if you know how to detect it and since it fell in arm's length of where I was sittin I picked it up and read where scientists are now showin some improvement. Accordin to this article, in between their main job of workin on something to destroy more and more humans scientists are now workin on the idea of spreading diseases among crop pests and sittin back and lettin them do the work.

This is what I call progress. For years people have been goin on the assumption man was made to fight insects, and it was all a farmer could do to fight off the pests as fast as scientists discovered new ones. But out in California scientists are sprayin fields with disease germs which go to work on crop pests, and I'm here to tell you they're gettin on the right track. What agriculture needs is a whole series of germs designed to attack all the pests which have been botherin farmers for years.

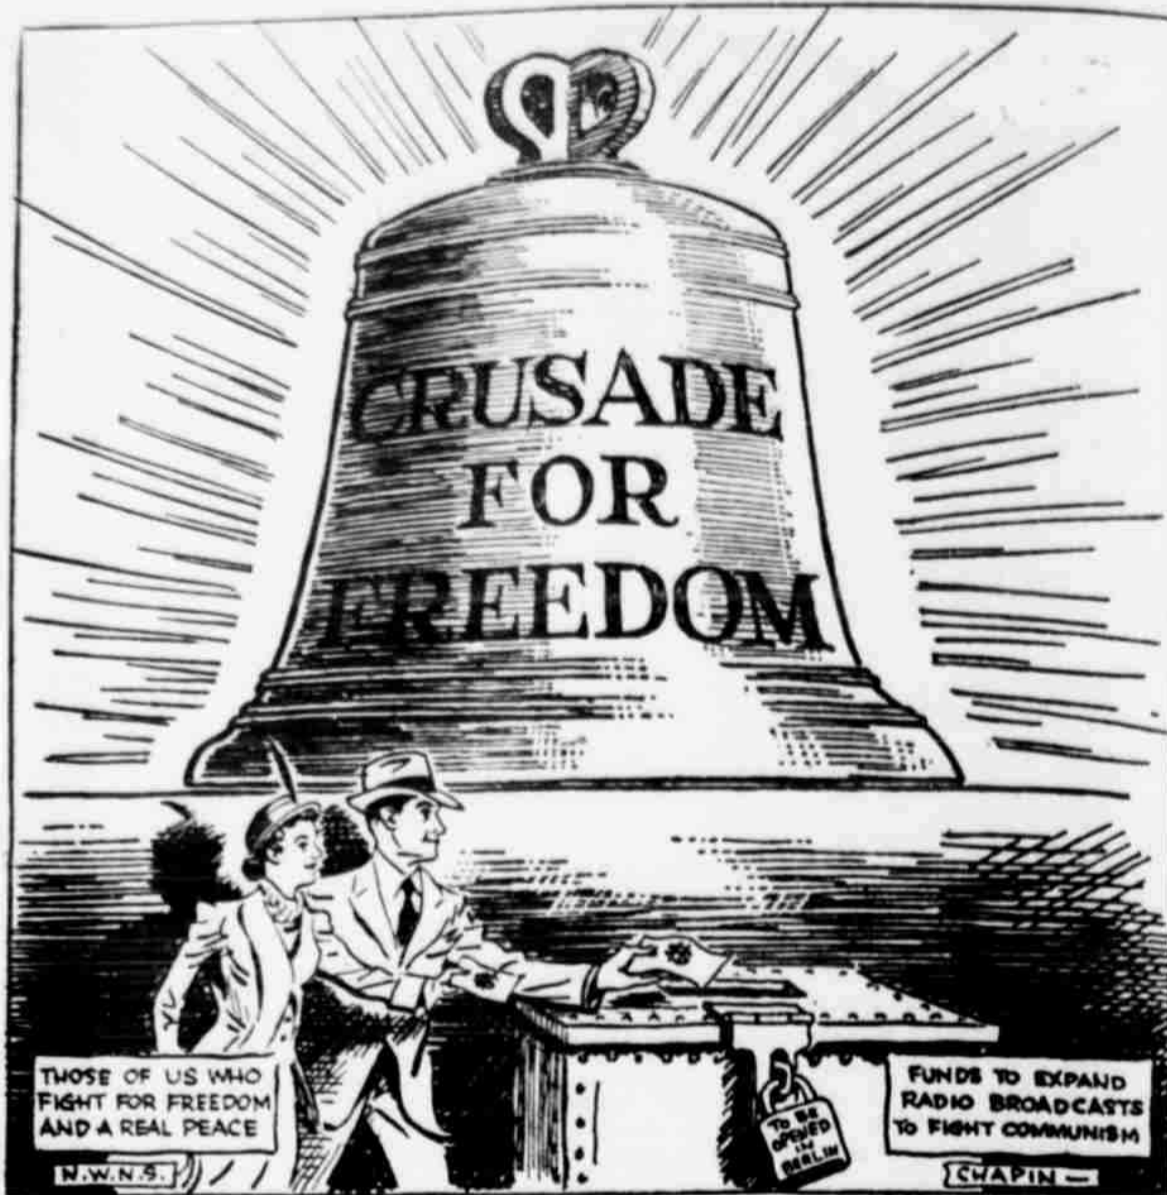

As the thing progresses, I think some method ought to be worked out where the germs will spread themselves over a crop, might as well be spreadin poison like we do now as germs if I have to do the work, and all a farmer would have to do would be to write to Washington for a package of say trained the boll worm germs, corn borer germs or anti-smut germs, etc., and open the package when it arrived and let em go to work. Be the finest thing that ever happened to farmin, outside of government checks.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Bixby, the Elephant

BY FAITH HELEN FAUST

Bixby was a great, great big elephant. He was six years old. Most of Bixby's life had been spent carrying logs in a forest.

Bixby wanted to do something else. He was positive he could do something exciting. Perhaps carrying a princess on his back.

Bixby decided to run away. He stayed in the forest for three days. He went to a zoo. But he didn't like it. He tried to pull a wagon, but the wagon was too small. Then Bixby found what he wanted.

It was a circus. He would carry children around on his back. That wasn't like carrying a princess but almost like it. He stayed there for awhile. Then his back began to get sore. It grew worse from day to day. Still they made him carry children around.

Finally Bixby grew mean. The circus people sold him to a zoo. Bixby wished he was back in the forest. It was much better than a sore back or living in such a small cage.

Bixby had to stay in the cage. He hated the cage. One day they led Bixby out for a little air.

Bixby suddenly broke away and ran as fast as he could to the forest. He hunted and hunted and finally found the place where he had first worked. The men were very glad to see him. Bixby is still working with them for he now thinks no other job could be better than carrying logs in the forest.

Sings at Concerts Given By Lubbock Symphony Orchestra

Charles Signor, formerly of Littlefield, but now of Plainview, sang solos and was accompanied by a chorus of 22 voices, directed by Richard Richards at concerts given Monday and Tuesday nights by Lubbock Symphony Orchestra at the Lubbock Senior High School auditorium.

Song hits from five Rodgers and Hammerstein II musical stage shows made up the program for the opening concert of the 1950-51 season, held Monday night. A repeat concert was given Tuesday night.

Arrangements from the almost legendary musical plays, "Oklahoma," "State Fair," "Allegro," "South Pacific" and "Carousel," the same as played by the New York Philharmonic orchestra in its concluding summer stadium concerts were played.

The vocalists offered solos and duets of the alternately tender, witty and humorous lyrics of Oscar Hammerstein II, to which Richard Rodgers has composed fresh and vital music.

The program was made up of:
OKLAHOMA

Mission Day Observed By Emanuel Lutherans

Mission Day at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, held last Sunday, October 22, was eminently a success. Overflow crowds at both morning and afternoon services were inspired as they heard the guest speaker for the day, the Rev. H. R. Frerking of Wichita Falls, make clear that the world's salvation lies only and alone in Jesus and the churches which proclaim Him as Savior and Redeemer.

Near East Study Course Continued

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday at 4 o'clock in the parlor of the Methodist Church. The business meeting was presided over by Mrs. Cannon and plans were made for a Christmas party to be given next Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the parlor of the church. This party is so that the ladies can bring gifts to the needy Indians of New Mexico.

The lesson began with a devotional by Mrs. Nelson. Mrs. Beauchamp discussed the lesson bringing out the similarity of the various religions. Mrs. Bluhm discussed the progress of the Methodist Church in Peru.

Mrs. Fowler was hostess to the group.

Careful planning of space and equipment in the small home will allow the rooms to be used for more than one activity, yet will provide the space and privacy that every home needs.

Weeny Witch Halloween Party

Halloween is party time for youngsters. Plan now to amuse as well as feed them. Here are suggestions for effective table decorations and easy-to-serve menu.

"The Weeny Witch" is the centerpiece decoration for the party dish. It is made by cutting a brim and crown for a hat from stiff black paper. Costume is cut from black crepe paper, doubled for stiffness, and attached to the frankfurter so that the paper extends out in back and like a gown flying in the wind. The nose is made from a carrot tip; the eyes and teeth from cloves. Arms are pipe cleaners dyed black with shoe polish or ink. The broom is made from a pipe cleaner and strips of colored paper.

And now, to complete the party, serve this delicious all-American favorite meal:

- Weeny Witch Party Dinner Menu
Skinless frankfurters (grilled or steamed) with
Jack O'Lantern Carrots (tops of carrots, cloves for eyes and nose; slice of green pepper for mouth)
Potato Chips — Doughnuts — Hot Dog Buns
Olives — Mustard — Radishes
Orange Sherbet and Cake
Cider
